PREFACE

The Mississippi Code of 1972, which became effective on November 1, 1973, is the culmination of nearly four years of effort on the part of the Legislature, the Attorney General's office and the publishers, which brings together provisions of general statutory law having a common subject matter into a more orderly and logical framework of code titles and chapters, and employing a modern and effective section numbering system. A major by-product of the code revision will be the state-owned magnetic computer tape containing the Mississippi Code of 1972, which will be of invaluable assistance to the Legislature and to the state.

The enabling act for the code was a recommendation of the Mississippi State Bar, which resulted in the consideration and passage of Senate Bill 1964, Chapter 465, Laws of 1970, signed into law by Governor John Bell Williams.

The Code Committee provided for in that act was comprised of A. F. Summer, Attorney General, Heber Ladner, Secretary of State, Representative Edgar J. Stephens, Jr., Chairman, House Appropriations Committee, Senator William G. Burgin, Jr., Chairman, Senate Appropriations Committee, Representative H. L. Meredith, Jr., Chairman, House Judiciary "A" and Judiciary en banc Committees, Senator E. K. Collins, Chairman, Senate Judiciary "A" and Judiciary en banc Committees, Representative Ney McKinley Gore, Jr., Chairman, House Judiciary "B" Committee, and Senator William E. Alexander, Chairman, Senate Judiciary "B" Committee. In 1972, Representative Marby Robert Penton and Senator Herman B. Decell, Chairman of House and Senate Judiciary "B" Committees, respectively, became members of the Committee, replacing Representative Gore and Senator Collins, Senator Alexander having been appointed Chairman of Senate Judiciary "A" and Judiciary en banc Committees. The Deputy Attorney General, Delos H. Burks, served the Code Committee as Secretary. Special Assistant Attorney General Fred J. Lotterhos, under the supervision of the Attorney General, was assigned the principal responsibility for the supervision of the recodification, including the consideration and treatment of some 16,000 sections of code manuscript.

Final legislative approval was given to the Mississippi Code of 1972 by passage of Senate Bill 2034, Laws of 1972, which was signed by Governor William L. Waller on April 26, 1972. A copy of that act is set out in Volume 1, following the Publisher's Foreword.

The Code Committee is of the opinion that the recodification has been thoroughly and well accomplished, and will result in a greatly improved repository of the general statutory law of the state.

PUBLISHER'S FOREWORD

This 2007 Replacement Volume 6 of the Mississippi Code of 1972 Annotated represents material appearing in the original 1973 bound volume, the 1990 Replacement Volume 6, and the 2001 Replacement Volume 6, as well as reflecting amendments, repeals, and new Code provisions enacted by the Mississippi Legislature through the 2007 Regular and 1st Extraordinary Legislative Sessions.

This volume contains the text of Titles 21 and 23, of the Mississippi Code of 1972 Annotated, as amended through the 2007 Regular and 1st Extraordinary Legislative Sessions.

Case annotations are included based on decisions of the State and federal courts in cases arising in Mississippi. Many of these cases were decided under the former statutes in effect prior to the enactment of the Code of 1972. These earlier cases have been moved to pertinent sections of the Code where they may be useful in interpreting the current statutes. Annotations to collateral research references are also included.

To better serve our customers by making our annotations more current, LexisNexis has changed the sources that are read to create annotations for this publication. Rather than waiting for cases to appear in printed reporters, we now read court decisions as they are released by the courts. A consequence of this more current reading of cases, as they are posted online on LexisNexis, is that the most recent cases annotated may not yet have print reporter citations. These will be provided, as they become available, through later publications.

This publication contains annotations taken from decisions of the Mississippi Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals with decision dates up to June 7, 2007, and decisions of the appropriate federal courts with decision dates up to April 24, 2007. These cases will be printed in the following reporters:

- Southern Reporter, 2nd Series
- United States Supreme Court Reports
- Supreme Court Reporter
- United States Supreme Court Reports, Lawyers' Edition, 2nd Series
- Federal Reporter, 3rd Series
- Federal Supplement, 2nd Series
- Federal Rules Decisions
- Bankruptcy Reporter

Additionally, annotations have been taken from the following sources:

- American Law Reports, 6th Series:
- American Law Reports, Federal Series:
- Mississippi College Law Review:
- Mississippi Law Journal:

Finally, published Opinions of the Attorney General and opinions of the Ethics Commission have been examined for annotations.

ADVANCE CODE SERVICE

Three times a year, at roughly quarterly intervals between delivery of Code supplement pocket parts, we publish the Mississippi Advance Code Service pamphlets. These pamphlets contain updated statutory material and annotations to Attorney General opinions, research and practice references, and recent court decisions construing the Code. Each pamphlet is cumulative, so that each is a "one-stop" source of case notes updating those in your Code bound volumes and pocket parts.

ADVANCE SHEETS

The Advance Sheets consist of a series of pamphlets issued in the spring. The series reproduces the acts passed by the Mississippi Legislature and approved by the Governor during the legislative session. Features include tables showing the impact of legislation on sections of the Mississippi Code of 1972 Annotated, and a cumulative index. These pamphlets enable the user to receive a preview of approved legislation prior to supplement availability, and serve as an excellent source of legislative history.

AMENDMENT NOTES

Every time a Code provision is amended, we prepare a note describing the effect of the amendment. By reading the note, you can ascertain the impact of the change without having to check the former statute itself.

Amendment notes are retained in the Supplement until the bound volume is replaced, at which time notes from all but the last two years are deleted.

ANALYSES

Each title, chapter, and article appearing in a bound volume or supplement is preceded by an analysis. The analysis details the scope of the title, chapter, and article and enables you to see at a glance the content of the title, chapter, and article without resorting to a page-by-page examination in the bound volume or supplement.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Opinions of the Attorney General for the state of Mississippi have been read for constructions of Mississippi law. Notes describing the subject matter of the opinions have been placed under relevant Code provisions under the heading "Attorney General Opinions." The citation at the end of each note refers to the person requesting the opinion, the date of the opinion, and the opinion number.

CODE STATUS

The Mississippi Code of 1972 Annotated is Mississippi's official code and is considered evidence of the statute law of the State of Mississippi (see § 1-1-8). The Code was enacted by Chapter 394 of the Laws of 1972, which was signed by the Governor on April 26, 1972.

The text of Chapter 394 is printed in Volume 1, on the pages following the Publisher's Foreword. In addition, Title 1, Chapters 1 through 5 of the Code contain statutes governing the status and construction of the Code.

COMPARABLE LEGISLATION FROM OTHER STATES

Notes to comparable legislation from other states appear for uniform laws, interstate compacts, statutory provisions pertaining to reciprocity and cooperation with other states, and various important statutes of general interest. Other states' statutes that are similar in subject matter and scope to those of Mississippi are cited, generally, under the first section of the chapter or article to which they pertain. Occasionally, comparable legislation pertains to only one section, in which case it is cited under that section rather than at the chapter or article level.

USER'S GUIDE

See also Federal Aspects.

COURT RULES

The Mississippi Court Rules are published separately by LexisNexis in a fully annotated softcover volume which is replaced annually and supplemented semi-annually.

The Court Rules volume contains statewide rules of procedure of the state courts, the local rules of the United States district courts and bankruptcy courts for Mississippi, and the rules of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit. Rules are received from the courts and edited only for stylistic consistency. For further information, see the Preface to the Mississippi Court Rules volume.

CROSS REFERENCES

Cross references refer you to notes under other Code sections, that may affect a law or place it in context. Cross references also are used under repealed provisions to refer you to an existing law on a similar subject. Cross references do not cite all related statutes, however, since these can be identified by using the General Index.

See also Comparable Legislation from other States and Federal Aspects.

EDITOR'S NOTES

Editor's notes are notes prepared by the Publisher that contain information about important or unusual features of a law, or special circumstances surrounding passage of the law, that are not apparent from the law's text.

See also Effective Dates.

EFFECTIVE DATES

Absent a specific effective date provision within an act, Mississippi laws generally take effect upon approval date, which is the date the act is signed into law by the Governor. Acts affecting voting rights and procedures take effect on the date the United States Attorney General interposes no objection under § 5 of the Voting Right Act of 1965.

USER'S GUIDE

FEDERAL ASPECTS

Notes to federal legislation that is similar in subject matter and scope to the laws of Mississippi are referenced throughout the Code. In addition, the Code contains the United States Code Service citation for any federal law that is referred to in a Mississippi statute by its popular name or by its session law designation.

See also Comparable Legislation from other States.

INDEX

The Code is completely indexed in two softcover Index volumes, which are updated and replaced annually. In addition, each volume of the Code is followed by its own index. As accurate and thorough as the Index is, your best defense against index wild goose chases is familiarity with indexing techniques. To that end, an explanatory Foreword to the Index appears in the first Index volume.

JOINT LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE NOTES

Joint Legislative Committee notes are included in the Code to describe codification decisions made by the Mississippi Joint Legislative Committee on Compilation, Revision and Publication of Legislation. Examples of Committee actions that warrant the inclusion of a note are the integration of multiple amendments to a single Code section during the same legislative session, and the correction of typographical errors appearing in the Code.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

Every reported case from the Supreme Court of Mississippi, the Court of Appeals of Mississippi, federal district courts for Mississippi, the federal Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals and the United States Supreme Court has been read for constructions of Mississippi law. These constructions are noted under pertinent sections of the statutes or Mississippi Constitution provisions, under the heading "Judicial Decisions." Where a decision has been reviewed by a higher court, subsequent judicial history and disposition is noted in the case note if such disposition has any bearing on the annotated material. Where two or more decisions state the same rule of law, the case citations are cumulated under one case note.

Case notes are grouped together under headings called "catchlines." The catchlines identify the basic subject matter of the case notes and assist the user in locating pertinent notes. Catchlines are numbered and arranged thematically, with "In general" first. Where there are two or more catchlines, an analysis, listing all the catchlines, precedes the annotations.

Frequently, statutes carry notes to cases that arose under earlier laws on the same subject. Case notes are retained so long as the editor believes the note will have some relevance under current law, though of course the relevance may be diminished by later changes in the law. These case notes appear under the heading "Decisions under former law."

ORGANIZATION AND NUMBERING SYSTEM

The Code is organized by titles, chapters, articles, subarticles, undesignated centered headings and sections. Analyses at the beginning of each title, chapter, article, and subarticle help you understand the internal arrangement of each Code unit (see Analyses).

Odd numbers are generally used for the numbering of titles, chapters and sections. Even numbers have been used for some chapters and sections so that a particular new chapter or section might be logically placed with other chapters and sections dealing with the same or similar subject matter. Similarly, the use of numbers with decimal points has been used for some sections in order that they may be inserted among other sections pertaining to the same subject.

The title, chapter, and section for each Code section is revealed by its section number. Thus, in the designation "§ 1-3-65," the first digit ("1") means the provision is in Title 1 ("Laws and Statutes"); the second ("3") indicates Chapter 3 ("Construction of Statutes"); and the last two digits ("65") mean the 65th section in that chapter ("Construction of terms generally").

Articles and subarticles are not reflected by section number designations.

Within sections, subsections and paragraphs usually are designated following this pattern: (1)(a)(i)1. or (1)(a)(i)A. A distinctive indention scheme is applied to suggest the relative value of each unit within this hierarchy.

PLACEMENT OF NOTES

Where a note pertains to a single statute section, it will of course be set out following that section. In many instances, however, a note applies equally to several statute section or to an entire chapter or article. If the pertinent sections are scattered, or few in number, the note will be duplicated for each section. But where the note applies to all or most of the sections in a chapter or article, we prevent the space-consuming repetition of notes by placing the note at the very beginning of the chapter or article. Look for these unit-wide notes between the title, chapter, or article analysis and the first section in that unit.

REPLACEMENT VOLUMES

The Code is periodically updated and streamlined by the replacement of volumes. Although a current set of the Code contains all currently applicable statutes, we encourage you to retain replaced volumes and their supplement pockets parts for historical reference.

USER'S GUIDE

RESEARCH AND PRACTICE REFERENCES

Citations to references in American Jurisprudence, American Jurisprudence Pleading and Practice, American Jurisprudence Proof of Facts, American Jurisprudence Trials, American Law Reports, First through Sixth Series, ALR Federal, Corpus Juris Secundum, various other treatises and practice guides, and Mississippi law journals are given under this heading, wherever the references appear to discuss the statute under which the citation appears, or a topic related to the statute. These citations are intended only to give you a starting point for your library research. The Mississippi law journals include Mississippi Law Journal and Mississippi College Law Review.

SOURCE NOTES

Each section of the Code is followed by a brief note showing the acts of the legislature on which it is based, including the act that originally enacted the section and any subsequent amendments.

The source note follows the section text, preceding any other annotations for the section. Information in the source note is listed in chronological order, with the most recent information listed last. If a section has been renumbered, the former number will appear in the source note. References to comparable provisions in statutes also are listed.

The tables volume should also be consulted when researching the history of a statutory section, since it contains cross reference tables that provide a statutory citation for each section of the session laws and the date each act went into effect.

STATUTE HEADINGS

Headings or “catchlines” for Code sections and subsections are generally created and maintained by the publisher. They are mere catchwords and are not to be deemed or taken as the official title of a section or as a part of the section. Your suggestions for the improvement of particular catchlines are invited.

TABLES

The Mississippi Code of 1972 Annotated contains several tables that can assist you in your research. These are published in the Statutory Tables volume of the Code, and include the following:

- Sections of the Code of 1930 carried into the Code of 1942.
- Sections of the Code of 1942 carried into the Code of 1972.
- Allocation of Acts of Legislature, 1931 — 1972.
- Allocation of Acts of Legislature, 1972 — present.
- Consolidated Tables of amendments and repeals of 1942 Code sections.
- Consolidated Tables of amendments and repeals of 1972 Code sections.

§ 21-1-1. Classification of municipalities.

The municipal corporations existing in this state are divided into three classes, to wit: cities, towns and villages. Those having two thousand inhabitants or more shall be classed as cities; those having less than two thousand and not less than three hundred inhabitants shall be classed as towns; and those having less than three hundred and not less than one hundred inhabitants shall be classed as villages. No municipal corporation shall be created hereafter except those classed as cities or towns. However, a municipality may be created in an area embracing not less than one square mile wherein there is then in existence or under construction not less than one mile of improved hard surface streets, with a total of not less than six streets making up said one mile of hard surface streets and there then exists or is under construction a public utilities system which shall include a waterworks system or sewerage system, or both. Nothing herein shall affect the status of any municipal corporation heretofore created and now existing, and all such municipal corporations, including villages, shall continue to exist as such with all the rights and privileges thereof.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
- 2.-5. [Reserved for future use.]
6. Under former law.

1. In general.

The chancellor cannot pass upon question of public convenience and necessity of enlargement of municipality, inasmuch as that is a legislative question for municipal board in adopting the extension ordinance. Ritchie v. City of Brookhaven, 217 Miss. 876, 65 So. 2d 832 (1953).

Where a petition for adoption of city ordinance seeking enlargement of municipal boundaries literally complied with the statute, it was not necessary to allege in the petition that the ordinance was published as required by law. Ritchie v. City of Brookhaven, 217 Miss. 876, 65 So. 2d 832 (1953).

Question of reasonableness of enlargement of municipality is a judicial question and determination is a proper exercise of judicial function. Ritchie v. City of Brookhaven, 217 Miss. 876, 65 So. 2d 832 (1953).

City ordinance which sets forth the improvements to be made in the annexed territory, describing them in general terms, and providing that they would be made when necessary and economically feasible, sufficiently complied with statutory requirement that ordinance shall in general terms describe improvements to be made in manner and extent thereof. Ritchie v. City of Brookhaven, 217 Miss. 876, 65 So. 2d 832 (1953).

2.-5. [Reserved for future use.]6. Under former law.

A Mississippi municipality acting under the commission form of government has all the powers possessed by other municipalities, except as otherwise provided by statute. Independent Paving Co. v. City of Bay St. Louis, 74 F.2d 961 (5th Cir. 1935).

Where a municipality comes under the operation of this chapter, all of its powers under its original charter cease except such as are kept alive by the provisions of this chapter. Harris v. City of Water Valley, 78 Miss. 659, 29 So. 401 (1901).

The manifest purpose of this chapter was that all municipalities should come under it and thus have uniformity in the charter powers of municipalities according to their several classes, but the right of election was given the municipalities then existing not to come under the provisions of the chapter by resolution of corporate authority to be certified to the secretary of state. Resolution without certification as directed is insufficient. State v. Govan, 70 Miss. 535, 12 So. 959 (1893).

When a statute primarily refers to matters foreign to the ordinary functions of public corporations and imposes burdens or liabilities on persons without any corresponding benefits, the word "persons" will not be held to embrace municipal corporations exercising a part of the state's sovereignty. Dollman v. Moore, 70 Miss. 267, 12 So. 23 (1892).

Where a municipality against which as garnishee, a decree has been rendered in an attachment suit against a non-resident, fails to object to the garnishment, the objection not being jurisdictional cannot be made by the defendant in attachment on appeal. Dollman v. Moore, 70 Miss. 267, 12 So. 23 (1892).

§ 21-1-3. Change of classification according to federal census.

Whenever a census taken under an act of Congress shall show that the population of a city, town or village has increased or diminished so as to take or place such city, town or village out of the class to which it theretofore has belonged, the governing authorities of the municipality shall enter an order on the minutes thereof reciting such fact and adjudging the proper class of such municipality according to such census, and shall forward a certified copy of such order to the secretary of state, who shall file same with the other records pertaining to such municipality and keep same as a permanent record. Thereafter, such municipality shall be classed according to the population shown by such census, and such census shall be conclusive on the question of such classification.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

A municipal corporation cannot enjoin the use of its name for designating another place and the inconveniences resulting to its citizens therefrom do not give it a right to complain. Gulf & S.I.R.R. v. Town of Seminary, 81 Miss. 237, 32 So. 953 (1902).

§ 21-1-7. Changing corporate name.

The mayor and board of aldermen or municipal authorities may change the name of any municipality by preparing in writing the proposed change and having same published for three weeks in a newspaper published in such municipality, if there be one, and, if none, then by posting for said time in at least three public places therein, after which the proposed change shall be submitted to the governor for his approval. If, after publication is made, one-tenth of the qualified electors of the municipality shall within ten days after the completion of such publication protest against the proposed change, the governor shall not approve same until it shall be submitted to and ratified by a majority of the qualified electors of the municipality. When approved by the governor, the same shall be recorded in the office of the secretary of state and upon the record of the municipal governing authorities.

The provisions of §§ 9-5-131, 9-7-121, 19-3-5, 19-4-9, 21-1-7, 21-17-5(1), and 27-1-13, only mandate the use of tax assessment rolls and the avails to be collected from levies thereon in calculating the amount of the bonds therein required. Bryant, January 29, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0011.

The calculation of a bond pursuant to §§ 9-5-131, 9-7-121, 19-3-5, 19-4-9, 21-1-7, 21-17-5(1), and 27-1-13, includes all assessment rolls upon which a board of supervisors may levy ad valorem taxes. Bryant, January 29, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0011.

The calculation pursuant to §§ 9-5-131, 9-7-121, 19-3-5, 19-4-9, 21-1-7, 21-17-5(1), and 27-1-13, includes all ad valorem tax levies listed on the certified levy sheet, including school district levies. Bryant, January 29, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0011.

The calculation pursuant to §§ 9-5-131, 9-7-121, 19-3-5, 19-4-9, 21-1-7, 21-17-5(1), and 27-1-13, includes all classes of property upon which ad valorem taxes are levied and collected. Bryant, January 29, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0011.

In calculating the amount of a bond pursuant to §§ 9-5-131, 9-7-121, 19-3-5, 19-4-9, 21-1-7, 21-17-5(1), and 27-1-13, the total amount of ad valorem taxes to be collected, rather than the actual amount collected, must be used. Bryant, January 29, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0011.

§ 21-1-9. Designation of municipalities.

All municipalities operating under Chapter 99, Mississippi Code of 1906, and all municipalities operating under Title 21, Chapter 3, Mississippi Code of 1972, shall be designated as having "Code Charters." All municipalities operating under Title 21, Chapter 5, Mississippi Code of 1972, shall be designated as having "Commission Form of Government." All municipalities operating under Title 21, Chapter 7, Mississippi Code of 1972, shall be designated as having "Council Form of Government." All municipalities operating under Title 21, Chapter 9, Mississippi Code of 1972, shall be designated as having “Council-Manager Form of Government.” All other municipalities shall be designated as having “Private Charters,” or such other form of government as may be created by the legislature, such cities to be designated by the act creating such special form of government.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

City was authorized under statutory law to operate under a special charter, and, thus, the mayor was not authorized to vote regarding the city council's appointment of a particular person as a city attorney; the city attorney was not a municipal officer under the city's special charter and the mayor was thus only authorized to vote on such an issue if the city council had a tie vote, which did not occur since the city council voted in favor of the person's appointment. Tisdale v. City Council of Aberdeen, 856 So. 2d 323 (Miss. 2003).

The municipal charter should be so construed as to carry out the legislative intent, and effect if possible must be given to every part thereof. City of Greenville v. Laurent, 75 Miss. 456, 23 So. 185 (1898).

§ 21-1-13. Preparing and filing of petition.

Whenever the inhabitants of any unincorporated territory shall desire to incorporate such territory as a city or town, they shall prepare a petition and file same in the chancery court of the county in which such territory is located or, if the territory is located in more than one county, the chancery court of either county. Said petition shall meet the following requirements:

(1) it shall describe accurately the metes and bounds of the territory proposed to be incorporated and there shall be attached to such petition a map or plat of the boundaries of the proposed municipality;

(2) it shall set forth the corporate name which is desired;

(3) it shall be signed by at least two-thirds of the qualified electors residing in the territory proposed to be incorporated;

(4) it shall set forth the number of inhabitants of such territory;

(5) it shall set forth the assessed valuation of the real property in such territory according to the latest available assessments thereof;

(6) it shall state the aims of the petitioners in seeking said incorporation, and shall set forth the municipal and public services which said municipal corporation proposes to render and the reasons why the public convenience and necessity would be served by the creation of such municipal corporation;

(7) it shall contain a statement of the names of the persons the petitioners desire appointed as officers of such municipality; and

(8) it shall be sworn to by one or more of the petitioners.

When such a petition shall be filed, it shall be docketed as are other suits and causes in the chancery courts of this state.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
2. Sufficiency of petition.
3. Sufficiency of signatures.

1. In general.

Section 21-1-33, rather than § 21-1-13, is a controlling statute where a petition is filed to confirm the annexation of territory to a municipality. McElhaney v. City of Horn Lake, 501 So. 2d 401 (Miss. 1987).

Some factors to be considered in determining whether public convenience and necessity require incorporation are: the governmental services presently provided; the quality and adequacy of all services provided; the services expected from other sources; the impairment of an immediate vested right in an adjoining city; the substantial or obvious need justifying incorporation. City of Pascagoula v. Scheffler, 487 So. 2d 196 (Miss. 1986).

The determination as to whether the incorporation of a new municipality is reasonable is for the trial court. City of Pascagoula v. Scheffler, 487 So. 2d 196 (Miss. 1986).

The requirements for a petition to incorporate are not necessarily the same as the requirements for an ordinance extending the boundaries of an existing municipality, the legislature having dealt with the two situations in separate statutes. Boling v. City of Jackson, 258 So. 2d 443 (Miss. 1972).

2. Sufficiency of petition.

Petitioners for incorporation were in substantial compliance in showing the assessed valuation of real property in the area sought to be incorporated, and contradiction between the pleading, showing an assessment of $17,755,488, and the proof, showing $13,362,275 assessed valuation, was decided by the chancellor who was not in manifest error. City of Pascagoula v. Scheffler, 487 So. 2d 196 (Miss. 1986).

Mississippi Code § 21-9-15(2) was inapplicable to render defective a petition seeking to establish in Jackson County a new municipality, with a form of government consisting of a mayor and five council members. City of Pascagoula v. Scheffler, 487 So. 2d 196 (Miss. 1986).

Petitioners for municipal incorporation have burden of proving the sufficiency of their petition. Boling v. City of Jackson, 279 So. 2d 590 (Miss. 1973); City of Pascagoula v. Scheffler, 487 So. 2d 196 (Miss. 1986).

A petition for incorporation which stated, inter alia, that such incorporation would permit the providing of fire and police protection, that the proposed municipal corporation would enact ordinances to correct health problems created by inferior sewer systems, that other ordinances would be enacted relating to electrical standards, plumbing standards, and building code standards, and that improved sanitation and garbage disposal within the incorporated territory would be provided, fully met the requirement of the statute that the petition set forth the municipal and public services which the municipal corporation proposed to render. Boling v. City of Jackson, 258 So. 2d 443 (Miss. 1972).

A petition by qualified electors for incorporation of a new municipality failed to comply with the requirements of the statute and would be dismissed where it consisted of a so-called extended petition containing the required allegations, and numerous so-called short petitions which the extended petition undertook to incorporate and which, while they contained the signatures of an alleged two-thirds of the territory's qualified electors, failed to comply with other statutory requirements such as setting forth the number of inhabitants of the territory, stating with reasonable definiteness the petitioners' aims in seeking incorporation, and describing the territory to be incorporated in metes and bounds. City of Jackson v. Boling, 241 So. 2d 359 (Miss. 1970).

3. Sufficiency of signatures.

In determining the number of qualified electors in area sought to be incorporated to ascertain that requisite percentage thereof have signed petition, resort to registration and poll books is permissible but, since these records require updating to reflect changes, resort to other sources to supplement them is not impermissible. City of Pascagoula v. Scheffler, 487 So. 2d 196 (Miss. 1986).

In determining whether two thirds of the qualified electors were in favor of a proposed incorporation, the chancellor should have considered the fact that a number of the signers of the original petition had asked to have their names withdrawn; one can withdraw from a petition at any time prior to the determination of the hearing. Myrick v. Incorporation of a Designated Area into Mun. Corp. to be Named Stringer, 336 So. 2d 209 (Miss. 1976).

In seeking the incorporation as a municipality of an unincorporated area, it is essential under subdivision (3) that the petition be signed by at least two-thirds of the qualified electors residing in the territory proposed to be incorporated, and where the original petition contains less than the required number of petitioners, this defect cannot be remedied by amendments thereafter filed including the names of additional petitioners. Bridges v. City of Biloxi, 250 Miss. 717, 168 So. 2d 40 (1964).

The testimony of an attorney for the respondent that he had investigated all of the pertinent records necessary to determine whether the required number of qualified electors as provided in subdivision (3) of this section [Code 1942, § 3374-03] had signed a petition for the incorporation of a theretofore unincorporated area was admissible, where the records themselves were available to opposing counsel and the attorney was also available for cross-examination. Bridges v. City of Biloxi, 250 Miss. 717, 168 So. 2d 40 (1964).

§ 21-1-15. Publication of notice of proposed incorporation.

After the filing of said petition, and upon request therefor by the petitioners, the chancellor shall set a day certain, either in term time or in vacation, for the hearing of such petition and notice shall be given to all persons interested in, affected by, or having objections to the proposed incorporation, that the hearing on the petition will be held on the day fixed by the chancellor and that all such persons will have the right to appear and enter their objections, if any, to the proposed incorporation. The said notice shall be given by publication thereof in some newspaper published or having a general circulation in the territory proposed to be incorporated once each week for three consecutive weeks, and by posting a copy of such notice in three or more public places in such territory. The first publication of such notice and the posted notice shall be made at least thirty days prior to the day fixed for the hearing of said petition, and such notice shall contain a full description of the territory proposed to be incorporated. However, if any of the territory proposed to be incorporated is located within three miles of the boundaries of an existing municipality, then such existing municipality shall be made a party defendant to such petition and shall be served with process in the manner provided by law, which process shall be served at least thirty days prior to the date set for the hearing.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Objectors to the annexation contended that the city failed to prove that adequate notice was given. However, in the affidavit filed by the city, the affiant specifically stated the exact locations and dates of his postings of notice of the hearings in his affidavit as required by Miss. R. Civ. P. 4(f) and Miss. Code Ann. § 21-1-15 and Miss. Code Ann. § 21-1-31; the chancellor did not commit manifest error by allowing the detailed affidavit to constitute adequate proof of notice. Weeks v. City of Clinton (In re City of Clinton), 920 So. 2d 452 (Miss. 2006).

Town's late filing of proof of publication of hearing into proposed annexation was not fatal to chancery court's approval of annexation. Burch v. Town of Mantachi, 685 So. 2d 724 (Miss. 1996).

Since notice to a nearby existing municipality is statutorily required before incorporation, and statute further provides that all persons interested in, affected by, or objecting to an incorporation, shall be noticed, city of Pascagoula was a "person" entitled to object to all facets of a hearing to incorporate a nearby unincorporated area. City of Pascagoula v. Scheffler, 487 So. 2d 196 (Miss. 1986).

Proper notice was not posted in the territory annexed, as required by § 21-1-15, where notice was posted only within the already existing corporate boundaries of the municipality that initiated the annexation process, and not within the territory sought to be annexed, notwithstanding assertions that notice was posted in three public places within the existing municipality, and that there were no public places located within the territory to be annexed other than a public school, which was in vacation when the notices were posted. Wiley v. Corporate Boundaries, 441 So. 2d 116 (Miss. 1983).

In an action to confirm a city's proposed annexation of territory, the returns of the deputy sheriff who posted the notices thereof were sufficient to comply with the statute regarding proof of posting of notice, even though there was no affidavit attesting to the posting. Nowlin v. City of Pearl, 365 So. 2d 952 (Miss. 1978), cert. denied, 441 U.S. 946, 99 S. Ct. 2167, 60 L. Ed. 2d 1049 (1979).

Notice requirements of this statute, being in lieu of personal service and thus necessitating strict compliance, were not shown to have been met where there was no affidavit or attempted other proof that notices had been posted, and provisions of § 13-1-145 [Repealed] that, when posting of notice is required, such may be proved by affidavit, was thus not satisfied; since notice requirements of § 21-1-15 are mandatory and jurisdictional, failure to comply required dismissal of petition for incorporation. Myrick v. Incorporation of a Designated Area into Mun. Corp. to be Named Stringer, 336 So. 2d 209 (Miss. 1976).

Where the statutes providing for a hearing on a petition to create a municipal corporation, and to objections to such petition, extend the right to objectors to personally appear at the hearing on the merits and to present their objections orally, the published notice of the hearing could not limit such right. Boling v. City of Jackson, 258 So. 2d 443 (Miss. 1972).

§ 21-1-17. Hearing on petition; decree.

At the time fixed, the chancellor shall proceed to hear all evidence offered in support of said petition, together with all objections, if any, that may be presented touching or bearing upon the question of whether or not the proposed incorporation is reasonable and is required by the public convenience and necessity. The chancellor shall have the power, however, to grant such reasonable continuances as justice may require. If the chancellor finds from the evidence that the proposed incorporation is reasonable and is required by the public convenience and necessity, then he shall enter a decree declaring such municipal corporation to be created as requested in such petition, which decree shall give an accurate description of the territory included in such municipal corporation, shall classify such municipal corporation according to law, and shall set forth the names of the persons which the petitioners desire as officers of such municipality. The chancellor shall have the power, however, in granting any such incorporation to grant same in whole or in part by modifying or decreasing the territory to be included within such municipal corporation. If the chancellor finds from the evidence that the proposed incorporation is not reasonable and is not required by the public necessity and convenience, then a decree shall be entered denying such incorporation. Whenever any municipal corporation shall be created as herein provided, a map or plat of the boundaries of such municipal corporation shall be filed with the chancery clerk and shall be recorded by him in the official plat book of the county. The decree of the chancellor, either creating or denying such incorporation, shall become effective after the passage of ten days from the date of such decree, unless an appeal be taken therefrom as is provided in Section 21-1-21.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Supreme Court, in reviewing chancellor's findings about whether proposed municipal incorporation is required by considerations of public convenience and necessity and is reasonable, must merely determine whether the findings were supported by substantial credible evidence, and should reverse only if findings are manifestly in error. Incorporation of City of Oak Grove v. City of Hattiesburg, 684 So. 2d 1274 (Miss. 1996).

Substantial evidence regarding police protection, traffic control, sewage systems, fire service, and business owners' concerns supported chancellor's finding that considerations of public convenience and necessity did not require granting petition for municipal incorporation of semirural residential area that petitioners brought after nearby city unsuccessfully attempted to annex the area, especially considering that area was large and sparsely populated, that incorporation effort was largely defensive measure against annexation, and that chancellor's findings were consistent with findings made in prior proceeding concerning the annexation attempt. Incorporation of City of Oak Grove v. City of Hattiesburg, 684 So. 2d 1274 (Miss. 1996).

Size and population density of semirural residential area whose land mass measured 40 square miles but whose population was only around 10,000 citizens presented logistical problems of such enormity as to make it unreasonable to grant petition for municipal incorporation of the area, within meaning of statute governing municipal incorporation, which requires that such incorporation be "reasonable." Incorporation of City of Oak Grove v. City of Hattiesburg, 684 So. 2d 1274 (Miss. 1996).

Chancellor ruling on petition for municipal incorporation of semirural residential area whose land mass measured 40 square miles but whose population was only around 10,000 citizens did not abuse his discretion in denying petition rather than "narrowing down" the proposed incorporation area, where testimony at trial was more than sufficient to indicate that there was no real public necessity to incorporate the area even assuming that reasonable, smaller municipality could be carved out, especially considering that petitioners failed to present proposal for viable municipality. Incorporation of City of Oak Grove v. City of Hattiesburg, 684 So. 2d 1274 (Miss. 1996).

Proceeding on petition for municipal incorporation of semirural residential area was not proper forum for school district to argue that denial of petition would adversely affect district by leading to future annexation of area by nearby city and concomitant inclusion of annexed area in the nearby city's own school district; rather, proper forum would be proceeding on any future annexation petition filed by the nearby city. Incorporation of City of Oak Grove v. City of Hattiesburg, 684 So. 2d 1274 (Miss. 1996).

In determining whether two thirds of the qualified electors were in favor of a proposed incorporation, the chancellor should have considered the fact that a number of the signers of the original petition had asked to have their names withdrawn; one can withdraw from a petition at any time prior to the determination of the hearing. Myrick v. Incorporation of a Designated Area into Mun. Corp. to be Named Stringer, 336 So. 2d 209 (Miss. 1976).

Legislation authorizing creation of utility district did not encroach upon or restrict trial court's discretion so that it was in any way prevented from decreasing the size of the incorporated territory if it were determined that public convenience and necessity dictated a smaller area. Hamilton v. Incorporation of Petal, 291 So. 2d 190 (Miss. 1974).

Incorporation was justified pursuant to § 21-1-17 where parties stipulated that citizens of area would be inconvenienced thereby, and circumstances disclosed were more than sufficient to establish public necessity, particularly in view of need for police and fire protection, public health and education, in a burgeoning area. Hamilton v. Incorporation of Petal, 291 So. 2d 190 (Miss. 1974).

Argument that trial court in assuming jurisdiction of annexation proceedings by municipality and consolidating them with incorporation proceedings of residents of community placed an undue burden upon the would-be incorporators causing them to not only prove the reasonableness of the incorporation pursuant to statutory requirements, but also burdened them with refuting the reasonableness of the city's annexation proceedings, thereby confusing the issue by combining causes of action which were the antithesis of each other, was technically well-founded; however since under the statutes appertaining to either incorporation or annexation the issue basic to each was whether it was reasonable and required by public convenience and necessity, and since the trial court's opinion conclusively indicated that it was formulated from the evidence before it with the statutory issues clearly in mind, the consolidation, under the circumstances was not prejudicial error. In re Forest Hill, 280 So. 2d 837 (Miss. 1973), cert. denied, 414 U.S. 1130, 94 S. Ct. 869, 38 L. Ed. 2d 755 (1974).

Where there was an urgent need for the incorporation of the Pearl area into a municipality so that the community could cope with the problems of police protection, garbage, fire protection, drug control, health hazards, recreation, sanitation, street improvement and zoning, and the City of Jackson could not lawfully incorporate or annex the area inasmuch as the Rankin County board of supervisors had refused consent to do so and there was no indication that there would be any change on the part of the board, the chancellor erred in holding that incorporation would be unreasonable because the costs of operating the proposed municipality would be prohibitive. Boling v. City of Jackson, 279 So. 2d 590 (Miss. 1973).

The chancellor correctly permitted two individuals to intervene as objectors to a petition to create a municipality by incorporation. Boling v. City of Jackson, 258 So. 2d 443 (Miss. 1972).

Where the statutes providing for a hearing on a petition to create a municipal corporation, and to objections to such petition, extend the right to objectors to personally appear at the hearing on the merits and to present their objections orally, the published notice of the hearing could not limit such right. Boling v. City of Jackson, 258 So. 2d 443 (Miss. 1972).

Evidence that a city would not extend its corporate limits so as to afford water and sewer facilities to the territory in question for at least 15 years, supported a finding that incorporation of an area one-half mile from the city, which would aid in constructing and maintaining a municipal water and sewer system, was necessary in the interest of public convenience and necessity. City of Meridian v. Town of Marion, 255 So. 2d 906 (Miss. 1971).

The commingling of powers in the chancellor to determine the question of the existence of public convenience and necessity for the incorporation of a new municipality, as well as that of the reasonableness of the incorporation, does not violate the prohibition against unlawful delegation of governmental powers, since a finding by the chancellor of the existence of specified requirements for such incorporation is largely ministerial, affording little if any discretion on the part of the chancellor. Rouse v. City of Pascagoula, 230 So. 2d 543 (Miss. 1970).

Where, for reasons of public policy, the legislature has limited the time for appeal from a decree creating a municipality to 10 days from the date of the decree, and the appeal bond was not filed within that period, the appeal must be dismissed. Wood v. Warren, 193 So. 2d 123 (Miss. 1966).

Any person interested in or aggrieved by the decree of the chancellor, and who was a party to the proceedings in the chancery court, may prosecute an appeal therefrom to the supreme court within ten days from the date of such decree by furnishing an appeal bond in the sum of five hundred dollars with two good and sufficient sureties, conditioned to pay all costs of the appeal in event the decree is affirmed. Such appeal bond shall be subject to the approval of the chancery clerk and shall operate as a supersedeas. If the decree of the chancellor be affirmed by the supreme court, then such decree shall go into effect after the passage of ten days from the date of the final judgment thereon, and the party or parties prosecuting such appeal and the sureties on their appeal bond shall be adjudged to pay all costs of such appeal.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
2. Time limitations.

1. In general.

The right of appeal given by the statute is not limited to those parties who actively participated in the proceedings in chancery court, but, to fulfill the requirements of due process, since the statute provides for publication of notice to all owners of property within the area proposed to be annexed, the notice having been given, property owners within that classification became "parties to the proceedings" in the chancery court, and this status continued through the final decree which became conclusive and binding upon such owners unless reversed or modified on appeal. Sperry Rand Corp. v. City of Jackson, 245 So. 2d 574 (Miss. 1971).

Where, for reasons of public policy, the legislature has limited the time for appeal from a decree creating a municipality to 10 days from the date of the decree, and the appeal bond was not filed within that period, the appeal must be dismissed.

Wood v. Warren, 193 So. 2d 123 (Miss. 1966).

The filing of a $500 cost bond by a party appealing to the Supreme Court of Mississippi from a decree confirming a municipal ordinance extending the city limits does not operate as a supersedeas where, following an unsuccessful appeal to that court, the appellant filed a petition for certiorari in the Supreme Court of the United States. Bridges v. City of Biloxi, 253 Miss. 812, 178 So. 2d 683 (1965), motion overruled, 253 Miss. 812, 180 So. 2d 154 (1965), motion overruled, 253 Miss. 812, 180 So. 2d 641 (1965), appeal dismissed, 383 U.S. 574, 86 S. Ct. 1077, 16 L. Ed. 2d 106 (1966).

Since the statutes give an interested party a right to appeal in annexation proceeding on his furnishing a good bond in the sum of $500, and to have such bond operate as a supersedeas, the chancellor had no authority to require bonds in excess of that amount, notwithstanding that such bonds were insufficient to assure the payment of accrued costs on appeal. Dodd

v. City of Jackson, 238 Miss. 372, 118 So. 2d 319 (1960).

Since the two $500 bonds were sufficient to perfect an appeal in an annexation proceeding, the $5,000 bond, erroneously required by the chancellor, would be treated as surplusage and discharged, thereby releasing the sureties thereon. Dodd v. City of Jackson, 238 Miss. 372, 118 So. 2d 319 (1960).

2. Time limitations.

It was error for a chancellor to order a city to file a supplemental preclearance request with the United States Attorney General under § 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended, 42 U.S.C.S.

§ 1973c, because whether and how to initiate or to continue litigation was a matter of discretion for any governmental body, but, because, under both Miss. Code Ann. § 21-1-33 and Miss. Code Ann. § 21-1-21, a chancellor's decree went into effect 10 days after an appeal was decided, and the city had not requested supersedeas, the city's notice of appeal did not stay the judgment of the chancery court and prevent the city from being held in contempt. The judgment was not automatically stayed by Miss. Code Ann. § 21-1-33. City of Grenada v. Marascalco (In re Contraction, Exclusion & Deannexation of Certain Areas), 876 So. 2d 995 (Miss. 2004).

In the event the decree of the chancellor be in favor of the creation of such municipal corporation and no appeal is taken therefrom within ten days from the date of such decree, as is provided in Section 21-1-21, the chancery clerk shall forward to the secretary of state a certified copy of the decree creating such municipal corporation and such decree shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state and remain a permanent record thereof. In the event an appeal is taken from the decree creating such a municipal corporation, and the action of the chancellor is affirmed, then a copy of said decree shall be forwarded to the secretary of state within ten days after receipt of the mandate from the supreme court notifying the clerk of the affirmance of such decree.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Where, for reasons of public policy, the legislature has limited the time for appeal from a decree creating a municipality to 10 days from the date of the decree, and the appeal bond was not filed within that period, the appeal must be dismissed. Wood v. Warren, 193 So. 2d 123 (Miss. 1966).

§ 21-1-25. Commissioning of officers; first meeting.

Upon receipt of the certified copy of the decree creating a municipal corporation, the secretary of state shall issue commissions to the persons named therein to be appointed as the officers of such municipality.

As soon as practicable after receipt of such commissions from the Secretary of State, the officers receiving such commissions shall meet, upon the call of the mayor-designate and at a time and place to be fixed by him, and shall take the oath of office and shall give bond and security as other like officers are required to do under the provisions of this title. Such officers shall hold office until their successors are elected at the next ensuing municipal election and shall have qualified according to law. Such first meeting of the governing authorities shall be held within thirty days after the date such commissions are issued by the secretary of state, and at such meeting a certified copy of the decree of the chancery court creating such municipal corporation shall be entered upon the minutes of the board.

§ 21-1-27. Passing of ordinance.

The limits and boundaries of existing cities, towns and villages shall remain as now established until altered in the manner hereinafter provided. When any municipality shall desire to enlarge or contract the boundaries thereof by adding thereto adjacent unincorporated territory or excluding therefrom any part of the incorporated territory of such municipality, the governing authorities of such municipality shall pass an ordinance defining with certainty the territory proposed to be included in or excluded from the corporate limits, and also defining the entire boundary as changed. In the event the municipality desires to enlarge such boundaries, such ordinance shall in general terms describe the proposed improvements to be made in the annexed territory, the manner and extent of such improvements, and the approximate time within which such improvements are to be made; such ordinance shall also contain a statement of the municipal or public services which such municipality proposes to render in such annexed territory. In the event the municipality shall desire to contract its boundaries, such ordinance shall contain a statement of the reasons for such contraction and a statement showing whereby the public convenience and necessity would be served thereby.

1. In general.

Fair reading of the annexation statutes, Miss. R. Civ. P. 15(a), Miss. R. Civ. P. 81(a)(11), and applicable case law leaves no doubt that, in most instances, annexation pleadings are amendable pursuant to Miss. R. Civ. P. 15; in annexations proceedings, when errors appear in the legal description of the territory proposed to be annexed and/or in the legal description of the entire boundary as changed after enlargement/annexation, such errors may be amended pursuant to the Mississippi Rules of Civil Procedure and case law. Lamar County v. City of Hattiesburg (In re Extension of the Boundaries of Hattiesburg), 840 So. 2d 69 (Miss. 2003).

Miss. Code Ann. § 21-1-27 is not unconstitutionally vague. Lamar County v. City of Hattiesburg (In re Extension of the Boundaries of Hattiesburg), 840 So. 2d 69 (Miss. 2003).

Section 21-1-27 does not specifically state that the “entire boundary as changed” must be defined with certainty in an annexation ordinance, and therefore the failure of an original annexation ordinance to correctly define the city’s existing corporate boundaries was not a critical error which should have deprived the chancery court of jurisdiction to grant an annexation; thus, the chancellor did not err in allowing the city to amend the annexation ordinance to correctly describe the entire boundary of the city. City of Southaven v. City of Horn Lake, 630 So. 2d 10 (Miss. 1993).

This statute is constitutional despite its lack of a requirement that inhabitants of an area proposed for annexation be allowed to vote on the issue, and it does not deny equal protection despite the fact that inhabitants do, by statute, vote on proposed incorporations and on citizen-sought annexations to or exclusions from areas already incorporated, incorporation and annexation being fundamentally different legal processes. Lowe v. City of Jackson, 336 So. 2d 490 (Miss. 1976), cert. denied, 429 U.S. 980, 97 S. Ct. 493, 50 L. Ed. 2d 589 (1976).

A municipality is not required to hold a public hearing or to give notice prior to adopting an ordinance expressing its intent to expand its boundaries. City of Jackson v. Town of Flowood, 331 So. 2d 909 (Miss. 1976).

The special statutes dealing with annexation ordinances control over statutes dealing with municipal ordinances generally. City of Biloxi v. Cawley, 278 So. 2d 389 (Miss. 1973).

The requirements for a petition to incorporate are not necessarily the same as the requirements for an ordinance extending the boundaries of an existing municipality, the legislature having dealt with the two situations in separate statutes. Boling v. City of Jackson, 258 So. 2d 443 (Miss. 1972).

A city could not escape its federal constitutional and statutory duties by use of the deannexation procedure, and what might be regarded as a routine municipal ordinance or proceeding in state law may be subjected to a thorough examination in federal law when the effect of the ordinance or proceeding is to deprive citizens of federally protected rights. Franklin v. City of Marks, 439 F.2d 665 (5th Cir. 1971).

The general criteria for determining whether an annexation ordinance is reasonable are: (1) the city's need for expansion; (2) whether the area sought to be annexed is reasonably within the path of such expansion; (3) the potential health hazard from sewage and waste disposal in the annexed area; and (4) the city's financial ability to make the improvements and furnish municipal services as promised. Bridges v. City of Biloxi, 253 Miss. 812, 178 So. 2d 683 (1965), motion overruled, 253 Miss. 812, 180 So. 2d 154 (1965), motion overruled, 253 Miss. 812, 180 So. 2d 641 (1965), appeal dismissed, 383 U.S. 574, 86 S. Ct. 1077, 16 L. Ed. 2d 106 (1966).

The power conferred on municipalities to extend their boundaries is subject to legislative control. Delta Elec. Power Ass'n v. Mississippi Power & Light Co., 250 Miss. 482, 149 So. 2d 504 (1963), appeal dismissed, cert. denied, 375 U.S. 77, 84 S. Ct. 196, 11 L. Ed. 2d 142 (1963), reh'g denied, 375 U.S. 981, 84 S. Ct. 478, 11 L. Ed. 2d 428 (1964).

The title to an ordinance, under which a city sought to alter its boundaries by adding certain adjacent territory and excluding certain territory already included within the existing corporate limits, was clearly expressed in a title reading "An ordinance to be enlarged, extend, modify and define the corporate limits and boundaries" of the city. Dodd v. City of Jackson, 238 Miss. 372, 118 So. 2d 319 (1960).

Notwithstanding the mandatory requirement of Code 1942, § 3374-74 that an ordinance shall not contain more than one subject, a city seeking to alter its boundaries by adding certain adjacent territory and excluding certain territory already included within the existing limits is not required to adopt two different ordinances, and thus initiate at the same time two different proceedings in a chancery court. Dodd v. City of Jackson, 238 Miss. 372, 118 So. 2d 319 (1960).

The annexation of lands to a city over the objection of their owners is not a taking of property without compensation. In re City of Meridian, 237 Miss. 486, 115 So. 2d 323 (1959).

Provisions of the statute dealing with the manner, procedure and the right of the municipal authorities to enlarge or contract the corporate limits do not contain any restriction or limitation on the right of the municipal authorities to proceed under the statute as often as they may think that the proposed enlargement or contraction is reasonable and is required by the then public convenience and necessity. In re City of Indianola, 226 Miss. 760, 85 So. 2d 212 (1956).

2. Annexation of territory.

Chancery court has a duty to conduct a full evidentiary hearing to determine the reasonableness of a proposed annexation; therefore, the denial of a city's petition to annex a piece of land and a right-of-way without hearing any evidence was erroneous. In re Extension & Enlarging of the Boundaries of Laurel, 863 So. 2d 968 (Miss. 2004).

When a city proposing the annexation of certain real property had previously agreed with a neighboring city that this property was in the neighboring city's path of growth, the city proposing the annexation was not equitably estopped from annexing the property because equitable estoppel could not be applied to the annexing city as it was not shown that this would not be inconsistent with the public interest. In re Enlargement & Extension of the Municipal Boundaries v. City of Southaven, 864 So. 2d 912 (Miss. 2003).

When a city proposing the annexation of certain real property had previously agreed with a neighboring city that this property was in the neighboring city's path of growth, the city proposing the annexation was not judicially estopped from annexing the property because the prior agreement was not in the form of a consent decree, and, even if it had been, the city proposing the annexation would, most likely, have been relieved of its prior agreement, under Miss. R. Civ. P. 60(b)(5), because a prior city administration entered into the agreement, and one city administration could not bind its successor. In re Enlargement & Extension of the Municipal Boundaries v. City of Southaven, 864 So. 2d 912 (Miss. 2003).

Substantial and credible evidence supported trial court's decision that a city's proposed annexation of certain real estate was reasonable because (1) the annexing city needed to expand; (2) the proposed annexation area (PAA) was in the annexing city's path of growth; (3) the proposed annexation created no health hazards; (4) the annexing city could serve the PAA; (5) the PAA needed the city's zoning and planning services; (6) the PAA would need the city's other municipal services; (7) no natural barriers existed between the PAA and the city; (8) the city could serve its residents; (9) the PAA's owner sought annexation; (10) there was no impact on minority voting strength; and (11) the city's relationship with the holder of the right to provide water and sewer services to the PAA favored annexation, but it was not shown that the PAA benefitted from the city's provision of services as it was pasture land. In re Enlargement & Extension of the Municipal Boundaries v. City of Southaven, 864 So. 2d 912 (Miss. 2003).

City's proposed annexation was approved as being fair to all parties, with fairness being the proper focus of a reasonableness inquiry under Miss. Code Ann. § 21-1-33, as a complaint of higher taxes, which appeared to be minimal, could not by itself defeat the proposed annexation, where there were various benefits, including savings on fire insurance, as well as a decrease in water and sewer rates, and improved police protection, fire protection, public works, streets and drainage maintenance, paving of streets, street lighting, zoning, building codes, planning and enforcement, water, and sewer services; these benefits were well worth the additional taxes residents would be forced to pay, and when the equities were balanced, the evidence showed that the proposed annexation was reasonable. In re Enlargement & Extension of the Boundaries of the City of Macon v. City of Macon, 854 So. 2d 1029 (Miss. 2003).

Municipalities must demonstrate through plans and otherwise, that residents of annexed areas will receive something of value in return for their tax dollars in order to carry the burden of showing reasonableness. Lamar County v. City of Hattiesburg (In re Extension of the Boundaries of Hattiesburg), 840 So. 2d 69 (Miss. 2003).

While the court may be approaching a need to employ a timetable approach and implementing a procedural remedy in the nature as discussed by Justice Sullivan and Justice Pittman in the Vicksburg and Columbus decisions, respectively, "the balancing of equity, fairness and determination of what is reasonable in the annexation process" was best accomplished in the instant matter by utilizing the well-established indicia of reasonableness. Lamar County v. City of Hattiesburg (In re Extension of the Boundaries of Hattiesburg), 840 So. 2d 69 (Miss. 2003).

While a general statement of proposed improvements is sufficient in the ordinance that begins the annexation process, reliable cost estimates and assurances that promised services will be provided are necessary to establish reasonableness; thus, a city did not satisfy its burden as to reasonableness, and therefore the lower court properly limited the annexation, where the city failed to provide adequate evidence that residents of the entire proposed annexation area would receive anything of value in return for their municipal tax dollars. Matter of Extension of Boundaries of City of Columbus (Miss. 1994) 644 So. 2d 1168, rehearing denied.

A chancellor erred in refusing to allow a city to annex part of the territory it sought where the city's need for expansion was documented by numerous expert and lay witnesses, the constraints upon development within the current boundaries were substantiated, the city was experiencing a rapid rate of growth, and the chancellor failed to consider all of the city's potential paths of growth when he ruled out the area sought to be annexed as within the normal path of the city's growth. City of Southaven v. City of Horn Lake, 630 So. 2d 10 (Miss. 1993).

The Chancery Court is charged to determine whether under the totality of the circumstances the annexation (or any part thereof) is reasonable, having due deference to the interests of the municipality and, as well, the interests of the parties affected. Bassett v. Town of Taylorsville, 542 So. 2d 918 (Miss. 1989).

Municipality's efforts to annex were denied upon findings by the chancery court, supported by substantial evidence, that the municipality lacked financial ability to make improvements and furnish municipal services to the area sought to be annexed, and that it had failed to provide adequate services to the residents of a community within its present boundaries. Extension of Boundaries v. Sherman, 492 So. 2d 289 (Miss. 1986).

An expansion proceeding was valid where, although the annexing city failed to present evidence as to the reasonableness of annexing two areas and the court accordingly deleted those two areas, such action did not constitute an unlawful amendment to the annexation ordinance; the city was not required to go forward with evidence regarding these areas, and the court, pursuant to § 21-1-33, had the authority to omit them from the proposed annexation area. City of Jackson v. Town of Flowood, 331 So. 2d 909 (Miss. 1976).

Where city met the burden of establishing that proposed annexation was feasible and reasonable and that it was financially able to provide the services it proposed to furnish residents of the annexed area, the annexation was approved. Bridges v. City of Biloxi, 253 Miss. 812, 178 So. 2d 683 (1965), motion overruled, 253 Miss. 812, 180 So. 2d 154 (1965), motion overruled, 253 Miss. 812, 180 So. 2d 641 (1965), appeal dismissed, 383 U.S. 574, 86 S. Ct. 1077, 16 L. Ed. 2d 106 (1966).

The fact that a municipal corporation would like to install a sanitary sewerage system in the territory to be added at the same time such a sewerage system is being installed within the present corporate limits is not a sufficient ground for expanding the city boundaries. In re City of Indianola, 226 Miss. 760, 85 So. 2d 212 (1956).

3. —Proposed improvements.

The requirement of this section [Code 1942, § 3374-10] that an annexation ordinance shall describe, in general terms, the proposed improvements to be made in the annexed territory, and shall also contain a statement of the municipal services which the municipality proposes to render in the annexed territory, is mandatory, and the city, in its ordinance must comply therewith. Dodd v. City of Jackson, 238 Miss. 372, 118 So. 2d 319 (1960).

The omission from the title of an annexation ordinance of the city's promises as to the improvements and services to be rendered in the territory proposed to be annexed did not render the ordinance void. Dodd v. City of Jackson, 238 Miss. 372, 118 So. 2d 319 (1960).

City ordinance which sets forth the improvements to be made in the annexed territory, describing them in general terms, and providing that they would be made when necessary and economically feasible, sufficiently complied with statutory requirement that ordinance shall in general terms describe improvements to be made in manner and extent thereof. Ritchie v. City of Brookhaven, 217 Miss. 876, 65 So. 2d 832 (1953).

This section [Code 1942, § 3374-10] does not require a municipality prior to executing its ordinance of extension to ascertain the precise cost of improvements and the sources from which town will obtain water and sewage pipes and other materials. Parker Gin Corp. v. Town of Drew, 214 Miss. 147, 58 So. 2d 372 (1952), overruled on other grounds, In re City of Indianola, 226 Miss. 760, 85 So. 2d 212 (1956).

The use of the phrases "approximate time" and "reasonable time" indicates a legislative intent to vest a broad area of discretion in the governing body, however availability of materials, their costs and the financial ability of the town to meet that cost are relevant on whether the services can be rendered within a reasonable time. Parker Gin Corp. v. Town of Drew, 214 Miss. 147, 58 So. 2d 372 (1952), overruled on other grounds, In re City of Indianola, 226 Miss. 760, 85 So. 2d 212 (1956).

4. —Public convenience and necessity served.

Evidence supported chancellor's conclusion that public convenience and necessity would be served by annexing an area where, inter alia, the annexing city had adequate facilities to take care of the area's sewage and waste water disposal, which were currently a potential health hazard, and where police service and better fire protection could be provided through annexation; though there was opposing testimony that much of the area was open or swamp land not justifying annexation, since the area was likely to become a part of the city within a reasonable period of time, annexation was appropriate so as to permit orderly development. Lowe v. City of Jackson, 336 So. 2d 490 (Miss. 1976), cert. denied, 429 U.S. 980, 97 S. Ct. 493, 50 L. Ed. 2d 589 (1976).

When the municipal governing authorities adopted an ordinance seeking an extension of the municipal limits, they, by that act, determined that the extension was required by the public convenience and necessity. Dodd v. City of Jackson, 238 Miss. 372, 118 So. 2d 319 (1960).

5. —Tax liability.

The mere fact that residents and land-owners in an area proposed to be annexed will have to start paying city property taxes is not sufficient to show unreasonableness of the proposed annexation. Matter of Extension of Boundaries of City of Jackson (Miss. 1989) 551 So. 2d 861

Property brought into a municipality by annexation is subject to taxation to discharge municipal indebtedness previously incurred and existing at the time of annexation. Bridges v. City of Biloxi, 253 Miss. 812, 178 So. 2d 683 (1965), motion overruled, 253 Miss. 812, 180 So. 2d 154 (1965), motion overruled, 253 Miss. 812, 180 So. 2d 641 (1965), appeal dismissed, 383 U.S. 574, 86 S. Ct. 1077, 16 L. Ed. 2d 106 (1966).

6. Judicial review.

Where, in a deannexation proceeding, a City relied on only one of the 12 indicia of reasonableness applicable to either annexation or deannexation under Miss. Code Ann. §§ 21-1-45, 21-1-47, and objectors presented evidence on all 12, under its limited standard of review of such proceedings, the Supreme Court of Mississippi determined that the chancellor's finding on deannexation was correct. City of Grenada v. Marascalco (In re Contraction, Exclusion & Deannexation of Certain Areas), 876 So. 2d 995 (Miss. 2004).

A trial court decree approving an ordinance enlarging a city's boundaries, as provided by this section, would be affirmed as modified where the trial court's finding that the annexation was reasonable and required by the public convenience and necessity was not manifestly wrong or clearly against the overwhelming weight of the evidence. Extension of Boundaries v. City of Biloxi, 361 So. 2d 1372 (Miss. 1978).

Evidence as to the city's alleged need for expansion, whether the specified area was reasonably within the path of such expansion, the potential health and the hazard from sewage and waste disposal, and the city's financial ability to make the improvements and furnish municipal services as promised, sustained chancellor's finding that annexation of the specified territory was reasonable. Dodd v. City of Jackson, 238 Miss. 372, 118 So. 2d 319 (1960).

When proceeding for enlargement or contraction of the corporate limits of a municipality is initiated by city authorities, the burden of proof is upon them to establish that the proposal is reasonable and that the public convenience and necessity requires that the proposal be approved. In re City of Indianola, 226 Miss. 760, 85 So. 2d 212 (1956).

Question of reasonableness of enlargement of municipality is a judicial question and determination is a proper exercise of judicial function. Ritchie v. City of Brookhaven, 217 Miss. 876, 65 So. 2d 832 (1953).

7. Under former law.

Where the mayor and aldermen of the city of Louisville by adoption of an ordinance proposing to add new territory to the city of Louisville, adjudicated that the extension was reasonable, the burden was upon the objectors to overturn such adjudication and show the extension to be unreasonable. Ball v. City of Louisville, 218 Miss. 867, 56 So. 2d 4 (1952).

Proof of publication held not requisite part of record on appeal from ordinance extending city limits. City of Pass Christian v. Town of Long Beach, 157 Miss. 778, 128 So. 554 (1930).

That rural territory was in some municipal school district did not preclude city from including within its borders the unincorporated rural territory. City of Pass Christian v. Town of Long Beach, 157 Miss. 778, 128 So. 554 (1930).

The question of changing corporate limits may be re-litigated after expiration of two years from ordinance fixing limits. Wheat v. Town of Poplarville, 144 Miss. 684, 110 So. 434 (1926).

Evidence as to reasonableness of exclusion of land from town thereof held to require peremptory instruction for petitioners. Wheat v. Town of Poplarville, 144 Miss. 684, 110 So. 434 (1926).

The extension of provisions relating to the change of boundaries of municipalities so as to make it applicable to all municipalities necessarily carried with it the limitation contained in Code 1942, in § 3377. Planters' Gin & Milling Co. v. City of Greenville, 138 Miss. 876, 103 So. 796 (1925).

The application of this section to a commission form of government as to extending boundaries of the municipality also carries the limitations on the power of municipality to adopt ordinances as contained herein. Planters' Gin & Milling Co. v. City of Greenville, 138 Miss. 876, 103 So. 796 (1925).

The issue to be tried on an appeal from an ordinance under this section extending the limits of the municipality is whether the ordinance is reasonable. Town of Crystal Springs v. Moreton, 131 Miss. 77, 95 So. 242 (1923).

On such trial the burden of proof is on the contestant who has the right to open and close the case. Town of Crystal Springs v. Moreton, 131 Miss. 77, 95 So. 242 (1923).

This case also furnishes an example of an erroneous instruction as to the burden of proof. Town of Crystal Springs v. Moreton, 131 Miss. 77, 95 So. 242 (1923).

Under this section a provision in the ordinance extending the limits of a municipality that the ordinance shall take effect at once is void; An ordinance properly passed under this section will take effect only as provided for by law. Sanders v. City of Starkville, 128 Miss. 742, 91 So. 422 (1922).

Under Laws 1912 ch. 120 (§ 3635, Code of 1942), authorizing a commission form of government, a municipality acting under said chapter and having no authority to extend its boundaries cannot supersede an appeal by providing for referendum of such ordinance. Gregory v. City of Amory, 112 Miss. 604, 73 So. 614 (1917).

In determining whether an ordinance to extend the limits of a municipality be or be not reasonable, upon an issue made up to try that question in the circuit court as provided by this section, the extension must be considered as an entirety, the question not being whether each and every portion of the territory included in the extension should, if considered separately, have been included. Forbes v. Mayor of Meridian, 86 Miss. 243, 38 So. 676 (1905).

Whether a city is entitled to annex unincorporated adjacent territory or whether the inhabitants of the territory are entitled to incorporate as a town, depends on the priority of the initial step taken by the respective side. City of Jackson v. Whiting, 84 Miss. 163, 36 So. 611 (1904).

A municipal corporation having no other powers than those granted to towns by the provisions of this chapter cannot enjoin the use of its name by designating another place and the inconvenience resulting to its citizens therefrom does not give the municipality a right to complain. Gulf & S.I.R.R. v. Town of Seminary, 81 Miss. 237, 32 So. 953 (1902).

In such case the grievances complained of are not grievances of the municipality. Gulf & S.I.R.R. v. Town of Seminary, 81 Miss. 237, 32 So. 953 (1902).

Upon appeal to the circuit court from the judgment of the municipal authorities changing the boundaries of a municipality under this and the next succeeding section, the trial is de novo and there is no necessity for a bill of exceptions. Yerger v. Town of Greenwood, 77 Miss. 378, 27 So. 620 (1900).

§ 21-1-29. Preparing and filing of petition.

When any such ordinance shall be passed by the municipal authorities, such municipal authorities shall file a petition in the chancery court of the county in which such municipality is located; however, when a municipality wishes to annex or extend its boundaries across and into an adjoining county such municipal authorities shall file a petition in the chancery court of the county in which such territory is located. The petition shall recite the fact of the adoption of such ordinance and shall pray that the enlargement or contraction of the municipal boundaries, as the case may be, shall be ratified, approved and confirmed by the court. There shall be attached to such petition, as exhibits thereto, a certified copy of the ordinance adopted by the municipal authorities and a map or plat of the municipal boundaries as they will exist in event such enlargement or contraction becomes effective.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
2. Evidence.

1. In general.

City's proposed annexation was approved as being fair to all parties, with fairness being the proper focus of a reasonableness inquiry under Miss. Code Ann. § 21-1-33, as a complaint of higher taxes, which appeared to be minimal, could not by itself defeat the proposed annexation, where there were various benefits, including savings on fire insurance, as well as a decrease in water and sewer rates, and improved police protection, fire protection, public works, streets and drainage maintenance, paving of streets, street lighting, zoning, building codes, planning and enforcement, water, and sewer services; these benefits were well worth the additional taxes residents would be forced to pay, and when the equities were balanced, the evidence showed that the proposed annexation was reasonable. In re Enlargement & Extension of the Boundaries of the City of Macon v. City of Macon, 854 So. 2d 1029 (Miss. 2003).

The Chancery Court is charged to determine whether under the totality of the circumstances the annexation (or any part thereof) is reasonable, having due deference to the interests of the municipality and, as well, the interests of the parties affected. Bassett v. Town of Taylorsville, 542 So. 2d 918 (Miss. 1989).

Under § 21-1-29, a city can confirm an annexation only through formal judicial proceedings instituted in the Chancery Court where the city or land is located. Mayor of City of Vicksburg v. Vicksburg Printing & Publishing Co., 434 So. 2d 1333 (Miss. 1983).

The alleged failure of a city to comply with a requirement that an ordinance expanding city limits be approved pursuant to the Federal Voting Rights Act before it can become effective, was not ground for reversal of a decree ratifying, approving, and confirming the city ordinance expanding the city's limits, since the Mississippi statute does not require the city to have its ordinance approved or confirmed by anyone other than the chancery court, and the Voting Rights Act requires compliance only in order to have the ordinance enforced. Sperry Rand Corp. v. City of Jackson, 248 So. 2d 810 (Miss. 1971).

Where city met the burden of establishing that proposed annexation was feasible and reasonable and that it was financially able to provide the services it proposed to furnish residents of the annexed area, the annexation was approved. Bridges v. City of Biloxi, 253 Miss. 812, 178 So. 2d 683 (1965), motion overruled, 253 Miss. 812, 180 So. 2d 154 (1965), motion overruled, 253 Miss. 812, 180 So. 2d 641 (1965), appeal dismissed, 383 U.S. 574, 86 S. Ct. 1077, 16 L. Ed. 2d 106 (1966).

The contention of property owners in a new area annexed to a city that they are thereby denied due process and equal protection of the laws because their property will be subject to taxation to pay general obligation bonds issued by the city before the annexation ordinance was passed is not supported either by reason or by authority. Bridges v. City of Biloxi, 253 Miss.

812, 178 So. 2d 683 (1965), motion overruled, 253 Miss. 812, 180 So. 2d 154 (1965), motion overruled, 253 Miss. 812, 180 So. 2d 641 (1965), appeal dismissed, 383 U.S. 574, 86 S. Ct. 1077, 16 L. Ed. 2d 106 (1966).

The burden of proof of public convenience and necessity for the expansion of the corporate limits is upon the city seeking court approval of its actions in that respect. Walker v. City of Moss Point, 252 Miss. 511, 175 So. 2d 173 (1965).

On an application to obtain the court's approval of a proposed annexation, the city has the burden of showing it to be reasonable, and if the chancellor's finding of reasonableness or unreasonableness is supported by substantial evidence, the supreme court will not disturb it. In re City of Forest, 247 Miss. 340, 153 So. 2d 688 (1963).

The annexation ordinance need not be introduced into evidence where a certified copy was attached to the petition as an exhibit. In re City of Meridian, 237 Miss. 486, 115 So. 2d 323 (1959).

2. Evidence.

Court upheld an order that a city's proposed annexation of a convenience store/gas station was unreasonable because the evidence was clear that the only individual to benefit from the proposed annexation would be the owner of the convenience store/gas station; the owner testified that he could increase revenues by being allowed to sell beer from his convenience store. In re Extension & Enlarging of Boundaries of the City of Laurel, 922 So. 2d 791 (Miss. 2006).

§ 21-1-31. Publication of notice of proposed enlargement or contraction.

Upon the filing of such petition and upon application therefor by the petitioner, the chancellor shall fix a date certain, either in term time or in vacation, when a hearing on said petition will be held, and notice thereof shall be given in the same manner and for the same length of time as is provided in Section 21-1-15 with regard to the creation of municipal corporations, and all parties interested in, affected by, or being aggrieved by said proposed enlargement or contraction shall have the right to appear at such hearing and present their objection to such proposed enlargement or contraction. However, in all cases of the enlargement of municipalities where any of the territory proposed to be incorporated is located within three miles of another existing municipality, then such other existing municipality shall be made a party defendant to said petition and shall be served with process in the manner provided by law, which process shall be served at least thirty days prior to the date set for the hearing.

1. In general.

Objectors to the annexation contended that the city failed to prove that adequate notice was given. However, in the affidavit filed by the city, the affiant specifically stated the exact locations and dates of his postings of notice of the hearings in his affidavit as required by Miss. R. Civ. P. 4(f) and Miss. Code Ann. § 21-1-15 and Miss. Code Ann. § 21-1-31; the chancellor did not commit manifest error by allowing the detailed affidavit to constitute adequate proof of notice. Weeks v. City of Clinton (In re City of Clinton), 920 So. 2d 452 (Miss. 2006).

Burden of proof that a city posted notices pursuant to Miss. Code Ann. § 21-1-15 of a proposed annexation of land before an annexation hearing was on the city, and when the city failed to present sufficient evidence that it met this burden, the chancery court was without jurisdiction to consider the city's annexation petition. Norwood v. Extension of Boundaries, 788 So. 2d 747 (Miss. 2001).

A county board of education was an agent of the State, and therefore had the authority to object to a proposed annexation. The board of education was a party interested in, affected by or aggrieved by the proposed annexation within the meaning of § 21-1-31, where the territory sought to be annexed was served by schools administered by the county board of education. Additionally, the school board had the authority to exercise its standing and to employ counsel and participate fully in the annexation confirmation proceeding. Harrison County v. City of Gulfport, 557 So. 2d 780, 17 A.L.R.5th 974 (Miss. 1990).

A county had standing under § 21-1-31 to object to the annexation of county territory by a city since it was a party interested in, affected by or aggrieved by the annexations. Furthermore, a combined reading of §§ 11-45-17, 11-45-19, and 19-3-47(1)(b) vested in the county, acting by and through its board of supervisors, authority to exercise its standing and to employ counsel and participate fully in each annexation and confirmation proceeding. Harrison County v. City of Gulfport, 557 So. 2d 780, 17 A.L.R.5th 974 (Miss. 1990).

A party's assertion of an interest or effect goes a long way toward establishing that it has an interest in, or will likely be affected by, an annexation. Harrison County v. City of Gulfport, 557 So. 2d 780, 17 A.L.R.5th 974 (Miss. 1990).

In an action by objectors to the proposed annexation of property by a municipality, the determination of the reasonableness of the annexation was a judicial function, and thus, the chancellor's failure to recognize his role as a judicial officer, rather than as a ministerial one, would require remand for a new hearing. Western Line Consol. Sch. Dist. v. City of Greenville, 465 So. 2d 1057 (Miss. 1985).

In an action to confirm a city's proposed annexation of territory, the returns of the deputy sheriff who posted the notices thereof were sufficient to comply with the statute regarding proof of posting of notice, even though there was no affidavit attesting to the posting. Nowlin v. City of Pearl, 365 So. 2d 952 (Miss. 1978), cert. denied, 441 U.S. 946, 99 S. Ct. 2167, 60 L. Ed. 2d 1049 (1979).

If the chancellor finds from the evidence presented at such hearing that the proposed enlargement or contraction is reasonable and is required by the public convenience and necessity and, in the event of an enlargement of a municipality, that reasonable public and municipal services will be rendered in the annexed territory within a reasonable time, the chancellor shall enter a decree approving, ratifying and confirming the proposed enlargement or contraction, and describing the boundaries of the municipality as altered. In so doing the chancellor shall have the right and the power to modify the proposed enlargement or contraction by decreasing the territory to be included in or excluded from such municipality, as the case may be. If the chancellor shall find from the evidence that the proposed enlargement or contraction, as the case may be, is unreasonable and is not required by the public convenience and necessity, then he shall enter a decree denying such enlargement or contraction. In any event, the decree of the chancellor shall become effective after the passage of ten days from the date thereof or, in event an appeal is taken therefrom, within ten days from the final determination of such appeal. In any proceeding under this section the burden shall be upon the municipal authorities to show that the proposed enlargement or contraction is reasonable.

1. In general.

Chancellor erred in its denial of the parties' motion in that it put forth as the effective date of the decree of annexation the date of entry instead of ten days after determination of appeal, Miss. Code Ann. § 21-1-33, and usurped the exclusively legislative function of the city's determining whether to pursue annexation procedures. In re Extension of the Boundaries of Sardis, 954 So. 2d 434 (Miss. 2007).

Annexation is reasonable only if it is fair; in making this determination, annexation must be viewed from perspective of both city and landowners of proposed annexation area. Bunch v. City of Jackson, 691 So. 2d 978 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 700 So. 2d 331 (Miss. 1997).

Court asked to approve municipality's annexation request must determine whether annexation is reasonable under totality of circumstances. Burch v. Town of Mantachi, 685 So. 2d 724 (Miss. 1996).

The 12 indicia of reasonableness of an annexation are: (1) the municipality's need to expand; (2) whether the area sought to be annexed is reasonably within a path of growth of the city; (3) potential health hazards from sewage and waste disposal in the annexed areas; (4) the municipality's financial ability to make the improvements and furnish municipal services promised; (5) the need for zoning and overall planning in the area; (6) the need for municipal services in the area sought to be annexed; (7) whether there are natural barriers between the city and the proposed annexation area; (8) past performance and the time element involved in the city's provision of services to its present residents; (9) economic or other impact of the annexation upon those who live in or own property in the proposed annexation area; (10) the impact of the annexation upon the voting strength of protected minority groups; (11) whether the property owners and other inhabitants of the areas sought to be annexed have in the past, and in the foreseeable future unless annexed will, because of their reasonable proximity to the corporate limits of the municipality, enjoy economic and social benefits of the municipality without paying their fair share of taxes; and (12) any other factors that may suggest reasonableness; these 12 factors are not separate, independent tests which are conclusive as to reasonableness, but rather are "mere indicia of reasonableness." Perry v. Guion, 650 So. 2d 490 (Miss. 1995); Burch v. Town of Mantachi, 685 So. 2d 724 (Miss. 1996); Bunch v. City of Jackson, 691 So. 2d 978 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 700 So. 2d 331 (Miss. 1997).

The factors enumerated in Dodd v. City Jackson (Miss. 1960) 118 So. 2d 319, 330, as expanded over the years in later decisions, are not separate and independent tests but mere indicia of reasonableness, and the court's determination in the end must be whether, under the totality of the circumstances, the annexation, or any part thereof, is reasonable. Magnolia Marine Transp. Co. v. City of Vicksburg, 560 So. 2d 713 (Miss. 1990).

The Chancery Court is charged to determine whether under the totality of the circumstances the annexation (or any part thereof) is reasonable, having due deference to the interests of the municipality and, as well, the interests of the parties affected. Bassett v. Town of Taylorsville, 542 So. 2d 918 (Miss. 1989).

Section 21-1-33, rather than § 21-1-13, is a controlling statute where a petition is filed to confirm the annexation of territory to a municipality. McElhaney v. City of Horn Lake, 501 So. 2d 401 (Miss. 1987).

An expansion proceeding was valid where, although the annexing city failed to present evidence as to the reasonableness of annexing two areas and the court accordingly deleted those two areas, such action did not constitute an unlawful amendment to the annexation ordinance; the city was not required to go forward with evidence regarding these areas, and the court, pursuant to this section, had the authority to omit them from the proposed annexation area. City of Jackson v. Town of Flowood, 331 So. 2d 909 (Miss. 1976).

Argument that trial court in assuming jurisdiction of annexation proceedings by municipality and consolidating them with incorporation proceedings of residents of community placed an undue burden upon the would-be incorporators causing them to not only prove the reasonableness of the incorporation pursuant to statutory requirements, but also burdened them with refuting the reasonableness of the city's annexation proceedings, thereby confusing the issue by combining causes of action which were the antithesis of each other, was technically well-founded; however since under the statutes appertaining to either incorporation or annexation the issue basic to each was whether it was reasonable and required by public convenience and necessity, and since the trial court's opinion conclusively indicated that it was formulated from the evidence before it with the statutory issues clearly in mind, the consolidation, under the circumstances was not prejudicial error. In re Forest Hill, 280 So. 2d 837 (Miss. 1973), cert. denied, 414 U.S. 1130, 94 S. Ct. 869, 38 L. Ed. 2d 755 (1974).

The contention of property owners in a new area annexed to a city that they are thereby denied due process and equal protection of the laws because their property will be subject to taxation to pay general obligation bonds issued by the city before the annexation ordinance was passed is not supported either by reason or by authority. Bridges v. City of Biloxi, 253 Miss. 812, 178 So. 2d 683 (1965), motion overruled, 253 Miss. 812, 180 So. 2d 154 (1965), motion overruled, 253 Miss. 812, 180 So. 2d 641 (1965), appeal dismissed, 383 U.S. 574, 86 S. Ct. 1077, 16 L. Ed. 2d 106 (1966).

In a proceeding under this section [Code 1942, § 3374-13], there is no constitutional right to trial by jury. In re City of Meridian, 237 Miss. 486, 115 So. 2d 323 (1959).

1.5. Construction.

Mississippi Supreme Court declares as antiquated the prior jurisdiction doctrine as it relates to annexation litigation, and to the extent that any of its prior cases have recognized and applied this doctrine, these prior cases are to that limited extent overruled. City of D'Iberville v. City of Biloxi (In re Enlargement & Extension of the Municipal Boundaries), 867 So. 2d 241 (Miss. 2004).

2. Constitutionality.

The requirement that the chancery court determine the issue of public convenience and necessity is unconstitutional, since the issue is a legislative one to be decided by the municipality's governing board. City of Jackson v. Town of Flowood, 331 So. 2d 909 (Miss. 1976).

3. Scope of hearing.

Chancery court has a duty to conduct a full evidentiary hearing to determine the reasonableness of a proposed annexation; therefore, the denial of a city's petition to annex a piece of land and a right-of-way without hearing any evidence was erroneous. In re Extension & Enlarging of the Boundaries of Laurel, 863 So. 2d 968 (Miss. 2004).

Ultimate determination in annexation case must be whether annexation is reasonable under totality of circumstances. Bunch v. City of Jackson, 691 So. 2d 978 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 700 So. 2d 331 (Miss. 1997).

Role of judiciary in annexations is limited to determining whether annexation is reasonable. In re City of Newton, 238 Miss. 405, 117 So. 2d 199 (1960); McElhaney v. City of Horn Lake, 501 So. 2d 401 (Miss. 1987); Bunch v. City of Jackson, 691 So. 2d 978 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 700 So. 2d 331 (Miss. 1997).

In determining reasonableness of city's annexation proposal, court must consider proposal in light of area as a whole, considering concern of both city and landowners. Burch v. Town of Mantachi, 685 So. 2d 724 (Miss. 1996).

Chancellor's determination of reasonableness of proposed annexation is judicial function, not ministerial one. Western Line Consol. Sch. Dist. v. City of Greenville, 465 So. 2d 1057 (Miss. 1985).

A cross-petition by residents of a town seeking to be excluded from the existing corporate limits, filed in a proceeding to confirm an ordinance extending city boundaries, was properly dismissed because the powers of the chancery court in such a proceeding are limited to approving, modifying, or denying the proposed ordinance, and the court cannot consider matters not concerning the ordinance. Ferguson v. Town of Vaiden, 242 So. 2d 124 (Miss. 1970).

The chancery court, in a proceeding under this section [Code 1942, § 3374-13], is governed entirely by statute and it may (1) ratify and approve the ordinance if found to be reasonable, (2) modify the proposed enlargement or contraction by decreasing the territory to be included or excluded, or (3) deny in toto the proposed enlargement or contraction. Lippian v. Ros, 253 Miss. 325, 175 So. 2d 138 (1965).

The chancery court does not have the power under this section [Code 1942, § 3374-13] to defer the effective date of an ordinance enlarging the boundaries of a municipality. Lippian v. Ros, 253 Miss. 325, 175 So. 2d 138 (1965).

4. Burden of proof.

To show reasonableness of annexation, municipalities must demonstrate, through plans and otherwise, that residents of annexed areas will receive something of value in return for their tax dollars. Burch v. Town of Mantachi, 685 So. 2d 724 (Miss. 1996); Bunch v. City of Jackson, 691 So. 2d 978 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 700 So. 2d 331 (Miss. 1997).

In a proceeding for confirmation of a city's proposed annexation of adjoining land, any detriment to a nearby city was only required to be given "great weight" under the twelfth "other factors" indicium of reasonableness, and therefore the annexing city was not required to show "clear, strong proof" on the 12 indicia of reasonableness merely because the nearby city claimed that the proposed annexation would have a detrimental impact on it by limiting its northern path of growth. Perry v. Guion, 650 So. 2d 490 (Miss. 1995).

While a general statement of proposed improvements is sufficient in the ordinance that begins the annexation process, reliable cost estimates and assurances that promised services will be provided are necessary to establish reasonableness; thus, a city did not satisfy its burden as to reasonableness, and therefore the lower court properly limited the annexation, where the city failed to provide adequate evidence that residents of the entire proposed annexation area would receive anything of value in return for their municipal tax dollars. Robinson v. City of Columbus, 644 So. 2d 1168 (Miss. 1994).

The burden of proving reasonableness of annexation is upon the petitioner, the city seeking to accomplish the annexation. In re City of Indianola, 226 Miss. 760, 85 So. 2d 212 (1956); Spears v. City of Oxford, 227 Miss. 801, 87 So. 2d 61 (1956); McElhaney v. City of Horn Lake, 501 So. 2d 401 (Miss. 1987).

Where city met the burden of establishing that proposed annexation was feasible and reasonable and that it was financially able to provide the services it proposed to furnish residents of the annexed area, the annexation was approved. Bridges v. City of Biloxi, 253 Miss. 812, 178 So. 2d 683 (1965), motion overruled, 253 Miss. 812, 180 So. 2d 154 (1965), motion overruled, 253 Miss. 812, 180 So. 2d 641 (1965), appeal dismissed, 383 U.S. 574, 86 S. Ct. 1077, 16 L. Ed. 2d 106 (1966).

The burden of proof of public convenience and necessity for the expansion of the corporate limits is upon the city seeking court approval of its actions in that respect. Walker v. City of Moss Point, 252 Miss. 511, 175 So. 2d 173 (1965).

In a proceeding by a city for the ratification, approval and confirmation of an ordinance extending the city's corporate limits, the burden of proof is on the city to establish that its proposal is reasonable and required by the public convenience and necessity. In re City of Phila., 232 Miss. 582, 100 So. 2d 100 (1958).

Where a petition for adoption of city ordinance seeking enlargement of municipal boundaries literally complied with the statute, it was not necessary to allege in the petition that the ordinance was published as required by law. Ritchie v. City of Brookhaven, 217 Miss. 876, 65 So. 2d 832 (1953).

5. Objections by residents.

City's proposed annexation was approved as being fair to all parties, with fairness being the proper focus of a reasonableness inquiry under Miss. Code Ann. § 21-1-33, as a complaint of higher taxes, which appeared to be minimal, could not by itself defeat the proposed annexation, where there were various benefits, including savings on fire insurance, as well as a decrease in water and sewer rates, and improved police protection, fire protection, public works, streets and drainage maintenance, paving of streets, street lighting, zoning, building codes, planning and enforcement, and water, and sewer services; these benefits were well worth the additional taxes residents would be forced to pay, and when the equities were balanced, the evidence showed that the proposed annexation was reasonable. In re Enlargement & Extension of the Boundaries of the City of Macon v. City of Macon, 854 So. 2d 1029 (Miss. 2003).

The mere fact that residents and landowners in an area proposed to be annexed will have to start paying city property taxes is not sufficient to show unreasonableness of the proposed annexation. City of Jackson v. City of Ridgeland, 551 So. 2d 861 (Miss. 1989).

A cross-petition by residents of a town, seeking to be excluded from the existing corporate limits, filed in a proceeding to confirm an ordinance extending city boundaries was properly dismissed because the powers of the chancery court in such a proceeding are limited to approving, modifying, or denying the proposed ordinance, and the court cannot consider matters not concerning the ordinance. Ferguson v. Town of Vaiden, 242 So. 2d 124 (Miss. 1970).

The contention of property owners in a new area annexed to a city that they were denied due process and equal protection of the laws because their property was subject to taxation to pay general obligation bonds issued by the city before the annexation ordinance was passed was not supported either by reason or by authority. Bridges v. City of Biloxi, 253 Miss. 812, 178 So. 2d 683 (1965), motion overruled, 253 Miss. 812, 180 So. 2d 154 (1965), motion overruled, 253 Miss. 812, 180 So. 2d 641 (1965), appeal dismissed, 383 U.S. 574, 86 S. Ct. 1077, 16 L. Ed. 2d 106 (1966).

Chancellor's finding of reasonableness in a city's annexation petition for the proposed annexation area (PAA) was affirmed given the factors shown, such as population increase, the city's growth path toward the PAA, and the city's spillover. Also, the city had zoning ordinances to assist in planning, and the city had substantially fulfilled past annexation promises. Poole v. City of Pearl (In re Extension of the Boundaries), 908 So. 2d 728 (Miss. 2005).

Chancellor's finding that two cities each had a reasonable need for expansion but were limited in the direction in which they could expand, that it would be premature to award a certain portion of the proposed annexation area to either city because it was largely undeveloped, and that the area awarded to each was sufficient to meet its needs, were all reasonable contentions and supported by the evidence; therefore, the chancellor's decision to partially grant and partially deny the cities' petitions was reasonable. City of D'Iberville v. City of Biloxi (In re Enlargement & Extension of the Municipal Boundaries), 867 So. 2d 241 (Miss. 2004).

Trial court properly found that the proposed annexation of an area was reasonable because (1) the city had a need for expansion, (2) the area was in the path of the city's growth, (3) there were no natural boundaries between the city and the area, (4) there were potential health hazards in the area, (5) the city had a financial ability to provide services to the area, (6) the area needed zoning, (7) the city's municipal services were of benefit to the area, (8) the city provided adequate services to its citizens, (9) there was no adverse impact, other than the raising of taxes, on the area residents, (10) minority voting strength was not going to be negatively affected, and (11) area residents were receiving benefits from the city and it was appropriate that they shared in the tax responsibility for such services. Prestridge v. City of Petal, 841 So. 2d 1048 (Miss. 2003).

Evidence supported the reasonableness of a proposed annexation where (1) the city established a need to expand due to its population increase, economic growth, limited areas in which to grow, traffic congestion, and need for access to an interstate highway, (2) the area that the city sought to annex was in the city's path of growth, (3) over 85 percent of the people in the area the city sought to annex were without public water or sewer and thus presented a potential health hazard, (4) the city had the financial ability to make improvements and pay the necessary increase in operating expenses caused by the annexation, (5) there was a need for overall planning and zoning, (6) the area that the city sought to annex was in need of municipal services, (7) the natural barriers were not sufficient to prohibit the annexation, (8) the city had provided in a timely fashion the capital improvements and municipal services to the area as provided in an earlier annexation, (9) the residents of the area that the city sought to annex would receive capital improvements and municipal services that would outweigh the impact of additional taxes, (10) the annexation would not cause any dilution of minority voting strength, and (11) many of the residents of the area that the city sought to annex worked in the city and used city facilities. Lee v. City of Biloxi, 744 So. 2d 270 (Miss. 1999).

Record did not support finding that state capital's proposed annexation of 24.25 square miles of territory outside of its existing corporate limits was reasonable; city's population was decreasing, commercial building permits had decreased considerably despite availability of considerable vacant, developable land within city, city admitted that it wanted revenues that annexation would provide by expanding city's tax base, city failed to prove that current services in proposed annexation area were inadequate, and city school official testified that, with exception of possibly two schools, all city schools were operating at or above capacity, and that no thought had been given to where annexed students would attend school. Bunch v. City of Jackson, 691 So. 2d 978 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 700 So. 2d 331 (Miss. 1997).

Facts that there had been no significant population growth and/or that there was relatively high percentage of undeveloped land within existing city limits, should, at very least, be impediment to annexation. Bunch v. City of Jackson, 691 So. 2d 978 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 700 So. 2d 331 (Miss. 1997).

Although it has been held that city's need to maintain or expand its tax base, especially as growth and development occurs on its perimeters, is factor to be considered when determining reasonableness of proposed annexation, Supreme Court has been very critical of annexations which are in effect "tax grabs." Bunch v. City of Jackson, 691 So. 2d 978 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 700 So. 2d 331 (Miss. 1997).

When current services in proposed annexation area are adequate, fact that annexation may enhance municipal services should not be given much relevance, especially where evidence of likelihood of enhanced service is greatly conflicting. Bunch v. City of Jackson, 691 So. 2d 978 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 700 So. 2d 331 (Miss. 1997).

Chancellor's decision that town's annexation request was reasonable was supported by evidence that town population was growing, no good residential building locations were left, proposed area was in path of growth, lack of sewer hookups in proposed area created health hazard, town had plan and financial ability to provide services to area, garbage collection costs would be lowered, and annexation would make industrial development possible. Burch v. Town of Mantachi, 685 So. 2d 724 (Miss. 1996).

Plans that call for extension of services into annexation areas when economically feasible are not per se unreasonable, but if there is evidence of lack of commitment, such as general failure to estimate costs and plan for implementation of municipal services, then reasonableness of annexation proposal can fairly be questioned. Burch v. Town of Mantachi, 685 So. 2d 724 (Miss. 1996).

Town's promise to provide sewer improvement when economically feasible did not render annexation request unreasonable where town had made preliminary cost estimates and plans. Burch v. Town of Mantachi, 685 So. 2d 724 (Miss. 1996).

Evidence was not sufficient to justify chancellor's finding that city accountant testified that without MP & L plant, annexation was not feasible, where record revealed that city accountant only admitted that loss of MP & L would adversely affect city's bonding capacity and would significantly affect feasibility of annexation. City of Greenville v. Farmers, Inc., 513 So. 2d 932 (Miss. 1987).

Municipality's efforts to annex were denied upon findings by the chancery court, supported by substantial evidence, that the municipality lacked financial ability to make improvements and furnish municipal services to the area sought to be annexed, and that it had failed to provide adequate services to the residents of a community within its present boundaries. Extension of Boundaries v. Sherman, 492 So. 2d 289 (Miss. 1986).

The annexation ordinance need not be introduced into evidence where a certified copy was attached to the petition as an exhibit. In re City of Meridian, 237 Miss. 486, 115 So. 2d 323 (1959).

Opinion evidence that a majority of the qualified electors, both in the city proper and in the added territory, would vote both now and in the future against a bond issue to provide municipal services was too speculative and conjectural to amount to proof. In re City of Phila., 232 Miss. 582, 100 So. 2d 100 (1958).

In a proceeding by a city for the ratification, approval and confirmation of an ordinance extending the city's corporate limits, a witness, who had BS and MS degrees from Mississippi State College, passed the state department of public accountant's examination for certified public accountants, and had been certified under Code 1942, § 8908 and had made an audit of the city's records himself, was properly permitted to testify as to the assessed valuation of the property within the city and the amount of bonds which could be issued, without further qualification of his evidence. In re City of Phila., 232 Miss. 582, 100 So. 2d 100 (1958).

In a proceeding by a city for a decree adjudging an enlargement of the city limits, although the chancellor is not bound by the adjudication of the mayor and board of aldermen that the proposed extension was reasonable, and had the right to determine for himself whether the extension was reasonable and was required by the public convenience and necessity, the chancellor was entitled to give some weight to the opinion of the city authorities. In re City of Indianola, 226 Miss. 760, 85 So. 2d 212 (1956).

7. Decree.

In a consolidated suit, the City of Ridgeland, Mississippi, prevailed on its petition to annex land in Madison County, Mississippi; the chancellor erred by removing a business park from Ridgeland and awarding it to Jackson, Mississippi, because Ridgeland had less land available for development and a far greater need to expand its borders. The chancery court was directed to enter a judgment with the new boundaries of the municipalities, pursuant to Miss. Code Ann. § 21-1-33. In re Enlargement & Extension of City of Jackson v. City of Ridgeland, 912 So. 2d 961 (Miss. 2005).

A chancery court sitting in an annexation confirmation proceeding may confirm the annexation of an area less than all the municipality seeks to annex. Magnolia Marine Transp. Co. v. City of Vicksburg, 560 So. 2d 713 (Miss. 1990).

An annexation ordinance becomes effective, when, and not before, it is approved by a decree of the chancery court, and neither recording nor signing of such an ordinance in the ordinance book will render it effective without such approval. City of Biloxi v. Cawley, 278 So. 2d 389 (Miss. 1973).

A decree which ratified, approved, and confirmed a city ordinance expanding the city's limits, as modified by the trial court to exclude the property of objectors pursuant to an agreement between the city and objectors, was not a "consent decree" insofar as modification was concerned, and the decree which recited that the trial court had heard testimony and that the ordinance as modified was reasonable did not amount to an amendment of the ordinance by the city without a proper amendatory ordinance. Sperry Rand Corp. v. City of Jackson, 248 So. 2d 810 (Miss. 1971).

While it is better form for the decree in a proceeding to confirm the extension of city boundaries to state that the chancellor has found that reasonable municipal services will be rendered in the annexed territory within a reasonable time, failure to so state does not render the decree invalid, it being apparent that this section [Code 1942, § 3374-13] requires only that the chancellor enter a decree approving, ratifying, and confirming the proposed enlargement if he finds that the proposed enlargement is reasonable and that the proper municipal services will be rendered within a reasonable time. Ferguson v. Town of Vaiden, 242 So. 2d 124 (Miss. 1970).

A decree ratifying and approving an ordinance extending city limits which described the boundaries of the entire city as altered by the annexation, rather than describing the newly annexed area alone, sufficiently complied with the requirements of this section. Butler v. City of Gulfport, 253 Miss. 738, 179 So. 2d 3 (1965).

The fact that an appeal from a decision of city board of election commissioners involved construction of a decree of the chancery court approving an ordinance that extended city limits was not a sufficient reason for transferring the cause to the chancery court. Lippian v. Ros, 253 Miss. 325, 175 So. 2d 138 (1965).

Where chancery court was without authority, in a decree approving an ordinance enlarging the boundaries of a municipality, to defer the effective date of the ordinance, the invalid portion of the decree may be collaterally attacked by one who relies upon the valid portions of the same decree. Lippian v. Ros, 253 Miss. 325, 175 So. 2d 138 (1965).

The court may not enlarge, but may reduce the area sought to be annexed, to the extent it is found to be unreasonable. In re City of Meridian, 237 Miss. 486, 115 So. 2d 323 (1959).

In a proceeding by a city for the ratification, approval and confirmation of an ordinance extending the city's corporate limits, the court had the power to decrease the territory to be included, and was amply justified from the evidence in finding that the enlarged limit, as modified, was reasonable and was required by the public convenience and necessity. In re City of Phila., 232 Miss. 582, 100 So. 2d 100 (1958).

8. Judicial review.

City's proposed annexation, viewed through the lens of totality, was reasonable under Miss. Code Ann. § 21-1-33 because, in addition to indicia of reasonableness that objectors had conceded, it had long been providing many services to portions of the proposed annexation area, and annexation power was legislative, not judicial, so that the state supreme court declined an invitation to add yet another factor in its consideration; the area sought to be annexed was reasonably within a part of growth of the city, which needed to expand, and there was a need for zoning, overall planning, and municipal services in the proposed area. In re City of Brookhaven, — So. 2d —, 2007 Miss. LEXIS 204 (Miss. Apr. 5, 2007).

If chancellor employed correct legal standards in determining reasonableness of annexation, Supreme Court's standard of review is limited; reversal of chancellor's findings is warranted only if chancellor is manifestly wrong and his findings are not supported by substantial credible evidence. Bunch v. City of Jackson, 691 So. 2d 978 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 700 So. 2d 331 (Miss. 1997).

Although it has been held that city's need to maintain or expand its tax base, especially as growth and development occurs on its perimeters, is factor to be considered when determining reasonableness of proposed annexation, Supreme Court has been very critical of annexations which are in effect "tax grabs." Bunch v. City of Jackson, 691 So. 2d 978 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 700 So. 2d 331 (Miss. 1997).

Chancellor's findings in annexation case are reviewed to determine whether they are supported by substantial, credible evidence; if there is credible, conflicting evidence, Supreme Court defers to Chancery Court's findings. Burch v. Town of Mantachi, 685 So. 2d 724 (Miss. 1996).

A failure of proof on 6 of the 12 factors for determining reasonableness of an annexation would not mandate reversal as a matter of law of the chancellor's finding of reasonableness; the chancellor was required to determine reasonableness under the totality of the circumstances, employing the 12 applicable indicia of reasonableness merely as an aid to this determination. Perry v. Guion, 650 So. 2d 490 (Miss. 1995).

A chancellor's approval of an annexation was correct where he made a finding of reasonableness regarding each of the 12 factors for determining reasonableness, and there was a showing of benefits to be gained by the residents of the proposed annexation area in exchange for their city taxes. Perry v. Guion, 650 So. 2d 490 (Miss. 1995).

Chancellor was manifestly wrong in finding entire annexation to be unreasonable, and should have denied annexation of those areas for which annexation would be unreasonable, and allowed annexation of remaining areas, where chancellor relied too heavily on highly speculative evidence when he included an 8.3 million dollar contingent bond liability in computing city's financial ability to fund annexation. City of Greenville v. Farmers, Inc., 513 So. 2d 932 (Miss. 1987).

Evidence was not sufficient to justify chancellor's finding that city accountant testified that without MP & L plant, annexation was not feasible, where record revealed that city accountant only admitted that loss of MP & L would adversely affect city's bonding capacity and would significantly affect feasibility of annexation. City of Greenville v. Farmers, Inc., 513 So. 2d 932 (Miss. 1987).

Supreme Court has authority, in appropriate case on appeal, to modify chancellor's order concerning annexation. City of Greenville v. Farmers, Inc., 513 So. 2d 932 (Miss. 1987).

As a reviewing court, the Supreme Court is limited to a determination of whether the chancellor's finding on the question of reasonableness is manifestly wrong, and, where there is conflicting evidence, it will give great deference to the chancellor's findings. McElhanev v. City of Horn Lake, 501 So. 2d 401 (Miss. 1987).

In an action by a city to annex a utility district, the trial court properly found that the city had failed to prove that the annexation was reasonable where the evidence was sufficient to support the trial court's findings that the city had no existing need for expansion, that a flood plain was a natural barrier between the city and the area sought to be annexed, and that the area proposed to be annexed had adequate public services. Horn Lake v. Renfro, 365 So. 2d 623 (Miss. 1978).

On an application to obtain the court's approval of a proposed annexation, the city has the burden of showing it to be reasonable, and if the chancellor's finding of reasonableness or unreasonableness is supported by substantial evidence, the supreme court will not disturb it. In re City of Forest, 247 Miss. 340, 153 So. 2d 688 (1963).

Question of reasonableness of enlargement of municipality is a judicial question and determination is a proper exercise of judicial function. Ritchie v. City of Brookhaven, 217 Miss. 876, 65 So. 2d 832 (1953).

8.5. Time limitations.

It was error for a chancellor to order a city to file a supplemental preclearance request with the United States Attorney General under § 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended, 42 U.S.C.S. § 1973c, because whether and how to initiate or to continue litigation was a matter of discretion for any governmental body, but because, under both Miss. Code Ann. § 21-1-33 and Miss. Code Ann. § 21-1-21, a chancellor's decree went into effect 10 days after an appeal was decided, and the city had not requested supersedeas, the city's notice of appeal did not stay the judgment of the chancery court and prevent the city from being held in contempt. The judgment was not automatically stayed by Miss. Code Ann. § 21-1-33. City of Grenada v. Marascalco (In re Contraction, Exclusion & Deannexation of Certain Areas), 876 So. 2d 995 (Miss. 2004).

9. Under former law.

Where the mayor and aldermen of the city of Louisville by adoption of an ordinance proposing to add new territory to the city of Louisville, adjudicated that the extension was reasonable, the burden was upon the objectors to overturn such adjudication and show the extension to be unreasonable. Ball v. City of Louisville, 218 Miss. 867, 56 So. 2d 4 (1952).

Testimony that acquisition of new industries would, by furnishing employment to substantial number of workers, increase both population and extent of additional services is relevant and competent to issue of relative advantage and disadvantage upon which issue of reasonableness is to be resolved. Nicholson v. Town of Booneville, 208 Miss. 800, 45 So. 2d 594 (1950).

On the issue of ability of town to furnish improvements, jury may assume that proper municipal assessment will greatly exceed average of assessment of property in new area as shown on state and county assessment rolls prior to its annexation to town. Nicholson v. Town of Booneville, 208 Miss. 800, 45 So. 2d 594 (1950).

One who challenges validity of ordinance of extension of city boundaries has duty of supporting his pleading with preponderating evidence establishing ground of challenge to be true in fact as stated in plea. Vail v. City of Jackson, 206 Miss. 299, 40 So. 2d 151 (1949).

On the issue whether a proposed extension is reasonable or unreasonable, the burden of proof is upon the contestants. Walker v. Town of Waynesboro, 202 Miss. 830, 32 So. 2d 455 (1947).

That some part of such territory is low and marshy and other parts vacant, and that many persons living thereon have not consented to the extension, is not of consequence. Forbes v. Mayor of Meridian, 86 Miss. 243, 38 So. 676 (1905).

The taxing of property proposed to be taken into municipal limits by an extension thereof is not the taking or damaging of property without due process of law. Forbes v. Mayor of Meridian, 86 Miss. 243, 38 So. 676 (1905).

An extension of the limits of a municipality is reasonable where it is necessary for the protection of health that the territory in question should be included within the municipal limits. Forbes v. Mayor of Meridian, 86 Miss. 243, 38 So. 676 (1905).

The fact that property owners would have to pay additional taxes if their property is included in such extension is no reason why the property should not be included where it would derive benefits from the municipality in the way of lower insurance rates, etc. Forbes v. Mayor of Meridian, 86 Miss. 243, 38 So. 676 (1905).

Although Miss. Code Section 21-1-33 provides that effective date of annexation ordinance is ten days from final determination of appeal from decree approving ordinance, under federal law annexations are not effective for election or voting purposes until federal preclearance is obtained under Section 5 of Voting Rights Act of 1965. Hewes, Mar. 5, 1993, A.G. Op. #92-0969.

Municipality is obligated under Miss. Code Section 21-1-33 to spend public funds to provide reasonable public and municipal services within reasonable time to citizens in annexed area. Keenum, Mar. 10, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0121.

§ 21-1-35. Costs.

In the event no objection is made to the petition for the enlargement or contraction of the municipal boundaries, the municipality shall be taxed with all costs of the proceedings. In the event objection is made, such costs may be taxed in such manner as the chancellor shall determine to be equitable pursuant to the Mississippi Rules of Civil Procedure. In the event of an appeal from the judgment of the chancellor, the costs incurred in the appeal shall be taxed against the appellant if the judgment be affirmed, and against the appellee if the judgment be reversed.

1. In general.

The statutory 10-day period for appeal from a chancery decree deannexing territory from a city was not a true statute of limitations in the sense that such a statute fixes the interval between the time of accrual of a right and the time allowed for commencement of an action to enforce the right. As the brevity of the period in itself showed, it was instead merely a procedural limitation on the parties' use of appellate process in a municipal deannexation proceeding, and it was not a limitation on the right to bring a civil rights action in federal court based on an alleged abuse of the statutory deannexation procedure. Franklin v. City of Marks, 439 F.2d 665 (5th Cir. 1971).

The filing of a $500 cost bond by a party appealing to the Supreme Court of Mississippi from a decree confirming a municipal ordinance extending the city limits does not operate as a supersedeas where, following an unsuccessful appeal to that court, the appellant filed a petition for certiorari in the Supreme Court of the United States. Bridges v. City of Biloxi, 253 Miss. 812, 178 So. 2d 683 (1965), motion overruled, 253 Miss. 812, 180 So. 2d 154 (1965), motion overruled, 253 Miss. 812, 180 So. 2d 641 (1965), appeal dismissed, 383 U.S. 574, 86 S. Ct. 1077, 16 L. Ed. 2d 106 (1966).

Since the statutes give an interested party a right to appeal in annexation proceeding upon furnishing a good bond in the sum of $500, and to have such bond operate as a supersedeas, the chancellor had no authority to require bonds in excess of that amount, notwithstanding that such bonds were insufficient to assure the payment of accrued costs on appeal. Dodd v. City of Jackson, 238 Miss. 372, 118 So. 2d 319 (1960).

Since the two $500 bonds were sufficient to perfect an appeal in an annexation proceeding, the $5,000 bond, erroneously required by the chancellor, would be treated as surplusage and discharged, thereby releasing the sureties thereon. Dodd v. City of Jackson, 238 Miss. 372, 118 So. 2d 319 (1960).

In a proceeding to approve an ordinance extending the corporate limits of a city, where the final decree was dated Nov. 12, 1955, in vacation, and it was not entered upon the minutes of the court until November 16, 1955, and it was not shown upon the docket of the court until November 16, 1955, an appeal bond which was filed on November 25, 1955, was within the ten days provided for appeal by the statute. Spears v. City of Oxford, 227 Miss. 801, 87 So. 2d 61 (1956).

2. Time limitations.

It was error for a chancellor to order a city to file a supplemental preclearance request with the United States Attorney General under § 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended, 42 U.S.C.S. § 1973c, because whether and how to initiate or to continue litigation was a matter of discretion for any governmental body, but because, under both Miss. Code 1942, § 1163 had no application in an appeal in an annexation proceeding. Dodd v. City of Jackson, 238 Miss. 372, 118 So. 2d 319 (1960).

Where the board of mayor and aldermen of city of Louisville, by passage of the ordinance proposing to add the new territory, adjudicated that the extension was reasonable and also where the chancellor held that the objectors failed to show the extension to be unreasonable, the Supreme Court will not overrule this action without clear ground or reason of justification. Ball v. City of Louisville, 218 Miss. 867, 56 So. 2d 4 (1952).

On appeal from ordinance enlarging geographical area of town from 800 acres to 1237 acres, issue of reasonableness of ordinance is for jury and its verdict upholding ordinance is not without substantial support where record on behalf of objectors relates chiefly to disinclination of citizens in added area to be burdened with additional taxes and their doubts that city will furnish benefits commensurate with burdens placed upon them, and testimony on behalf of city shows purpose and ability to furnish new area with street improvements, water and sewerage facilities, police and fire protection, and garbage disposal. Nicholson v. Town of Booneville, 208 Miss. 800, 45 So. 2d 594 (1950).

On appeal from ordinance enlarging geographical area of town, jury has right to take into account practical necessity of extending new improvements gradually and probability that existing bond issues will be reduced during reasonable period of extension so that ultimately entire new area will be supplied reasonably. Nicholson v. Town of Booneville, 208 Miss. 800, 45 So. 2d 594 (1950).

On appeal from ordinance enlarging geographical area of town, light and water utilities furnished by private corporations but in conjunction with aid rendered by town and under its supervision, can be credited to town as showing ability of town to furnish these improvements. Nicholson v. Town of Booneville, 208 Miss. 800, 45 So. 2d 594 (1950).

Purpose and intent of this section is for speedy disposition of appeal involving municipal expansion and Code 1942, § 1519, providing that no issue of fact shall be tried before next succeeding term after issue is made up unless defendant has been personally served with process for thirty days before return-date, has no application to appeals under this section. Vail v. City of Jackson, 206 Miss. 299, 40 So. 2d 151 (1949).

Proposed extension that is prohibited by this section for one year is extension by ordinance that is adjudged unreasonable, and this section does not prohibit within year new extension ordinance that is in no way similar to that found unreasonable; and city may include in subsequent ordinance any part of lands included in ordinance previously declared invalid. Vail v. City of Jackson, 206 Miss. 299, 40 So. 2d 151 (1949).

On appeal to circuit court from ordinance extending municipal boundaries, reasonableness of ordinance is issue to be determined and need of streets, if any, is only one circumstance among many to be considered by jury in arriving at conclusion upon whether or not ordinance is reasonable. Neely v. City of Charleston, 204 Miss. 360, 37 So. 2d 495 (1948).

The necessary and inevitable increase in taxation on the property in the new area within extended municipal limits is not a proper subject of testimony on appeal where the actual or probable city assessments are not shown so that it can be determined whether the increase would be so disproportionate to the compensating benefits as to become unreasonable. Kennedy v. City of Kosciusko, 203 Miss. 4, 33 So. 2d 285 (1948).

Tender by the contestants of the issue of reasonableness vel non is sufficiently met by a general issue plea. Walker v. Town of Waynesboro, 202 Miss. 830, 32 So. 2d 455 (1947).

Extension of the limits of a municipality was sustained where the testimony of contestants disclosed chiefly their personal reactions and their opinions that no substantial benefits would probably accrue to them, whereas the entire record sufficiently revealed a purpose toward and a probability of benefit both to the citizens of the old and of the new areas. Walker v. Town of Waynesboro, 202 Miss. 830, 32 So. 2d 455 (1947).

On appeal from ordinance, court could not consider question of loss of power to tax, on part of school district, territory included in municipality under ordinance. City of Pass Christian v. Town of Long Beach, 157 Miss. 778, 128 So. 554 (1930).

Proof of publication held not requisite part of record on appeal from ordinance extending city limits. City of Pass Christian v. Town of Long Beach, 157 Miss. 778, 128 So. 554 (1930).

Taxpayer failing to appeal from ordinance of annexation was estopped to question validity of ordinance in collateral proceeding. City of Greenwood v. Humphreys, 157 Miss. 879, 127 So. 694 (1930), error overruled, 157 Miss. 889, 128 So. 885 (1930).

An ordinance extending the territory of a town cannot be collaterally attacked by one who has waived his rights of appeal. Sanders v. City of Starkville, 128 Miss. 742, 91 So. 422 (1922).

Where on appeal there was no conflict in the evidence which conclusively showed the reasonableness of the ordinance, a peremptory instruction for the city was correct. Kraetzer Cured Lumber Co. v. Moorhead, 118 Miss. 736, 80 So. 4 (1918);

Gregory v. Amory, 112 Miss. 604, 73 So. 614 (1917).

A municipality operating under a commission form of government ordering a referendum is held not to supersede an appeal from such ordinance. Gregory v. City of Amory, 112 Miss. 604, 73 So. 614 (1917).

The question of the return of revenue which the municipality may receive from the territory proposed to be annexed is not a criterion by which to determine the reasonableness or unreasonableness of the ordinance. Forbes v. Mayor of Meridian, 86 Miss. 243, 38 So. 676 (1905).

Appeal under § 3380, Code of 1942 is tried de novo. Yerger v. Town of Greenwood, 77 Miss. 378, 27 So. 620 (1900).

COMBINATION

Any two or more cities or towns being adjacent or situated sufficiently near to each other may combine into and become one municipality in the same manner as is provided for the enlargement or contraction of municipal boundaries. It shall be necessary for the governing authorities of each municipality to adopt the ordinance with regard thereto in the same manner as is provided in Section 21-1-27 with regard to the enlargement or contraction of municipal boundaries. It shall also be necessary that such municipal authorities shall file a joint petition in the proper chancery court, and thereafter proceedings shall be had in the same manner as is provided in cases of enlargement or contraction of municipal boundaries. The ordinance and the petition filed with the chancery court shall state the name that shall be given to the municipality to be formed. In the event of the consolidation of two or more municipalities into one as herein provided, the decree of the chancellor shall correctly classify the municipality so formed in accordance with the facts, based upon the total population of all of such municipalities as shown by the latest available federal census. When said consolidation shall have become final and operative, all of such municipalities shall be merged into one under the name set forth in the ordinances adopted by the governing authorities of the municipalities so consolidated. The governing authorities of all the municipalities so consolidated shall become members of the governing authority of the municipality so formed until the next regular election, when the proper number of members of the governing authority shall be elected as provided by law, and the mayor or chief executive officer of the largest municipality, according to population, shall become the mayor or chief executive officer of the municipality so formed. The assessments and levies for ad valorem taxation in force at the time of the consolidation of such municipalities for the territory of each municipality shall be the assessment and levy upon which taxes shall be collected for the then current fiscal year, but in all other respects the existing laws and ordinances of the largest municipality, according to population, shall be operative throughout the enlarged limits.

Nothing in this section shall authorize the combination of two or more villages unless such villages shall have a combined population of five hundred or more, according to the latest available federal census.

Municipal ordinance extending limits to include territory of existing town without its consent is subject to collateral attack. City of Pascagoula v. Krebs, 151 Miss. 676, 118 So. 286 (1928).

A former statutory provision (§ 3312, Code of 1906, as amended by Laws of 1908, Ch. 187), gave no authority for one municipality to absorb another municipality, but merely provided a time when, if the absorption should occur, the absorbed municipality should stand abolished, and Code 1906, § 3301 (Code 1942, § 3376) and the other cognate sections of the chapter on municipalities provided alone for power in a municipality to incorporate, by extension of its limits, adjacent unincorporated territory. *Village of Gandsi v. INCLUSION OR EXCLUSION FROM EXISTING MUNICIPALITY

21-1-45. Electors' option to be included in or excluded from existing municipality; preparing and filing of petition.

21-1-47. Proceedings in chancery court.

§ 21-1-45. Electors' option to be included in or excluded from existing municipality; preparing and filing of petition.

The qualified electors of any territory contiguous to and adjoining any existing municipality and the qualified electors of any territory which is a part of an existing municipality, may be included in or excluded from such municipality, as the case may be, in the manner hereinafter provided.

Whenever the inhabitants of any incorporated territory adjacent to any municipality shall desire to be included therein, and whenever the inhabitants of any territory which is a part of an existing municipality shall desire to be excluded therefrom, they shall prepare a petition and file same in the chancery court of the county in which such municipality is located, which said petition shall be signed by at least two-thirds of the qualified electors residing in the territory proposed to be included in or excluded from such municipality. Said petition shall describe accurately the metes and bounds of the territory proposed to be included in or excluded from such municipality, shall set forth the reasons why the public convenience and necessity would be served by such territory being included in or excluded from such municipality, as the case may be, and shall be sworn to by one or more of the petitioners. In all cases, there shall be attached to such petition a plat of the municipal boundaries as same will exist in the event the territory in question is included in or excluded from such municipality. No territory may be so excluded from a municipality within two years from the time that such territory was incorporated into such municipality, and no territory may be so excluded if it would wholly separate any territory not so excluded from the remainder of the municipality. No petition for the inclusion or exclusion of any territory under this section shall be filed within two years from the date of any adverse determination of any proceedings originated hereinafter under this chapter for the inclusion or exclusion of the same territory.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
2. Review.

1. In general.

Although Mississippi Code § 21-1-45 contains no dispositive definition for the term "qualified electors," it would be inappropriate to adopt the definition of that term found in Mississippi Code § 23-5-85 [Repealed], and to employ the entire panoply of rules applicable to public elections to a proceeding to obtain annexation of unincorporated area by an adjacent existing municipality. Schmidt v. City of Jackson, 494 So. 2d 348 (Miss. 1986).

The legislature has prescribed means by which persons residing in an unincorporated area may obtain annexation to a municipality adjacent to the area in which they live. Schmidt v. City of Jackson, 494 So. 2d 348 (Miss. 1986).

Persons living within an incorporated territory at the time of petitioning, as well as persons living within an unincorporated area, may upon a proper showing enjoy the remedy afforded by Mississippi Code § 21-1-45. Schmidt v. City of Jackson, 494 So. 2d 348 (Miss. 1986).

Citizens living in an unincorporated area which is a territory contiguous to and adjoining an existing municipality may proceed under Mississippi Code §§ 21-1-45 and 21-1-47 to obtain annexation by the municipality. Schmidt v. City of Jackson, 494 So. 2d 348 (Miss. 1986).

The allegations of a complaint filed by residents of an unincorporated area seeking to obtain annexation by an adjacent existing municipality were sufficient to confer upon the chancery court authority to proceed in the matter. Schmidt v. City of Jackson, 494 So. 2d 348 (Miss. 1986).

For the purposes of an action to obtain annexation of an unincorporated area by an adjacent existing municipality, the question of whether the two-thirds requirement has been met must be determined by ascertaining the number of persons living in the area to be annexed who, on the date the complaint was filed, were registered voters in the area, and then determining whether two-thirds of that number have signed the complaint. Schmidt v. City of Jackson, 494 So. 2d 348 (Miss. 1986).

Where town residents filed a cross-petition seeking to be excluded from the existing corporate limits in a proceeding for confirmation of an ordinance extending the city boundaries, the cross-petition was properly dismissed; a proceeding by inhabitants of any territory which is part of an existing municipality to be excluded therefrom is entirely separate, apart from, and not germane to the proceeding of a municipality to enlarge or contract its boundaries. Ferguson v. Town of Vaiden, 242 So. 2d 124 (Miss. 1970).

2. Review.

Where, in a deannexation proceeding, a city relied on only one of the 12 indicia of reasonableness applicable to either annexation or deannexation under Miss. Code Ann. §§ 21-1-45, 21-1-47, and objectors presented evidence on all 12, under its limited standard of review of such proceedings, the Supreme Court of Mississippi determined that the chancellor's finding on deannexation was correct. City of Grenada v. Marascalco (In re Contraction, Exclusion & Deannexation of Certain Areas), 876 So. 2d 995 (Miss. 2004).

Upon the filing of such a petition, all of the proceedings of this chapter with regard to proceedings in the chancery court upon petitions for the creation, enlargement, and contraction of municipalities shall apply in like manner thereto. Notice of the filing of such petition and the time for the hearing shall be given in the manner and for the length of time as is required in cases of proceedings for the creation, enlargement, or contraction of a municipality. Any parties to the proceedings aggrieved by the decree of the chancellor may appeal therefrom in the same manner and within the same time as is provided in cases of decrees on petitions involving the creation, enlargement or contraction of a municipal corporation. In all proceedings under this section, however, the municipal corporation involved shall be made a party to such proceedings and shall be served with process in the manner provided by law at least thirty days prior to the date of the hearing. If the chancellor finds from the evidence that the proposed inclusion or exclusion is reasonable and is required by the public convenience and necessity, then he shall enter a decree declaring the territory in question to be included in or excluded from the municipality, as the case may be, which decree shall contain an adjudication of the boundaries of the municipality as altered. In so doing, the chancellor shall have the right and power to modify the proposed enlargement or contraction by decreasing the territory to be included in or excluded from the municipality, as the case may be. If the chancellor shall find from the evidence that the proposed inclusion or exclusion, as the case may be, is unreasonable and is not required by the public convenience and necessity, then he shall enter a decree denying same. In any event, the decree of the chancellor shall become effective after the passage of ten days from the date thereof or, in the event an appeal is taken therefrom, within ten days from the final determination of such appeal. In all cases where territory is included in or excluded from a municipality under the provisions hereof, a certified copy of the decree of the chancellor shall be sent to the Secretary of State and a map or plat of the boundaries of the municipality as altered shall be filed with the chancery clerk, all as provided in Sections 21-1-39 and 21-1-41.

In the event any census taken under an act of congress shall show that any municipality contains less than fifty (50) inhabitants, then such municipality shall be automatically abolished and all its rights and powers as a municipal corporation shall thereupon cease. In such cases it shall be the duty of the secretary of state to make an appropriate notation on the records of such municipal corporation in his office showing that such municipal corporation has been abolished because of having less than fifty (50) inhabitants, and he shall forthwith send a notice to the municipal authorities advising them of such fact, and shall send a copy of the notice to the chancery clerk of the county in which such municipality is located. However, the failure of the secretary of state to make such notation or to send such notice shall not prevent the abolition of such municipal corporation as is herein provided, but such abolition shall result automatically from the fact that the census shows that such municipal corporation has less than fifty (50) inhabitants. Any municipality having not less than fifty (50) inhabitants and having heretofore been abolished under the federal census of 1970 by operation of language formerly employed in this section providing for such abolition should a municipality contain less than ninety-two (92) inhabitants, is hereby restored to all rights and privileges as a municipality after the most recent governing authority of the municipality gives notice to the secretary of state that such municipality desires to be restored to all rights and privileges as a municipality.

Whenever the municipal authorities of any municipality shall fail to hold official meetings for a period of twelve consecutive months, or whenever municipal general elections of officers shall not be held in any municipal corporation as required by law upon two consecutive occasions, then such municipal corporation shall be automatically abolished, and its rights and powers as a municipal corporation shall cease and determine. The official minute book of the municipality shall be the sole evidence of whether any official meetings were held in such municipal corporation during any twelve month period, except in cases of fraud or falsification, and abolition of the municipality shall result automatically where the official minute book fails to show a record of any official meetings during such twelve month period. In cases of the failure to hold municipal general elections of officers on two consecutive occasions, the records in the office of the secretary of state as to whether or not returns of such elections were made to him as required by law shall be the sole evidence of whether such elections were held, except in cases of fraud, falsification, loss of such records or clear and patent mistake, oversight, or omission.

Any municipal corporation having a population of less than one thousand inhabitants, according to the latest available federal census, may be abolished and dissolved in the manner hereinafter provided. In order to abolish or dissolve such a municipality, the mayor and board of aldermen, or other governing authorities of the municipality, shall first adopt an ordinance declaring their intention to abolish or dissolve such municipality, which ordinance shall set forth in full the reason or reasons why such municipality should be abolished and why the public convenience and necessity would be served by the abolition thereof. When such ordinance shall have been adopted, the municipal authorities shall file a petition in the chancery court in which such municipality is located, which said petition shall recite the fact of the adoption of such ordinance and shall pray that the said municipality be abolished and dissolved as provided in such ordinance. A certified copy of said ordinance shall be attached to said petition as an exhibit thereto. All the provisions of this chapter with regard to proceedings in chancery court on petitions for the creation, enlargement and contraction of municipalities shall apply in like manner to the proceedings for the abolition of a municipal corporation. Notice of the filing of said petition and the time for the hearing thereof shall be given in the manner and for the length of time as is required in cases of petitions for the creation, enlargement or contraction of municipalities. Parties aggrieved by the decree of the chancellor may appeal from such decree in the same manner and within the same time as is provided in cases of decrees on petitions involving the creation, enlargement or contraction of a municipal corporation. If the chancellor shall find from the evidence that the proposed abolition is reasonable and will serve the public convenience and necessity, he shall enter his decree declaring the said municipal corporation to be dissolved and abolished, and said decree shall become effective after the passage of ten days from the date thereof, except in cases of appeal in which cases the decree shall become effective after the passage of ten days from the final determination of the appeal. If the chancellor shall find from the evidence that the proposed abolition is unreasonable and is not required by the public convenience and necessity, he shall enter his decree denying such abolition. The hearing provided for herein may be held either in term time or in vacation.

Whenever a municipal corporation shall be so abolished, the chancery clerk shall, after the expiration of ten days from the date of such decree, if no appeal be taken therefrom, forward to the secretary of state a certified copy of such decree, which shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State and remain a permanent record thereof. The secretary of state shall note on his official records pertaining to such municipal corporation the fact that such corporation has been so abolished. In the event an appeal be taken from such decree and such decree be affirmed, then the certified copy thereof shall be forwarded to the secretary of state within ten days after the receipt of the mandate from the supreme court notifying the clerk of such affirmance.

§ 21-1-59. Municipalities may not incorporate state institutions without consent; effect of annexation crossing county lines on schools in annexed areas; annexations prior to March 18, 1987 ratified; municipalities authorized to enter agreements with enterprises operating certain projects provided that such municipalities not change boundaries to include project site.

(1) No municipality shall be created or shall change its boundaries so as to include within the limits of such municipality any of the buildings or grounds of any state institution, unless consent thereto shall be obtained in writing from the board of trustees of such institution or such other governing board or body as may be created for the control of such institution. Inclusion of the buildings or grounds of any state institution within the area of a municipal incorporation or expansion without the consent hereinabove required shall be voidable at the option of the affected institution within six (6) months after the institution becomes aware of the inclusion. Upon consent to inclusion within the area of a municipal incorporation or expansion, a state institution may require, subject to agreement of the municipality involved, conditions relating to land use development, zoning requirements, building codes and delivery of governmental services which shall be applicable to the buildings or grounds of the institution included in the municipality.

Provided further, that any future changes in the boundaries of a presently existing municipality which extends into or further extends into a county other than the county in which the municipality's principal office is located shall not affect the public school district located in the annexed area, unless and until consent thereto shall have first been obtained in writing from the board of trustees of the school district proposed to be partially or wholly included in the change of municipal boundaries.

Provided further, that any change in the boundaries of a presently existing municipality of any Class 1 county having two (2) judicial districts, being traversed by U.S. Highway 11 which intersects U.S. Highway 84, shall not affect the public school district located in the annexed area and shall not change the governmental unit to which the school taxes are paid, unless approved by referendum as hereinafter provided.

In the event that twenty percent (20%) of the registered voters residing within the area to be annexed by a municipality petition the governing body of such municipality for a referendum on the question of inclusion in the municipal school district within sixty (60) days of public notice of the adoption of such ordinance, such notice given in the same manner and for the same length of time as is provided in Section 21-1-15 with regard to the creation of municipal corporations, the governing body of the county in which the area to be annexed is located shall hold a referendum of all registered voters residing within the area to be annexed on the question of inclusion in the municipal school district. Approval of the ordinance shall be made by a majority vote of the qualified electors voting in said referendum to be held within ninety (90) days from the date of filing and certification of the petition provided for herein on the question of such extension or contraction. The referendum shall be held in the same manner as are other county elections.

The inclusion of buildings or grounds of any state institution within the area of a municipal incorporation or expansion in any proceedings creating a municipality or enlarging the boundaries of a municipality prior to the effective date of Senate Bill 2307, 1987 Regular Session (Chapter 359, eff March 18, 1987), is hereby ratified, confirmed and validated, regardless of whether such inclusion was in conformity with the requirements of this section at the time of such proceedings, and such inclusion shall not be void or voidable by any affected state institution on or after the effective date of Senate Bill 2307, 1987 Regular Session (Chapter 359, eff March 18, 1987). This paragraph shall not be applicable to and shall not be construed to validate the inclusion of buildings or grounds of any state institution within the area of a municipal incorporation or expansion where such inclusion or the proceedings involving such inclusion were declared invalid or void in a final adjudication of a court of competent jurisdiction prior to the effective date of Senate Bill 2307, 1987 Regular Session (Chapter 359, eff March 18, 1987), and the decision of such court was not appealed within the applicable time period for appeals from such court or was not overturned by any court to which an appeal may have been made.

(2) The governing authorities of a municipality may enter into an agreement with an enterprise operating a project as defined in Section 57-75-5(f)(iv)1 or Section 57-75-5(f)(xxi) providing that the municipality shall not change its boundaries so as to include within the limits of such municipality the project site of such a project unless consent thereto shall be obtained in writing from the enterprise operating the project. Such agreement may be for a period not to exceed thirty (30) years. Such agreement shall be binding on future governing authorities of such municipality.

§ 21-3-1. Adoption of code charter.

Any municipality not now operating under a "Code Charter" may acquire such charter and come under the provisions of this chapter by a majority vote of the electors therein, cast at a general or special election held for such purpose. At such election, the propositions to be voted on shall be "FOR THE CODE CHARTER" and "AGAINST THE CODE CHARTER." If a majority of the legal votes cast are in favor of adopting the code charter, then the municipality shall be subject to and governed by all the following provisions of this chapter, and the result of the election shall be certified to the secretary of state, who shall make a record of same in his office. If a majority of the votes cast shall be against the code charter, the municipal authorities shall so enter of record, and another election submitting the question shall not be held within four years thereafter. After the rejection of the provisions of the code charter by a municipality, and until its acceptance thereof as herein provided, the corporate powers, rights and franchises thereof shall be and remain as now provided by law.

City of Fayette*, 911 So. 2d 1030 (Miss. Ct. App. 2005).

In civil rights action filed by plaintiff as a class action on behalf of all municipal employees subjected to summary dismissal and alleging a property interest in continued employment, city was not liable for the summary termination of officer in violation of his due process rights, notwithstanding city ordinance which established certain rules of conduct for police officers and, providing in part, that "any member of the department guilty of violating these rules and regulations will be subject to reprimand, suspension or dismissal"; such ordinance did not give city police employees protected property interest in their employment by limiting right of the city to discharge for violations of such rules and regulations, nor did the rules and regulations dealing with police conduct create a mutually explicit understanding, independent of § 21-3-5, which provides that employees of municipalities serve at the pleasure of governing authorities and could be terminated with or without cause. McMillian v. City of Hazlehurst, 620 F.2d 484 (5th Cir. 1980).

The governing authorities of municipalities operating under a code charter have the lawful authority to raise the salaries during their term of office. Alexander v. Edwards, 220 Miss. 699, 71 So. 2d 785 (1954).

If the governing authorities of a municipality operating under code charter have acted in bad faith, or if the salary increase had been an arbitrary or unreasonable one in relation to the resources of the town and duties of the officers, then the court would exercise supervisory power to correct such abuse. Alexander v. Edwards, 220 Miss. 699, 71 So. 2d 785 (1954).

2. Discharge of officers.

Even if the plaintiff had an impeccable work record in the town maintenance department, the board of aldermen had authority to discharge him as he served at the pleasure of the mayor and board of aldermen. Shelton v. Town of Hickory Flat, 724 So. 2d 1075 (Ct. App. 1998).

Board of aldermen hires and fires subject to mayor's veto; as chief executive officer of municipality, mayor has superintending control of municipal officers and employees; daily operation of municipal government would be supervised by mayor to insure that proper services are provided. Hardin, May 10, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0301.

Governing authorities of a municipality may pay laborers a salary or pay them an hourly rate, and they may pay salaried employees and hourly rate employees by the week, by the month or according to any other schedule as they see fit. Pittman, Feb. 14, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0051.

Miss. Code Section 21-3-5 provides for duties and compensation of appointive municipal officers by Mayor and Board. Edens, May 12, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0263.

Compensation of municipal clerk of code charter municipality is set by governing authorities pursuant to Miss. Code Section 21-3-5. Edens, May 12, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0263.

Governing authorities may establish all reasonable policies relative to compensation of mayor and board of aldermen, including any compensation for attendance at recess meetings of board of aldermen. Greer, Jan. 12, 1994, A.G. Op. #93-0786.

If governing authorities decide to add collection of water bills to duties of municipal clerk, they are authorized to do so. Harvey, Jan. 12, 1994, A.G. Op. #93-0871.

Section 21-3-5 states that the mayor and board of aldermen have the authority to appoint employees as may be necessary and to prescribe their duties and fix their compensation. The governing authorities may terminate employees and hire other people for those positions at the same meeting. Taylor, October 11, 1996, A.G. Op. #96-0681.

Section 21-3-5 authorizes the mayor and board of aldermen to appoint a police chief and to fix his or her compensation. While the governing authorities have authority to set the salary of the police chief, they do not have authority to pay the moving expenses of the police chief or other officers or employees. McCreary, November 1, 1996, A.G. Op. #96-0770.

Where a municipality adopts a formal police officer personnel manual pertaining to dismissal procedures, the question whether such officers are still at-will employees of the municipality or have acquired a property interest in their continued employment is a determination to be made by a court of competent jurisdiction. Donald, July 25, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0416.

Municipal governing authorities must require officers and employees handling public funds to obtain bonds for at least $10,000 each, but there is no statutory requirement that a mayor or aldermen obtain bonds. Hill, Aug. 8, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0401.

A mayor may not appoint himself or anyone else to be the police chief of a municipality as the board of aldermen has statutory authority pursuant to this section to appoint municipal officers and employees with the specific responsibility of appointing the police chief. Bell-Martin, Nov. 7, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0703.

It is within the discretion of the governing authorities to appoint persons of their choosing to fill positions they deem necessary to the operation of the municipality. Young, July 17, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0300.

A member of a board of aldermen may serve without compensation. Null, January 22, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0019.

The governing authorities of a code charter municipality may hire an individual to serve as a police chaplain and perform specific duties, such as supporting the police department, providing ministry and counsel to criminal defendants in municipal court, and providing assistance to officers in notifying next of kin when motor vehicle accidents result in death. Snyder, March 5, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0098.

The statutory duty to fix the compensation of all municipal officers and employees may not be delegated to a third party arbitrator; any such delegation could unlawfully obligate the governing authorities to pay salaries that are excessive in relation to the financial resources of the municipality. Perkins, Oct. 20, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0603.

Municipal governing authorities may allow an employee who has been suspended without pay for a specific time period to substitute accumulated compensatory time for the time in which he or she would be uncompensated and then to continue working during that time; further, municipal governing authorities may adopt a policy in which the employee must request the substitution and in which the board in its discretion may grant the authority for the substitution in appropriate circumstances. Simpson, Jr., Oct. 27, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0628.

The board of aldermen has the authority to appoint a police chief, subject to the veto power of the mayor. Littleton, III, Nov. 30, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0706.

The board of aldermen of a code charter municipality has the authority to terminate an appointed police chief, subject to the veto power of the mayor. Littleton, III, Nov. 30, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0706.

The board of aldermen, subject to the veto of the mayor, has the authority to promote and demote employees in the police and fire departments, and the police chief and fire chief may make recommendations to the board on promotions and demotions within their respective departments. Brown, Feb. 1, 2002, A.G. Op. #01-0787.

The governing authorities have the discretion to prescribe the duties of police officers, including the duties of assisting the fire department or driving an ambulance if they are needed in those capacities, and such officers may not be paid extra compensation for performing such duties. Brown, Feb. 1, 2002, A.G. Op. #01-0787.

If the board of aldermen determines and establishes by lawful order that the duties of the head of maintenance require access to all municipal buildings, and the mayor does not veto that order, it is the duty of the mayor to see that this order is lawfully carried out; if the mayor refuses to follow the lawful orders of the board, the board may file suit against the mayor in a court of competent jurisdiction. Freeman and Daily, Mar. 15, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0078.

If a municipality is considering authorizing a police officer to deliver municipal deposits to the municipal depository, the officer should be bonded prior to handling any municipal funds. Freeman and Daily, Mar. 15, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0078.

Police chiefs in code charter municipalities are elected, and the governing authorities have the authority to provide by ordinance that the police chief will be appointed; the board of aldermen has the statutory duty to hire and fire police officers and may review the personnel files of police officers in code charter municipalities, whether the police chief is elected or appointed. Davis, July 19, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0396.

The board of aldermen may reprimand a police officer over the objection of the chief of police after seeking information from the chief of police. Lee, Jan. 3, 2003, A.G. Op. #02-0749.

The board of aldermen does not have authority to make daily decisions which arise in the management of the police department, such as decisions concerning an individual officer's shift, duties or assignments. Lee, Jan. 3, 2003, A.G. Op. #02-0749.

All school district employees, both instructional and noninstructional, are entitled to elect to receive equal monthly payments for a twelve-month period. Adams, Jan. 17, 2003, A.G. Op. #02-0750.

City clerk who was working full time and who accumulated annual and/or sick leave with the approval of the employer may use that leave while working in a part time capacity subject to any restrictions on use of leave contained in the city's leave policies. Spinks, July 7, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0310.

The board of aldermen in a code-charter municipality is empowered with setting personnel policies for municipal employees. There is no state agency or other entity which is required to approve those policies. However, should any policies adopted by the municipal governing authorities impact the ability of individuals to run for or hold elective office, approval by the U.S. Department of Justice would be required pursuant to Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965. Young, July 1, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0263.

Municipal governing authorities have the authority to implement a policy requiring that the shifts of all employees of the police department be rotated. Davis, Oct. 29, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0522.

Upon proper findings by the municipal governing authorities that a certain level of physical fitness is required in order for a police officer to perform his/her job duties established by the governing authorities, physical fitness standards may be enacted as a prerequisite to obtaining or maintaining a position as a police officer. Sorrell, Jan. 28, 2005, A.G. Op. 05-0028.

The power given to municipal governing authorities to appoint officers and employees applies to changing wages for employees, either increasing or decreasing, and may be exercised at any time by the governing authorities. If the governing authorities have authorized a pay increase, they may also eliminate that pay increase, or may reduce employee wages. Young, Feb. 14, 2005, A.G. Op. 05-0051.

A town has the authority to hire an experienced contractor and each of his employees as municipal employees for the purpose of constructing a sewage collection system, or for any other construction project to be undertaken by the town. Such a scheme, however, may not be utilized for the purpose of circumventing the state public construction laws. Hatcher, Feb 18, 2005, A.G. Op. 05-0057.

In all municipalities having a population of less than ten thousand according to the latest available federal census, there shall be five aldermen, which aldermen may be elected from the municipality at large, or, in the discretion of the municipal authority, the municipality may be divided into four wards, with one alderman to be selected from each ward and one from the municipality at large. On a petition of twenty per cent of the qualified electors of any such municipality, the provisions of this section as to whether or not the aldermen shall be elected from wards or from the municipality at large shall be determined by the vote of the majority of such qualified electors of such municipality voting in a special election called for that purpose. All aldermen shall be selected by vote of the entire electorate of the municipality. Those municipalities which determine to select one alderman from each of the four wards shall select one from the candidates for alderman from each particular ward who shall be a resident of said ward by majority vote of the entire electorate of the municipality.

In all municipalities having a population of ten thousand or more, according to the latest available federal census, there shall be seven aldermen, which aldermen may be elected from the municipality at large, or, in the discretion of the municipal authority, the municipality may be divided into six wards, with one alderman to be selected from each ward and one from the municipality at large. On a petition of twenty per cent of the qualified electors of any such municipality, the provisions of this section as to whether or not the aldermen shall be elected from wards or from the municipality at large shall be determined by the vote of the majority of such qualified electors of such municipality voting in a special election called for that purpose. This section in no way affects the number of aldermen, councilmen, or commissioners of any city operating under a special charter. All aldermen shall be selected by vote of the entire electorate of the municipality. Those municipalities which determine to select one alderman from each of the six wards shall select one of the candidates for alderman from each particular ward by majority vote of the entire electorate of the municipality.

The section as adopted in 1962 is published here as there has been no legislative action taken to change the law since the court's decision. The text of the section in effect prior to the 1962 amendment is printed below.

"Section 36. Number of aldermen and wards. --- In all municipalities operating under a code charter and having a population of less than ten thousand, according to the latest available federal census, there shall be five aldermen, which aldermen may be elected from the municipality at large, or in the discretion of the municipal authorities, the municipality may be divided into four wards, with one alderman to be elected from each ward and one from the municipality at large. In all such municipalities having a population of ten thousand, or more, according to the latest available federal census, there shall be seven aldermen, and the municipality shall be divided into six wards with one alderman to be elected from each ward and one from the municipality at large. JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
2. Constitutionality.

1. In general.

A change by the City of Canton, Mississippi from ward to at-large elections of city aldermen constituted a change in a voting standard, practice, or procedure after November 1, 1964, within the federal approval requirement of § 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 (42 USC § 1973c), notwithstanding that the 1962 state statute, Code 1942, § 3374-36, required such at-large elections, where the city had ignored the state statute by electing aldermen by wards in 1965 elections, and where there was no change between November 1, 1964 and the 1965 elections to suggest that a different procedure would have been in effect on the earlier date, thus establishing that the procedure in fact "in force or effect" in the city on November 1, 1964, was to elect aldermen by wards. Perkins v. Matthews, 400 U.S. 379, 91 S. Ct. 431, 27 L. Ed. 2d 476 (1971), on remand, 336 F. Supp. 6 (S.D. Miss. 1971).

2. Constitutionality.

Code 1972, § 21-3-7 is a purposeful device conceived and operated to further racial discrimination in the voting process, and is therefore violative of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution. The statute law of Mississippi relating to aldermanic elections which existed prior to the passage of Code 1972, § 21-3-7, and which was modified or repealed by Code 1972, § 21-3-7, is declared to be in full force and effect as if it had never been repealed; Members of the defendant class are restrained from conducting at-large aldermanic elections pursuant to Code 1972, § 21-3-7 or local ordinances implementing the section. Stewart v. Waller, 404 F. Supp. 206 (N.D. Miss. 1975).

Aldermen have the authority to observe municipal department operations for the purpose of reporting back to the entire board, but they may not supervise departments or direct the daily activities of department employees. Davies, Aug. 15, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0510.

The legislative power in a code charter municipality, including the authority to adopt a budget and spend funds, is vested in the board of aldermen; thus, the board may appropriate funds for one or more vehicles for the police department but assignment of the vehicles is in the the discretion of the police chief. Brown, Feb. 1, 2002, A.G. Op. #01-0787.

A mayor may suspend employees with pay, but only the board of aldermen by official action in the minutes may suspend employees without pay. Gerhart, Mar. 8, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0056.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

A person elected as a mayor pro tempore by a board of aldermen remains in that office for the remainder of the term for which he or she was elected as an alderman unless such person resigns from the position of mayor pro tempore or vacates the office of alderman during such term. Perkins, Aug. 8, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0448.

Although the statute does not provide for a penalty for failure to comply with its provisions, under commonly accepted rules of statutory construction a statute providing that certain things “shall” be done is mandatory, while a recitation that specific acts “may” be done is directory only. Jordan, July 31, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0442.

Once the board has appointed a mayor pro tempore pursuant to the statute, the appointee remains in that office for the duration of the term of office to which he was elected as an alderman unless such appointee resigns from the office of mayor pro tempore or vacates the office of alderman during such term. Jordan, July 31, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0442.

§ 21-3-15. Duties of the mayor; authority of the board of aldermen.

(1) The mayor shall preside at all meetings of the board of aldermen, and in case there shall be an equal division, shall give the deciding vote. The mayor’s authority is executive, and the mayor shall have the superintending control of all the officers and affairs of the municipality, and shall take care that the laws and ordinances are executed.

(2)(a) The authority of the board of aldermen is legislative and is executed by a vote within a legally called meeting. No member of the board of aldermen shall give orders to any employee or subordinate of a municipality other than the alderman’s personal staff.

(b) Ordinances adopted by the board of aldermen shall be submitted to the mayor. The mayor shall, within ten (10) days after receiving any ordinance, either approve the ordinance by affixing his signature thereto, or return it to the board of aldermen by delivering it to the municipal clerk together with a written statement setting forth his objections thereto or to any item or part thereof. No ordinance or any item or part thereof shall take effect without the mayor's approval, unless the mayor fails to return an ordinance to the board of aldermen prior to the next meeting of the board, but no later than fifteen (15) days after it has been presented to him, or unless the board of aldermen, upon reconsideration thereof on or after the third day following its return by the mayor, shall, by a vote of two-thirds (⅔) of the members of the board, resolve to override the mayor's veto.

(3) The term "ordinance" as used in this section shall be deemed to include ordinances, resolutions and orders.

2. Constitutionality.
3. Veto power.
4. Liability.

1. In general.

The action of a mayor in removing a captain of police is a judicial or quasi judicial act and a writ of prohibition would lie to prohibit him from wrongfully exercising such judicial discretion. Glover v. City Council, 132 Miss. 776, 96 So. 521 (1923).

A mayor having signed an ordinance without having taken oath of office is a de facto officer and his title to office cannot be attacked in prosecution for violation of speed ordinance by a plea that the ordinance is invalid because signed before the mayor took oath of office. Town of Sumrall v. Polk, 118 Miss. 687, 79 So. 847 (1918).

Under Const. 1890, § 2, a justice of the peace vacates his office by accepting the office of mayor, which belongs to the executive department, the judicial powers of that office being incidental, and not primary. State ex rel. Att'y Gen. v. Armstrong, 91 Miss. 513, 44 So. 809 (1907).

2. Constitutionality.

A law making the mayor of a town ex-officio justice of the peace does not violate § 2 of the Const. 1890. Poplarville Sawmill Co. v. A. Marx & Sons, 117 Miss. 10, 77 So. 815 (1918).

3. Veto power.

Under § 21-3-15, the mayor of a town operating under a code charter had the authority to veto an order of its board of aldermen appointing a town attorney. Edwards v. Weeks, 633 So. 2d 1035 (Miss. 1994).

While the mayor may veto any measure, yet he cannot veto the election of a police justice, an election not being a measure within the meaning of the statute. Rich v. McLauren, 83 Miss. 95, 35 So. 337 (1903) but see Edwards v. Weeks, 633 So. 2d 1035 (Miss. 1994).

4. Liability.

Although the mayor may make an arrest without a warrant for an offense committed in his presence he is liable on his official bond for damages resulting from a brutal and wrongful assault in making it. Carlisle v. Village of Silver Creek, 85 Miss. 380, 37 So. 1015 (1905).

The sureties on the bond of a mayor are liable for injurious acts done by him colore officii in the line of his official duty although such acts be illegal. State ex rel. McLaurin v. McDaniel, 78 Miss. 1, 27 So. 994, 84 Am. St. R. 618 (1900).

A mayor who causes to be arrested, fines and commits to prison without affidavit one who has committed no offense in his presence is liable in action for false imprisonment. State ex rel. McLaurin v. McDaniel, 78 Miss. 1, 27 So. 994, 84 Am. St. R. 618 (1900).

While mayor in code charter municipality has authority to observe activities of police chief and policemen and to report to board of aldermen on activities of department, mayor does not have authority to supervise law enforcement by police chief on daily basis. Gorrell, Sept. 26, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0591.

Mayor of code charter municipality may request that police chief instruct radio dispatcher to call mayor if there has been serious crime committed. Gorrell, Sept. 26, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0591.

When mayor pro tempore is presiding at meeting of municipal governing authorities in temporary absence of mayor, mayor pro tempore is acting as mayor with duties and powers of code charter mayor and not as alderman; when alderman is serving as mayor pro tempore, he has only voting powers of mayor set forth in statute and may not vote as alderman; two-thirds vote of five member board of aldermen necessary to override code charter mayor's veto requires votes of four aldermen voting as aldermen, exclusive of one alderman serving as mayor pro tempore. Bailey, Sept. 26, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0728.

Ten day period within which mayor must either approve or object to ordinance starts running when clerk presents minutes to mayor. Childre, Sept. 10, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0656.

Under Miss. Code Section 21-3-15(2), if mayor fails to return ordinance to board of aldermen prior to next meeting of board, but no later than fifteen days after it has been presented to him, measure becomes effective. Warren, June 3, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0401.

Generally, statutes governing Mayor/Aldermen or "code charter" form of government, empower board of aldermen to set policy through enactment of ordinances, orders and resolutions, all subject to Mayor's veto; mayor, as chief executive officer, oversees daily operation of municipal government and makes recommendations to board. Mayor does not have right to appoint police chief; mayor may recommend person to Board of Aldermen. Lee Sept. 15, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0666.

If order approving new budget provides for change in salary in question, mayor of code charter municipality would not be authorized to "line item" veto portion of that order; pursuant to Section 21-3-15 mayor of code charter municipality does have authority to veto any ordinance, order or resolution in its entirety. Austin Oct. 6, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0697.

A mayor has the authority to test the emergency services of a municipality for the purpose of evaluating the readiness and effectiveness of the services in the event of an actual emergency and so that necessary changes can be recommended. Ellis, Aug. 1, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0363.

A mayor has the power to veto an order by a board of aldermen appointing a city attorney. Lee, Aug. 8, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0459.

Generally, abstentions from city council member votes are counted with the side casting the majority vote. Spann, Aug. 22, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0519.

A mayor may not appoint aldermen as municipal department heads. Bell-Martin, Nov. 7, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0703.

A mayor did not have authority to veto a decision of the board to reinstate a fireman who the mayor had demoted without a change in compensation; "superintending control" in subsection (1) means that the mayor, as the chief executive officer, has general supervisory oversight of municipal government, but department heads, such as the police and fire chief, have authority and responsibility to make decisions concerning the daily operations of their departments. Fernald, February 19, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0085.

A county may provide equipment, materials, such as dirt and gravel, and labor for constructing a playground on city owned property as long as the playground is available to all of the citizens of the county. Gary, March 12, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0118.

The board of aldermen of a code charter municipality has the authority to terminate an appointed police chief, subject to the veto power of the mayor. Littleton, III, Nov. 30, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0706.

The board of aldermen has the authority to appoint a police chief, subject to the veto power of the mayor. Littleton, III, Nov. 30, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0706.

A mayor of a code charter municipality has the authority to veto the appointment of a police chief as well as any ordinance, resolution, or order of the board; however, the mayor does not have authority to terminate an appointed police chief or declare the office of police chief open, thereby relieving the appointed police chief of his duties. Littleton, III, Nov. 30, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0706.

A mayor may suspend employees with pay, but only the board of aldermen by official action in the minutes may suspend employees without pay. Gerhart, Mar. 8, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0056.

If the board of aldermen determines and establishes by lawful order that the duties of the head of maintenance require access to all municipal buildings, and the mayor does not veto that order, it is the duty of the mayor to see that this order is lawfully carried out; if the mayor refuses to follow the lawful orders of the board, the board may file suit against the mayor in a court of competent jurisdiction. Freeman and Daily, Mar. 15, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0078.

Municipal governing authorities do not have authority to assign an unmarked police car to a mayor for use in performing duties for the municipality, as § 25-1-87 makes apparent that unmarked police cars must be used for police purposes. Gregory, Oct. 18, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0575.

The mayor may request attendance but may not force attendance at a weekly staff meeting of an elected police chief. Lee, Jan. 3, 2003, A.G. Op. #02-0749.

A weekly staff meeting of the mayor and departments heads, including the police chief, does not conflict with the doctrine of separation of powers set forth in Article 1 and 2 of the Mississippi Constitution. Lee, Jan. 3, 2003, A.G. Op. #02-0749.

Residents of a municipality may meet with the mayor to discuss any matter pertaining to the operation of the municipality, including police protection, and the mayor may meet with the police chief or police officers to gather information concerning operation of the police department and may also direct residents to communicate with the police chief concerning police protection generally or specific ongoing situations in law enforcement. Lee, Jan. 3, 2003, A.G. Op. #02-0749.

The mayor may meet with police officers to obtain information concerning the operation of the police department, but the mayor does not have authority to become involved in the day to day operation of the police department or to make law enforcement decisions. Lee, Jan. 3, 2003, A.G. Op. #02-0749.

The board of aldermen may reprimand a police officer over the objection of the chief of police after seeking information from the chief of police. Lee, Jan. 3, 2003, A.G. Op. #02-0749.

The board of aldermen does not have authority to make daily decisions which arise in the management of the police department, such as decisions concerning an individual officer's shift, duties or assignments. Lee, Jan. 3, 2003, A.G. Op. #02-0749.

All school district employees, both instructional and noninstructional, are entitled to elect to receive equal monthly payments for a twelve-month period. Adams, Jan. 17, 2003, A.G. Op. #02-0750.

If the board of aldermen adopts an ordinance at a meeting with the mayor pro tempore presiding and if the mayor pro tempore does not either veto or approve the ordinance, then the mayor may veto the ordinance upon his or her return within the statutory period. The statutory period commences at the time whoever is acting as mayor receives the ordinance from the board. Baker, July 18, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0320.

Where a mayor's handwritten veto message containing the reasons for a veto was delivered within the ten day deadline for doing so, the lack of a signature on a subsequently filed typed veto message was not fatal to the validity of the veto. Hudson, Aug. 29, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0465.

If the member of a municipal governing body seeking to review personnel records has need, in the course and scope of his or her duties on behalf of the municipality, to review them, he or she should be entitled to such a review. Stovall, Jan. 6, 2004, A.G. Op. 03-0683.

To override a mayor's veto in a code charter municipality having a seven member board, five of the seven members must vote to override. When one of those seven members is serving as mayor pro tempore, the five votes needed must come from the remaining six voting members of the board. Rutledge, Jan. 6, 2004, A.G. Op. 03-0690.

A mayor can cast the deciding vote in a tie, but he can also veto an ordinance, order or resolution regardless of how many aldermen initially vote in favor. In the case of a five member board of aldermen, in order to override the mayor's veto, four aldermen must vote in favor of overriding the mayor in order for the ordinance, order or resolution to take effect. Edwards, Apr. 16, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0154.

The mayor of a code-charter municipality would have the authority to veto an order of the board of aldermen to enter into a contract or to terminate a contract. The mayor would not have the authority to veto the decision of the board not to enter into a contract. Further, if a contract is due to expire on its own terms, and the board decides not to renew that contract, that decision is not appropriate for mayoral veto. A municipal board of aldermen can override the mayor's veto with a $\frac{3}{4}$ vote of all members (4 out of 5). Brown, July 1, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0280.

A resolution of the board of aldermen to conduct a referendum on the question of naming the city hall is an affirmative action of the board, and thus is subject to veto by the mayor. McLaurin, July 16 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0356.

The mayor does not have the sole right to remove matters from the agenda, or to establish the order of the agenda, or to control the manner in which the agenda is developed, in that a majority of the board of aldermen control the agenda. Young, Aug. 6, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0390.

As a department head, the city clerk is subject to the supervision of the mayor. If the clerk refuses to provide to the mayor information related to the agenda, after being asked to do so, the clerk may be disciplined in accordance with policies adopted by the governing authorities. Young, Aug. 6, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0390.

Unless the charter of a special charter municipality provides otherwise, both the mayor and aldermen are entitled to place matters on the agenda for meetings. Cook, Oct. 29, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0526.

A mayor in a municipality operating under a mayor/alderman form of government has 10 days after receiving any ordinance in which to exercise his or her right to veto. The fifteen 15 day period referenced in the statute only comes into play where a mayor has not exercised his or her veto power within the ten day period, and also fails to sign the ordinance and return it to the board within that time period. In that instance, the ordinance may become effective without the mayor's signature. Young, Feb. 14, 2005, A.G. Op. 05-0051.

§ 21-3-17. Signing of commissions and appointments; approval of bonds.

The mayor shall sign the commissions and appointments of all officers elected and appointed by the mayor and board of aldermen. Such commissions and appointments shall be attested by the clerk. The refusal, failure or neglect of the mayor to sign such commissions and appointments, or the refusal, failure or neglect of the clerk to attest same, shall not affect the validity of the acts of such officer when the minutes show the election or appointment was regularly had or made by the board. All bonds payable to the municipality shall be approved by the mayor and clerk.

§ 21-3-19. Regular meetings of board of aldermen; recess of meetings; quorum.

(1) The mayor and board of aldermen shall hold regular meetings the first Tuesday of each month at such place and hour as may be fixed by ordinance, and may, on a date fixed by ordinance, hold a second regular meeting in each month at the same place established for the first regular meeting provided said second meeting shall be held at a day and hour fixed by said ordinance which shall be not less than two (2) weeks from the first day of the first regular meeting and not more than three (3) weeks from the date thereof. When a regular meeting of the mayor and board of aldermen shall fall upon a holiday, the mayor and board shall meet the following day. The mayor and board may recess either meeting from time to time to convene on a day fixed by an order of the mayor and board entered on its minutes, and may transact any business coming before it for consideration. In all cases it shall require a majority of all aldermen to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

(2) The mayor and board of aldermen may, pursuant to Section 21-17-17, Mississippi Code of 1972, set a day other than Tuesday for the holding of their regular monthly meeting.

Where there is no newspaper located in or published in a town, a newspaper within the county having general circulation in the municipality (or if there is none, a newspaper having general circulation within the county) must be used for publication of an ordinance to change the date of board meetings, as is required for the publication of all other ordinances of the municipality pursuant to Section 21-13-11. This section authorizes the mayor and board of aldermen to set a day other than Tuesday for the holding of their regular monthly meeting in accordance with § 21-17-17 which requires that such change be made by the adoption of an ordinance and three weeks publication of said ordinance prior to implementing the change. This necessarily means that, in order to revert back to the current meeting date, the same procedure would have to be repeated. Stratton, Feb. 4, 2005, A.G. Op. 05-0041.

The mayor or any two (2) aldermen may, by written notice, call a special meeting of the mayor and board of aldermen for the transaction of important business. The notice must state the time of meeting and distinctly specify the subject matters of business to be acted upon and be signed by the officer or officers calling the meeting. Notice of the meeting shall be given to the members of the board, including the mayor, who have not signed it and who can be found, at least three (3) hours before the time fixed for the meeting. The method of notice shall be entered on the minutes of the special meeting, and business not specified therein shall not be transacted at the meeting. A member of the board shall not receive pay for attending a special meeting.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
2. Jurisdiction.
3. Notice of meeting.

1. In general.

Provisions of statute as to calling special meeting of mayor and aldermen are mandatory. Wilson v. City of Lexington, 153 Miss. 212, 121 So. 859 (1929), corrected, 155 Miss. 157, 124 So. 268 (1929).

Statute must be strictly construed. Wilson v. City of Lexington, 153 Miss. 212, 121 So. 859 (1929), corrected, 155 Miss. 157, 124 So. 268 (1929).

Where statute was not complied with in calling special meeting to adopt ordinance levying special assessments and providing for notice thereof, assessment was nullity. Wilson v. City of Lexington, 153 Miss. 212, 121 So. 859 (1929), corrected, 155 Miss. 157, 124 So. 268 (1929).

Minutes must show compliance with statute relating to calling special meeting of mayor and aldermen in order for them to transact business. Wilson v. City of Lexington, 153 Miss. 212, 121 So. 859 (1929), corrected, 155 Miss. 157, 124 So. 268 (1929).

2. Jurisdiction.

Where proceeding for levying special assessments was void for failure to comply with the requirements of this section [Code 1942, § 3374-44], taxpayer's appearance for purpose of protest did not confer jurisdiction upon board. Wilson v. City of Lexington, 153 Miss. 212, 121 So. 859 (1929), corrected, 155 Miss. 157, 124 So. 268 (1929).

3. Notice of meeting.

Where notice of a special meeting of the Board of Aldermen was served upon an alderman elect after his right to the office had fully accrued but before he had qualified by taking the oath of office, such service was not defective where he did qualify and participate in the meeting. In re Municipal Bonds, 188 Miss. 817, 196 So. 258 (1940).

Supreme Court can indulge no presumption in favor of officer's return on notice of special meeting of mayor and aldermen, where return is unsigned and contains no statement showing compliance with statute. Wilson v. City of Lexington, 153 Miss. 212, 121 So. 859 (1929), corrected, 155 Miss. 157, 124 So. 268 (1929).

This section requiring that notice of a special meeting shall be served three hours before the time fixed for the meeting is mandatory and jurisdictional and without a compliance therewith proceedings are void. Kidder v. McClanahan, 126 Miss. 179, 88 So. 508 (1921).

§ 21-3-23. Duties of street commissioner.

The street commissioner shall, under the direction of the mayor and board of aldermen, have general control of the streets, alleys, avenues, and sidewalks. He shall see that they are always in proper repair. He shall have the same worked, repaired, altered, paved, lighted, sprinkled, and everything else done that ought to be done to keep the same in good repair and condition, and shall perform all other duties that may be required of him by ordinance.

§ 21-3-25. Chief administrative officer.

(1) Any municipality operating under a "Code Charter" as provided for in Chapter 3, Title 21, Mississippi Code of 1972, may through the mayor and board of aldermen, establish the position of chief administrative officer of the municipality.

(2) The establishment of the position of chief administrative officer shall be by ordinance, and shall require a two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) vote of the mayor and board of aldermen. Any action taken by the governing authorities to establish such office shall not be adopted within ninety (90) days prior to any regular general election for the election of municipal officers. The chief administrative officer shall be a full time employee of the municipality and shall serve at the discretion of the mayor and board of aldermen. He shall receive such compensation as the mayor and board of aldermen may determine, and shall be chosen solely on the basis of experience and administrative qualifications. The chief administrative officer may hold one (1) or more other appointive positions in the municipality. No person elected to the board of aldermen shall be eligible for the office of chief administrative officer during the term for which such person was elected.

(3) The chief administrative officer shall have such administrative duties and functions as shall be delegated to him by the mayor and board of aldermen.

(4) Following the adoption of an ordinance pursuant to this section, the position of chief administrative officer shall not be established until after the next general municipal election, at which time the first chief administrative officer will be appointed.

(5) Members of the board of aldermen shall have no administrative powers or duties which are delegated by ordinance to the chief administrative officer.

§ 21-5-1. Adoption of commission form of government.

Any city may at any time, upon an election held as hereinafter provided, change the form of government of such city and adopt a commission form of government. It shall be the duty of the governing authorities of any such city to call a special election on the question of the adoption of the commission form of government upon receipt of a petition signed by at least ten per cent of the qualified electors of such city, praying that an election be held to determine whether or not such city shall abandon its existing form of government and adopt the commission form. Such special election shall be held in such city not less than thirty days, nor more than sixty days, from the date of making such order, but if a general election is to be held in such city within sixty days from the making of such order, then the question of the adoption of the commission form of government shall be submitted at such general election, rather than at a special election. Notice of such election shall be given as required by law, and the same shall be held and conducted as other elections in such city. At such election the propositions to be voted on shall be "FOR THE PRESENT FORM OF GOVERNMENT," and "FOR THE COMMISSION FORM OF GOVERNMENT." Such propositions shall be printed on the ballot and the elector shall vote by placing a cross (X) or check mark (✓) opposite his choice on the proposition. The results of such election shall be certified to the governing authorities of the city by the persons holding such election, and at their next regular meeting the governing authorities shall adjudicate on the minutes of the city whether or not the majority of the votes cast at such election were cast in favor of the commission form of government. If a majority of the votes were so cast in favor of the commission form of government, then an order shall be entered providing for the election of officers provided for by this chapter at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of June next thereafter. The mayor or chief executive officer of the city shall immediately certify to the secretary of state that such city has by election adopted the commission form of government, and such certificate shall be recorded in a book kept for that purpose by the secretary of state. If a majority of the votes cast at such election be in favor of the existing form of government, the governing authorities shall so adjudicate by an order upon their minutes, and another election submitting the question of the adoption of the commission form of government shall not be held for a period of at least four years thereafter.

1. In general.

The City of Greenwood's commission form of government with three council members elected at large violates Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended in 1982, 42 U.S.C.S. § 1973 (Supp. 1983); evidence establishes almost every element of proof delineated by Congress as probative of a Section 2 violation, and from a totality of the circumstances, it is inescapably clear that the black voters of Greenwood have less opportunity than whites to participate in the political process and to elect representatives of their choice; the court therefore must require the establishment of single-member districts for the City of Greenwood. Jordan v.

Every city operating under the commission form of government shall be governed by a council, consisting of the mayor and two (2) councilmen (or commissioners), each of whom shall have the right to vote on all questions coming before the council. The terms of office of the governing authorities in every such city, in office at the beginning of the term of office of the mayor and councilmen first elected under the provisions of this chapter shall then immediately cease and terminate. The terms of office of all other officers then in force in such city, whether elected or appointed, shall cease and terminate as soon as the council shall, by resolution, so declare.

The corporate name of every such city shall be "The City of (name of city)," under which name the council shall exercise and perform all the corporate powers, duties and obligations conferred or imposed on it or the members thereof.

Any city having a population of one hundred thousand (100,000) inhabitants according to the last decennial census and at that time governed by the commission form of government, may at any time, upon an election held as hereinafter provided, increase by two (2) the number of councilmen governing such city; provided that in no event shall the number of councilmen (not including the mayor) be increased to exceed ten (10) members. It shall be the duty of the council to call a special election on the question of the increase in the number of councilmen and upon receipt of a petition signed by at least ten percent (10%) of the qualified electors of such city, praying that an election be held to determine whether or not such city should increase by two (2) the number of councilmen under the commission form, and such special election shall be held in such city not less than thirty (30) days, nor more than sixty (60) days, from the date of making such order; but if a general election is to be held in such city within sixty (60) days from the making of such order, then the question of the increase in number of councilmen shall be submitted at such general election, rather than at a special election. Notice of such election shall be given as required by law, and the same shall be held and conducted as other elections in such city. At such election the propositions to be voted on shall be "FOR THE PRESENT NUMBER OF COUNCILMEN" and "FOR AN INCREASE BY TWO (2) IN THE NUMBER OF COUNCILMEN," and such propositions shall be printed on the ballot and the elector shall vote by placing a cross (X) or check mark (✓) opposite his choice on the proposition. The results of such election shall be certified to the governing authorities of the city by the persons holding such election, and at their next regular meeting the governing authorities shall adjudicate on the minutes of the city whether or not the majority of the votes cast at such election were cast in favor of increasing by two (2) the number of councilmen. If a majority of the votes were so cast in favor of increasing by two (2) the number of councilmen in the commission form of government, then an order shall be entered providing for the election of the two (2) additional councilmen at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of June next thereafter. The mayor of the city shall immediately certify to the secretary of state that such city has by election determined to be governed by two (2) additional councilmen in the commission form of government and such certificate shall be recorded in a book kept for that purpose by the secretary of state. If a majority of the votes cast at such election be in favor of retaining the existing number of councilmen, the council shall so adjudicate by an order upon their minutes, and another election submitting the question of the increasing by two (2) the number of councilmen in the commission form of government shall not be held for a period of at least four (4) years thereafter.

§ 21-5-5. Election of mayor and councilmen; qualifications.

The mayor and councilmen (or commissioners) of all cities operated under the commission form of government shall be elected from the city at large, but the municipal authorities may establish as many wards and as many voting precincts in each ward as may be necessary or desirable. No person shall be eligible to the office of mayor or councilman unless he is a qualified elector of such city and shall have been a bona fide resident thereof for a period of at least one year next preceding the date of the commencement of his term of office.

In the event the council should ordain that the councilmen posts shall be separated, as provided in Section 21-5-11, such post shall be so separated for election purposes and persons seeking the office of councilman shall qualify and seek election for a specific post, as designated by ordinance, and each post shall be voted on separately by the qualified electors of the municipality voting in said election.

In the event there should be but one candidate for one of such election posts, or only one candidate for each of such posts, then such candidate or candidates shall be declared to be elected.

The mayor shall be president of the council and preside at all meetings thereof, but he shall not have any power to veto any measure passed by the council. He shall have general supervision of all the affairs and departments of the city government and shall, from time to time, as occasion may demand, report in writing to the council any matters requiring its action. The council shall also have the power, from time to time, to create, fill or discontinue any and all offices and employments other than those created in this chapter; to increase or decrease the emoluments thereof; to make all needful rules and regulations for the government of the officers and employees of such city and to enforce a strict observance thereof, and to change the same when deemed necessary; to remove any officer or employee elected or appointed by the council, except as limited by law, and to elect or appoint a successor; to issue and sell the bonds or other obligations of such city in the amounts and in the manner provided by law; and generally to enact and enforce all ordinances and resolutions, and to make and perform all contracts for and on behalf of such city, as may be authorized by law or by the charter of such city.

The council shall also require all officers and employees handling or having the custody of any of the public funds of such city to give bond, with sufficient surety, to be payable, conditioned and approved as provided by law, in an amount to be determined by the council (which shall not be less than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00)), the premiums on which bonds shall be paid by the city.

1. In general.

A city ordinance which required members of fire and police departments and other civil service employees to maintain their domicile and place of residence within the corporate limits of the city, was not in conflict with a state statute requiring civil service applicants to be citizens of the United States and electors of the county in which they reside, with 3 years' residence, but was instead an additional regulation within the power of municipalities operating under the commission form of government by virtue of statutes authorizing such municipalities to make necessary rules and regulations for the government of the officers and employees of the city and for the efficient and economical conduct of the city's business. Hattiesburg Firefighters Local 184 v. City of Hattiesburg, 263 So. 2d 767 (Miss. 1972).

2.-5. [Reserved for future use.]

6. Under former law.

An earlier charter provision in the charter of the city of Meridian, imposing personal liability upon municipal officers for appropriating money to any object not authorized by the charter, was carried forward when the city assumed the commission form of government. Paine v. Matthews, 213 Miss. 506, 57 So. 2d 148 (1952).

Where money was paid out of the treasury with no authorization or appropriation by the council, the mayor and members of the council were not liable for the unauthorized act of the city manager and city treasurer in unlawfully paying out the city funds and an ordinance could be effective as a ratification only if the funds could have been lawfully appropriated in the first instance. Paine v. Matthews, 213 Miss. 506, 57 So. 2d 148 (1952).

Laws 1944, ch. 208 (§§ 3825-01 et seq., Supp to 1942 Code), do not withdraw from municipalities any of the powers conferred by this section, but, where a fireman's position has been abolished, determine only his rights. City of Laurel v. Reddoch, 200 Miss. 259, 26 So. 2d 465 (1946).

Under this section, a municipality acting under the commission form of government has all the powers possessed by other municipalities except as otherwise provided by statute. Independent Paving Co. v. City of Bay St. Louis, 74 F.2d 961 (5th Cir. 1935).

§ 21-5-11. Organization of municipal departments.

The executive and administrative powers and duties in such cities shall be distributed into and among as many departments as there shall be members of the council, to be defined and designated by ordinance. The council shall, by ordinance, determine the powers and duties to be exercised and performed by each department, and shall assign the various officers and employees of the city to the appropriate department. The council shall prescribe the powers and duties of such officers and employees and make all such rules and regulations as may be necessary or proper for the efficient and economical conduct of the business of the city. The council shall, by a majority vote, designate one member of the council to be superintendent of each department of the municipal government, and shall define his powers and duties as such superintendent. Such designation may be changed whenever it shall appear that the public service may be benefited thereby unless the councilmen had been elected to head the department as hereinafter provided.

The council may, by ordinance, provide that the commissioners be designated by Post No. 1 and Post No. 2, and by ordinance define the duties which shall be performed by the commissioners elected to each post.

In the event a city with the population in excess of one hundred thousand (100,000) inhabitants or more according to the last decennial census and being governed by the commission form of government shall elect pursuant to Section 21-5-3, Mississippi Code of 1972, to have additional councilmen, the council may, by ordinance, provide that the councilmen or commissioners be designated by post numbers, said posts to be numbered consecutively from one (1) upward, and by ordinance define the duties which shall be performed by the commissioners elected to each post.

(1) Regular public meetings of the council shall be held on the first Monday in July after the election of the mayor and councilmen (or commissioners), and thereafter at least twice each month, at such time as the council may by resolution provide. When a regular meeting of the council shall fall on a holiday, the council shall meet the following day.

Special meetings may be called at any time by the mayor or by two (2) councilmen. At any and all meetings of the council, a majority of all the members thereof shall constitute a quorum. The affirmative vote of a majority of all the members of the council shall be necessary to adopt any motion, resolution or ordinance, or to pass any measure whatever, unless a greater number is provided for in this chapter. Upon every vote taken by the council the yeas and nays shall be called and recorded, and every motion, resolution or ordinance shall be reduced to writing before the vote is taken thereon. Upon request of one or more council members, any motion, resolution or ordinance shall be read by the clerk before the vote is taken thereon.

(2) The council may, pursuant to Section 21-17-17, set a day other than Monday for the holding of its regular bimonthly meeting.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

In a special charter municipality, where the mayor is counted for purposes of establishing a quorum, but does not have the power to vote except to break a tie, a majority of the quorum is sufficient to adopt a measure, and a majority of the voting members of the commission is not required. Twiford, Feb. 21, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0044.

At the first regular meeting of the council that is first elected, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the council shall, by ordinance, fix the salary of the mayor and each of the councilmen (or commissioners), which ordinance shall not become operative until the same shall have been approved by a majority of the qualified electors voting at an election to be held for that purpose, as provided by this section. Said ordinance shall be published in a newspaper published in said city, and having a general circulation therein, for at least ten days before such election, and notice of the date of such election shall be given by the council for ten days by publication in a newspaper published in such city, and having general circulation therein. In case such ordinance shall be rejected by the electors at such election, then a new ordinance, or ordinances, may be passed by the council and submitted to the electors in like manner, until the same shall have been ratified by the electors. When an ordinance so fixing the salaries shall have been finally adopted and approved, the salaries so fixed shall remain in effect until altered or changed in the manner hereinafter provided.

To reduce the salary so fixed it shall be sufficient that the council adopt an ordinance to that effect, which ordinance shall become effective upon adoption without the necessity of publication or of an election. To increase the salary so fixed, an ordinance shall be duly adopted, by the council, which ordinance shall be published for ten days in a newspaper published or having a general circulation in such city, and the ordinance shall not become effective until it shall have been approved by a majority of the qualified electors of such city voting at an election to be held for that purpose after notice of such election shall have been given by the council for ten days by publication in a newspaper published in such city or having a general circulation therein, the last notice to appear not more than one week next prior to the date of the election.

Every officer or assistant, other than the mayor and councilmen, shall receive such salary or compensation as the council shall by ordinance provide.

The salary or compensation of all other employees of such city shall be fixed by the council from time to time, as occasion may demand.

The action of the mayor and councilmen of a municipality in placing the order on the minutes of the city council, signifying their desire and purpose to exercise the power conferred by statute of reducing their salaries to a certain sum per month, and in their answer evidencing such intention by accepting a warrant each month for such reduced amount over a considerable period of time, constituted a substantial compliance with the provisions of the statute and was sufficient to effectuate the reduction of their salaries. Chinn v. City of Biloxi, 183 Miss. 27, 183 So. 375 (1938).

The word "ordinance" as used in the statute does not contemplate an ordinance to be published and then enrolled in the ordinance book, and the act of recording a reduction in salary of the mayor and councilmen of a municipality on the minutes of the civic council was a sufficient "ordinance" within the meaning of the statute. Chinn v. City of Biloxi, 183 Miss. 27, 183 So. 375 (1938).

It is the duty of the commissioners to fix the salary of the mayor and councilmen permanently and they have no power to bind the salary to one year, and the ordinance fixing salaries shall not be altered or repealed unless approved by the qualified electors of the city. Lewis v. Jane, 129 Miss. 475, 92 So. 625 (1922).

All bylaws, ordinances, and resolutions lawfully passed and in force in every such city under its former organization, shall remain in force until altered or repealed by the council elected under the provisions of this chapter. The territorial limits of every such city shall remain the same as under its former organization, and all rights and property of every description, which were vested in every such city, under its former organization, shall vest in the same under the organization contemplated by the commission form of government. § 21-7-1. Adoption of council form by certain municipalities authorized.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this title any municipality in this state having a population, according to the 1940 official federal census exceeding 8,000, but not exceeding 9,600, and operating under "code charter" as defined by chapter 3 of this title, may as hereinafter set forth, change its form of government to a plan of government hereby designated as the "council form" in order to place in the council of any municipality, operating under such form, full and complete executive and legislative powers over its entire municipal affairs.

§ 21-7-3. Applicability of “code charter” provisions.

All of the provisions of law applicable to municipalities operating under “code charter” as aforesaid, which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, shall apply fully to the form of government to be established hereunder. However, such cities coming under the council form shall not be included in those classes of cities set forth in Section 21-29-151, unless and until the council shall have adopted a resolution setting forth their intention to come under Sections 21-29-101 through 21-29-151. All provisions of law vesting rights, privileges and powers in and charging with duties the mayor and/or board of aldermen are hereby specifically vested in the council of municipalities which shall operate under the provisions of this chapter.

§ 21-7-5. Procedure for adoption or abandonment of plan.

The manner in which any municipality, within the class provided in Section 21-7-1 may change its form of government to the plan authorized herein, shall be as follows:

One or more petitions, similar in form and substance, addressed to the mayor praying that an election be held to determine whether or not such city shall abandon its existing form of government and become organized under a council form of government, signed by at least twenty per centum of the qualified electors of such city, shall be filed with the city clerk, who shall deal with the same as required with reference to other petitions.

If on the delivery of such petition to the mayor, it shall appear that such petition or petitions have not been signed by the required number of qualified electors of such city, the mayor shall at once certify such fact and immediately return such petition or petitions to the person or persons presenting the same, who may thereafter procure additional signers thereto and again file such petition or petitions with the city clerk, as above provided, as an original petition.

If it shall appear at any time from the certificate of the city clerk that said petition or petitions have been signed by the requisite number of qualified electors of said city, the mayor shall immediately refer the same to the board of aldermen. If it shall appear that said petition or petitions are in proper form and have been sufficiently signed by the qualified electors of such city, they shall, within thirty days, order, and provide, for the holding of a special election in such city, to be held, not less than thirty, nor more than sixty days, from the date of making such order, notice of which election shall be given, and the same shall be held and conducted as other elections in such city. At such special election the propositions to be voted for shall be: “FOR THE COUNCIL FORM OF GOVERNMENT” and “FOR THE PRESENT FORM OF GOVERNMENT,” which propositions shall be printed on the official ballot at such election. As soon as the return of such election shall have been certified by the persons holding the same, the board of aldermen shall at their next regular meeting, consider the same, and if a majority of the votes cast at such election, are in favor of the council form of government, then they shall enter an order providing for the election of a mayor, a vice-mayor and five other councilmen provided for under section 21-7-7, at an election to be held on the second Tuesday in December next before the expiration of the terms of the municipal officers then holding office. Thereupon the said petition or petitions, and all proceedings had thereon, including an order of the mayor and board of aldermen that the form of government will be changed on the first Monday of January following the expiration of their term of office, shall be recorded in the ordinance book of such city, which record shall be evidence of all the matters and things therein contained. The mayor of such city shall immediately certify to the secretary of state that such city by special election has adopted the system of government provided for herein, which certificate shall be recorded in a book kept for that purpose by the secretary of state. In case it shall appear by said election returns that a majority of the votes cast at such election were in favor of the existing form of government, then the board of aldermen shall dismiss the petition, in which case no similar petition shall be filed for a period of one year from the date of such order, but nothing short of such election shall preclude the filing of the petition at any time.

Any city which shall have operated for more than two years under the council form of government may abandon such form of government and return to the code charter form of government by substantially the same procedure through petitions and elections as herein provided for change to the council form of government. Such change, however, shall take effect on the first Monday of January following the expiration of the term of office of the members of the council then holding office.

The governing body of any such municipality shall be a council, known and designated as such, consisting of seven members. One of the members shall be the mayor, having the qualifications as prescribed by Section 21-3-9, who shall have full rights, powers and privileges of other councilmen. The mayor shall be nominated and elected at large; the remaining councilmen shall be nominated and elected one from each ward into which the city shall be divided. However, if the city be divided into less than six wards, the remaining councilmen shall be nominated and elected at large. The councilmen, including the mayor, shall be elected for a term of four years to serve until their successors are elected and qualified in accordance with the provisions of Section 21-11-7, said term commencing on the first Monday of January after the municipal election first following the adoption of the form of government as provided by this chapter.

The compensation for the members of the council shall, for the first four years of operation, under this chapter, be fixed by the board of mayor and aldermen holding office prior to the change in form of government. Thereafter the amount of compensation for each such member may be increased or decreased by the council, by council action taken prior to the election of members thereof for the ensuing term, such action to become effective with the ensuing terms.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Under this section, a member of a city's board of aldermen who was defeated in his bid for reelection was nevertheless entitled to retain his position until another election could be held where the election resulting in his defeat had been declared null and void due to election fraud. Crowe v. Lucas, 595 F.2d 985 (5th Cir. 1979).

§ 21-7-9. Meetings of council; quorum; voting.

(1) Regular public meetings of the council shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January after the election of the members of the council and monthly thereafter on the first Tuesday in each month. When a regular meeting of the council shall fall upon a holiday, the council shall meet the following day. Special meetings may be called at any time by the mayor or by three (3) members of the council. At any and all meetings of the council, five (5) members thereof shall constitute a quorum. The affirmative vote of a majority of the members present at any meeting shall be necessary to adopt any motion, resolution, or ordinance or to pass any measure whatever unless otherwise provided in this chapter. Upon every vote taken by the council the yeas and nays shall be called and recorded and every motion, resolution, or ordinance shall be reduced to writing before the vote is taken thereon. Upon request of one or more council members, any motion, resolution or ordinance shall be read by the clerk before the vote is taken thereon.

(2) The council may, pursuant to Section 21-17-17, set a day other than Tuesday for the holding of its regular monthly meeting.

§ 21-7-11. Powers of council; surety bond of officers and employees.

The full and complete executive and legislative powers of the municipality as vested by law, or inherent, shall be vested in such council. The council, however, may delegate such of its administrative functions as it deems proper and necessary to such officials so elected by it as provided in Section 21-7-15, and in addition may delegate administrative powers and functions to such other person or persons as may be selected by said council in order to carry out its functions, whether municipal or proprietary, which would permit the efficient administration of its municipal affairs. Said council has the right to select, appoint or designate departmental heads, such as but not limited to superintendent of utilities, superintendent of public health and sanitation, superintendent of fire and safety, superintendent of parks and recreation, superintendent of public buildings and grounds, and such other departmental heads as the council may deem best and proper. Said council has the power to fix the compensation of all such persons so selected and to define their duties, obligations and responsibilities. The council shall also require all officers and employees handling or having the custody of any public funds of such city to give bond, with sufficient surety, to be payable, conditioned and approved as provided by law, in an amount to be determined by the council (which shall not be less than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00)). Any and all such persons so selected shall be accountable to the council and shall make report, or reports, to the council so often as is required of them respectively, and may be removed at any time for cause after first having been given an opportunity for a hearing on the reasons for removal. No member of the council shall be eligible for selection to any such office or position.

§ 21-7-13. Powers and duties of mayor.

The powers and duties heretofore conferred upon the mayor of municipalities by law are hereby conferred upon and charged to the council. The mayor, or in his absence the vice-mayor, shall (a) as chairman preside at all meetings of the council, and shall have veto power, in writing, giving his reasons therefor, of any measure passed by the council, although a measure vetoed may be adopted notwithstanding, if two-thirds of the council vote therefor; (b) represent the municipality in all functions political, social or economic, but he shall in no wise bind the municipality, other than as he may be specifically authorized or delegated to do by the council, as reflected by its orders, resolutions or ordinances; (c) execute for and on behalf of the council, all documents or instruments of writing, of whatever kind and character, under the seal of the municipality, when necessary or required; and (d) act for the municipality as directed by the council, in any manner and for any purpose which by any statute or law, because of its particular wording or meaning, provides for individual action of the mayor rather than body action of the council, wherein and whereby such right of action could not be properly or consistently exercised by the latter, all to the end that any such municipality coming under the provisions of this chapter shall not be denied any of the rights and privileges which any such municipality would enjoy except for the provisions of this chapter. The council shall fix the amount of compensation of the mayor and vice-mayor, for their additional duties as such, which compensation shall be in addition to their compensation as councilmen.

§ 21-7-15. Election of vice-mayor and other officers; duties.

The members of the council shall from their membership elect a vice-mayor who shall have the powers and duties as prescribed by this chapter. The members of the council by a majority vote of its entire membership shall elect from time to time, to serve during its pleasure, persons, residents of said municipality, but not from among its membership, who shall be designated and have official status as (a) clerk, (b) one or more deputy clerks, (c) marshal, (d) street commissioner, (e) tax collector, (f) tax assessor, (g) treasurer, (h) police justice pro tempore, and (i) city attorney. The office of marshal, police justice pro tempore, and city attorney shall not be consolidated with any other office but such other designated offices may be consolidated in whole or in part. Such officials so elected shall be amenable to the council and their compensation shall be fixed by said council and each may be required to enter into such bond for the faithful discharge of their duties as the council deems necessary. Such selected officials may be removed by the council at any time for cause after first having been given an opportunity for a hearing on the reasons for removal. The duties of the clerk shall be those prescribed by Sections 21-15-17, 21-15-19, 21-23-11, and 21-39-7. The duties of the deputy clerk, or clerks, shall be those vested in the clerk, as aforesaid, but who shall act in the name of the clerk. The duties of the marshal shall be those as prescribed by Section 21-21-1. The duties of the street commissioner shall be those as prescribed by Section 21-3-23. The duties of the tax collector shall be those as prescribed by Section 21-33-53. The duties of the tax assessor shall be those applicable to such office under this title. The duties of the treasurer shall be those as prescribed by Section 21-39-19. In addition to the foregoing duties the council may confer upon such appointed officials respectively, other than to the police justice pro tempore, additional duties as the council may prescribe.

The police justice shall be nominated and elected at large and he, together with the police justice pro tempore as appointed, shall meet the qualifications as prescribed by Chapter 23 of this title, and shall perform such duties and have such powers as vested by this title.

The governing authorities of a City may change the form of government to a mayor council form of government by amending the special charter in accordance with Section 21-17-9 and create a mayor council municipality similar to the mayor council form of government set forth in Section 21-8-1 et seq. Hutcherson, October 11, 1996, A.G. Op. #96-0651.

§ 21-8-3. Initiation of proceedings for adoption.

The manner of effecting the change in the government of any such municipality from the form of government under which it is operating to the mayor-council form of government shall be as follows:

One (1) or more petitions, similar in form and substance, addressed to the mayor, praying that an election be held to determine whether or not such city shall abandon its existing form of government and become organized under the mayor-council form of government, signed by at least ten percent (10%) of the qualified electors of such municipality, provided, however, that any municipality with population of less than forty thousand (40,000) shall be required to be signed by twenty percent (20%), shall be filed with the municipal clerk who shall, within ten (10) days thereafter, check the signatures thereto with the registration books of the municipality and attach thereto his certificate showing the total number of qualified electors in said municipality and the total number of signatures to said petitions and deliver the same to the mayor. Such petition or petitions shall specify the number of councilmen to be on the council and the number of councilmen to be elected from wards and the number at large, if any.

If on the delivery of such petition to the mayor it shall appear that such petition or petitions have not been signed by the required number of qualified electors of such municipality the mayor shall at once certify such fact and immediately return such petition or petitions to the person or persons presenting the same, who may thereafter procure additional signers thereto and again file such petition or petitions with the municipality clerk, as above provided, as an original petition.

If it shall at any time appear from the certificate of the municipality clerk that said petition or petitions have been signed by the required number of qualified electors of said municipality, the mayor shall immediately refer the same to the municipality council or board and, if it shall appear that said petition or petitions are in proper form and have been sufficiently signed by the qualified electors of such municipality, the council or board shall within ten (10) days order and provide for the holding of a special election in such municipality not less than twenty (20) days nor more than sixty (60) days from the date of making such order, notice of which shall be given, and the same shall be held and conducted as other elections in such municipality. At such special election the propositions to be voted for shall be: (a) "For the present form of government" and (b) "For the mayor-council form of government."

No petition requesting that an election be held pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be presented to the municipality clerk within two (2) years after the date of the last election held pursuant to provisions of this chapter, provided that there is no waiting period for the presentation of a petition for a form of government other than the mayor-council form except that it shall not be presented to the municipality clerk until after the date of an election held pursuant to a previously filed petition.

1. In general.

There is no basis for a constitutional challenge to a referendum which does not question procedures set forth in §§ 21-8-1 and 21-8-3 but merely alleges that the majority of voters was racially motivated. Kirksey v. City of Jackson, 506 F. Supp. 491 (S.D. Miss. 1981), aff'd, 663 F.2d 659 (5th Cir. 1981), decision clarified on denial of reh'g, 669 F.2d 316 (5th Cir. 1982).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

In order for the City of Tupelo to change from a seven ward, two at-large system to a seven ward, no at-large system, an election must be held in accordance with this section. Mitchell, May 14, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0205.

§ 21-8-5. Conduct of election; certification of results.

(1) All elections held for the adoption of the mayor-council form of government shall be held and conducted in accordance with the general laws for the holding of municipal elections.

(2) As soon as the returns of any election held hereunder for the adoption of the mayor-council form have been certified, and if a majority of the votes cast at such election were in favor of the mayor-council form of government, the mayor of such municipality shall immediately certify to the secretary of state that such municipality, by special election, has adopted the mayor-council form of government provided for herein, which certificate shall be recorded in a book kept for that purpose by the secretary of state.

§ 21-8-7. Election of mayor and councilmen; reapportionment; vacancies; offices; clerical assistance and expenses.

(1) Each municipality operating under the mayor-council form of government shall be governed by an elected council and an elected mayor. Other officers and employees shall be duly appointed pursuant to this chapter, general law or ordinance.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, the mayor and councilmen shall be elected by the voters of the municipality at a regular municipal election held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June as provided in Section 21-11-7, and shall serve for a term of four (4) years beginning on the first Monday of July next following his election.

(3) The terms of the initial mayor and councilmen shall commence at the expiration of the terms of office of the elected officials of the municipality serving at the time of adoption of the mayor-council form.

(4)(a) The council shall consist of five (5), seven (7) or nine (9) members. In the event there are five (5) councilmen, the municipality shall be divided into either five (5) or four (4) wards. In the event there are seven (7) councilmen, the municipality shall be divided into either seven (7), six (6) or five (5) wards. In the event there are nine (9) councilmen, the municipality shall be divided into seven (7) or nine (9) wards. If the municipality is divided into fewer wards than it has councilmen, the other councilman or councilmen shall be elected from the municipality at large. The total number of councilmen and the number of councilmen elected from wards shall be established by the petition or petitions presented pursuant to Section 21-8-3. One (1) councilman shall be elected from each ward by the voters of that ward. Councilmen elected to represent wards must be residents of their wards at the time of qualification for election, and any councilman who removes his residence from the municipality or from the ward from which he was elected shall vacate his office. However, any candidate for councilman who is properly qualified as a candidate under applicable law shall be deemed to be qualified as a candidate in whatever ward he resides if his ward has changed after the council has redistricted the municipality as provided in subparagraph (c)(ii) of this subsection (4), and if the wards have been so changed, any person may qualify as a candidate for councilman, using his existing residence or by changing his residence, not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the first party primary or special party primary, as the case may be, notwithstanding any other residency or qualification requirements to the contrary.

(b) The council or board existing at the time of the adoption of the mayor-council form of government shall designate the geographical boundaries of the wards within one hundred twenty (120) days after the election in which the mayor-council form of government is selected. In designating the geographical boundaries of the wards, each ward shall contain, as nearly as possible, the population factor obtained by dividing the municipality's population as shown by the most recent decennial census by the number of wards into which the municipality is to be divided.

(c)(i) It shall be the mandatory duty of the council to redistrict the municipality by ordinance, which ordinance may not be vetoed by the mayor, within six (6) months after the official publication by the United States of the population of the municipality as enumerated in each decennial census, and within six (6) months after the effective date of any expansion of municipal boundaries; however, if the publication of the most recent decennial census or effective date of an expansion of the municipal boundaries occurs six (6) months or more prior to the first party primary of a general municipal election, then the council shall redistrict the municipality by ordinance not less than sixty (60) days prior to such first party primary.

(ii) If the publication of the most recent decennial census occurs less than six (6) months prior to the first primary of a general municipal election, the election shall be held with regard to currently defined wards; and reapportioned wards based on the census shall not serve as the basis for representation until the next regularly scheduled election in which council members shall be elected.

(d) If annexation of additional territory into the municipal corporate limits of the municipality shall occur less than six (6) months prior to the first party primary of a general municipal election, the council shall, by ordinance adopted within three (3) days of the effective date of such annexation, assign such annexed territory to an adjacent ward or wards so as to maintain as nearly as possible substantial equality of population between wards; any subsequent redistricting of the municipality by ordinance as required by this chapter shall not serve as the basis for representation until the next regularly scheduled election for municipal councilmen.

(5) Vacancies occurring in the council shall be filled as provided in Section 23-15-857.

(6) The mayor shall maintain an office at the city hall. The councilmen shall not maintain individual offices at the city hall; provided, however, that in municipalities with populations of one hundred ninety thousand (190,000) and above, councilmen may have individual offices in the city hall. Clerical work of councilmen in the performance of the duties of their office shall be performed by municipal employees or at municipal expense, and councilmen shall be reimbursed for the reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of the duties of their office.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

There is no basis for a constitutional challenge to a referendum which does not question procedures set forth in §§ 21-8-1 and 21-8-3 but merely alleges that the majority of voters was racially motivated. Kirksey v. City of Jackson, 506 F. Supp. 491 (S.D. Miss. 1981), aff'd, 663 F.2d 659 (5th Cir. 1981), decision clarified on denial of reh'g, 669 F.2d 316 (5th Cir. 1982).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Since annexation would be effective less than six months prior to first primary of 1993 general municipal election, provisions of Miss. Code Section 21-8-7(4)(d) are controlling; under this section, where annexation occurs within such time frame, redistricting required by Miss. Code Section 21-8-7(4)(c)(i) would not become effective for election purposes until 1997 municipal election; in such situations, Miss Code § 21-8-7(4)(d) requires that governing authorities merely assign annexed areas to adjacent ward or wards for purposes of upcoming municipal elections; phrase "any subsequent redistricting of the municipality by ordinance as required by this chapter shall not serve as the basis for representation until the next regularly scheduled election for municipal councilmen" within Miss. Code Section 21-8-7(4)(d) pertains to subsequent redistricting required by Miss. Code Section 21-8-7(4)(c)(i), and not to assignment of annexed area and voters of annexed area to adjacent wards. Hewes, Mar. 5, 1993, A.G. Op. #92-0969.

Miss. Code Section 21-8-7(4)(a) is part of specific statute that is applicable only to mayor-council form of municipal government and has no general application. Cummings, Apr. 21, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0199.

Miss. Code Section 21-8-7(4) allows candidate to use existing residence or change residence not less than fifteen days prior to first primary and to become candidate in any ward which allows incumbent council member to move out of geographical area from which incumbent was previously elected following redistricting, without vacating office. Cummings, Apr. 21, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0199.

Miss. Code Section 21-8-7 (4)(a) specifically allows any person to qualify as candidate for city council in any ward contingent upon said person moving into appropriate ward not less than fifteen days from day of first primary; if such person does not make legitimate move establishing legal domicile in such ward by statutory deadline, candidate would not be qualified to be party's nominee or receive any votes, even though candidate's name may appear on primary ballot; any votes cast for said candidate would be void. Cummings, Apr. 21, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0199.

Since the special charter creating the city of McComb is silent on the question of districting newly annexed territory for municipal elections, general statutory law governs; Subsection 4(d) apportions territory annexed within six months before an election. Myers, March 20, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0162.

Councilmen of a municipality are public officers in the legislative department of government. Evans, May 7, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0507.

Notwithstanding that compliance with the statute appeared to be impossible, a municipality could not disregard the statute for the general election scheduled in June 2001 and hold the 2001 municipal elections for members of the council from the current ward using the existing timetable and deadlines for qualifying, primary, and general elections. Bowman, Oct. 6, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0598.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Mere budget resolution does not authorize Mayor to raise employee salaries or, in fact, to expend any municipal funds, without more explicit authorization from Council; governing authority of municipality under Mayor-Council form of government, at least with regards to establishing budget and authorizing expenditure of municipal funds, is City Council. McNeil, Feb. 8, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0068.

City Council in Mayor-Council form of government is not required to include in budget funding for position of public defender in new budget year regardless of whether municipality currently employs public defender. Crowe, August 5, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0516.

Council in mayor/council municipality did not have authority to direct mayor to allocate $100,000 to unspecified streets and capital projects in each ward or to direct mayor to allocate $200,000 for improvements to city buildings and recreational facilities; council could revise budget to increase appropriations for specific projects but council must make appropriations and cannot delegate that authority to mayor because power to appropriate funds through budget is fundamental legislative power. Cochran, March 9, 1994, A.G. Op. #94-0048.

§ 21-8-11. Council officers; meetings; quorum; voting; council members shall not serve as members of commissions or boards under their control.

(1) During the first council meeting of a new council, the council shall elect one (1) member as president of the council and one (1) of its other members as vice president, both of whom shall serve at the pleasure of the council. The president shall preside at all council meetings. In the event of the president's absence or disability, the vice president shall act as president. In the event of the absence of the president and vice president, a presiding officer shall be designated by majority vote of the council to serve during such meeting. All councilmen, including the president, shall have the right to vote in the council at all times, even when serving as acting mayor.

(2) Regular public meetings of the council shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in July after the election of the members of the council and at least monthly thereafter on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in each month, or at such other times as the council by order may set. Special meetings may be called at any time by the mayor or a majority of the members of the council. At any and all meetings of the council, a majority of the members thereof shall constitute a quorum and the affirmative vote of a majority of the members present at any meeting shall be necessary to adopt any motion, resolution or ordinance, or to pass any measure whatever unless otherwise provided in this chapter. Upon every vote taken by the council the yeas and nays shall be recorded and every motion, resolution or ordinance shall be reduced to writing before the vote is taken thereon. Upon request of one or more council members, any motion, resolution or ordinance shall be read by the clerk before the vote is taken thereon.

(3) No councilman shall be a member of any commission or board appointed or designated herein, or serve as a member of any commission or board under their jurisdiction except as otherwise provided by law.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

City council members did not have the authority to pursue an appeal from an order of the circuit court which limited the appointment powers of the council and held certain actions taken by the council to be void, and the council members were without standing to maintain the appeal on behalf of the council, where the council did not authorize the appeal by the council members in their official capacity and the record showed that the council was affirmatively against any such action. Gaddy v. Bucklew, 580 So. 2d 1180 (Miss. 1990).

Motions pertaining to procedural actions governing the conduct of a city council's meeting are not required to be in writing. Scott, June 17, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0415.

In the continuing absence of an elected council president, the vice-president is the "acting president" of the council. Evans, May 7, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0507.

Whether an election will be held to fill the position of president a city council vacated because he was called to active duty in the Mississippi National Guard is a matter which must be determined by the council. The council may choose to do nothing, and thereby allow the vice-president to continue to serve as "acting president." Alternatively, the council may choose to elect a new president by majority vote. Neville, Dec. 30, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0702.

The notice requirements of this section are not binding upon a city is governed by a special charter, and failure to comply with the provisions of this section has no effect on the conduct of a special meeting in the city or the validity of any actions taken at such a meeting. This is assuming the governing authorities of the city have not adopted the special meeting notice requirements contained in this section by official policy. Stovall, Mar. 12, 2004, A.G. Op. 0069.

(1) The council shall appoint a clerk of the council and deputy clerks, as necessary, who shall compile the minutes and records of its proceedings, its ordinances and resolutions as this chapter requires, and perform such duties as may be required by law.

(2) At the end of each fiscal year, the council shall cause a full and complete examination of all the books, accounts and vouchers of the municipality to be made by a competent, independent accountant or accountants who shall be appointed by the council, and the report of said examination shall be typed or printed in pamphlet form. The council shall make available a copy of said pamphlet to all persons who shall apply therefor at the office of the municipal clerk and shall cause three (3) of the printed copies of said pamphlet for each fiscal year to be substantially bound in three (3) volumes which shall be kept and preserved as a record of the clerk's office. Said pamphlets shall be published as now provided by law.

(3) If, at the beginning of the first term of office of the first city council elected by any municipality under the provisions of this chapter, the appropriations for the expenditures for the municipal government for the current fiscal year shall have been made, the council shall have power by ordinance, to revise, repeal or change said appropriations and to make additional appropriations.

(4) The authority of the council is otherwise legislative and is executed by a vote within a legally called meeting. No member of the council shall give orders to any employee or subordinate of a municipality other than the council member's personal staff. The council shall deal with the municipal departments and personnel solely through the mayor.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Ordinances requiring city council approval for mayor's appointment of city attorney, municipal judges, and prosecutors are consistent with statutory requirement that executive authority be vested with mayor in mayor-council form of government. Jordan v. Smith, 669 So. 2d 752 (Miss. 1996).

"Claims docket" method of handling municipal expenditures-appropriate department must bring properly docketed claim, before council for approval-is statutorily required although facially incompatible with statutory mayor-council form of government. Jordan v. Smith, 669 So. 2d 752 (Miss. 1996).

In certain circumstances, such as a vacancy, the mayor may designate an individual to perform the core duties of department director on a temporary basis to ensure that the functions of that department are maintained in the interest of the health and welfare of the citizens; however, as there is no distinction in the statutes between temporary and permanent directors, all appointments to the position of department director whether interim or permanent must receive council approval pursuant to Section 21-8-23(2). Doty, Feb. 4, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0014.

§ 21-8-17. General powers and duties of mayor; approval of ordinances.

(1) The mayor shall enforce the charter and ordinances of the municipality and all general laws applicable thereto. He shall annually report to the council and the public on the work of the previous year and on the condition and requirements of the municipal government and shall, from time to time, make such recommendations for action by the council as he may deem in the public interest. He shall supervise all of the departments of the municipal government and shall require each department to make an annual report and such other reports of its work as he may deem desirable. No member of the council shall give orders to any employee or subordinate of a municipality other than the council member's personal staff.

(2) Ordinances adopted by the council shall be submitted to the mayor and he shall, within ten (10) days (not including Saturdays, Sundays or holidays) after receiving any ordinance, either approve the ordinance by affixing his signature thereto or return it to the council by delivering it to the clerk of the council together with a statement setting forth his objections thereto or to any item or part thereof. No ordinance or any item or part thereof shall take effect without the mayor's approval, unless the mayor fails to return an ordinance to the council prior to the next council meeting, but no later than fifteen (15) days (not including Saturdays, Sundays or holidays) after it has been presented to him or unless the council upon reconsideration thereof not later than the tenth day (not including Saturdays, Sundays or holidays) following its return by the mayor, shall, by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the members present and voting resolve to override the mayor's veto.

(3) The mayor may attend meetings of the council and may take part in discussions of the council but shall have no vote except in the case of a tie on the question of filling a vacancy in the council, in which case he may cast the deciding vote.

Whenever the mayor shall be prevented by absence from the municipality, disability or other cause from attending to the duties of his office, the mayor shall appoint a member of the council to assume the duties of the mayor. However, any acting mayor so appointed shall retain his right to vote in the council. Whenever the mayor shall have been unable to attend to the duties of his office for a period of sixty (60) consecutive days for any of the above stated reasons, or whenever the mayor shall be incapable of making such appointment, an acting mayor shall be appointed by the council from among its members and said acting mayor shall succeed to all the rights, powers and duties of the mayor or the then acting mayor. Such acting mayor shall serve until the mayor returns to office or until a new mayor has been elected to fill the unexpired term of the original mayor. A new mayor shall be elected at a special election to be called and held as provided by law for the holding of municipal elections; provided that the acting mayor shall complete the term of the original mayor if a general municipal election is to be held within six (6) months of the determination of the council hereinafter provided for in this section. Prior to the calling of a special election pursuant to this section, the council, by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of all members of the council, shall make a determination that the mayor is incapable of completing his term of office. In the event of the death of the mayor the council shall appoint an acting mayor as provided in this section to serve until a successor is elected. Within thirty (30) days of the mayor's death the council shall call a special election as provided in this section to elect his successor; provided that the acting mayor shall complete the term of the original mayor if a general municipal election is to be held within six (6) months of the death of the original mayor.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Pursuant to Miss. Code Section 21-8-19, Mayor may choose Acting Mayor when Mayor will be absent from office for longer than sixty days. Schissel, Apr. 28, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0289.

As the provisions contained in the special charter of a city are specific in nature with regard to the powers of the mayor pro tempore and the president of the council, this section is not applicable. Carouthers, Aug. 29, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0452.

§ 21-8-21. Mayor and councilmen to be qualified electors of city; compensation; overtime to members of police and fire departments.

(1) The mayor and the members of the council shall be qualified electors of the municipality. The compensation for the mayor and the members of the council shall be set by the council. After the salaries of the first mayor and first council have been determined by the council of any municipality electing to come under the provision of this chapter, such salaries shall be effective immediately. Thereafter, any increases or decreases in the salary for the mayor or councilmen may be authorized by the council at any time prior to ninety (90) days before the next general election for the selection of municipal officers. Such increases or decreases shall not become effective until the next elected mayor and council takes office.

(2) The salary of the mayor, councilmen and all employees of such municipality shall be paid at such periods as may be fixed by the council, but not less frequently than once a month; however, no salaries or wages shall be paid to any officer or employee of such municipality until after the same shall have been earned. Every officer or employee of the municipality shall receive such a salary of compensation as the council shall by ordinance provide, and the salary compensation of all employees of such municipality shall be fixed by the council from time to time, as occasion may demand.

(3) The city council shall have the power and authority to provide for and pay to any member of the police department or fire department of such municipality additional compensation for services and duties performed by any such member over and above the usual and regular number of days and hours per week or month ordinarily worked by such member. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to relieve any such member of the police department or fire department from being subject to call for duty on a twenty-four-hour basis whether or not additional compensation is paid. Provided, however, that no policeman or fireman shall perform any duties or other work during regular working hours for any person or association, group or drive, or during hours for which he is being paid for the performance of official duties as policeman or fireman.

Notwithstanding any provision of Comprehensive Personnel Ordinance to contrary, council must ultimately set salary and compensation levels of all municipal employees. Halat, Oct. 26, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0137.

A police officer may work for two different municipalities, but must fulfill responsibilities of both positions and cannot be paid by both municipalities for the same hours. Scott, July 11, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0383.

A city council has the power to set salaries and to raise or reduce the salaries of department heads and all municipal employees pursuant to subsection (2). McLemore, Jan. 25, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0004.

§ 21-8-23. Municipal departments; surety bond.

(1) The municipality may have a department of administration and such other departments as the council may establish by ordinance. All of the administrative functions, powers and duties of the municipality shall be allocated and assigned among and within such departments.

(2) Each department shall be headed by a director, who shall be appointed by the mayor and confirmed by an affirmative vote of a majority of the council present and voting at any such meeting. Each director shall serve during the term of office of the mayor appointing him, and until the appointment and qualification of his successor.

(3) The mayor may, in his discretion, remove the director of any department. Directors of departments shall be excluded from the coverage of any ordinance or general law providing for a civil service system in the municipality; provided, however, all individuals serving as heads of departments at the time of the municipality's adoption of the mayor-council form as described in this chapter shall continue to be covered by the provisions of the civil service system in effect at the time the mayor-council form is adopted.

(4) Directors of departments shall appoint subordinate officers and employees within their respective departments and may, with approval of the mayor, remove such officers and employees subject to the provisions of any ordinance establishing a civil service system where that system is effective in the municipality, or other general law; provided, however, that the council may provide by ordinance for the appointment and removal of specific boards or commissions by the mayor.

(5) Whenever the city council is authorized by any provision of general law to appoint the members of any board, authority or commission, such power of appointment shall be deemed to vest in the mayor with the confirmation of an affirmative vote of a majority of the council present and voting at any meeting.

(6) The council shall also require all officers and employees handling or having the custody of any of the public funds of such municipality to give bond, with sufficient surety, to be payable, conditioned and approved as provided by law, in an amount to be determined by the council (which shall not be less than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), the premium on which bonds shall be paid by the city.

While there is no specific statutory procedure for reconsideration of matter previously voted on by city council, nothing would prohibit mayor from appointing qualified individual second time after council failed to confirm that individual following his first appointment. Jones, Feb. 21, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0118.

Refusal of city council to confirm Mayor's appointee is not subject to Mayor's veto; to say otherwise would have effect of allowing Mayor to use his veto power to obtain confirmation without affirmative vote of majority of council as required by statute. Jones, Feb. 28, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0156.

Statute requires city council confirmation of appointment of Acting Departmental Director whether it is expected to be temporary appointment or otherwise; such appointment which is made and confirmed would then be subject to removal in accordance to statute. Jones, March 16, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0202.

Under Miss. Code Section 21-8-23, city council may establish municipal departments and mayor may appoint director of such departments, subject to confirmation by council; subsection (3) provides that such directors of departments shall be excluded from coverage of any civil service system; there is no requirement that Chief City Attorney be department director appointed by mayor; attorney could simply be staff member of particular department appointed by director of that department under Miss. Code Section 21-8-23(4); as such, attorney could be covered by civil service. Hewes, Mar. 29, 1993, A.G. Op. #92-0952.

When mayor of mayor-council city is re-elected to office, mayor should submit his appointments for department directors to city council for confirmation each term, even if those named are current directors. Lawrence, March 9, 1994, A.G. Op. #94-0046.

After a majority of the city council members present and voting at a meeting have confirmed an appointment to a board, authority or commission authorized by general legislation, the council members are not empowered to withdraw that confirmation. Doty, May 1, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0228.

The city council may amend the ordinance establishing the salary for every municipal employee from time to time as, in the council's discretion, occasion may demand; further, the salary of every municipal employee must be fixed by such ordinance. Wansley, July 10, 1998, A. G. Op. #98-0283.

In certain circumstances, such as a vacancy, the mayor may designate an individual to perform the core duties of department director on a temporary basis to ensure that the functions of that department are maintained in the interest of the health and welfare of the citizens; however, as there is no distinction in the statutes between temporary and permanent directors, all appointments to the position of department director whether interim or permanent must receive council approval pursuant to Section 21-8-23(2). Doty, Feb. 4, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0014.

If a mayor does not fulfill his term and resigns or leaves for some other reason and a new mayor comes in to fill the unexpired term of the former mayor, the new mayor must resubmit names of the department heads to the city council for reconfirmation. Doty, Feb. 18, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0070.

The statute requires the mayor to present appointments to the city council for confirmation, but does not specifically state what alternatives the city council may pursue if the mayor does not present appointments to the city council for confirmation. McLemore, Jan. 25, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0004.

As there is no distinction in the statutes between temporary and permanent directors, all appointments to the position of department director, whether interim or permanent, must receive city council approval pursuant to subsection (2). McLemore, Jan. 25, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0004.

Seminar or conference registration fees may be paid for members of appointed boards and commissions, provided those expenses are found to be necessary for the members' board or commission responsibilities. Myers, Feb. 21, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0078.

A city may pay travel expenses in connection with the attendance at a necessary seminar, conference or workshop. Myers, Feb. 21, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0078.

A city may pay membership dues or fees for an appointed board or commission member to become a member of an organization which provides information, training, etc. for the board or commission on which they serve. Myers, Feb. 21, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0078.

If the expense of a publication is found to be reasonable and necessary to the performance of an officer's duties, and the benefits thereof will inure to the benefit of the municipality with any personal benefit being incidental, the municipality may pay for subscriptions. Myers, Feb. 21, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0078.

In a city with a Mayor-Council form of government, the Mayor does not have the discretion to approve expenditures for travel, membership dues, seminar fees or professional publications or professional publications; they must be approved by the City Council. Myers, Feb. 21, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0078.

If the a city has a duly enacted ordinance establishing the fire department as a municipal department and the fire chief as the director of that department, then only the mayor has the authority to remove that individual from the position. Bailey, Feb. 2, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0017.

The council of any municipality adopting the mayor-council form of government may, within its discretion, adopt an ordinance providing that the mayor shall appoint, with the advice and consent of the council, a chief administrative officer to coordinate and direct the operations of the various departments and functions of municipal government; such chief administrative officer shall serve at the pleasure of the mayor and shall possess such qualifications and experience as shall be set out in the aforesaid ordinance. The said chief administrative officer shall be answerable solely to the mayor in the performance of his functions and shall be subject to dismissal at the pleasure of the mayor and shall be excluded from the coverage of any ordinance or general law providing for a civil service system in the municipality.

A municipal civil service commission would have no authority with regard to benefits to be provided to municipal employees by the governing authority. Bowman, Feb. 7, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0771.

§ 21-8-27. Control of mayor and his subordinates by council.

The members of the council shall not direct or dictate the appointment of any person to or his removal from office by the mayor or any department directors. Except for the purposes of inquiring or receiving information or advice, the council shall deal with the municipal departments and personnel solely through the mayor and no member of the council shall give orders to any subordinate of the municipality. The council shall have the power to investigate any part of the municipal government and for that purpose to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents and other evidence.

Individual council members can legally request information and advice from any municipal employee, and if such employee refuses to voluntarily supply requested information, council as whole can compel response; council as whole may decide to limit inquiry in some fashion, but no other entity of municipal government has any authority to limit or circumscribe council member’s inquiry. Halat, May 18, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0352.

A city council member in a mayor-council municipality may inquire and receive information and advice directly from department heads and employees without dealing with the mayor. Jones, Sept. 19, 2003. A.G. Op. 03-0470.

There are no deadlines for architects and engineers who provide professional services to municipalities to respond to requests for information from the governing authorities or individual council members apart from any contractual duties that exist. However, architects and engineers should comply in a timely manner with reasonable requests for information from council members or the council as a whole. Jones, Sept. 19, 2003. A.G. Op. 03-0470.

§ 21-8-33. Existing laws unaffected by reorganization; application of civil service laws.

All laws governing any municipality coming under the provisions of this chapter which are not inconsistent with the provisions hereof respecting the mayor-council form of government shall apply to and govern such municipalities respectively when they shall come under the mayor-council form. All orders, ordinances or resolutions heretofore adopted by a municipality adopting the mayor-council form of government shall remain in full force and effect until altered or repealed by the council established hereunder, and all of the provisions of the civil service acts applying to any municipality adopting the mayor-council form of government at the time of such adoption shall continue to apply in full force and effect to such municipality after adoption of such mayor-council form of government. The board of civil service commissioners existing and operating under the former plan of government shall continue to operate without interruption or impairment under the mayor-council form of government. All rights, privileges, and advantages of all employees coming under the civil service acts applying to said municipality at the time of adoption shall remain in full force and effect and shall in nowise be impaired, altered, or changed by such adoption, except as otherwise provided by this chapter. After the election and taking of office of the councilmen and mayor under the mayor-council form of government, all functions and duties of every nature that would have otherwise been performed by the governing body under the previous form of government in relation to such civil service acts shall thereafter be exercised and performed by the municipal council under the mayor-council form of government except that all appointments of employees coming under the provisions of such civil service acts shall be made, subject to such civil service acts, by the mayor, but all appointments made prior to the change to the mayor-council form shall remain in full force and effect.

The territorial limits of any such municipality shall remain the same as under its former organization and any litigation concerning annexation in progress at the time any municipality shall adopt the mayor-council form of government shall not be affected by such change; provided that nothing herein shall affect the rights of such municipality to expand its territorial limits as provided by law. All rights and property of every description which were vested in every such municipality under its former organization shall vest in the same under the organization contemplated by the mayor-council form of government; and no right or liability, either in favor of or against such municipality, and no suit or prosecution of any kind shall be affected by such change. This chapter shall not in any manner, irrespective of other provisions hereof, affect the organization of the police court or of the public schools which shall continue to operate by and under the laws otherwise applicable. § 21-9-3. Initiating proceedings for adoption.

The manner of effecting the change in the government of any such city from the form of government under which it is operating to the council-manager plan of government shall be as follows:

One or more petitions, similar in form and substance, addressed to the mayor, praying that an election be held to determine whether or not such city shall abandon its existing form of government and become organized under a council-manager plan of government, signed by at least ten percent (10%) of the qualified electors of such city, shall be filed with the city clerk, who shall within ten (10) days thereafter check the signatures thereto with the registration books of the city and attach thereto his certificate showing the total number of qualified electors in said city, and the total number of signatures to said petitions and deliver the same to the mayor.

If, on the delivery of such petition to the mayor, it shall appear that such petition or petitions have not been signed by the required number of qualified electors of such city, the mayor shall at once certify such fact and immediately return such petition or petitions to the person or persons presenting the same, who may thereafter procure additional signers thereto and again file such petition or petitions with the city clerk, as above provided, as an original petition.

If it shall at any time appear from the certificate of the city clerk that said petition or petitions have been signed by the required number of qualified electors of said city, the mayor shall immediately refer the same to the city council or board and if it shall appear that said petition or petitions are in proper form and have been sufficiently signed by the qualified electors of such city, the council or board shall within five (5) days order and provide for the holding of a special election in such city not less than twenty (20) days nor more than sixty (60) days from the date of making such order, notice of which shall be given, and the same shall be held and conducted as other elections in such city. At such special election the propositions to be voted for shall be: (1) "FOR THE PRESENT FORM OF GOVERNMENT" and "FOR THE COUNCIL-MANAGER PLAN OF GOVERNMENT," and (2) "FOR COUNCILMEN ELECTED AT LARGE" and "FOR COUNCILMEN ELECTED BY WARDS," which propositions shall be printed on the official ballot at such election.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Where, following the entry of an order granting petition and directing an election on the proposition of whether to retain the present form of city government or to adopt the council-manager form, all in conformity with this section [Code 1942, § 3825.5-02], the city clerk thereafter caused a false and fictitious order to be entered on the minutes adding a second proposition to be voted on with respect to the election of councilmen, the election held under the second order was invalid and the order of the city council adopting and filing the report of the election commission and changing the form of city government was void. City of Pascagoula v. May, 254 Miss. 208, 176 So. 2d 892 (1965).

As soon as the returns of any election held hereunder for the adoption of the council-manager plan have been certified, and if a majority of the votes cast at such election were in favor of the council-manager form of government, the mayor of such city shall immediately certify to the secretary of state that such city, by special election, has adopted the council-manager form of government provided for herein, which certificate shall be recorded in a book kept for that purpose by the secretary of state. Such form of government shall then become effective on the third Tuesday after said adoption.

In case it shall appear by said election returns that a majority of the votes cast at such election were in favor of the existing form of government, then the mayor and councilmen or aldermen shall dismiss the petition, in which case no similar petition or ordinance shall be filed for a period of two years from the date of such order dismissing the petition, but nothing short of such election shall preclude the filing of such petition and the holding of another election at any time.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Where the entire proceedings to change to a council-manager form of government were based upon a false and fictitious order calling the election, and a false certificate to the notice of election, there was no duty and no power to adopt or approve such proceedings or to certify to the secretary of state that the council-manager form of government had been adopted. City of Pascagoula v. May, 254 Miss. 208, 176 So. 2d 892 (1965).

§ 21-9-7. Transition to council-manager plan.

All elected officials of the city holding office at the time the council-manager plan is adopted hereunder shall continue in office until the expiration of their respective terms of office. The mayor and councilmen or aldermen of the city, prior to the time of the effective date for the installation of the council-manager plan, shall have power to provide by ordinance for any details of the orderly transition from the prior form of government to the council-manager plan, not otherwise specified by law.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

The purpose of this section [Code 1942, § 3825.5-04] was to provide for an orderly transition from mayor-councilman or alderman form of government to council-manager plan of government, and it was not the legislative purpose by enacting this section [Code 1942, § 3825.5-04] to legislate out of office a mayor and commissioners who had been previously elected. Krebs v. Bradley, 190 So. 2d 886 (Miss. 1966).

§ 21-9-9. Procedure for repeal of council-manager plan.

Any city which has adopted the council-manager plan, as herein provided, and which shall have operated under the council-manager plan for a period of three years, may discontinue the council-manager plan of government by a vote of the electors thereof initiated by a petition of twenty per centum of the qualified electors of said city, and the same procedure set forth in Section 21-9-3, shall be followed in determining whether such plan shall be discontinued. The propositions to be then voted on shall be: "For the council-manager form of government" and "Against the council-manager form of government."

§ 21-9-13. Transition from council-manager plan.

In case the council-manager plan of government is discontinued or repealed by a majority vote of the qualified electors of such city, voting in an election for that purpose, as provided in Section 21-9-9, the next municipal election thereafter shall be conducted for such officials as are provided by law for such city under and according to that form of government under which it operated prior to the time that it adopted the council-manager plan of government. The elected officials then holding office under the council-manager plan shall continue in office until their duly elected successors under said form of government under which the municipality operated prior to the adoption of the council-manager plan shall take office. On the date on which such newly elected officials shall take office, as provided by law, the employment of such manager as shall have theretofore been employed by the council under the council-manager plan shall terminate, and all offices created under the provisions of this chapter shall terminate. Thereafter the municipality shall be governed by the general law applicable according to the form of government under which it had operated prior to adoption of the council-manager plan. The council or board shall have power by ordinance not inconsistent herewith to provide for the orderly transition from the one form of government to the other, in the same manner as is provided in Section 21-9-7. A city which has adopted the council-manager plan and subsequently discontinues it, as herein provided, may readopt it by following the same procedure as that herein set forth for its original adoption, and it may likewise thereafter so discontinue the same.

§ 21-9-15. Municipal council; election of councilmen and mayor; terms.

(1)(a) The legislative power of any city in which the council-manager plan of government is in effect under this chapter shall be vested in a council consisting of a mayor and five (5) councilmen.

(b) Any city with a larger or smaller number of councilmen, prior to September 30, 1962, may retain this larger or smaller number of councilmen or may adopt the council size of five (5) as prescribed herein. This option shall be exercised through the enactment of an appropriate ordinance by the municipal governing body prior to the election to adopt the council-manager plan of government. In the event the council fails to exercise this option, the council shall consist of five (5) councilmen.

(c) At the next regular municipal election which takes place after the adoption of the council-manager form of government, the mayor shall be elected at large by the voters of the entire city. Also, the councilmen shall be elected at large by the voters of the entire city to represent a city-wide district, or each of four (4) councilmen may be elected from a ward to represent such ward and one (1) councilman may be elected to represent a city-wide district. This option shall be exercised by an appropriate ordinance enacted by the city governing body prior to the election to adopt the council-manager plan of government. In the event the council fails to exercise this option, the councilmen shall be elected at large to represent the city-wide district. In its discretion at any time after adoption and implementation of the council-manager plan of government the council may provide for the election of councilmen by wards as provided herein, which shall become effective at the next regularly scheduled election for city councilmen.

(d) Councilmen elected to represent wards must be residents of their wards; and in cities having more or fewer than five (5) councilmen, prior to September 30, 1962, the city governing body shall determine the number of councilmen to represent the wards and the number of councilmen to represent the city-wide district.

(e) The council of any municipality having a population exceeding forty-five thousand (45,000) inhabitants according to the 1970 decennial census which is situated in a Class 1 county bordering on the State of Alabama and which is governed by a council-manager plan of government on January 1, 1977 may, in its discretion, adopt an ordinance to require the election of four (4) of the five (5) council members from wards and not from the city at large. The four (4) council members shall be elected one (1) each from the wards in which they reside in the municipality, and shall be elected only by the registered voters residing within the ward in which the council member resides. The mayor and fifth council member may continue to be elected from the city at large. Any council member who shall remove his residence from the ward from which he was elected shall, by operation of law, vacate his seat on the council.

After publication of the population of the municipality according to the 1980 decennial census, the governing authorities of the municipality shall designate the geographical boundaries of new wards as provided in this subparagraph. Each ward shall contain as nearly as possible the population factor obtained by dividing by four (4) the city's population as shown by the 1980 and each most recent decennial census thereafter. It shall be the mandatory duty of the council to redistrict the city by ordinance, which ordinance may not be vetoed by the mayor, within six (6) months after the official publication by the United States of the population of the city as enumerated in each decennial census, and within six (6) months after the effective date of any expansion of municipal boundaries; provided, however, if the publication of the most recent decennial census or effective date of an expansion of the municipal boundaries occurs six (6) months or more prior to the first primary of a general municipal election, then the council shall redistrict the city by ordinance within at least sixty (60) days of such first primary. If the publication of the most recent decennial census occurs less than six (6) months prior to the first primary of a general municipal election, the election shall be held with regard to currently defined wards; and reapportioned wards based on the census shall not serve as the basis for representation until the next regularly scheduled election in which council members shall be elected. If annexation of additional territory into the municipal corporate limits of the city shall occur less than six (6) months prior to the first primary of a general municipal election, the city council shall, by ordinance adopted within three (3) days of the effective date of such annexation, assign such annexed territory to an adjacent ward or wards so as to maintain as nearly as possible substantial equality of population between wards. Any subsequent redistricting of the city by ordinance as required by this section shall not serve as the basis for representation until the next regularly scheduled election for city councilmen.

(2) However, in any municipality situated in a Class 1 county bordering on the Mississippi Sound and the State of Alabama, traversed by U.S. Highway 90, the legislative power of such municipality in which the council-manager plan of government is in effect shall be vested in a council consisting of a mayor and six (6) councilmen. In the next regular municipal election in such municipality, the mayor shall be elected at large by the voters of the entire municipality. Also, the councilmen shall be elected at large by the voters of the entire municipality to represent a municipality-wide district, or each of five (5) councilmen may be elected from one (1) of five (5) wards to represent said ward and one (1) councilman shall be elected to represent a municipality-wide district. This option as to wards shall be exercised by an appropriate ordinance enacted by the municipal governing body. In the event the council fails to exercise this option, the councilmen shall be elected at large to represent the municipality-wide district. Councilmen elected to represent wards must be residents of their wards.

The method of electing the mayor and councilmen shall be the same as otherwise provided by law except as provided in this chapter. The mayor and councilmen elected hereunder shall hold office for a term of four (4) years and until their successors are elected and qualified. No person shall be eligible to the office of mayor or councilman unless he is a qualified elector of such city.

(3)(a) In the event a city with a population of one hundred thousand (100,000) or more inhabitants according to the last decennial census adopts the council-manager form of government, the legislative power of said city shall be vested in a council consisting of a mayor and eight (8) councilmen.

(b) At the next regular municipal election which takes place after the adoption of the council-manager form of government, the mayor shall be elected at large by the voters of the entire municipality. The municipality shall be divided into five (5) wards with one (1) councilman to be elected from each ward by the voters of that ward, and three (3) councilmen to be elected from the municipality at large. Councilmen elected to represent wards must be residents of their wards at the time of qualification for election, and any councilman who removes his residence from the city or from the ward from which he was elected shall vacate his office.

(c) It shall be the duty of the municipal governing body existing at the time of the adoption of the council-manager form of government to designate the geographical boundaries of the five (5) wards within sixty (60) days after the election in which the council-manager form is selected. In designating the geographical boundaries of the five (5) wards, each ward shall contain as nearly as possible the population factor obtained by dividing by five (5) the city's population as shown by the most recent decennial census. It shall be the mandatory duty of the council to redistrict the city by ordinance, which ordinance may not be vetoed by the mayor, within six (6) months after the official publication by the United States of the population of the city as enumerated in each decennial census, and within six (6) months after the effective date of any expansion of municipal boundaries; however, if the publication of the most recent decennial census or effective date of an expansion of the municipal boundaries occurs six (6) months or more prior to the first primary of a general municipal election, then the council shall redistrict the city by ordinance within at least sixty (60) days of such first primary. If the publication of the most recent decennial census occurs less than six (6) months prior to the first primary of a general municipal election, the election shall be held with regard to currently defined wards; and reapportioned wards based on the census shall not serve as the basis for representation until the next regularly scheduled election in which city councilmen shall be elected. If annexation of additional territory into the municipal corporate limits of the city shall occur less than six (6) months prior to the first primary of a general municipal election, the city council shall, by ordinance adopted within three (3) days of the effective date of such annexation, assign such annexed territory to an adjacent ward or wards so as to maintain as nearly as possible substantial equality of population between wards; any subsequent redistricting of the city by ordinance as required by this section shall not serve as the basis for representation until the next regularly scheduled election for city councilmen.

(4) The method of electing the mayor and councilmen shall be the same as otherwise provided by law, except as provided in this chapter. The mayor and councilmen elected hereunder shall hold office for a term of four (4) years and until their successors are elected and qualified. No person shall be eligible to the office of mayor or councilman unless he is a qualified elector of such city.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Mississippi Code § 21-9-15(2) was inapplicable to render defective a petition seeking to establish in Jackson County a new municipality, with a form of government consisting of a mayor and five council members. City of Pascagoula v. Scheffler, 487 So. 2d 196 (Miss. 1986).

The Legislature may provide by general laws for the change of the form of government of a municipal corporation and its act in so doing is valid even though it may result in legislating office holders out of office. Krebs v. Bradley, 190 So. 2d 886 (Miss. 1966).

§ 21-9-17. Primary election for candidates for mayor and councilmen.

Except as otherwise provided, all candidates for mayor and councilmen, or any of them, to be voted for at any general or special municipal election, shall be nominated by party primary election, and no other name or names shall be placed on the official ballot at such general or special election than those selected in the manner prescribed herein. Such primary election or elections, shall be held not less than ten, nor more than thirty days, preceding the general or special election, and such primary election or elections shall be held and conducted in the manner as near as may be as is provided by law for state and county primary elections.

At all elections held to choose a mayor and councilmen, or any of them, the choice of the person or persons voting shall be indicated and the ballots shall be marked in like manner as is provided by law for general state and county elections. In all cases in which two or more persons are to be elected to the same office, the failure on the part of any elector to indicate his choice for as many candidates as there are officers to be elected to such office, shall render his ballot void as to any candidate voted for by him for such office.

The managers of election at all special and general elections for mayor and councilmen, or any of them, shall immediately, upon the closing of the polls, count the ballots and ascertain the number of votes cast in each voting precinct for each of the candidates and make return thereof to the municipal election commissioners. On the day following any special or general election, the said election commissioners shall canvass said returns so received from all the voting precincts, and shall within five days after such special or general election, deliver to each person receiving the highest number of votes a certificate of election. If it shall appear by the returns that any two candidates for mayor or councilmen, have received an equal number of votes, the election shall be decided by lot, fairly and publicly drawn by the election commissioners, with the aid of a friend of each such candidates, and a certificate of election shall be given accordingly.

The election commissioners shall, within five days after any special or general election, certify to the secretary of state the name or names of the person or persons elected at such special or general election, and the secretary of state shall, immediately upon receiving such certificates, deliver the same to the governor, who shall immediately issue commissions to the persons mentioned in certificate.

For appointments made under § 21-9-29(d), under the city manager's administrative authority in subsection (a) of this section, the city manager may reassign non-statutory duties except he may not do so where such reassignment would conflict with an ordinance adopted by the city council establishing the duties of an office or department pursuant to § 21-9-45. Ramsey, Nov. 30, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0583.

§ 21-9-21. Appointment of officials and employees of city other than councilmen and mayor; surety bond.

In a city in which the council-manager plan of government is in effect under the provisions of this chapter, no city official or employee shall be elected by the voters except members of the council and the mayor. All other officials and employees shall be appointed as hereinafter provided.

The city council shall require all officers and employees handling or having the custody of any of the public funds of such municipality to give bond, with sufficient surety, to be payable, conditioned and approved as provided by law, in an amount to be determined by the council (which shall not be less than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00)), the premium on which bonds shall be paid by the city.

The first city council elected under the provisions of this chapter shall at its first meeting employ by majority vote of all its members a city manager who shall be the chief administrative officer of the city. The manager shall receive such compensation as the council shall determine. He shall be chosen solely on the basis of his experience and administrative qualifications. He shall not engage in any other business or profession so long as he shall hold office of city manager. No person elected to the city council shall be eligible for the office of city manager during the term for which he was elected.

If the office of city manager becomes vacant, the city council shall appoint without delay a new manager or an acting manager to fill the office until a new manager is designated.

In case of the absence or disability of the city manager, the city council may appoint a qualified person to perform the duties of the city manager temporarily.

The manager may be removed at any time by a vote of a majority of all the members of the council. However, he shall not be so removed until the reasons for his proposed removal have been furnished him in writing, and until he has received a public hearing thereon before the council, if he so requests. Pending and during such hearing the council may suspend him from office.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
2. Leases.

1. In general.

Since this section [Code 1942, § 3825.5-17] confers upon the manager of a city operating under a council-manager plan of government the power to employ a city engineer and to supervise and control him in the performance of his duties, the court could not interfere with the exercise of such powers of the city manager, or prohibit the city engineer from accepting employment with the performance of engineering services for private individuals upon his own time, since neither the legislature nor the city council had seen fit to impose such restrictions. Damon v. Slaughter, 233 Miss. 117, 101 So. 2d 342 (1958).

2. Leases.

A city manager may not enter into leases or negotiate regarding them, although a city council perhaps could delegate specific authority. JLG Concrete Prods. Co. v. City of Grenada, 722 So. 2d 1283 (Miss. Ct. App. 1998).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Under Miss. Code Section 21-9-29, city manager has general oversight responsibility as to police department, but does not have responsibility for daily operations of department. Ramsay, Mar. 10, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0155.

The police chief serves at the will and pleasure of the city manager and is subject to his direction and control. Johnson, Nov. 5, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0547.

A city manager may reorganize city government and realign job responsibilities of the employment positions and offices reporting to him, except that in those cases where the city council creates an office or department, and assigns those offices or departments specific powers and duties in accordance with § 21-9-45, the city manager is bound by the provisions of that ordinance. Ramsey, Nov. 30, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0583.

In the council-manager form of government neither the city attorney nor the municipal judge are administrative positions, therefore they are not subject to the administrative control of the city manager. Ramsey, Nov. 30, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0583.

For those appointments made by the city council under subsection (d) of this section, the city council has the authority to determine to whom those appointees report; however, the city attorney and municipal judge, as non-administrative positions, must be assigned to the city council. Ramsey, Nov. 30, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0583.

For appointments made under subsection (d) of this section, under the city manager's administrative authority in § 21-9-19 (a), the city manager may reassign non-statutory duties except he may not do so where such reassignment would conflict with an ordinance adopted by the city council establishing the duties of an office or department pursuant to § 21-9-45. Ramsey, Nov. 30, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0583.

Once a municipality establishes a civil service system in accordance with state law, the municipality is required to act in accordance with those lawfully adopted rules, regulation and procedures governing the municipality's civil service system. Ramsey, Nov. 30, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0583.

§ 21-9-31. Control of manager and his subordinates by council.

Neither the mayor nor any of the members of the council or committees of the council shall direct or dictate the appointment of any person to or his removal from office by the manager or any of his subordinates. Except for the purposes of inquiring or receiving information or advice, the mayor and council and the several members thereof shall deal with the administrative services solely through the manager and neither the mayor nor any member of the council shall give orders to any subordinate of the city. The city council shall have the power to investigate any part of the city government and for that purpose to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents and other evidence.

The mayor and councilmen shall constitute the governing body of such city or town and shall be known as the city council or the town council as the case may be. Except as limited in this chapter, the city council shall have, exercise and perform all executive, legislative and judicial powers, duties and obligations vested by law in the mayor and governing body acting for the city at the time of the adoption by such city of the council-manager form of government.

The corporate name of every such city or town shall be “The City of (name of city),” or “The Town of (name of town),” under which name the council shall exercise and perform all the corporate powers, duties and obligations conferred or imposed on it or the members thereof.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

A provision in the charter of the city of Meridian under Laws of 1888, ch 228, § 15, imposing personal liability upon municipal officers for appropriating money to any object not authorized by the charter, was carried forward when the city subsequently adopted the council-manager form of government. Paine v. Matthews, 213 Miss. 506, 57 So. 2d 148 (1952).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

The city manager, not the city council, appoints police officers. The police chief may but need not recommend that the city manager hire a certain police officer. Walker, Aug. 1, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0285.

§ 21-9-39. Meetings of the council; quorum; voting.

(1) Regular public meetings of the council shall be held on the first Tuesday of each month, at such time of day as the council may provide. When a regular meeting of the council shall fall on a holiday, the council shall meet the following day. Special meetings may be called at any time by the mayor or two (2) councilmen on at least two (2) days' notice to the mayor and each member of the council. A special meeting may also be held at any time by written consent of the mayor and all members of the council. At all meetings of the council, a majority of the members thereof shall constitute a quorum. The affirmative vote of a majority of all of the members of the council shall be necessary to adopt any motion, resolution or ordinance, or to pass any measure whatever, unless a greater number is provided in this chapter. Upon every vote taken by the council, the yeas and nays shall be called and recorded, and every motion, resolution or ordinance shall be reduced to writing before the vote is taken thereon. Upon request of one or more council members, any motion, resolution or ordinance shall be read by the clerk before the vote is taken thereon. The city or town manager may be appointed only at a regular meeting of the council with no less than a majority of the members, plus one (1), in attendance.

(2) The council may, pursuant to Section 21-17-17, set a day other than Tuesday for the holding of its regular monthly meeting.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

A city manager may reorganize city government and realign job responsibilities of the employment positions and offices reporting to him, except that in those cases where the city council creates an office or department, and assigns those offices or departments specific powers and duties in accordance with this section, the city manager is bound by the provisions of that ordinance. Ramsey, Nov. 30, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0583.

For appointments made under § 21-9-29(d), under the city manager's administrative authority in § 21-9-19(a), the city manager may reassign non-statutory duties except he may not do so where such reassignment would conflict with an ordinance adopted by the city council establishing the duties of an office or department pursuant to this section. Ramsey, Nov. 30, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0583.

Under this section, the city manager in the council-manager form of government may create a new employment position only by recommending such new position to the city council and the city council approving it. Ramsay, Feb. 4, 2005, A.G. Op. 05-0006.

Under this section and § 21-9-63, the city council must fix the salary set for employees in new employment positions, and it must approve salary increases for employees in existing employment positions. Ramsay, Feb. 4, 2005, A.G. Op. 05-0006.

§ 21-9-63. Salaries and their payment; overtime to members of police and fire departments.

The salary of the mayor, councilmen and all officers and assistants holding any office created by this chapter or by ordinance shall be paid in monthly installments on the first business day of each month, and the salaries or wages of all other employees of such city shall be paid at such periods as may be fixed by the council. No salaries or wages shall be paid to any officer or employee of such city until after the same shall have been earned.

Every officer or assistant, other than the mayor and councilmen, shall receive such salary or compensation as the council shall by ordinance, provide, and the salary compensation of all other employees of such city shall be fixed by the council from time to time, as occasion may demand.

The city council of any city operating under the provisions of this chapter shall have the power and authority to provide for and pay to any member of the police department or fire department of such city additional compensation for services and duties performed by any such member over and above the usual and regular number of days and hours per week or month ordinarily worked by such member. Any additional compensation so paid shall be computed on the basis of the compensation regularly paid to such members of the police or fire department. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to relieve any such member of the police department or fire department from being subject to call for duty on a twenty-four hour basis whether or not additional compensation is paid.

Under § 21-9-45 and this section, the city council must fix the salary set for employees in new employment positions, and it must approve salary increases for employees in existing employment positions. Ramsay, Feb. 4, 2005, A.G. Op. 05-0006.

§ 21-9-65. Petitions for special election.

Except as otherwise provided for, no special election shall be held, and no ordinance, in which any petition or protest is required, shall be referred to, or voted on, at any election unless, within the time allowed by the terms hereof, a sufficient petition or petitions, addressed to the mayor, demanding such election or protesting against or requesting the adoption of such ordinances, shall be personally signed by at least twenty-five per centum of all the qualified electors of such city and filed with the city clerk. Immediately upon the filing of any such petition or petitions with the city clerk, he shall endorse thereon the date of such filing and shall within ten days thereafter, verify the signatures thereto by the registration and poll books, and deliver such petition or petitions to the mayor of such city, together with the certificate of such clerk showing the total number of qualified electors of such city and also the total number of qualified electors who shall have signed such petition or petitions, which certificate shall be prima facie correct but not conclusive. If it shall appear from said petition or petitions and the certificate of such clerk that the same are in proper form and have been signed by the required number of the qualified electors of such city, it shall be the duty of the council at its next regular meeting to order such special election, or refer such ordinance to a vote of the electors of such city, in case of their failure to wholly repeal the same. Each and every petition shall, at the time the same is filed with the city clerk, have attached thereto the affidavit of one or more of the signers thereto, stating the total number of names signed to such petition at the time of filing the same, and no such petition shall be received or filed by the city clerk unless such affidavit is attached thereto.

Municipal courts generally, see §§ 21-23-1 et seq.

All laws governing cities heretofore operating under another form of government, which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter respecting the council-manager plan of government, shall apply to and govern such cities respectively when they shall come under the said council-manager plan. All by-laws, ordinances and resolutions lawfully passed and in force in every such city under its former organization shall remain in force until altered or repealed by the council elected under the provisions of this chapter.

The territorial limits of every such city shall remain the same as under its former organization. All rights and property of every description, which were vested in every such city under its former organization, shall vest in the same under the organization contemplated by the council-manager plan of government. No right or liability, either in favor of or against such city, and no suit or prosecution of any kind shall be affected by such change, unless otherwise provided.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

A provision in the charter of the city of Meridian under Laws of 1888, ch. 228, § 15, imposing personal liability upon municipal officers for appropriating money to any object not authorized by the charter, was carried forward when the city subsequently adopted the council-manager form of government. Paine v. Matthews, 213 Miss. 506, 57 So. 2d 148 (1952).

§ 21-9-79. Application of civil service laws.

All of the provisions of the civil service laws applying to any city adopting the council-manager plan of government, at the time of such adoption shall continue to apply in full force and effect to such city after adoption of such council-manager plan of government. The civil service commission existing and operating under the former plan of government shall continue to operate without interruption or impairment under the council-manager form of government. All rights, privileges, and advantages of all employees coming under the civil service laws, applying to said city at the time of adoption shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no wise be impaired, altered or changed by such adoption. After the election and taking of office of the councilmen and mayor under the council-manager plan of government, all functions and duties of every nature that would have otherwise been performed by the council under the commission form of government in relation to such civil service laws shall thereafter be exercised and performed by the city council under the council-manager plan of government, except that all appointments of employees coming under the provisions of such civil service laws shall be made, subject to such civil service laws, by the city manager, but all appointments made prior to the change to the council-manager plan shall remain in full force and effect.

The city manager is expressly excluded from coming under the terms and provisions of the civil service laws herein mentioned and is expressly excluded from the employees therein included.

§ 21-9-83. General and special laws and statutes to be construed as applicable to council.

Wherever, in any general or special law or statute, any power is conferred or duty enjoined or penalty imposed upon any officer, commission, board, or other body, acting for a city, such law or statute shall be held to confer such power and to enjoin such duty and impose such penalty upon the council, and the members thereof, in cities operating under a council-manager form of government. Whenever in this chapter or in any statute of this state, the word "franchise" is used it shall, when applied to cities operating under council-manager form of government, include every special privilege in the streets, highways, and public places of the city, whether granted by the state or the city, which does not belong to the citizens generally by common right.

1. In general.

Municipality may enforce municipal ordinance regarding sale of beer within 1500 feet of church against convenience stores notwithstanding fact that owner of one store has located store on basis of mayor's assurance that location complied with ordinance and that municipality has allowed sale of beer at another convenience store for some 12 years; furthermore renewal of permits for stores to sell beer may be denied on basis of noncompliance with ordinance. Suggs v. Town of Caledonia, 470 So. 2d 1055 (Miss. 1985).

Where a city passed an ordinance making it unlawful for transient vendors to go in and upon private residences, and in and upon private property and buildings other than residences, without first having been requested or invited to do so by the owner or occupant, for the purpose of soliciting orders for the sale of goods or selling the same, the ordinance was valid as it applies to soliciting in private residences but was invalid as to the property and buildings other than residences, which includes primarily business offices and stores. Day v. Klein, 225 Miss. 191, 82 So. 2d 831 (1955).

Presumption prevails in favor of correctness of judgment fixing penalty pursuant to agreement for considering ordinance without production thereof. Mask v. Town of Pontotoc, 152 Miss. 148, 119 So. 156 (1928).

Under a prosecution brought before a mayor of a municipality the affidavit must charge that the offense alleged was committed within the territorial limit of the municipality in order to show venue. McAlister v. City of Moss Point, 96 Miss. 686, 51 So. 403 (1910).

The legislature can constitutionally confer on municipalities the power by ordinances to punish as an offense against the municipality an act which constitutes a crime against the state. Town of Ocean Springs v. Green, 77 Miss. 472, 27 So. 743 (1900).

The court will not take judicial notice of town ordinances; Hence in a prosecution for the violation of an alleged ordinance a conviction will not be sustained if the evidence fails to show its existence. Naul v. State, 70 Miss. 699, 12 So. 903 (1893);

Spears v. Town of Osyka, 92 Miss. 790, 46 So. 558 (1908).

6. Under former law.

Where the record in a criminal proceeding charging the defendant with the unlawful sale of intoxicating liquors showed a confusion of jurisdiction as to whether the trial magistrate acted as a police justice or as an ex officio justice of the peace, the conviction could not be sustained, since because of such confusion the defendant would not be in a position to make a plea of former conviction or former acquittal against a further prosecution for violation either of the city ordinance or of the state laws. Wright v. City of Belzoni, 188 Miss. 334, 194 So. 919 (1940).

Municipal corporation could not impose penalty of ninety days in jail for violation of ordinances. Bohannon v. City of Louisville, 164 Miss. 97, 144 So. 44 (1932).

The city of Greenville had a charter right to impose a maximum penalty of $25.00 and three months' imprisonment for violating an ordinance requiring a license to operate motor vehicles upon the streets of the city. Wasson v. City of Greenville, 123 Miss. 642, 86 So. 450 (1920).

Where a defendant was convicted of a misdemeanor under a municipal ordinance, that part of the judgment requiring him to stand committed to the county farm until all costs were paid was not authorized. Webb v. City of Vicksburg, 112 Miss. 53, 72 So. 852 (1916).

A fine of $250.00 imposed under a city ordinance was void as to the excess above $100.00, and if such excess amount was paid under duress it may be recovered from the municipality. Town of Belzoni v. Luckett, 109 Miss. 261, 68 So. 171 (1915).

A municipal ordinance may not restrict the Mississippi Coast Coliseum Commission, a legislatively created political subdivision of the state, in the conduct of its statutory duties. Byrd, Oct. 16, 1991, A.G. Op. #91-0785.

The Mississippi Coast Coliseum, controlled by a legislatively created political subdivision of the state, which is within the corporate limits of the City of Biloxi, and the promoter which would be using the Coliseum's premises during the Easter Arts and Crafts Fair and Show, is not subject to the City of Biloxi's Ordinance banning baby chick giveaways. Byrd, Oct. 16, 1991, A.G. Op. #91-0785.

If mayor's salary is set by ordinance lawfully adopted pursuant to Mississippi Code Annotated Section 21-13-1 et seq. (Revised 1990), any change in that salary must be by amendment of said ordinance in accordance with statutes; if salary in question is set by order or resolution, subsequent order or resolution changing said salary would operate to repeal prior order or resolution. Austin Oct. 6, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0697.

§ 21-13-3. How certain actions are to be taken.

(1) The governing authorities of any municipality may provide by ordinance, order or resolution for the appropriation of monies for the operation of the municipal government, which monies shall be paid as provided for in any such ordinance, order or resolution. However, any ordinance granting a franchise or any right to use or occupy the streets, highways, bridges or public places in the municipality for any purpose, except ordinances, resolutions or other actions for the immediate and temporary preservation of the public peace, health or safety, shall be introduced in writing at a regular meeting of the governing body of such municipality and shall thereafter remain on file with the municipal clerk for public inspection for at least two (2) weeks before the final passage or adoption thereof. Upon request of one or more members of the governing authorities, any such ordinance shall be read by the clerk before a vote is taken thereon. In addition, every franchise or grant of any kind to use or occupy the street, highway, bridges, or other public places of such municipality to any interurban or street railway, railroad, gas works, water works, electric light or power plant, heating plant, telephone or telegraph system, or other public utility operating within such municipality must be approved by the passage of the ordinance granting same by a majority of the qualified electors of such municipality voting thereon at a general or special election.

(2) The vote on final passage of all municipal ordinances shall be taken by both “yeas” and “nays”, which shall be entered on the minutes by the clerk. A vote shall never be taken on any ordinance not previously reduced to writing. Upon request of one or more members of the municipal governing authorities, any ordinance shall be read by the clerk before a vote is taken thereon.

1. In general.

An ordinance under which licenses were granted to operate 10 additional taxicabs was improperly adopted as an emergency measure and declared to be immediately effective where, contrary to statutory requirements, there was no indication of how the immediate preservation of the public health, safety and general welfare of the city’s citizens required the ordinance to take effect immediately and where no other good cause was set forth; nor was there compliance with the statute requiring that ordinances granting any right to use the streets remain on file with the municipal clerk for two weeks before passage. Thus, the licenses at issue were a nullity. Yellow Cab Co. of Biloxi, Inc. v. City of Biloxi, 372 So. 2d 1274 (Miss. 1979).

A public utility, part of whose certificated area has been annexed to a city, may continue to serve the annexed area without obtaining a franchise from the city subject to the right of the city to regulate reasonably the manner in which its lines and appliances are constructed and maintained. *Capital Elec. A nonexclusive franchise of a common carrier for passengers for hire is a valuable property right, and the carrier is entitled to relief by way of an injunction against a threatened or actual injury to his property rights through illegal competition of another common carrier of passengers for hire. *Payne v. Where the board of aldermen passed an ordinance granting a power company a franchise, the board acted in its governmental capacity and within the powers conferred by the statute, and the ordinance is therefore not vulnerable to the objection that it is ultra vires, that it was irregularly enacted, or that it is invalid as a usurpation of the prerogatives of successor boards. *City of Picayune v. The requirement that every contract of a municipality in excess of $500 shall be made or authorized by ordinance, is met where the authorization is in the form of a resolution. Independent Paving Co. v. City of Bay St. Louis, 74 F.2d 961 (5th Cir. 1935).

A resolution, as distinguished from an ordinance, is not subject to the requirement that it be read and considered by sections. New Orleans & N.E.R. Co. v. City of Picayune, 164 Miss. 737, 145 So. 101 (1933).

Sections 55 and 71 of the Constitution apply to acts of the legislature and have no application to municipal ordinances. City of Corinth v. Sharp, 107 Miss. 696, 65 So. 888 (1914).

A municipality may adopt an ordinance on any day except Sunday, although the day may be a holiday. Griffith v. City of Vicksburg, 102 Miss. 1, 58 So. 781 (1912).

Municipal bonds were not invalid because the resolutions, other than the ordinance adjudging that the election had been properly held, were not passed in the manner provided by this section. Kemp v. Town of Hazlehurst, 80 Miss. 443, 31 So. 908 (1902).

Municipalities have only such authority to adopt ordinances as is granted them by the State; and in every power given municipality to pass bylaws or ordinances there is an implied restriction that the ordinances shall be reasonable, consistent with the general law, and not destructive of a lawful business. *King v. Where an ordinance granting power company 25-year franchise was enacted on May 13, 1947, and reciting that it should take effect immediately because public interests so demanded, it became effective immediately on May 13, 1947, and under the then applicable statutes it would have been effective within thirty days after its enactment. City of Picayune v. Mississippi Power Co., 197 F.2d 444 (5th Cir. 1952).

Ordinance is enacted to regulate continuing conditions and constitutes permanent rule of government, generally continuing to operate until formally repealed; while resolution is merely declaratory of will of corporation in given matter and in nature of ministerial act. City of Natchez v. Henderson, 207 Miss. 14, 41 So. 2d 41 (1949).

Improvement resolution need not conform to statutory style governing ordinances as to title and numbering of sections. New Orleans & N.E.R. Co. v. City of Picayune, 164 Miss. 737, 145 So. 101 (1933).

Where the charter of a municipality does not require the publication of an ordinance, it need not be published. City of Corinth v. Sharp, 107 Miss. 696, 65 So. 888 (1914).

The bonds of a municipality issued under the provisions of this chapter are not invalid because (a) the resolutions, other than an ordinance adjudging that the election had been properly held resulting in favor of the issuance of the municipal authorities, providing for their issuance do not conform to the provisions of this section requiring the style of all ordinances to be "Be it ordained, etc." nor because (b) the resolutions, other than the one declaring an intention to issue the bonds, were not published as ordinances are required to be published by this section, a notice of the election having been duly given by election commissioners. Kemp v. Town of Hazlehurst, 80 Miss. 443, 31 So. 908 (1902).

An ordinance shall not contain more than one (1) subject, which shall be clearly expressed in its title. An ordinance shall be amended by section or sections, and the original section or sections shall thereby be repealed. Each amendment to a section or sections of an ordinance shall have a title which clearly indicates the subject matter or matters of the amendment.

City of Vicksburg Ordinance 93-37, entitled "Ordinance Establishing Zoning Regulations For Adult Entertainment Businesses Thereby Amending The Zoning Ordinance of the City of Vicksburg, Establishing Licensing Provisions and Other Regulations," did not violate § 21-13-9, which provides that ordinances cannot contain more than one subject and that such subject must be clearly expressed in the title of the ordinance. Steverson v. City of Vicksburg, 900 F. Supp. 1 (S.D. Miss. 1994).

Where owners of land divided it into lots and streets and filed plat with chancery clerk, attempted acceptance of dedication by mayor and board of aldermen of town of New Hebron by ordinance without proper title was void. Maxwell v. Town of New Hebron, 176 So. 127 (Miss. 1937).

Statute providing that ordinance shall contain only one subject which shall be clearly expressed in title is mandatory. Home Ins. Co. v. Dahmer, 167 Miss. 893, 150 So. 650 (1933).

Definition of a preamble to an ordinance. Dean v. Town of Senatobia, 142 Miss. 815, 108 So. 178 (1926).

An ordinance must have a title or it will be invalid. Sample v. Town of Verona, 94 Miss. 264, 48 So. 2 (1909).

2. Scope restricted to one subject.

A zoning ordinance which established six use classifications and placed various areas within the city in one or the other of these classifications, and, at the same time, rezoned a particular area into a new classification was not void under the provisions of this section [Code 1942, § 3374-74], for containing two subject matters; for the proper method of enacting a zoning ordinance not only requires the municipal authorities to designate the classifications felt to be necessary, but the area affected by the classification should also be described in the ordinance. Blackledge v. City of Gulfport, 223 So. 2d 530 (Miss. 1969).

Notwithstanding the mandatory requirement of this section [Code 1942, § 3374-74] that an ordinance shall not contain more than one subject, a city seeking to alter its boundaries by adding certain adjacent territory and excluding certain territory already included within the existing limits is not required to adopt two different ordinances, and thus initiate at the same time two different proceedings in a chancery court. Dodd v. City of Jackson, 238 Miss. 372, 118 So. 2d 319 (1960).

An ordinance may provide that all offenses constituting misdemeanors against the state shall be violations of the ordinance and this is not violative of the ordinance and this is violative of this section forbidding more than one subject to be contained in an ordinance. Richards v. Town of Magnolia, 100 Miss. 249, 56 So. 386 (1911).

3. Title to reflect subject.

The omission from the title of an annexation ordinance of the city's promises as to the improvements and services to be rendered in the territory proposed to be annexed did not render the ordinance void. Dodd v. City of Jackson, 238 Miss. 372, 118 So. 2d 319 (1960).

An ordinance, by which a city sought to alter its boundaries by adding certain adjacent territory and excluding certain territory already included within the existing limits was sufficiently expressed in the title reading "an ordinance to enlarge, extend, modify and define the corporate limits and boundaries" of the city. Dodd v. City of Jackson, 238 Miss. 372, 118 So. 2d 319 (1960).

This section [Code 1942, § 3374-74] requires that the title so express the subject of the ordinance that the lawmakers and the people may not be left in doubt as to matters treated. Home Ins. Co. v. Dahmer, 167 Miss. 893, 150 So. 650 (1933).

Ordinance establishing fire limits and relating to construction of buildings therein held void for insufficiency of title, where title referred to use of fire protection equipment. Home Ins. Co. v. Dahmer, 167 Miss. 893, 150 So. 650 (1933).

An ordinance of the municipality entitled "An ordinance to prohibit the carrying of deadly weapons," and which in its body makes it an offense against the municipality to carry concealed or exhibit in an angry or rude manner, is not void under this section providing that an ordinance shall not contain more than one subject to be clearly expressed in its title. Kemp v. Town of Hazlehurst, 80 Miss. 443, 31 So. 908 (1902).

Every ordinance passed by the governing body of a municipality, except as is otherwise provided by law, shall be certified by a municipal clerk, signed by the mayor or a majority of all the members of the governing body, recorded in the ordinance book, and published at least one (1) time in some newspaper published in such municipality, or, if there be no such newspaper, then in a newspaper within the county having general circulation in said municipality, or, if there be no newspaper published in or having general circulation in same, then in any newspaper published in the State of Mississippi having general circulation in said county; and all of same shall be done before such ordinance shall be effective. The publication of the ordinance may be made as provided in Section 21-17-19. No ordinance shall be in force for one (1) month after its passage; however, any ordinance for the immediate and temporary preservation of the public peace, health or safety or for other good cause, which is adopted by unanimous vote of all members of the governing body, may be made effective from and after its passage by a unanimous vote of all members of the governing body. However, in such cases, such ordinance shall contain a statement of reason why it is necessary that same become immediately effective. All such ordinances shall be published and recorded in the ordinance book in the same manner as other ordinances, but shall become effective immediately upon the adoption thereof, and prior to being so recorded and published. Nothing in this section shall apply to ordinances appropriating money for the payment of the current expenses of the municipality or the payment of sums due on any contract previously made.

A bill of exceptions filed on June 13, 1980, to challenge a rezoning of certain property was not untimely where, although the Mayor and Board of Aldermen voted on May 6, 1980, to reclassify the property, the rezoning ordinance did not become effective until written, signed and formally adopted on June 3, 1980, at which time the ten-day appeal period commenced to run. City of Oxford v. Inman, 405 So. 2d 111 (Miss. 1981).

In an action by a city to permanently enjoin a landowner from operating a motor repair business in an area zoned as a single-family residential district, the trial court properly denied the requested relief, even though the zoning ordinance was adopted almost one year before defendant moved his business to the location at issue, where the ordinance did not take effect until its publication more than six years later; nor did the ordinance take effect immediately as an emergency measure where it merely contained a general statement that its immediate implementation was necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety, without stating the facts constituting the emergency that was declared to exist. Thus, at the time the ordinance took effect, defendant's business was a preexisting nonconforming use not prohibited thereby. City of Carthage v. Walters, 375 So. 2d 228 (Miss. 1979).

An annexation ordinance attached to a bill of complaint seeking to annex property was invalid where the exhibit did not show that it had been signed by the mayor or by a majority of the members of the governing body of a municipality, and the signatures or facsimiles thereof appeared nowhere upon the exhibit. City of Biloxi v. Cawley, 264 So. 2d 888 (Miss. 1972).

The absence of certification by the city clerk does not render publication of an ordinance inoperative to put it into effect. In re City of Hazlehurst, 247 Miss. 527, 153 So. 2d 809 (1963).

6. Under former law.

Prior to July 1950, city operating under the aldermanic form of government was not subject to statutory requirements which provided that ordinances be unanimously passed, that they remain on file for public inspection prior to passage or that they be ratified by popular vote. City of Picayune v. Mississippi Power Co., 197 F.2d 444 (5th Cir. 1952).

When an ordinance granting power company 25-year franchise was enacted on May 13, 1947, and reciting that it should take effect immediately because public interests so demanded, it became effective immediately on May 13, 1947, and under the then applicable statutes it would have been effective within thirty days after its enactment. City of Picayune v. Mississippi Power Co., 197 F.2d 444 (5th Cir. 1952).

As used in this statute, the word "resolution" takes on the nature of an "ordinance" which is enacted to regulate continuing conditions and constitutes a permanent rule of government, as distinct from an "order" which deals with temporary powers and ceases to have further potentiality after accomplishment of its purpose. Evans v. City of Jackson, 202 Miss. 9, 30 So. 2d 315 (1947).

Publication of a "resolution or ordinance," as required by this section, does not apply to an "order or resolution" adopted for the sale of unredeemed tax forfeited lands. Evans v. City of Jackson, 202 Miss. 9, 30 So. 2d 315 (1947).

Attempt to make ordinance effective prior to its passage did not render ordinance void, but merely rendered it unenforceable until lapse of one month after its passage. Streckfus Steamers v. Kiersky, 174 Miss. 125, 163 So. 830 (1935).

Failure of ordinance to assign cause for immediate enforcement thereof caused it to become effective not earlier than one month after its passage. Streckfus Steamers v. Kiersky, 174 Miss. 125, 163 So. 830 (1935).

Where city charter made specific provision for adoption of ordinance without formal approval of mayor, mayor's formal approval of ordinance held unnecessary, since statute providing for adoption of ordinances by municipalities under common statutory charter was inapplicable. Streckfus Steamers v. Kiersky, 174 Miss. 125, 163 So. 830 (1935).

Ordinance or revised ordinance must meet publication requirements of Mississippi Code Annotated Section 21-13-11 prior to being effective. Schissel, Feb. 9, 1994, A.G. Op. #94-0032.

A person employed by the Department of Corrections may continue to serve in elected office as a city alderman as long as he waives all salary and compensation for office and elects to receive a retirement allowance in lieu thereof; such a person may also continue to serve as a city alderman, retire from the Department of Corrections, and begin to receive a retirement allowance without the required forty-five day separation period as long as he elects and waives as required. Touchton, January 20, 1998, A.G. Op. #97-0753.

A municipality may publish the substance of a zoning ordinance, i.e., an explanatory statement summarizing the full text of the ordinance, in which the chief purpose is explained in clear and unambiguous language; in such case, the clerk must post a copy of the full text of the zoning ordinance, along with the maps, charts, diagrams and sketches, at the city hall, main public library or courthouse, and at another public place in the municipality; further, the publication should also specify when and where the full text of the ordinance and any maps are available for review. Donald, August 5, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0390.

Governing authorities should publish an amended zoning ordinance in accordance with statutory procedures, since any zoning ordinance will not be legally effective until it is published; if the governing authorities decide to consider amending an ordinance legally adopted to change a zoning classification, they must follow the statutory procedures to amend the ordinance. Mantel, March 24, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0146.

Where a county is amending its zoning ordinance, but the proposed amendments do not change any actual existing zoning of property in the county, the portions that are being amended and the proposed amendments may be published in lieu of publishing the entire ordinance, and the publication should refer to the full text of the proposed amendments on file in the city clerk's office. Evans, Oct. 20, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0584.

Where there is no newspaper located in or published in a town, a newspaper within the county having general circulation in the municipality (or if there is none, a newspaper having general circulation within the county) must be used for publication of an ordinance to change the date of board meetings, as is required for the publication of all other ordinances of the municipality pursuant to Section 21-13-11. Thomas, May 30, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0268.

The municipal clerk shall keep a record of permanent construction, to be entitled "Ordinances of the City, Town or Village of _____," in which he shall enter at length, in cases where same have not already been entered, every ordinance in force, and every ordinance hereafter enacted immediately after its passage. Such ordinances shall be entered in typewriting, or in a plain and distinct handwriting, and the clerk shall append to each ordinance a note stating the date of its passage, and shall cite therein the record and page of the minutes containing the record of its passage. All ordinances which have been previously passed by any municipality which are not so entered in the ordinance record, and all ordinances hereafter passed which are not entered in the ordinance record, shall be void and of no effect. The ordinances which are to be recorded in such ordinance record are those which are in their nature laws of the municipality, and are not mere resolutions, orders or decrees of a temporary nature. It shall be the duty of the municipal clerk to keep the ordinance record indexed alphabetically.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
2. Effect of noncompliance.
3. Presumptions and evidence.
- 4.-5. [Reserved for future use.]
6. Under former law.

1. In general.

This section [Code 1942, § 3374-75] providing for the record of ordinances in an ordinance book relates to measures which are "in their nature laws of the municipality," and not to "mere orders or decrees temporary in their nature." Rich v. McLauren, 83 Miss. 95, 35 So. 337 (1903) but see Edwards v. Weeks, 633 So. 2d 1035 (Miss. 1994).

An annexation order, which is ineffective until it is approved by the court, is not required to be recorded in a city's ordinance book until final approval of it by the court. Nowlin v. City of Pearl, 365 So. 2d 952 (Miss. 1978), cert. denied, 441 U.S. 946, 99 S. Ct. 2167, 60 L. Ed. 2d 1049 (1979).

The statutes make it essential to the validity of a municipal ordinance that the minutes of the mayor and board of aldermen for the period of its enactment be signed by the mayor and attested by the city clerk. Ballard v. Smith, 234 Miss. 531, 107 So. 2d 580, 75 A.L.R.2d 152 (1958).

2. Effect of noncompliance.

1953 zoning ordinances enacted by the city of Tupelo were invalid where the minutes of the mayor and board of aldermen for the period in which the ordinance was enacted were not signed by the mayor and attested by the city clerk. Ballard v. Smith, 234 Miss. 531, 107 So. 2d 580, 75 A.L.R.2d 152 (1958).

The requirement hereunder that the municipal clerk append to the ordinance "a note stating the date of its passage, and cite therein the book and page of the minutes containing the record of its passage," is merely directory and for convenience in finding the ordinance in the minutes of the city's governing body, and a failure to comply therewith has no effect on the ordinance or on the copy thereof in the ordinance book. Jimmerson v. City of Oxford, 190 Miss. 884, 2 So. 2d 152 (1941).

3. Presumptions and evidence.

An ordinance found in a book identified as the ordinance book of the municipality and in which all ordinances are kept and recorded in the absence of proof to the contrary is presumed to be a valid ordinance. Bugg v. Town of Houlika, 122 Miss. 400, 84 So. 387, 9 A.L.R. 480 (1920).

A clerk authorized under the charter to register the proceedings and ordinances of the municipality is presumed to have done so and an ordinance found registered in the proper book by such clerk is presumed to be valid, where entry in the book clearly shows its adoption. City of Corinth v. Sharp, 107 Miss. 696, 65 So. 888 (1914).

6. Under former law.

A printed proof of the publication of a municipal ordinance setting forth the ordinance at length and the date of its passage securely pasted to one of the pages of the municipal ordinance book will satisfy the requirements of this section, so that it is not error to admit in evidence the ordinance book in which such ordinance appeared in a prosecution for possession of intoxicating liquor in violation of the ordinance in question. Jimmerson v. City of Oxford, 190 Miss. 884, 2 So. 2d 152 (1941).

This section is directed to the clerk with reference to transcribing ordinances in the ordinance book, and the clerk's failure to transcribe an ordinance does not invalidate the ordinance. City of Greenwood v. Jones, 91 Miss. 728, 46 So. 161 (1908).

§ 21-13-15. Revision and publication of ordinances.

The municipality may from time to time authorize the revision and codification of the ordinances, and their publication in pamphlet or book form. When so revised, arranged, classified and codified, said book or pamphlet may be adopted by ordinance as the official code of ordinances of the municipality without compliance with the requirements pertaining to the passage of ordinances. Such official code of ordinances may be amended by section or sections in the manner provided in this chapter. The municipality may cause to be published in connection therewith the laws relating to municipalities, with such annotations of supreme court decisions thereon as may be proper, and such forms and instructions as it shall deem advisable. The whole may be preceded by a historical sketch of the municipality.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
2. Presumptions.
3. Waiver.

1. In general.

Municipal ordinances, to be admissible in evidence, must be verified by certificate of the clerk and by seal of the municipality. In re City of Hazlehurst, 247 Miss. 527, 153 So. 2d 809 (1963).

In suit to recover privilege tax imposed by ordinance, where certified copies of ordinances, and city ordinance books in which they were entered, were introduced in evidence, ordinances held sufficiently proved. Streckfus Steamers v. Kiersky, 174 Miss. 125, 163 So. 830 (1935).

In prosecution for violating ordinance, ordinance, to be admissible, must be verified by certificate of clerk and by seal of town. Dennis v. Town of Walnut Grove, 157 Miss. 797, 128 So. 557 (1930).

A court does not take judicial notice of municipal ordinances and they must be introduced in evidence or their existence proven. Watkins v. City of Brookhaven, 134 Miss. 556, 99 So. 363 (1924).

2. Presumptions.

Presumption prevails in favor of correctness of judgment fixing penalty pursuant to agreement for considering ordinance without production thereof. Mask v. Town of Pontotoc, 152 Miss. 148, 119 So. 156 (1928).

The presumption is that an ordinance was passed at a meeting held at the proper time and place when there is no evidence to the contrary. City of Greenwood v. Jones, 91 Miss. 728, 46 So. 161 (1908).

3. Waiver.

Parties who in a prosecution for violating a city ordinance agree before entering the trial that the city has a valid ordinance covering the offense charged the defendant cannot afterwards on a motion in arrest of judgment show that the ordinance is void. Lee v. City of Oxford, 134 Miss. 647, 99 So. 509 (1924).

Where an ordinance is offered as evidence in a criminal trial without objection, it is too late to make the objection for the first time in the Supreme Court; failure to object in the court below was a waiver of the obligation on the town to make proof thereof. Morris v. Town of Greenwood, 73 Miss. 430, 19 So. 105 (1895).

§ 21-13-19. Misdemeanors under state penal laws as criminal offenses against municipalities.

All offenses under the penal laws of this state which are misdemeanors, together with the penalty provided for violation thereof, are hereby made, without further action of the municipal authorities, criminal offenses against the municipality in whose corporate limits the offenses may have been committed to the same effect as though such offenses were made offenses against the municipality by separate ordinance in each case. However, for such misdemeanor, any penalty of incarceration is hereby limited to no more than six (6) months in jail, and any fine is hereby limited to a maximum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) for each such violation in any case tried without a jury. Judgments for fines, costs, forfeitures and other penalties imposed by municipal courts may be enrolled by filing a certified copy of the record with the clerk of any circuit court and execution may be had thereon as provided by law for other judgments.

I. Under Current Law.

1. In general.

Section 21-13-19, which gives a municipal court the authority to try misdemeanors and allows municipalities to incorporate all state misdemeanors as municipal violations, does not bar the State from prosecuting misdemeanors committed within municipal boundaries; the effect of § 21-13-19 is to allow more than one governmental entity to prosecute misdemeanors, as the statute simply grants municipalities the authority to make use of the legislature's classifications of misdemeanors; thus, a county circuit court had original jurisdiction over a prosecution for malicious mischief under § 97-17-67 in spite of the defendant's argument that his violation constituted a municipal offense and that the case should have been heard by a municipal court. Collins v. State, 594 So. 2d 29 (Miss. 1992).

In a prosecution for driving under the influence, enhanced 9-month sentences received by the defendants after they sought a trial de novo in the circuit court were not improper, even though the defendants were originally tried and sentenced in municipal court under § 21-13-19, which provides for a maximum penalty of 6 months' incarceration; when the defendants filed their appeals for trial de novo in the circuit court, they took the chance that the penalties would be greater than allowed by § 21-13-19, since the actions were brought under § 63-11-30(1)(c). Fisher v. City of Eupora, 587 So. 2d 878 (Miss. 1991).

This statute [Code 1942, § 3374-78] makes self-executing, and applicable in a municipality, misdemeanor statutes of the state. Walton v. City of Tupelo, 241 Miss. 894, 133 So. 2d 531 (1961).

In prosecution for unlawfully exhibiting a deadly weapon, it was not necessary for the city to introduce into evidence a certified copy of the city ordinance making all offenses under the penal laws of this state which are misdemeanors, criminal offenses against the city within whose corporate limits the offense was committed. Sykes v. City of Crystal Springs, 216 Miss. 18, 61 So. 2d 387 (1952).

By virtue of this statute [Code 1942, § 3374-78] it is not necessary that the ordinance of a town declaring all offenses under the Penal Laws of the state amounting to a misdemeanor offenses against the municipality be introduced in evidence in a prosecution for unlawful possession of intoxicating liquor; moreover, testimony of the municipal clerk and the mayor was sufficient to identify the ordinance of the town and to make it a part of the record in the trial. Simmons v.

Town of Louin, 213 Miss. 482, 57 So. 2d 133 (1952).

2.-10. [Reserved for future use.]

II. Under former law.

11. In general.

Section is not in conflict with section in this chapter prohibiting an ordinance from containing more than one subject. Richards v. Town of Magnolia, 100 Miss. 249, 56 So. 386 (1911).

Section providing that all offenses made misdemeanors under the state laws may be by ordinance declared violations of municipal laws, is not violative of section requiring that an ordinance shall not contain more than one subject. Winfield v. City of Jackson, 89 Miss. 272, 42 So. 183 (1906).

12. Construction and application.

Statute stating that the maximum penalty for each violation in any case tried without a jury was incarceration limited to no more than six months in jail, and any fine also imposed was limited to a certain amount, was not relevant to the municipal court's jurisdiction, and thus, defendant was not entitled to reversal of his simple domestic violence conviction. Murrell v. City of Indianola, 858 So. 2d 183 (Miss. Ct. App. 2003).

Section authorizes the enactment of a blanket ordinance making misdemeanors only offenses against a city when committed within the territorial limits of the city. Watkins v. City of Brookhaven, 134 Miss. 556, 99 So. 363 (1924).

An ordinance under section which provides for a maximum penalty of $100.00 or imprisonment in jail not to exceed one year or both is void as undertaking to impose a penalty which in some cases would be in excess of the penalty provided by the state laws for the same offense. Cook v. City of Pascagoula, 121 Miss. 5, 83 So. 305 (1919).

13. Adoption of state law by municipality.

By virtue of section, a city may validly enact an ordinance adopting provisions of state law (§ 8176) pertaining to lawful rates of speed, and state law (§ 8275) making violation of latter section a misdemeanor. White v. City of Philadelphia, 197 Miss. 166, 19 So. 2d 493 (1944), error overruled, 197 Miss. 178, 19 So. 2d 744 (1944).

The city of Pascagoula operates under the code chapter on municipalities, and it has a general ordinance making all misdemeanors, which are such under state statutes, offenses also against the city. City of Pascagoula v. Nolan, 183 Miss. 164, 184 So. 165 (1938).

Whether words "all you ladies that smoke cigarettes throw your butts in here" painted on the hood of an automobile left in a public place violated an ordinance making all misdemeanors, which are such under state statutes, offenses also against the city, was a question for the jury. City of Pascagoula v. Nolan, 183 Miss. 164, 184 So. 165 (1938).

Ordinance making all offenses amounting to misdemeanors under state laws offenses against municipality when committed within its limits includes offenses which legislature may subsequently declare misdemeanors. City of Lumberton v. Frederick, 165 Miss. 456, 143 So. 488 (1932).

14. —Limitation on power of municipality.

A municipality cannot pass a criminal ordinance on a subject more severe or comprehensive than the state statute dealing with that subject. City of Amory v. Yielding, 203 Miss. 265, 34 So. 2d 726 (1948).

All ordinances under this section must be restricted to misdemeanors as defined by the state laws and if made to embrace felonies will be void. City of Oxford v. Buford, 134 Miss. 635, 99 So. 498 (1924).

Such an ordinance must be restricted in its application to misdemeanors against the state, for an ordinance which provides that all crimes under the chapter on crimes and misdemeanors, which embraces felonies as well as misdemeanors is void. Dismukes v. Town of Louisville, 101 Miss. 104, 57 So. 547 (1912).

But notwithstanding the title of the ordinance appears to embrace all violations of the penal laws of the state of Mississippi, the ordinance itself is not invalid where it deals only with offenses amounting to misdemeanors. Richards v.

Town of Magnolia, 100 Miss. 249, 56 So. 386 (1911).

Such an ordinance must also be restricted to misdemeanors committed within the corporate limits of the municipality to which the ordinance applies. Smothers v. City of Jackson, 92 Miss. 327, 45 So. 982 (1908).

15. —Prospective or retrospective operation.

Ordinance seeking to make all misdemeanors against State offenses against town in whose corporate limits offenses "may have been committed" held not void as to one subsequently arrested on theory that it referred only to past acts, since language of ordinance follows language of statute authorizing municipalities to adopt misdemeanors under State law as offenses against municipalities. Basham v. Town of Sebastopol, 172 Miss. 194, 159 So. 847 (1935).

Ordinance making misdemeanor under state law violations of town ordinances when committed within corporate limits was prospective in its operation. Lindsey v. City of Louisville, 156 Miss. 66, 125 So. 558 (1930).

An ordinance providing that all offenses constituting misdemeanors against the state shall be violations of the ordinance would not only make all acts that are misdemeanors under the law then existing violations of the ordinance but would apply to all laws thereafter passed by the state defining misdemeanors. Smothers v. City of Jackson, 92 Miss. 327, 45 So. 982 (1908).

16. Particular offenses.

Affidavit that defendant wilfully and unlawfully drove automobile over public street or highway in city at rate of more than fifty-five miles per hour, contrary to laws and ordinances of city, sufficiently charges offense of violating ordinance adopting provisions of statute (§ 8176), regulating speed of motor vehicles. White v. City of Philadelphia, 197 Miss. 166, 19 So. 2d 493 (1944), error overruled, 197 Miss. 178, 19 So. 2d 744 (1944).

Evidence that defendant was driving at greater speed than that prescribed by this section, or by city ordinances adopting provisions thereof, establishes defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, where defendant fails to offer any evidence in justification thereof. White v. City of Philadelphia, 197 Miss. 166, 19 So. 2d 493 (1944), error overruled, 197 Miss. 178, 19 So. 2d 744 (1944).

Instruction authorizing jury to find defendant guilty of violating city ordinance adopting provisions of § 8176, if jury believed from the evidence beyond reasonable doubt that defendant unlawfully drove automobile on city street more than 55 miles per hour, was proper, where defendant made no attempt to overcome prima facie case. White v. City of Philadelphia, 197 Miss. 166, 19 So. 2d 493 (1944), error overruled, 197 Miss. 178, 19 So. 2d 744 (1944).

Traveler carrying concealed weapon ten miles from home, and who was unacquainted with people living between home and place to which he was traveling, and who was carrying weapon for purpose of protection, held not guilty of offense of carrying concealed weapon. Basham v. Town of Sebastopol, 172 Miss. 194, 159 So. 847 (1935).

All state law violations are automatically violations of municipal ordinance under Miss. Code Section 21-13-19. Carroll, Mar. 31, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0165.

Miss. Code Section 21-13-19 provides that all obscene phone call offenses that are misdemeanors under state law are automatically criminal offenses against municipality over which municipal court would have jurisdiction under Miss. Code Section 21-23-7; such violations may also be prosecuted in municipal courts. Gentry, June 7, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0362.

Pursuant to Miss. Code Section 21-13-19, state misdemeanors are violations of municipal ordinance when committed within municipality; punishment for violation of state law misdemeanors is limited to six months in jail and $1000. Evans, June 9, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0296.

Under Miss. Code Section 21-13-19, it is violation of municipal ordinance to commit simple assault within boundaries of municipality; as violator of municipal ordinance, offender is municipal prisoner and, in absence of agreement between city and county as to housing of prisoners, should be housed in municipal jail. Evans, June 9, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0296.

6. Under former law.

This section (§ 2992, Code of 1892) must be construed in the light and as part of the entire chapter on municipalities. Ott v. State ex rel. Lowery, 78 Miss. 487, 29 So. 520 (1901).

Under this section (§ 2992, Code of 1892) providing that at the first regular meeting of the mayor and board of aldermen succeeding each regular election they shall elect inferior officers, the new or incoming mayor and board of aldermen alone have the right to elect such officers, and this is true even when a regular meeting under § 2989, Code 1892, be held by the old board after the election and before the organization of the new one as provided in § 3030, Code of 1892. Ott v. State ex rel. Lowery, 78 Miss. 487, 29 So. 520 (1901).

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
2. Constitutionality.

1. In general.
City's sovereign immunity is not waived through self-insurance. Westbrook v. City of Jackson, 665 So. 2d 833 (Miss. 1995).

The Mississippi Municipal Liability Plan does not fit within the definition of insurance under § 83-5-5, which is general liability insurance sufficient to waive sovereign immunity pursuant to § 21-15-6, but instead is self-insurance insufficient to waive sovereign immunity. Morgan v. City of Ruleville, 627 So. 2d 275 (Miss. 1993).

City's membership in Mississippi Municipal Liabilities Plan was not equivalent to purchase by city of general liability insurance and thus did not waive city's sovereign immunity, in action brought by person alleging he was beaten by city police officer in course of arrest. McGee v. Parker, 772 F. Supp. 308 (S.D. Miss. 1991).

Court concluded that Mississippi Supreme Court would probably conclude that city's membership in Mississippi Municipal Liability Plan did not waive city's sovereign immunity as to plaintiffs' state law claims, inasmuch as reserves were not premium payments and were not intended to cover claims such as plaintiffs' claim. Therefore, city was not liable for alleged state law violations. White v. Taylor, 775 F. Supp. 962 (S.D. Miss. 1990), rev'd on other grounds, 959 F.2d 539 (5th Cir. 1992); C-1 ex rel. P-1 v. City of Horn Lake, 775 F. Supp. 940 (N.D. Miss. 1990).

Homeowner's complaint seeking damages from city as result of negligence by city fire department should not have been dismissed where homeowner charged that city maintained general liability insurance which covered loss caused by negligence of fire department employees; court should have permitted development of allegation that city maintained general liability insurance, though not in presence of jury. Davis v. City of Lexington, 509 So. 2d 1049 (Miss. 1987).

Injury resulting from failure of municipality to properly instruct and train police officers in practice of high speed chase is not covered by liability insurance provision providing coverage for damages caused by accident and resulting from ownership, maintenance, or use of insured automobile where injury results when automobile driven by misdemeanor fleeing from police strikes house; however provision does cover damage resulting from police officer's negligence during high speed chase which results in misdemeanor striking house. Smith v. City of W. Point, 475 So. 2d 816 (Miss. 1985).

Party suing municipality pursuant to conditional waiver of immunity found in § 21-15-6 may not name municipality's liability insurance carrier as party defendant. Smith v. City of W. Point, 475 So. 2d 816 (Miss. 1985).

2. Constitutionality.

event of an actual emergency and so that necessary changes can be recommended. Ellis, Aug. 1, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0363.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

If the board of aldermen determines and establishes by lawful order that the duties of the head of maintenance require access to all municipal buildings, and the mayor does not veto that order, it is the duty of the mayor to see that this order is lawfully carried out; if the mayor refuses to follow the lawful orders of the board, the board may file suit against the mayor in a court of competent jurisdiction. Freeman and Daily, Mar. 15, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0078.

The mayor may request attendance but may not force attendance at a weekly staff meeting of an elected police chief. Lee, Jan. 3, 2003, A.G. Op. #02-0749.

A weekly staff meeting of the mayor and departments heads, including the police chief, does not conflict with the doctrine of separation of powers set forth in Article 1 and 2 of the Mississippi Constitution. Lee, Jan. 3, 2003, A.G. Op. #02-0749.

Residents of a municipality may meet with the mayor to discuss any matter pertaining to the operation of the municipality, including police protection, and the mayor may meet with the police chief or police officers to gather information concerning operation of the police department and may also direct residents to communicate with the police chief concerning police protection generally or specific ongoing situations in law enforcement. Lee, Jan. 3, 2003, A.G. Op. #02-0749.

The mayor may meet with police officers to obtain information concerning the operation of the police department, but the mayor does not have authority to become involved in the day to day operation of the police department or to make law enforcement decisions. Lee, Jan. 3, 2003, A.G. Op. #02-0749.

The mayor does not have the sole right to remove matters from the agenda, or to establish the order of the agenda, or to control the manner in which the agenda is developed, in that a majority of the board of aldermen control the agenda. Young, Aug. 6, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0390.

1.-5. [Reserved for future use.]

6. Under former law.

The authority given for the mayor with the consent of the board of aldermen to remit fines imposed in violation of municipal ordinances is not invalid as interfering with the constitutional power of pardon committed to the governor of the state. Allen v. McGuire, 100 Miss. 781, 57 So. 217, Am. Ann. Cas. 1914A,483 (1912).

A municipality is without power under the Const. 1890, § 100, to refund money deposited with it, which has been forfeited by the depositor's breach of contract in respect to public work and is equally without power under § 183 of the same instrument, to donate the fund to another association which has completed the work. Jackson Elec. Ry. & L. Power Co. v. Adams, 79 Miss. 408, 30 So. 694 (1901).

The authority conferred upon municipalities to remit forfeitures relates only to such forfeitures as accrue in criminal proceedings. Jackson Elec. Ry. & L. Power Co. v. Adams, 79 Miss. 408, 30 So. 694 (1901).

It shall be the duty of the clerk of every municipality within the State of Mississippi to keep a record of permanent construction to be labeled "Municipal Minutes, City (or Town or Village, as the case may be) of _____," in which he shall record the proceedings and all orders and judgments of the governing authority of said municipality, and to keep the same fully indexed alphabetically, so that all entries on said minutes can be easily found. Said clerk shall likewise record in said minute record all ordinances in full, or in lieu thereof, the title of all ordinances. In either case, however, the ordinances in full shall be recorded in the ordinance record provided for in Section 21-13-13, to be kept by said clerk.

In the event only the titles of ordinances are recorded in the minute record, it shall be necessary that the ordinance in full, after the recordation in the ordinance record, be read, verified and subscribed to by the mayor and clerk at the next regular meeting of the governing authority of the municipality.

All official actions of the governing authorities of a municipality shall be evidenced only by official entries duly recorded on such minute record.

The clerk shall be the custodian of the municipal seal, and each municipality shall adopt and provide a seal.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

3. Presumptions and evidence.
- 4.-5. [Reserved for future use.]
6. Under former law.

1. In general.

City could convey to developer land which it had reserved for drainage, and since the transaction in which the conveyance had been made was entered into the city's minute book, the conveyance was valid. Modling v. Bailey Homes & Ins., 490 So. 2d 887 (Miss. 1986).

The statutes make it essential to the validity of a municipal ordinance that the minutes of the mayor and board of aldermen for the period of its enactment be signed by the mayor and attested by the city clerk. Ballard v. Smith, 234 Miss. 531, 107 So. 2d 580, 75 A.L.R.2d 152 (1958).

2. Effect of noncompliance.

1953 zoning ordinances enacted by the city of Tupelo were invalid where the minutes of the mayor and board of aldermen for the period in which the ordinance was enacted were not signed by the mayor and attested by the city clerk. Ballard v. Smith, 234 Miss. 531, 107 So. 2d 580, 75 A.L.R.2d 152 (1958).

The requirement hereunder that the municipal clerk append to the ordinance "a note stating the date of its passage, and cite therein the book and page of the minutes containing the record of its passage," is merely directory and for convenience in finding the ordinance in the minutes of the city's governing body, and a failure to comply therewith has no effect on the ordinance or on the copy thereof in the ordinance book. Jimmerson v. City of Oxford, 190 Miss. 884, 2 So. 2d 152 (1941).

3. Presumptions and evidence.

A clerk authorized under the charter to register the proceedings and ordinances of the municipality is presumed to have done so and an ordinance found registered in the proper book by such clerk is presumed to be valid, where entry in the book clearly shows its adoption. City of Corinth v. Sharp, 107 Miss. 696, 65 So. 888 (1914).

4.-5. [Reserved for future use.]

6. Under former law.

A recital in subsequent minutes that an order had been made at a previous meeting fixing a time for hearing objections to a tax assessment imports such verity that, although the records fail to disclose any such order, it is presumed that the order was made but failed to be recorded. Hawkins v. City of W. Point, 200 Miss. 616, 27 So. 2d 549 (1946).

A printed proof of the publication of a municipal ordinance setting forth the ordinance at length and the date of its passage securely pasted to one of the pages of the municipal ordinance book will satisfy the requirements of this section, so that it is not error to admit in evidence the ordinance book in which such ordinance appeared in a prosecution for possession of intoxicating liquor in violation of the ordinance in question. Jimmerson v. City of Oxford, 190 Miss. 884, 2 So. 2d 152 (1941).

Statute requiring municipal clerk to keep well-bound book to record proceedings and orders, ordinances, and judgments, is mandatory. Town of Ackerman v. Choctaw County, 157 Miss. 594, 128 So. 757 (1930).

In prosecution for violating ordinance, ordinance, to be admissible, must be verified by certificate of clerk and by seal of town. Dennis v. Town of Walnut Grove, 157 Miss. 797, 128 So. 557 (1930).

This section is directed to the clerk with reference to transcribing ordinances in the ordinance book, and the clerk's failure to transcribe an ordinance does not invalidate the ordinance. City of Greenwood v. Jones, 91 Miss. 728, 46 So. 161 (1908).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Official record is written record required to be kept by municipal clerk, pursuant to Section 21-15-17 but tape recording and transcripts are public records subject to disclosure under open records law; reasonable access to tape recordings or transcripts cannot be denied to mayor or alderman. DeMetz, Feb. 9, 1994, A.G. Op. #93-0842.

In a municipality with a claims docket, the governing authorities must record in the minutes the approval of the claims docket and must refer to the claim numbers in the claims docket; in a municipality without a claims docket, the governing authorities must record in the minutes the approval of the claims and the names of the claimants, the dates the claims were presented, the amounts and the nature of the claims. Donald, August 13, 1999, A.G. A superintendent of a separate school district may compel the clerk of the municipality to issue a warrant in payment for his services as superintendent of the school by mandamus. Ladner v. Talbert, 121 Miss. 592, 83 So. 748 (1920).

It is not for the treasurer or his sureties, the money of the town being traced to his hands by other competent evidence, to find shelter under the absence of a mere receipt warrant or the fact that his bond was approved by resolution instead of ordinance. *Town of Gloster v. § 21-15-23. Deputy clerk; oath of office; surety bond.

Every city in the State of Mississippi, whether operating under a code charter, a special charter, or commission form of government, acting through its governing authorities, is hereby authorized and empowered, by resolution or ordinance duly adopted, to appoint one or more deputy city clerks, each of whom shall have all of the power and authority that is vested in the city clerk of such city. Such governing authorities shall have the right to pay such salary to such deputy city clerk, or clerks, as may be fixed in the resolution or ordinance appointing such deputy city clerk, but not exceeding the salary paid to the city clerk.

Every deputy city clerk so appointed shall serve at the will and pleasure of said governing authorities and may be removed at any time at the pleasure of such municipal governing authorities, and upon such removal all salaries or fees of such deputy city clerk shall thereupon cease.

Every deputy city clerk, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall take and subscribe the same oath required of the city clerk. The appointment of said deputy city clerk, with the certificate of the oath, shall be filed and preserved in the office of the clerk of the governing authorities of such city. Such deputy city clerk shall give bond, with sufficient surety, to be payable, conditioned and approved as provided by law, in an amount to be determined by the governing authority (which shall be not less than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00)).

The governing authorities may annually appoint an attorney-at-law for the municipality, prescribe his duties and fix his compensation, and/or they may employ counsel to represent the interest of the municipality, should the occasion require. For services and duties which the regular city attorney is not required to perform as a result of his employment as such, and which are not covered by the regular compensation paid him, such municipal attorney may be employed and compensated additionally. In cases where an attorney, whether same be the regular municipal attorney or another, shall be employed in the matter of issuing or refunding of bonds and the drafting of all orders and resolutions in connection therewith, the governing authorities shall have the power to pay reasonable compensation to such attorney, but in no instance shall such compensation so paid exceed one per cent (1%) of the bonds issued or refunded; however, where the regular contract of employment and compensation paid to the municipal attorney covers and includes services in connection with the issuing or refunding of bonds, then such regular municipal attorney shall not be paid additional compensation for such services.

Should the services and duties required of a regular municipal attorney at any time during his term of office become greater than that anticipated by the governing authorities at the time of his appointment, the governing authorities, by unanimous vote, and on proper finding, may increase the compensation of such attorney for the remaining portion of his term in such amount as the governing board may find and adjudge to be fair and reasonable to compensate said attorney for his excessive and unanticipated services and duties.

Since city charter was silent on method for selecting a city attorney, statutory law applied and permitted the "governing authorities" to appoint an attorney for the municipality, which meant the mayor and board of alderman; however, since the city's charter expressly stated that the mayor could only vote in the event of a tie and the city council's vote in favor of appointing the particular person did not end in a tie, the mayor was not authorized to vote on that matter. *Tisdale v. Under § 21-3-15, the mayor of a town operating under a code charter had the authority to veto an order of its board of aldermen appointing a town attorney. Edwards v. Weeks, 633 So. 2d 1035 (Miss. 1994).

Resolution of municipal governing board for the employment of counsel in certain cases held sufficiently definite to constitute a contract. Smith v. Ballard, 241 Miss. 194, 129 So. 2d 635 (1961).

Where a board of supervisors in issuing refunding bonds as provided by law, engaged in connection therewith the services of an attorney, who on declining to proceed further without increased compensation received a settlement for his work done and expenses incurred, and new attorneys were engaged to complete the work, and the Board of Supervisors made appropriations for the payment of such attorney's fees under their authority to appropriate money for the payment of the expenses incurred in issuing the bonds, no liability accrued against the Board of Supervisors, notwithstanding that such appropriation for attorney's fees may have exceeded the amount authorized or that they were in violation of constitutional provisions prohibiting extra compensation to public officers, agents, servants or contractors after service rendered or contract made or part payment of any claim under a contract not authorized by law, and against relief of any obligation or liability owing to any county, etc. Causey v. Gilbert, 193 Miss. 756, 10 So. 2d 451 (1942).

A city may employ associate counsel to assist its city attorney in any case where its authorities deem it necessary. Vicksburg Waterworks Co. v. City of Vicksburg, 99 Miss. 132, 54 So. 852, Am. Ann. Cas. 1913D,917 (1911).

3. Use of additional counsel.

Orders of city council employing outside counsel to assist city attorney in pending litigation held to authorize such counsel to assist in prosecuting litigation to conclusion or to effect. Gwin v. City of Greenwood, 159 Miss. 110, 131 So. 821 (1931).

The employment by the board of supervisors of counsel by the year as authorized by this section [Code 1942, § 2958] does not deprive it of power to employ a competent person, although he be a lawyer, other than the one previously employed, to investigate the titles to the sixteenth section school lands and to bring suits to confirm titles thereto. Warren County v. Dabney, 81 Miss. 273, 32 So. 908 (1902).

4. Unauthorized expenditures.

Board of supervisors is not authorized to pay traveling expenses of its attorney in performance of his duties except those while representing board before State Tax Collector. Gully v. Bridges, 170 Miss. 891, 156 So. 511 (1934).

Bill against board of supervisors and its attorney, alleging illegal payment of attorney's traveling expenses, held not subject to general demurrer. Gully v. Bridges, 170 Miss. 891, 156 So. 511 (1934).

The statute does not authorize the board to pay an attorney for procuring to be done what is its duty to have done, such as requiring officers to give new bonds in certain cases. Marion County v. Taylor, 55 Miss. 184 (1877).

5. Under former law.

The board of supervisors, under Code 1892, § 293 may employ advisory counsel by the year at an annual salary, and during the employment of such counsel, may employ other counsel in civil cases in which the county is interested and in criminal cases mentioned in the code section. Board of Supvrs. v. Booth, 81 Miss. 267, 32 So. 1000 (1902).

Under this section (§ 2992, Code of 1892) providing that at the first regular meeting of the mayor and board of aldermen succeeding each regular election they shall elect inferior officers, the new or incoming mayor and board of aldermen alone have the right to elect such officers, and this is true even when a regular meeting under § 2989, Code 1892, be held by the old board after the election and before the organization of the new one as provided in § 3030, Code of 1892. Ott v. State ex rel. Lowery, 78 Miss. 487, 29 So. 520 (1901).

Mayor's veto power extends to selection of school trustee, but this veto is subject to override by two-thirds vote of Board; following same logic, this veto authority extends to selection of municipal attorney. Sessums, March 14, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0142.

Miss. Code Section 21-15-25, which provides in pertinent part that "governing authorities may annually appoint an attorney at law for the municipality, prescribe his duties and fix his compensation, and/or they may employ counsel to represent the interest of the municipality, should the occasion require", is discretionary, not mandatory, and city need not appoint attorney under this section. Hewes, Mar. 29, 1993, A.G. Op. #92-0952.

Municipal governing authorities may employ an attorney to represent the civil service commission for a specific dispute that the commission has with the governing authorities, including a dispute concerning whether the city is providing services, facilities or personnel required by statute, and the attorney may be compensated for such services. Jordan, July 11, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0350.

A mayor has the power to veto an order by a board of aldermen appointing a city attorney. Lee, Aug. 8, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0459.

Municipal governing authorities may annually appoint an attorney to represent the interests of the municipality and to prescribe the duties and compensation of the position, but where the discretionary authority to appoint an attorney is not exercised, it is within the authority of the governing authorities to include the duty to prosecute cases in the municipal court among the prescribed duties of the regular municipal attorney along with such additional duties as may be specified in the municipal attorney's employment contract. Creekmore, January 9, 1998, A.G. Op. #97-0780.

In situation where there was no appointment of another city attorney in the period to and throughout the litigation over the authority to appoint the city attorney, the former city attorney whose term had expired could continue to perform the duties of the position until such time as his successor was appointed; for these services the former city attorney would be entitled to compensation according to the terms of his prior appointment. Tisdale, January 16, 1998, A.G. Op. #97-0688.

There is no authority for the city council to appoint or employ a council attorney or attorneys to advise or render legal assistance to the city council. Stokes, March 5, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0063.

There is no authority under the statute for the city council to appoint or employ an attorney. McLemore, Jan. 25, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0004.

The board of aldermen of a town may hire the grandson-in-law of the mayor as the municipal attorney. Fielding, Jan. 24, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0019.

Governing authorities may only enter into a contract for legal services or other professional services by order in the minutes, and the governing authorities should clearly set forth in the minutes the scope of legal services which the city attorney will perform on a routine basis as well as additional authority to represent the city in litigation as the need arises. § 21-15-27. Employment of firm of attorneys.

The municipal authorities of any city or town, in this state, in addition to the authority now conferred upon them by Section 21-15-25, may in their discretion employ a firm of attorneys to represent them as their regular attorneys on the same terms, conditions and compensation as now provided for employment of an attorney as their regular attorney. However, there shall not be an attorney and a firm of attorneys employed at the same time as the regular attorney for such municipal authorities.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

It was the legislative intent to provide latitude in the signing of minutes in order that official actions should not be invalidated, even if not signed in 10 days. City of Biloxi v. Cawley, 278 So. 2d 389 (Miss. 1973).

Where a city commission convened its regular session on May 17, and by appropriate recessing orders, it continued in regular session on May 18, 24, 26, and June 2, and an annexation ordinance was duly adopted on May 18, and the regular meeting was not finally adjourned until June 2, the 10 days contemplated by Code 1942 § 3374-72 began to run from June 2, and the proceedings of the commission in adopting the annexation ordinance were valid. City of Biloxi v. Cawley, 278 So. 2d 389 (Miss. 1973).

The certificate of the city clerk, certifying as true and correct a copy of the minutes of various meetings of the mayor and board of aldermen, offered by objectors to show that the minutes had not been signed, and the testimony of the deputy chancery clerk that he had photostated the minute book in connection with the preparation of the certificate, should have been admitted and considered by the chancellor, together with the original minute book and all other evidence, in determining if the minutes were valid. Stephens v. Mayor & Bd. of Aldermen, 261 So. 2d 486 (Miss. 1972).

In a municipality with a claims docket, the governing authorities must record in the minutes the approval of the claims docket and must refer to the claim numbers in the claims docket; in a municipality without a claims docket, the governing authorities must record in the minutes the approval of the claims and the names of the claimants, the dates the claims were presented, the amounts and the nature of the claims. § 21-15-35. Preservation of essential public records of municipal governments.

The Legislature declares that records containing information essential to the operation of government and to the protection of the rights and interests of persons should be protected against the destructive effect of all forms of disaster, whether fire, flood, storm, earthquake, explosion or other, and whether such occurrence is caused by an act of nature or man, including an enemy of the United States. It is, therefore, necessary to adopt special provisions for the preservation of essential records of municipalities, and this section shall be liberally construed to effect its purposes. However, it is the express intention of this section that the provisions herein contained are not mandatory but are permissive only and shall authorize preservation of records as herein contemplated within the discretion of the governing authorities of the municipalities of the state and in accordance with a records control schedule approved by the Local Government Records Committee as provided in Section 25-60-1.

The governing authorities of any municipality within the state, regardless of the form of government under which they operate, are each hereby authorized and empowered in their discretion to make or cause to be made a copy or copies of the records of such municipality, or any portion thereof, deemed by such governing authority to be an essential record necessary to the operation of government in an emergency created by disaster or containing information necessary to protect the rights and interests of persons or to establish and affirm the powers and duties of government in the resumption of operations after the destruction or damage of the original records. Such copies shall be made in accordance with standards established by the Department of Archives and History.

The governing authorities of such municipalities are authorized and empowered in their discretion to make and enter into contracts and agreements with any person, firm or corporation to make and prepare such copy or copies of records, and to provide for and enter into contracts concerning the safekeeping and preservation of such copy or copies at points of storage approved by the Local Government Records Committee as required in Section 25-60-1, at a location other than the legally designated or customary location and deposit of the original of such records.

In the event that the original record or records shall have been destroyed, any such photographic or photostatic copy or reproduction shall be deemed to be an original record for all purposes and shall be treated as an original record in all courts or administrative agencies for the purpose of its admissibility in evidence. An enlargement or facsimile of such reproduction is likewise admissible in evidence if the original reproduction is in existence and available for inspection under direction of court.

The governing authorities of any municipality within the state, regardless of the form of government under which they operate, are authorized and empowered, in their discretion, to appropriate and expend monies out of the available funds of such municipality for the purposes of this section.

§ 21-15-37. Reproduction of municipal records; destruction of originals.

(1) The governing authority of a municipality shall have the power and authority, in its discretion, to destroy or dispose of any records, documents, files or papers which are required by law to be preserved and retained, or which are necessary or desirable to be preserved or retained, after having reproductions made thereof under standards established by the Department of Archives and History and in accordance with a records control schedule approved by the Local Government Records Committee as provided in Section 25-60-1.

(2) Any reproductions or copy of any original record or other documents shall be deemed to be the original record for all purposes and shall be admissible as evidence in all courts or administrative agencies. A facsimile, exemplification or certified copy thereof shall, for all purposes set forth herein, be deemed to be a transcript, exemplification or certified copy of the original record.

(3) The governing authority of any municipality is hereby authorized to pay all expenses incurred in reproducing such records or other documents and in making provision for the preservation, retention and storage of such reproductions from the general support fund of such municipality.

(4) When any of the records or documents of which reproductions are made under the provisions of this section, are declared by law, or are by their nature, confidential and privileged records, then the reproduction thereof shall likewise be deemed to be confidential and privileged to the same extent as the original records or documents.

(5) Nothing herein shall be construed to require the keeping and preservation of any records and documents which are not required by law to be kept and preserved, or which it is not desirable or necessary to keep and preserve, and such records and documents may be destroyed or disposed of in accordance with a records control schedule approved by the Local Government Records Committee as provided in Section 25-60-1.

The provisions of Sections 21-15-3, 21-15-7 through 21-15-19, 21-15-23 to 21-15-31, shall be applicable to all municipalities of this state, whether operating under a code charter, special charter, or the commission form of government, except in cases of conflict between the provisions of such sections and the provisions of the special charter of a municipality, or the law governing the commission form of government, in which cases of conflict the provisions of the special charter or the statutes relative to the commission form of government shall control.

The provisions of Sections 21-15-1, 21-15-5, 21-15-33, shall apply to all municipalities of this state, whether operating under the code charter, a special charter, commission form, or other form of government.

The provisions of Section 21-15-21, shall apply to all municipalities, whether operating under code charter, special charter, or any commission form of government.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Conflict between statute and city charter.
- 2-5. [Reserved for future use.]
6. Under former law.

1. Conflict between statute and city charter.

Since city charter was silent on method for selecting a city attorney, statutory law applied and permitted the "governing authorities" to appoint an attorney for the municipality, which meant the mayor and board of alderman; however, since the city's charter expressly stated that the mayor could only vote in the event of a tie and the city council's vote in favor of appointing the particular person did not end in a tie, the mayor was not authorized to vote on that matter. Tisdale v. City Council of Aberdeen, 856 So. 2d 323 (Miss. 2003).

2-5. [Reserved for future use.]

6. Under former law.

Const. 1890, §§ 80, 88, among other things providing for general laws to create and govern municipal corporations are prospective in operation and do not repeal existing municipal charters. Therefore this section recognizing the continued existence of such charters is not unconstitutional. Lum v. City of Vicksburg, 72 Miss. 590, 18 So. 476 (1895).

Its corporate authorities having formally accepted the provisions of the Code Chapter, the city of Jackson became bound thereby, and subsequent action of the authorities purporting to rescind the resolution of acceptance, though within twelve months, was ineffectual. Ex parte Shlomberg, 70 Miss. 47, 11 So. 721 (1892); State v. Govan, 70 Miss. 535, 12 So. 959 (1893).

Under this section declaring that after the chapter became operative, every municipality shall be governed by its provisions but that any municipality might within twelve months, "elect not to come under the provisions hereof," power was given municipalities affirmatively to accept the provisions of the chapter and be governed thereby. Ex parte Shlomberg, 70 Miss. 47, 11 So. 721 (1892).

(1) Every municipality of this state shall be a municipal corporation and shall have power to sue and be sued; to purchase and hold real estate, either within or without the corporate limits, for all proper municipal purposes, including parks, cemeteries, hospitals, schoolhouses, houses of correction, waterworks, electric lights, sewers and other proper municipal purposes; to purchase and hold personal property for all proper municipal purposes; to acquire equipment and machinery by lease-purchase agreement and to pay interest thereon, if contracted, when needed for proper municipal purposes; to sell and convey any real and personal property owned by it, and make such order respecting the same as may be deemed conducive to the best interest of the municipality, and exercise jurisdiction over the same.

(2)(a) In case any of the real property belonging to a municipality shall cease to be used for municipal purposes, the governing authority of the municipality may sell, convey or lease the same on such terms as the municipal authority may elect. In case of a sale on a credit, the municipality shall charge appropriate interest as contracted and shall have a lien on the same for the purchase money, as against all persons, until paid and may enforce the lien as in such cases provided by law. The deed of conveyance in such cases shall be executed in the name of the municipality by the governing authority of the municipality pursuant to an order entered on the minutes. In any sale or conveyance of real property, the municipality shall retain all mineral rights that it owns, together with the right of ingress and egress to remove same. Except as otherwise provided in this section, before any such lease, deed or conveyance is executed, the governing authority of the municipality shall publish at least once each week for three (3) consecutive weeks, in a public newspaper of the municipality in which the real property is located, or if no newspaper be published as such, then in a newspaper having general circulation therein, the intention to lease or sell, as the case may be, the municipally owned real property and to accept sealed competitive bids for the leasing or sale. The governing authority of the municipality shall thereafter accept bids for the lease or sale and shall award the lease or sale to the highest bidder in the manner provided by law. However, whenever the governing authority of the municipality shall find and determine, by resolution duly and lawfully adopted and spread upon its minutes (i) that any municipally owned real property is no longer needed for municipal or related purposes and is not to be used in the operation of the municipality, (ii) that the sale of such property in the manner otherwise provided by law is not necessary or desirable for the financial welfare of the municipality, and (iii) that the use of such property for the purpose for which it is to be sold, conveyed or leased will promote and foster the development and improvement of the community in which it is located and the civic, social, educational, cultural, moral, economic or industrial welfare thereof, the governing authority of the municipality shall be authorized and empowered, in its discretion, to sell, convey or lease same for any of the purposes set forth herein without having to advertise for and accept competitive bids.

(b) In any case in which a municipality proposes to sell, convey or lease real property under the provisions of this subsection (2) without advertising for and accepting competitive bids, the governing authority may sell, convey or lease the property as follows:

(i) Consideration for the purchase, conveyance or lease of the property shall be not less than the average of the fair market price for such property as determined by three (3) professional property appraisers selected by the municipality and approved by the purchaser or lessee. Appraisal fees shall be shared equally by the municipality and the purchaser or lessee; or

(ii) The governing authority of a municipality may contract for the professional services of a Mississippi licensed real estate broker to assist the municipality in the marketing and sale or lease of the property, and may provide the broker reasonable compensation for services rendered to be paid from the sale or lease proceeds. The reasonable compensation shall not exceed the usual and customary compensation for similar services within the municipality.

(3) Whenever the governing authority of the municipality shall find and determine by resolution duly and lawfully adopted and spread upon the minutes that municipally owned real property is not used for municipal purposes and therefore surplus as set forth in subsection (2) of this section:

(a) The governing authority may donate such lands to a bona fide not-for-profit civic or eleemosynary corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Mississippi and granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service and may donate such lands and necessary funds related thereto to the public school district in which the land is situated for the purposes set forth herein. Any deed or conveyance executed pursuant hereto shall contain a clause of reverter providing that the bona fide not-for-profit corporation or public school district may hold title to such lands only so long as they are continued to be used for the civic, social, educational, cultural, moral, economic or industrial welfare of the community, and that title shall revert to the municipality in the event of the cessation of such use for a period of two (2) years. In any such deed or conveyance, the municipality shall retain all mineral rights that it owns, together with the right of ingress and egress to remove same;

(b)(i) The governing authority may donate such lands to a bona fide not-for-profit corporation (such as Habitat for Humanity) which is primarily engaged in the construction of housing for persons who otherwise can afford to live only in substandard housing. In any such deed or conveyance, the municipality shall retain all mineral rights that it owns, together with the right of ingress and egress to remove same;

(ii) In the event the governing authority does not wish to donate title to such lands to the bona fide not-for-profit civic or eleemosynary corporation, but wishes to retain title to the lands, the governing authority may lease the lands to a bona fide not-for-profit corporation described in paragraph (a) or (b) for less than fair market value;

(c) The governing authority may donate any municipally owned lot measuring twenty-five (25) feet or less along the frontage line as follows: the governing authority may cause the lot to be divided in half along a line running generally perpendicular to the frontage line and may convey each one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of that lot to the owners of the parcels laterally adjoining the municipally owned lot. All costs associated with a conveyance under this paragraph (c) shall be paid by the person or entity to whom the conveyance is made. In any such deed or instrument of conveyance, the municipality shall retain all mineral rights that it owns, together with the right of ingress and egress to remove same.

(d) Nothing contained in this subsection (3) shall be construed to prohibit, restrict or to prescribe conditions with regard to the authority granted under Section 17-25-3.

(4) Every municipality shall also be authorized and empowered to loan to private persons or entities, whether organized for profit or nonprofit, funds received from the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) under an urban development action grant or a community development block grant under the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-383), as amended, and to charge interest thereon if contracted, provided that no such loan shall include any funds from any revenues other than the funds from the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development; to make all contracts and do all other acts in relation to the property and affairs of the municipality necessary to the exercise of its governmental, corporate and administrative powers; and to exercise such other or further powers as are otherwise conferred by law.

(5)(a) The governing authority of any municipality may establish an employer-assisted housing program to provide funds to eligible employees to be used toward the purchase of a home. This assistance may be applied toward the down payment, closing costs or any other fees or costs associated with the purchase of a home. The housing assistance may be in the form of a grant, forgivable loan or repayable loan. The governing authority of a municipality may contract with one or more public or private entities to provide assistance in implementing and administering the program and shall adopt rules and regulations regarding the eligibility of a municipality for the program and for the implementation and administration of the program. However, no general funds of a municipality may be used for a grant or loan under the program.

(b) Participation in the program established under this subsection (5) shall be available to any eligible municipal employee as determined by the governing authority of the municipality. Any person who receives financial assistance under the program must purchase a house and reside within certain geographic boundaries as determined by the governing authority of the municipality.

(c) If the assistance authorized under this subsection (5) is structured as a forgivable loan, the participating employee must remain as an employee of the municipality for an agreed upon period of time, as determined by the rules and regulations adopted by the governing authority of the municipality, in order to have the loan forgiven. The forgiveness structure, amount of assistance and repayment terms shall be determined by the governing authority of the municipality.

(6) The governing authority of any municipality may contract with a private attorney or private collection agent or agency to collect any type of delinquent payment owed to the municipality, including, but not limited to, past due fees and fines. Any such contract debt may provide for payment contingent upon successful collection efforts or payment based upon a percentage of the delinquent amount collected; however, the entire amount of all delinquent payments collected shall be remitted to the municipality and shall not be reduced by any collection costs or fees. Any private attorney or private collection agent or agency contracting with the municipality under the provisions of this subsection shall give bond or other surety payable to the municipality in such amount as the governing authority of the municipality deems sufficient. Any private attorney with whom the municipality contracts under the provisions of this subsection must be a member in good standing of The Mississippi Bar. Any private collection agent or agency with whom the municipality contracts under the provisions of this subsection must meet all licensing requirements for doing business in the State of Mississippi. Neither the municipality nor any officer or employee of the municipality shall be liable, civilly or criminally, for any wrongful or unlawful act or omission of any person or business with whom the municipality has contracted under the provisions of this subsection. The Mississippi Department of Audit shall establish rules and regulations for use by municipalities in contracting with persons or businesses under the provisions of this subsection. If a municipality uses its own employees to collect any type of delinquent payment owed to the municipality, then from and after July 1, 2000, the municipality may charge an additional fee for collection of the delinquent payment provided the payment has been delinquent for ninety (90) days. The collection fee may not exceed fifteen percent (15%) of the delinquent payment if the collection is made within this state and may not exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of the delinquent payment if the collection is made outside this state. In conducting collection of delinquent payments, the municipality may utilize credit cards or electronic fund transfers. The municipality may pay any service fees for the use of such methods of collection from the collection fee, but not from the delinquent payment. There shall be due to the municipality from any person whose delinquent payment is collected under a contract executed as provided in this subsection an amount, in addition to the delinquent payment, of not to exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of the delinquent payment for collections made within this state, and not to exceed fifty percent (50%) of the delinquent payment for collections made outside of this state.

(7) In addition to such authority as is otherwise granted under this section, the governing authority of any municipality may expend funds necessary to maintain and repair, and to purchase liability insurance, tags and decals for, any personal property acquired under the Federal Excess Personal Property Program that is used by the local volunteer fire department.

(8) The governing authority of any municipality may, in its discretion, donate personal property or funds to the public school district or districts located in the municipality for the promotion of educational programs of the district or districts within the municipality.

(9) In addition to the authority to expend matching funds under Section 21-19-65, the governing authority of any municipality, in its discretion, may expend municipal funds to match any state, federal or private funding for any program administered by the State of Mississippi, the United States government or any nonprofit organization that is exempt under 26 USCS Section 501(c) (3) from paying federal income tax.

(10) The governing authority of any municipality that owns and operates a gas distribution system, as defined in Section 21-27-11(b), and the governing authority of any public natural gas district are authorized to contract for the purchase of the supply of natural gas for a term of up to ten (10) years with any public nonprofit corporation which is organized under the laws of this state or any other state.

(11) The governing authority of any municipality may perform and exercise any duty, responsibility or function, may enter into agreements and contracts, may provide and deliver any services or assistance, and may receive, expend and administer any grants, gifts, matching funds, loans or other monies, in accordance with and as may be authorized by any federal law, rule or regulation creating, establishing or providing for any program, activity or service. The provisions of this subsection shall not be construed as authorizing any municipality or the governing authority of such municipality to perform any function or activity that is specifically prohibited under the laws of this state or as granting any authority in addition to or in conflict with the provisions of any federal law, rule or regulation.

(12)(a) In addition to such authority as is otherwise granted under this section, the governing authority of a municipality, in its discretion, may sell, lease, donate or otherwise convey property to any person or legal entity without public notice, without having to advertise for and accept competitive bids and without appraisal, with or without consideration, and on such terms and conditions as the parties may agree if the governing authority finds and determines, by resolution duly and lawfully adopted and spread upon its official minutes:

- (i) The subject property is real property acquired by the municipality:
 - 1. By reason of a tax sale;
 - 2. Because the property was abandoned or blighted; or
 - 3. In a proceeding to satisfy a municipal lien against the property;
- (ii) The subject property is blighted and is located in a blighted area;
- (iii) The subject property is not needed for governmental or related purposes and is not to be used in the operation of the municipality;
- (iv) That the sale of the property in the manner otherwise provided by law is not necessary or desirable for the financial welfare of the municipality; and
- (v) That the use of the property for the purpose for which it is to be conveyed will promote and foster the development and improvement of the community in which it is located or the civic, social, educational, cultural, moral, economic or industrial welfare thereof; the purpose for which the property is conveyed shall be stated.

(b) All costs associated with a conveyance under this subsection shall be paid by the person or entity to whom the conveyance is made.

(c) Any deed or instrument of conveyance executed pursuant to the authority granted under this subsection shall contain a clause of reverter providing that title to the property will revert to the municipality if the person or entity to whom the property is conveyed does not fulfill the purpose for which the property was conveyed and satisfy all conditions imposed on the conveyance within two (2) years of the date of the conveyance.

(d) In any such deed or instrument of conveyance, the municipality shall retain all mineral rights that it owns, together with the right of ingress and egress to remove same.

(13) The powers conferred by this section shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law, and nothing contained in this section shall be construed to prohibit, or to prescribe conditions concerning, any practice or practices authorized under any other law.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
2. Tort liability.
3. Property rights.
4. Contracts.
5. Suits by or against municipal corporation.

6. Under former law.

1. In general.

City could convey to developer land which it had reserved for drainage, and since the transaction in which the conveyance had been made was entered into the city's minute book, the conveyance was valid. Modling v. Bailey Homes & Ins., 490 So. 2d 887 (Miss. 1986).

The governing body of a municipality possesses only such authority as is conferred upon it by its charter or by general statutes, together with such powers as are necessary to give effect to the powers granted. Mayor & Bd. of Aldermen v. Engle, 211 Miss. 380, 51 So. 2d 564 (1951).

A city can do and perform all acts for which it has authority under its charter from the State from which it derives its existence, except such as may be in conflict with the Constitution. City of Indianola v. Sunflower County, 209 Miss. 116, 46 So. 2d 81 (1950).

Powers delegated by the Legislature to municipalities are intended to be exercised in conformity to, and consistent with the general laws of the State, and are to be construed most strongly against a power or right claimed but not clearly given. King v. City of Louisville, 207 Miss. 612, 42 So. 2d 813 (1949).

Municipal powers are only those expressly conferred by statute, and necessarily implied. Such powers belong to the municipality and not to its officers. Tullos v. Town of Magee, 181 Miss. 288, 179 So. 557 (1938).

Municipalities can exercise no powers except such as are delegated to them by the state expressly or by necessary implication. Steitenroth v. City of Jackson, 99 Miss. 354, 54 So. 955 (1911).

A municipality operating under the Code Chapter on municipalities is restricted in its powers to those conferred by said chapter. City of Hazlehurst v. Mayes, 96 Miss. 656, 51 So. 890 (1910).

Individuals dealing with a municipality are required to take notice of its charter limitations. Edwards Hotel & City R. Co. v. City of Jackson, 96 Miss. 547, 51 So. 802 (1910).

A municipality cannot be allowed to exercise powers not clearly given it by its charter. Crittenden v. Town of Booneville, 92 Miss. 277, 45 So. 723, 131 Am. St. R. 518 (1908).

2. Tort liability.

The owner of a business which was destroyed by fire was not collaterally estopped from bringing a negligence action against the city by a previous judgment in favor of the city in a negligence action brought by another business which was destroyed in the same fire. Weaver v. City of Pascagoula, 527 So. 2d 651 (Miss. 1988).

A municipality is not authorized to require written notice to the city of a defect in a sidewalk prior to an accident as a condition precedent to liability. City of Meridian v. Raley, 238 Miss. 304, 118 So. 2d 342 (1960).

A city is liable for injuries resulting from negligence in the maintenance of a public park or playground which it has established under the authority of the statute. Harlee v. City of Gulfport, 120 F.2d 41 (5th Cir. 1941).

A city fireman engaged in the performance of a governmental duty of the city and who is injured cannot recover from the city for an injury caused by the negligence of his superior in the same service. City of Hattiesburg v. Geigor, 118 Miss. 676, 79 So. 846 (1918) but see White v. City of Tupelo, 462 So. 2d 707 (Miss. 1984).

3. Property rights.

The plaintiff association did not have a vested property interest in opening and closing graves at a cemetery owned by the defendant city and, therefore, the city acted within its authority when it chose to rescind the order which created the association and to open and close graves at the cemetery itself. Hollywood Cemetery Ass'n v. Mayor of McComb City, 760 So. 2d 715 (Miss. 2000).

In a suit by taxpayers and landowners against the city to enjoin construction of a municipal building on property theretofore purchased by the city, proof that the property was a public park by common-law dedication was not clear, satisfactory and unequivocal where the city had used parts of the tract for purposes inconsistent with park purposes, leased parts of the property to private interests, sold one of the lots, and only a fraction of the original tract was still in use as a park; rather, it was as reasonable to infer that the city intended to use the tract for park purposes only for so long as it was not needed for other municipal purposes or only for so long as the land was suitable for park purposes. Thomas v. State, 292 So. 2d 177 (Miss. 1974).

Land gratuitously conveyed to a municipal corporation with the restriction that it "shall be used for public purposes" may not be leased to a private individual for use for non-public purposes. Spears v. Spears, 266 So. 2d 910 (Miss. 1972).

The definitions of municipal authority set forth in this section [Code 1942, § 3374-112] constitute the equivalent of an express grant of power to purchase equipment necessary to mix paving materials to be used on the city streets. Webb v. City of Meridian, 195 So. 2d 832 (Miss. 1967).

This section gives the broad power to a municipality to purchase and hold real estate and personal property; under such a broad power, it is a general rule of interpretation that there is embraced and included the lesser power to lease, unless there is in the very nature of the use and control of the property an implied inhibition against a lease. Accordingly, a municipality was held liable for the reasonable use of a fire engine where the contract of sale thereof was invalid for failure to follow statutory requirements. American-LaFrance, Inc. v. City of Phila., 183 Miss. 207, 184 So. 620 (1938).

It is not improper for a municipality to construct or permit to be constructed in a park a statue of one of the donors who gave the park to the municipality. Brahan v. City of Meridian, 111 Miss. 30, 71 So. 170 (1916).

A city is not authorized under this section [Code 1942, § 3374-112] to issue bonds to purchase real estate. City of Hazlehurst v. Mayes, 96 Miss. 656, 51 So. 890 (1910).

The use of a ditch by a city for more than ten years to carry off water falling upon a certain area acquires by prescription a right to maintain the ditch for the same character of service, but the city will not be thereafter allowed to change the character of service by increasing the flow of the water or enlarging the ditch. Sturges v. City of Meridian, 95 Miss. 35, 48 So. 620 (1909).

The legislature has authority and may confer power on a municipal corporation to own and operate an electric railway.

Love v. Holmes, 91 Miss. 535, 44 So. 835 (1907).

4. Contracts.

The power of a municipality to contract with reference to any subject matter must either be expressly covered by its charter or by general statute, or necessarily implied therefrom. Mayor & Bd. of Aldermen v. Engle, 211 Miss. 380, 51 So. 2d 564 (1951).

This section [Code 1942, § 3374-112] does not authorize a municipality to establish an automobile testing station and engage in the business of testing automobiles, and consequently a municipality had no authority to contract for the purchase of equipment for such purpose. Davenport v. Blackmur, 184 Miss. 836, 186 So. 321 (1939).

This section [Code 1942, § 3374-112] does not authorize a municipality to employ a tax assessor in addition to the one provided by law; accordingly one who had allegedly contracted with a municipality to receive 50 per cent of all back taxes collected by him as a result of discovering and placing on the municipality's tax assessment roll any real estate due to be thereon but which had escaped assessment and taxation in the past, could not recover against a municipality since such contract was void and unenforceable. Fitzgerald v. Town of Magnolia, 183 Miss. 334, 184 So. 59 (1938).

Municipalities may make all contracts reasonably necessary and expedient to installation and maintenance of waterworks systems. Tullos v. Town of Magee, 181 Miss. 288, 179 So. 557 (1938).

Town could make contract for employment of operator of water pump for stipulated compensation, if reasonably necessary and expedient to waterworks system. Tullos v. Town of Magee, 181 Miss. 288, 179 So. 557 (1938).

Employment of operator of pump for life with right of succession in operator's lineal heirs, held enforceable only during term of officers who made contract. Tullos v. Town of Magee, 181 Miss. 288, 179 So. 557 (1938).

An instance where a city depository executed a bond not signed by the surety company as the law provided, in which it is held that the depository and surety on its bond cannot avail themselves of the fact that the bond was illegal. Perkins v. State, 130 Miss. 512, 94 So. 460 (1922).

A city operating a public service in electric lights, water, etc., cannot require an applicant for such service to pay an account of another at the place applied for. Ginnings v. Meridian Waterworks Co., 100 Miss. 507, 56 So. 450, Am. Ann. Cas. 1914A,540 (1911).

5. Suits by or against municipal corporation.

Where the officers of a municipality had proper notice of an application for a writ of mandamus to compel the payment of a judgment and the levy of taxes in the town and the judgment by default is taken against the town, a mere impression in the minds of the officers that the suit was for the purpose of making a judgment final which had been previously recovered is no reason for opening the case. Town of Jonestown v. Ganong, 97 Miss. 67, 52 So. 579 (1910), error overruled 97 Miss. 67, 52 So. 692.

It is not necessary that the claim should first be presented to a municipality for allowance or rejection before suit may be instituted thereon. Pylant v. Town of Purvis, 87 Miss. 433, 40 So. 7 (1906).

Where a claim against a municipality is barred by limitation it ceases to be a debt and it is the duty of the municipality to plead the statute of limitations. Trowbridge v. Schmidt, 82 Miss. 475, 34 So. 84 (1903).

An allowance by municipal authorities of a demand barred by limitation is without consideration and ultra vires, and mandamus will not lie to compel the issuance of a warrant or to complete an imperfect one made on such an allowance.

Trowbridge v. Schmidt, 82 Miss. 475, 34 So. 84 (1903).

A municipality cannot against its objection be proceeded against by attachment in chancery so as to bind its indebtedness to a non-resident defendant. Clarksdale Compress & Storage Co. v. W.R. Caldwell Co., 80 Miss. 343, 31 So. 790 (1902).

6. Under former law.

An instance under a former statute where a state revenue agent might sue a county for the use and benefit of a city therein. Robertson v. Monroe County, 118 Miss. 541, 79 So. 187 (1918).

A city is liable for the negligence of a driver of a city cart engaged in clearing trash and filth for the city. City of Pass Christian v. Fernandez, 100 Miss. 76, 56 So. 329 (1911), but see White v. City of Tupelo, 462 So. 2d 707 (Miss. 1984).

If a municipality pays a judgment against it as garnishee and takes an assignment of the judgment, it is nevertheless liable to the judgment debt, or if the debt garnished was exempt, as monthly wages of the head of a family, and the municipality has failed to suggest the claim of exemption, by which the judgment debtor was deprived of the opportunity to interplead. City of Laurel v. Turner, 80 Miss. 530, 31 So. 965 (1902).

Unless subjected thereto by statute, it is not liable to suit by garnishment or otherwise for debts arising from its exercise of governmental functions. Dollman v. Moore, 70 Miss. 267, 12 So. 23 (1892).

A plaintiff or complainant seeking to garnish a municipality must show that its debt to defendant was contracted in its private capacity, and must establish the nature of the transaction and the facts which render it amenable to the process. Dollman v. Moore, 70 Miss. 267, 12 So. 23 (1892).

Municipal Home Rule Act did not apply where City of Hernando, Mississippi planned to purchase existing building and land, to be subsequently leased to industrial prospect with lease containing option to purchase, as acquisition of property for industrial development had been provided for by general law. Douglas, March 2, 1990, A.G. Op. #89-950.

Municipal governing authorities may in their discretion reject all bids for sale of surplus property after it has been advertised for sale; as additional precaution, city may insert language in bid advertisements reserving right to reject any and all bids, but such is not required. May, Oct. 4, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0735.

Statute expressly authorizes donation of municipally owned real property to non-profit civic organization provided proper factual determinations are made by governing authorities; municipality may lease real property to civic not for profit group for nominal amount for community events. May, Oct. 31, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0814.

The manufacture and sale of Christmas ornaments to other cities and individuals is a business venture, and the use of free labor provided by prison inmates to manufacture items gives a municipal subsidized venture an unfair advantage in the private sector. Shepard, Dec. 18, 1991, A.G. Op. #91-0943.

Governing authorities of municipalities may donate property which has ceased to be used for municipal purposes to bona fide not for profit civic or eleemosynary corporation; deed or instrument of conveyance for transaction must contain clause of reverter providing that property will revert to municipality in event of cessation of use for purposes set forth in statute for period of two years, and city may not subordinate reversionary interest to bank lien. Belk, July 8, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0525.

Municipalities have no authority to require private businesses or developers to post performance or surety bond to assure completion of project in which City has no financial interest. Rafferty, August 27, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0161.

Section does not apply to sale or disposal of property in urban renewal area. Galloway, Sept. 10, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0670.

There is no apparent general authority empowering city to regulate eating and nonalcoholic drinking on public streets except to extent such is related to public health and/or safety concerns. Williams, Sept. 23, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0629.

Municipality may abandon easement for utility lines and drainage by order spread upon minutes, and property will no longer be burdened by easement. Mitchell, Nov. 17, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0849.

Municipality must comply with requirements of Miss. Code Section 21-17-1 to either lease or sell property which had ceased to be used for municipal purposes; before any lease, deed or conveyance is executed, governing authorities must advertise and accept bids in accordance with this section, and must award lease or sale to highest bidder in manner provided by law; governing authorities must make factual determinations set forth in this section in order to sell or lease municipal property without advertising and accepting competitive bids; consideration that municipality receives for sale or lease of property must be not less than average of fair market price as determined by three professional property appraisers; in case of sale on credit, municipality must charge appropriate interest and shall have lien on property for purchase money until paid. Horan, Jan. 14, 1993, A.G. Op. #92-0996.

Primary touchstone for municipal authority regarding sale, lease or conveyance of municipal real property is set out at Miss. Code Section 21-17-1. Ellis, Jan. 15, 1993, A.G. Op. #92-0986.

Since Miss. Code Section 21-17-1 contemplates payment of interest if purchase is made on credit, city will need to make finding that consideration it is to receive constitutes equivalent of sale on credit for fair market value of properties including interest. Ellis, Jan. 15, 1993, A.G. Op. #92-0986.

Governing authorities of municipality must comply with Miss. Code Section 21-17-1 to rent municipally owned land; therefore, governing authorities of municipality must advertise and accept bids to rent above described land when current lease ends; however, governing authorities may lease municipal property without advertising and accepting bids whenever governing authorities make and spread upon minutes factual findings set forth in statute, and then property may be leased for average of fair market price as determined by three property appraisers. Cossar, Apr. 14, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0216.

Governing municipal authorities could lease municipally owned property to bona fide not for profit civic organization if governing authorities made factual determinations set forth in statute. Bardwell, June 30, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0469.

Town may lease excess capacity of pipeline for its fair market value subject to future needs but should not lease pipeline for period to exceed four year term of Town's governing board. Rosenblatt Oct. 22, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0646.

As matter of policy, there was no reason for Section 57-1-45 to be inapplicable to leasing or sale of Project that was initiated and financed pursuant to industrial development bond statutes where purchase of leasehold by city (utilizing proceeds of General Obligation Note) was consummated in order to market Project to an industrial user so that Project could fulfill statutory purpose of industrial development statutes; therefore, it was not necessary to comply with 21-17-1. Collins, Jan. 5, 1994, A.G. Op. #93-0991.

Section 21-17-1 was not applicable to proposed transaction where municipality has been made whole by recouping any amount previously expended. Collins, Jan. 5, 1994, A.G. Op. #93-0991.

In accordance with general grant of powers to municipality by Section 21-17-1, and authority to manage and control municipal property in its charge, City may contract with vendors for installation of ATM in city jail or any other city building. Mitchell, Jan. 12, 1994, A.G. Op. #93-0874.

Private attorney, collection agent or agency with whom municipality contracts to collect delinquent payments owed to municipality may assume full responsibility for collection of debt, including, but not limited to, initiation of legal action against debtor, as long as legal action is taken in name of municipality, debt is not assigned to collecting agency and monies collected are not reduced by any fee owed. Collins, Jan. 12, 1994, A.G. Op. #93-0913.

If 1969 lease in question was lawfully entered and fully complied with statutes in effect at time of execution of lease, any subsequent amendments to authorizing statutes would not affect validity of lease. Ellis, March 9, 1994, A.G. Op. #94-0073.

If property is no longer being used or is no longer needed for municipal purposes, city must comply with Section 21-17-1 to accomplish lease of property. Ellis, March 31, 1994, A.G. Op. #94-0177.

A municipality does not have authority to rent equipment, such as a backhoe, to private persons as a profit making venture. Odom, Aug. 15, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0505.

While there are no specific statutory procedures for a municipality to sell its surplus personal property, it must receive fair market value for the property, and it may sell such property at a public auction. Davies, Aug. 15, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0510.

A municipality does not have the authority to expend funds for a market research study to ascertain the feasibility of a nonprofit corporation such as the YMCA. Stockton, March 6, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0110.

A city may not donate real property directly to a church. Brabham, May 1, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0198.

Assuming that the proper factual determinations can be made, a city can dispose of property by sale or lease for the average fair market price as determined by three professional property appraisers without advertising or competitive bidding; in such manner, a city can sell or lease the property directly to the purchaser or lessee of its choosing. Brabham, May 1, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0198.

Providing banking services to the public is not a proper municipal purpose, and there is no authority for the purchase or lease-purchase of an automatic teller machine to be owned and serviced by a municipality. Horne, August 28, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0511.

In view of the fact that surplus property owned by a city was a protected Mississippi landmark, the city could place covenants on the property restricting the use of the property to the uses set out in the notice of sale and such covenants could continue forever; further, the city could take into consideration, in awarding the bid for the sale of the property, the proposed use of the property, the scope of the proposed rehabilitation of the structure, and the time period for beginning and completing rehabilitation efforts as well as the monetary bid offered. Thomas, August 28, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0517.

There is no authority which would authorize a municipality to dispose of real property, by sale or lease, for less than fair market value for use by the United States Army Corps of Engineers. Thomas, September 10, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0518.

Municipal governing authorities must follow the procedures set forth in this section to lease surplus real property which was donated to the municipality. Campbell, November 6, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0659.

The city may lease space in a municipal building to private businesses if the city finds that the office space is not needed for municipal purposes; however, the municipality must follow the procedures in the statute to lease office space in a municipal building and, therefore, must either follow the first procedure in the statute and advertise the property or the second procedure and lease the property for the average of three appraisals if the city makes the three factual findings in the statute. Campbell, November 6, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0659.

A municipality may convey property through a lease/purchase agreement pursuant to the statute. However, a lease/purchase agreement pursuant to the statute must be for the term of the board since the statute does not authorize the governing authorities to enter into a long term lease/purchase, and such a lease/purchase agreement is voidable at the option of a subsequent board. Campbell, November 6, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0659.

A municipality may purchase property if it is determined that the city needs such property for a proper municipal purpose. Prichard, November 13, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0685.

The statute contains no "buy back" provision which would authorize a municipality to repurchase property which was declared surplus, consistent with fact, and sold, based on changed plans or intentions of the purchaser. Prichard, November 13, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0685.

The statute does not address specific additional findings which must be made in the event a municipality determines it will purchase property it previously declared and sold as surplus; however, it is clear that the determination that property is needed for a proper municipal purpose must be made by the governing authorities consistent with fact, and by resolution duly and lawfully adopted and spread upon the minutes, and it is difficult to imagine that such a finding could be made, consistent with fact, without the occurrence of some events or conditions which have arisen since the same property was sold as surplus since the governing authorities were required to find, consistent with fact, that the property was no longer needed for municipal or related purposes prior to declaring it surplus. Prichard, November 13, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0685.

There is no authority for a municipality to donate property to a church for use as a public cemetery. LeFlore, November 20, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0644.

The governing authorities of a town may exchange real property owned by the town for real property owned by a church or a combination of real property and cash if the governing authorities follow the procedures in the statute and receive consideration which constitutes fair market value for the municipal property. LeFlore, November 20, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0644.

A city had the authority to enter into a management contract for the operation and maintenance of a city-owned multi-educational complex since the operation of the complex was in furtherance of a proper municipal purpose. Thomas, November 25, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0723.

The City of Jackson was authorized to proceed with a proposed sale of property to the state based on two appraisals obtained as required under state law for the purchase of property by the state. Horne, January 22, 1999, A.G. Op. #98-0806.

The governing authorities of a city could not donate a building to the Trustees of the Episcopal Diocese of Mississippi; however, if the governing authorities were to find consistent with fact and spread upon the minutes the three factual findings required by this section, they could sell the building to the Episcopal Diocese for fair market value as determined by three appraisals. Mitchell, February 12, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0049.

There is no authority for a municipality to contract with a developer to construct a recreational park or make improvements on property in circumvention of the statutory procedures for public construction. Campbell, February 12, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0020.

If the governing authorities follow the procedures in this section, they may award a bid to demolish a structure to a group that plans to remove and relocate the structure rather than demolish it. Thomas, March 19, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0096.

This section applies to property where the permanent building is sold separately from the land. Thomas, March 19, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0096.

A home in a flood plain, which the city buys through a federal grant, is real property and not personal property. Thomas, March 19, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0096.

Even though a city intended to demolish a structure, the city could not determine that the fair market value of the structure was the estimated cost to demolish it; the fair market value was required to be determined by the appraisal process set out in this section. Thomas, March 19, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0096.

There is no authority in this section for a city to negotiate with a buyer without following the procedures in this section to sell the property. Thomas, March 19, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0096.

A municipality may contract with a firm to analyze the city's utility bills for improper charges and to compensate the contractor by a contingent fee based upon refunds or rebates actually received by the city pursuant to this section so long as the contract complies with the requirements of this section and any additional rules and regulations established by the Mississippi Department of Audit. Hewes, April 9, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0137.

A city may not use funds donated by a non-profit housing development corporation to purchase an apartment complex to be used to provide public housing. Belk, May 28, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0224.

This section did not provide authority for a city to purchase an apartment complex from HUD and to donate the property to a non-profit housing development corporation. Belk, May 28, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0224.

The governing authorities of the City of Olive Branch may grant a franchise to the area electric power association to construct and maintain utility poles, wires and other facilities on a strip of land near the fire station on such terms and conditions as the governing authorities may elect. Snyder, August 27, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0402.

The statute does not exclude an organization that has a religious purpose included in its mission statement, but provides that the governing authorities may donate property to an organization that is nonprofit and civic. Power, Nov. 5, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0592.

A city could not donate municipal property to a local nonprofit Mississippi corporation by the name of Christians United of Leland for use as a recreational center, notwithstanding that the corporation had been granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service. Power, Nov. 5, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0592.

Subsection (c) authorizes governing authorities to donate funds to the public school district for educational programs; whether a particular program is an educational program included within the curriculum of the school or is an extracurricular activity that takes place at the school is a factual question to be determined by the municipal governing authorities. Power, Nov. 5, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0592.

A city may make a donation of funds to the city public school district, but only to the extent that such funds will be for the promotion of educational programs of the district. Reno, Dec. 10, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0642.

The governing authorities of a municipality do not have authority to donate funds to a public school district for athletic lockers. Gabriel, Jan. 7, 2000, A.G. Op. #99-0701.

The owners of a community hospital could not convey a hospital parking lot to a nonprofit corporation as it could not be found as a matter of fact that the parking lot had ceased to be used for county purposes. Galloway, March 17, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0114.

The home rule statute does not allow governing authorities to create an independent commission because it provides that governing authorities may not change the form or structure of municipal government; that area of the law has been preempted by state statutes. Kimble, March 17, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0127.

A municipality, by and through its utility commission, may enter into contracts with parties for use of city property for antennae, provided that the commission determines, consistent with the facts, that to do so would be in the best interest of the municipality; and, although the city may contract with a third party to solicit and manage/oversee such contracts, the final contracts must be between the city and the users. Flanagan, Jr., April 14, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0164.

The governing authorities of a town must comply with the statute to sell or convey property which is used as a municipal cemetery to a nonprofit organization or a church. Null, May 12, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0224.

There is no authority for a municipality to expend funds in order to "hold" a certain piece of property for the future benefit of a private, nonprofit organization which does not yet have other funds with which to purchase the property. Thomas, Mar. 2, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0113.

A city could grant to a church an easement for ingress and egress across city property from one parcel of its property to another pursuant to the statute. Baum, Sept. 14, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0551.

A municipality has authority to sell property on a credit basis, but does not have authority to jointly share a priority lien on the property with a bank. Stark, Oct. 12, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0642.

A municipality may convey property, such as motor vehicles, to a local dealer or individual without advertising for bids, provided fair market value is received for the vehicles and may then proceed with the acquisition of property which is more suited to the needs of the municipality where the municipality has advertised for the vehicles to be traded at fair market value but all bids were refused. Gunn, Feb. 15, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0051.

A city may hire employees to perform functions relating to the youth court with the approval of the youth court judge, if the city governing authority finds that the performance of those functions will benefit the public health, safety and welfare, pursuant to its police power and the statute. Thomas, Mar. 4, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0095.

The governing authorities of municipalities do not have authority to donate funds to any nonprofit corporation by virtue of the fact that it is exempt under 26 USCS § 501(c)(3) from paying federal income taxes; rather, the governing authorities of municipalities may only donate funds to match other funds to specific social and community service programs of the same type and nature as those listed in the statute. Thomas, Mar. 15, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0074.

There is no authority for the governing authorities of a municipality to make an unrestricted donation to a nonprofit corporation, such as the United Way, or for the governing authorities of a municipality to donate funds to the United Way for a computer service which will be a data base for keeping records on clients who have been helped by area churches and agencies. Thomas, Mar. 15, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0074.

A town does not have authority pursuant to § 21-17-1 to donate real property and associated personal property to a hospital which is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit corporation. Davies, Sept. 13, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0351.

A town may sell property to a non-profit hospital for fair market value, following the procedures in § 21-17-1 over a period of several years so long as the town charges appropriate interest and retains a first priority lien on the property for the purchase price. Davies, Sept. 13, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0351.

Section 21-17-1 does not apply to the sale of a public utility system under Section 21-27-33. Perkins, Nov. 1, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0637.

A municipality may lease space in a municipal building to a nonprofit corporation pursuant to Section 21-17-1. Farmer, Dec. 20, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0603.

A municipality had the authority to modify a purchase contract in consideration of getting a lump sum payment immediately, rather than monthly installments. Hilbun, Jan. 17, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0013.

Although there is no authority for the governing authorities of a municipality to donate real property to nonprofit environmental organizations, governing authorities of a city may establish and create a park, including a greenway or recreational area, within municipal property and, further, the city may contract with a nonprofit organization for the operation and management of the park or greenway. Johnson, May 30, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0272.

Prior to taking action, whether it be entering into a contract on behalf of the municipality or filing a lawsuit on behalf of the city, authorization must be given to the Mayor to take such action. Carroll, July 14, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0325.

Municipal governing authorities should ensure that "fair value" is received for surplus real property which is sold or conveyed by the municipality. Phillips, Aug 1, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0389.

A municipality is not prohibited from contracting with a collection agency and paying the collection agency a contingency fee based on the amount of delinquent fines collected by the agency. The contract may provide for a staggered contingency fee based on the amount collected. It should be noted that the entire amount of all delinquent payments collected shall be remitted to the municipality and shall not be reduced by any collection costs or fees. Thompson, Aug. 8, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0385.

A city may enter into a lease purchase agreement in which it leases and eventually purchases all or part of a private utility system. However, the current board of aldermen of the city may not bind their successors in office by a lease purchase contract. Campbell, Sept. 26, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0491.

A city may lease its uplands for use by the private, for-profit marine developer and so may allow use of the city's riparian and littoral rights. However, the developer would also have to obtain the right to occupy and use the tidelands by obtaining a lease from the State of Mississippi. Lynn, Oct. 16, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0327.

A municipality has the authority to donate real property which has been declared surplus to bona fide not-for-profit civic or eleemosynary corporations organized and existing under the laws of the State of Mississippi which are recognized 501(c)(3) corporations for tax purposes. Hammack, Oct. 31, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0374.

A city had the authority to lease property acquired by virtue of a grant under the Mississippi Rural Impact Act to a private business. The city must comply with any rules and regulations promulgated by the Mississippi Development Authority and with the terms of the grant. Carnathan, Nov. 21, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0611.

Municipal employees may be authorized and encouraged to volunteer in a mentoring program envisioned between a City and public school system, benefitting school-age children who are residents of the municipality. DuPree, Jan. 5, 2004, A.G. Op. 03-0658.

The board of aldermen of a town may avoid the bidding process, and enter into a lease of property for use by a private company as a provided the board makes the findings, consistent with fact, required by this section. Null, Feb. 6, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0018.

Whether the use of a portion of a parcel of surplus property or the part of a surplus building for charitable purposes is sufficient to satisfy the requirements of subsection (2) of this section is a decision for the municipal governing authorities, taking into consideration all of the relevant facts and circumstances. Thomas, May 14, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0201.

The opinion of this office is that the sales of cemetery plots in a municipally owned cemetery are not subject to the requirements for sales of real property found in this section. Jordan, May 28, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0204.

The authority granted by this section to expend municipal funds to match available grants is applicable to programs in which the municipality was participating, and not to the provision of municipal funds as a match for a purely private endeavor, such as the improvement and/or development of private property, albeit for a use which will be enjoyed by the public. There is no prohibition against the use of purely private funds to serve as a match for such a project, depending upon the terms of the grant being sought. Whites, July 23, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0264.

This section contemplates that municipal property may be found to be surplus for less than a permanent period of time and may be leased out until once again needed for municipal purposes. If a majority of the members of the board of aldermen, after proper consideration of all factors, makes the finding that a piece of property is surplus, that determination should be by resolution duly recorded in the minutes. Wood, July 23, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0346.

Assuming a deed of conveyance of property to a city does not contain suitable reverter language, no statutory authority can be found which would permit reconveying the real property back to the person who donated it to the city without following the procedures in this section. Sorrell, Aug. 20, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0396.

A town should not enter into a lease of an unused city building with a group of local high school alumni for the purpose of storing and displaying awards and memorabilia without first resorting to either the bid or appraisal process. However, the town may donate municipally owned real property to a bona fide not-for-profit civic or eleemosynary corporation provided the proper factual determinations are made by the governing authorities. Further, pursuant to §§ 17-3-1 and 17-3-3 the town may appropriate and expend municipal funds to advertise the resources of the municipality. Null, Nov. 9, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0482.

Subdivision (3)(c) of this section authorizes municipal governing authorities to lease property for less than fair market value to qualified non-profit civic or eleemosynary organizations. Whether an organization is a qualified entity is a factual determination which must be made by the municipal governing authorities and spread upon their minutes. Bogen, Nov. 15, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0557.

A city has the authority to waive a building permit fee for the Humane Society to obtain a city building permit to construct an extensive animal shelter facility in the city. Hewes, Jan. 28, 2005, A.G. Op. 05-0018.

§ 21-17-5. Powers of governing authorities.

(1) The governing authorities of every municipality of this state shall have the care, management and control of the municipal affairs and its property and finances. In addition to those powers granted by specific provisions of general law, the governing authorities of municipalities shall have the power to adopt any orders, resolutions or ordinances with respect to such municipal affairs, property and finances which are not inconsistent with the Mississippi Constitution of 1890, the Mississippi Code of 1972, or any other statute or law of the State of Mississippi, and shall likewise have the power to alter, modify and repeal such orders, resolutions or ordinances. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, the powers granted to governing authorities of municipalities in this section are complete without the existence of or reference to any specific authority granted in any other statute or law of the State of Mississippi. Unless otherwise provided by law, before entering upon the duties of their respective offices, the aldermen or councilmen of every municipality of this state shall give bond, with sufficient surety, to be payable, conditioned and approved as provided by law, in a penalty equal to five percent (5%) of the sum of all the municipal taxes shown by the assessment rolls and the levies to have been collectible in the municipality for the year immediately preceding the commencement of the term of office of said alderman or councilman; however, such bond shall not exceed the amount of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00). Any taxpayer of the municipality may sue on such bond for the use of the municipality, and such taxpayer shall be liable for all costs in case his suit shall fail. No member of the city council or board of aldermen shall be surety for any other such member.

(2) Unless such actions are specifically authorized by another statute or law of the State of Mississippi, this section shall not authorize the governing authorities of municipalities to (a) levy taxes of any kind or increase the levy of any authorized tax, (b) issue bonds of any kind, (c) change the requirements, practices or procedures for municipal elections or establish any new elective office, (d) change the procedure for annexation of additional territory into the municipal boundaries, (e) change the structure or form of the municipal government, (f) permit the sale, manufacture, distribution, possession or transportation of alcoholic beverages, (g) grant any donation, or (h) without prior legislative approval, regulate, directly or indirectly, the amount of rent charged for leasing private residential property in which the municipality does not have a property interest.

(3) Nothing in this or any other section shall be construed so as to prevent any municipal governing authority from paying any municipal employee not to exceed double his ordinary rate of pay or awarding any municipal employee not to exceed double his ordinary rate of compensatory time for work performed in his capacity as a municipal employee on legal holidays. The governing authority of any municipality shall enact leave policies to ensure that a public safety employee is paid or granted compensatory time for the same number of holidays for which any other municipal employee is paid.

(4) The governing authority of any municipality, in its discretion, may expend funds to provide for training and education of newly elected or appointed municipal officials before the beginning of the term of office or employment of such officials. Any expenses incurred for such purposes may be allowed only upon prior approval of the governing authority. Any payments or reimbursements made under the provisions of this subsection may be paid only after presentation to and approval by the governing authority of the municipality.

515, § 2; Laws, 2006, ch. 419, § 1; Laws, 2007, ch. 546, § 2, eff from and after July 1, 2007.

Joint Legislative Committee Note — Section 2 of ch. 363, Laws of 2000, effective from and after July 1, 2000 (approved March 17, 2000), amended this section. Section 2 of ch. 515, Laws of 2000, effective from and after July 1, 2000 (approved March 30, 2000), also amended this section. As set out above, this section reflects the language of Section 1 of ch. 515, Laws of 2000, pursuant to Section 1-3-79, which provides that whenever the same section of law is amended by different bills during the same legislative session, and the effective dates of the sections are the same, the amendment with the latest approval date shall supersede all other amendments to the same section approved on an earlier date.

Editor's Note — On June 12, 1998, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, to the amendment of this section by Laws, 1998, ch. 315, § 1.

Laws, 1989, ch. 526, § 3, effective from and after July 1, 1989, removed the provision for the repeal of this section effective October 1, 1989.

Amendment Notes — The 2006 amendment substituted “municipalities” for “a municipality” following “governing authorities of” in (2); added the second sentence in (3); and in (4), substituted “governing authority” for “governing authorities,” and made a minor stylistic change.

The 2007 amendment, in (3), substituted the present last sentence for the former last sentence, which read: “The governing authority of any municipality, in its discretion, may enact leave policies to ensure that public safety employees receive the same holiday benefits as other municipal employees when the public safety employee’s regular day off occurs on a legal holiday.”

6. Under former law.

1. In general.

City was not authorized to make challenged expenditures for volunteer appreciation dinners, travel advances, police dinners, or City Beautiful Commission meeting absent entry approving expenditures in minutes of the Board of Alderman, regardless of whether expenditures were for lawful purpose; public board speaks and acts only through its minutes. Nichols v. Patterson, 678 So. 2d 673 (Miss. 1996).

Payment of extra checks to city employees at end of year was prohibited donation which city was not authorized to make. Nichols v. Patterson, 678 So. 2d 673 (Miss. 1996).

Home rule statute gives municipalities discretion in managing municipal affairs. Nichols v. Patterson, 678 So. 2d 673 (Miss. 1996).

Expenditures made by city are unlawful when made without express authorization in minutes of city's board, resulting in actual loss to public body. Nichols v. Patterson, 678 So. 2d 673 (Miss. 1996).

The duties of municipal officers cannot be extended by implication to acts not authorized by law. City of Hazlehurst v. Mayes, 96 Miss. 656, 51 So. 890 (1910).

A municipality has a right to pass all authorized ordinances that are reasonable, not inconsistent with the general and not destructive to lawful business. Johnson v. Town of Philadelphia, 94 Miss. 34, 47 So. 526, 19 Am. Ann. Cas. 103 (1908).

The powers of a municipality are to be exercised in conformity to and consistent with the general laws of the state. Crittenden v. Town of Booneville, 92 Miss. 277, 45 So. 723, 131 Am. St. R. 518 (1908).

The action of a de facto officer of a municipal corporation is valid. Greene v. Village of Rienzi, 87 Miss. 463, 40 So. 17, 112 Am. St. R. 449 (1906).

Municipal ordinances cannot be avoided by the imputation of bad faith in their passage. State ex rel. Vicksburg v. Washington Steam Fire Co. No. 3, 76 Miss. 449, 24 So. 877 (1899).

2. Power to adopt particular order, resolution or ordinance.

Development impact fees constituted a tax that a city had no authority to assess; the state's home rule statute, Miss. Code Ann. § 21-17-5, did not authorize the city to impose a tax unless such tax was specifically authorized by another statute or state law. Mayor & Bd. of Aldermen v. Homebuilders Ass'n of Miss., Inc., 932 So. 2d 44 (Miss. 2006).

Ordinance prohibiting commercial establishments from allowing consumption of alcoholic beverages between midnight and 7:00 a.m., which defined "consumption" to include possession in open containers as well as ingestion, was not preempted by statute expressly permitting possession of alcoholic beverages in "wet" municipalities absent clear expression of legislative intent to permit consumption, as opposed to mere possession, without limitation in wet areas, given broad grant of authority to municipalities to regulate impact of alcoholic beverages upon public health, morals, and safety and public policy favoring prevention of alcohol-related altercations and motor vehicle accidents, as limiting possession of opened containers was reasonable and necessary to enforce limitations on consumption. Maynard v. City of Tupelo, 691 So. 2d 385 (Miss. 1997).

"Brown bag" ordinance prohibiting commercial establishments from allowing consumption of alcoholic beverages between midnight and 7:00 a.m. was valid exercise of police power, as object of ordinance was promotion of public safety and welfare and manner in which ordinance promoted those objectives was not oppressive, arbitrary, or discriminatory. Maynard v. City of Tupelo, 691 So. 2d 385 (Miss. 1997).

Municipality's powers are limited to those expressly delegated, and cannot be extended by mere implication; municipal enactment of comprehensive obscenity legislation is beyond municipality's power in absence of specific statutory authorization enabling municipality to enact obscenity ordinance; municipal obscenity ordinance which is inconsistent with state statute exceeds municipality's statutory authority even though changes were allegedly made by city to correct possible constitutional flaws. Videophile, Inc. v. City of Hattiesburg, 601 F. Supp. 552 (S.D. Miss. 1985).

A city cannot be estopped by an ultra vires contract. Edwards Hotel & City R. Co. v. City of Jackson, 96 Miss. 547, 51 So. 802 (1910).

Municipal authorities have the power to order the closing of a street where the public safety requires it, and a private citizen cannot interfere therewith, for the reason that he has recourse against the municipality for his damages. Poythress v. Mobile & O.R. Co., 92 Miss. 638, 46 So. 139 (1908).

Yazoo City has the authority to own and operate an electric railway and to issue bonds therefor under legislative authority. Love v. Holmes, 91 Miss. 535, 44 So. 835 (1907).

3. Judicial review.

Exemptions under a city ordinance before they can be allowed must be made in the clearest and most unambiguous terms. Edwards Hotel & City R. Co. v. City of Jackson, 96 Miss. 547, 51 So. 802 (1910).

The court itself should construe a municipal ordinance and not submit it to a jury for construction. Town of Pass Christian v. Washington, 81 Miss. 470, 34 So. 225 (1903).

Contemporaneous construction by municipal authorities may be considered in cases of doubtful ordinances, but not when they are clear. Town of Wesson v. Collins, 72 Miss. 844, 18 So. 360 (1895).

The Supreme Court will not take judicial notice of town ordinances. Naul v. State, 70 Miss. 699, 12 So. 903 (1893).

4.-5. [Reserved for future use.]

6. Under former law.

Where a statute authorizing municipalities to issue bonds for the purpose of locating a state normal college was constitutional, a municipality had power to issue bonds to induce the location of the State Normal College. Turner v. Hattiesburg, 98 Miss. 337, 53 So. 681 (1910); Turner v. County of Forrest, 53 So. 684 (Miss. 1910).

The establishment and maintenance by municipalities are for municipal purposes. Turner v. Hattiesburg, 98 Miss. 337, 53 So. 681 (1910); Turner v. County of Forrest, 53 So. 684 (Miss. 1910).

A mandamus cannot be issued against a municipality to compel the levy of a tax therein beyond the statutory limit. Town of Jonestown v. Ganong, 97 Miss. 67, 52 So. 579 (1910), error overruled 97 Miss. 67, 52 So. 692.

Under this section the mayor and board of aldermen of a city have full care, management and control of the property and finances thereof, but such powers must be exercised consistent with the laws of the state for the best interest of the inhabitants of the municipality. Montgomery v. State, 97 Miss. 292, 52 So. 357 (1910).

In such exercise of authority a city has power to pass an ordinance providing for the establishment of city depositories fixing rate of interest thereon and securities therefor. Montgomery v. State, 97 Miss. 292, 52 So. 357 (1910).

A treasurer depositing funds in a depository provided, and in the manner required for him, cannot be longer held responsible. Montgomery v. State, 97 Miss. 292, 52 So. 357 (1910).

Powers delegated to a city operating under this section are to be exercised by the mayor and board of aldermen in power at the time, but their actions cannot bind their successors in office. Edwards Hotel & City R. Co. v. City of Jackson, 96 Miss. 547, 51 So. 802 (1910).

A municipality coming under this chapter is not required to republish its ordinances. Chrisman v. City of Jackson, 84 Miss. 787, 37 So. 1015 (1905).

Where an ordinance creating an offense uses the common-law definition of a misdemeanor, an accessory before the fact to its violation may be punished as a principal. Reed v. State, 83 Miss. 192, 35 So. 178 (1903).

A municipal ordinance fixing in its first section a rate of taxation on all property except banks and solvent credits and by its second section fixing a lower rate on banks and solvent credits, cannot be held to impose the greater rate on banks. The exception in the first section and the second section cannot be treated as surplusage. Adams v. Capital State Bank, 74 Miss. 307, 20 So. 881 (1896).

A levy of a tax is indispensable to create a legal obligation to pay it. A taxpayer who has paid all taxes undertaken to be imposed upon his property is not in default for not having paid thereon. Adams v. Capital State Bank, 74 Miss. 307, 20 So. 881 (1896).

Municipality may contract with private corporation to provide necessary equipment and monitoring services in order to operate Home Confinement Program. Haque, Jan. 31, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0084.

Governing authorities of City of Biloxi have discretionary authority to continue agreement as contract for use of private organization's property for polling places, etc., for consideration called for in agreement, assuming that consideration is reasonable; continuation of agreement would not be considered donation prescribed by statute. Carter, Feb. 7, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0069.

Where agency of federal government, which by guideline or regulation prohibits private entities from engaging in enterprise without involvement of local governmental entity, and further where no municipal funds will be expended for construction, operation and maintenance of park and marina facility and no income will be used for general municipal purposes, such involvement by City of Sardis is not inconsistent with existing state law. Shuler, March 15, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0136.

There is no statute that requires bidders to post bid bonds when submitting bids to city for public construction works or public purchases; however, governing authorities of city may require bidders to post bid bonds on public construction works and/or public purchases. Johnson, April 18, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0277.

Governing authorities in Okolona may not impose personal income tax on employees working in City. Gregory, May 14, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0335.

City of Philadelphia may bid at public auction on parcel of real estate offered for sale by United States Postal Authority; municipal governing authorities may adopt order or resolution authorizing offer of up to specified dollar amount of municipal funds, consistent with value of property, for purpose of acquiring property at auction. Thomas, May 15, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0321.

Statute prohibits city from adding fee to city water/sewer bill to be used exclusively for police protection and services, as such fee would in actuality be tax. Hancock, Oct. 4, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0729.

Any use of municipal equipment or labor to maintain private cemetery would constitute illegal donation of public property for private benefit; there is no significant difference between maintaining private cemetery with public money and using county equipment to dig graves, using county equipment to dig graves has been declared illegal. Lawrence, Oct. 26, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0230.

Salary bonuses constitute unauthorized donations, and are therefore prohibited. Clements, Oct. 26, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0363.

Municipalities possess home rule authority to enter contracts of employment and provide corresponding employee compensation and work schedule policies that are tailored to meet the special circumstances of certain groups of employees, such as garbage collection workers. Primeaux, Feb. 12, 1992, A.G. Op. #91-0978.

Individual who is not employed by municipality and who lives free of charge on municipal property constitutes impermissible donation; however, governing authorities may hire retired policeman in part time capacity as custodian or maintenance supervisor of municipal park and allow him to live rent free on municipal property adjacent to park as part of his compensation. Woods, August 5, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0576.

Use of municipal funds to buy property and build parking lot for the benefit of private industry would constitute impermissible donation, although municipality is authorized to buy property and engage in enterprise if municipality has certificate from the Dept. of Economic Development. Shepard, Sept. 16, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0729.

City may adopt ordinance prohibiting parking on square and providing penalties therefore when businesses and offices are closed. Williams, Sept. 23, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0629.

Statutes do not authorize municipality to give financial assistance to nursing students to enable these students to come back to municipality after graduation to work as nurses or nurse practitioners. James, Oct. 28, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0818.

Municipality may not adopt policy in which employees may pool vacation and sick leave benefits or donate vacation and/or sick leave benefits to other employees. Criss, Oct. 28, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0837.

Monetary rewards or granting time off with pay to municipal employees for suggestions that are implemented constitute unauthorized donations. Spell, Nov., 4, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0820.

Municipalities may adopt policies in which employees may be compensated at end of year for unused sick leave; however, municipality must not include any such compensation for purposes of retirement benefits or credit, and may not report such compensation to PERS for credit as either compensation or credit for time. Spell, Nov., 4, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0820.

Municipality may by ordinance prohibit political signs on city property and rights-of-way. Ellis, Nov. 25, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0893.

Payment of extra compensation to municipal employees in recognition of excellent service constitutes impermissible "donation" pursuant to Miss. Code § 21-17-5(2)(g). Hicks, Jan. 20, 1993, A.G. Op. #92-1006.

Payment of travel expenses for individual who is not city employee or representative of city to attend meetings of non-profit organization or corporation would constitute impermissible donation pursuant to Miss. Code Section 21-17-5(2)(g). Wansley, Feb. 25, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0104.

Pursuant to Miss. Code Section 21-17-5(2)(a), municipalities may not levy taxes unless specifically authorized by another statute. Self, Mar. 3, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0066.

Under Miss. Code Section 21-17-5, municipality could not pass ordinance upon matter which state has preempted, either through express language or through regulation of particular topic; most traffic regulations have been so preempted by state laws. Baker, Mar. 31, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0036.

Legislative grant of home rule to municipalities, codified at Miss. Code Section 21-17-5, expressly empowers cities to adopt any orders, resolutions or ordinances with respect to municipal affairs which are not inconsistent with or preempted by state law. Mitchell, Apr. 23, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0007.

Miss. Code Section 21-17-5 provides sufficient authority for municipality to adopt and implement ordinances regulating cable television service rates, but only to extent and in manner authorized under federal law which requires, among other things, prior FCC approval and certification of any local assertion of regulatory authority. Mitchell, Apr. 23, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0007.

Although Miss. Code Section 21-17-5, commonly known as "home rule" statute, grants broad authority to municipalities, such authority may not be exercised in manner not consistent with Mississippi Constitution or existing statutes or laws. Gex, May 19, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0332.

Miss. Code Section 21-17-5 provides sufficient flexibility and authority to conduct elections to determine will of electorate regarding issues falling within city's jurisdiction and on which legislature is silent, provided governing authorities determine that appropriation of public monies for such purposes is in city's best interest. Graves, May 26, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0290.

Non-binding referenda concerning matters under jurisdiction of municipal governing authorities maybe placed on general election ballot pursuant to Miss. Code Section 21-17-5. Graves, May 26, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0290.

Miss. Code Section 21-17-5 gives municipalities responsibility for the care, management and control of municipal property; therefore, municipality may, by ordinance, impose weight limit on trucks being driven on municipal streets. Clark, June 9, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0348.

Miss. Code Section 21-17-5(2) provides that municipality must have specific authority to grant donation. McFatter, June 9, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0405.

Donation either directly to public school system or indirectly to public school system through nonprofit organization for purpose of funding study of public school system is not donation to social and community service program, as contemplated by Miss. Code Section 21-17-5; there is no other statutory authority for municipality to make a donation to nonprofit organization for purpose of studying programs of public schools. McFatter, June 9, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0405.

Municipal governing authority could authorize employment of legal counsel for purpose of intervening in election contest in order to protect city's interest. Ellis, July 14, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0499.

In accordance with general grant of powers to municipality by Section 21-17-1, and authority to manage and control municipal property in its charge, City may contract with vendors for installation of ATM in city jail or any other city building. Mitchell, Jan. 12, 1994, A.G. Op. #93-0874.

City may establish new policy of paying employees for working on holiday instead of awarding compensatory time and city may pay employees for compensatory time accumulated prior to effective date of policy or accumulated prior to effective date of Section 21-17-5(3) as amended. Kerby, March 2, 1994, A.G. Op. #94-0047.

Although Miss. Code Sections 25-3-91 and 25-3-95, which permit state employees to donate a certain portion of their earned personal leave or major medical leave to another employee under some circumstances, do not apply to municipal employees, municipalities may adopt ordinances or resolutions providing for a similar program in a municipality in the absence of a state statute governing a similar municipal employee leave program. Stark, July 18, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0361.

Municipal wastewater treatment systems may be operated by long-term contracts with private firms, provided the term of contract does not extend beyond the terms in office of the current governing authorities. Reno, March 6, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0069.

Municipal governing authorities may authorize a police chief to take a police vehicle home outside the city limits at nights and on weekends only if they determine that such use would benefit and be in the best interest of the municipality; the police chief would not be authorized to use the vehicle for his own benefit, as in running personal errands or as transportation to part-time employment. Walker, March 6, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0102.

A municipality does not have the authority to expend funds for a market research study to ascertain the feasibility of a nonprofit corporation such as the YMCA. Stockton, March 6, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0110.

Term limits for city council members cannot be imposed by municipalities as Subsection 2(e) prohibits legislative acts that change the form or structure of government. Allen, March 27, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0150.

A municipality is limited to paying an employee not to exceed double his ordinary rate of pay for working on a legal holiday. Aston, April 10, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0091.

The language of the statute is prospective only and, therefore, applies only to aldermen and councilmen who take office after July 1, 1998, the effective date of the statute, and does not apply to officers who are already in office. Wise, April 10, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0178.

Notwithstanding that a baseball park owned by a baseball association is located in a town, the town can not provide for the hauling of the dirt and/or the maintenance of the baseball park. Lanford, April 24, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0189.

A county board of supervisors can not legally provide dirt for the use of a baseball association and/or provide for maintenance of any kind to the baseball field owned by the association. Lanford, April 24, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0189.

The governing authorities may accept a donation for unspecified purposes for the police and/or fire department, and may place the funds in the municipal treasury and then appropriate the funds to the police or fire department in accordance with the intent of the donor(s) as long as the funds are used for statutorily authorized purposes; however, the governing authorities may not accept a donation and place the funds in a special account designated as a benevolent fund to be used for purposes beyond those authorized by statute for police and fire departments. Bruni, May 15, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0264.

Police and fire departments do not have authority to enter into a contract or accept donations, but the governing authorities may accept donations for the police or fire department and may place the funds in an appropriate fund, whether general or special, and use them for the designated purpose as long as the purpose is authorized by statute. Bruni, May 15, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0264.

Municipal governing authorities do not have authority to create an independent board, authority, or commission which can take official action pursuant to the home rule statute because the statute does not allow governing authorities to change the form or structure of municipal government and because the area of the law has been preempted by state statutes. McDonald, May 22, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0275.

Local governmental units may individually contract with a private entity to provide the services enumerated pursuant to the Home Rule statute. Thompson, June 5, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0270.

A municipal vehicle may not be used for the personal use of an employee since such use would constitute an impermissible donation; accordingly, if an employee is to be permitted to take a vehicle to his home for nights and/or weekends, the governing authorities of the municipality may authorize such use only if, in their determination, the duties of the employee necessitate such use and such use of the vehicle would benefit and be in the best interest of the municipality. Ferguson, August 7, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0374.

Police officers may not ride their family around in the police car when off duty. Doty, August 28, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0392.

Police officers may not use a police car for personal business when off duty, such as going to a grocery store, church, shopping, and things of that nature. Doty, August 28, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0392.

Municipal governing authorities may permit police officers to use police cars to travel to their residences outside the city limits if they determine that such use of the vehicle would benefit and be in the best interest of the municipality. Doty, August 28, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0392.

Municipal governing authorities may permit a police officer who is not the chief to use a police car to travel outside the county to his residence if they determine consistent with fact that his duties necessitate such use and that such use of the vehicle would benefit and be in the best interest of the municipality. Doty, August 28, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0392.

Providing banking services to the public is not a proper municipal purpose, and there is no authority for the purchase or lease-purchase of an automatic teller machine to be owned and serviced by a municipality. Horne, August 28, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0511.

A municipality may not lease a building and surrounding land in an industrial park for nominal consideration. Jones, September 4, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0481.

While an individual may make a donation to a volunteer fire department, there is no authority for the governing authorities of a municipality to include a specific fee as a line item on water/sewer bills sent to municipal residents for the support of the volunteer fire department, even if payment of the fee is voluntary. Threatt, November 25, 1998, A.G. Op. #97-0068.

A city had the authority to enter into a management contract for the operation and maintenance of a city-owned multi-educational complex since the operation of the complex was in furtherance of a proper municipal purpose. Thomas, November 25, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0723.

The provisions of §§ 9-5-131, 9-7-121, 19-3-5, 19-4-9, 21-1-7, 21-17-5(1), and 27-1-13, only mandate the use of tax assessment rolls and the avails to be collected from levies thereon in calculating the amount of the bonds therein required. Bryant, January 29, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0011.

The calculation of a bond pursuant to §§ 9-5-131, 9-7-121, 19-3-5, 19-4-9, 21-1-7, 21-17-5(1), and 27-1-13, includes all assessment rolls upon which a board of supervisors may levy ad valorem taxes. Bryant, January 29, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0011.

The calculation pursuant to §§ 9-5-131, 9-7-121, 19-3-5, 19-4-9, 21-1-7, 21-17-5(1), and 27-1-13, includes all ad valorem tax levies listed on the certified levy sheet, including school district levies. Bryant, January 29, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0011.

The calculation pursuant to §§ 9-5-131, 9-7-121, 19-3-5, 19-4-9, 21-1-7, 21-17-5(1), and 27-1-13, includes all classes of property upon which ad valorem taxes are levied and collected. Bryant, January 29, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0011.

In calculating the amount of a bond pursuant to §§ 9-5-131, 9-7-121, 19-3-5, 19-4-9, 21-1-7, 21-17-5(1), and 27-1-13, the total amount of ad valorem taxes to be collected, rather than the actual amount collected, must be used. Bryant, January 29, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0011.

There is no authority for a municipality to donate funds to the Southern Poison Control Center. Snyder, April 23, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0193.

No violation of this section is presented where a municipality provides funds to an economic development authority pursuant to local and private act specifically authorizing such contributions. Dorrill, May 14, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0208.

A municipality may own and operate a historical museum and may lease the museum property to a nonprofit historical society to maintain and operate the museum on behalf of the city with a lease and management agreement. Carter, July 23, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0284.

In the absence of any provision under state law for a municipal leave donation program, a municipality under the authority of home rule may adopt or enact a program similar to the one applicable to state employees under § 25-3-95(8). Mitchell, August 6, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0372.

Pursuant to home rule, a municipality may advertise the fact that a particular business or other organization has donated a vehicle to the municipal police department by placing the name of the donating entity upon the vehicle; however, the donor's name must not be distracting and must be small enough so that the general public can readily and easily identify the vehicle as an official municipal police vehicle. Kinsey, August 6, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0401.

City governing authorities did not have authority to donate funds to a foundation for scholarships for county residents at Jackson State University and Alcorn State University, make donations to churches, or give financial assistance to elderly county residents and did not have authority to donate funds to a foundation to administer a random drawing to give away ten air conditioning window units donated by the manufacturer to ten people. Rohman, May 19, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0245.

Counties and municipalities may sell advertising on their public web sites and may regulate the content, subject, and identity of its advertisers to promote the public safety, health, or welfare. McLeod, June 12, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0278.

Governing authorities do not have authority to create an independent board, authority, or commission which can take official action pursuant to the home rule statute, because this statute does not allow governing authorities to change the form or structure of municipal government and because the area of the law has been preempted by state statutes. Lynn, Mar. 29, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0139.

There is no authority for a mayor or the governing authorities of a code charter municipality to appoint aldermen as commissioners over municipal departments. McKenzie, Aug. 30, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0507.

An ordinance which prohibits potential contractors from the bidding process would be inconsistent with Section 31-7-13, which sets forth specific requirements for advertising and soliciting bids. McKissack, Dec. 13, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0119.

Municipalities may donate to a Main Street Project and to local economic development organizations office space and in-kind services, however, there is no authority for a municipality to donate the time of a full-time or part-time employee who receives compensation and benefits from the municipality, but works for a Main Street Project or economic development organization, or to contract to provide a full-time or part-time municipal employee to a Main Street Project or local economic development organization for consideration. Farmer, Dec. 20, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0603.

A municipality may lease space in a municipal building to a nonprofit corporation pursuant to Section 21-17-1. Farmer, Dec. 20, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0603.

Local governing authorities may not pay for holidays when no work is performed, but are limited to allowing additional leave. Mitchell, Jan. 30, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0008.

A municipal judge may file a criminal affidavit with the municipal court and must then recuse himself from the case; another municipal judge may hear the case, or the municipal judge may transfer the case to the justice court. Thomas, Jan. 17, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0007.

Pursuant to Section 21-17-5, a Board of Aldermen has the authority to hold a nonbinding referendum on whether the Mayor's job should be full time or part time. Beckett, Jan. 31, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0038.

A municipality, pursuant to its authority to establish salaries and benefits, may enlarge upon the amount of family and medical leave available to municipal employees. Bowman, Feb. 7, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0771.

A city may not allow holiday pay for public safety employees who do not work on the holiday and, accordingly, may not allow holiday pay to accumulate through the year to be paid in a lump sum annually. Hewes, Feb. 14, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0002.

Governing authorities have the authority to make the determination not to use radar speed detection devices to enforce municipal speed limits and to remove radar devices that have already been installed in municipal vehicles. Stuart, May 30, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0245.

Section 21-17-5(2)(c) does not prohibit a municipality operating under a special charter having its own provisions for conducting municipal elections from following appropriate statutory authority (Section 21-17-11) in seeking to amend its charter with regard to those election provisions. McFatter, May 30, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0247.

A municipal governing body may name a municipal building after a person that body wishes to recognize and honor. Brown, Oct. 23, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0587.

Employees who work on a Saturday or Sunday may not receive compensatory time or compensatory pay regardless of the fact that the day is an "actual holiday." These employees should receive ordinary pay for work performed on an "actual holiday." Compensatory time or compensatory pay may be given for work performed on a "legal holiday," as long as there exists a policy providing for such at the time the work was performed. Hammack, Jan. 23, 2004, A.G. Op. 02-0605.

It is within the authority of the governing authorities of a city to enact a policy which authorizes the payment of up to double a police officer's regular rate of pay for the hours worked on a legal holiday. Likewise, a policy could be established authorizing the accrual of compensatory time at double the regular accrual rate for compensatory time for hours worked on a legal holiday. James, Mar. 12, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0098.

Municipal governing authorities are not mandated by subsection (3) of this section to provide additional pay or leave for employees working on legal holidays. However, if they do, the manner of payment or accrual of leave is to be calculated on an hour for hour basis. James, Mar. 12, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0098.

A legal holiday begins at 12:00 a.m. and ends at 11:59 p.m. James, Mar. 12, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0098.

If municipal employees having a work schedule of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. work a full regular work schedule on a legal holiday, then for pay purposes they are entitled to "holiday pay" or extra leave for working that eight hour period, if the municipal governing authorities have enacted policies providing for such extra pay or extra leave. If employees only work a portion of their regular work schedule on a holiday, they are only entitled to "holiday pay" or extra leave commensurate with the actual time. James, Mar. 12, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0098.

If municipal employees having a work schedule from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. work that regular work schedule on a legal holiday, then for pay purposes they are entitled to "holiday pay" or extra leave for working that twelve hour period, if the municipal governing authorities have enacted policies providing for such extra pay or extra leave. For employees having a work schedule of 7:00 p.m. to 7:00 a.m., the amount of "holiday pay" or extra leave earned would depend upon that portion of the legal holiday worked. James, Mar. 12, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0098.

If a vehicle has been offered (donated) to the municipality, and there has been no acceptance of that vehicle, the vehicle should not be included in the city's inventory, and no duties exist with regard to that vehicle. McLaurin, July 16 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0356.

§ 21-17-9. Amendment of municipal charter at behest of governing authority.

When a municipality now existing, which has not adopted the code charter or commission form of government, but is governed by another charter, shall desire to amend its charter, the same may be done in this way: the mayor and board of aldermen, city council, or municipal authority, by whatever name known, may prepare, in writing, the desired amendment or amendments and have the same published for three (3) weeks in a legal newspaper published in the municipality, if there be one, and, if none, then by posting for said time in at least three (3) public places therein, after which the proposed amendment or amendments shall be submitted to the Governor, who shall submit the same to the Attorney General for his opinion. The publication of the amendment or amendments may be made as provided in Section 21-17-19. If the Attorney General is of the opinion that the proposed amendment or amendments are consistent with the Constitution and laws of the United States and the Constitution of this state, the Governor shall approve the proposed amendment or amendments. If, after publication is made, one-tenth ($\frac{1}{10}$) of the qualified electors of the municipality shall protest against the proposed amendments, or any of them, the Governor shall not approve the ones protested against until they shall be submitted to and ratified by a majority of the electors of the municipality voting in a special election. Amendments, when approved by the Governor, shall be recorded, at the expense of the municipality, in the office of the Secretary of State and upon the records of the mayor and board of aldermen, or other governing authorities of the municipality, and when so recorded shall have the force and effect of law. No amendment to the private or special charter of any municipality shall be adopted or approved when such amendment is in conflict with any of the provisions of this title expressly made applicable to municipalities operating under a private or special charter, or is in conflict with the provisions of any other legislation expressly made applicable to any such municipality.

1. In general.

The Election Commission had an official duty to see to it that the elections in a city were carried out in compliance with state law and, as such, the circuit court had the power and jurisdiction to enjoin the elections until the city could amend its charter in compliance with the statute. City of Grenada v. Harrelson, 725 So. 2d 770 (Miss. 1998).

The legislature has granted each municipality power to amend its special charter, but when municipality undertakes to make this amendment whether as to substance or form, it must follow the statute as to manner and method by which such amendment may be made. Bishop v. City of Meridian, 223 Miss. 703, 79 So. 2d 815 (1955).

The legislature, by granting municipalities the power to amend a private or special charter, did not give a municipality authority to declare that all functions exercised by the city are public governmental functions. Bishop v. City of Meridian, 223 Miss. 703, 79 So. 2d 815 (1955).

The mere power to amend a private or special charter does not have the effect of vesting in the city authorities the power to abolish all actions for damages based upon the negligent failure of the city authorities to maintain the street in a proper and safe condition. Bishop v. City of Me- ridian, 223 Miss. 703, 79 So. 2d 815 (1955).

The recording of amendments to municipal charters is necessary to give the amendments any effect. Williams v. City of Vicksburg, 116 Miss. 79, 76 So. 838 (1917).

Where a city has first adopted an amendment to its charter it need not be readopted after its publication and approval by the governor and attorney-general. Sick v. City of Bay St. Louis, 113 Miss. 175, 74 So. 272 (1917).

The legislature is prohibited by § 88 Const. 1890 to pass a special act amending the charter of a city. Monette v. State, 91 Miss. 662, 44 So. 989, 124 Am. St. R. 715 (1907), overruled on other grounds, Glover v. Columbus, 197 Miss. 467, 19 So. 2d 756 (1944).

An amendment to the charter of a city which created the office of police justice did not create a new court, but merely provided a different presiding officer for the court already in existence. Ex parte Dickson, 89 Miss. 778, 42 So. 233 (1906).

This section as amended, Laws 1905 p. 79, authorizing the amendment of the charters of the municipalities which have not adopted the Code Chapter on "municipalities," and allowing amendments inconsistent with said Code Chapter, is not violative of Const. 1890, § 88. Yazoo City v. Lightcap, 82 Miss. 148, 33 So. 949 (1903).

Since city is governed by its own private charter which prescribes length of terms that its elected officials serve, and since Miss. Code Section 21-17-9 prescribes procedure whereby municipal charters may be amended, section of charter that prescribes length of terms of elected municipal official could be amended to include provision to limit terms of said officials, provided said amendment is adopted in accordance with Miss. Code Section 21-17-9. Hicks, Jan. 5, 1993, A.G. Op. #92-0980.

The governing authorities of a City may change the form of government to a mayor council form of government by amending the special charter in accordance with Section 21-17-9 and create a mayor council municipality similar to the mayor council form of government set forth in Section 21-8-1 et seq. Hutcherson, October 11, 1996, A.G. Op. #96-0651.

If an amendment is submitted, after proper notification, and no protests are filed at the time of submission to the Governor's Office, but less than 1/10th of the protests are filed at the time of the Governor's signing of the amendment, the protestors do not have more time to secure signatures. Criss, May 15, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0210.

As between qualified newspapers, a newspaper with a known office of publication within the municipality must be selected to publish the legal notices of that municipality. Edens, July 23, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0289.

The City of McComb could not pass an ordinance to institute changes to the required qualifications of candidates to municipal elective office; instead, the city was required to amend its Special Charter. White, July 3, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0134.

In addition to approval by the Attorney General, a proposed amendment to the Special Charter of the City of Greenville also requires approval of the U.S. Department of Justice because it changes voting districts within the municipality. Prospere, Feb. 5, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0050.

Proposed amendments to the special charter of a city to alter the corporate limits to reflect boundaries approved in a prior annexation, and change the organization of municipal government to provide for an additional alderman to be elected at large should be approved. The municipality must submit any changes which may affect voting to the U.S. Department of Justice pursuant to Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 for preclearance prior to enforcing any such changes. Musgrove, Sept. 5, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0466.

It shall be lawful for any number, not less than twenty percent (20%) of the qualified electors of any municipality, by petition, to propose an amendment or amendments to the charter of such municipality not in conflict with the Constitution and laws of the United States, or the Constitution of this state. The said amendment or amendments shall be published for three (3) weeks prior to a special election in a newspaper published in the municipality, if there be one, and if not, by posting for said time in at least three (3) public places therein. The publication of the amendment or amendments may be made as provided in Section 21-17-19. If such election results in favor of any such amendment or amendments, then the amendment or amendments shall be submitted to the Governor, as is provided in Section 21-17-9, and the procedure therein outlined shall be followed, except that it shall not be necessary to republish such amendment or amendments, or resubmit such amendment or amendments for approval of the qualified electors.

6. Under former law.

Const. 1890, § 80, 88, among other things providing for general laws to create and govern municipal corporations are prospective in operation and do not repeal existing municipal charters. Therefore this section recognizing the continued existence of such charters is not unconstitutional. Lum v. City of Vicksburg, 72 Miss. 590, 18 So. 476 (1895).

Under this section declaring that after the chapter became operative, every municipality shall be governed by its provisions but that any municipality might within twelve months, "elect not to come under the provisions hereof," power was given municipalities affirmatively to accept the provisions of the chapter and be governed thereby. Ex parte Shlomberg, 70 Miss. 47, 11 So. 721 (1892).

Its corporate authorities having formally accepted the provisions of the Code Chapter, the city of Jackson became bound thereby, and subsequent action of the authorities purporting to rescind the resolution of acceptance, though within twelve months, was ineffectual. Ex parte Shlomberg, 70 Miss. 47, 11 So. 721 (1892).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Municipal wastewater treatment systems may be operated by long-term contracts with private firms, provided the term of contract does not extend beyond the terms in office of the current governing authorities. Reno, March 6, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0069.

Public utility commissions and park commissions whose members are appointed officers and do not serve in an advisory capacity alone have the power to manage and control the facilities, including the authority to determine whether the state flag is to be flown at those utilities. Clark, Mar. 21, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0127.

§ 21-17-15. Establishment of fiscal or financial department in certain municipalities; authority of director.

Within the discretion of the governing authorities of any municipality having a population of seventy-five thousand (75,000) or more according to the latest federal decennial census, there may be established a fiscal or financial department and the director thereof shall be invested with the full authority to act in all financial matters for and on behalf of such municipality as the city clerk is now authorized to act in such matters.

Editor's Note — Laws of 1974, ch. 400, amended § 21-39-19 to add a new paragraph authorizing certain municipalities to establish a fiscal or finance department. Since the subject matter of the added paragraph was not appropriate for Chapter 39 of Title 21, but more properly belonged in Chapter 17 of Title 21, the added paragraph was made to appear as this section.

Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 21-3-19, 21-5-13, 21-7-9 and 21-9-39, Mississippi Code of 1972, the governing authorities of any municipality may by ordinance duly adopted change the day of the week set by the appropriate section hereinabove as their regular monthly or bimonthly meeting date. Before the adoption of any such ordinance, the ordinance shall first be published once a week for at least three (3) consecutive weeks in a newspaper published in or having general circulation within the municipality. Once such regular meeting day has been changed, meetings shall be held as otherwise provided by law.

SOURCES: Laws, 1979, ch. 403, § 1, eff from and after July 1, 1979.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Where there is no newspaper located in or published in a town, a newspaper within the county having general circulation in the municipality (or if there is none, a newspaper having general circulation within the county) must be used for publication of an ordinance to change the date of board meetings, as is required for the publication of all other ordinances of the municipality pursuant to Section 21-13-11. Thomas, May 30, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0268.

(1) Whenever a municipality is required by law to publish in a newspaper any public measure or amendment thereto, the substance of the public measure or amendment thereto may be printed in lieu of the full text of the public measure or amendment thereto, as provided in this Section. Such a public measure shall include, but shall not be limited to, an ordinance, resolution, amendment to a municipal charter or annual audit. The provisions of this section shall not apply to publication of the annual budget or amendments thereto; such publication shall be made as provided in Chapter 35, Title 21, Mississippi Code of 1972.

(2) The substance of the public measure or amendment thereto shall be an explanatory statement summarizing the full text of the public measure or amendment thereto, in which the chief purpose of the measure is explained in clear and unambiguous language. Such statement shall be prepared by the governing authorities of the municipality, and shall not exceed three hundred (300) words in length to the extent practicable.

(3) During the entire time of the publication of the explanatory statement in a newspaper, a copy of the full text of the public measure or amendment thereto shall be posted by the clerk of the municipality (a) at the city hall, (b) at the main public library in the municipality, or at the courthouse in the judicial district or county in which the municipality is located; and in addition, the clerk shall post such copy at least at one (1) other public place in the municipality. The clerk shall furnish any resident of the municipality a copy of the full text of the public measure or amendment thereto upon request, and this shall be stated in the publication of the explanatory statement.

SOURCES: Laws, 1988, ch. 457, § 1, eff from and after December 8, 1988 (the date the United States Attorney General interposed no objection to the addition of this section).

Joint Legislative Committee Note — Pursuant to Section 1-1-109, the Joint Legislative Committee on Compilation, Revision and Publication of Legislation corrected a typographical error in subsection (1). The words “Chapter 25” were changed to “Chapter 35”. The Joint Committee ratified the correction at its December 3, 1996 meeting.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

A municipality may publish the substance of a zoning ordinance, i.e., an explanatory statement summarizing the full text of the ordinance, in which the chief purpose is explained in clear and unambiguous language; in such case, the clerk must post a copy of the full text of the zoning ordinance, along with the maps, charts, diagrams and sketches, at the city hall, main public library or courthouse, and at another public place in the municipality; further, the publication should also specify when and where the full text of the ordinance and any maps are available for review. Donald, August 5, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0390.

Where a county is amending its zoning ordinance, but the proposed amendments do not change any actual existing zoning of property in the county, the portions that are being amended and the proposed amendments may be published in lieu of publishing the entire ordinance, and the publication should refer to the full text of the proposed amendments on file in the city clerk's office. § 21-19-1. General powers of municipal governing authorities; collection and disposal of garbage and rubbish.

(1) The municipal governing authorities of any municipality shall have the power to make regulations to secure the general health of the municipality; to prevent, remove, and abate nuisances; to regulate or prohibit the construction of privy vaults and cesspools, and to regulate or suppress those already constructed; to compel and regulate the connection of all property with sewers and drains; to suppress hog pens, slaughterhouses and stockyards, or to regulate the same and prescribe and enforce regulations for cleaning and keeping the same in order; to regulate and prescribe and enforce regulations for the cleaning and keeping in order of warehouses, stables, alleys, yards, private ways, outhouses, and other places where offensive matter is kept or permitted to accumulate; and to compel and regulate the removal of garbage and filth beyond the corporate limits. The municipal governing authorities are further authorized to adopt and enforce regulations governing the disposal of garbage and rubbish in sanitary landfills owned or leased by the municipality, whether located within or outside of the corporate limits of the municipality, to the extent that such regulations are not in conflict with or prohibited by regulations of the Commission on Environmental Quality adopted under Section 17-17-27.

(2) After December 31, 1992, the governing body of any municipality in the state shall provide for the collection and disposal of garbage and the disposal of rubbish, and for that purpose the governing body shall have the power to:

(a) Establish, operate and maintain a garbage and/or rubbish collection and disposal system or systems;

(b) Acquire property, real or personal, by contract, gift or purchase, necessary or proper for the maintenance and operation of such system;

(c) Make all necessary rules and regulations for the collection and disposal of garbage and/or rubbish not in conflict with or prohibited by rules and regulations of the Commission on Environmental Quality adopted under Section 17-17-27 and, if it so desires, establish, maintain and collect rates, fees and charges for collecting and disposing of such garbage and/or rubbish; and

(d) In its discretion, enter into contracts, in the manner required by law, with individuals, associations or corporations for the establishment, operation and maintenance of a garbage or rubbish disposal system or systems, and/or enter into contracts on such terms as the municipal governing body thinks proper with any other municipality, county or region enabling the municipality to use jointly with such other municipality, county or region any authorized rubbish landfill or permitted sanitary landfill operated by the other municipality, other county or region.

As a necessary incident to such municipal governing authority's power and authority to establish, maintain and collect such rates, fees and charges for collecting and disposing of such garbage and/or rubbish, and as a necessary incident to such municipal governing authority's power and authority to establish, operate and maintain a garbage and/or rubbish disposal system or systems, the municipal governing authority of such municipality shall have the authority to initiate a civil action to recover any delinquent fees and charges for collecting and disposing of such rubbish, and all administrative and legal costs associated with collecting such fees and charges, in the event any person, firm or corporation, including any municipal corporation, shall fail or refuse to pay such fees and charges for collecting and disposing of garbage and/or rubbish; provided that such municipal governing authority may initiate such a civil action to recover such delinquent fees and charges whether or not such municipality has previously entered into a contract with such individual, firm or corporation, relating to the establishment, operation and maintenance of such garbage and/or rubbish disposal system or systems; provided further, that in a civil action to recover such delinquent fees and charges for collecting and disposing of such garbage and/or rubbish, and all administrative and legal costs associated with collecting such fees and charges, the municipality shall in all respects be a proper party to such suit as plaintiff and shall have the power to sue for and recover such unpaid fees and charges, and all administrative and legal costs associated with collecting such fees and charges from any person, firm or corporation, as may fail, refuse or default in the payment of such fees and charges.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
2. Animals.
3. Regulation of business.
4. —Sanitary contractors.
5. —Barber shops.
6. —Filling stations.
7. —Plumbing.
8. —Fireworks.
9. —Salesmen.
10. Under former law.

1. In general.

No municipal board has right to create a condition which imperils health and welfare of public and create public nuisance, and when it does so, equity court has power to issue injunction directing board to relieve situation, leaving board free to adopt such methods as economy and good engineering may determine. City of Jackson v. Robertson, 208 Miss. 422, 44 So. 2d 523 (1950).

In determining validity of ordinance enacted under statute authorizing municipality to make regulations to secure general health, and prevent spread of contagious diseases, court will not consider wisdom of ordinance but merely whether it constitutes reasonable exercise of power granted. Hartman v. May, 168 Miss. 477, 151 So. 737, 93 A.L.R. 1408 (1934).

The power of the municipality to prohibit and abolish nuisances and cognate matters is limited and the attempted exercise of any excess authority is void. Desporte v. City of Biloxi, 136 Miss. 542, 100 So. 387 (1924).

A condition must constitute a nuisance before a municipality has authority to abate it as such. Desporte v. City of Biloxi, 136 Miss. 542, 100 So. 387 (1924).

2. Animals.

A municipality was negligent in building a hog pond twelve feet from plaintiff's residence and against her protest upon property of the city; it was also actionable negligence to fail to remove a dead hog from such pond after notice. Crawford v.

Town of D'Lo, 119 Miss. 28, 80 So. 377 (1919).

It is only when the keeping of hogs in the city is a nuisance that it may be prohibited by ordinance. Comfort v. City of Kosciusko, 88 Miss. 611, 41 So. 268, 5 Am. Ann. Cas. 178 (1906).

A municipal ordinance, declaring it to be a nuisance to erect hog pens within any inclosure in the city limits, or to permit hogs to run at large within any lot or inclosure, except at certain designated places, and providing for their abatement, was held invalid as being too broad. Ex parte O'Leary, 65 Miss. 80, 3 So. 144, 7 Am. St. R. 640 (1887).

3. Regulation of business.

An ordinance making in unlawful for business places to keep open after 11 P.M., and prescribing a penalty for its violation, as applied to a grocery store, constituted a deprivation of property without due process of law and an unreasonable restraint of trade not per se or per accidens a nuisance. Town of McCool v. Blaine, 194 Miss. 221, 11 So. 2d 801 (1943).

Where a city charter empowered the city authorities to regulate and prevent the carrying on of manufactories dangerous in causing or promoting fires and to prevent and remove all nuisances, an ordinance, enacted pursuant thereto, declaring certain manufactories, which because of their dilapidated and defective condition should have become dangerous to persons and property in their vicinity, to be nuisances and subject to prosecution, was valid. Green v. Lake, 60 Miss. 451 (1882).

Although the charter of a municipality empowered the municipal authorities to prevent nuisances and dangerous manufactories and to regulate the latter, the authorities cannot, on petition of citizens, deal thus with a flour mill unless it should be shown to fall within some law or ordinance previously enacted. Lake v. City of Aberdeen, 57 Miss. 260 (1879).

4. —Sanitary contractors.

A city is not liable for damages for negligent performance of work done under an ordinance regulating the cleaning of cesspools and removing garbage, although requiring it to be done only by sanitary contractors chosen by the city. City of Gulfport v. Shepperd, 116 Miss. 439, 77 So. 193 (1918).

5. —Barber shops.

Ordinance forbidding barber shops to open before 7:30 A.M. or remain open after 6:30 P. M. could not be held valid on ground it was designed to fix reasonable time for inspecting barber shops. Knight v. Johns, 161 Miss. 519, 137 So. 509 (1931).

6. —Filling stations.

A municipal ordinance requiring the obtaining of a permit for the construction and operation of a filling station within the municipality after a hearing in which the granting of the permit was made to depend upon traffic conditions and the fire explosive hazards which might impair the public safety, was within the authorization of this section [Code 1942, § 3374-116], since while a gasoline filling station might not be a nuisance per se, the maintenance of one at a place which by reason of traffic conditions or fire explosive hazards would impair the public safety was unquestionably a public nuisance and therefore within this section [Code 1942, § 3374-116]. Gulf Ref. Co. v. City of Laurel, 187 Miss. 119, 192 So. 1 (1939).

7. —Plumbing.

A reasonable fee to be paid by applicants who are required by an ordinance to be examined before doing a plumbing business in a municipality is within the power of the city. City of Vicksburg v. Mullane, 106 Miss. 199, 63 So. 412 (1913).

A municipality may by ordinance impose reasonable regulations with reference to plumbing work therein. City of Vicksburg v. Mullane, 106 Miss. 199, 63 So. 412 (1913).

8. —Fireworks.

Municipal ordinance prohibiting sale, possession, or control of fireworks within the city limits held unauthorized under this section [Code 1942, § 3374-116]. King v. City of Louisville, 207 Miss. 612, 42 So. 2d 813 (1949).

9. —Salesmen.

Where a city passed an ordinance making it unlawful for transient vendors to go in and upon private residences, and in and upon private property and buildings other than residences, without first having been requested or invited to do so by the owner or occupant, for the purpose of soliciting orders for the sale of goods or selling the same, the ordinance was valid as it applied to soliciting in private residences but was invalid as to property and buildings other than residences, which includes primarily business offices and stores. Day v. Klein, 225 Miss. 191, 82 So. 2d 831 (1955).

10. Under former law.

Much must be left to municipal authorities' discretion in exercising granted authority to make regulations to secure general health and to prevent introduction of contagious diseases and presumption favors reasonableness of such regulations. Hartman v. May, 168 Miss. 477, 151 So. 737, 93 A.L.R. 1408 (1934).

Ordinance requiring children's vaccination against smallpox as condition to their admission to public schools held valid as reasonable exercise of power to make regulations to prevent introduction and spread of contagious diseases, though no smallpox epidemic existed. Hartman v. May, 168 Miss. 477, 151 So. 737, 93 A.L.R. 1408 (1934).

The governing authorities may use a municipal backhoe to bury a dead animal if the owner cannot be identified or located, or it is otherwise necessary to preserve the health, safety and welfare of the community if this is the only option available. Landrum, Nov. 27, 1991, A.G. Op. #91-0896.

Municipalities do not have the authority to clean property owned by a political subdivision of the state. Crump, Dec. 18, 1991, A.G. Op. #91-0936.

Miss. Code Section 21-19-1 requires municipalities after December 31, 1992, to establish, maintain and operate garbage systems. Shivel, Jan. 27, 1993, A.G. Op. #92-1003.

Miss. Code Section 21-19-1(2) authorizes municipalities to collect delinquent fees, as well as administrative and legal costs associated with collecting fees, by initiating civil actions. Shivel, Jan. 27, 1993, A.G. Op. #92-1003.

Municipal governing authorities may repair sewer line on private property and charge owner for service in emergency situation for purpose of preventing contamination of water and sewer system and protecting public health and safety. Peeples, August 8, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0423.

Municipalities may adopt ordinances to require residents to properly maintain sewer lines on their property, and county health departments have jurisdiction to require property owners to repair sewer lines on their property if a public health hazard exists. Donald, Aug. 8, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0468.

So long as the provisions of this section and Section 47-5-401 are followed, a municipality may contract with the Mississippi Department of Corrections to use inmate labor for public service work such as the cleaning of private property under this section. Pierce, Dec. 19, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0676.

Even if a burned building does not pose a menace to the public health and safety of the community, according to engineers, and there is no indication of any other public health hazard, a city may require the owner to clean and clear the property or may itself clean and clear the property to alleviate the eyesore. Donald, January 29, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0018.

A county board of supervisors may not pick up and dispose of household rubbish within the municipal boundaries of a city without the consent of the municipality. Entrekin, Feb. 18, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0059.

Pursuant to this section, a municipality may adopt ordinances requiring owners to properly maintain sewer lines on their property. Brown, Oct. 18, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0588.

A city may adopt an ordinance which defines and prohibits junk vehicles with exceptions and may enforce the ordinance on a citizen who already had on his property a junk vehicle. Barry, Apr. 7, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0089.

A town is entitled to terminate or disconnect the sewer service to customers of the sewer system who are not paying their bills for such service. There must be some process by which customers may dispute questionable charges. Richardson, Feb. 2, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0011.

If a town disconnects a sewer, it may be reconnected to the customers' septic tank. Richardson, Feb. 2, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0011.

A municipality may disconnect or otherwise terminate sewer service to a customer for failure to comply with provisions of ordinances related to sewer systems if those failures cause a breakdown in the system or unlawful pollution of the city lines or system. Due process must be afforded any customer prior to service being terminated and health and environmental rules must be followed. Richardson, Feb. 2, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0011.

§ 21-19-2. Development of billing and collection system; defraying costs; increase in ad valorem tax; notice; joint and several liability of generator and property owner; liens.

(1)(a) To defray the cost of establishing, operating and maintaining the system provided for in Section 21-19-1, the governing authority of a municipality may develop a system for the billing and/or collection of any fees or charges imposed on each person furnished garbage and/or rubbish collection and/or disposal service by the municipality or at the expense of the municipality. The governing authority of the municipality shall provide for the collection of the fees or charges.

(b) The governing authority of a municipality may enter into a contract upon mutual agreement with a public or private corporation, nonprofit corporation, planning and development district or a public agency, association, utility or utility district within the area receiving garbage and/or rubbish collection and/or disposal services from the municipality for the purpose of developing, maintaining, operating and administering a system for the billing and/or collection of fees or charges imposed by the municipality for garbage and/or rubbish collection and/or disposal services. The entity with whom the governing authority of a municipality contracts shall notify the governing authority of the municipality monthly of any unpaid fees or charges assessed under this section. Any entity that contracts to provide a service to customers, within the area being served by the municipality's garbage and/or rubbish collection and/or disposal system, may provide a list of its customers to the governing authority of the municipality upon the request of the governing authority.

(2)(a) To defray the cost of establishing and operating the system provided for in Section 21-19-1, the governing body of a municipality may levy an ad valorem tax not to exceed four (4) mills on all taxable property within the area served by the municipality's garbage and/or rubbish collection and/or disposal system. The service area may be comprised of incorporated and/or unincorporated areas within a county; however, no property shall be subject to this levy unless that property is within an area served by a municipality's garbage and/or rubbish collection and/or disposal system. The rate of the ad valorem tax levied under this section shall be shown as a line item on the notice of ad valorem taxes on taxable property owed by the taxpayer.

(b) In addition to or in lieu of any other method authorized to defray the cost of establishing and operating the system provided for in Section 21-19-1, the governing body of a municipality that has established a garbage and/or rubbish collection and/or disposal system may assess and collect fees or charges to defray the costs of such services. The governing authority may assess and collect the fees or charges from each single family residential generator of garbage and/or rubbish. The governing authority also may assess and collect such fees or charges from each industrial, commercial and multi-family residential generator of garbage and/or rubbish for any time period that the generator has not otherwise contracted for the collection of garbage and/or rubbish that is ultimately disposed of at a permitted or authorized nonhazardous solid waste management facility.

(c) Before the adoption of any resolution or ordinance to increase the ad valorem tax assessment or fees or charges authorized by this section, the governing authority of a municipality shall have published a notice advertising their intent to increase the ad valorem tax assessment or fees or charges authorized by this section. The notice shall specify the purpose of the proposed increase, the proposed percentage increase and the proposed percentage increase in total revenues for garbage and/or rubbish collection and/or disposal services or shall contain a copy of any resolution by the governing authority stating their intent to increase the ad valorem tax assessment or fees or charges authorized by this section. The notice shall be published in a newspaper having general circulation in the municipality for no less than three (3) consecutive weeks before the adoption of the order. The notice shall be in print no less than the size of eighteen (18) point and shall be surrounded by a one-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) inch black border. The notice shall not be placed in the legal section notice of the newspaper. There shall be no language in the notice inferring a mandate from the Legislature.

In addition to the requirement for publication of notice, the governing authority of a municipality shall notify each person furnished garbage and/or rubbish collection and/or disposal service of any increase in the ad valorem tax assessment or fees or charges authorized by this section. In the case of an increase of the ad valorem tax assessment, a notice shall be conspicuously placed on or attached to the first ad valorem tax bill on which the increased assessment is effective. In the case of an increase in fees or charges, a notice shall be conspicuously placed on or attached to the first bill for fees or charges on which the increased fees or charges are assessed. There shall be no language in any notice inferring a mandate from the Legislature.

(d) The governing authority of a municipality may adopt an ordinance authorizing the granting of exemptions from the fees or charges for certain generators of garbage and/or rubbish. The ordinance shall define clearly those generators that may be exempted and shall be interpreted consistently by the governing authority when determining whether to grant or withhold requested exemptions.

(e) The governing authority may borrow money for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the system in anticipation of:

(i) The tax levy authorized under this section;

(ii) Revenues resulting from the assessment of any fees or charges for garbage and/or rubbish collection and/or disposal; or

(iii) Any combination thereof.

(3)(a) Fees or charges for garbage and/or rubbish collection and/or disposal shall be assessed jointly and severally against the generator of the garbage and/or rubbish and against the owner of the property furnished the service. However, any person who pays, as a part of a rental or lease agreement, an amount for garbage and/or rubbish collection and/or disposal services shall not be held liable upon the failure of the property owner to pay such fees.

(b) Every generator assessed the fees or charges provided for and limited by this section and the owner of the property occupied by that generator shall be jointly and severally liable for the fees and/or charges so assessed. The fees or charges shall be a lien upon the real property offered garbage and/or rubbish collection and/or disposal service.

At the discretion of the governing body of the municipality, fees or charges assessed for the service may be assessed annually. If fees or charges are assessed annually, the fees or charges for each calendar year shall be a lien upon the real property offered the service beginning on January 1 of the next immediately succeeding calendar year. The person or entity owing the fees or charges, upon signing a form provided by the governing authority, may pay the fees or charges in equal installments.

If fees or charges so assessed are assessed on a basis other than annually, the fees or charges shall become a lien on the real property offered the service on the date that the fees or charges become due and payable.

No real or personal property shall be sold to satisfy any lien imposed under this section.

The municipality shall mail a notice of the lien, including the amount of unpaid fees or charges and a description of the property subject to the lien, to the owner of the property subject to the lien.

(c) The municipal governing body shall notify the county tax collector of any unpaid fees or charges assessed under this section within ninety (90) days after such fees or charges are due. Upon receipt of a delinquency notice, the tax collector shall not issue or renew a motor vehicle road and bridge privilege license for any motor vehicle owned by a person who is delinquent in the payment of fees or charges, unless such fees or charges, in addition to any other taxes or fees assessed against the motor vehicle, are paid.

(d) Liens created under this section may be discharged as follows:

(i) By filing with the municipal tax collector a receipt or acknowledgment, signed by the municipality, that the lien has been paid or discharged; or

(ii) By depositing with the municipal tax collector money equal to the amount of the claim, which money shall be held for the benefit of the municipality.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Subsection (d) permits a municipality to enter into contracts with a county enabling the municipality to use a landfill; thus, incurring the expense for a gate fee for garbage and rubbish disposal and approving the claim for same, are authorized by the statute. Snyder, March 17, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0136.

Municipal governing authorities may charge their citizens for the collection of solid waste based upon the volume of garbage generated; charges based on volume of garbage generated must be reasonably calculated to meet the costs of the collection/disposal system. Prichard, March 31, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0147.

The more specific language of subdivision (2)(d) of this section, which authorizes governing authorities to grant exemptions to certain established categories of generators of garbage or rubbish on a case-by-case basis is controlling over the general language of § 21-27-27, prohibiting systems from furnishing free services. Bobo, Jan. 16, 2004, A.G. Op. 03-0703.

§ 21-19-3. Controlling contagious or infectious diseases; establishing pesthouses.

The governing authorities of municipalities shall have the power to make regulations to prevent the introduction and spread of contagious or infectious diseases; to make quarantine laws for that purpose, and to enforce the same within five miles of the corporate limits; and to establish pesthouses outside the corporate limits, and to provide for the support and government of the same.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Much must be left to municipal authorities' discretion in exercising granted authority to make regulations to secure general health and to prevent introduction of contagious diseases and presumption favors reasonableness of such regulations. Hartman v. May, 168 Miss. 477, 151 So. 737, 93 A.L.R. 1408 (1934).

Ordinance requiring children's vaccination against smallpox as condition to their admission to public schools held valid as reasonable exercise of power to make regulations to prevent introduction and spread of contagious diseases, though no smallpox epidemic existed. Hartman v. May, 168 Miss. 477, 151 So. 737, 93 A.L.R. 1408 (1934).

In determining validity of ordinance enacted under statute authorizing municipality to make regulations to secure general health and prevent spread of contagious diseases, court will not consider wisdom of ordinance but merely whether it constitutes reasonable exercise of power granted. Hartman v. May, 168 Miss. 477, 151 So. 737, 93 A.L.R. 1408 (1934).

Ordinance forbidding barber shops to open before 7:30 a.m. or remain open after 6:30 p.m. could not be held valid on ground it was designed to fix reasonable time for inspecting barber shops. Knight v. Johns, 161 Miss. 519, 137 So. 509 (1931).

The court itself should construe a municipal ordinance and not submit it to a jury for construction. Town of Pass Christian v. Washington, 81 Miss. 470, 34 So. 225 (1903).

An ordinance appointing a physician health officer of a municipality and directing him to take "the necessary sanitary precautions for the general good and health of the town," is not a contract binding the municipality to pay the physician for professional services rendered patients. Town of Pass Christian v. Washington, 81 Miss. 470, 34 So. 225 (1903).

There is no authority to enforce an ordinance compelling the connection of property located outside the municipal corporate limits to sewers and drains under the statute. Meyer, July 24, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0405.

The legislative intent is to authorize municipalities to prevent public health hazards and, therefore, the governing authorities of municipalities may go onto private property to eliminate pigeons or to perform minor carpentry work to prevent pigeons from roosting where they have grown to constitute a health problem. Tullos, November 20, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0682.

It is legal for the municipal governing authorities to permit city personnel to enter onto private property such as backyards and other spaces, with the owner's permission, to spray for mosquitoes, where the governing authorities have found and determined that to do so will protect the public health and safety or will abate a public nuisance. Fernald, Sept. 12, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0488.

It is legal for a city to pass an ordinance which allows entry onto private property for the purpose of spraying for mosquitoes; however, to enter onto private property to spray for mosquitoes against the wishes of the landowner would require due process, either pursuant to 21-19-11 or otherwise. Fernald, Sept. 12, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0488.

The governing authorities of municipalities shall have the power and authority to donate a sum, not to exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) per month, to maintain a charity ward or wards in any hospital situated in the same county in which such municipality is located.

All municipalities within the several counties of this state bordering on the tidewater of the Gulf of Mexico, are hereby authorized and empowered, in the discretion of the proper authorities thereof, to appropriate such a sum of money as said authorities shall deem reasonable, to provide and maintain a charity ward or wards, in any of the hospitals in said municipalities, or, in the discretion of said authorities, to make and enter into contracts with any such hospitals for the treatment and care in such hospitals of the indigent sick of said municipalities, and to pay therefor out of the general fund of such municipalities such sum or sums, as shall be a reasonable and just compensation to said hospital.

In addition, the governing authorities of municipalities shall have the power and authority to donate and furnish free of charge lights, power and water from municipally-owned electric light and water plants to hospitals or benevolent institutions located within any such municipality.

The governing authorities of municipalities shall have the power to prevent or regulate the running at large of animals of all kinds, and to cause such as may be running at large to be impounded and sold to discharge the costs and penalties provided for the violation of such regulations and the expense of impounding and keeping and selling the same; to regulate and provide for the taxing of owners and harborers of dogs, and to destroy dogs running at large, unless such dogs have proper identification indicating that said dogs have been vaccinated for rabies; and to provide for the erection of all needful pens, pounds and buildings for the use of the municipality, within or without the municipal limits, and to appoint and confirm keepers thereof, and to establish and enforce rules governing the same.

The governing authorities of municipalities may enter into pacts, agreements or contracts with other municipalities to provide for cooperation in the use or erection of all pens, pounds and buildings to prevent or regulate the running at large of animals of all kinds.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Section 21-19-9, authorizing municipalities to regulate the running at large of animals of all kinds, authorized a municipality to impound dogs even though those dogs had been vaccinated and registered. The destruction of a dog after five days' posted notice, pursuant to an ordinance enacted under the authority of this section, did not amount to a taking of private property without due process of law. City of Water Valley v. Trusty, 343 So. 2d 471 (Miss. 1977).

This section [Code 1942, § 3374-153] does not make city pound keepers members of the police force, but implies the contrary. City of Hattiesburg v. Jackson, 235 Miss. 109, 108 So. 2d 596 (1959).

A dog found on the street and unaccompanied by its owner or master will be deemed to be running at large within the meaning of such ordinance. Julienne v. Mayor of Jackson, 69 Miss. 34, 10 So. 43 (1891).

A municipality may, in the exercise of its police power conferred by charter, provide by ordinance that unmuzzled dogs running at large shall be killed. Such ordinance violates no constitutional right of the owner although his property be destroyed without notice to him. Julienne v. Mayor of Jackson, 69 Miss. 34, 10 So. 43 (1891).

§ 21-19-11. Cleaning private property; notice; lien.

(1) The governing authority of any municipality is authorized, on its own motion, or upon the receipt of a petition requesting the municipal authority to so act signed by a majority of the residents residing within four hundred (400) feet of any property or parcel of land alleged to be in need of cleaning, to give notice to the property owner by United States mail two (2) weeks before the date of a hearing, or by service of notice as provided in this section by a police officer at least two (2) weeks before the date of a hearing, or if the property owner or his address is unknown, then by two (2) weeks' notice in a newspaper having a general circulation in the municipality, of a hearing to determine whether or not the property or land is in such a state of uncleanness as to be a menace to the public health and safety of the community. If, at such hearing, the governing authority shall, adjudicate the property or land in its then condition to be a menace to the public health and safety of the community, the governing authority shall, if the owner does not do so himself, proceed to clean the land, by the use of municipal employees or by contract, by cutting weeds; filling cisterns; removing rubbish, dilapidated fences, outside toilets, dilapidated buildings and other debris; and draining cesspools and standing water therefrom. Thereafter, the governing authority may, at its next regular meeting, by resolution adjudicate the actual cost of cleaning the property and may also impose a penalty of One Thousand Five Hundred ($1,500.00) or fifty percent (50%) of such actual cost, whichever is more. The cost and any penalty may become a civil debt against the property owner, or, at the option of the governing authority, an assessment against the property. The cost assessed against the property means the cost to the municipality of using its own employees to do the work or the cost to the municipality of any contract executed by the municipality to have the work done. The action herein authorized shall not be undertaken against any one (1) parcel of land more than six (6) times in any one (1) calendar year, and the expense of cleaning of said property shall not exceed an aggregate amount of Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) per year, or the fair market value of the property subsequent to cleaning, whichever is less. If it is determined by the governing authority that it is necessary to clean any property or land more than once within a calendar year, then the municipality may clean it provided notice to the property owner is given by United States mail to the last known address at least ten (10) days before cleaning the property. The governing authority may assess the same penalty for each time the property or land is cleaned as otherwise provided in this section. The penalty provided herein shall not be assessed against the State of Mississippi upon request for reimbursement under Section 29-1-145, nor shall a municipality clean a parcel owned by the State of Mississippi without first giving notice.

(2) In the event the governing authority declares, by resolution, that the cost and any penalty shall be collected as a civil debt, the governing authority may authorize the institution of a suit on open account against the owner of the property in a court of competent jurisdiction in the manner provided by law for the cost and any penalty, plus court costs, reasonable attorney's fees and interest from the date that the property was cleaned.

(3) In the event that the governing authority does not declare that the cost and any penalty shall be collected as a civil debt, then the assessment above provided for shall be a lien against the property and may be enrolled in the office of the circuit clerk of the county as other judgments are enrolled, and the tax collector of the municipality shall, upon order of the board of governing authorities, proceed to sell the land to satisfy the lien as now provided by law for the sale of lands for delinquent municipal taxes.

(4) All decisions rendered under the provisions of this section may be appealed in the same manner as other appeals from municipal boards or courts are taken.

(5) The police officer's return on the notice may be in one (1) of the following forms:

(a) Form of personal notice:

"I have this day delivered the within notice personally, by delivering to the within named property owner, _____ (here state name of party summoned), a true copy of this notice.

"This, the _____ day of _____ 20____.

____ (Police Officer)"

(b) Form of notice where copy left at residence:

"I have this day delivered the within notice to _____, within named property owner, by leaving a true copy of the same at his (or her) usual place of abode in my municipality, with _____, his (or her) (here insert wife, husband, son, daughter or some other person, as the case may be), _____ a member of his (or her) family above the age of sixteen (16) years, and willing to receive such copy. The said property owner is not found in my municipality.

This, the _____ day of _____ 20____.

____ (Police Officer)"

(c) Form of return when property owner not found within municipality and is a nonresident thereof:

"I have this day attempted to deliver the within notice to _____, the within named property owner, and after diligent search and inquiry, I failed to find the same property owner within my municipality, nor could I ascertain the location of any residence of the property owner within my municipality.

This, the _____ day of _____ 20____.

____ (Police Officer)"

The first mode of notice should be made, if it can be; if not, then the second mode should be made, if it can be; and the return of the second mode of service must negate the officer's ability to make the first. If neither the first nor second mode of service can be made, then the third mode should be made, and the return thereof must negate the officer's ability to make both the first and second. In the event the third mode of service is made, then service shall also be made by publication as provided in subsection (1) of this section.

(6) The officer shall mark on all notices the day of the receipt thereof by him, and he shall return the same on or before the day of the hearing, with a written statement of his proceedings thereon. For failing to note the time of the receipt of notice or for failing to return the same, the officer shall forfeit to the party aggrieved the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00).

(7) Nothing contained under this section shall prevent any municipality from enacting criminal penalties for failure to maintain property so as not to constitute a menace to public health, safety and welfare.

and received by a co-owner, as evidenced by her signature on a certified mail receipt. Bray v. City of Meridian, 723 So. 2d 1200 (Ct. App. 1998).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Municipality may defer imposition of cost of cleaning real estate until next meeting of governing authority after work is completed; cost and any penalty may become assessment against property and assessment is lien against property and may be enrolled in office of circuit clerk of county; upon order of board of governing authorities, tax collector will sell property to satisfy lien. Ewing, May 16, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0339.

City may drain standing water formerly contained by dam on private property not maintained by its owner, but may not restore dam and pond. Henderson, July 8, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0464.

City cannot impose lien on state-owned property pursuant to Miss. Code Section 21-19-11. Lamar, Jan. 15, 1993, A.G. Op. #92-1002.

Section 21-19-11 is enforceable against undeveloped properties. Mercer, March 25, 1994, A.G. Op. #94-0155.

So long as the provisions of this section and Section 47-5-401 are followed, a municipality may contract with the Mississippi Department of Corrections to use inmate labor for public service work such as the cleaning of private property under this section. Pierce, Dec. 19, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0676.

A municipality may not extinguish a lien obtained in connection with cleaning/removal assessments even if the property is acquired by and the purposes of Habitat for Humanity. Horne, March 27, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0089.

Pursuant to this section, and after the notice and hearing required thereby, the governing authority of a municipality may find, consistent with fact, and encompass such findings in an order spread upon its minutes, that a parcel of land is in such a state of uncleanness as to be a menace to the public health and safety of a community. Donald, January 29, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0018.

A city has no obligation to remove debris located in a stream or drainage way to assist an industry in performing testing and remediation; however, should the municipal governing authorities make the factual determination that such work is necessary for the promotion of the health, comfort, or convenience of inhabitants of the municipality, they may authorize the expenditure of municipal funds on drainage work on a natural water course, which may include the removal of impediments to the natural flow of water through the water course. Lawrence, Apr. 23, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0233.

The statute authorizes municipal governing authorities to clean property which has been adjudicated to be a menace to the public health and safety and to assess the cost as a lien against the property after following the procedures in the statute, including giving the owner notice and a opportunity to be heard at a hearing; the statute authorizes governing authorities to clean property by removing rubbish and debris, which may include abandoned or junk vehicles. Povall, Oct. 12, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0641.

Property sold pursuant to Section 21-19-11 may be sold by the county for the benefit of the city pursuant to an inter-local agreement but may not be included in the unified tax sale. Beam, Dec. 6, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0607.

This section does not require notice to a lienholder before taking action to clean property or demolish a structure that has been determined to be in a condition posing a menace to the public health and safety. Alexander, Dec. 6, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0704.

Provided a municipality has complied with all the procedural requirements of this section, a county has the authority to lend equipment and operators to the municipality to perform demolition work. With specific statutory authority such as that found in Section 17-5-15, there would be no requirement to enter into an Inter-local Cooperation Agreement to perform the work. McWilliams, July 25, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0372.

Generally, municipalities may not use public funds and equipment on private property except when such use is incidental to a proper municipal purpose, such as cleaning property pursuant to this section. No authority can be found for a municipality to clean ditches and mow grass in the ditches on private property or to mow grass adjacent to but not on the rights-of-way of city streets with the permission of the landowners. Fernald, Aug. 8, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0408.

After following all procedures set forth in this section, a municipality may enter property and cut weeds and/r high grass and spray herbicide; as this spraying can be properly classified as "cleaning," it is appropriate to assess the cost of such cleaning. Artman, Aug. 29, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0455.

It is legal for the municipal governing authorities to permit city personnel to enter onto private property such as backyards and other spaces, with the owner's permission, to spray for mosquitoes, where the governing authorities have found and determined that to do so will protect the public health and safety or will abate a public nuisance. Fernald, Sept. 12, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0488.

In the exercise of its powers under § 21-19-21, a municipality is not specifically required to utilize the same procedures for notice and hearing set forth in § 21-19-11. The municipality may enact its own provisions with regard to notice to property owners. Baker, Nov. 21, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0615.

A municipality is not limited to the $10,000.00 amount found in § 21-19-11 for the cleaning of property pursuant to that section. There is no limitation on the amount which may be expended to "take down and remove buildings, walls, and super structures." Baker, Nov. 21, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0615.

A municipality may not simply add a criminal penalty to the process of cleaning property as found in this section. Miller, June 4, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0173.

By use of the word "may" in this section the legislature indicated its intent to make the decision whether to adjudicate the cost of the cleaning to the owner of the property a discretionary one. Further, the municipality may accept a gift of property for a museum. White, Aug. 20, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0412.

A town may utilize the procedures outlined in this section for cleaning or cutting tall grass on private property, regardless of whether the property is owned by an individual or business. Bankston, Aug. 27, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0427.

§ 21-19-12. Lien amnesty for nonprofits and others interested in developing blighted real estate.

(1) The governing authority of any municipality may forgive liens imposed on real property for the costs, fines, penalties and other assessments associated with the municipality's cleaning of real property pursuant to Section 21-19-11, Mississippi Code of 1972, subject to the following:

(a) The real property must be in a blighted condition if it has been vacant and in a deteriorated condition which necessitated the municipality's imposition of a lien in order to correct specific code violations.

(b) The liens imposed by the municipality must have been in existence and declared uncollectible for a period of at least two (2) years.

(c) The real property must be purchased by a nonprofit entity or for-profit developer and converted from its blighted condition. For purposes of this section, "nonprofit" entity means an association, organization, or corporation which is a nonprofit organization in accordance with Section

501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and provides proof of its tax exempt status. "For-profit developer" means an individual partnership or corporation other than the real property's owner who purchases property considered to be in blighted condition and converts it to productive use.

(d) The nonprofit entity or for-profit developer must have obtained the blighted estate for a sum not exceeding seventy percent (70%) of the real estate's appraised value.

(2) The for-profit developer or nonprofit entity must file an application with the municipality seeking lien amnesty. The application must include the following:

- (a) The contract of sale;
- (b) Appraisal reports from two (2) reputable real estate appraisers; and
- (c) Plans for the real estate's development and anticipated use.

(3) The for-profit developer or nonprofit entity may be granted conditional lien amnesty and allowed eighteen (18) months to develop the blighted real property. For good cause shown, the municipality may allow the for profit developer or nonprofit entity an additional six (6) to twelve (12) months to develop the blighted property.

(4) If the blighted property remains undeveloped after eighteen (18) months and the municipality has not extended the period for development of the real estate, the nonprofit entity or for-profit developer must pay the principal amount of the municipality's lien plus interest at the rate of eight percent (8%) per annum.

(5) If the nonprofit entity or for-profit developer desires to sell or dispose of the real property prior to its development, the nonprofit entity or for-profit developer must first obtain the municipality's approval. If the municipality approves the sale or disposal of the real estate prior to development, the nonprofit entity or for-profit developer shall pay the principal amount of the lien on or before the closing date of the sale unless a subsequent purchaser of the blighted real property has applied for and been granted conditional lien amnesty.

(6) If a for-profit developer or nonprofit entity sells or disposes of the real property prior to development from its blighted condition without the municipality's approval, then the for-profit developer or nonprofit entity shall be liable to the city for the principal amount of the lien plus interest at the rate of eight percent (8%), and a penalty of One Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($1,500.00) will also be assessed against the developer.

(7) Conditional lien amnesty may not be sold, conveyed, transferred or assigned.

(8) No lien imposed upon real property pursuant to the provisions of Section 21-19-11 shall be finally released until real property in a blighted condition has been developed according to plan.

Joint Legislative Committee Note — Pursuant to Section 1-1-109, the Joint Legislative Committee on Compilation, Revision and Publication of Legislation corrected a typographical error in the second sentence of Subsection (3). The word “entity” was inserted following “nonprofit.” The Joint Committee ratified the correction at its June 3, 2003 meeting.

Pursuant to Section 1-1-109, the Joint Legislative Committee on Compilation, Revision and Publication of Legislation corrected an enacting error in the last sentence of subsection (3). The words “for-profit” and “entity” were inserted preceding “developer” and following “non-profit” respectively. In the last sentence of subsection (5), “real” was substituted for “realty.” The Joint Committee ratified the correction at its July 8, 2004 meeting.

§ 21-19-13. Changes of streams and bridges; clean drainage ditches and prevent erosion; levying taxes to pay for authorized works.

(1) The governing authorities of municipalities shall have the power to establish, alter and change the channels of streams or other water courses, and to bridge the same, whenever so to do will promote the health, comfort and convenience of the inhabitants of such municipality.

(2) The governing authorities of any municipality shall also have the power and authority to incur costs and pay necessary expenses in providing labor, materials and supplies to clean or clear drainage ditches, creeks or channels, whether on public or private property, and to incur costs and pay necessary expenses in providing labor, materials and supplies in order to prevent erosion where such erosion has been caused or will be caused by such drainage ditches, creeks or channels. This paragraph shall not impose any obligation or duty upon the municipality and shall not create any additional rights for the benefit of any owner of public or private property.

(3) No additional taxes shall be imposed for the works authorized under subsections (1) and (2) of this section until the governing authorities shall adopt a resolution declaring its intention to levy the taxes and establishing the amount of the tax levies and the date on which the taxes initially will be levied and collected. This date shall be the first day of a month but not earlier than the first day of the second month from the date of adoption of the resolution. Notice of the proposed tax levies shall be published once each week for at least three (3) weeks in a newspaper having a general circulation in the municipality. The first publication of the notice shall be made not less than twenty-one (21) days before the date fixed in the resolution on which the governing authorities propose to levy the taxes, and the last publication of the notice shall be made not more than seven (7) days before that date. If, within the time of giving notice, fifteen percent (15%) or two thousand five hundred (2,500), whichever is less, of the qualified electors of the municipality file a written petition against the levy of the taxes, then the taxes shall not be levied unless authorized by three-fifths (3/5) of the qualified electors of the municipality voting at an election to be called and held for that purpose.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
2. Definitions.
3. Culverts.
4. Bridges.

1. In general.

Municipalities have no powers except those expressly given by the legislature. Mayor of Pascagoula v. Delmas, 108 Miss. 91, 66 So. 329 (1914).

2. Definitions.

Artificial channel serving principally in lieu of original channel for period of prescription becomes "water course." Scranton-Pascagoula Realty Co. v. City of Pascagoula, 157 Miss. 498, 128 So. 73 (1930).

Bayou with channel and well-defined banks was "water course" within statute requiring ratification by voters of alteration of channel by municipality. Scranton-Pascagoula Realty Co. v. City of Pascagoula, 157 Miss. 498, 128 So. 73 (1930).

3. Culverts.

City had right to construct culvert under undeveloped street without consent of dedicatory and abutting landowners. Scranton-Pascagoula Realty Co. v. City of Pascagoula, 157 Miss. 498, 128 So. 73 (1930).

Construction of culvert to drain bayou alters channel within law relating to ratification by voters in such cases. Scranton-Pascagoula Realty Co. v. City of Pascagoula, 157 Miss. 498, 128 So. 73 (1930).

Municipality may use street for any purpose not inconsistent with use as highway, and rights are not limited to surface of street. Scranton-Pascagoula Realty Co.

v. City of Pascagoula, 157 Miss. 498, 128 So. 73 (1930).

4. Bridges.

It is actionable negligence for a city to remove a bridge over a ditch in a densely populated district and provide and maintain for the passage of pedestrians over the same insecure planks, causing injuries to one wholly without fault or knowledge of the insecurity of the planks or bridge so provided by the city. Stainback v. Mayor of Meridian, 79 Miss. 447, 28 So. 947 (1900).

If the plaintiff, knowing the bridge was unsafe, ventures upon it without apparent necessity and is injured, he is guilty of contributory negligence and cannot recover. Stainback v. Mayor of Meridian, 79 Miss. 447, 28 So. 947 (1900).

Where planks were placed over a ditch in the streets for the convenience of the city laborers in transporting rocks across the ditch and barricades were erected to warn the public of the danger of crossing, a schoolgirl, who disregarded the barricades, went around them and suffered injury by the giving way of the planks while she was crossing on them has no cause of action against the city. Stainback v. Mayor of Meridian, 79 Miss. 447, 28 So. 947 (1900).

Recovery cannot be had for the injuries caused by the falling of a defective bridge unless it be shown that the defect was known to the authorities, or was so notorious that it was negligence not to know it; If the defect was concealed and not observable by ordinary care and attention, the municipality is not liable. Cohea v. Mayor of Coffeeville, 69 Miss. 561, 13 So. 668 (1891).

Although municipalities may not generally provide drainage or flood control services for private individuals, they may perform work on private property for the purpose of controlling flooding on city streets, and, with the permission of the private property owner, they may perform drainage work on private property for the purpose of mitigating damage and unsafe conditions caused by the municipality in draining city streets. Fisher, Aug. 15, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0423.

The governing authorities of a city may repair the spillway of a stream-fed lake owned by a nonprofit private corporation in the municipality if they determine on the minutes, consistent with fact, subject to a review by a court of competent jurisdiction, that the work will promote the health, comfort, and convenience of the inhabitants. Childers, August 7, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0469.

A city had authority to incur expenses to perform work on a rainwater drainage problem along streets that adversely affected nearby property. Tyner, June 7, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0233.

Governing authorities of city have the authority to perform work on the mayor's private property with his permission to repair a culvert and prevent blockage of an underground concrete drain. Hammack, Nov. 15, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0639.

The governing authorities of a town have the authority to perform work on a natural water course on private property in order to alleviate erosion on private property; the authorities would have to find, consistent with fact, and spread upon the minutes, that the damage was caused by the way in which the public street was drained. Brown, Dec. 20, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0721.

Pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, a city has authority to perform work within a subdivision to alleviate erosion. Baker, Mar. 28, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0123.

A city may perform work on private property adjacent to the city right-of-way with the permission of the landowner to correct unsafe conditions, i.e., erosion or sinkholes, or flooding, which were directly caused by the way in which the municipality drained the city streets. Holmes-Hines, Aug. 22, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0422.

The provision of subsection (1) of this section permitting municipal governing authorities to perform work on natural watercourses located not only on public property, but on private property as well, does not extend to private properties located outside the municipal corporate limits. Adams, July 30, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0355.

Subsection (2) of this section gives municipal governing authorities the authority to perform work on drainage ditches, creeks or channels at municipal expense to prevent erosion and creates the duty to maintain its property in a safe manner. This authority and duty exists regardless of whether the property on which the drainage ditch, creek or channel is located is public or private, and whether the private property which was damaged by drainage from city property is located within the municipal corporate limits. Adams, July 30, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0355.

(1) The governing authorities of municipalities shall have power to make all needful police regulations necessary for the preservation of good order and peace of the municipality and to prevent injury to, destruction of, or interference with public or private property.

(2) The governing authority of a municipality shall have the power to regulate or prohibit any mill, laundry or manufacturing plant from operating whereby the soot, cinders or smoke therefrom, or the unnecessary noises thereof, may do damage to or interfere with the use or occupation of public or private property.

(3) The governing authority of a municipality shall have the power to prohibit or regulate the sale or use of firecrackers, roman candles, torpedoes, sky rockets, and any and all explosives commonly known and referred to as fireworks; the term "fireworks" shall not include toy pistols, toy canes, toy guns, other devices in which paper caps manufactured in accordance with United States Interstate Commerce Commission regulations for packing and shipping of toy paper caps are used, or toy pistol paper caps manufactured as provided herein, the sale and use of which shall be permitted at all times.

(4) The governing authority of a municipality may enact an ordinance specifying the manner and means by which a motor vehicle may be immobilized due to failure of the record title owner of the motor vehicle to pay traffic or parking fines totaling over Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00).

(5) The governing authority of a municipality may not enforce an ordinance regulating or restricting parking on any public street or roadway unless signage that adequately describes the parking regulation or restriction is posted within two hundred fifty (250) feet of the portion of the street or roadway where parking is regulated or restricted.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
2. Regulating motor vehicles.
3. —Salesmen.
4. —Parades.
5. Restraining enforcement of void ordinance.
6. Under former law.

1. In general.

A city ordinance which made it a criminal offense for any business to be open after 10 o'clock was invalid in the absence of showing that the ordinance was necessary for the preservation of good order and peace of municipality and to prevent destruction of public or private property. Goodin v. City of Philadelphia, 222 Miss. 77, 75 So. 2d 279 (1954).

A municipality cannot pass a criminal ordinance on a subject more severe or comprehensive than the state statute dealing with that subject. City of Amory v. Yielding, 203 Miss. 265, 34 So. 2d 726 (1948).

An ordinance allegedly enacted pursuant to this section [Code 1942, § 3374-124], making it unlawful for business places to keep open after 11 P.M., and prescribing a penalty for its violation, as applied to a grocery store, constituted a deprivation of the property right of the owner without due process of law and an unreasonable restraint of trade not per se or per accidens a nuisance. Town of McCool v. Blaine, 194 Miss. 221, 11 So. 2d 801 (1943).

An instance where an affidavit under an ordinance charged no offense thereunder and on appeal in the circuit court the affidavit was allowed to be amended. City of Pascagoula v. Seymour, 136 Miss. 502, 101 So. 576 (1924).

A city has power to pass an ordinance making any act amounting to a misdemeanor under the state laws an offense against the municipality. Richards v. Town of Magnolia, 100 Miss. 249, 56 So. 386 (1911).

An ordinance may provide that all offenses which are misdemeanors against the state shall constitute offenses against a municipality when committed within its limits, and such ordinance incorporates into the ordinances of the municipality all state laws relative to misdemeanors. Smothers v. City of Jackson, 92 Miss. 327, 45 So. 982 (1908).

A municipality cannot as a police regulation impose taxes on junk stores. Taxation is not within the police power. Pitts v. City of Vicksburg, 72 Miss. 181, 16 So. 418 (1894).

2. Regulating motor vehicles.

This section [Code 1942, § 3374-124] does not authorize a municipality to establish an automobile testing station and engage in the business of testing automobiles, and consequently a municipality had no authority to contract for the purchase of equipment for such purpose. Davenport v. Blackmur, 184 Miss. 836, 186 So. 321 (1939).

For the purpose of prohibiting incapacitated and incompetent and reckless persons from driving motor vehicles upon the streets in disregard to the public safety, a municipality has a right to regulate such matters by ordinance. Wasson v. City of Greenville, 123 Miss. 642, 86 So. 450 (1920).

3. —Salesmen.

Where a city passed an ordinance making it unlawful for transient vendors to go in and upon private residences, and in and upon private property and buildings other than residences, without first having been requested or invited to do so by the owner or occupant, for the purpose of soliciting orders for the sale of goods or selling the same, the ordinance was valid as it applied to soliciting in private residences but was invalid as to property and buildings other than residences, which includes primarily business offices and stores. Day v. Klein, 225 Miss. 191, 82 So. 2d 831 (1955).

However, a municipality has no authority to require by ordinance a solicitor going from house to house selling or taking orders for goods for future delivery or services to be performed in the future, etc., to give bond conditioned that he will make delivery or perform the services according to contract. City of Kosciusko v. No Equal Textile Co., 139 Miss. 220, 104 So. 102 (1925).

4. —Parades.

An ordinance which confers upon the chief of police of a city unrestricted discretion as to who shall or shall not parade or march on the sidewalks or streets of the city, with no standards as to time, place of marching, or any other feature is null and void. King v. City of Clarksdale, 186 So. 2d 228 (Miss. 1966).

5. Restraining enforcement of void ordinance.

An injunction will lie against the enforcement of a void ordinance where it is about to be enforced. Fitzhugh v. City of Jackson, 132 Miss. 585, 97 So. 190, 33 A.L.R. 279 (1923).

6. Under former law.

Ordinance prohibiting sale, possession, or control of fireworks within city limits is invalid as unreasonable, since possession and sale of fireworks is regarded as lawful in the state and the subject of privilege tax, and as not authorized by any state statute making the offense described therein a misdemeanor against the state.

King v. City of Louisville, 207 Miss. 612, 42 So. 2d 813 (1949).

A municipality is not liable for torts of officers and agents in attempt to enforce ordinances and other regulations adopted under police powers. Bradley v. City of Jackson, 153 Miss. 136, 119 So. 811 (1928).

Miss. Code Section 21-19-15 authorizes municipalities to enact regulations to prevent destruction of public property; in addition, Miss. Code Section 21-17-5 gives municipalities responsibility for care, management and control of municipal property; therefore, municipality may, by ordinance, impose weight limit on trucks being driven on municipal streets. Clark, June 9, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0348.

A municipal police department has concurrent jurisdiction with state security personnel over criminal over criminal activity that occurs on state-owned property located within the municipal boundaries, but since there is no authority which gives primary jurisdiction to one agency over another, a cooperative effort should be made on the part of all agencies with jurisdiction to evaluate each occurrence of criminal activity on an individual basis and make a decision as to who should have primary jurisdiction based on the circumstances of the incident and the resources of each investigating agency. Prichard, January 16, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0009.

A developer or a homeowner's association may install a security gate on a public street at the entrance to a subdivision and the governing authorities may in their sole discretion close the street during certain periods of the day after proper findings of fact. Ward, April 17, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0206.

A municipality may enforce an ordinance prohibiting the sale and possession of fireworks in a recently annexed area and may prohibit the sale of fireworks by businesses which sold fireworks before the area was annexed. Davis, April 24, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0224.

While a municipality has the power to make all needful police regulations, this

An ordinance making the storage or keeping for sale of intoxicating liquors an offense against the municipality was valid. Hurley v. City of Corinth, 97 Miss. 396, 52 So. 695 (1910).

§ 21-19-20. Proceedings to demolish abandoned houses or buildings used for sale or use of drugs or constituting public hazard or nuisance.

(1)(a) A municipality shall institute proceedings to have demolished an abandoned house or building that is used for the sale or use of drugs. The local law enforcement authority of the municipality shall have documented proof of drug sales or use in the abandoned property before a municipality may initiate proceedings to have the property demolished.

(b)(i) A municipality shall institute proceedings to have an abandoned house or building demolished if the governing authority of the municipality determines that the house or building is a menace to the public health and safety of the community and that it constitutes a public hazard and nuisance.

(ii) Upon the receipt of a petition requesting the municipality to demolish an abandoned house or building that constitutes a public hazard and nuisance signed by a majority of the residents residing within four hundred (400) feet of the property, the governing authority of the municipality shall notify the property owner that the petition has been filed and that a date for a hearing on the petition has been set. Notice to the property owner shall be by United States mail, or if the property owner or his address is unknown, publication of the notice shall be made twice each week during two (2) successive weeks in a public newspaper of the county in which the municipality is located; where there is no newspaper in the county, the notice shall be published in a newspaper having a general circulation in the state. The hearing shall be held not less than thirty (30) nor more than sixty (60) days after service or completion of publication of the notice. At the hearing, the governing authority shall determine whether the property is a menace to the public health and safety of the community which constitutes a public hazard and nuisance. If the governing authority determines that the property is a public hazard and nuisance, the municipality shall institute proceedings under subsection (2) of this section to demolish the abandoned house or building.

(2) The municipality shall file a petition to declare the abandoned property a public hazard and nuisance and to have the property demolished with the circuit clerk of the county in which the property or some part of the property is located. All of the owners of the property involved, and any mortgagee, trustee, or other person having any interest in or lien on the property shall be made defendants to the proceedings. The circuit clerk shall present the petition to the circuit judge who, by written order directed to the circuit clerk, shall fix the time and place for the hearing of the matter in termtime or vacation. The time of the hearing shall be fixed on a date to allow sufficient time for each defendant named to be served with process, as otherwise provided by law, not less than thirty (30) days before the hearing. If a defendant or other party in interest is not served for the specified time before the date fixed, the hearing shall be continued to a day certain to allow the thirty-day period specified.

(3) Any cost incurred by a municipality for demolishing abandoned property shall be paid by the owners of the property.

§ 21-19-21. Enacting fire regulations.

The governing authorities of municipalities shall have the power to establish fire limits, and to regulate, restrain, or prohibit the erection of buildings made of sheet iron, wood, or any combustible material, within such limits as may be prescribed by ordinance, and to provide for the removal of the same at the expense of the owner thereof when erected contrary to the ordinances of the municipality. Such authorities shall have the power to regulate and prevent the storing of green hides and the carrying on of manufactures dangerous in causing or producing fires, injurious to health, or obnoxious or offensive to the inhabitants. Such authorities shall have the power to regulate the storage of powder, pitch, turpentine, resin, hemp, hay, cotton, and all other combustible and inflammable materials, and the storage of lumber in yards or on lots within the fire limits or as may be prescribed by ordinance. Such authorities shall have the power to regulate the use of lights and candles in stables, shops, and other places. Such authorities shall have the power to remove or prevent the construction of any fireplace, chimney, stove, oven, boiler, kettle, or any apparatus used in any house, building, manufactory, or business which may be dangerous in causing or producing fires. Such authorities shall have the power to direct the safe construction of deposits for ashes. Such authorities shall have the power to enter into and examine all dwelling houses, lots, yards, inclosures, and buildings of every description as well as other places, in order to ascertain whether any of them are in a dangerous state. Such authorities shall have the power to take down and remove buildings, walls, and superstructures that may become insecure or dangerous, and to require the owner of insecure or dangerous buildings, walls, and other erections to remove or render the same secure and safe at the cost of the owner of such property. Such authorities shall have the power to regulate and prescribe the manner and order the building of party, parapet, and fire-walls and party-fences, and to regulate and prescribe the construction and building of chimneys, smokestacks, and smoke and hot-air flues.

Municipal ordinance prohibiting sale, possession, or control of fireworks within the city limits held unauthorized under this section. King v. City of Louisville, 207 Miss. 612, 42 So. 2d 813 (1949).

Municipal corporation is not responsible for destruction of property within its limits by fire which it did not set out, merely because, through negligence or other default of corporation or its employees, members of fire department failed to extinguish fire, though this failure is due to negligence in permitting fire hydrants to become defective; and it makes no difference that municipality uses same reservoirs and pipes for its fire service that it employs for distribution of public supply for domestic purposes, from which it derives profit, since the two functions are distinguishable. City of Columbus v. McIlwain, 205 Miss. 473, 38 So. 2d 921 (1949).

Laws of 1944, Chap. 208 (Code 1942, §§ 3825-01 to 3825-17), did not withdraw from municipalities any of the powers conferred by this section, but, where a fireman's position has been abolished, determine only his rights. City of Laurel v. Reddoch, 200 Miss. 259, 26 So. 2d 465 (1946).

It was error to grant the remedy of mandamus against the mayor and board of aldermen of a municipality to compel them to enforce a fire prevention ordinance enacted under this section, where the ordinance was wholly incomplete with respect to the means of enforcement of its provisions. Garraway v. State ex rel. Dale, 184 Miss. 466, 184 So. 628 (1938).

A municipality, after first finding what remains of the building is dangerous and insecure as a result of fire damage, enter upon the property and demolish the same and remove the debris therefrom. Baker, Nov. 21, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0615.

In the exercise of its powers under this section, a municipality is not specifically required to utilize the same procedures for notice and hearing set forth in § 21-19-11. The municipality may enact its own provisions with regard to notice to property owners. Baker, Nov. 21, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0615.

A municipality is not limited to the $10,000.00 amount found in § 21-19-11 for the cleaning of property pursuant to that section. There is no limitation on the amount which may be expended to "take down and remove buildings, walls, and superstructures." Baker, Nov. 21, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0615.

A municipality may not assess the cost of removal as a lien against the property; however, nothing would prevent a municipality from pursuing a civil action against the property owner for recovery of the actual expenses of the removal of the structure should it become necessary for it to do so. Baker, Nov. 21, 2003, A.G. § 21-19-25. Adoption, amendment and revision of building and other codes.

Any municipality within the State of Mississippi may, in the discretion of its governing authorities, adopt building codes, plumbing codes, electrical codes, gas codes, sanitary codes, or any other codes dealing with general public health, safety or welfare, or a combination of the same, by ordinance, in the manner prescribed in this section. Before any such code shall be adopted, it shall be either printed or typewritten, and it shall be presented in pamphlet form to the governing authorities of the municipality at a regular meeting. The ordinance adopting the code shall not set out the code in full, but shall merely identify the same. The vote on passage of the ordinance shall be the same as on any other ordinances. After its adoption, the code shall be certified to by the mayor and clerk of the municipality, and shall be filed as a permanent record in the office of the clerk, who shall not be required to transcribe and record the same in the ordinance book as other ordinances. It shall not be necessary that the ordinance adopting the code or the code itself be published in full, but notice of the adoption of the code shall be given by publication in some newspaper of the municipality for one (1) time, or if there be no such newspaper, by posting at three (3) or more public places within the corporate limits, a notice in substantially the following form:

Notice is given that the city (or town or village) of _____, on the (give date of ordinance adopting code), adopted (state type of code and other information serving to identify the same) code.

All the provisions of this section shall apply to amendments and revisions of the code mentioned in this section. Any code adopted in accordance with this section shall not be in force for one (1) month after its passage, unless the municipal authorities in the ordinance authorize to the contrary. The provisions of this section shall be in addition and supplemental to any existing laws authorizing the adoption, amendment or revision of municipal ordinances or codes.

Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, any code adopted by a municipality before or after April 12, 2001, is subject to the provisions of Section 41-26-14(10).

Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, the governing authorities of each municipality in Jackson, Harrison, Hancock, Stone and Pearl River Counties shall enforce the requirements imposed under Section 17-2-1 as provided in such section.

The provisions of this section shall apply to all municipalities of this state, whether operating under the code charter, a special charter, commission form, or other form of government.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Municipal ordinance requiring installation of smoke detectors in apartment buildings could not be collaterally attacked, for failure of municipality to comply with provisions of § 21-19-25 in enacting ordinance, by landlords in action against them for deaths of 2 tenants in fire in apartments not equipped with smoke detectors. Hill v. London, Stetelman, & Kirkwood, Inc., 906 F.2d 204 (5th Cir. 1990).

The authority given by Code 1972 § 21-19-25 to municipalities for the adoption of building codes does not go so far as to authorize municipalities to require the State Building Commission to submit plans and specifications for the construction of buildings or pay fees to municipalities for building permits; the grant of specific power to the Commission under Code 1972 § 31-11-3 to construct state buildings supersedes municipal building codes. City of Jackson v. Mississippi State Bldg. Comm'n, 350 So. 2d 63 (Miss. 1977).

A municipality is authorized to raze and remove an unsafe and unfit building at the expense of the property owner when he has failed and refused, after reasonable notice provided for in an ordinance adopting the building code, to either repair his building or remove it and clear his land. Bond v. City of Moss Point, 240 So. 2d 270 (Miss. 1970).

This section [Code 1942, § 3374-80] gives municipalities discretionary power to adopt building codes and related regulations. Berry v. Embrey, 238 Miss. 819, 120 So. 2d 165 (1960).

Op. #97-0753.

A municipality may adopt as its own the provisions of the Southern Building Code and may charge fees for building permits incident thereto; a city is responsible for enforcement of any codes so adopted, but, if no such code is adopted, then no enforcement power flows to the city. Brogdon, Jan. 21, 2000, A.G. Op. #99-0716.

A municipality may adopt an electrical and/or plumbing code which includes a provision that persons engaging in such business obtain a municipal license to engage in such business and may provide for inspection by the city, for compliance with the municipal code; a person performing electrical and/or plumbing work on his or her own home may not be required to obtain a license, but such work would be subject to inspection for compliance with the code by a county or municipality, if the county or municipality has a code so providing. Cameron, Apr. 23, 2001, A.G. There is no requirement that the governing authorities first conduct a public hearing before they adopt or amend the building codes of a municipality. Jones, Mar. 1, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0081.

Municipalities pursuant to this section may require building permits and inspections for any construction projects undertaken within the corporate limits; however, a municipality may not require contractors seeking to do building or construction work in the municipality to have a certificate of responsibility or license from the State Board of Contractors under §§ 31-3-1 et seq. or 73-59-1 et seq. as a prerequisite to obtaining a building permit. Clark, Oct. 11, 2002, A.G. ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

While local governing authorities cannot enact ordinances which have the purpose or effect of prohibiting bingo halls, they may enact reasonable ordinances governing operation of halls, including zoning restrictions or restrictions on hours of operation; restrictions on hours must not conflict with provisions of Section 97-33-67. Peoples, Dec. 18, 1992, A.G. § 21-19-35. Regulation of transient vendors and photographers; power of counties and municipalities; application of county and municipal ordinances.

The governing authorities of municipalities shall have the power to adopt reasonable ordinances for the regulation of transient vendors not inconsistent with the provisions of Sections 75-85-1 through 75-85-19. However, said authorities shall not have the power to declare residential solicitations by transient vendors who are citizens of the State of Mississippi, or who are agents of corporations domiciled in the State of Mississippi, or who are agents of foreign corporations qualified to do business in the State of Mississippi, to be a public nuisance or a misdemeanor, unless said transient vendors are not in compliance with Sections 75-85-1 through 75-85-19 or local regulations. Before transacting any business, all transient vendors shall furnish to the municipality wherein said business is to be transacted, a good and sufficient penal bond in an amount not to exceed Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) conditioned that if said transient vendor shall comply with all of the provisions of the municipal ordinances relating to transient vendors said obligation shall be void, otherwise, to remain in full force and effect. Any ordinance adopted by the governing authority of a municipality under the provisions of this section shall control as to the area within such municipality, regardless of the existence of a county ordinance.

The governing authorities of any municipality within this state are hereby authorized and empowered to adopt ordinances in the manner now provided by law to regulate the sale of goods, wares, or merchandise within the corporate limits of such municipality, subject to the provisions hereinafter named.

Such governing body is hereby authorized and empowered to enact an ordinance requiring any person, firm, or corporation desiring to conduct a sale commonly known as bankruptcy, insolvent, liquidation, assignee's, receiver's, trustee's, adjuster's, wholesale, manufacturer's, or closing-out sale, or a sale of goods damaged by fire, smoke, or water, or otherwise, to file with such governing authorities a petition for the privilege of conducting such sale, showing:

(a) the nature of the sale and the length of time required by the petitioner for conducting said sale;

(b) whether or not it is the purpose of said petitioner to replenish his stock of goods, wares, and merchandise during the course of the sale, and to what extent it is proposed to replenish said stock;

(c) the place of sale and approximate value of goods to be sold.

Such governing authorities may provide for a privilege tax in any sum not in excess of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) for the privilege of conducting such sale, and may provide that such privilege tax shall be good and valid only for the conduct of a sale of goods in the manner and at the time and place set forth and prescribed in the application for the privilege of conducting such sale.

Nothing in this section, however, shall be construed to authorize and empower municipal governing authorities to enact any ordinances to prevent or to interfere with any sale made by a trustee under a deed of trust or an assignment, or by sheriffs, constables, or other public or court officials, or by any other person or persons acting under the authority and/or direction of any court in the course of official duty, or by any duly licensed bona fide merchant of such municipality conducting a seasonal or special sale ordinarily conducted by merchants, or by any bona fide merchant who is closing out his stock of goods and advertises such sale to that effect, or by a bona fide merchant whose own stock of goods has been damaged by fire, smoke, water, or otherwise, and who advertises as such.

Such municipal governing authorities may, by ordinance, prescribe penalties for the violation of such ordinance and may make such violation of said ordinances punishable in the manner provided by law for the punishment of misdemeanors.

The provisions of this section shall apply to all municipalities of this state, whether operating under the code charter, a special charter, commission form, or other form of government.

§ 21-19-44. Supporting certain local economic development organizations.

The municipal governing authorities of any municipality shall have the power and authority, in their discretion, to execute contracts and agreements with, and to appropriate, contribute and donate to, or expend budgeted funds for, local economic development organizations and designated Main Street programs.

Cross References — Municipalities authorized to donate or contribute to the Main Street Project, Incorporated for any economic development program, see § 21-19-44.1

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Municipalities may donate to a Main Street Project and to local economic development organizations office space and in-kind services, however, there is no authority for a municipality to donate the time of a full-time or part-time employee who receives compensation and benefits from the municipality, but works for a Main Street Project or economic development organization, or to contract to provide a full-time or part-time municipal employee to a Main Street Project or local economic development organization for consideration. Farmer, Dec. 20, 2002, A.G. Op. 02-0603.

Whether a particular organization is one entitled to a donation is a fact determination which must be made by the governing authorities; the mayor alone does not have the authority to make this determination. Brewer, May 30, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0275.

Since a city may donate funds to a Main Street program and may also contract in support of Main Street projects, such contract may provide for assignment of Main Street program duties to a city employee. This opinion modifies Farmer, Dec. 20, 2002, A.G. Op. 02-0603. Clark, June 13, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0231.

§ 21-19-44.1. Donating to Main Street Project, Incorporated.

The governing authorities of any municipality in this state are authorized, in their discretion, to contribute, donate or appropriate annually out of any money in the treasury of the municipality, to the municipality's nonprofit corporation known as Main Street Project, Incorporated, for any economic development program or endeavor of the corporation, for the development of the municipality's central business district or for any lawful purpose of the municipality. Further, the governing authorities are authorized, in their discretion, to execute contracts and agreements and to expend municipal funds in support of any project sponsored by the corporation, the municipality or any other nonprofit corporation engaged in local economic development.

§ 21-19-45. Donating to nonprofit civic and development corporations by certain municipalities.

(1) Any municipality in the state having a population of less than five hundred according to the 1960 decennial census and being situated in a county bordering the State of Tennessee and having a 1960 population in excess of fifteen thousand but less than twenty thousand, and any municipality having a population according to the 1960 federal decennial census in excess of two thousand but less than two thousand two hundred and being in a county bordering the Pearl River and having an area in excess of eight hundred twenty-five square miles, and all municipalities located in counties with two judicial districts in which municipalities Mississippi Highway 35 runs and which have a population according to the latest available federal census in excess of three hundred forty-two but less than one thousand, acting by and through the mayor and board of aldermen, is authorized and empowered, in its discretion, to pay a sum not to exceed Two Hundred Twenty-Five Dollars ($225.00) per month to any nonprofit civic and development corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Mississippi for the purposes set forth herein.

(2) The funds shall be expended by said nonprofit corporation for the purpose of building, equipping, maintaining and operating a community park, a community house, tennis courts, bowling lanes, lakes, golf courses and swimming pools, for the acquisition of land and facilities to be used for the aforesaid purposes, for the purchase of land and the making of improvements thereon for industrial development, and for other public purposes, and for the repayment of loans secured for the purposes set forth herein.

(3) This section, without reference to any other statutes, shall be full and complete authority to expend the money for the purposes enumerated herein, and all powers necessary to be exercised by the mayor and board of aldermen in order to carry out the purposes of this section are herein expressly conferred on said mayor and board.

(4) The mayor and board of aldermen are further authorized and empowered to adopt any and all lawful resolutions, orders, and/or ordinances, and to do and perform any and all acts and things necessary and requisite to carry out the purposes of this section.

Appropriation of funds or conveyance of buildings and property to school districts by local governments; contracts for provision of additional police protection for schools; off-duty law enforcement officers authorized to use public uniforms and equipment for school security purposes; municipalities authorized to donate to public school districts for certain purposes.

(1) The governing authority of any municipality or the board of supervisors of any county are hereby authorized and empowered to appropriate money or dedicate and convey municipally-owned buildings and property or county-owned buildings and property, as the case may be, to the school district or districts situated within that municipality or county for the purpose of erecting, purchasing or otherwise providing the school building or a site for such school building of such school district, in cases where the governing authority or board of supervisors are of the opinion that the location of such school building within the corporate limits of the municipality or the county, or in close proximity thereto, will be of special benefit to the inhabitants of the municipality or county.

(2) Municipalities, municipal police departments and the sheriffs' departments may contract with the school board of any school district to provide additional Law Enforcement Officers Training Academy-certified police protection to said school district on such terms and for such reimbursement as the school district and the entity may agree in their discretion.

(3) The governing authority of any municipality or the board of supervisors of any county may allow off-duty municipal or county law enforcement officers who are hired individually for security purposes by the school district or districts within that municipality or county to use municipal or county law enforcement uniforms and equipment during such off-duty employment.

(4) The governing authority of any municipality, in its discretion, may donate funds, equipment or in-kind services to any school district located within the boundaries of the municipality to assist the voluntary character development or public service programs of that school district.

A municipality or county may donate money to a school district for the purpose of erecting, purchasing, or otherwise providing a school building or the site for a school building; however, there is no authority by which a municipality or county may donate money to a nonprofit organization designed to receive contributions from individuals and businesses and make grants to schools and teachers. No statutory authority can be found which would permit school employees to search a student vehicle that is parked on a city street, to designate parking on a city street or to control traffic flow of a city street; however, a school district and a city may enter into an interlocal agreement for the provision of traffic control, and city and county law enforcement agencies are authorized to contract with school districts for the provision of police protection. § 21-19-51. Donating to fair associations.

The governing authorities of municipalities shall have the power and authority, in their discretion, to contribute, appropriate or donate to fair associations, domiciled in their respective county, a sum of money not to exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) per annum for the purpose of advertising, displaying, exhibiting or promoting the agricultural or industrial resources of such municipality or its respective county. The expenditure of such money, when contributed, appropriated or donated, shall be under the control of the municipality, and such governing authorities are hereby authorized and empowered to appoint one or as many as three individuals, in their discretion, to represent the municipal authorities in the proper expenditure of such money for said purpose in conjunction with the fair association. Before contributing, appropriating or donating any money to any fair association, such governing authorities shall publish notice of their intention to contribute, appropriate or donate money to said fair association, giving the amount of, and the date of making said contribution, appropriation or donation, in some newspaper published in the municipality, or having a general circulation therein if none be there published, for three weeks ending not less than ten days prior to the making of any contribution, appropriation or donation. If, before the making of said contribution, appropriation or donation, twenty per centum of the adult taxpayers of the municipality shall petition against such contribution, appropriation or donation, then the said contribution, appropriation or donation shall not be made, unless authorized by a majority of the electors voting in an election to be ordered for that purpose. All of the expenses of publishing the notice herein provided for and of holding any election hereunder shall be paid out of the municipal treasury.

If governing authorities find, as matter of record, that pavilion would be "suitable memorial," Town of Beaumont may legally donate amount within limitations of statute; donation must go to local patriotic organization (i.e., V.F.W.) and not to Ladies Fire Auxiliary; donation may be made in cash or in-kind, as long as dollar value of any in-kind donations does not exceed statutory limits; there is no prohibition against city making such donation in successive years, as long as statutory limits are not exceeded in any one fiscal year. Holliman, Oct. 26, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0267.

The statute limits donations to patriotic organizations for the erection of specific monuments but does not limit expenditures for maintenance of monuments donated to and owned by the municipality; thus, if a group of individuals erects a monument on city property and donates it to the city, the city may then use public funds to maintain the monument. The governing body of a municipality possesses only such authority as is conferred upon it by its charter or by general statutes, together with such powers as are necessary to give effect to the powers granted. Mayor & Bd. of Aldermen v. Engle, 211 Miss. 380, 51 So. 2d 564 (1951).

A city can do and perform all acts for which it has authority under its charter from the State from which it derives its existence, except such as may be in conflict with the Constitution. City of Indianola v. Sunflower County, 209 Miss. 116, 46 So. 2d 81 (1950).

Municipal powers are only those expressly conferred by statute, and necessarily implied; Such powers belong to the municipality and not to its officers. Tullos v. Town of Magee, 181 Miss. 288, 179 So. 557 (1938).

Municipalities can exercise no powers except such as are delegated to them by the state expressly or by necessary implication. Steitenroth v. City of Jackson, 99 Miss. 354, 54 So. 955 (1911).

A municipality cannot be allowed to exercise powers not clearly given it by its charter. Crittenden v. Town of Booneville, 92 Miss. 277, 45 So. 723, 131 Am. St. R. 518 (1908).

The governing authorities of municipalities may provide that any person desiring to subdivide a tract of land within the corporate limits, shall submit a map and plat of such subdivision, and a correct abstract of title of the land platted, to said governing authorities, to be approved by them before the same shall be filed for record in the land records of the county. Where the municipality has adopted an ordinance so providing, no such map or plat of any such subdivision shall be recorded by the chancery clerk unless same has been approved by said governing authorities. In all cases where a map or plat of the subdivision is submitted to the governing authorities of a municipality, and is by them approved, all streets, roads, alleys and other public ways set forth and shown on said map or plat shall be thereby dedicated to the public use, and shall not be used otherwise unless and until said map or plat is vacated in the manner provided by law, notwithstanding that said streets, roads, alleys or other public ways have not been actually opened for the use of the public.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Square piece of property in middle of subdivided lots was public way, for purposes of rule that public ways on subdivision map or plat are dedicated to public use by submission of map or plat to and acceptance of map or plat by municipality's governing authorities. Nettleton Church of Christ v. Conwill, 707 So. 2d 1075 (Miss. 1997).

Where the plat of a subdivision established beyond the limits of a city contained the certificate of the owners and the engineers saying that the designated streets were private ways and not dedicated to the public, and restrictive covenants were placed upon the property to the same effect, there was no implied dedication of a strip of land subsequently used for drains and a dam, and the only part of the strip that could be used as a public street was the part actually improved and maintained by the city after the city limits were extended to encompass this subdivision. Sneed v. State ex rel. Biggers, 230 So. 2d 215 (Miss. 1970).

In an action to prevent the obstruction of an alley, a showing that the owners of certain lands in 1905 made and recorded a revised map showing the alley in question, use of the map as an official map of the town, the sale of lots by the original owners and subsequent purchasers according to the map, the use of the map for the purpose of the assessment, the nonassessment of streets and avenues for taxes, the opening and paving of most of the streets and avenues shown on the map, as well as other evidence, demonstrated that the town had accepted the dedication of the alley, even though it had not formally done so by ordinance or resolution. Luter v. Crawford, 230 Miss. 81, 92 So. 2d 348 (1957).

A municipality owns the fee title to a street acquired by statutory dedication once the municipality approves the map or plat, and the municipality may not abandon a street acquired by statutory dedication by nonuse, even if the street is not constructed. Baker, March 12, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0114.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

City may contribute funds to match funds of Tate County SWEEPS (State-Wide Education Enforcement Prevention System) Task Force; phrase “any other funds” refers to funds from any source whatsoever, including federal, state, and county funds and funds from private individuals, groups and organizations Minton, April 19, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0287.

Funds received from civil forfeiture of property involved in drug activities may not be used as a source of matching funds for the purpose of supporting social and community service programs. Ellis, Jan. 3, 1992, A.G. Op. #91-0925.

City may spend funds to match other funds for Big Brother/Big Sister Program pursuant to Miss. Code Section 21-19-65; Boys and Girls Clubs, which are very similar to Big Brothers/Big Sisters Program, are social and community service programs of type contemplated by statute; municipality may contribute funds to match funds from other sources to Boys and Girls Club for general use or for specific programs of that organization. Kirby, Mar. 3, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0059.

Miss. Code Section 21-19-65 authorizes municipalities to spend monies to match other funds to support social and community service programs. McFatter, June 9, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0405.

City may legally allow city bus to deliver senior citizens to and from Senior Citizens Center several days per week as part of its bus route. Shepard Sept. 9, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0612.

Without specific authority city may not contribute funds to private nonprofit corporation; municipalities may expend municipal general fund monies as matching funds for certain types of social and community service programs, however programs offered by South Mississippi Aids Task Force do not appear to fit within framework of social and community programs set out in Section 21-19-65. Compton Oct. 12, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0728.

Services and activities offered by nonprofit corporation that operates as multi-purpose Community Action Program serving needy persons who are poor, elderly and/or handicapped are within social and community service programs anticipated by Section 21-19-65; therefore, if City Columbus finds that to be fact, it may contribute matching funds, either cash or in-kind contributions, to corporation to support specific programs authorized by Section 21-19-65. Hicks Nov. 3, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0641.

Where the governing authorities of a city make a factual determination that a particular program is a social and community service program pursuant to Miss. Code Section 21-19-65, they may contribute funds to match other funds received for that program. Bowman, Aug. 1, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0417.

A municipality may contribute funds or in kind services to secure matching funds for a social and community service program of the same kind and nature as those set forth in the statute. Snyder, August 14, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0446.

The statute authorizes donation of matching funds for the support of social and community service programs. Thomas, Mar. 2, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0113.

A city may make an in-kind donation of buses to a city boys and girls club, after determining the fair market value of the buses in question, by either a lease or transfer of title; however, this donation would be conditioned upon the board of aldermen of the city making the factual determination that this program is of a type that is envisioned in the statute, and upon the program providing documentation of funds or other property which the city's donation would be the dollar-for-dollar (or value-for-value) match. Chrestman, Mar. 8, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0077.

If a city finds that programs are of the type addressed in the statute, then it may expend funds to match other funds for the programs; with regard to a program which is an umbrella organization, the city must decide which of its programs fall within the statute and earmark matching funds to such specific program(s). Carter, June 14, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0338.

A municipality must make a determination regarding the funds or other property for which the city's donation to a qualified social and community service program would be the dollar-for-dollar match. Bryant, May 9, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0225.

Whether a particular organization is one entitled to a donation is a fact determination which must be made by the governing authorities; the mayor alone does not have the authority to make this determination. Brewer, May 30, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0275.

Municipal governing authorities have the authority to make donations (in either cash or in-kind services) to certain non-profit social and community service programs, provided matching funds exist from other sources. Thus, at the appropriate time, upon appropriate findings by the municipal governing authorities that educational programs proposed by a non-profit organization satisfy the requirements of this section, a donation could be authorized. Whites, July 23, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0264.

A municipality may donate funds or in-kind services, and the factual determination of whether a program qualifies to receive donations is left to the municipal governing authorities. Provided the proper factual findings are made by the governing authorities, the payment of phone service and utilities would also qualify as an in-kind donation. Bogen, Nov. 15, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0557.

CHAPTER 21

Police and Police Departments

General Provisions	21-21-1
Reciprocal Law Enforcement Assistance Between Municipalities During Civil Emergencies	21-21-31

SEC.
21-21-1.	Marshal or chief of police; duties; bond.
21-21-3.	Police and night marshals.
21-21-5.	Purchasing dogs for use of police department.
21-21-7.	Peace officers attending training schools; expenses.
21-21-9.	Medical and hospital care for injured policemen.
21-21-11.	Purchase of certain insurance for police; payment of premiums.

The marshal or chief of police shall be the chief law enforcement officer of the municipality and shall have control and supervision of all police officers employed by said municipality. The marshal or chief of police shall be an ex officio constable within the boundaries of the municipality, and he shall perform such other duties as shall be required of him by proper ordinance. Before performing any of the duties of his office, the marshal or chief of police shall give bond, with sufficient surety, to be payable, conditioned and approved as provided by law, in an amount to be determined by the municipal governing authority (which shall be not less than Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00)). The premium upon said bond shall be paid from the municipal treasury. If any marshal or chief of police shall fail to perform any of the duties of his office, it shall be the duty of the district attorney or county attorney upon receiving notice thereof to immediately file quo warranto proceedings against such official.

The provisions of this section shall be applicable to all municipalities of this state, whether operating under a code charter, special charter, or the commission form of government, except in cases of conflict between the provisions of this section and the provisions of the special charter of a municipality, or the law governing the commission form of government, in which case of conflict the provisions of the special charter or the statutes relative to the commission form of government shall control.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

2-5. [Reserved for future use.]

6. Under former law.

1. In general.

Under 42 USCS § 1983, a municipality may be held liable only if its "policy" caused deprivation of a right protected by constitution or federal laws; one definition of "policy" being a persistent, widespread practice of city officials or employees which, although not authorized by officially adopted and promulgated policy, is so common and well settled as to constitute a custom that fairly represents municipal policy, actual or constructive knowledge of such customs being attributable to municipality's governing body or to an official to whom body had designated "policy making authority," a "policy maker" is a person who has final authority to make choice as between several alternatives, and marshal or chief of police, being chief law enforcement officer of a municipality under § 21-21-1, is "policy maker" with regard to specific decision to use chemical mace in courtroom, in what manner, and for how long. Lester v. City of Rosedale, 757 F. Supp. 741 (N.D. Miss. 1991).

In reference to instant section, since it was undisputed that defendant police chief had policy making authority in city, and since pursuant to such authority he adopted course of action with respect to training of officers under his supervision, including defendant police officer who allegedly had detained plaintiff for 8 hours without informing him of charges against him, city was equally responsible with chief of police for any liability chief might incur in regard to decision to allow defendant officer to continue in his police responsibilities despite fact he had not received proper training. Accordingly city's motion for summary judgment should be denied. White v. Taylor, 775 F. Supp. 962 (S.D. Miss. 1990), rev'd on other grounds, 959 F.2d 539 (5th Cir. 1992).

Hiring of city administrator by municipality operating under Private Charter does not imply that administrator, to whom chief of police is to report, is municipality's de facto chief law enforcement officer, and therefore does not violate provisions of § 21-21-1. Peterson v. McComb City, 504 So. 2d 208 (Miss. 1987).

It is duty of a police officer to arrest persons who commit either felonies or misdemeanors within municipality served by him. Petition of Aultman (Miss. 1949) 205 Miss. 397, 38 So. 2d 901

On considerations of public policy, officer cannot lawfully claim reward for performance of service which it was his duty to discharge. Petition of Aultman (Miss. 1949) 205 Miss. 397, 38 So. 2d 901

Where a city marshal executes and returns a summons the return need not show that it was served within the limits of the municipality as the law presumes that he acted within his territorial jurisdiction. Gulf & S.I.R.R. v. Ramsey, 98 Miss. 863, 54 So. 440 (1911).

2-5. [Reserved for future use.]6. Under former law.

Member of police force who arrests fleeing homicide in city and county in which officer resides, the city paying him fixed salary for his services as officer, is ineligible to receive reward provided for under Code 1942, § 2482, for arrest of fleeing homicide, homicide and arrest occurring within corporate limits of city. In re Aultman, 205 Miss. 397, 38 So. 2d 901 (1949).

A marshal of a municipality is a public officer and cannot be removed from office except on an indictment and conviction. Lizano v. City of Pass Christian, 96 Miss. 640, 50 So. 981 (1910).

A seizure and sale by a town marshal acting as a constable, without the limits of the town and supervisor's district in which the town is situated, under a distress warrant issued by the mayor of such town, are invalid, and confer no title upon a purchaser at the sale. Riley v. James, 73 Miss. 1, 18 So. 930 (1895).

Const. 1890, §§ 80, 88, among other things providing for general laws to create and govern municipal corporations are prospective in operation and do not repeal existing municipal charters. Therefore this section recognizing the continued existence of such charters is not unconstitutional. Lum v. City of Vicksburg, 72 Miss. 590, 18 So. 476 (1895).

Its corporate authorities having formally accepted the provisions of the Code Chapter, the city of Jackson became bound thereby, and subsequent action of the authorities purporting to rescind the resolution of acceptance, though within twelve months, was ineffectual. State v. Govan, 70 Miss. 535, 12 So. 959 (1893).

Under this section declaring that after the chapter became operative, every municipality shall be governed by its provisions but that any municipality might within twelve months, "elect not to come under the provisions hereof," power was given municipalities affirmatively to accept the provisions of the chapter and be governed thereby. Ex parte Shlomborg, 70 Miss. 47, 11 So. 721 (1892).

Because legislature has not delegated exclusive police power specifically over state fairgrounds property to particular entity, nor has it specifically taken away such power from City of Jackson by necessary implication, City of Jackson retains jurisdiction over violations of state statutes at fairgrounds (modifying conflicting prior opinions to conform with this opinion). Ross, August 26, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0675.

Although nothing appears to prohibit constable from also serving as police chief of municipality within county, one of duties of police chief is to act as constable ex-officio within municipality; for those duties, within municipality, he or she must serve as police chief, and be compensated accordingly, and outside of municipality he or she may serve as Constable and be compensated accordingly. Mayo, Oct. 28, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0745.

Under Miss. Code Section 21-21-1, Chief of Police exercises day-to-day supervision and control over police officers, making daily decisions as to what law enforcement duties to assign individual police officers, what positions to put officers in, and how investigations will proceed. Ramsay, Mar. 10, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0155.

The marshal or chief of police is the chief law enforcement officer of a municipality. Nickles, Mar. 8, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0052.

An elected chief of police may not suspend a police officer without pay or terminate a police officer. Davis, July 19, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0396.

The mayor may request attendance but may not force attendance at a weekly staff meeting of an elected police chief. Lee, Jan. 3, 2003, A.G. Op. #02-0749.

A weekly staff meeting of the mayor and departments heads, including the police chief, does not conflict with the doctrine of separation of powers set forth in Article 1 and 2 of the Mississippi Constitution. Lee, Jan. 3, 2003, A.G. Op. #02-0749.

Residents of a municipality may meet with the mayor to discuss any matter pertaining to the operation of the municipi-pality, including police protection, and the mayor may meet with the police chief or police officers to gather information concerning operation of the police department and may also direct residents to communicate with the police chief concerning police protection generally or specific ongoing situations in law enforcement. Lee, Jan. 3, 2003, A.G. Op. #02-0749.

The mayor may meet with police officers to obtain information concerning the operation of the police department, but the mayor does not have authority to become involved in the day to day operation of the police department or to make law enforcement decisions. Lee, Jan. 3, 2003, A.G. Op. #02-0749.

The board of aldermen may reprimand a police officer over the objection of the chief of police after seeking information from the chief of police. Lee, Jan. 3, 2003, A.G. Op. #02-0749.

The board of aldermen does not have authority to make daily decisions which arise in the management of the police department, such as decisions concerning an individual officer's shift, duties or assignments. Lee, Jan. 3, 2003, A.G. Op. #02-0749.

All school district employees, both instructional and noninstructional, are entitled to elect to receive equal monthly payments for a twelve-month period. Adams, Jan. 17, 2003, A.G. Op. #02-0750.

A municipality is without the power to abolish the position of marshal or chief of police, as Section 21-21-1 mandates that such a position exist in all municipalities. Hatcher, Feb. 14, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0075.

A town may appoint an individual as its Chief of Police or Town Marshal to work for free until the next fiscal year, primarily for administrative purposes in securing funds for hiring of police officers and securing equipment with the police department to go into effect upon adoption of the next budget at the commencement of the next fiscal year. Hatcher, Feb. 14, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0075.

The city manager, not the city council, appoints police officers. The police chief may but need not recommend that the city manager hire a certain police officer. Walker, Aug. 1, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0285.

All code charter municipalities with the mayor-aldermen form of government are required to have a chief of police or marshal. Davis, Oct. 29, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0522.

The police chief serves at the will and pleasure of the city manager and is subject to his direction and control. Johnson, Nov. 5, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0547.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

This section [Code 1942, § 3374-145] does not make city pound keepers members of the police force, but implies the contrary. City of Hattiesburg v. Jackson, 235 Miss. 109, 108 So. 2d 596 (1959).

A city policeman in a city is authorized to arrest a person without a writ for an indictable offense against the state committed in his presence, provided the arrest was made in good faith for violating the state law. City of Hattiesburg v. Beverly, 123 Miss. 759, 86 So. 590 (1920).

While chief of police has control and supervision of all police officers, authority to employ and terminate is vested with governing authority of municipality; only exception is where rule conflicts with provisions of special charter municipality or municipality governed by Commission Form of Government. Bates, August 15, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0588.

The city council can require the joinder of the city into the multi-jurisdictional task force over the disagreement of the city's department of public safety. Bardwell, Nov. 27, 1991, A.G. Op. #91-0879.

Board of aldermen has statutory duty to provide reasonable police protection for municipality; therefore, board may pay police officers for regular duty and also for overtime work in their capacity as police officers of municipality at high school ball games inside corporate limits of town. Breeden Oct. 13 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0682.

Governing authorities of municipality may hire person as part-time police dispatcher at hourly rate set for that position and as part-time police officer at hourly rate set for that position. Harrel, Oct. 25, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0709.

Whether police officer or extra deputy police officer works full time or part time is administrative decision. Hatcher, Nov. 19, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0736.

Part-time police officer may serve without pay if he/she is willing to do so; any employee may donate all or part of salary to municipality, and these funds then become public funds which are subject to statutes governing public funds. Carlisle, Feb. 16, 1994, A.G. Op. #94-0034.

Although the governing authorities of a municipality may consider recommendations of a police chief when making decisions concerning the hiring and firing of police officers, they are not required to do so, and such authorities have the exclusive general power to hire and fire police officers. Donald, July 25, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0416.

A school district and a city may enter into an interlocal agreement for the provision of traffic control, although the duty to enforce traffic regulations lies with the police department and it can not withhold its services solely because of the lack of such an agreement. Noble, January 15, 1999, A.G. Op. #98-0714.

A municipality has authority to pay a police officer for two extra hours per day for carrying a cell phone to receive tips and information from a private organization which may assist in solving crimes; however, an officer may not be paid by the private organization for performing this same duty. Prichard, Sept. 7, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0512.

The board of aldermen as the legislative body has responsibility to hire a sufficient number of police officers and to appropriate funds for the support of the police department, but may not micromanage the police department without running afoul of the doctrine of separation of powers. Nickles, Mar. 8, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0052.

There is no authority for a municipality to enter into a contract or make an agreement to provide extra police protection to a business in return for compensation by the business. Gurley, Mar. 28, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0138.

A police officer of a municipality must be sworn in before assuming any law enforcement duties, however, there is no requirement that a police officer must be sworn in by the Mayor or Vice-Mayor; a municipal court judge is the "police justice" of a municipality and, therefore, could administer the oath of office. Thomas, May 9, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0212.

There is no authority for the governing authorities of a municipality to contract with residents of the municipality for additional or special police or fire protection. Tyner, May 9, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0211.

No statutory authority can be found which would permit school employees to search a student vehicle that is parked on a city street, to designate parking on a city street or to control traffic flow of a city street; however, a school district and a city may enter into an interlocal agreement for the provision of traffic control, and city and county law enforcement agencies are authorized to contract with school districts for the provision of police protection. Taylor, July 7, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0334.

Upon proper findings by the municipal governing authorities that a certain level of physical fitness is required in order for a police officer to perform his/her job duties established by the governing authorities, physical fitness standards may be enacted as a prerequisite to obtaining or maintaining a position as a police officer. Sorrell, Jan. 28, 2005, A.G. Op. 05-0028.

The governing authorities of any municipality in the state are hereby authorized and empowered, in their discretion, to purchase by negotiation or otherwise, any breed of dogs suitable for law enforcement purposes, and pay for same out of the proceeds derived from tax levies made for their support and maintenance. Said dogs may be furnished to the police or police department of said municipality to be used by them in the enforcement of the laws of said municipality and the State of Mississippi. The governing authorities may also appropriate and pay monthly such amounts as may be necessary to maintain and care for said law enforcement dogs.

The legislature finds that the availability of law enforcement officers to a municipality in a state of civil emergency is of a statewide concern, and that it is in the public interest that municipalities needing additional law enforcement officers in a state of civil emergency be able to procure such additional law enforcement officers through reciprocal assistance from other municipalities.

Any municipality shall have the power by resolution or order of its governing body to make provision for or to authorize its mayor or chief administrative officer or chief of police to make provision for its regularly employed law enforcement officers to assist any other municipality, when in the opinion of the mayor or other officer authorized to declare a state of civil emergency in such other municipality, there exists in such other municipality a need for the services of additional law enforcement officers to protect the health, life and property of such other municipality, its inhabitants, and the visitors thereto, by reason of riot, unlawful assembly characterized by the use of force and violence, or threat thereof by three (3) or more persons acting together or without lawful authority, or during time of natural disaster or man-made calamity.

Any municipality shall have the power to send law enforcement officers of its municipality on loan to assist other municipalities in the state in undercover work or as a special agent to combat crime. The chief administrative officer or chief of police of a municipality shall have the power to assist other chief administrative officers or chiefs of police upon a written or oral request from such municipalities; provided, however, that an oral request must be followed by a written authorization. In addition, any municipality may loan any law enforcement officer to any other law enforcement agency of the state or of any political subdivision of the state for drug enforcement purposes, the expense of the officer to be paid by the agency to which the officer is assigned.

In all municipalities having a population of ten thousand (10,000) or more, according to the latest available federal census, there shall be a municipal judge and a prosecuting attorney, both of whom shall be appointed by the governing authorities of the municipality at the time provided for the appointment of other officers. Such municipal judge shall be a qualified elector of the county in which the municipality is located and shall be an attorney at law. Such municipal judge and prosecuting attorney shall receive a salary, to be paid by the municipality, and to be fixed by the governing authorities of the municipality.

In any proceeding in which a conflict of interest arises for the prosecuting attorney, or any other reason dictates that he recuse himself, the mayor of the municipality may appoint a special prosecuting attorney for that particular proceeding. Such special prosecuting attorney shall be compensated for his services in the same manner and amount as allowed under Section 21-23-7 for appointed counsel for indigent persons.

Provided, however, the governing authorities of any municipality having a population in excess of ten thousand (10,000) persons according to the latest available federal census and situated in a county having an area in excess of nine hundred thirty-five (935) square miles and having a county court may, in their discretion, follow the provisions as set out in Section 21-23-5 for municipalities having a population of less than ten thousand (10,000).

Provided, further, the governing authorities of any municipality having a population in excess of fifty thousand (50,000) according to the latest federal decennial census may, in their discretion, provide for the appointment of not more than five (5) municipal judges for said municipality, each of whom shall exercise the same authority and prerogatives of their office, regardless of the presence or absence of the other municipal judges.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

6. Under former law.

1. In general.

The fact that a search warrant, directed to any lawful officer of the town of Louin, was delivered by the marshal to, and served by, the sheriff, did not make the service of the warrant upon defendant in a prosecution for unlawful possession of intoxicating liquor illegal, where the marshal was present when the sheriff delivered a copy of the search warrant to the defendant, and the marshal had a right to summon such aid as in his judgment was needed to execute the search warrant both by the terms of the statute and the warrant itself, and either of the officers could have made a valid return on the warrant. Simmons v. Town of Louin, 213 Miss. 482, 57 So. 2d 133 (1952).

2.-5. [Reserved for future use.]

6. Under former law.

An affidavit filed before a police justice charging wilful and unlawful possession of intoxicating beer contrary to the laws and ordinances of the city was insufficient to charge an offense since the state law permitted possession of beer for personal consumption. City of Amory v. Yielding, 203 Miss. 265, 34 So. 2d 726 (1948).

When a town is located partly in two counties, the county line running through the municipality, the mayor is nevertheless the mayor of the entire town and in consequence is an ex officio justice of the peace throughout the entire limits of the municipality, including that part in one county as well as the other; and being so, he is a justice of the peace ex officio of both counties and has authority, while acting within the municipality, to issue a search warrant authorizing a search for unlawful possession of intoxicating liquors to be executed in any part of either one of the two counties. Hathaway v. State, 188 Miss. 403, 195 So. 323 (1940).

Where the record in a criminal proceeding charging the defendant with the unlawful sale of intoxicating liquors showed a confusion of jurisdiction as to whether the trial magistrate acted as a police justice or as an ex officio justice of the peace, the conviction could not be sustained since because of such confusion the defendant would not be in a position to make a plea of former conviction or former acquittal against a further prosecution for violation either of the city ordinance or of the state laws. Wright v. City of Belzoni, 188 Miss. 334, 194 So. 919 (1940).

Mayor of city having police justice has no function as ex-officio justice of peace, and affidavit taken and search warrant issued by him are void, and evidence obtained thereunder inadmissible. Palmer v. City of Lumberton, 153 Miss. 886, 122 So. 199 (1929).

The record of a proceeding on appeal from a judgment of a police court is not required to say affirmatively that the mayor was absent or disqualified to act. City of Pascagoula v. Sharp, 136 Miss. 756, 101 So. 683 (1924).

A case in which it is held that the City of Laurel had no authority to elect a police justice pro tempore. City of Laurel v. Turner, 96 Miss. 631, 51 So. 403 (1910).

A case in which the matter of jurisdiction as to whether the proceeding was before a mayor or before a justice of the peace, appearing so conflicting and confused that the defendant is discharged. Washington v. State, 93 Miss. 270, 46 So. 539 (1908).

A justice of the peace accepting the office of mayor vacates the office of justice of the peace. State ex rel. Att'y Gen. v. Armstrong, 91 Miss. 513, 44 So. 809 (1907).

The fact that the duties of a police justice happen to be in part those which a justice of the peace might exercise does not affect his title to the office. Rich v. McLauren, 83 Miss. 95, 35 So. 337 (1903) but see Edwards v. Weeks, 633 So. 2d 1035 (Miss. 1994).

The mayor has no authority to vote in the election of a police justice except where there is a tie vote by the aldermen. Rich v. McLauren, 83 Miss. 95, 35 So. 337 (1903) but see Edwards v. Weeks, 633 So. 2d 1035 (Miss. 1994).

Officers are created for the public welfare and not for the benefit of officers, and justices of the peace cannot complain that a police justice is given jurisdiction with themselves. Hughes v. State, 79 Miss. 77, 29 So. 786 (1901).

The mayor of a municipality who is under this section ex-officio a justice of the peace within the territorial limits thereof, is also a justice of the peace of the county within the meaning of Code 1892, ch. 142 (Code 1906, ch. 147), and may participate as such in an action of unlawful detainer. Nickles v. Kendricks, 73 Miss. 711, 19 So. 582 (1896).

Municipal judge and prosecuting attorney appointed under Miss. Code Section 21-23-3 are not covered by Civil Service System. Hewes, Mar. 29, 1993, A.G. Op. #92-0952.

Although mandatorily excluded by appointment authority provided in Miss. Code Section 21-23-3 from bringing full-time prosecuting attorney on board under civil service system, full-time Assistant City Attorney can be brought on board under civil service system as part of City Attorney's permanent staff, and can be assigned primarily to prosecution duties. Hewes, Mar. 29, 1993, A.G. Municipal judge pro tempore has same judicial immunity as municipal judge appointed pursuant to Miss. Code Section 21-23-3. Hicks, Apr. 14, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0237.

Mayor of town having population in excess of 10,000 is not judicial officer and does not have authority to sign arrest warrants; judicial power is vested exclusively in municipal judge who must be appointed by such town. White, Aug. 23, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0481.

There is no statutory prohibition to an individual appointed as municipal judge continuing to practice law while holding the office of municipal judge. Austin, June 18, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0277.

§ 21-23-5. When mayor may serve as municipal judge; municipal judges training course.

In any municipality having a population of less than ten thousand (10,000) according to the latest available federal census, it shall be discretionary with the governing authorities of the municipality as to whether or not a municipal judge or a prosecuting attorney, or both, shall be appointed. If the authorities appoint a municipal judge, he may be a licensed attorney of such county, a licensed attorney of a county adjacent to such county or a justice court judge of such county. In all municipalities where a municipal judge is not appointed, the mayor, or mayor pro tempore, shall be the municipal judge, but he shall not receive additional compensation from the municipality for such service.

The Mississippi Judicial College of the University of Mississippi Law Center shall conduct, if funds are available, courses of training and education for mayors and mayors pro tempore who serve as municipal judges. This course of training shall be known as the Municipal Judges Training Course and it shall consist of at least twelve (12) hours of training. The content of the course of training, when and where it is to be conducted, shall be determined by the said Judicial College consistent with the need. A certificate of completion shall be furnished those mayors who complete the full course. No mayor elected or reelected for a term of office after July 1, 1979, except one who has been admitted to practice law in this state, shall serve as municipal judge unless he has completed the course of training prescribed herein. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply if funds are unavailable for such training courses.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

2.-5. [Reserved for future use.]

6. Under former law.

1. In general.

Although § 21-23-5, which allows a mayor or mayor pro tempore of a small municipality to serve as municipal judge, is not unconstitutional under the sections of the state constitution dealing with separation of powers, there is an unavoidable conflict of interest in the holding of the dual offices of mayor and municipal judge, and thus the statute will have no future application as it is contrary to the proper functioning of the judiciary. In re Grant, 631 So. 2d 758 (Miss. 1994).

For purposes of the Mississippi Code of Judicial Conduct, any officer performing judicial functions is a judge. Thus, a mayor who served as a municipal judge pursuant to § 21-23-5 was a "judge" within the contemplation of both the Rules of the Mississippi Commission on Judicial Performance and the Code of Judicial Conduct by virtue of his role as judge pro tempore of the municipal court. Mississippi Judicial Performance Comm'n v. Thomas, 549 So. 2d 962 (Miss. 1989).

The failure of a mayor to keep separate criminal dockets, as required by this section [Code 1942, § 3374-103] for his proceedings in criminal matters as mayor and for his proceedings as an ex officio justice of the peace can result in a confusion of jurisdiction sufficient to invalidate a conviction against a defendant appearing before him. Suggs v. State, 250 Miss. 730, 168 So. 2d 514 (1964).

In a proceeding on a petition for writ of prohibition against a municipality to prohibit further prosecution of a manager of a theater under a void ordinance pertaining to Sunday shows, the mayor was mandatorily the police justice of the city and was party to the suit. City of New Albany v. Benya, 228 Miss. 419, 87 So. 2d 889 (1956).

The mayor of the town of Louin by virtue of his office as police justice and as ex officio justice of the peace, had the power as an ex officio justice of the peace to issue the search warrant and it was not necessary in order to give validity to his act in issuing the search warrant that he add the title ex officio justice of peace to his official signature as mayor. Simmons v. Town of Louin, 213 Miss. 482, 57 So. 2d 133 (1952).

An affidavit filed before a police justice charging wilful and unlawful possession of intoxicating beer contrary to the laws and ordinances of the city was insufficient to charge an offense since the state law permitted possession of beer for personal consumption. City of Amory v. Yielding, 203 Miss. 265, 34 So. 2d 726 (1948).

When a town is located partly in two counties, the county line running through the municipality, the mayor is nevertheless the mayor of the entire town and in consequence is an ex officio justice of the peace throughout the entire limits of the municipality, including that part in one county as well as the other; and being so, he is a justice of the peace ex officio of both counties and has authority, while acting within the municipality, to issue a search warrant authorizing a search for unlawful possession of intoxicating liquors to be executed in any part of either one of the two counties. Hathaway v. State, 188 Miss. 403, 195 So. 323 (1940).

This section making the mayor of a town an ex officio justice of the peace therein derives its authority from § 172, Constitution 1890, which allows the establishment of inferior courts, and not from § 175 thereof which deals exclusively with district justices of the peace. *Hathaway v. The record of a proceeding on appeal from a judgment of a police court is not required to say affirmatively that the mayor was absent or disqualified to act. City of Pascagoula v. Sharp, 136 Miss. 756, 101 So. 683 (1924).

A case in which the matter of jurisdiction as to whether the proceeding was before a mayor or before a justice of the peace, appearing so conflicting and confused that the defendant is discharged. Washington v. State, 93 Miss. 270, 46 So. 539 (1908).

A justice of the peace accepting the office of mayor vacates the office of justice of the peace. State ex rel. Att'y Gen. v. Armstrong, 91 Miss. 513, 44 So. 809 (1907).

The fact that the duties of a police justice happen to be in part those which a justice of the peace might exercise does not affect his title to the office. Rich v. McLauren, 83 Miss. 95, 35 So. 337 (1903)

Officers are created for the public welfare and not for the benefit of officers, and justices of the peace cannot complain that a police justice is given jurisdiction with themselves. Hughes v. State, 79 Miss. 77, 29 So. 786 (1901).

The mayor of a municipality who is under this section ex-officio a justice of the peace within the territorial limits thereof, is also a justice of the peace of a county within the meaning of Code 1892, ch. 142 (Code 1906, ch. 147), and may participate as such in an action of unlawful detainer. Nickles v. Kendrick, 73 Miss. 711, 19 So. 582 (1896).

A justice court judge who is not a lawyer may serve as city judge only as long as he remains a justice court judge. Navarro, Nov. 14, 1991, A.G. Op. #91-0845.

If mayor is not municipal judge or municipal judge pro tempore, then mayor has no authority to sign arrest warrants. Lindsey, August 11, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0566.

It is discretionary with the governing authorities of a municipality having a population of less than 10,000 to determine whether to appoint either a municipal judge or prosecuting attorney, or both, and if they appoint a municipal judge, he may either be a licensed attorney in the county, a licensed attorney of a county adjacent to the county or a justice court judge of such county. Norman, January 23, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0015.

Where a municipal judge is appointed at the discretion of the governing authorities, he serves at the pleasure of such governing authorities and may be discharged at any time, with or without cause pursuant to Section 21-3-3. Logan, March 6, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0079.

A justice court judge may serve as a municipal judge of a city having a population of less than 10,000 only in the county in which he was elected justice court judge. Blakney, March 27, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0165.

A town may appoint an individual as its municipal judge to work for free until the next fiscal year, to go into effect upon adoption of the next budget at the commencement of the next fiscal year to be sworn in primarily an advisor capacity at this time. Hatcher, Feb. 14, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0075.

§ 21-23-7. Powers and duties of municipal judge; mayor serving as municipal judge.

(1) The municipal judge shall hold court in a public building designated by the governing authorities of the municipality and may hold court every day except Sundays and legal holidays if the business of the municipality so requires; provided, however, the municipal judge may hold court outside the boundaries of the municipality but not more than within a sixty-mile radius of the municipality to handle preliminary matters and criminal matters such as initial appearances and felony preliminary hearings. The municipal judge shall have the jurisdiction to hear and determine, without a jury and without a record of the testimony, all cases charging violations of the municipal ordinances and state misdemeanor laws made offenses against the municipality and to punish offenders therefor as may be prescribed by law. Except as otherwise provided by law, criminal proceedings shall be brought by sworn complaint filed in the municipal court. Such complaint shall state the essential elements of the offense charged and the statute or ordinance relied upon. Such complaint shall not be required to conclude with a general averment that the offense is against the peace and dignity of the state or in violation of the ordinances of the municipality. He may sit as a committing court in all felonies committed within the municipality, and he shall have the power to bind over the accused to the grand jury or to appear before the proper court having jurisdiction to try the same, and to set the amount of bail or refuse bail and commit the accused to jail in cases not bailable. The municipal judge is a conservator of the peace within his municipality. He may conduct preliminary hearings in all violations of the criminal laws of this state occurring within the municipality, and any person arrested for a violation of law within the municipality may be brought before him for initial appearance. The municipal court shall have jurisdiction of any case remanded to it by a circuit court grand jury.

(2) In the discretion of the court, where the objects of justice would be more likely met, as an alternative to imposition or payment of fine and/or incarceration, the municipal judge shall have the power to sentence convicted offenders to work on a public service project where the court has established such a program of public service by written guidelines filed with the clerk for public record. Such programs shall provide for reasonable supervision of the offender and the work shall be commensurate with the fine and/or incarceration that would have ordinarily been imposed. Such program of public service may be utilized in the implementation of the provisions of Section 99-19-20, and public service work thereunder may be supervised by persons other than the sheriff.

(3) The municipal judge may solemnize marriages, take oaths, affidavits and acknowledgments, and issue orders, subpoenas, summonses, citations, warrants for search and arrest upon a finding of probable cause, and other such process under seal of the court to any county or municipality, in a criminal case, to be executed by the lawful authority of the county or the municipality of the respondent, and enforce obedience thereto. The absence of a seal shall not invalidate the process.

(4) When a person shall be charged with an offense in municipal court punishable by confinement, the municipal judge, being satisfied that such person is an indigent person and is unable to employ counsel, may, in the discretion of the court, appoint counsel from the membership of The Missis-ssippi Bar residing in his county who shall represent him. Compensation for appointed counsel in criminal cases shall be approved and allowed by the municipal judge and shall be paid by the municipality. The maximum compensation shall not exceed Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) for any one (1) case. The governing authorities of a municipality may, in their discretion, appoint a public defender(s) who must be a licensed attorney and who shall receive a salary to be fixed by the governing authorities.

(5) The municipal judge of any municipality is hereby authorized to suspend the sentence and to suspend the execution of the sentence, or any part thereof, on such terms as may be imposed by the municipal judge. However, the suspension of imposition or execution of a sentence hereunder may not be revoked after a period of two (2) years. The municipal judge shall have the power to establish and operate a probation program, dispute resolution program and other practices or procedures appropriate to the judiciary and designed to aid in the administration of justice. Any such program shall be established by the court with written policies and procedures filed with the clerk of the court for public record.

(6) Upon prior notice to the municipal prosecuting attorney and upon a showing in open court of rehabilitation, good conduct for a period of two (2) years since the last conviction in any court and that the best interest of society would be served, the court may, in its discretion, order the record of conviction of a person of any or all misdemeanors in that court expunged, and upon so doing the said person thereafter legally stands as though he had never been convicted of the said misdemeanor(s) and may lawfully so respond to any query of prior convictions. This order of expunction does not apply to the confidential records of law enforcement agencies and has no effect on the driving record of a person maintained under Title 63, Mississippi Code of 1972, or any other provision of said Title 63.

(7) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (6) of this section, a person who was convicted in municipal court of a misdemeanor before reaching his twenty-third birthday, excluding conviction for a traffic violation, and who is a first offender, may utilize the provisions of Section 99-19-71, to expunge such misdemeanor conviction.

(8) In the discretion of the court, a plea of nolo contendere may be entered to any charge in municipal court. Upon the entry of a plea of nolo contendere the court shall convict the defendant of the offense charged and shall proceed to sentence the defendant according to law. The judgment of the court shall reflect that the conviction was on a plea of nolo contendere. An appeal may be made from a conviction on a plea of nolo contendere as in other cases.

(9) Upon execution of a sworn complaint charging a misdemeanor, the municipal court may, in its discretion and in lieu of an arrest warrant, issue a citation requiring the appearance of the defendant to answer the charge made against him. On default of appearance, an arrest warrant may be issued for the defendant. The clerk of the court or deputy clerk may issue such citations.

(10) The municipal court shall have the power to make rules for the administration of the court's business, which rules, if any, shall be in writing filed with the clerk of the court.

(11) The municipal court shall have the power to impose punishment of a fine of not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) or six (6) months' imprisonment, or both, for contempt of court. The municipal court may have the power to impose reasonable costs of court, not in excess of the following:

Dismissal of any affidavit, complaint or charge in municipal court	$ 50.00
Suspension of a minor's driver's license in lieu of conviction	$ 50.00
Service of scire facias or return "not found"	$ 20.00
Causing search warrant to issue or causing prosecution without reasonable cause or refusing to cooperate after initiating action	$ 100.00
Certified copy of the court record	$ 5.00
Service of arrest warrant for failure to answer citation or traffic summons	$ 25.00
Jail cost per day	$ 10.00
Any other item of court cost	$ 50.00
No filing fee or such cost shall be imposed for the bringing of an action in municipal court.

(12) A municipal court judge shall not dismiss a criminal case but may transfer the case to the justice court of the county if the municipal court judge is prohibited from presiding over the case by the Canons of Judicial Conduct and provided that venue and jurisdiction are proper in the justice court. Upon transfer of any such case, the municipal court judge shall give the municipal court clerk a written order to transmit the affidavit or complaint and all other records and evidence in the court's possession to the justice court by certified mail or to instruct the arresting officer to deliver such documents and records to the justice court. There shall be no court costs charged for the transfer of the case to the justice court.

(13) A municipal court judge shall expunge the record of any case in which an arrest was made, the person arrested was released and the case was dismissed or the charges were dropped or there was no disposition of such case.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
- 2.-5. [Reserved for future use.]
3. Sufficiency of Sworn Complaint.
6. Under former law.

1. In general.

Defendant was charged with refusing a breath test; the municipal court that tried defendant in absentia had the authority to hear defendant's case, and testimony that defendant argued should have been heard was beyond the scope of a hearing on certiorari before the circuit court. Lott v. City of Bay Springs, — So. 2d —, 2006 Miss. App. LEXIS 842 (Miss. Ct. App. Nov. 14, 2006).

Municipal court did not err in sentencing defendant after it had previously suspended his sentence for one year for him to receive counseling, as it was within the municipal court's discretion to suspend defendant's sentence and the court had jurisdiction to revoke that suspension if defendant committed another offense within two years of the time the sentence was originally suspended. Murrell v. City of Indianola, 858 So. 2d 183 (Miss. Ct. App. 2003).

The language of subsection (9) is permissive and does not impose a mandatory procedure upon municipal judges. Wheeler v. Stewart, 798 So. 2d 386 (Miss. 2001).

Section 21-23-7, which grants a municipal judge the authority to hear cases charging violations of municipal ordinances and state misdemeanor laws made offenses against the municipality, does not deprive a county court of jurisdiction over misdemeanors committed within a municipality that lies within the county; while a municipal court has jurisdiction when a municipality charges a defendant either under an explicit municipal ordinance or an ordinance by incorporation from state misdemeanor law, an act is considered an offense against the municipality only if the municipality brings the action. Collins v. State, 594 So. 2d 29 (Miss. 1992).

Records of criminal offenses are kept pursuant to § 45-27-1. The legislature of Mississippi has specifically authorized expunction of criminal offender records in limited cases-youth court cases, §§ 43-21-159 and 43-21-265; first offense misdemeanor convictions occurring prior to age 23, § 99-19-71; drug possession convictions occurring prior to age 26, § 41-29-150; purchase of alcoholic beverages by one under age 21, § 67-3-70; and municipal court convictions, § 21-23-7. Expunction of felony convictions which arose pursuant to guilty pleas are governed by § 99-15-57 which provides that any person who pled guilty within 6 months prior to the effective date of § 99-15-26 may apply to the court for an order expunging his or her criminal records. Under §§ 99-15-57 and 99-15-26 a circuit court has the power to expunge a felony conviction pursuant to a guilty plea under certain conditions. Accordingly, a petitioner who pled guilty to the felony of burglary might have been eligible for relief pursuant to §§ 99-15-57 and 99-15-26 if his guilty plea had occurred on or after October 1, 1982, that being the earliest date to satisfy the "within 6 months prior to" March 31, 1983, requirement of § 99-15-57. However, the petitioner pleaded guilty to burglary on October 9, 1979, 3 years prior to October 1, 1982, and admitted that he did not fall within the criterion in any of the statutes authorizing expunction, and thus the trial court did not err in denying his petition for expunction. Caldwell v. State, 564 So. 2d 1371 (Miss. 1990).

Expungement on Sunday of conviction for possession of marijuana was void because Sunday is non-judicial day, and courts may not sit on Sunday. Wactor v. John H. Moon & Sons, 516 So. 2d 1364 (Miss. 1987).

A municipal court judge properly exercised his authority, pursuant to § 21-23-7, to issue a warrant for a blood-semen test of a rape suspect, despite the suspect's contention that he had previously been indicted and that jurisdiction for the issuance of the warrant was exclusive to the circuit court, where there was no contention that the issuing judge was not a neutral and detached magistrate, there was sufficient evidence of probable cause, the suspect was not prejudiced by his attorney's not being notified of the warrant and the subsequent withdrawal of blood, and where no contention was made of counsel's ability to assist the suspect in protection of his legal rights had counsel been present. Birchfield v. State, 412 So. 2d 1181 (Miss. 1982).

The failure of a mayor to keep separate criminal dockets, as required by this section for his proceedings in criminal matters as mayor and for his proceedings as an ex officio justice of the peace can result in a confusion of jurisdiction sufficient to invalidate a conviction against a defendant appearing before him. Suggs v. State, 250 Miss. 730, 168 So. 2d 514 (1964).

In a proceeding on a petition for writ of prohibition against a municipality to prohibit further prosecution of a manager of a theater under a void ordinance pertaining to Sunday shows, the mayor was mandatorily the police justice of the city and was party to the suit. City of New Albany v. Benya, 228 Miss. 419, 87 So. 2d 889 (1956).

The mayor of the town of Louin by virtue of his office as police justice and as ex officio justice of the peace, had the power as an ex officio justice of the peace to issue the search warrant and it was not necessary in order to give validity to his act in issuing the search warrant that he add the title ex officio justice of peace to his official signature as mayor. Simmons v. Town of Louin, 213 Miss. 482, 57 So. 2d 133 (1952).

The fact that a search warrant, directed to any lawful officer of the town of Louin, was delivered by the marshal to, and served by, the sheriff, did not make the service of the warrant upon defendant in a prosecution for unlawful possession of intoxicating liquor illegal, where the marshal was present when the sheriff delivered a copy of the search warrant to the defendant, and the marshal had a right to summon such aid as in his judgment was needed to execute the search warrant both by the terms of the statute and the warrant itself, and either of the officers could have made a valid return on the warrant. Simmons v. Town of Louin, 213 Miss. 482, 57 So. 2d 133 (1952).

2-5. [Reserved for future use.]

3. Sufficiency of Sworn Complaint.

Where all of the information required by Miss. Code Ann. § 63-9-21(3)(c) was contained on the traffic citation issued to defendant, and because there was no requirement that the address of the municipal court be contained on the ticket, the sworn complaint requirement of Miss. Code Ann. § 21-23-7 was met and the municipal court had jurisdiction over defendant's prosecution. Loveless v. City of Booneville, — So. 2d —, 2007 Miss. App. LEXIS 347 (Miss. Ct. App. May 22, 2007).

6. Under former law.

An affidavit filed before a police justice charging wilful and unlawful possession of intoxicating beer contrary to the laws and ordinances of the city was insufficient to charge an offense since the state law permitted possession of beer for personal consumption. City of Amory v. Yielding, 203 Miss. 265, 34 So. 2d 726 (1948).

When a town is located partly in two counties, the county line running through the municipality, the mayor is nevertheless the mayor of the entire town and in consequence is an ex officio justice of the peace throughout the entire limits of the municipality, including that part in one county as well as the other; and being so, he is a justice of the peace ex officio of both counties and has authority, while acting within the municipality, to issue a search warrant authorizing a search for unlawful possession of intoxicating liquors to be executed in any part of either one of the two counties. Hathaway v. State, 188 Miss. 403, 195 So. 323 (1940).

This section making the mayor of a town an ex officio justice of the peace therein derives its authority from § 172, Constitution 1890, which allows the establishment of inferior courts, and not from § 175 thereof which deals exclusively with district justices of the peace. Hathaway v. State, 188 Miss. 403, 195 So. 323 (1940).

Where the record in a criminal proceeding charging the defendant with the unlawful sale of intoxicating liquors showed a confusion of jurisdiction as to whether the trial magistrate acted as a police justice or as an ex officio justice of the peace, the conviction could not be sustained since because of such confusion the defendant would not be in a position to make a plea of former conviction or former acquittal against a further prosecution for violation either of the city ordinance or of the state laws. Wright v. City of Belzoni, 188 Miss. 334, 194 So. 919 (1940).

Judgment of conviction of possessing liquor in violation of State law held not invalid because mayor entered it on mayor's docket instead of separate justice of peace docket. Murphy v. State, 164 Miss. 296, 144 So. 699 (1932).

Mayor of city having police justice has no function as ex-officio justice of peace, and affidavit taken and search warrant issued by him are void, and evidence obtained thereunder inadmissible. Palmer v. City of Lumberton, 153 Miss. 886, 122 So. 199 (1929).

The record of a proceeding on appeal from a judgment of a police court is not required to say affirmatively that the mayor was absent or disqualified to act. City of Pascagoula v. Sharp, 136 Miss. 756, 101 So. 683 (1924).

The mayor and board of aldermen are authorized to elect a mayor pro tempore who can discharge the duties of police justice of such municipality. City of Pascagoula v. Sharp, 136 Miss. 756, 101 So. 683 (1924).

Under the prior law the execution of sentence imposed for the violation of an ordinance could not be suspended by the judge of the municipality. City of Hattiesburg v. Washington, 136 Miss. 322, 101 So. 484 (1924).

A case in which the matter of jurisdiction as to whether the proceeding was before a mayor or before a justice of the peace, appearing so conflicting and confused that the defendant is discharged. Washington v. State, 93 Miss. 270, 46 So. 539 (1908).

A justice of the peace accepting the office of mayor vacates the office of justice of the peace. State ex rel. Att'y Gen. v. Armstrong, 91 Miss. 513, 44 So. 809 (1907).

The fact that the duties of a police justice happen to be in part those which a justice of the peace might exercise does not affect his title to the office. Rich v. McLauren, 83 Miss. 95, 35 So. 337 (1903) but see Edwards v. Weeks, 633 So. 2d 1035 (Miss. 1994).

The mayor has no authority to vote in the election of a police justice except where there is a tie vote by the aldermen. Rich v. McLauren, 83 Miss. 95, 35 So. 337 (1903) but see Edwards v. Weeks, 633 So. 2d 1035 (Miss. 1994).

This section, as embodied in § 3001, Code 1892, authorizing the municipal authorities of cities having four thousand or more inhabitants to elect police justices was held to be constitutional. Hughes v. State, 79 Miss. 77, 29 So. 786 (1901).

Officers are created for the public welfare and not for the benefit of officers, and justices of the peace cannot complain that a police justice is given jurisdiction with themselves. Hughes v. State, 79 Miss. 77, 29 So. 786 (1901).

The mayor of a municipality who is under this section ex-officio a justice of the peace within the territorial limits thereof, is also a justice of the peace of the county within the meaning of Code 1892, ch. 142 (Code 1906, ch. 147), and may participate as such in an action of unlawful detainer. Nickles v. Kendricks, 73 Miss. 711, 19 So. 582 (1896).

Municipal court would have jurisdiction to try defendants who have been charged with criminal violations of municipal ordinances which would include municipal zoning ordinances. Via, May 16, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0329.

Statute places affirmative duty upon municipal court judge to conduct preliminary hearings where crime occurs within municipality; however, in event municipal judge is precluded by judicial cannon or other recognized rule from conducting preliminary hearing, justice court judge of county in which crime occurred, acting as conservator of peace could conduct preliminary hearing. McMillan, August 29, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0636.

Fees for appointed attorneys may not be imposed by municipal courts upon indigent defendants; this cost must be borne by municipality. Moore, Oct. 26, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0153.

Tickets charging violations of state law made by patrolmen, sheriffs, or constables within a municipality should be made returnable to justice court. Brame, June 24, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0451.

Phrase "all criminal proceedings", as used in Miss. Code Section 21-23-7, includes proceedings charging traffic offenses. Baker, Feb. 10, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0035.

Since Miss. Code Section 21-23-7 provides that municipal judge has jurisdiction "to hear and determine, without a jury and without a record of testimony, all cases charging violations of the municipal ordinances and state misdemeanor laws", municipal court judge may hear false pretense or bad check cases. Gorrell, Mar. 3, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0086.

Miss. Code Section 21-23-7 limits municipal court fines of up to $1,000. Gorrell, Mar. 3, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0086.

Municipal judge, under authority of Section 21-23-7(10) may adopt municipal analog of 9-7-128. Bellman, July 14, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0339.

Imposition of 50 cent assessment on those convicted of misdemeanors to fund undercover drug investigations is not "item of court cost" within meaning of Section 21-23-7(11). Gregory, March 2, 1994, A.G. Op. #94-0098.

The committing court has authority under Section 21-23-7(11) to enforce its orders through contempt charges. An indirect contempt of court charge may be brought by the prosecuting attorney. Due process (notice and a hearing) must be provided to any individual charged with indirect contempt charges. Gilfoy, October 11, 1996, A.G. Op. #96-0686.

If a municipal judge cannot hear a criminal case due to a conflict of interest, the case should either be transferred to the justice court or another municipal judge in the municipality. Pittman, July 25, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0442.

Where a municipal court sentences a defendant to a work program, the defendant is entitled to be credited at the current federal minimum wage for any fine imposed; furthermore, an indigent defendant may be sentenced to a work program in lieu of a fine. Austin, Aug. 1, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0472.

When a county public defender is appointed to represent a defendant on felony charges in a municipal court preliminary hearing, the court should allow the public defender to withdraw if the felony charges are reduced to misdemeanors, the court should then determine if a court appointed attorney is appropriate on the misdemeanor charges, and if the public defender is appointed to represent the defendant on the misdemeanor charges, then the public defender is entitled to additional compensation from the municipality under Miss. Code Section 99-15-17. Tucker, Aug. 15, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0500.

A municipal judge may order that a defendant pay reasonable court costs, which may include a jail cost not to exceed $10.00 per day. Webb, Aug. 29, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0538.

A municipal judge may impose a court cost of up to $15.00 to an affiant if the affiant requests that the affidavit, complaint or charge be dismissed in municipal court; the mere dismissal of a case, however, does not automatically impose a court cost to the affiant, and the judge may impose a court cost of up to $100.00 to an affiant who refuses to cooperate after initiating action; whether a failure to appear for court by an affiant constitutes a refusal is for the judge to determine. Mark, January 9, 1998, A.G. Op. #97-0834.

A municipal court pursuant to its authority under the statute may suspend sentences on such conditions as it deems advisable, and may establish and operate probation programs including the use of alternative sentencing programs administered by private companies. Maggio, June 26, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0340.

A municipal court judge has the authority to make rules for the handling of post-conviction motions in municipal court. Miller, August 28, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0521.

Subsection (5) of this section does not allow a court to charge a fee for defendants placed on a probation program. Hester, April 30, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0209.

Subsection (11) of this section allows a court to impose a cost of up to $50.00 for costs associated with a defendant placed on probation. Hester, April 30, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0209.

The imposition of a court cost under subsection (11) is within the discretion of the court. Lawrence, Feb. 9, 2001, A.G. Op. #2001-0052.

A traffic offense that has been dismissed, dropped, or has no disposition is eligible to be expunged under subsection (13), and this subsection is retroactive and applies to any case in municipal court that has been dismissed, dropped, or has no disposition regardless of the date the charges were filed. Miller, Sept. 14, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0570.

Under subsection (11), a court may impose an item of court cost that does not exceed $50.00 for the purpose of purchasing or expanding additional municipal court facilities and, similarly, may impose such a cost for the purpose of compensating court employees; however, the expenditure of any such costs collected must be appropriated by the municipal governing authorities. Payne, Mar. 15, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0110.

A dispatcher who takes original information from an incoming telephone call, thereby becoming a potential fact witness, may perform the administrative function of acknowledging or taking an officer's oath on a charging document the results from the situation. Holland, Apr. 5, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0158.

If charges are docketed under the same number, they would be considered one case, and if charges are docketed under separate numbers, then each would be a different case. Payne, May 24, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0263.

Although Section 21-23-7 requires a complaint filed in municipal court to state the statute or ordinance relied upon, the Uniform Traffic Ticket statute constitutes an exception thereto for traffic violations. Gilfoy, Oct. 25, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0613.

A municipal judge may set a standard assessment under Section 21-23-7(11), the proceeds of which could be used for the purchase of a computer. Gilfoy, Nov. 1, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0630.

A municipality may pay a constable for service of a municipal court warrant and then charge the cost of that fee to the defendant upon a conviction. Ringer, Feb. 21, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0074.

A constable may not be paid mileage simply for serving a warrant, however, a municipality may pay a constable a mileage fee as warranted by Section 25-7-27 (1)(c); the municipal court is limited by Section 21-23-7(11) when imposing such mileage reimbursements as a cost of court to the defendant upon conviction. Ringer, Feb. 21, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0074.

A municipal court may impose an item of court cost that does not exceed $50.00 for the purpose of purchasing equipment/computer software for the court's use. The expenditure of any such court costs collected must be appropriated by the municipal governing authorities. Smith, Dec. 2, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0641.

The municipal court of a city may impose a cost of court of $ 10.00 to defray the cost of compensating the city prosecutor and/or city public defender if the city prosecutor and/or city public defender participated in the case. Patch, Aug. 20, 2004, A.G. 04-0416.

Subsection (7) of this section specifically excludes traffic violations, and therefore said law is not applicable to DUI convictions under § 63-11-30. Livingston, Sept. 3, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0417.

A state misdemeanor charge may be enforced in municipal court as a violation of city ordinance. However, a highway patrolman, sheriff, or constable has no jurisdiction to enforce city ordinances, and must enforce the state misdemeanor laws in justice court even if the offense occurred within the city limits. Ringer, Sept. 24, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0468.

A municipal court judge has the authority to issue restraining orders, protective orders, and similar orders to enforce its decisions in domestic violence cases heard by the court. A municipal court, otherwise, may only use contempt to enforce its orders. Collins, Jan. 15, 2005, A.G. Op. 04-0635.

Policemen acting in their capacity as employees of a city must use traffic tickets issued by that city and identifying that city's municipal court as the court hearing the cause. Any tickets issued by the sheriff's office, constables, or highway patrolmen should be issued on tickets identifying their respective departments and heard by justice court. Bush, Jan. 14, 2005, A.G. Op. 04-0641.

§ 21-23-8. Bail; bond or recognizance; appearance bond payable to municipality; procedure upon default; judgment nisi.

(1) The municipal judge shall set the amount of bail for persons charged with offenses in municipal court and may approve the bond or recognizance therefor. In instances where the municipal judge is unavailable and has not provided a bail schedule or otherwise provided for the setting of bail, it is lawful for any officer or officers designated by order of the municipal judge to take bond, cash, property or recognizance, with or without sureties, in a sum to be determined by such officer, of not less than Fifty Dollars ($50.00) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), payable to the municipality and conditioned for the appearance of such person on the return day and time of the writ before the court before whom the warrant is returnable, or in cases of arrest without a warrant, on the day and time set by the court or officer for arraignment, and there remain from day to day and term to term until discharged. All bonds shall be promptly returned to the court, together with any cash deposited, and be filed and proceeded on by the court in a case of forfeiture. The chief of the municipal police or a police officer or officers designated by order of the municipal judge may approve bonds or recognizances.

(2)(a) All bonds and recognizances in municipal court where the municipal court shall have the jurisdiction to hear and determine the case may be made payable to the municipality and shall have the effect to bind the principal and any sureties on the bond or recognizance until they shall be discharged by due course of law without renewal.

(b) If a defendant fails to appear for any proceeding as ordered by the court, then the court shall order the bail forfeited and a bench warrant issued at the time of nonappearance. The purpose of bail is to guarantee appearance and bail shall not be forfeited for any other reason. Upon declaration of such forfeiture, the court shall issue a judgment nisi. The clerk of the court shall notify the surety of the forfeiture by writ of scire facias, with a copy of the judgment nisi and bench warrant attached thereto, within ten (10) working days of such order of judgment nisi either by personal service or by certified mail. Failure of the clerk to provide the required notice within ten (10) working days shall constitute prima facie evidence that the order should be set aside.

(c) The judgment nisi shall be returnable for ninety (90) days from the date of issuance. If during such period the defendant appears before the court, or is arrested and surrendered, then the judgment nisi shall be set aside. If the surety fails to produce the defendant and does not provide to the court reasonable mitigating circumstances upon such showing, then the forfeiture shall be made final with a copy of the final judgment to be served on the surety. Reasonable mitigating circumstances shall be that the defendant is incarcerated in another jurisdiction, that the defendant is hospitalized under a doctor's care, that the defendant is in a recognized drug rehabilitation program, that the defendant has been placed in a witness protection program and it shall be the duty of any such agency placing such defendant into a witness protection program to notify the court and the court to notify the surety, or any other reason justifiable to the court.

Legislative intent of statute is not to utilize appearance bond as post-conviction remedy for collection of court cost and fines, but as means of guaranteeing that defendant will appear before court at designated time and there remain until such time as issue of his guilt is decided, at which time bonding company must be released from its obligation to municipality. Melton, August 22, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0601.

A scire facias may be personally served on a limited surety agent, and that process will be binding on the insurer represented by that agent. Johnson, November 6, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0672.

A municipal judge may appoint an officer to accept bonds in the judge's absence, and the officer does not have to be deputized as a deputy municipal court clerk but the statute does not allow the collection of fines by such an officer. Rook, Dec. 27, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0679.

The statute does not allow dispatchers to accept bonds unless the dispatcher is also an officer who has been appointed by the judge; if such an officer is appointed by the municipal court judge to accept bonds, then a municipal court receipt may be used by the officer upon acceptance of a bond, and the officer should turn all money received and a copy of the receipts in to the municipal court clerk at the earliest opportunity. Rook, Dec. 27, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0679.

An officer may release a defendant that has been charged with a traffic offense and is in his custody on a written notice to appear or if that officer has been designated by the municipal judge, may take a bond, cash or otherwise, from such a defendant. Powell, Jan. 10, 2003, A.G. Op. #02-0766.

§ 21-23-9. Municipal judge pro tempore.

In any municipality where a municipal judge is appointed or elected, the governing authorities shall have the power and authority to appoint a municipal judge pro tempore who shall have the same powers and qualifications for office as the municipal judge and shall perform all duties of the municipal judge in the absence of such municipal judge or if such municipal judge is unable to serve for any reason. In the event a municipal judge pro tempore is not appointed or is absent or unable for any reason to serve, any justice court judge of the county or municipal judge of another municipality may serve in his place with the same power and authority upon designation by the municipal judge. Any municipality that appoints a municipal judge pro tempore in the absence of a municipal judge or has a justice court judge serve in the absence of a municipal court judge, as provided in this section, is authorized to compensate that municipal judge pro tempore or justice court judge in the same manner and amount as the municipality provides for the appointed or elected municipal judge who is absent.

1. In general.

The mere fact that the regular police justice was in the city at the time was not sufficient to overcome the strong presumption that the issuance of a search warrant by the police justice pro tempore was valid. Raper v. State, 317 So. 2d 709 (Miss. 1975).

The mayor and board of aldermen are authorized to elect a mayor pro tempore who can discharge the duties of police justice of such municipality. City of Pascagoula v. Sharp, 136 Miss. 756, 101 So. 683 (1924).

A case in which it is held that the City of Laurel had no authority to elect a police justice pro tempore. City of Laurel v. Turner, 96 Miss. 631, 51 So. 403 (1910).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Municipal judge pro tempore must either be justice court judge or attorney. Hatcher, July 8, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0480.

Under Miss. Code Section 21-23-9, city may appoint municipal judge pro tempore, in addition to two municipal judges who are already serving city. Hicks, Apr. 14, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0237.

A municipal court judge may appoint a justice court judge of the county to serve as municipal court judge in the absence of the regular municipal court judge and municipal court judge pro tempore; a justice court judge so appointed is serving in the capacity of a municipal court judge and not the capacity of a justice court judge when handling matters before the municipal court. Williamson & Tallant, August 6, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0387.

A justice court judge does not have authority to sign a municipal court warrant unless that justice court judge has been appointed to serve as the municipal court judge. Adams, Aug. 1, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0368.

A municipal court judge has the authority to appoint a justice court judge of the county or a municipal court judge of another municipality to serve in his place in the event the municipal court judge and the municipal court judge pro tempore are unavailable. A justice court judge so appointed would have the same power and authority as the municipal court judge, including the authority to execute warrants. The justice court judge would be entitled to compensation in the same manner and amount as the municipality provides for the appointed or elected municipal judge who is absent; there is no authority to pay the justice court judge a separate fee for each warrant executed. Sorrell, Mar. 12, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0101.

A municipal court judge may appoint a justice court judge to serve in his place with the same power and authority, including the authority to sign warrants. The compensation of a justice court judge so appointed is subject to approval by the governing authorities of the municipality. Lantrip, Mar. 26, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0127.

A municipality has the authority to appoint one municipal judge pro-tempore and one justice court judge, as needed. Lantrip, Mar. 26, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0127.

The clerk of the municipality shall be the clerk of the municipal court, unless the governing authorities shall otherwise elect. The clerk of the court shall attend the sittings of the court in person or by duly appointed deputies, and he shall be under the direction of the municipal judge. The governing authorities may authorize the municipal judge to appoint other municipal employees as deputy clerks of the court to assist the clerk of the court in the conduct of the court's responsibilities or the governing authorities may appoint deputy clerks of the court. The authorization to appoint and/or appointment of deputy clerks of the court shall be entered in the minutes of the municipality. A police officer of the municipality may be the clerk of the court or a deputy clerk of the court. The governing authorities shall provide for the training of court personnel.

The clerk of the court shall keep permanent dockets, upon which all cases shall be entered; said docket shall contain the style of the case and the nature of the charge against an accused, and the names of witnesses for the prosecution and defendant. The clerk of the court shall also keep a minute record in which all orders and judgments shall be entered. One (1) record may serve as both the docket record and minute record. The clerk of the court or deputy clerk of the court shall issue all process from the court, except arrest warrants or process for the seizure of persons and property, and shall administer the collection of all fines, penalties, fees and costs imposed by the court and deposit all collections with the municipal treasurer or equivalent officer. The clerk of the court shall purchase all dockets, minute record, stationery and other supplies for the municipal court, and have the account allowed by the municipal judge; the order allowing the same shall be entered upon the minutes, and the municipal authorities shall pay the same. The clerk of the court and deputy clerks of the court shall have power to take acknowledgments, administer any oaths required by law to be taken by any person, and take affidavits charging any crime against the municipality or state.

When the municipal judge is unavailable, persons charged with the commission of misdemeanor violations within the municipality may be brought before the clerk of the court for initial appearances required by the Mississippi Uniform Criminal Rules of Circuit Court Practice where the clerk of the court has satisfactorily completed a course of training and education on this subject conducted by the Mississippi Judicial College of the University of Mississippi Law Center and the municipal judge has established written guidelines and procedures for the clerk of the court to discharge this function. Such guidelines shall be entered in the minutes of the court and be deemed a public record and made available to defendant or counsel.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

The desk sergeant of a municipal police force who was also the deputy clerk of the police court had no authority to take the affidavits of private persons which charged the commission of misdemeanors and, without the direction of the police justice, he had no authority to issue warrants of arrest for the persons charged in the affidavits. Smith v. Grady, 411 F.2d 181 (5th Cir. 1969).

The clerk of a municipality is not authorized to issue a search warrant. Jackson v. Howard, 135 Miss. 102, 99 So. 497 (1924); Porter v. State, 135 Miss. 789, 100 So. 377 (1924).

§ 21-23-12. Training and education program for municipal court clerks; instruction by Mississippi Judicial College; certificate of completion.

(1) Every person appointed as clerk of the municipal court shall be required annually to attend and complete a comprehensive course of training and education conducted or approved by the Mississippi Judicial College of the University of Mississippi Law Center. Attendance shall be required beginning with the first training seminar conducted after said clerk is appointed.

(2) The Mississippi Judicial College of the University of Mississippi Law Center shall prepare and conduct a course of training and education for municipal court clerks of the state. The course shall consist of at least twelve (12) hours of training per year. After completion of the first year's requirement, a maximum of six (6) hours training, over and above the required twelve (12) hours, may be carried forward from the previous year. The content of the course of training and when and where it is to be conducted shall be determined by the Judicial College. A certificate of completion shall be furnished to those municipal court clerks who complete such course, and each certificate shall be made a permanent record of the minutes of the board of aldermen or city council in the municipality from which the municipal clerk is appointed.

(3) Upon the failure of any person appointed as clerk of the municipal court to file the certificate of completion as provided in subsection (2) of this section, within the first year of appointment, such person shall then not be allowed to carry out any of the duties of the office of clerk of the municipal court and shall not be entitled to compensation for the period of time during which such certificate remains unfiled.

Only clerk of municipal court, not deputy clerks, are required to complete training and education course. Coates, Nov. 3, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0683.

The intent of the Legislature is that a municipal court clerk is required to receive at least 12 hours of training and education each year; the clerk must receive 12 hours of training within the first year of being appointed as clerk and then receive an additional 12 hours of training on an annual basis; if a clerk receives more than the required 12 hours of training in one year, up to six of those hours may be carried forward to be applied to the next year's requirement. Kossman, Mar. 9, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0133.

Failure of a municipal court clerk to receive required training prohibits the clerk from performing any of the duties of the job and from receiving any compensation until training is completed; upon finding that the statute has not been complied with, the governing authorities should suspend the clerk without pay until the clerk complies with the requirements, and continued payments to an unqualified clerk should be reported to the State Auditor. Kossman, Mar. 9, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0133.

§ 21-23-13. Executive officer of the court.

The marshal or chief of police of the municipality shall be the executive officer of the municipal court. He shall attend the sittings of the court in person or by duly appointed deputies, and he shall be under the direction of the municipal judge. Any police officer of the municipality may be an ex officio deputy marshal. The marshal or chief of police shall execute all process by himself or deputy and do whatever else may be required of him by the court in the line of his duty.

In enforcing the penalty prescribed for violation of all laws and ordinances in regard to parking of vehicles, it shall not be necessary to name any person in a traffic ticket issued for such violation. A traffic ticket attached to the unlawfully parked vehicle shall be sufficient to require the appearance of the operator unlawfully parking such vehicle in the municipal court at the time stated in such traffic ticket. In cases where the name of the operator of an unlawfully parked vehicle is unknown, the owner of record of the unlawfully parked vehicle shall, as a matter of law, be presumed to be the operator of such vehicle and may be charged with such violation. No arrest shall be made for failure of the operator or owner to appear in response to said traffic ticket, except on affidavit and issuance of an arrest warrant. Except in cases where an arrest warrant is issued, it shall not be necessary to enter such cases on the municipal court docket nor to enter final judgment thereon in the minute book of said court. Except as otherwise provided in Section 27-19-56, Mississippi Code of 1972, in enforcing the penalty prescribed for violation of all laws and ordinances in regard to parking of vehicles, no person's driver's license shall be suspended or revoked.

§ 21-23-20. Intermittent sentences for misdemeanor convictions.

Upon conviction of any person of a misdemeanor in a municipal court of this state, the municipal court judge shall be authorized, in his discretion, to sentence such person to:

- (a) A period of time in jail to be served either on weekends only;

(b) Other periods of time during the week wherein such offender may not be engaged in gainful employment; or

(c) A specified number of days in jail with a provision for the release of such offender for the purpose of engaging in gainful employment at such times as the offender is actually gainfully employed, whether self-employed or otherwise.

In addition, the court may, in its discretion, sentence any convicted person to split periods of incarceration; and the court shall not be required to order such offender to serve a sentence of imprisonment all in one period but may suspend the sentence from time to time.

The provisions of Sections 21-23-1 through 21-23-19 shall be applicable to all municipalities of this state whether operating under a code charter, special charter, or the commission form of government, except in cases of conflict between the provisions of said sections and the provisions of the special charter of a municipality, or the law governing the commission form of government, in which cases of conflict the provisions of the special charter or the statutes relative to the commission form of government shall control. The provisions of this chapter are cumulative to other applicable laws of this state.

Const. 1890, §§ 80, 88, among other things providing for general laws to create and govern municipal corporations are prospective in operation and do not repeal existing municipal charters. Therefore this section recognizing the continued existence of such charters is not unconstitutional. Lum v. City of Vicksburg, 72 Miss. 590, 18 So. 476 (1895).

Its corporate authorities having formally accepted the provisions of the Code

Chapter, the city of Jackson became bound thereby, and subsequent action of the authorities purporting to rescind the resolution of acceptance, though within twelve months, was ineffectual. State v. Govan, 70 Miss. 535, 12 So. 959 (1893).

Under this section declaring that after the chapter became operative, every municipality shall be governed by its provisions but that any municipality might within twelve months, "elect not to come under the provisions hereof," power was given municipalities affirmatively to accept the provisions of the chapter and be governed thereby. Ex parte Shlomberg, 70 Miss. 47, 11 So. 721 (1892).

SEC.
21-25-1.	Fire marshal.
21-25-3.	Establishment and maintenance of fire departments; reimbursement of training expenses.
21-25-5.	Fire departments authorized to go outside municipal limits; liability.
21-25-7.	Hours of work for firemen limited; report to be made to state rating bureau.
21-25-9.	Medical and hospital care for injured firemen.
21-25-11.	Purchase of certain insurance for firemen; payment of premiums.

The governing authorities of municipalities shall have the power to appoint a fire marshal, who may be the mayor, or any member of the governing authority of the municipality, or the city or town marshal. The fire marshal shall have the power to remove and keep away from the vicinity of any fire all idle and suspicious persons lurking near the same. He shall have the power to compel any person present to aid in the extinguishment of such fire or the preservation of property exposed to the danger of such fire and to aid in preventing goods from being purloined thereat. He shall also have such powers and duties as may be prescribed by ordinance.

(1) The governing authorities of municipalities shall have the power to provide for the prevention and extinguishment of fires, to organize, establish, operate, and maintain fire and hook and ladder companies, to provide for and maintain a fire department and system, and to regulate the same. The governing authorities shall have the power to allow the fire department to attend and help to extinguish a fire outside the city limits.

(2) No fire fighter whose training expenses have been reimbursed to or paid by the political subdivision employing the fire fighter shall leave the employ of the political subdivision for not less than two (2) years after completion of the reimbursed training, unless the reimbursed expenses are paid by the new employer to the political subdivision which reimbursed or paid such expenses. The amount to be paid shall be determined on a pro rata basis based upon when the fire fighter leaves the political subdivision within the two-year period. Defined training expenses are related to minimum standards training, as established by the Mississippi Fire Personnel Minimum Standards and Certification Board which were incurred and include salary, tuition, travel expenses of the employee as well as personnel cost related to the training incurred during the employee's absence.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
- 2.-5. [Reserved for future use.]
6. Under former law.

1. In general.

The city authorities in transferring an employee of the fire department from one post to another act in an executive capacity and necessarily are vested with a wide discretion in the discharge of their duties as officers of the city. Scott v. Lowe, 223 Miss. 312, 78 So. 2d 452 (1955).

The Civil Service Act limits the review of actions by the commission and the courts to whether such actions are taken in good faith and for cause. Scott v. Lowe, 223 Miss. 312, 78 So. 2d 452 (1955).

2.-5. [Reserved for future use.]6. Under former law.

In extinguishing fires, municipality is acting in governmental capacity, but in operation of its water works its actions are of proprietary nature. City of Columbus v. McIlwain, 205 Miss. 473, 38 So. 2d 921 (1949).

Municipal corporation is not responsible for destruction of property within its limits by fire which it did not set out, merely because, through negligence or other default of corporation or its employees, members of fire department failed to extinguish fire, though this failure is due to negligence in permitting fire hydrants to become defective; and it makes no difference that municipality uses same reservoirs and pipes for its fire service that it employs for distribution of public supply for domestic purposes, from which it derives profit, since the two functions are distinguishable. City of Columbus v. McIlwain, 205 Miss. 473, 38 So. 2d 921 (1949).

Laws of 1944, Chap. 208 (§§ 3825-01 to 3825-17, inclusive, Supp. to 1942 Code), did not withdraw from municipalities any of the powers conferred by this section, but, where a fireman's position has been abolished, determine only his rights. City of Laurel v. Reddoch, 200 Miss. 259, 26 So. 2d 465 (1946).

It was error to grant the remedy of mandamus against the mayor and board of aldermen of a municipality to compel them to enforce a fire prevention ordinance enacted under this section, where the ordinance was wholly incomplete with respect to the means of enforcement of its provisions. Garraway v. State ex rel. Dale, 184 Miss. 466, 184 So. 628 (1938).

Unless the statute contains some express or implied restraint, a municipality has a reasonable discretion in the choice of the means or methods for exercising the powers given it for a public purpose. American-LaFrance, Inc. v. City of Phila., 183 Miss. 207, 184 So. 620 (1938).

The language of this section is broad and comprehensive and does not justify a holding that the only power of performance is by outright purchase, and that leases are excluded. American-LaFrance, Inc. v. City of Phila., 183 Miss. 207, 184 So. 620 (1938).

Where the seller of a fire engine sought to hold a municipality liable for reasonable compensation for the use of the property because the contract of sale was invalid for failure to follow the statutory requirements in such cases, the municipality may be liable as a lessee, being entitled to credit, upon lease compensation, for all sums which it had theretofore paid, even though paid as purchase money. American-LaFrance, Inc. v. City of Phila., 183 Miss. 207, 184 So. 620 (1938).

A fire chief who was negligent in housing a fire engine in a fire barn that had lumber projecting over the opening door of the shed was acting in the discharge of a governmental duty, and a city fireman injured while driving an engine from such fire shed cannot recover from the city damages caused by the negligence of the fire chief. City of Hattiesburg v. Geigor, 118 Miss. 676, 79 So. 846 (1918) but see White v. City of Tupelo, 462 So. 2d 707 (Miss. 1984).

Although county and governing board of county fire protection district may not enter into multi-state contracts or agreements, if volunteer fire departments are private, nonprofit corporations rather than publicly owned and operated departments, notwithstanding they receive substantial public funding and support via contracts for services, departments are free to enter into mutual assistance agreements with fire departments in adjacent state provided the exercise of such power is not inconsistent with the respective charters of incorporation or the fire protection service contracts with the county. Barry, July 22, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0536.

Town of Tunica may contract with private nonprofit volunteer fire organization to provide fire protection services. Dulaney, March 20, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0137.

A municipality may only purchase equipment, materials, supplies or provide funds for a fire protection district pursuant to an interlocal agreement with the fire protection district. Hatcher, October 30, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0666.

A municipality has the duty to provide fire protection within its corporate limits, and if there is no fire protection district serving the area, the municipality must provide fire protection for the area. Smith, May 26, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0274.

There is no authority for a municipality to charge a fee of $ 500.00 to an insurance company providing fire insurance coverage to its insured in the event of a fire within the municipality to reimburse the municipality for the costs of fighting the fire. Tyner, Apr. 6, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0198.

Subsection (3) did not apply to a firefighter who was not an employee of a political subdivision, but, instead, was the employee of a contractor. Mangum, Jr., Mar. 8, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0091.

Fire departments have the power to verify that all reports of fires are handled appropriately and that the validity or invalidity of all reports of fires are verified. Miller, May 31, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0280.

There is no authority for the governing authorities of a municipality to contract with residents of the municipality for additional or special police or fire protection. Tyner, May 9, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0211.

A county may contract to provide fire protection services only, including the water supply for that contract, to a business located within the corporate limits of a municipality which is in a certificated area without the consent of the entity holding the certificate of public necessity. Nowak, Apr. 16, 2004, A.G. Op. 03-0569.

A county may contract with a municipality to provide fire protection services to a business located within the corporate limits of the municipality. Nowak, Apr. 16, 2004, A.G. Op. 03-0569.

There is no statutory requirement for a fire chief in code charter municipalities with the mayor-aldermen form of government. Davis, Oct. 29, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0522.

The fire departments, including the apparatus and all vehicles of such departments, are hereby authorized to use the roads, highways, streets and alleys outside the corporate limits of such municipalities owning and operating such fire fighting and fire prevention equipment, for the purpose of aiding in the extinguishing and prevention of fires or in the alleviating of damages or injuries caused by tornadoes or other casualties in locations outside the corporate limits of such municipalities. For the purpose of expediting the extinguishment or prevention of fires and of aiding in the rescue of persons or preventing other damage to either persons or property in such locations outside the corporate limits of such municipalities or in cities, towns, or villages located and situated beyond the corporate limits of such municipalities owning such equipment, such fire departments are hereby extended the right of way, or priority in use, over the public roads, highways, streets and alleys of the state and counties whether such roads, highways, streets or alleys are maintained by the state, counties, cities, towns, or villages.

To further effectuate and put into force and effect the purposes of this section, such municipalities owning and operating said equipment are hereby declared free of any liability on account of injury to persons or damage to property in going to and from such locations outside the corporate limits when engaged in the extinguishing and prevention of fires or in the alleviating of damages or injuries caused by tornadoes or other casualties, it being the purpose of this section that such municipalities aiding other municipalities or residents of the State of Mississippi located outside the corporate limits of such municipalities shall be entitled to all the benefits and immunities, both from civil and criminal prosecution, as are now enjoyed by such municipalities within their own respective corporate limits. This section shall be liberally construed to effect the purposes thereof.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

A fireman who was engaged in rescuing individuals from a wrecked automobile outside of the city and county in which he was employed was nevertheless a "fireman" within the meaning of § 97-3-7, which sets forth the punishment for simple assault upon a fireman acting within the scope of his duty, since the fireman was authorized under § 21-25-5 to act outside his city boundary in "aiding in the rescue of persons" and was not limited to county lines. Cagle v. State, 536 So. 2d 3 (Miss. 1988).

§ 21-25-7. Hours of work for firemen limited; report to be made to state rating bureau.

In all municipalities of this state maintaining a paid fire department, the personnel of which department is actively and exclusively engaged in fire duty, no member of such department, exclusive of the chief officer, shall be required to remain on active duty for an entire twenty-four hours. The personnel of such fire department shall be divided into two platoons, or shifts, one to perform duty in the daytime and the other to perform duty in the nighttime, but neither platoon, or shift, shall be required to remain on active duty in any event for more than fourteen hours per day, except in cases of urgent and extreme necessity.

Each municipality coming within the provisions of this section shall immediately submit to the Mississippi state rating bureau the set-up and organization of its fire department which will be necessary in order to comply with the provisions of this section and which can be effected without employing more than one additional fireman. Such municipality shall require of said rating bureau a ruling as to whether or not such a set-up and organization of its fire department would adversely affect the present insurance rating of such municipality; if said rating bureau in answer to such request shall give a written ruling in the affirmative the municipality requesting such ruling shall be exempt from the provisions of this section.

The governing authorities of any municipality are hereby authorized to create, by ordinance, a fire district within or adjoining such municipality when petitioned so to do by a majority of the owners of property, either real or personal, located within such proposed fire district. After the creation of the fire district such governing authorities shall cause the ordinance creating such fire district to be published three weeks in some newspaper in such municipality, or the county in which the municipality is located, and at the next regular meeting of the governing authorities after such three weeks' publication, they shall declare such territory to be a fire district as provided by this section. Such governing authorities shall have full power to contract for laying water mains and any other pipes or connections to the water mains to be used in said fire district, and for the establishment and maintenance of fire service therein.

The governing authorities of any two or more municipalities may, in their discretion, contract to create a consolidated fire district, which shall consist of the whole, or a part, of the territory of such municipalities joining therein. Such contract entered into by the governing authorities of such municipalities shall embrace all of the essential terms, and shall state the amount to be contributed by each participating municipality, and the control and operation of same. An ordinance containing the contract as to control of equipment, supervision of the district, and the amount of money to be contributed by each municipality, shall be passed by the governing authorities of all participating municipalities in the same form and substance. Such ordinance shall be duly published as now required by law, and shall go into effect unless twenty per cent of the qualified electors of one of the participating municipalities shall petition against same and file said petition with the proper clerk on or before the next regular meeting of said governing authorities, to be held not less than fifteen days thereafter. If such petition be duly filed, said governing authorities may either cancel said prior ordinance or order an election on said question. Said ordinance shall go into effect immediately if a majority of the qualified electors voting in said election vote therefor; otherwise, said ordinance shall remain void and of no effect, and no like ordinance shall be passed within four years thereafter.

Such consolidated fire district shall be given a name, and the supervision of protecting said district shall be vested in the governing authorities of the municipality decided upon and stated in the ordinance creating the consolidated fire district. The governing authorities of the municipalities in a consolidated fire district created under the provisions of this section shall have the same powers and duties as the governing authorities in any other fire district.

INTERLOCAL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN MUNICIPALITIES AND RURAL WATER ASSOCIATIONS

Sec.

21-25-51. Purpose; interlocal agreements authorized.

21-25-53. Approval by resolution; power, authority and responsibilities.

21-25-55. Contents of agreement.

21-25-57. Bonded and floating indebtedness; appropriations; supplying goods and services.

21-25-59. Price of newly constructed or upgraded water system.

(1) It is the purpose of Sections 21-25-51 through 21-25-59 to permit the governing authorities of any municipality and a rural water association operating within the corporate limits of the municipality to make the most efficient use of their powers in upgrading their respective water systems for the purpose of improving local fire protection by enabling them to cooperate and to contract with each other on a basis of mutual advantage and thereby provide services and facilities in a manner that will accord best with geographic, economic, population and other factors influencing the needs and development of the fire protection of local communities.

(2) The governing authorities of any municipality may enter into an interlocal agreement with any rural water association operating within the corporate limits of the municipality for the purpose of constructing, new construction or upgrading the water system of the municipality or the water association, or both, for the purpose of improving the fire protection of the municipality.

SOURCES: Laws, 1998, ch. 319, § 1, eff from and after passage (approved March 12, 1998).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

A municipality may enter into a contract with a water association under which the water association reads the meters of the residents who receive municipal sewer services, sends bills to these customers, collects the fees for sewer services, and provides cut-off services for customers who fail to pay sewer fees; further, a town may require customers of the water association to give their consent to have their meters read by the town as a condition of receiving sewer services provided by the town. Hatcher, October 9, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0606.

There is no authority for a county to provide sewer services or to collect fees for sewer services or to assess property for sewer services or other utility services as a special assessment; therefore, there is no authority for a municipality to enter into an interlocal agreement with the board of supervisors and tax assessor and collector of the county to collect fees for sewer services as part of the county or municipal ad valorem taxes of nonresidents and residents of the town who receive sewer services and to sell property of sewer service customers who are delinquent in their accounts. Hatcher, October 9, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0606.

(1) No interlocal agreement made under Sections 21-25-51 through 21-25-59 shall be entered into by any municipality or rural water association without the approval by resolution on the minutes of the governing authorities of the municipality and the rural water association.

(2) No power, authority and responsibility may be exercised under Sections 21-25-51 through 21-25-59 by the governing authorities of any municipality or rural water association which it would not have authority to exercise otherwise pursuant to the law controlling such municipality or association.

(3) Any power, authority or responsibility exercised or capable of being exercised by the governing authorities of any municipality of this state may be exercised and carried out jointly with the governing authorities of any rural water association.

§ 21-25-55. Contents of agreement.

Any agreement made under the provisions of Sections 21-25-51 through 21-25-59 shall specify the following:

(a) Its duration.

(b) Its purpose or purposes.

(c) The precise organization, composition, nature and powers of any separate legal or administrative entity created thereby; the specific citation of statutory authority vested in each of the governing authorities of the municipality and rural water association which are to be a party to the agreement.

(d) The manner of financing, staffing and supplying the joint or cooperative undertaking and of establishing and maintaining a budget therefore; provided, that the treasurer and the disbursing officer of either the municipality or the association, or both, shall be designated in the agreement to receive, disburse and account for all funds of the joint undertaking as a part of the duties of the officer or officers.

(e) The permissible method or methods to be employed in accomplishing the partial or complete termination or amendment of the agreement and for disposing of property upon such partial or complete termination or amendment.

(f) The provision for administration, through a joint board or other appropriate means, of the joint or cooperative undertaking in the event that the agreement does not or may not establish a separate administrative body or legal entity to conduct the joint or cooperative undertaking. In the case of a joint board, both the governing authorities of the municipality and the rural water association shall be represented.

(g) The manner of acquiring, holding and disposing of real and personal property used in the joint or cooperative undertaking in the event that the agreement does not or may not establish a separate administrative body or legal entity to conduct the joint or cooperative undertaking.

(h) Any other necessary and proper matters.

§ 21-25-57. Bonded and floating indebtedness; appropriations; supplying goods and services.

The governing authorities of any municipality entering into an interlocal agreement with a rural water association operating within the corporate limits of the municipality pursuant to Sections 21-25-51 through 21-25-59 may incur bonded and floating indebtedness, including general obligation indebtedness as authorized by Sections 21-33-301 through 21-33-329 and may appropriate funds for the purpose and in the manner prescribed by law without regard to whether the activities and improvements authorized under Section 21-25-51 to be financed by such debt or appropriation are within or without the corporate limits of the municipality. The governing authorities of the municipality may sell, lease, grant or otherwise supply goods and services to the rural water association which is a party to the interlocal agreement or the administrative body or legal entity created to operate the joint or cooperative undertaking.

After a water system has been constructed or upgraded pursuant to the provisions of Sections 21-25-51 through 21-25-59, the municipality which reimbursed or paid a rural water system for the cost of such construction or upgrading shall not be charged with the costs of such construction or upgrade upon its purchase of the water system. The price of such newly constructed or upgraded water system shall be reduced by an amount equal to the costs paid by the municipality to the rural water system for such construction or upgrading of the water system.

SEC.
21-27-1.	No franchise or right to be exclusive, without compensation, or longer than 25 years.
21-27-3.	Poles, posts and wires.
21-27-5.	Pipes, conduits and pipe lines.
21-27-7.	Waterworks.
21-27-9.	Testing of water, electric and gas meters; authority to prosecute persons for tampering with meters.

§ 21-27-1. No franchise or right to be exclusive, without compensation, or longer than 25 years.

No municipality shall have the power to grant to any person, firm or corporation any exclusive franchise or any exclusive right to use or occupy the streets, highways, bridges, or public places in such municipality for any purpose. No municipality shall grant, renew, or extend any such franchise, privilege or right, without compensation or for any longer period than twenty-five years.

The provisions of this section shall be applicable to all municipalities of this state, whether operating under a code charter, special charter, or the commission form of government, except in cases of conflict between the provisions of this section and the provisions of the special charter of a municipality, or the law governing the commission form of government, in which cases of conflict the provisions of the special charter or the statutes relative to the commission form of government shall control.

1. In general.

The power given municipalities to grant utility franchises and the right to use their streets and public places are subject to legislative control. Delta Elec. Power Ass'n v. Mississippi Power & Light Co., 250 Miss. 482, 149 So. 2d 504 (1963), appeal dismissed, cert. denied, 375 U.S. 77, 84 S. Ct. 196, 11 L. Ed. 2d 142 (1963), reh'g denied, 375 U.S. 981, 84 S. Ct. 478, 11 L. Ed. 2d 428 (1964).

A nonexclusive franchise of a common carrier for passengers for hire is a valuable property right, and the carrier is entitled to relief by way of an injunction against a threatened or actual injury to his property rights through illegal competition of another common carrier of passengers for hire. Payne v. Jackson City Lines, 220 Miss. 180, 70 So. 2d 520 (1954).

A commercial carrier of passengers for hire in a municipality must obtain a franchise before the carrier can operate for those purposes. Payne v. Jackson City Lines, 220 Miss. 180, 70 So. 2d 520 (1954).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Provisions of Miss. Code Section 21-27-1 do not preempt municipal home rule authority to grant nonexclusive franchises and to regulate cable television services; further, no other state law implies legislative intent to prohibit municipalities from exercising franchising authority over other activities, such as cable television services, that are otherwise appropriate subjects of governmental regulation.

Mitchell, Apr. 23, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0007.

A city may enter into a lease purchase agreement in which it leases and eventually purchases all or part of a private utility system. However, the current board of aldermen of the city may not bind their successors in office by a lease purchase contract. Campbell, Sept. 26, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0491.

However, such privilege shall not be exclusive, and no such privilege shall be granted for a longer term than twenty-five years.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Certificate of public convenience and necessity issued by Public Service Commission (PSC) to utility grants exclusive right to operate in designated area, so long as utility is capable of providing adequate service to customers in area covered by certificate. City of Oxford v. Northeast Miss. Elec. Power Ass'n, 704 So. 2d 59 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 702 So. 2d 133 (Miss. 1997).

A public utility part of whose certificated area has been annexed to a city may continue to serve the annexed area without obtaining a franchise from the city; but subject to the right of the city to regulate reasonably the manner in which its lines and appliances are constructed and maintained. Delta Elec. Power Ass'n v. Mississippi Power & Light Co., 250 Miss. 482, 149 So. 2d 504 (1963), appeal dismissed, cert. denied, 375 U.S. 77, 84 S. Ct. 196, 11 L. 2.-5. [Reserved for future use.]

6. Under former law.

These provisions preclude municipalities from granting an exclusive franchise. Mississippi Power Co. v. City of Aberdeen, 95 F.2d 990 (5th Cir. 1938).

The permission of the municipal authorities to a telephone company to cut trees on the line between the sidewalks and the street in the municipality does not empower the company to disregard the rights of an abutting owner. Cumberland Tel. & Tel. Co. v. Cassedy, 78 Miss. 666, 29 So. 762 (1901).

That such act was done in the absence of the plaintiff, permission having been previously asked and refused, is a fraud on the plaintiff and entitles him to punitive damages as if done in his presence. Cumberland Tel. & Tel. Co. v. Cassedy, 78 Miss. 666, 29 So. 762 (1901).

The power of a municipality over its streets, under an ordinary charter, is subject to legislative control, and hence an ordinance exacting rents from a telegraph company for the use of streets for its poles is void. Hodges v. Western Union Tel. Co., 72 Miss. 910, 18 So. 84 (1895).

Municipal "franchise" authority to grant permission and to regulate erection of telegraph, electric light, or telephone poles, posts and wires along public rights-of-way is regulated by Miss. Code Section 21-27-3. Mitchell, Apr. 23, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0007.

Subject to any contractual agreements that may exist between a municipality and a public utility, the municipality has the power to grant the right to erect poles and string wires on public rights-of-way and is empowered to govern and regulate the manner of such use, including, without limitation, requiring that all such lines be placed underground. Fortier, Jan. 25, 2000, A.G. Op. #99-0725.

A municipality may install water meters which are owned by the municipality on private property or on municipal rights-of-way, and the municipality may require consumers of the water services to give their consent to have their meters read as a condition of receiving water services; a municipality may also require consumers of water services to grant to the municipality an easement for ingress and egress for the purpose of reading water meters. Jalanivich, Mar. 15, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0113.

A municipality may require that electric light poles be constructed of steel as opposed to wood. No provision in state law is found which would require, or which authorizes, a municipality to pay for any additional costs incurred by a utility to accommodate such requirements. Sorrell, Mar. 9, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0099.

Requiring "enhancements" to electric service provided by public utilities, such as steel versus wood poles and underground versus above-ground lines, constitutes a form of ratemaking which is regulated by the Mississippi Public Service Commission. Although a municipality may require lines to be located underground or to be constructed with certain materials, same is subject to the rate schedules approved by MPSC. Sorrell, Mar. 9, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0099 modified.

§ 21-27-7. Waterworks.

The governing authorities of municipalities shall have the power to erect, purchase, maintain and operate waterworks, and to regulate the same, to prescribe the rates at which water shall be supplied to the inhabitants, and to acquire by purchase, donation or condemnation, in the name of the municipality, suitable grounds, within or without the corporate limits, upon which to erect waterworks, and also the right-of-way to and from such works and the right-of-way for laying water pipes within the corporate limits, and from such waterworks to the municipality, and to extend such right-of-way from time to time. The governing authorities shall have the power to contract with any person for the maintenance and operation of waterworks. Said authorities shall have the power to contract with any person for the erection and maintenance of waterworks for a term not exceeding twenty-five (25) years, fixing water rates in the contract subject to municipal regulations. A contract for the erection or purchase of waterworks shall not, however, be entered into until submitted to a vote of the qualified electors and approved by a majority of those voting. A contract for maintenance under which the person who will perform such maintenance is wholly or partially responsible for fixing water rates shall not be entered into until submitted to a vote of the qualified electors and approved by a majority of those voting. It shall be unlawful for any municipally owned waterworks to supply water free of charge, or in any amount less than the fixed charges, to any person, firm or corporation, except as is expressly authorized by law.

11. In general.

In the exercise of the powers granted by statute with respect to constructing and maintaining waterworks and sewerage systems, the municipality may employ civil engineers to make the necessary surveys and prepare the necessary plans and specifications, and to supervise the work after the awarding of contracts; it may employ attorneys to prepare the necessary orders and resolutions, to supervise the enactment of other necessary legal proceedings for the issuance and sale of bonds, and to give legal opinions as to the validity of the bonds; and it may pay for such engineering and legal services and other incidental expenses connected with the issuance and sale of the bonds and the construction of such public works out of the proceeds of the sale of the bonds, or perhaps out of the general fund of the municipality. Mayor & Bd. of Aldermen v. Engle, 211 Miss. 380, 51 So. 2d 564 (1951).

Under the statute regulating the issuance of bonds by the state or its political subdivisions (Law of 1946, ch. 325, § 4357-01), there is no room for the services of an underwriter in the sale of municipal bonds, and the governing authorities of a municipality have no power to enter into a contract of any kind for the payment of an underwriter's fee or commission to investment bankers for an underwriter's guarantee of the sale of municipal bonds, or for the purpose of procuring a purchaser for such bonds prior to the advertisement for and receipt of bids, or to enter into a pre-election conditional sales contract for the sale of such bonds. Mayor & Bd. of Aldermen v. Engle, 211 Miss. 380, 51 So. 2d 564 (1951).

The governing authorities of a municipality have no right to delegate to a group of investment bankers the power and authority to procure for the municipality the necessary and legal engineering services which may be required to enable the municipality to issue and sell its revenue bonds and to construct the public utility improvements contemplated. Mayor & Bd. of Aldermen v. Engle, 211 Miss. 380, 51 So. 2d 564 (1951).

Decision by city that particular site which it seeks to condemn is best adapted to its proposed public use as site for water tower is legislative and is not reviewable by courts; and city is not to be restricted in its choice between two or more available sites. City of Natchez v. Henderson, 207 Miss. 14, 41 So. 2d 41 (1949).

Municipal corporation is not responsible for destruction of property within its limits by fire which it did not set out, merely because, through negligence or other default of corporation or its employees, members or fire department failed to extinguish fire, though this failure is due to negligence in permitting fire hydrants to become defective; and it makes no difference that municipality uses same reservoirs and pipes for its fire service that it employs for distribution of public supply for domestic purposes, from which it derives profit, since the two functions are distinguishable. City of Columbus v. McIlwain, 205 Miss. 473, 38 So. 2d 921 (1949).

In extinguishing fires, municipality is acting in governmental capacity, but in operation of its waterworks its actions are of proprietary nature. City of Columbus v. McIlwain, 205 Miss. 473, 38 So. 2d 921 (1949).

Decision of municipal authorities as to extension of municipal water system to new territory is final in absence of abuse of discretion. City of Greenwood v. Provine, 143 Miss. 42, 108 So. 284, 45 A.L.R. 824 (1926).

A supervising and advising engineer is entitled to compensation for installing a waterworks system embracing a pump guaranteed by such engineer to do the work, where the failure of the pump to do the work was due to the town's own fault. Town of Woodville v. Jenks, 104 Miss. 184, 61 So. 172 (1913).

However, without statutory authority a municipality owning and operating a waterworks plant has no authority to supply water outside the limits of the municipality. Steitenroth v. City of Jackson, 99 Miss. 354, 54 So. 955 (1911).

12. Liabilities of municipality or water company.

A city operating waterworks plant and furnishing water to its citizens and controlling the cock at the junction of service pipe and the main pipe which let the water on and off is required to remove an obstruction therein within a reasonable time, and if it fails to do so it will be liable for injuries sustained by reason of insufficient water supply. City of Jackson v. Anderson, 97 Miss. 1, 51 So. 896 (1910).

It is not actionable negligence for a water company obligated to keep hydrants in repair, with the right to cut off the water flow to make repairs, and which cut off the water supply for thirty minutes to repair a hydrant, without notifying a patron using a gas heater which was highly dangerous if left burning after the water supply ceased and damage was caused by fire caused by patron lighting the gas while the water was cut off. Brame v. Light, Heat & Water Co., 95 Miss. 26, 48 So. 728, 20 Am. Ann. Cas. 1293 (1909).

A city by ordinance has the right to prohibit a person or corporation operating waterworks system in the city from permitting the pipes connected with such system becoming out of repair for more than two days in succession at the same time. Crumpler v. City of Vicksburg, 89 Miss. 214, 42 So. 673, 10 Am. Ann. Cas. 1098 (1907).

However, a corporation which contracts to supply a city and its inhabitants with water and to furnish hydrants at a designated pressure for use by the fire department is not liable to the owner for the destruction of a house by fire originating in an adjacent tenement which the firemen were unable to extinguish before it reached and consumed the house for want of such pressure on the water. Wilkinson v. Light, Heat & Water Co., 78 Miss. 389, 28 So. 877 (1900).

13. Rights and duties of consumers.

Where there is no ordinance requiring or permitting householders to repair service pipe located in the street, a householder has neither right nor authority to repair such service pipe connecting his premises with the city water main located in the street, but the duty of making such repairs in the street devolves on the water company or the city furnishing the water. Van Norman v. Meridian Waterworks Co., 102 Miss. 736, 59 So. 883 (1912).

The property owner is required to keep in repair the water service and pipes that are on his property, but the city is required to keep in repair and render service pipes in the street which are adequate to all reasonable demand and to keep the main pipe in proper repair in order to furnish sufficient water supply to its patrons. Brown v. City of Meridian, 102 Miss. 384, 59 So. 795 (1912).

14. Denial or discontinuance of service.

A verdict for $500 against a city for removing a water hydrant in plaintiff's yard, although she had another hydrant in her kitchen, was excessive; The discomfort, inconvenience and annoyance suffered might be considered in the estimation of damages. Town of Indianola v. Woods, 118 Miss. 738, 80 So. 7 (1918).

It was error for the court to give a peremptory instruction for the city where the proof showed that the city's collector of water rental exceeded the scope of his authority in cutting off the water where the suit was for damages for cutting off the water. Woods v. Town of Indianola, 114 Miss. 722, 75 So. 549 (1917).

Notwithstanding the failure of the landlord to pay rental, a lessee of part of a room is entitled to service if he applies in good faith. Ginnings v. Meridian Waterworks Co., 100 Miss. 507, 56 So. 450, Am. Ann. Cas. 1914A,540 (1911).

A municipality owning and operating a waterworks plant cannot withhold from a tenant who tenders payment therefor merely for the reason that the tenant who previously occupied the premises had failed to pay for water furnished him thereat; A rule or regulation authorizing such conduct is unreasonable and void. Burke v. City of Water Valley, 87 Miss. 732, 40 So. 820, 112 Am. St. R. 468 (1906).

15. Contracts with, and privileges granted, water companies.

A city does not abuse its discretion by preparing the construction of a waterworks plant four years before the expiration of the franchise of a water company and a court of equity will not enjoin the issuance of bonds authorized for the purpose. Griffith v. City of Vicksburg, 102 Miss. 1, 58 So. 781 (1912).

The granting to a waterworks company the exclusive right to conduct a waterworks plant in the city does not preclude the city from permitting a railroad to lay pipes in the streets so as to obtain water for its own consumption from another source. Vicksburg Waterworks Co. v. Yazoo & Miss. V. Ry., 96 Miss. 807, 51 So. 915 (1910).

The exclusive privilege granted by a city to construct a waterworks plant in the city and to use the streets for that purpose is the granting of a franchise. Adams v. Samuel R. Bullock & Co., 94 Miss. 27, 47 So. 527, 19 Am. Ann. Cas. 165 (1908).

A contract made by the authorities of a municipality with the water company for supplying the city with water for a period of twenty years, is within the powers conferred on them by an act of the legislature authorizing them to contract with a reliable corporation for supplying the city with water from year to year. Light, Heat & Water Co. v. City of Jackson, 73 Miss. 598, 19 So. 771 (1895).

While equity will not rescind a continuing contract for an occasional and immaterial breach not going to the substance of the contract, yet where a water company has failed to comply with its contract to supply a city with water in such force and quantity as to afford first-class protection against fire, the remedy of rescission is peculiarly appropriate on occasions of this character. Light, Heat & Water Co. v. City of Jackson, 73 Miss. 598, 19 So. 771 (1895).

A stipulation in a contract that a water company shall forfeit ten dollars per week for each week that a hydrant remains out of repair is in the nature of a penalty for the occasional temporary neglect and not liquidated damages for an entire breach of the contract. Light, Heat & Water Co. v. City of Jackson, 73 Miss. 598, 19 So. 771 (1895).

16. Rates.

A water system using the streets for mains and which occupied them at the time the municipality was incorporated and having no contract with the municipality constitutes a public utility and rates for water furnished to customer must not be discriminatory. Caston v. Hutson, 139 Miss. 890, 104 So. 698 (1925).

Rates fixed by municipal ordinance cannot be enjoined without an allegation that they are unreasonable and an offer to pay a reasonable rate. Bell v. Kaye, 127 Miss. 165, 89 So. 910 (1921).

Where the consumer is not misled by the neglect of the waterworks company in not having a correct meter to properly register the amount of water used by a customer it would not be estopped to collect charges for the amount of water actually used. Vicksburg Waterworks Co. v. Yazoo & Miss. V. Ry., 102 Miss. 504, 59 So. 825 (1912).

17. —Rates or charges in case of delinquency in payment.

But a regulation of a city requiring the payment of one dollar in addition to delinquent water rent because of such delinquency is unreasonable and void. Carmichael v. City of Greenville, 112 Miss. 426, 73 So. 278 (1916).

A city may adopt reasonable regulations to enforce payment of water rent as by shutting off water until payment, but a city's contract to furnish water on certain premises is a covenant running with the land and the contract is not terminated by the landlord's delinquency in paying water rent. Carmichael v. City of Greenville, 112 Miss. 426, 73 So. 278 (1916).

A regulation of the waterworks company requiring a customer to pay his water bill within a certain time after it was due or in default of payment at said time to pay 10% thereon additional does not violate the statute prohibiting a greater rate of interest than 10%. Ford v. Vicksburg Waterworks Co., 102 Miss. 717, 59 So. 880 (1912).

Municipalities are clearly authorized to enter into contracts with private companies to provide services relating to operation and maintenance of waterworks systems owned by municipality; there also appears to be no prohibition to concept of contracting with private firm to provide professional services associated with operation and management of wastewater system. Jones, Feb. 22, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0116.

Municipality may fix water rates as flat monthly rates for all consumers residing in the municipality and service area or municipality may charge all consumers a certain amount per gallon of water used, but a public utility cannot discriminate in setting its rates among similarly situated users for the same type of service. Taylor, Jan. 16, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0016.

Town may install meters on main water line owned by private individual which serves customers in county. Jones, Nov. 25, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0850.

Municipality may contract with private corporation to maintain and operate municipal water and sewer system for specified amount to be paid monthly to corporation with profits generated by system accruing to city pursuant to Miss. Code Section 21-27-7. Horan, Feb. 12, 1993, A.G. Op. #92-0961.

Municipal "franchise" authority to grant permission and to regulate erection of waterworks along public rights-of-way is regulated by Miss. Code Section 21-27-7. Mitchell, Apr. 23, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0007.

While municipality is prohibited from providing free water service to an individual, municipal governing authorities, upon a proper finding of fact that citizen was overcharged for his water service, would be authorized to allow appropriate credit toward the payment of future water bills. Baker, March 17, 1994, A.G. Op. #94-0111.

The statute mandates an election when a municipality contracts for the erection and purchase of an entire waterworks system to initially provide water service in the municipality and does not mandate an election when a municipality contracts to acquire an adjoining rural water association to extend the area where the city provides water service. Phillips, April 3, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0128.

The election requirements of the statute did not apply to the pending annexation by a city of certain territory within a utility district. Kihyet, Sr., June 30, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0336.

The statute is sufficient to permit municipal governing authorities to contract with a private company to operate and maintain a water system, including making repairs, replacements, and extensions to the system. Snyder, Nov. 27, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0673.

Municipal governing authorities may contract with a private nonprofit water association to maintain and make repairs to the municipal water system; municipal governing authorities may contract with the water association for routine maintenance and repairs to the municipal system for a set monthly or annual fee or may contract with the water association periodically to make specific repairs. Tullos, Sept. 28, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0583.

If, upon complaint of any citizen or citizens interested, the governing authorities of any municipality find that there is reasonable ground for believing that any meter or meters intended to measure or register the quantity of water, electric light or power, or gas supplied or furnished by any individual, company or corporation to the municipality or its inhabitants is or are measuring or registering incorrectly or excessively or is or are of a less candle power or degree of brilliancy than required by contract, such governing authorities may employ an expert, who shall examine and test said meter or meters, or said light or lights, as the case may be, and report back to said governing authorities, notice of the time and place of the proposed test or tests being first given to all parties interested. If such examination or test shall show the fact that said meter or meters measure or register incorrectly or excessively, or that said light or lights are of a less candle power or brilliancy than required by contract, then all expenses of such examination and test incurred by said municipal governing authorities shall be charged against and collected back from said individual, company or corporation supplying or furnishing such water, electric light or power, or gas, as the case may be, and such penalties may be imposed as the municipal ordinances may provide.

The governing authorities of any municipality are authorized to prosecute any person tampering with electric, gas or water meters as provided in Section 97-25-3.

Whenever used in Sections 21-27-11 through 21-27-69:

(a) The term "municipality" includes any incorporated city, town or village of the State of Mississippi, whether incorporated under a special charter or under the general laws of the State of Mississippi governing municipalities, and operating under any form of municipal government. However, for the purpose of establishing a motor vehicle transportation system for the transportation of passengers within the boundaries of the governmental unit or units concerned, and within three (3) miles thereof, the word “municipality” is defined to include counties and groups of municipalities and shall allow those governmental units to establish a commission as provided in Section 21-27-13 and exercise the powers granted in Sections 21-27-11 through 21-27-69. Each county or municipality joining together shall be allowed at least one (1) commissioner representing that governing authority. For the purpose of establishing a railroad transportation system for passengers and freight, the term “municipality” includes any county bordering the Mississippi River and in which Highways 49 and 61 intersect, and such county may exercise the powers granted in Sections 21-27-11 through 21-27-69;

(b) The term “system” includes waterworks system, water supply system, sewage system, sewage disposal system, or any combination thereof, including any combined waterworks and sewage system, consisting of an existing waterworks system or water supply system or both, combined with an existing sewage system or sewage disposal system or both, or consisting of an existing waterworks system or water supply system or both, combined with a sewage system or sewage disposal system or both, to be acquired, (as defined herein), or consisting of an existing sewage system or sewage disposal system or both, combined with a waterworks system or water supply system or both, to be acquired, (as defined herein), gas producing system, gas generating system, gas transmission system or gas distribution system, or any one (1) or all thereof, electric generating, transmission, or distribution system, garbage disposal system, rubbish disposal system, and incinerators, and all parts and appurtenances thereof. The term “system” also includes a motor vehicle transportation system for the transportation of passengers within the city limits and within three (3) miles thereof. The term “system” also includes a railroad transportation system of any municipality located within a county bordering the Mississippi River and in which Highways 49 and 61 intersect for the transportation of passengers and freight regardless of the amount of area outside the jurisdictional limits of such municipality for which the system provides service; the railroad transportation system may be located partially outside the boundaries of the county. The term “system” also includes a motor vehicle transportation system for the transportation of passengers of any municipality with a population of more than forty-five thousand (45,000) but less than forty-five thousand one hundred (45,100) according to the 1970 federal decennial census regardless of the amount of area outside the city limits of such municipality for which the system provides service. Wherever in Sections 21-27-11 through 21-27-69 any one or more of the systems authorized under this section are referred to, the same shall include motor vehicle transportation systems. The term “system” also includes any franchise held by the owner thereof and shall also include operations within the capabilities of any component facility within the system which reasonably utilize the public resources;

(c) The term “improvement” includes repair, betterment, enlargement, extension and other improvements to a system;

(d) The term “acquire” includes construct, purchase, gift, exercise of power of eminent domain and other methods by which a municipality may acquire a system;

(e) The term “improve” includes repair, better, enlarge, extend and other methods of improving a system;

(f) The term “ordinance” includes ordinance, resolution or other appropriate legislative enactment of the governing authorities of any municipality.

§ 21-27-13. Establishment of public utility commission; qualifications, appointment, terms of office, powers and duties, compensation and bonds of commissioners; exercise of powers when commission not established.

The governing authorities of any municipality which now owns and operates, or hereafter shall own and operate, any system or systems shall have the power and authority to create a commission to control, manage and operate such systems, or any one or more of them, which said commission shall consist of not less than three (3) nor more than five (5) commissioners, to be elected by the governing authorities of such municipality. In any municipality operating under the council-manager plan of government, such commissioners shall be selected by, and shall be under the control of, the mayor and councilmen of the municipality, and not the city or town manager. Such commissioners shall have the power, authority and duty to manage and control said system or systems and the supply of the facilities and services thereof, both within and without the limits of the municipality. Such commissioners shall be qualified electors of the municipality and shall not hold any other municipal office for honor or profit. Such commissioners shall receive such compensation as may be specified and provided by the governing authorities of said municipality; provided, however, that any commission formed for the purpose of establishing a motor vehicle transportation system for the transportation of passengers within the boundaries of the governmental unit or units concerned, and within three (3) miles thereof, may pay its commissioners from the operating budget of such commission per diem compensation in the amount provided by Section 25-3-69 for each day or fraction of a day engaged in attendance of meetings of the commission or engaged in other official duties of the commission, not to exceed forty-five (45) days in any one (1) year. The governing authorities of the municipality are hereby authorized and empowered to require such commissioners to furnish bonds for the faithful performance of their duties, in the amount as may be deemed proper, and to pay the premiums thereon from the municipal treasury or the available funds of the said system or systems. Where there are three (3) members of such commission, the term of office shall be for a period of three (3) years, and where there are four (4) members the term of office shall be for a period of four (4) years, and where there are five (5) members the term of office shall be for a period of five (5) years. However, in making the first appointment of commissioners, one (1) shall be appointed for a term of one (1) year, one (1) for a term of two (2) years, one (1) for a term of three (3) years and, where necessary, one (1) for a term of four (4) years, and one (1) for a term of five (5) years, so that thereafter the term of office of one (1) commissioner shall expire each year. Where the governing authorities of the municipality do not elect to create a commission as herein provided, then any system or systems owned and operated by the municipality shall be controlled and managed by the governing authorities of the municipality, who shall have all the power and authority conferred upon such commission.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

2.-5. [Reserved for future use.]

6. Under former law.

1. In general.

Where a city at the expense of property owners of the city constructed a sewer system and allowed owners of residences outside the city to use the facilities for a charge, such owners could not prevent the city from disconnecting its line from their line at the city limits to enforce the charge levied. Wells v. City of Jackson, 223 Miss. 228, 77 So. 2d 925 (1955).

The town has the authority to procure and pay for necessary legal services and to sell its bonds after the same have been authorized by the qualified electors and election called for such purpose, and to enter into a contract with the purchaser of such bonds upon such terms as the town and the purchaser may have agreed upon. J.S. Love Co. v. Town of Carthage, 218 Miss. 11, 65 So. 2d 568 (1953).

Where mayor and aldermen of the Town of Heidelberg made a contract with individuals for rendering of services at a certain commission for establishing the natural gas system for the town, and the contract was invalid, the general validating statute of 1952 did not validate the contract because it was clearly outside of authority of mayor and aldermen. J.S. Love Co. v. Town of Carthage, 218 Miss. 11, 65 So. 2d 568 (1953).

There is nothing in the statute which authorizes a municipality to employ an agent to sell bonds, or to enter into a pre-election contract for the sale of such bonds, or to delegate to a group of investment bankers or a group experienced in the securities business generally and in the field of revenue bonds especially, the power and authority to procure for the municipality necessary legal and engineering services required in connection with the construction of public utility improvements and to pay a fee therefor. J.S. Love Co. v. Town of Carthage, 218 Miss. 11, 65 So. 2d 568 (1953).

There is nothing in a statute that the power to issue bonds, for the purpose of acquiring or improving any revenue producing public utility system and to issue revenue bonds for purpose of acquisition and improvement of such system, is in any way contingent upon the creation of a commission to manage and control the system, and the municipal bond issue was not dependent upon validity of creation of public service commission. Spencer v. Mayor & Bd. of Aldermen, 215 Miss. 160, 60 So. 2d 562 (1952).

Where in a statute, which permits municipalities after authorization by voters in special election to issue public utility improvement revenue bonds, there is a provision which states that no bond issue pursuant to acts should constitute an indebtedness within the meaning of any statutory or charter limitation, this was not unconstitutional. Spencer v. Mayor & Bd. of Aldermen, 215 Miss. 160, 60 So. 2d 562 (1952).

Where a constitutional provision requires ways to be made by general laws to prevent abuse by municipal corporations of powers of taxation and contracting debts, and it is not self-executing, and it requires legislation to put into effect, it is the duty of the legislature to say what constitutes abuse of such powers of municipality, and to provide checks thereon. Spencer v. Mayor & Bd. of Aldermen, 215 Miss. 160, 60 So. 2d 562 (1952).

The city authorities have the discretion to refuse to extend the city water system unreasonably. City of Greenwood v. Provine, 143 Miss. 42, 108 So. 284, 45 A.L.R. 824 (1926).

A decision of the municipal authorities to extend municipal water system to new territory is final, in the absence of abuse of discretion. City of Greenwood v. Provine, 143 Miss. 42, 108 So. 284, 45 A.L.R. 824 (1926).

A resident of a municipality cannot compel extension of water mains regardless of cost. City of Greenwood v. Provine, 143 Miss. 42, 108 So. 284, 45 A.L.R. 824 (1926).

A city cannot be required to make an unreasonable extension of water mains and the authorities of the city are vested with the authority to determine said matter. City of Greenwood v. Provine, 143 Miss. 42, 108 So. 284, 45 A.L.R. 824 (1926).

And mandamus will not lie against the authorities of a city to compel an extension of the water system. City of Greenwood v. Provine, 143 Miss. 42, 108 So. 284, 45 A.L.R. 824 (1926).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Employees of the Commission are subject to the same legal limitations as are other municipal employees with respect to leave, vacation, sick leave, holidays and compensation because the Meridian Transportation Commission was created pursuant to Section 21-27-13, which means the city owns and operates the municipal transportation system. Primeaux, November 15, 1996, A.G. Op. #96-0501.

§ 21-27-15. Governing authorities may remove any commissioner for cause, but may not abolish the commission.

The governing authorities of such municipality shall have the power to remove any member of said commission for inefficiency or incompetency or any other cause, but the governing authority of any municipality which has created a commission under the terms of Section 21-27-13, shall not have authority to abolish the commission, or to diminish its powers, except by a vote of a majority of the qualified electors of such municipality at a special election, duly called and held for that purpose. However, nothing herein shall limit, alter, impair or in any way change the procedure prescribed for the sale or lease of a public utility system under Section 21-27-33.

The commission provided for by Section 21-27-13 is authorized to make such bylaws for the holding and conduct of its meetings and such other regulations as it may deem necessary for the safe, economic and efficient management and protection of the system or systems, and such bylaws and regulations shall have the same validity as an ordinance duly passed by the governing authorities of any municipality.

It is authorized to elect such officers and appoint such employees as may be necessary to operate the system or systems efficiently, and it shall have the entire control and management of such system or systems, together with all property connected or appertaining in any manner to such system or systems. The commission shall have the authority to employ a superintendent or manager of the systems, who shall have actual charge of the management and operation thereof and of the enforcement and execution of all the rules, regulations, programs, plans and decisions made and adopted by the commission in making purchases for materials and supplies to be used in the operation of the systems. In addition to any other purchasing authority granted by law, the commission may purchase electric transmission line materials, electric distribution system substation equipment, transformer equipment, and all other appliances, apparatus, machinery, equipment and appurtenances necessary for the sale of electricity, such as utility vehicles and fencing, from the surplus inventory of the Tennessee Valley Authority or any other similar agency of the federal government and electric power associations. These purchases shall be exempt from the public bid requirements prescribed in Sections 31-7-12 and 31-7-13. However, for all other purchases, the commission shall advertise for competitive bids in the manner and form as is required in accordance with Section 31-7-13. The superintendent or manager shall make and keep full and proper books and records of all purchases and shall submit them to the commission for its approval and ratification before payment thereof is authorized to be made. The commission may authorize the superintendent or manager to immediately refund to a customer of the municipally owned utility his or her deposit for municipal utility services after the superintendent or manager has determined that payment for all services and any other obligations which the customer may have incurred in regard to the municipal utility has been made. It shall have the right to fix the salaries and term of office of all employees and to direct them in the discharge of their duties. It shall have the right to require good and sufficient bonds from all officers and employees in such amounts as it may deem proper. It shall have the right to discharge employees when found inefficient or for other good cause. It shall have the power to make and collect rates for services and facilities, and appropriate funds for the maintenance and improvements of such systems. It is authorized to borrow from the Mississippi Development Bank in order to fund advance purchases of energy for gas producing, generating, transmission or distribution system or its electric generating, transmission or distribution system. It is authorized to insure all property used in the operation of such systems, including buildings, furniture, books and records, against loss by fire and tornado, and to carry sufficient amount of employers liability, steam boiler, plate glass and other miscellaneous casualty insurance, as in the discretion of the commission may be deemed proper, and to pay premiums therefor out of the funds derived from the operation of the systems. It shall report quarterly to the governing authorities of the municipality of all its doings and transactions of every kind whatsoever and shall make a complete statement of the financial condition of the systems at the end of each quarter, and shall annually make a detailed statement covering the entire management and operation of the systems, with any recommendations which it may have for the further development of the systems. At any time, the commission, by order or resolution, may authorize the expansion of activities of any component facility to include processing of materials on a custom basis or the processing and marketing of materials acquired to fully and efficiently utilize existing plant capacity. It shall also provide copies of all such quarterly and annual reports and statements to the Public Service Commission when so directed under Section 77-3-6.

The commission provided for by Section 21-27-13 is also authorized to allow a municipally owned utility to prepay the utility's bills to those electricity suppliers which offer early payment discounts to the municipally owned utility.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Provision of statute that the commission may discharge employees found inefficient or for other good cause creates a property interest in those employees in their employment and such interest is protected by procedural due process, which prevents their discharge without prior notice and an opportunity to be heard; In light of the fact that the commission is wholly engaged in the exercise of proprietary rather than governmental functions, and in light of the grant of extensive powers to the commission by this section it may be inferred that the commission may sue and be sued, and, in particular, that it is not immune from suit in an action arising under the United States Constitution. Sartin v. City of Columbus Utils. Comm'n, 421 F. Supp. 393 (N.D. Miss. 1976), aff'd, 573 F.2d 84 (5th Cir. 1978).

§ 21-27-19. Disposition of revenues by commission.

The commission shall devote all monies, derived from any source other than the issuance of bonds for purposes authorized by the laws of the State of Mississippi, to or for the payment of all operating expenses, including such items as are normally required of utilities for sales development; to or for the payment of all bonds and interest on outstanding revenue bonds, if any, of such systems; to or for the acquisition and improvement of the system contingencies; to or for the payment of all other obligations incurred in the operation and maintenance of the systems and the furnishing of service; to or for the creation and maintenance of a cash working fund or a surplus fund to be used for replacement, extension of systems, and emergencies. The balance of the revenues of said systems, if any, may be used for any other lawful municipal purpose and may be paid to the governing authorities of the municipality for distribution to the various municipal funds, or may be disbursed for said purpose by the said commission at the direction and request of the governing authorities of such municipality.

Revenue bonds must be satisfied in full pursuant to this section prior to declaring a surplus in a fiscal year. In the alternative, a bond sinking fund must be established and sufficiently funded to pay all bonds and interest as they become due in the future. Spell, Dec. 19, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0668.

Revenue bonds must be satisfied in full pursuant to this section and §§ 21-27-57 and 21-27-61 prior to declaring a surplus in a fiscal year. However, in the alternative, a bond sinking fund would have to be established and sufficiently funded to pay all bonds and interest as they become due in the future. If this second option is satisfied and all other obligations of the system are satisfied, any remaining surplus funds may be transferred to the governing authority of the municipality to deposit in the municipal general funds. Neeld, May 28, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0184.

§ 21-27-21. Commission to keep records of service furnished municipality.

The commission shall keep an accurate account and record of power, current, water, or other services furnished to all departments of the municipality.

SOURCES: Codes, 1942, § 3519-06; Laws, 1940, ch. 283; Laws, 1950, ch. 494, § 6, eff from and after July 1, 1950.

§ 21-27-23. General powers of municipality as to creation, maintenance, and operation of public utility systems.

Any municipality may:

(a) Borrow money and issue revenue bonds therefor solely for the purposes specified in this section and by the procedure provided in Sections 21-27-41 through 21-27-69.

Money may be borrowed and bonds issued by any municipality of the State of Mississippi, as defined in Section 21-27-11, to acquire or improve any waterworks system, water supply system, sewerage system, sewage disposal system, garbage disposal system, rubbish disposal system or incinerators, gas producing system, gas generating system, gas transmission system, or gas distribution system, electric generating, transmission or distribution system, railroad transportation system for passengers and freight, or motor vehicle transportation system, including any combination of any or all of those systems into one (1) system, within or without the corporate limits thereof, for the purpose of supplying the municipality and the persons and corporations, both public and private, whether within or without its corporate limits, with the services and facilities afforded by the system, provided that water, electric energy, or gas afforded by any system or systems may be supplied to such ultimate consumers thereof by sale thereof to the owners or operators of a distribution system for resale to the public. Any municipality which shall borrow money and issue revenue bonds to provide funds with which to acquire a gas transmission system, if necessary in order to reach and obtain a source of supply of gas for the municipality, may extend or construct its gas transmission line into an adjoining state, and may use and expend part of the proceeds of such issue of revenue bonds for the purpose.

(b) To assume all indebtedness for any system or systems which may be acquired under the provisions of this section as all or part of the consideration for the acquisition of such system or systems and to issue its revenue bonds in exchange for the bonds or notes evidencing the indebtedness.

(c) To acquire or improve any system which it is authorized to borrow money and issue revenue bonds under subsection (a) of this section to acquire or improve; and to make contracts in furtherance thereof or in connection therewith.

(d) To own, operate and maintain any such system or combination of any and all of said systems into one (1) system.

(e) To establish, maintain and collect rates for the facilities and services offered by any such system; provided that if there is a combination of systems into one or more systems, the municipality establishing the same shall be and is empowered to establish, maintain and collect rates for any and all of the services or for any combination thereof, and the municipality may discontinue any or all of the services upon any failure to promptly pay the charges fixed for the services. The rates so fixed for services rendered by any system or combination thereof may be charged for all services rendered thereby, regardless of whether the services may have been previously rendered without rates or charges therefor by the previously existing waterworks system, water supply system, sewerage system, sewage disposal system, garbage disposal system, rubbish disposal system or incinerators, gas producing system, gas generating system, gas transmission system, or gas distribution system, electric generating, transmission or distribution system, which shall have been merged into the combined system. Any such municipality may pledge for the payment of any bonds issued to acquire or improve any such combined system, or to refund any bonds previously issued to acquire or improve any such combined system or to acquire or improve any system merged with such combined system, the revenues to be derived from the operation of such combined system, including the charges authorized to be imposed by this section.

A municipality may authorize a municipally owned utility to make early payment of the utility's bills to its electricity suppliers which offer early payment discounts to the municipally owned utility. The municipality may immediately refund to a customer of the municipally owned utility his or her deposit for municipal utility services after the municipal utility has determined that payment for all services and any other obligations which the customer may have incurred in regard to the municipal utility has been made.

If the revenues of any previously existing system being merged into a combined system are subject to a prior lien, the revenues and the expenses of any previously existing system shall be accounted for separately to the extent necessary to satisfy the covenants relating to the prior lien for so long as the indebtedness secured by the revenues shall remain outstanding. Only surplus revenues remaining after the satisfaction of all covenants relating to the outstanding indebtedness may be pledged to the retirement of any indebtedness to be secured by the revenues of a combined system. The existence of the outstanding indebtedness shall not, in and of itself, prevent the combining of systems as herein provided, so long as the prior lien on the revenues of any previously existing system is fully satisfied from the revenues of the previously existing system.

(f) To acquire property, real or personal, which may be necessary to effectuate the powers conferred by this section. The municipality may purchase electric transmission line materials, electric distribution system substation equipment, transformer equipment, and all other appliances, apparatus, machinery, equipment and appurtenances necessary for the sale of electricity, such as utility vehicles and fencing, from the surplus inventory of the Tennessee Valley Authority or any other similar agency of the federal government and electric power associations. These purchases by the municipality shall be exempt from the public bid requirements prescribed in Sections 31-7-12 and 31-7-13. If the power of eminent domain is exercised, it shall be exercised in the manner provided by Sections 11-27-1 through 11-27-51.

(g) To enter into contract with the United States of America or any agency thereof, under the provisions of acts of the Congress of the United States, to aid or encourage public works and the regulations made in pursuance thereof, for the sale of bonds issued in accordance with the provisions of Sections 21-27-41 through 21-27-69 or for the acceptance of a grant to aid such municipality in acquiring or improving any such system; and the contracts may contain terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by and between the municipality and the United States of America or any agency thereof, or any purchaser of the bonds.

(h) To adopt the ordinances and resolutions and to do all things and perform all acts necessary, proper or desirable to effectuate the full intent and purpose of Sections 21-27-11 through 21-27-69, including processing, marketing, custom processing, sale and resale of materials processed through any facility under its jurisdiction.

(i) To borrow from the Mississippi Development Bank in order to fund the advance purchase of energy for its gas producing, generating, transmission or distribution system or its electric generating, transmission or distribution system.

1. In general.

This section gives municipalities the authority to condemn property necessary for creation and maintenance of public utilities. City of Gulfport v. Orange Grove Utils., Inc., 735 So. 2d 1041 (Miss. 1999).

Wisdom of constructing a municipally owned electrical distribution system in competition with one privately owned cannot be judicially inquired into. Mississippi Power & Light Co. v. Town of Coldwater, 234 Miss. 615, 106 So. 2d 375 (1958), suggestion of error sustained, 234 Miss. 615, 112 So. 2d 222 (1958).

Under this section [Code 1942, § 3519-08] and Code 1942, § 5528 municipalities have the power to acquire an electric light plant and provide service to would-be users. Mississippi Power & Light Co. v. Town of Coldwater, 234 Miss. 615, 106 So. 2d 375 (1958), suggestion of error sustained, 234 Miss. 615, 112 So. 2d 222 (1958).

6. Under former law.

In the exercise of the powers granted by statute with respect to constructing and maintaining waterworks and sewerage systems, the municipality may employ civil engineers to make the necessary surveys and prepare the necessary plans and specifications, and to supervise the work after the awarding of contracts; it may employ attorneys to prepare the necessary orders and resolutions, to supervise the enactment of other necessary legal proceedings for the issuance and sale of bonds, and to give legal opinions as to the validity of the bonds; and it may pay for such engineering and legal services and other incidental expenses connected with the issuance and sale of the bonds and the construction of such public works out of the proceeds of the sale of the bonds, or perhaps out of the general fund of the municipality. Mayor & Bd. of Aldermen v. Engle, 211 Miss. 380, 51 So. 2d 564 (1951).

The governing authorities of a municipality have no right to delegate to a group of investment bankers the power and authority to procure for the municipality the necessary and legal engineering services which may be required to enable the municipality to issue and sell its revenue bonds and to construct the public utility improvements contemplated. Mayor & Bd. of Aldermen v. Engle, 211 Miss. 380, 51 So. 2d 564 (1951).

Under the statute regulating the issuance of bonds by the state or its political subdivisions (Law of 1946, ch 325, § 4357-01), there is no room for the services of an underwriter in the sale of municipal bonds, and the governing authorities of a municipality have no power to enter into a contract of any kind for the payment of an underwriter's fee or commission to investment bankers for an underwriter's guarantee of the sale of municipal bonds, or for the purpose of procuring a purchaser for such bonds prior to the advertisement for and receipt of bids, or to enter into a pre-election conditional sales contract for the sale of such bonds. Mayor & Bd. of Aldermen v. Engle, 211 Miss. 380, 51 So. 2d 564 (1951).

Statute authorizing municipalities to acquire, own, and operate airports and "to do all things and perform all acts necessary, proper or desirable to effectuate the full intent and purpose of this act" held to include power and authority to contract and pay for proper or necessary engineering work in connection with airports. Town of Magee v. Mallett, 178 Miss. 629, 174 So. 246 (1937).

Municipal governing authorities could secure professional services of attorney other than City Attorney to pursue collection of delinquent utility accounts provided attorney's compensation is by salary or fixed fee for such account handled, or on hourly basis; of course, first step toward collecting delinquent utility bills is termination of service following proper notice and opportunity for hearing on matter. Jones, June 13, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0403.

While municipality may terminate garbage collection services to any customer who refuses to pay garbage collection fee of combined garbage, water, and sewer bill, it may not enforce collection of garbage fees by discontinuation of other municipal services. Hewes, July 15, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0509.

Although utilities are generally responsible of city, city is not required to construct facilities in proposed or undeveloped subdivision; normally, development is left to developer pursuant to local subdivision ordinances. Gibbs, Oct. 21, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0757.

Credit incentive proposed by municipal utility was not authorized under Section 21-27-11 et seq. and would also be unlawful donation pursuant to Section 96 Miss. Const. of 1890. Young, Feb. 9, 1994, A.G. Op. #93-0898.

A municipality may bill water and gas customers each month a set amount which is calculated so that the amount the customer pays for the entire fiscal year is the same that the customer would pay if he or she were billed for the exact amount of water and gas used each month. However, the governing authorities must reevaluate the amounts charged to customers at least once a year so that the amount each customer pays over the course of a year reflects the amount of water and gas actually used for the year. In addition, this billing plan may only be implemented for customers who elect the plan. See Section 21-27-23(e). Harlow, December 13, 1996, A.G. Op. #96-0809.

A municipality may assume debt to acquire a water supply system that extends to an area within five miles of its corporate limits, but it may not acquire an entire system when part of that system extends more than five miles beyond the boundaries of the municipality. Tutor, Aug. 29, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0400.

A municipal governing authority may set a surcharge which is a flat rate in addition to a rate based upon the number of gallons. Wood, April 3, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0126.

If a water department maintenance employee is paid wages or salary from utility system funds, then his services must be used exclusively for the operation of the water system; if the governing authority assigns the employee duties other than duties for the water department, then he must be paid from the appropriate fund, i.e., general funds, department fund or utility system fund, for the department or utility system for which he is rendering services. Gcee, May 1, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0248.

A town had the right to terminate water service to an apartment complex without notice to the individual tenants where the parties to the contract for water service were the town and the owner of the apartment complex and the town had already given notice and an opportunity to be heard to the owner of the apartment complex. Davis, Nov. 12, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0441.

A municipality may not charge a reconnection fee to a customer whose service was not actually cut off. Null, Dec. 17, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0672.

Municipal governing authorities may request that customers bring a statement or account number with them to the city hall to pay for water services, but may not require customers to bring a statement or account number to the city hall to pay for water services when a search of the public records would reveal the account number. Crawford, March 3, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0089.

The present board of aldermen of a town could raise the rates of the former consumers of a water system association, even though the prior board of aldermen might have entered into a contract, by acceptance of a deed of conveyance of the assets of the water system association, to the contrary. Maxey, Jan. 11, 2002, A.G. Op. #01-0741.

A municipality may acquire a water system from a water association within the corporate limits and may switch the customers of the water association from a flat rate to a metered rate; it may phase in a metered rate structure in an area with a flat rate, charging customers without meters the flat rate and customers with meters according to the new rate in the transition period, or, alternatively, it may charge a flat rate for all customers in the area until such time as all or substantially all of the meters are installed and operating. Rose, Sept. 6, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0464.

There is no state law requirement on the part of municipalities operating municipal utilities within the municipal boundaries or one mile of those boundaries to pay interest to consumers on security deposits held by the municipality; however, if such deposit is held in an interest-bearing account, the municipality may refund the deposit plus any interest which has accrued. Null, Sept. 13, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0462.

Municipality may charge reasonable late fees for delinquent water/sewer accounts. Baker, Nov. 8, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0624.

A town is entitled to terminate or disconnect the sewer service to customers of the sewer system who are not paying their bills for such service. There must be some process by which customers may dispute questionable charges. Richardson, Feb. 2, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0011.

If a town disconnects a sewer, it may be reconnected to the customers' septic tank. Richardson, Feb. 2, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0011.

No language can be found that requires rates for water and sewer services be set by ordinance. However, any ordinances which are currently in existence may not be "amended" by resolution. McNeill, Aug. 27, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0437.

§ 21-27-25. Borrowing money for improvement, extension, repair or stockpiling fuel of system.

Any municipality which owns or operates any system, shall have the power and authority through its utilities commission to borrow money and issue its negotiable notes or certificates of indebtedness therefor, in an amount not to exceed ten percent (10%) of the gross revenues of the system in the last preceding fiscal year, in any calendar year, for the purpose of improving, repairing or extending any such system, or of stockpiling fuel for any such system, or systems, without the necessity of calling and holding an election upon such question or otherwise obtaining the consent of the qualified electors of the municipality, or giving any notice thereof. However, the utilities commission shall secure approval of the governing authorities of the municipality. In all cases where money is borrowed under the provisions of this section, the same shall be repaid within three (3) years and at no time shall the amount of money borrowed under this section exceed thirty percent (30%) of the gross revenues of the system for the last preceding fiscal year.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Section of charter of the city of Greenville providing that it shall be unlawful for the city to contract any debt unless there is in the hands of the treasurer sufficient money to meet the debt does not conflict with this section [Code 1942, § 3519-26], as this section authorizes the city to borrow the money to comply with the charter provision. City of Greenville v. Queen City Lumber Co., 227 Miss. 749, 86 So. 2d 860 (1956).

§ 21-27-27. Free service.

No free service shall be furnished by any such system, or combined system, to any private person, firm, corporation, or association. The municipality may, however, furnish such service, free of charge, to the municipality or any agency or department thereof, to any public school, or to any hospital or benevolent institution located within such municipality, including county, city, and community fairs.

While municipality is prohibited from providing free water service to an individual, municipal governing authorities, upon a proper finding of fact that citizen was overcharged for his water service, would be authorized to allow appropriate credit toward the payment of future water bills. Baker, March 17, 1994, A.G. Op. #94-0111.

A municipality may not provide free water to volunteer firemen or other citizens. Norman, January 22, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0014.

A municipality may not provide free water and sewer service to an individual, nonprofit organization or business, but it may provide free water and sewer service to a hospital or benevolent institution located within the corporate limits; thus, a town may provide free service to a local health clinic operated by the county if the clinic is located within the corporate limits. Null, January 30, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0046.

A municipality does not have the authority to negotiate a settlement of any late fees or interest for customers to whom the municipality is not authorized to provide free services, unless there is a bona fide dispute. Snyder, March 20, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0145.

A county water and sewer district could not provide water service to a public park located immediately adjacent to the district boundary and to "an additional community park located within the district's boundaries" without charging therefor. Fonda, October 9, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0612.

A town had the right to terminate water service to an apartment complex without notice to the individual tenants where the parties to the contract for water service were the town and the owner of the apartment complex and the town had already given notice and an opportunity to be heard to the owner of the apartment complex. JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Act was intended to exempt from regulation municipal utility systems which municipalities were authorized by law to operate on the effective date of the act and it also was intended to subject to regulation extensions of utilities more than one mile beyond the corporate boundaries when such extensions were made after the act's effective date; the commission thus had authority to regulate water rates for a newly-purchased water utility beyond one mile from the city's corporate limits, though the initial rate order was void on due process grounds for failure to give notice to the city prior to its issuance. Williams v. McAfee, 328 So. 2d 656 (Miss. 1976).

§ 21-27-31. Keeping of books and accounts by municipality.

Any municipality issuing revenue bonds pursuant to the authority granted in Section 21-27-23 shall install and maintain proper books of record and account (separate entirely from other records and accounts of such municipality), in which correct entries shall be made of all dealings or transactions of or in relation to the properties, business and affairs of the system or combined system. The governing authorities of such municipality, not later than three months after the close of any calendar, operating or fiscal year, shall cause to be prepared a balance sheet and an income and operating and surplus account showing, respectively, in reasonable detail, the financial condition of the system or combined system at the close of such preceding calendar, operating or fiscal year, and the financial operations thereof during such year. Said balance sheet and the income and operating and surplus account shall at all times during the usual business hours be open to examination and inspection by any taxpayer, user of the services furnished by the system, or any holder of bonds issued pursuant to the authority granted in Section 21-27-23, or any one acting for or on behalf of such taxpayer, user of the services of the system, or bondholder.

§ 21-27-33. Municipality may dispose of public utility systems.

All municipalities of the state are hereby empowered and authorized, if they so desire, to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of any or all electric, water, gas or other municipally-owned public utility systems or properties on such terms and conditions, and with such safeguards as will best promote and protect the public interest. Said municipal corporations are empowered and authorized to transfer title to said public utility properties by warranty deed, bill of sale, contract, or lease, in the manner provided by law. However, notice of intention to make such sale, lease, or disposition of any such system, setting out the price and other general terms and conditions of such proposed sale, lease, or disposition shall be given by publication, once a week for three consecutive weeks in a legal newspaper published in such municipality, and if no such newspaper be published in said municipality, then in some newspaper having a general circulation in such municipality. After ten days from the last publication of such notice, the system may be disposed of, unless within ten days after the last publication of such notice a petition signed by not less than twenty per centum of the qualified voters of such municipality be filed, objecting to and protesting against such sale, lease, or disposition, in which event the same shall not be made unless submitted to a special election ordered for the purpose of determining whether a majority of those voting in such election shall vote for or against such sale, lease, or other disposition. Such election shall be ordered to be held not less than forty days after the date of the last notice of the proposed sale, lease or disposition. Notice of such election, stating the purpose of election, shall be published once each week for three consecutive weeks next preceding the time set for holding said election in such newspaper as herein provided. The laws governing special municipal elections shall govern the ordering and conduct of said election.

The ballots provided shall have plainly written or printed thereon the words "shall the waterworks, electric, or gas (as the case may be) system be sold, leased, or disposed of (as the case may be)" and below said words shall be suitably placed on separate lines, the words "yes" and "no," so that the voter may indicate the way he desires to vote on the question submitted.

If a majority of those voting in said election shall vote in favor of such sale, lease, or disposition, then the proper officer of the municipality may proceed to sell, lease or dispose of such system in accordance with the terms and conditions set out in the notice of proposed intention to sell, lease or dispose of such system, as herein provided. If such election is determined against such sale, lease or disposition of such system, then such system shall not be sold, leased or disposed of, but shall remain the property of the municipality.

Section 21-17-1 does not apply to the sale of a public utility system under Section 21-27-33. Perkins, Nov. 1, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0637.

Governing authorities of a city may sell municipal electric distribution properties under Section 21-27-33 under such terms and conditions and with such safeguards as will best promote and protect the public interest and may finance the deferred portion of the purchase price with a first deed of trust or irrevocable letter of credit, however, the city may not subordinate its lien on the property for the purchase money to any other property interest. Perkins, Nov. 1, 2002, A.G. § 21-27-35. Utilization of proceeds of sale of public utility system.

The governing authorities of any municipality which have sold or which may hereafter sell any utility system owned by such municipality, may use the proceeds of the sale of such system, or any part thereof, for the purpose of retiring and paying off any of the public debt of the municipality, and they may purchase the outstanding bonds or other obligations of the said municipality at such price, whether above or below par, as they may consider fair and reasonable. The said governing authorities may, in their discretion, invest the said funds, or any part thereof, derived from the sale of the said system or systems in any of the securities now eligible for purchase by public sinking funds of municipalities, at such price, whether above or below par, as they may determine to be fair and reasonable.

The governing authorities of every municipality shall have power to inspect or cause to be inspected the machinery, appliances and premises of all persons, copartnerships or corporations owning or operating any system within their corporate limits, in order to ascertain whether or not the said machinery, appliances and premises are kept in a sanitary condition and in condition to comply with the terms and requirements of the franchise or franchises under which the said system or systems are operated.

If any person, copartnership or corporation, or any employee thereof, shall refuse to permit the municipal governing authorities to make such inspection immediately when requested so to do, they shall, for each such refusal, forfeit the sum of one thousand dollars, to be recovered in an action in the name of said municipality.

§ 21-27-39. Municipalities may furnish services to consumers outside corporate limits.

All municipalities owning or operating any system or systems may supply consumers residing outside of and within five (5) miles of the corporate limits of the municipality. In any county traversed by two (2) or more natural gas transmission lines and having therein two (2) or more natural gas compressor stations engaged in rendering service in interstate commerce, and wherein a natural gas transmission line of a municipality can be laid wholly in alluvial soil, where it is necessary for any municipality having a population of less than one thousand (1,000), according to the federal census of 1950, to construct a gas transmission line for a distance of more than five (5) miles but not more than eleven (11) miles from its corporate limits to the nearest point at which an adequate supply of natural gas can be obtained, and where there are not less than two hundred (200) prospective gas customers residing outside the corporate limits of such municipality but along and within one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) mile of the gas transmission line so constructed by the municipality, then and in that event, the municipality may supply natural gas to such customers. Any municipality having its own natural gas transmission system in any county bordering the State of Alabama, in which U.S. Highway No. 78 and State Highway No. 25 intersect, and in which there is a publicly supported junior college, may extend its transmission lines and supply customers within the county for a distance of fifteen (15) miles from the corporate limits. Any municipality having a population of less than one thousand (1,000) people, according to the federal census of 1960, and being located in the county in which U.S. Highway 51 and U.S. Highway 82 intersect, and in the county where the main line of Illinois Central Railroad and Columbus and Greenville Railroad intersect, may construct a gas transmission line and supply customers within a four-county area for a distance of forty-five (45) miles from the corporate limits of the municipality. Any municipality having its own water distribution system, the construction or expansion of which has been financed in whole or in part by an agency of the United States government, and having a population of less than five hundred (500) persons, and located in a county in which Mississippi State Highways Number 12 and Number 429 intersect, may construct, expand and operate its water distribution system within the county or adjoining counties for a distance of fifteen (15) miles from the corporate limits. Any municipality having its own water distribution system, the construction or expansion of which has been financed in whole or in part by an agency of the United States government, and having a population of less than fifteen hundred (1500) persons, and located in a county in which Highway 15 and Highway 32 intersect and has a national forest, may construct, expand and operate its water distribution system within the county or adjoining counties for a distance of fifteen (15) miles from the corporate limits.

Any municipality having its own water distribution system and located in a county having two (2) judicial districts, and in which Mississippi Highways 17 and 35 intersect, may construct, expand and operate its water distribution system within the county or adjoining counties for a distance of fifteen (15) miles from the corporate limits. Any municipality having its own water distribution system, wherein U.S. Highway 51 and Mississippi Highway 35 intersect, and located in a county in which U.S. Highway 82 and Mississippi Highway 17 intersect, may construct, expand and operate its water distribution system within the county or adjoining counties for a distance of fifteen (15) miles from the corporate limits. Whenever such service shall be furnished to any consumer residing outside the corporate limits thereof, such consumer may not be charged at a rate greater than twice the rate charged for such services within the municipality.

Any municipality located within a county bordering the Mississippi River and in which Highways 49 and 61 intersect may acquire, construct, expand and operate its railroad transportation system for the transportation of passengers and freight for more than five (5) miles outside its corporate limits and outside the boundaries of the county in which it is located. Any municipality having a population of more than forty-five thousand (45,000) but less than forty-five thousand one hundred (45,100) according to the 1970 federal decennial census, may expand its motor vehicle transportation system for the transportation of passengers for more than five (5) miles outside its corporate limits.

Any municipality having a population of less than five hundred (500) according to the 1980 federal decennial census, being located north of U.S. Highway 82 in a county in which is located a United States Air Force base and a state-supported institution of higher learning established primarily for women, which criteria the Legislature finds to be conducive to the expansion of natural gas service to support contiguous areas of such Air Force base, may construct, own and/or operate a public utility or natural gas system and supply customers within the county for a distance of eleven (11) miles from the corporate limits.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Act was intended to exempt from regulation municipal utility systems which municipalities were authorized by law to operate on the effective date of the act and it also was intended to subject to regulation extensions of utilities more than one mile beyond the corporate boundaries when such extensions were made after the act's effective date; the commission thus had authority to regulate water rates for a newly-purchased water utility beyond one mile from the city's corporate limits, though the initial rate order was void on due process grounds for failure to give notice to the city prior to its issuance. Williams v. McAfee, 328 So. 2d 656 (Miss. 1976).

Where a city at the expense of property owners of the city constructed a sewer system and allowed owners of residences outside the city to use the facilities for a charge, these owners could not prevent the city from disconnecting its line from their line at the city limits to enforce the charge levied. Wells v. City of Jackson, 223 Miss. 228, 77 So. 2d 925 (1955).

Town may extend water service to customers in county within five miles of corporate limits through main water line which is privately owned and may collect fees for this water service; municipality does not have duty to maintain water pressure in water lines which are privately owned and are not a part of municipal water system. Jones, Nov. 25, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0850.

A municipality may acquire a water supply system that extends to an area within five miles of its corporate limits and may charge customers residing outside of the corporate limits rates up to twice that charged for residents inside the municipality so long as similarly situated persons are not discriminated against, but it may not acquire an entire system when part of that system extends more than five miles beyond the boundaries of the municipality. Tutor, Aug. 29, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0400.

The governing authorities may set higher water rates for customers outside the corporate limits than for customers inside the corporate limits. Wood, April 3, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0126.

Although the statute authorizes utility services to be extended beyond the municipal corporate limits, it has no application beyond the boundaries of the State of Mississippi; there is no authority which would permit a municipality to furnish utility services to out-of-state consumers residing within five miles of the municipal corporate limits. Snyder, August 7, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0385.

As Senate Bill 3009, enrolled as Chapter 884, Local and Private Laws of Mississippi, 1988, neither expressly nor impliedly provides the City of Pontotoc an exclusive right to provide gas service to all of Pontotoc County, the Mississippi Public Service Commission, in its discretion, may award a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity for gas service to some utility other than the City of Pontotoc for areas in Pontotoc County that lie outside of the one-mile corridor and are not being served by the City of Pontotoc. McKinley, August 27, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0437.

The present board of aldermen of a town could raise the rates of the former consumers of a water system association, even though the prior board of aldermen might have entered into a contract, by acceptance of a deed of conveyance of the assets of the water system association, to the contrary. Maxey, Jan. 11, 2002, A.G. Op. #01-0741.

There is no statutory authority for a municipality to make an investment in a county owned and operated water system which serves solely non-city residents and will not be of any benefit to the municipality. Youngman, Jan. 24, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0028.

Municipal governing authorities may establish different classifications of users of municipal systems, and may establish different rates for those different classifications. Such classifications may be based on various factors, which may include extra expense related to providing service to customers residing outside the corporate boundaries of the municipality. Campbell, Oct. 20, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0551.

A town is entitled to terminate or disconnect the sewer service to customers of the sewer system who are not paying their bills for such service. There must be some process by which customers may dispute questionable charges. Richardson, Feb. 2, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0011.

If a town disconnects a sewer, it may be reconnected to the customers' septic tank. Richardson, Feb. 2, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0011.

(1) Any municipality having its own natural gas transmission system in any county bordering the State of Alabama in which U. S. Highway 78 and State Highway 25 intersect and in which there is a publicly supported junior college and which is authorized by Section 21-27-39, Mississippi Code of 1972, to extend its natural gas transmission lines may, in its discretion, enter into a contract for service with any natural gas district organized under the laws of this state, any part of which is located in said county. Such municipality may use such contract in determining the amount of funds available for the repayment of any bonds issued for this purpose in accordance with law.

(2) Said natural gas district may enter into a contract with said municipality to the extent of such municipality's authorization under Section 21-27-39, Mississippi Code of 1972, for the construction of gas transmission lines within such district and for supplying the customers within such district.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

This section [Code 1942, § 3519-10], which requires a recital that estimate has been made and a description of contemplated system and other details in connection with issuance of bonds, does not require that such recitals also appear in resolution of mayor and board of aldermen declaring intention to issue bonds or in notice of election. *Spencer v. Where in a statute, which permits municipalities, after authorization by voters in special election to issue public utility improvement revenue bonds, there is a provision which states that no bond issue pursuant to acts should constitute an indebtedness within the meaning of any statutory or charter limitation, this was not unconstitutional. Spencer v. Mayor & Bd. of Aldermen, 215 Miss. 160, 60 So. 2d 562 (1952).

Where a constitutional provision requires ways to be made by general laws to prevent abuse by municipal corporations of powers of taxation contracting debts, and it is not self-executing, and it requires legislation to put into effect, it is the duty of the legislature to say what constitutes abuse of such powers of municipality, and to provide checks thereon. Spencer v. Mayor & Bd. of Aldermen, 215 Miss. 160, 60 So. 2d 562 (1952).

Although there are no public notice or election requirements for a municipality to acquire a nonprofit water association's system, a municipality that issues bonds to acquire or improve a water supply system must comply with Miss. Code Section 21-27-41 et seq. Tutor, Aug. 29, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0400.

§ 21-27-43. Electorate to vote on issuance of bonds.

Except as hereinafter provided, no bonds shall be issued pursuant to the authority granted in Section 21-27-23 until and unless a majority of those qualified electors of the municipality, voting on a proposition stating in general terms the maximum amount and purposes of the bonds, have approved the issuance at a special election called thereon according to law.

However, the requirement for an election to be held before the issuance of the bonds shall not apply to the issuance of the revenue bonds for the purpose of improving, repairing or extending any waterworks system, water supply system, sewage system, sewage disposal system (or the addition of a sewage disposal system to a sewage system), gas producing system, gas generating, transmission, or distribution system, electric generating, transmission, or distribution system, garbage disposal system, rubbish disposal or incinerator system, or motor vehicle transportation system, which is now, or hereafter, owned or operated by any municipality, or railroad transportation system owned or operated by any municipality located in a county bordering the Mississippi River and in which Highways 49 and 61 intersect. The revenue bonds may be issued for such purposes in the following manner: notice of intention to issue the revenue bonds, setting out the amount and other terms or conditions of the proposed issue, shall be given by publication once a week for three (3) consecutive weeks in a local newspaper published in the municipality, and if a newspaper is not published in the municipality, then in some newspaper having a general circulation in the municipality. After ten (10) days from the last publication of the notice, the bonds may be sold under the regular procedure for selling the bonds unless, within ten (10) days after the last publication of the notice, a petition signed by not less than twenty percent (20%) of the qualified voters of such municipality be filed objecting to and protesting against such revenue bond issue, in which event the same shall not be made unless submitted to a special election ordered for the purpose of determining whether or not a majority of those voting in the election shall vote for or against the revenue bond issue. The election shall be ordered to be held not later than forty (40) days after the date of the last notice of the proposed revenue bond issue. Notice of the election, stating the purpose of the election, shall be published once each week for three (3) consecutive weeks next preceding the time set for holding the election in the newspaper, provided in this section. The laws governing municipal elections shall govern the order and conduct of the election. However, nothing in this section shall prevent the governing authorities from calling an election, whether required by petition of twenty percent (20%) of the qualified voters or not. This section shall not have application to and it shall not affect the authority granted public utilities commissions under Section 21-27-25.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Where in a statute, which, after authorization by voters in special election, permits municipalities to issue public utility improvement revenue bonds, there is a provision which states that no bond issue pursuant to acts should constitute an indebtedness within the meaning of any statutory or charter limitation, this was not unconstitutional. Spencer v. Mayor & Bd. of Aldermen, 215 Miss. 160, 60 So. 2d 562 (1952).

There is nothing in a statute that the power to issue bonds for the purpose of acquiring or improving any revenue producing public utility system and to issue revenue bonds for purpose of acquisition and improvement of such system is in any way contingent upon the creation of a commission to manage and control the system, and the municipal bond issue was not dependent upon validity of creation of public service commission. Spencer v. Mayor & Bd. of Aldermen, 215 Miss. 160, 60 So. 2d 562 (1952).

Notice of election on question of public utility improvement bonds should be sufficiently definite to apprise the voters with substantial accuracy of what they are called upon to approve and be submitted in such way as to obtain a full and fair expression of the will of the voters on its merits, and the duty of determining the particular phraseology in which the question shall be submitted is cast upon municipal authorities. Spencer v. Mayor & Bd. of Aldermen, 215 Miss. 160, 60 So. 2d 562 (1952).

This section [Code 1942, § 3519-13] by which public utility improvement bonds are to be issued requires only a majority of qualified electors voting on the proposition to vote in favor of the issuance of bonds. Spencer v. Mayor & Bd. of Aldermen, 215 Miss. 160, 60 So. 2d 562 (1952).

Where a constitutional provision requires ways to be made by general laws to prevent abuse by municipal corporations of powers of taxation contracting debts, and it is not self-executing, and it requires legislation to put into effect, it is the duty of the legislature to say what constitutes abuse of such powers of municipality, and to provide checks thereon. *Spencer v. § 21-27-45. Details of bonds; sale; fiscal advisor.

Such bonds as may be issued pursuant to the authority granted in Section 21-27-23 may be serial or term; redeemable, with or without premium, or nonredeemable; registered or coupon bonds with registration privileges as to either principal and interest, principal only or both. They shall bear interest at a rate to be determined pursuant to the sale of the bonds, and shall be payable at such time or times as shall be prescribed in the ordinance authorizing them. They shall mature at such time or times, not exceeding the said estimated life of the contemplated system or improvement, and in no event longer than thirty (30) years from their date, and at such place or places as shall be prescribed in the ordinance authorizing their issuance. Any provisions of the general laws to the contrary notwithstanding, any bonds and interest coupons issued pursuant to the authority granted in Section 21-27-23 shall possess all the qualities of negotiable instruments. The bonds and the interest coupons shall be executed in such manner and shall be substantially in the form prescribed in the authorizing ordinance. In case any of the officers whose signatures or countersignatures appear on the bonds or interest coupons shall cease to be such officers before delivery of such bonds, such signatures or countersignatures shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if they had remained in office until such delivery. No bond shall bear more than one (1) rate of interest. Each bond shall bear interest from its date to its stated maturity date at the interest rate specified in the bid. All bonds of the same maturity shall bear the same rate of interest from date to maturity. All interest accruing on such bonds so issued shall be payable semiannually or annually, except that the first interest coupon attached to any such bond may be for any period not exceeding one (1) year.

No interest payment shall be evidenced by more than one (1) coupon and neither cancelled nor supplemental coupons shall be permitted. The lowest interest rate specified for any bonds issued shall not be less than seventy percent (70%) of the highest interest rate specified for the same bond issue. Such bonds shall be sold in such manner and upon such terms as the governing authorities of the municipality shall determine, provided that such bonds shall not bear a greater overall maximum interest rate to maturity than that allowed in Section 75-17-103, Mississippi Code of 1972, and the interest rate on any one (1) interest maturity shall not exceed the maximum interest rate allowed on such bonds. Each interest rate specified in any bid must be in multiples of one-eighth of one percent ($\frac{1}{8}$ of 1%) or in multiples of one-tenth of one percent ($\frac{1}{10}$ of 1%). If serial bonds, such bonds shall mature annually, and the first maturity date thereof shall not be more than five (5) years from the date of such bonds. Such bonds shall be legal investments for trustees and other fiduciaries, and for savings banks, trust companies and insurance companies organized under the laws of the state of Mississippi. The bonds and interest coupons shall be exempt from all state, county, municipal and other taxation under the laws of the state of Mississippi. The principal of and interest upon such bonds shall be payable solely for the revenues derived from the operation of the system acquired or improved with proceeds of the sale of such bonds. No bond issued pursuant to the authority granted in Section 21-27-23 shall constitute an indebtedness of a municipality within the meaning of any statutory or charter restriction, limitation or provision. It shall be plainly stated on the face of each such bond in substance that the same has been issued pursuant to the authority granted in Section 21-27-23 and that the taxing power of the municipality issuing the same is not pledged to the payment of such bond or interest thereon, and that such bond and the interest thereon are payable solely from the revenues of the system to acquire or improve which such bond is issued.

Such bonds shall be sold on sealed bids at public sale in the manner provided by Section 31-19-25. In the event the issuing municipality shall have received a commitment from any agency of the United States of America for the purchase of all or any portion of an issue of such bonds prior to the sale thereof or for financial assistance in providing debt service on such bonds, then, and in such event, said issue or any part thereof may be sold to the United States of America or any agency thereof at private sale. Provided, however, no bonds issued under the authority of Section 21-27-23 shall bear an overall maximum interest rate greater than that allowed in Section 75-17-103, Mississippi Code of 1972.

It is specifically provided that any bond issue to be awarded and sold to the United States of America or any agency thereof shall mature at such time or times, not to exceed thirty-five (35) years, as shall be prescribed in the ordinance of the municipality authorizing their issuance.

It is specifically provided that any bond issue to be awarded and sold to the United States of America or any agency thereof may be issued as one or more amortized bonds without coupons, may be dated the date of delivery thereof, and the purchase price for such bond or bonds may be delivered in multiple advances, with interest to accrue on the principal advanced from the date of each such advance. The amount of each such advance and the date thereof shall be registered on the reverse of each such bond and attested by the manual signature of the clerk of the municipality.

On issues of Five Million Dollars (\$5,000,000.00) or more, the governing authorities of a municipality may retain the services of a fiscal advisor to assist in the sale of bonds hereunder and pay to such fiscal advisor a fee not to exceed the following amount: Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars (\$25,000.00) plus one-quarter of one percent ($\frac{1}{4}$ of 1%) of the amount of the issue in excess of Five Million Dollars (\$5,000,000.00). No such fiscal advisor shall be eligible to bid for or participate in the underwriting of the bonds for which he acted as advisor.

Before a person can qualify as a fiscal advisor under the terms of this section, he shall have been actively engaged in the business of fiscal counseling for municipalities, or the underwriting of municipal bonds, for a period of five (5) years prior to qualifying under this section. A partnership or corporation may become a fiscal advisor hereunder with the same qualifications. Such person, corporation, or partnership shall have had prior experience as a fiscal advisor or been involved in the underwriting or investing in bonds of the state of Mississippi, or one or more of the subdivisions thereof, and such person, partnership or corporation shall be recognized in the fiscal community as a reputable and qualified fiscal advisor.

1. In general.

This section [Code 1942, § 3519-10], which requires a recital that estimate has been made and a description of contemplated system and other details in connection with issuance of bonds, does not require that such recitals also appear in resolution of mayor and board of aldermen declaring intention to issue bonds or in notice of election. Spencer v. Mayor & Bd. of Aldermen, 215 Miss. 160, 60 So. 2d 562 (1952).

Where in a statute, which, after authorization by voters in special election, permits municipalities to issue public utility improvement revenue bonds, there is a provision which states that no bond issue pursuant to acts should constitute an indebtedness within the meaning of any statutory or charter limitation, this was not unconstitutional. Spencer v. Mayor & Bd. of Aldermen, 215 Miss. 160, 60 So. 2d 562 (1952).

Where a constitutional provision requires ways to be made by general laws to prevent abuse by municipal corporations of powers of taxation contracting debts, and it is not self-executing, and it requires legislation to put into effect, it is the duty of the legislature to say what constitutes abuse of such powers of municipality, and to provide checks thereon. Spencer v. Mayor & Bd. of Aldermen, 215 Miss. 160, 60 So. 2d 562 (1952).

Any municipality having outstanding bonds issued pursuant to the authority granted in Section 21-27-23 shall maintain rates for all the services and facilities afforded by any system, the revenues of which are pledged to the payment of such bonds, which rates shall be sufficient at all times to maintain an interest and bond redemption fund sufficient to pay the interest on and principal of such bonds as and when the same become due and payable and, if so provided in the ordinance authorizing such bonds, to accumulate a reserve in such fund, and to provide for the payment of such cost of operation and maintenance as may be necessary to keep such system at all times in good repair and working order. Such rates shall be fixed by separate ordinance precedent to or at the time of the issuance of such bonds and shall be revised from time to time so as to produce the amounts necessary to provide for the foregoing. Bonds issued pursuant to the authority granted in Section 21-27-23 to acquire or improve a system shall be secured by a pledge of an amount of the gross revenues of such system sufficient to maintain such an interest and bond redemption fund. However, if there are then outstanding bonds to the payment of which the revenues of a system have been previously pledged, then, until said outstanding bonds have been retired, bonds issued to improve such system shall be secured by a pledge of the revenues of the system in such an amount only after deductions have been made for servicing the said outstanding bonds and for maintaining and operating the system. Notwithstanding the above provisions, all revenue bonds issued for a specific utility may be issued on an equivalent basis, provided that each and every ordinance authorizing each and every bond issued shall clearly state the basis on which future revenue bond issues shall be provided for in order to place them on an equivalent basis with prior issues.

Whenever any municipality shall issue any bonds or other evidence of indebtedness which are payable solely from revenues to be derived from any system, the governing authorities of such municipality may, by appropriate provision in the ordinance or resolution authorizing the issuance of such bonds, or by separate resolution or ordinance passed at or prior to the actual sale of such bonds, bind and obligate such municipality to take, for a period not exceeding the full term of such bonds, at least a stated minimum of the services to be afforded by such system and to pay, out of its corporate funds, a least a stated minimum price therefor. Such provision, resolution or ordinance shall constitute a contract between such municipality and all the holders of such bonds.

All such agreements heretofore entered into by any such municipality, whether such bonds have actually been delivered and paid for or not, are hereby ratified, approved and validated.

§ 21-27-51. Refunding bonds; consolidated bonds.

Any municipality which shall have issued bonds pursuant to the authority granted in Section 21-27-23, all or any portion of which shall at any time hereafter remain outstanding and unpaid, is hereby authorized, in connection with the issuance of additional bonds hereunder, to issue refunding bonds for the purpose of taking up, paying and redeeming all such outstanding and unpaid bonds. Such refunding bonds and such additional bonds may be authorized and issued separately or may be consolidated into one issue. Such outstanding and unpaid bonds may be refunded without notice and without an election thereon, and such additional bonds may be refunded without notice and without an election except as provided in Section 21-27-43. The proceeds of any such consolidated bonds shall be used to take up, pay and redeem all of such outstanding and unpaid bonds, at their redemption price, and the balance of such proceeds shall be used and expended for the purposes for which the additional bonds were authorized to be issued. In the event any such outstanding bonds, by the terms thereof, shall be redeemable prior to maturity at the option of such municipality, then such option of redemption shall be exercised in the manner provided in such bonds, and the refunding bonds shall not be issued or delivered more than two calendar months in advance of the date upon which such outstanding bonds shall have been called for redemption. In the event that such outstanding bonds, by the terms thereof, be not so redeemable prior to maturity, then the refunding bonds shall not be issued, except concurrently with the surrender and cancellation of a like amount of the bonds to be refunded thereby. All bonds issued under the provisions of this section shall have like incidents and shall be payable from the same source or sources and the payment thereof shall be secured in like manner as are bonds issued pursuant to the authority granted in Section 21-27-23. In lieu of selling such portion of such consolidated bonds, as may be required to provide for the redemption of such outstanding bonds, such consolidated bonds may be issued and delivered in exchange for and upon surrender and cancellation of a like amount of the bonds to be refunded thereby.

The holder of any bond or any interest coupon issued pursuant to the authority granted in Sections 21-27-23 and 21-27-51 may, by suit, action, mandamus or other proceedings at law or in equity, enforce and compel performance by the appropriate official or officials of the municipality of any or all acts and duties to be performed by such municipality under the provisions of Sections 21-27-11 through 21-27-69 and the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bond or interest coupon. If there be any default in the payment of the interest on and principal of any of said bonds, any court having jurisdiction in the proper action may, upon petition of the holder of any of such bonds, appoint a receiver to administer and operate the system with power to fix rates and collect charges sufficient to provide for the payment of all bonds outstanding to the payment of which the revenues of such system are pledged and to pay the expenses of operating and maintaining such system and to apply the revenues of such system, all in conformity with the provisions of Sections 21-27-11 through 21-27-69 and of the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds.

§ 21-27-57. Disposition of revenues.

In the authorizing order or ordinance, the governing authorities of the municipality shall set aside monthly and shall pledge the revenues of the system or combined system, in separate and special funds as follows: (1) operation and maintenance fund; (2) depreciation fund; (3) bond and interest fund; (4) contingent fund. A sufficient amount shall be set aside each year for the retirement of the bonds and interest. Any surplus revenue remaining shall be disposed of by the governing authorities of the municipality as they may determine from time to time for the best interest of the municipality. However, in the segregation into the several funds the governing authorities may prescribe a reasonable excess amount to be placed in the revenue bond and interest fund from time to time during the earlier years of maturity of such bonds so as to thereby provide and produce a cushion fund to meet any possible deficiencies therein in future years. In the event such excess amounts are provided in the earlier years, the same would be available for such purposes. Bonds pursuant to the authority granted in Sections 21-27-23 and 21-27-51, shall be payable solely from revenues of said project and out of the bond and interest fund.

Revenue bonds must be satisfied in full pursuant to §§ 21-27-19, 21-27-61 and this section prior to declaring a surplus in a fiscal year. However, in the alternative, a bond sinking fund would have to be established and sufficiently funded to pay all bonds and interest as they become due in the future. If this second option is satisfied and all other obligations of the system are satisfied, any remaining surplus funds may be transferred to the governing authority of the municipality to deposit in the municipal general funds. Neeld, May 28, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0184.

§ 21-27-59. General revenues may be used for operation and maintenance of system.

Nothing in Sections 21-27-11 through 21-27-69 shall be construed to prohibit the municipality from appropriating and using any part of its available income or revenues derived from any source other than from the operation of such system or combined system in paying any immediate expenses of operation and/or maintenance of any such system or combined system. Nothing in Sections 21-27-11 through 21-27-69 shall be construed, however, to require the municipality to do so.

§ 21-27-61. Distribution of revenues and surplus; minutes of municipal governing authorities.

The governing authorities of any municipality shall devote all monies of the system derived from any source other than the issuance of bonds for purposes authorized by the laws of the State of Mississippi, to or for the payment of all operating expenses, including such items as are normally required of utilities for sales development; to or for the payment of all bonds and interest on outstanding revenue bonds, if any, of such system; to or for the acquisition and improvement of the system contingencies; to or for the payment of all other obligations incurred in the operation and maintenance of the system and the furnishing of service; and to or for the creation and maintenance of a cash working fund or a surplus fund to be used for replacement, extension of systems and emergencies. The balance of any monies, including but not limited to, any which have heretofore been classified as revenues or surplus of such system, if any, may be used for any lawful, municipal purpose and may be paid to the governing authorities of the municipality for distribution to the various municipal funds or may be disbursed for such purpose by the governing authorities at their direction. The purpose of any allocation or expenditure of money made pursuant to this section shall be spread upon the minutes of the municipal governing authorities.

While the statute is not explicit in setting out the order of priority of the last three funds for surplus transfer, it is apparent that the order of the funds as set out in the statute is the order of priority which should be followed by the governing authority of a municipality when making a transfer of surplus funds. Criss, October 30, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0651.

A municipality is authorized to transfer funds from its water department to other municipal departments provided all obligations of the system are satisfied. Blocker, Mar. 28, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0134.

Revenue bonds must be satisfied in full pursuant to §§ 21-27-19, 21-27-57 and this section prior to declaring a surplus in a fiscal year. However, in the alternative, a bond sinking fund would have to be established and sufficiently funded to pay all bonds and interest as they become due in the future. If this second option is satisfied and all other obligations of the system are satisfied, any remaining surplus funds may be transferred to the governing authority of the municipality to deposit in the municipal general funds. Neeld, May 28, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0184.

§ 21-27-63. Contracts and liens not impaired.

Nothing in Sections 21-27-11 through 21-27-69 shall be construed as authorizing any municipality to impair or commit a breach of the obligation of any valid lien or contract created or entered into by it, the intention hereof being to authorize the pledging, setting aside and segregation of gross revenue only where consistent with outstanding obligations of such municipality.

Sections 21-27-11 through 21-27-69, being necessary for and to secure the public health, safety, convenience and welfare of the municipalities of the State of Mississippi, shall be liberally construed to effect the purposes hereof.

The powers conferred by Sections 21-27-11 through 21-27-69 shall be in addition to the powers conferred by any other law, general, special or local, and such sections shall, without reference to any other statute or to any charter, be deemed full authority to purchase or improve and to own and operate the authorized revenue producing systems, to fix, maintain, and to collect rates for the facilities afforded by such systems, to issue and to sell the authorized bonds, and shall be construed as an additional and alternative method therefor, any provisions of the general laws of the state or of any charter to the contrary notwithstanding.

Whenever the governing authorities of any municipality of more than One Hundred Thousand (100,000) population shall determine to issue bonds under the provisions of Sections 21-27-11 through 21-27-69, to acquire or improve a system, it shall cause an estimate to be made of the cost of such system or improvement, and the fact that such estimate has been made shall appear in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds, which ordinance shall set forth a brief description in general terms of the contemplated system or improvement, the estimated life thereof, the said estimated cost thereof, the amount, date, denominations, rate of interest, times and places of payment and other details in connection with the issuance of the bonds, and such covenants and restrictions as may be necessary or desirable to safeguard the interest of the holders of the bonds. Such bonds may be serial or term; redeemable, with or without premium, or nonredeemable; registered or coupon bonds with registration privileges as to either principal and interest, principal only or both. They shall bear interest at a rate to be determined pursuant to the sale of the bonds, and shall be payable at such time or times as shall be prescribed in the ordinance authorizing them. They shall mature at such time or times, not exceeding the said estimated life of the contemplated system or improvement, and in no event exceeding thirty (30) years from their date, and at such place or places as shall be prescribed in the ordinance authorizing their issuance; provided, however, that any bond issue to be awarded and sold to the United States of America or any agency thereof shall mature at such time or times, not to exceed thirty-five (35) years, as shall be prescribed in the ordinance authorizing their issuance. Any provisions of the general laws to the contrary notwithstanding, any bonds and interest coupons issued pursuant to the authority of this section shall possess all the qualities of negotiable instruments. The bonds and the interest coupons shall be executed in such manner and shall be substantially in the form prescribed in the authorizing ordinance. In case any of the officers whose signatures or countersignatures appear on the bonds or interest coupons shall cease to be such officers before delivery of such bonds, such signatures or countersignatures shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if they had remained in office until such delivery. No bond shall bear more than one (1) rate of interest. Each bond shall bear interest from its date to its stated maturity date at the interest rate specified in the bid. All bonds of the same maturity shall bear the same rate of interest from date to maturity. All interest accruing on such bonds so issued shall be payable semiannually or annually, except that the first interest coupon attached to any such bond may be for any period not exceeding one (1) year.

No interest payment shall be evidenced by more than one (1) coupon and neither cancelled nor supplemental coupons shall be permitted. The lowest interest rate specified for any bonds issued shall not be less than seventy percent (70%) of the highest interest rate specified for the same bond issue. Such bonds shall be sold in such manner and upon such terms as the governing authorities of the municipality shall determine, provided that such bonds shall not bear a greater overall maximum interest rate to maturity than that allowed in Section 75-17-103, Mississippi Code of 1972, and the interest rate on any one (1) interest maturity shall not exceed the maximum interest rate allowed on such bonds. If serial bonds, such bonds shall mature annually, and the first maturity date thereof shall not be more than five (5) years from the date of such bonds. Such bonds shall be legal investments for trustees and other fiduciaries, and for savings banks, trust companies and insurance companies organized under the laws of the state of Mississippi. The bonds and interest coupons shall be exempt from all state, county, municipal and other taxation under the laws of the state of Mississippi. The principal of and interest upon such bonds shall be payable solely from the revenues derived from the operation of the system acquired or improved with proceeds of the sale of such bonds. No bond issued pursuant to this section shall constitute an indebtedness of a municipality within the meaning of any statutory or charter restriction, limitation or provision. It shall be plainly stated on the face of each such bond in substance that the same bond has been issued under the provisions of this section and that the taxing power of the municipality issuing the same is not pledged to the payment of such bond or interest thereon, and that such bond and interest thereon are payable solely from the revenues of the system to acquire or improve which such bond is issued.

received a commitment from any agency of the United States of America for the purchase of all or any portion of an issue of such bonds prior to the sale thereof or for financial assistance in providing debt service on such bonds, then, and in such event, said issue or any part thereof may be sold to the United States of America or any agency thereof at private sale. Bonds in the aggregate amount of Two Hundred Thousand Dollars ($200,000.00) for any project may be sold at private sale either to underwriters or investors.

On issues of Five Million Dollars (\$5,000,000.00) or more, the governing authorities of a municipality may retain the services of a fiscal advisor to assist in the sale of the bonds hereunder and pay to such fiscal advisor a fee not to exceed the following amount: Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars (\$25,000.00) plus one-quarter of one percent ($\frac{1}{4}$ of 1%) of the amount of the issue in excess of Five Million Dollars (\$5,000,000.00). No such fiscal advisor shall be eligible to bid for or participate in the underwriting of the bonds for which he acted as advisor.

Before a person can qualify as a fiscal advisor under the terms of this section, he shall have been actively engaged in the banking business, or the business of fiscal counseling for municipalities, or the underwriting of municipal bonds, for a period of five (5) years prior to qualifying under this section. A partnership or corporation may become a fiscal advisor hereunder with the same qualifications. Such person, corporation, or partnership shall have had prior experience as a fiscal advisor or been involved in the underwriting or investing in bonds of the state of Mississippi, or one or more of the subdivisions thereof, and such person, partnership or corporation shall be recognized in the fiscal community as a reputable and qualified fiscal advisor.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

A nonexclusive franchise of a common carrier for passengers for hire is a valuable property right, and the carrier is entitled to relief by way of an injunction against a threatened or actual injury to his property rights through illegal competition of another common carrier of passengers for hire. Payne v. Jackson City Lines, 220 Miss. 180, 70 So. 2d 520 (1954).

A commercial carrier of passengers for hire in a municipality must obtain a franchise before the carrier can operate for those purposes. Payne v. Jackson City Lines, 220 Miss. 180, 70 So. 2d 520 (1954).

§ 21-27-131. Obtaining permit; appeal from refusal to grant permit.

No person may drive or operate motor vehicles for hire in any city or town in this state unless he shall first have been licensed so to do as follows: he shall make application to the mayor of such municipality in writing, accompanied by a statement of some reputable citizen thereof, that the applicant is over the age of eighteen (18) years, an experienced driver, of good moral character, and physically and mentally capacitated to drive and operate such motor vehicle. The mayor shall place such application before the board of aldermen, or other governing authorities, whereupon inquiry may be made by such governing authorities into the moral character and mental and physical fitness of the applicant. If the permit shall be granted the applicant shall receive a certificate of such permit, signed by the mayor, together with an identification badge, and the name of the municipality thereon, and which shall be worn so that the same will be displayed while engaged in or about such occupation. The governing authorities of the municipality may require the applicant to give a reasonable bond, of not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), to guarantee the faithful observance of the law as well as the rules and regulations which may be prescribed by the said municipality, and they may also require a reasonable fee, for such permit and badge. In the event the governing authority of such municipality refuse to grant such permit to an applicant, an appeal may be taken to the circuit court, in the manner provided by law for appealing from other orders of the governing authorities of municipalities, and the questions to be tried upon appeal will be as to the age and experience and the moral, mental and physical fitness of the said applicant to pursue such vocation in such municipality.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Permit to operate taxicabs in city constitutes a permit to do that which would otherwise be unlawful; and, being a mere personal privilege, it is revocable for due cause and is not a vested or property right in a constitutional sense. Allen v. City of Kosciusko, 207 Miss. 343, 42 So. 2d 388 (1949).

City has the right, and it is its duty, when, by reason of changed circumstances and conditions, the public safety reasonably requires it to amend its ordinances regulating the operations of taxicabs within the city, so long as, and to the extent that, said amended ordinance remains within the limits of the powers conferred on the municipality by the legislature. Allen v. City of Kosciusko, 207 Miss. 343, 42 So. 2d 388 (1949).

Validity of order revoking plaintiff's license to operate fleet of taxicabs in city without notice and hearing, became moot question and would not be determined where city subsequently enacted new ordinance revoking all permits and prescribing new requirements. Allen v. City of Kosciusko, 207 Miss. 343, 42 So. 2d 388 (1949).

Operator of fleet of taxicabs could not challenge constitutionality of ordinance revoking all taxicab permits and establishing new permit requirements, passed subsequent to revocation of his license without notice and hearing, where he did not apply for a permit under the new ordinance, and, therefore, he was unaffected thereby. Allen v. City of Kosciusko, 207 Miss. 343, 42 So. 2d 388 (1949).

This statute [Code 1942, § 3495] and an ordinance passed thereunder providing for a permit fee and licensing of motor vehicles for hire in a municipality to apply to drivers of taxicabs doing an interurban business, were not unconstitutional and void, such legislation being reasonable and valid in the exercise of the police power of the state for the public safety. Lowe v. Simmons, 185 Miss. 88, 187 So. 214 (1939).

Statutes authorizing municipalities to regulate the operation of motor vehicles for hire and ordinances thereunder requiring a license for such operation were applicable to drivers of taxicabs engaged in an interurban business. Lowe v. Simmons, 185 Miss. 88, 187 So. 214 (1939).

These statutes and the ordinances enacted thereunder regulating the operation of motor vehicles for hire in the municipality and providing for a charge of one dollar for a permit therefor were not revenue measures, but were the exercise of the police power in order to protect the public safety of people traveling upon the streets of the municipality. Lowe v. Simmons, 185 Miss. 88, 187 So. 214 (1939).

Statute empowering municipalities to require operators of motor vehicles for hire to give reasonable bond of not more than $500 to guarantee faithful observance of the law and municipal rules and regulations held not to exclude power of municipalities to require such operators to carry liability insurance. Brogan v. Hosey, 172 Miss. 869, 161 So. 690 (1935).

§ 21-27-133. Owner or operator of motor vehicle for hire must carry liability insurance or bond; actions thereon.

No certificate or permit shall be issued by any municipality to the owner or operator of any motor vehicle owned or operated for hire in any city or town in this state, unless and until such owner or operator shall have filed with, and the same has been approved by, the governing authorities of the municipality, an insurance policy, or certificates of insurance in lieu thereof, issued by some insurance company authorized to transact business in this state, or bond or bonds, to be approved by the said governing authorities of the municipality, in an amount required by an ordinance of said municipality, conditioned to pay any final judgment against said owner or operator for personal injuries or property damages resulting from or arising out of the use, maintenance, or operation of the said motor vehicle. The amount of the insurance policy or bond required under this section on any motor vehicle of any such owner or operator shall in no case be less than ten thousand dollars for the death or injury to any one person, and subject to said limit for one person, twenty thousand dollars total public liability for any one accident and ten thousand dollars for property damage.

The insurance policy or bond, filed with the municipality as required by this section, shall contain a provision or indorsement to the effect that the same shall not be cancelled for any cause by either party thereto unless and until ten days' written notice thereof shall have been given to the said municipality.

In any action, whether in law or in equity, against any owner or operator, operating under the provisions of this section, the insurer, insurance company, or obligor in the policy of insurance or bond given by such owner or operator in compliance with this section, shall not be joined as a party to such suit and shall not be a proper party thereto, except as hereinafter provided.

The insurer, insurance company, or obligor, in any policy of insurance or bond filed in compliance with this section, shall be obligated to pay any final judgment obtained against such owner or operator as herein provided, regardless of the solvency, insolvency, bankruptcy, or receivership, of such owner or operator. In the event that the insured shall abandon his permit and leave the state, a claimant asserting his claim within the provisions of said insurance policy or bond may file suit against the insurer or insurance company or obligor issuing such insurance policy or executing such bond in a court of competent jurisdiction without the necessity of making the insured a party to said suit.

(a) was intoxicated, or noticeably under the influence of intoxicating liquor; or,

(b) had disturbed the peace while so engaged; or,

(c) had recklessly disregarded the speed regulations prescribed by law; or,

(d) had been guilty of knowingly transporting intoxicating liquor; or,

(e) had carried concealed weapons in violation of law; or,

(f) had knowingly transported persons for the purpose of gaming or prostitution, or for the purpose of obtaining intoxicating liquor.

The said authority may by ordinance prescribe other reasonable rules and regulations governing the use and operation of motor vehicles for hire within the municipality, and cause the same to be observed by such driver or operator, under penalty of revocation or suspension of such permit. Any person whose permit to drive or operate a motor vehicle for hire has been suspended or revoked may appeal to the circuit court from such order in the manner provided for appeals from orders of the governing authority of municipalities, but such appeal shall not operate as a supersedeas of said order.

(b) "Person" means and includes the State of Mississippi, a municipality as defined herein, any public agency as defined herein or any other city, town or political subdivision or governmental agency of the State of Mississippi or of the United States of America, or any individual, copartnership, association, firm, trust, estate or any other entity whatsoever.

(c) "Waterworks" means all works, plants or other facilities necessary for the purpose of collecting, storing, treating and transporting water for domestic, municipal, commercial, industrial, agricultural and manufacturing purposes, including open channels.

(d) "Water supply system" means pipelines, conduits, pumping stations and all other structures, devices and appliances appurtenant thereto, including land and right-of-way thereto, for use for transporting water to a point of ultimate use.

(e) "Waste" means sewage, industrial waste, municipal waste, recreational waste and agricultural waste, waste heat and any other waste that may cause impairment of the quality of the waters in the state.

(f) "Sewerage system" means pipelines or conduits, canals, pumping stations and force mains, and all other structures, devices, facilities and appliances appurtenant thereto, used for collecting or conducting waste to an ultimate point for treatment or disposal.

(g) "Treatment facilities" means any plant, disposal field, lagoon, pumping station, constructed drainage ditch or surface water intercepting ditch, canal, incinerator, area devoted to sanitary landfills or other works not specifically mentioned herein, installed for the purpose of treating, neutralizing, stabilizing or disposing of waste or facilities to provide cooling water to collect, control and dispose of waste heat.

(h) "Sewage disposal system" means a system for disposing of waste, including but not limited to sewerage systems and treatment facilities, as such terms are defined herein.

(i) The terms “pollution,” “waters” or “waters in the state” shall have meanings as set forth in the Mississippi Air and Water Pollution Control Law, as now or hereafter amended, appearing as Section 49-17-1 through Section 49-17-70, Mississippi Code of 1972.

(j) “Municipality” means any incorporated city having a population in excess of one hundred fifty thousand (150,000) according to the most recently completed federal decennial census, whether operating under general law or under special charter.

(k) “Metropolitan area” means all of the area or territory lying within the corporate limits of a municipality as herein defined, whether or not such area or territory be contiguous, and all area or territory lying not more than ten (10) miles from the outer boundary of any of the areas or territories comprising a municipality as herein defined, and all of an incorporated city or town, any part of which lies within the aforementioned ten-mile limit.

(l) “Public agency” means any incorporated city or town lying wholly or partially within a metropolitan area, any state board or commission owning or operating properties within a metropolitan area, a district created pursuant to Sections 51-9-101 through 51-9-163, or a political subdivision of the State of Mississippi lying wholly or partially within a metropolitan area and having the power to own and operate waterworks, water supply systems, sewerage systems, treatment facilities or sewage disposal systems or other facilities or systems for the collection, transportation, treatment and disposal of waste.

(m) “Metropolitan area plan” means a comprehensive plan for water quality management and the control and abatement of pollution within the metropolitan area, consistent with applicable water quality standards established pursuant to the Federal Water Pollution Control Act.

(n) “Federal Water Pollution Control Act” shall mean the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, being 33 U.S.C.S. 1151 et seq. as now or hereafter amended, and the Federal Water Pollution Control Act Amendments of 1972, being P.L. 92-500, 86 Stat. 816 as now or hereafter amended.

§ 21-27-167. Acquisition of necessary property by municipality.

A municipality shall have the power and right to acquire and to own, maintain, use and operate any and all property of any kind, real, personal or mixed, or any interest therein within or without the boundaries of its metropolitan area necessary or convenient to the exercise of the purposes of and the powers granted by Sections 21-27-161 through 21-27-191. Within any unincorporated portion of its metropolitan area, a municipality may acquire such property by exercise of the power of eminent domain as provided in Chapter 27, Title 11, Mississippi Code of 1972. Prior to the exercise of the power of eminent domain within any unincorporated portion of its metropolitan area, a municipality shall seek and obtain a written agreement with the public agency or other person having local jurisdiction of such area for the acquisition of such property. The written agreement provided for herein for the exercise of the power of eminent domain shall be spread upon the minutes of said public agency or person as defined herein.

A municipality may enter into contract with any person or public agency situated wholly or partly within its metropolitan area, whether or not lying wholly or partially within its boundaries, for any of the purposes authorized by Sections 21-27-161 through 21-27-191. Public agencies and other persons are hereby authorized to make contracts with a municipality under which the municipality will make a sewage disposal system available to a public agency or group of public agencies or to other persons and furnish waste collection, transportation, treatment and sewage disposal services by the municipality's sewage disposal system. The contract may be upon such terms and for such period of time as the parties may agree and may provide that it will remain in effect until any bonds issued or to be issued by the municipality, and any bonds which may be issued to refund the same are paid; the contract may contain provisions to assure equitable treatment of persons or public agencies who contract with the municipality for waste collection, transportation, treatment and sewage disposal services from the same sewage disposal system; may contain provisions requiring any public agency or other person to regulate the quality and strength of waste to be handled by the sewage disposal system; shall provide the method of determining the amounts to be paid by a public agency or other person to the municipality; may provide for the sale or lease to or use of by the municipality of any sewage disposal system or any part thereof at the time owned or to be acquired by a public agency or other person; may provide that the municipality shall operate any sewage disposal system or part thereof at the time owned or to be acquired by a public agency or other person; may provide that a public agency shall have the right to continued performance of such services after the amortization of the municipality's investment in the sewage disposal system during the useful life thereof upon payments of reasonable charges therefor, reduced to take into consideration such amortization; and may contain such other provisions and requirements as the municipality and a public agency or other person may determine to be appropriate or necessary. A municipality may also provide in its contract that the municipality shall have the right to use any streets, alleys and public ways and places within the jurisdiction of a public agency or other person during the term of the contract.

§ 21-27-173. Payments by public agency under contract.

Payments by a public agency to the municipality for waste collection, transportation, treatment and sewage disposal services and facilities may be made from the income of the public agency's waterworks system or water supply system or its sewerage system, treatment facilities or sewage disposal system or of both such systems or of its combined waterworks, water supply, treatment facilities, sewerage and sewage disposal systems, as may be prescribed in the contract between the municipality and the public agency, or as otherwise authorized by law. Such payments shall constitute an operating expense of the system or systems whose revenues are thus to be applied. Payments to be made under the contract by the public agency from the income of its waterworks system, water supply system, treatment facility, sewerage system or sewage disposal system or both such systems or its combined waterworks, water supply, treatment facility, sewerage and sewage disposal systems shall be subordinate to amounts required to be paid from the net revenues of such systems for principal of and interest on bonds of the public agency which are outstanding at the time of the making of the contract and which are payable solely from such net revenues unless the ordinance or resolution authorizing such outstanding bonds of the public agency expressly reserves the right to accord such contract payments a priority over such public agency's bond requirements. No provision of Sections 21-27-161 through 21-27-191 shall be construed to prohibit any public agency, otherwise permitted by law to issue bonds, from issuing bonds in the manner provided by law for the construction, renovation, repair or development of waste disposal facilities within the jurisdictional limits of the public agency. Except to the extent provided in Section 21-27-175, neither the municipality nor the holder of any bonds of the municipality shall have the right to demand payment of the public agency's obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation, but such contracts shall constitute an obligation of the public agency and shall be binding upon such public agency according to its terms and shall continue in effect until all bonds specified therein and refunding bonds issued in lieu of such bonds and all other obligations thereunder shall have been paid. Payments made or to be made to a municipality by a public agency or other person pursuant to a contract for waste collection, transportation, treatment and sewage disposal services and facilities shall be determined by the method specified in the contract and shall not be subject to approval or review by the public service commission.

§ 21-27-175. Public agency may levy ad valorem tax.

Any public agency having taxing powers, other than a county or a municipality as herein defined, is authorized to levy a special ad valorem tax not to exceed four (4) mills upon all taxable property within its geographical limits to pay all or a portion of the payments to be made by that public agency under a contract between the public agency and a municipality and if the contract as authorized by the governing body of the public agency so provides, then the contract shall constitute an obligation against the taxing power of the public agency to the extent therein provided. The special ad valorem tax millage authorized by Sections 21-27-161 through 21-27-191 shall not be reimbursable by the state under the provisions otherwise made for reimbursements under the homestead exemption laws.

The proceeds derived from two (2) mills of the levy authorized herein shall be included in the ten percent (10%) increase limitation under Section 27-39-321, and the proceeds derived from any additional millage levied hereunder in excess of two (2) mills shall be excluded from such limitation for the first year of such additional levy and shall be included within such limitation in any year thereafter.

Whenever a public agency and a municipality shall have executed a contract under Sections 21-27-161 through 21-27-191 and the payments thereunder are to be made either wholly or partly from the revenues of the public agency's waterworks system, water supply system, treatment facility, sewerage system or sewage disposal system or from both systems or a combination of both systems, the duty is hereby imposed on the public agency to establish and maintain and from time to time to adjust the rates charged by the public agency for the services of such system or systems, to the end that the revenues therefrom together with any taxes levied in support thereof will be sufficient at all times to pay: (a) the expense of operating and maintaining such system; (b) all of the public agency's obligations to the municipality under the contract; and (c) all of the public agency's obligations under and in connection with revenue bonds theretofore issued, or which may be issued thereafter secured by revenues of such system or systems. The contract may require the use of consulting engineers and financial experts to advise the public agency whether and when such rates are to be adjusted.

§ 21-27-179. Issuance of bonds by municipality.

For the purpose of acquiring, constructing, improving, enlarging, extending and repairing a sewage disposal system or sewage disposal systems, a municipality is authorized to issue bonds payable from and secured by a pledge of all or any part of revenues under any contract or contracts it enters into under Sections 21-27-161 through 21-27-191 and from all or any part of any revenues derived from the operation of the waterworks system, water supply system, treatment facility, sewerage system or sewage disposal system and pledged for such purpose by the municipality. Said bonds shall be in such form and denomination as prescribed by the governing body of the municipality. Such bonds may be serial or term; redeemable, with or without premium, or nonredeemable; registered or coupon bonds with registration privileges as to either principal and interest; principal only or both; shall bear interest at a rate or rates to be determined pursuant to the sale of the bonds; and shall be payable at such time or times and shall mature at such time or times not exceeding the said estimated life of the contemplated system or improvement, but in no event exceeding thirty (30) years from their date, and at such place or places as shall be prescribed in the bond resolution authorizing their issuance; provided, however, that any bond issue to be awarded and sold to the United States of America or any agency thereof shall mature at such time or times, not to exceed thirty-five (35) years, as shall be prescribed in the ordinance authorizing their issuance. Any provisions of the general laws to the contrary notwithstanding, any bonds and interest coupons issued pursuant to the authority of Sections 21-27-161 through 21-27-191 shall possess all the qualities of negotiable instruments. The bonds and the interest coupons shall be executed in such manner and shall be substantially in the form prescribed in the authorizing resolution. In case any of the officers whose signatures or countersignatures appear on the bonds or interest coupons shall cease to be such officers before delivery of such bonds, such signatures or countersignatures shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if they had remained in office until such delivery. No bond shall bear more than one (1) rate of interest; each bond shall bear interest from its date to its stated maturity date at the interest rate specified in the bid; all bonds of the same maturity shall bear the same rate of interest from date to maturity; all interest accruing on such bonds so issued shall be payable semiannually or annually, except that the first interest coupon attached to any such bond may be for any period not exceeding one (1) year.

No interest payment shall be evidenced by more than one (1) coupon and neither cancelled nor supplemental coupons shall be permitted; the lowest interest rate specified for any bonds issued shall not be less than seventy percent (70%) of the highest rate specified for the same bond issue. Such bonds shall not bear a greater overall maximum interest rate to maturity than that allowed in Section 75-17-103, Mississippi Code of 1972. Each interest rate specified in any bid must be in multiples of one-eighth of one percent ($\frac{1}{8}$ of 1%) or in multiples of one-tenth of one percent ($\frac{1}{10}$ of 1%). If serial bonds, such bonds shall mature annually, and the first maturity date thereof shall not be more than five (5) years from the date of such bonds. Such bonds shall be legal investments for trustees and other fiduciaries, and for savings banks, trust companies and insurance companies organized under the laws of the state of Mississippi. The bonds and interest coupons shall be exempt from all state, county, municipal and other taxation under the laws of the state of Mississippi. No bond issued pursuant to Sections 21-27-161 through 21-27-191 shall constitute an indebtedness of a municipality within the meaning of any statutory or charter restriction or limitation upon indebtedness. Such bonds shall be sold on sealed bids at public sale in the manner provided by Section 31-19-25, as now or hereafter amended, upon such terms as the governing authorities of the municipality may determine, not inconsistent with the provisions of Sections 21-27-161 through 21-27-191, but no sale shall be made at a price so low as to require the payment of interest on the money received therefor at more than that allowed in Section 75-17-103, Mississippi Code of 1972, computed with relation to the absolute maturity of the bonds, in accordance with standard tables of bond values, excluding from such computation the amount of any premium to be paid on redemption of any bonds prior to maturity. Sections 21-27-161 through 21-27-191 shall be full and complete authority for the issuance of the bonds provided for herein, and no restriction or limitation otherwise prescribed by law shall apply herein, nor shall such bonds constitute an indebtedness of the municipality within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory limitation.

While any such bonds are outstanding, it shall be the duty of the governing body of the municipality to fix, maintain and collect rates and charges for services furnished or made available by the sewage disposal system, adequate to pay maintenance and operation costs of the expenses allocable to the sewage disposal system, payment of principal of and interest on such bonds, and to provide and maintain the funds created by the resolution authorizing the bonds. Interest to accrue on the bonds and administrative expenses to estimated date when the sewage disposal system will become revenue producing and reserve funds created by the resolution authorizing the bonds may be set aside out of bond proceeds.

§ 21-27-189. Other powers and authority of municipality.

A municipality, as defined in Section 21-27-163, is authorized and empowered, in the discretion of its governmental authorities, to exercise the following powers and authority within the area and territories comprising the metropolitan area of which it is a part:

(a) To operate and manage sewerage systems, sewage treatment facilities and sewage disposal systems and related facilities serving the metropolitan area in conformance with the metropolitan area plan.

(b) To construct, operate and maintain sewerage systems, sewage treatment facilities and sewage disposal systems in the manner and to the extent required by the metropolitan area plan.

(c) To accept and utilize grants and other funds from any source for waste treatment management purposes.

(d) To establish and maintain rates and charges for the use of the services of such sewerage systems, sewage treatment facilities and sewage disposal systems within the metropolitan area, and from time to time to adjust such rates, to the end that the revenues therefrom will be sufficient at all times to pay the expenses of operating and maintaining such works, facilities and systems and all of the municipality's obligations under any contract or bond resolution with respect thereto.

(e) To incur short and long-term indebtedness under the provisions of Sections 21-27-161 through 21-27-191 or other applicable statutes.

(f) To adopt rules and regulations necessary to carry out the implementation of the metropolitan area plan and to assure the payment of each participating person or public agency of its proportionate share of treatment costs.

(g) To refuse to receive any waste from any public agency or subdivision thereof or any other person which does not comply with the provisions of the metropolitan area plan applicable to the particular area within which such public agency or subdivision thereof or any other person is located.

(h) To accept industrial waste for treatment and to require the pretreatment of same when within the opinion of the municipality such pretreatment is necessary.

(i) To adopt all necessary and reasonable rules and regulations to carry out and effectuate any waste treatment plan adopted for the metropolitan area.

(j) To require by ordinance or by contract with a public agency or other person that all waste within the metropolitan area be disposed of through sewerage systems, treatment facilities and sewage disposal systems which comprise a part of the metropolitan area plan, to the extent that the same may be available, but no public agency shall be precluded from constructing, operating and maintaining its own sewerage system if the same be a part of the metropolitan area plan.

For purposes of Sections 21-27-201 through 21-27-221, the following terms shall have the meanings ascribed herein, unless the context shall otherwise require:

(a) "Association" means the Mississippi Water and Pollution Control Operator's Association, Inc.

(b) "Board" means the Mississippi State Board of Health.

(c) "Commission" means the Mississippi Commission on Environmental Quality.

(d) "Community water system" means a public water system serving piped water for human consumption to fifteen (15) or more individual service connections used by year-round consumers or regularly serving twenty-five (25) or more individual consumers year-round, including, but not limited to, any collection, pretreatment, treatment, storage and/or distribution facilities or equipment used primarily as part of, or in connection with, that system, regardless of whether or not the components are under the ownership or control of the operator of the system.

(e) "Commercial Class I rubbish site" means a permitted rubbish site which accepts for disposal Class I rubbish, as defined by the commission, for compensation or from more than one (1) generator.

(f) "Nontransient, noncommunity water system" means a public water system that is not a community water system and that regularly serves at least twenty-five (25) of the same persons over six (6) months per year.

(g) "Operator" means the person who directly supervises and is personally responsible for the daily operation and maintenance of a wastewater facility, community water system, nontransient, noncommunity water system or commercial nonhazardous solid waste management landfill.

(h) "Person" means the state or any agency or institution of the state, any municipality, political subdivision, public or private corporation, individual, partnership, association or other entity, including any officer or governing or managing body of any municipality, political subdivision, or public or private corporation, or the United States or any officer or employee of the United States.

(i) "Pollution" means contamination or other alteration of the physical, chemical or biological properties of any waters of the state, including change in temperature, taste, color, turbidity or odor of the waters, or the discharge of any liquid, gaseous, solid, radioactive or other substance or heat into any waters of the state.

(j) "Wastewater facilities" means pipelines or conduits, pumping stations, force mains, treatment plants, lagoons or any other structure, device, appurtenance or facility, whether operated individually or in any combination, used for collecting, treating and/or disposing of municipal or domestic wastewater, by either surface or underground methods, which is required to have a permit under Section 49-17-29.

(k) "Waters of the state" means all waters within the jurisdiction of this state, including all streams, lakes, ponds, impounding reservoirs, marshes, watercourses, waterways, wells, springs, irrigation systems, drainage systems and all other bodies or accumulations of water, surface and underground, natural or artificial, situated wholly or partly within or bordering upon the state, and such coastal waters as are within the jurisdiction of the state, except lakes, ponds or other surface waters which are wholly landlocked and privately owned.

(1) The board shall classify all municipal and domestic water collection, storage, treatment and/or distribution systems actually used or intended for use as community water systems or nontransient, noncommunity water systems according to size, type, character of water to be treated, number of service connections, and other physical conditions affecting the operation and maintenance of those systems, and also according to the degree of skill, knowledge, training and experience required of the operators of those systems to ensure competent, efficient operation and maintenance of such systems and protection of public health.

(2) The commission shall classify all municipal and domestic wastewater facilities according to size, type, character of wastewater to be treated, and other physical conditions affecting the operation and maintenance of the facilities, and also according to the degree of skill, knowledge, training and experience required of the operators of the facilities to ensure competent, efficient operation and maintenance of the facilities and prevention of pollution of waters of the state.

(3) The commission shall establish reciprocal certification arrangements with other states and private companies that establish training and certification programs for operators of commercial nonhazardous solid waste management landfills that meet or exceed the requirements of the commercial nonhazardous solid waste management landfill operator training and certification program established by the commission.

(4) The commission may establish reciprocal certification arrangements with other states and private companies that establish training and certification programs for operators of commercial Class I rubbish sites that meet or exceed the requirements of the commercial Class I rubbish site operator training and certification program established by the commission.

Editor's Note — Former § 21-27-209 provided for the establishment of an advisory committee, its duties, membership, meetings, and expenses.

(1) It is unlawful to operate or cause to be operated any wastewater facility or community water system covered under Sections 21-27-201 through 21-27-221 unless the operator of that facility or system holds a current certificate of competency issued by the board or commission, as provided by Sections 21-27-201 through 21-27-221, in a classification corresponding to the classification of the facility or system. After July 1, 1998, it shall be unlawful to operate or cause to be operated any nontransient, noncommunity water system covered under Sections 21-27-201 through 21-27-221, unless the operator of that system holds a current certificate of competency issued by the board. If an operator is lost due to illness, death, resignation, discharge or other legitimate cause, the owner or president of the governing board of the facility or system shall immediately notify either the board or commission, as the case may be. The facility or system may continue to operate without a certified operator on an interim basis for a period not to exceed one hundred eighty (180) days, except for good cause shown upon petition to the responsible agency. The board or the commission, as the case may be, may grant, upon petition of the facility or system, an extension of the interim operating period not to exceed an additional one hundred eighty (180) days for good cause shown.

(2) It is unlawful to operate or cause to be operated any commercial nonhazardous solid waste management landfill permitted under Section 49-17-29 unless the operator of that facility holds a current certificate of competency issued by the commission, as provided by Sections 21-27-201 through 21-27-221. However, in the event of the loss of an operator due to illness, death, resignation, discharge or other legitimate cause, notice shall be immediately given to the commission and the continued operation of the facility without a certified operator may proceed on an interim basis for a period not to exceed one hundred eighty (180) days, except for good cause shown upon petition to the commission.

(3) After June 30, 2005, it is unlawful to operate or cause to be operated any commercial Class I rubbish site, unless the operator of that facility holds a certificate of competency issued by the commission under Sections 21-27-201 through 21-27-221. However, in the event of the loss of an operator due to illness, death, resignation, discharge or other legitimate cause, notice shall be immediately given to the commission and the continued operation of the facility without a certified operator may proceed on an interim basis for a period not to exceed one hundred eighty (180) days, except for good cause shown upon petition to the commission.

(1) Notwithstanding any provision of Sections 21-27-201 through 21-27-221 to the contrary, any person who is an operator of a municipal or domestic wastewater facility or community water system on July 1, 1986, may, on or before June 30, 1987, apply to the board or commission for, and shall be issued, an operator's certificate without examination or proof of other qualifications, if the application is accompanied by an affidavit of the owner of the facility or system verifying the status of the applicant. Any certificate so issued shall be valid only for the particular facility being operated by the applicant, and then only so long as the facility remains in the same or a lower classification as at the time the application is filed.

(2) Notwithstanding any provision of Sections 21-27-201 through 21-27-221 to the contrary, any person who is an operator of a nontransient, noncommunity water system on July 1, 1997, may, before June 30, 1998, apply to the board for an operator's certificate without examination. The application shall be accompanied by an affidavit of the owner of the system verifying the status of the applicant. The board shall consider the performance history of any system operated by the applicant in determining whether to issue a certificate under this subsection. Upon review of the performance history and the application, the board may grant or deny the issuance of a certificate under this subsection. Any certificate issued under this subsection shall be valid only for the particular facility being operated by the applicant.

(1) Any person found by the board or commission, as the case may be, or any duly designated hearing officer appointed thereby, violating any of the provisions of Sections 21-27-201 through 21-27-221, or any rule or regulation promulgated by the board or commission hereunder, or any order issued by the board or commission in the exercise of their authority and duties hereunder, shall be subject to a civil penalty of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), for each violation, such penalty to be levied and assessed by the board or commission or designated hearing officer. Appeals from such actions may be taken as provided hereinafter. Each day upon which a violation occurs shall be deemed a separate and additional violation.

In determining the amount of any monetary penalty assessed hereunder, the board or commission or duly appointed hearing officer shall consider all factors bearing upon the violation, including but not limited to, any resulting actual or probable pollution of the lands and/or waters of the state and/or endangerment to public health, and the nature and extent thereof, any violation of the terms or conditions of permits issued by the board or commission for the affected facility, and any actual or probable damage to the affected facility caused by improper operation thereof.

(2) In lieu of, or in addition to, the penalty provided in subsection (1) of this section, the board and commission shall have power to institute and maintain in the name of the state any and all proceedings necessary or appropriate to enforce the provisions of Sections 21-27-201 through 21-27-221, rules and regulations in force pursuant hereto, and orders and operator certifications made and issued hereunder, in the appropriate circuit, chancery, county or justice court of the county in which venue may lie. The board and commission may obtain mandatory or prohibitory injunctive relief, either temporary or permanent.

(3) Any person found guilty of violating any provision of Sections 21-27-201 through 21-27-221, upon conviction, shall be punished by a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) per day of violation.

§ 21-27-219. Complaints; conduct of hearings; notice; issuance of subpoenas.

(1) Whenever the board or commission or an employee thereof has reason to believe that a violation of any provision of a regulation or of any order of the board or commission has occurred, the board or commission may cause a written complaint to be served upon the alleged violator or violators. The complaint shall specify the provisions of Sections 21-27-201 through 21-27-221 or regulation or order alleged to have been violated and the facts alleged to constitute a violation thereof, and shall require that the alleged violator appear before the board or commission, or any duly designated hearing officer appointed thereby, at a time and place specified in the notice and answer the charges complained of. The time of appearance before the board or commission or designated hearing officer shall be not less than thirty (30) days from the date of the service of the complaint.

and place specified in the complaint. On the basis of the evidence produced at the hearing, the board or commission or designated hearing officer shall make findings of fact and conclusions of law and enter such order as in its opinion will best further the purposes of Sections 21-27-201 through 21-27-221 and shall give written notice of such order to the alleged violator, and the board or commission or designated hearing officer may assess such penalties as hereinbefore provided.

(3) Except as otherwise expressly provided, any notice or other instrument issued by or under authority of the board or commission or designated hearing officer may be served on any person affected thereby personally or by publication, and proof of such service may be made in like manner as in case of service of a summons in a civil action, such proof to be filed in the office of the board or commission; or such service may be made by mailing a copy of the notice, order or other instrument by certified mail, directed to the person affected at his last known post office address as shown by the files or records of the board or commission, and proof thereof may be made by the affidavit of the person who did the mailing, filed in the office of the board or commission.

(4) In conducting the hearings provided in this section, any member of the board or commission, or the chief administrative officer thereof, or the duly designated hearing officer, shall have the authority to issue subpoenas to appear and give testimony, to produce records, or both, and in case of contumacy or refusal to obey a notice of hearing or subpoena issued hereunder, the circuit court shall have jurisdiction upon application of the board or commission or its representative to issue an order requiring obedience to the hearing notice or subpoena of the board or commission or designated hearing officer. Any failure to obey such court order may be punished by such court as contempt thereof. Any member of the board or commission, or the chief administrative officer thereof, or the designated hearing officer, may administer oaths. A verbatim record of the hearing shall be made. Witnesses who are subpoenaed shall receive the same fees and mileage as in civil actions.

(5) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the board or commission to issue, deny, modify or revoke any operator certification hereunder shall be entitled to a full hearing before the board or commission or duly designated hearing officer appointed thereby in the same manner as provided hereinabove, and appeals from such actions shall be in the same manner as provided hereinafter.

(1) Any person aggrieved by the final decision of any duly designated hearing officer appointed by the board or commission as a result of any hearing held under the provisions of Sections 21-27-201 through 21-27-221 may, within thirty (30) days of receipt of written notice of the action of the hearing officer, appeal such final decision to the full board or commission, as the case may be, by filing therewith a written notice of appeal. No cost bond or other security shall be required to perfect such appeal. The hearing officer shall forthwith prepare and submit to the board or commission the record made at the hearing, which shall thereupon become the record of the cause. Appeals to the board or commission shall be considered only upon the record made before the hearing officer. The board or commission shall review all findings of fact and conclusions of law of the hearing officer, together with any penalties levied, and may affirm, modify or reverse and remand the decision of the hearing officer, as may be determined to be necessary or appropriate. Appeals from the final decision of the board or commission shall be perfected as hereinafter provided.

(2) Any person aggrieved by the final decision of the board or commission as a result of any hearing held under the provisions of Sections 21-27-201 through 21-27-221, including hearings requested incidental to the issuance, denial, modification or revocation of any operator certification issued hereunder, may, within thirty (30) days of receipt of written notice of the action of the board or commission, appeal such final decision to the chancery court of the county of the situs in whole or in part of the subject matter by giving a cost bond with sufficient sureties, payable to the state in the sum of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), to be fixed by the board or commission and to be filed with and approved by the chief administrative officer of the appropriate agency, who shall forthwith certify the same together with a certified copy of the record made before the board or commission or designated hearing officer in the matter to the chancery court to which the appeal is taken, which shall thereupon become the record of the cause. An appeal to the chancery court as provided herein shall not stay the decision of the board or commission. The aggrieved party may, within such thirty (30) days, petition the said chancery court for an appeal with supersedeas and the chancellor shall grant a hearing on said petition and upon good cause shown may grant such appeal with supersedeas; the appellant shall be required to post a supersedeas bond with sufficient sureties according to law in an amount to be determined by the chancellor. Appeals shall be considered only upon the record as made before the board or commission. The chancery court shall always be deemed open for hearing of such appeals and the chancellor may hear the same in termtime or in vacation at any place in his district, and the same shall have precedence over all civil cases, except election contests. The chancery court shall review all questions of law and of fact. If no prejudicial error be found, the matter shall be affirmed. If prejudicial error be found, the same shall be reversed, and the chancery court shall remand the matter to the board or commission for appropriate action as may be indicated or necessary under the circumstances. Appeals may be taken from the chancery court to the Supreme Court in the manner as now required by law, except that if a supersedeas is desired by the party appealing to the chancery court, he may apply therefor to the chancellor thereof, who shall award a writ of supersedeas, without additional bond, if in his judgment material damage is not likely to result thereby; but otherwise, he shall require such supersedeas bond as he deems proper, which shall be payable to the state for damage.

The following words and phrases when used in this article, unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context, shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Retirement system" shall mean a retirement system as authorized by this article;

(b) "Board" shall mean the retirement board provided for in this article to administer the retirement system;

(c) "Municipality" shall mean any city, as defined by Section 21-1-1 which has a population of twenty-one thousand (21,000), or more;

(d) "Governing body" shall mean the legislative body, board or commission of any municipality, as defined in subsection (c) of this section;

(e) "Employer" shall mean a municipality, as defined in subsection (c) of this section, which has elected, as by this article provided, to provide a retirement system;

(f) "Employee" shall mean all administrative and other employees on a monthly salary basis, excepting policemen, firemen, and school teachers;

(g) "Member" shall mean any municipal employee included in the membership of the retirement system;

(h) "Beneficiary" shall mean any person in receipt of an annuity, pension, or retirement allowance granted under the provisions of this article;

(i) "Compensation" shall mean the remuneration paid the employee in cash or warrant out of public funds in return for his services to the employer, plus the monetary value, as determined by the governing body, of whatever living quarters or other thing of monetary value the employer furnishes him in return for his services. Compensation in addition to an employee's base salary that is paid to the employee at the time of his retirement for unused accumulated annual leave, sick leave or both, pursuant to the vacation and sick leave policies of the employer, shall be excluded from the calculation of compensation under this article;

(j) "Accumulated contributions" shall mean the sum of all amounts deducted from the compensation of a member and credited to his individual account in the employees' savings fund, together with interest thereon as by this article provided;

(k) "Service" shall mean time spent as an employee of one (1) employer, the time spent in the employ of one (1) employer under this article not being transferable nor to be considered by any other employer under this article. Service shall not include any unused accumulated annual leave, sick leave or both that any employee has at the time of his retirement pursuant to the vacation and sick leave policies of the employer;

(l) "Prior service" shall mean time spent in the employ of an employer, under this article, prior to the effective date of the retirement system; provided, the time spent in the employ of one (1) employer under this article may not be transferable nor considered by any other employer under this article.

Words of the masculine gender shall include words of the feminine gender and vice versa, and words of the singular number in relation to persons shall include the plural number and vice versa.

§ 21-29-5. Creation of City Employees Retirement Fund; election to come under provisions of article.

In every municipality of the State of Mississippi, operating under a commission form of government as of March 31, 1948, and having a population of twenty-one thousand or more, according to the 1940 federal census, and in every municipality bordering on tide water and having a population of more than fifteen thousand, it shall be the duty of the governing body of said municipality to create and maintain a fund known as the "City Employees Retirement Fund," which shall be maintained for the benefits of certain city employees hereinafter named and which shall be derived, raised and administered in the manner hereinafter provided.

In any municipality coming under the provisions of this article, upon a petition signed by twenty per cent of the qualified electors of such municipality, protesting against the operation of this article and petitioning for an election thereon to determine whether a majority of the qualified electors of such municipality desire for such municipality to come from under the terms of this article, providing such petition is filed with the governing body of such municipality by July 29, 1948, the municipal authorities of such municipality shall call an election by August 28, 1948, after giving notice for three consecutive weeks, as to whether the municipality desires to come from under the provisions of this article. At said election, the ballots used by the qualified electors shall read: "For the Retirement Fund for the City Employees," "Against the Retirement Fund for the City Employees." Said election shall be held as such other elections of like nature, and if at such election a majority of those participating thereat shall vote against the retirement fund for the city employees, then this article shall not apply to such municipality. If no petition is filed as above provided, the governing body of said municipality shall by August 28, 1948, pass the required ordinance to begin the operation of said retirement system in accordance with the provisions hereof.

§ 21-29-11. Powers and duties of board.

The general administration and responsibility for the proper operation of the retirement system and for making effective the provisions of this article are hereby vested in the board, the members of which shall serve without compensation except as otherwise provided by law. The board shall organize and adopt such rules and regulations as it may deem necessary and promptly do such things as may properly be done.

The board shall have, in addition to all others, the following rights, powers and duties:

(a) It shall keep minutes of its proceedings which shall be open to public inspection;

(b) Fix a time for regular meetings and provide for the means of calling special meetings;

(c) A majority of all of the board members present shall constitute a quorum for transaction of the affairs of the board;

(d) To hear, consider and pass upon all applications coming before it and order payments as provided by this article, and the board may hear witnesses and administer oaths, appoint hearing officers and make decisions in all matters properly before said board;

(e) It shall have full power to invest and reinvest the funds of the retirement system under the provisions of Section 25-11-121. Moreover, said board shall have full power to order the custodian of securities and funds hereafter designated to hold, purchase, sell, assign, transfer and dispose of any of the securities and investments in which any of the funds created herein shall have been invested, as well as the proceeds of said investments and all moneys belonging to said funds. The funds held by the board may be commingled with other Public Employees' Retirement System investments for the most advantageous investments;

(f) It shall annually determine and allow interest on each individual account in the employees' saving fund based on the average percentage of interest earned from investment or deposit of all funds of the retirement system. However, the interest to be credited to such individual accounts shall not exceed one percent (1%) per annum.

§ 21-29-15. Statement of clerk of municipality; issuance of prior service certificates.

The clerk of said employer shall, within thirty (30) days after the effective date of the ordinance of the municipality to be passed as provided in Section 21-29-5, prepare a statement showing the length of service of employees, prior to effective date of said ordinance, then employed by the employer and the total salaries or wages paid each in cash or warrants during the four (4) years of employment by the employer next before said effective date of said ordinance. Such facts shall, subject to correction after each employee is given ten (10) days within which to check and prove to the board any error therein, be the basis for the board to approve the issuance of prior service certificates and records and to determine the sum each prior service employee electing to come within the retirement system shall deposit in the employees' savings fund. The secretary of the board shall, upon approval of the board, issue to each employee a prior service certificate. The clerk of the employer shall have the duty of keeping all service records and all records on the various funds provided by this article. The clerk shall on or before July 1, 1987, forward all service records and funds to the Public Employees' Retirement System.

§ 21-29-17. Membership.

The membership of the retirement system shall be composed as follows:

(a) All persons who become employees after the date fixed in the ordinance of the governing body for the retirement system to go into effect shall become members of the retirement system on the expiration of two (2) months from date of employment; however, persons who have reached the age of forty (40) years who have not had prior service or membership service which may be reinstated as hereinafter provided shall not be members of the retirement system.

(b) All persons who are employees of the municipality, and who are members of the general municipal employees' retirement system shall come under the provisions and benefits of this article and shall receive all benefits provided for in this article. The municipality shall each month deduct from the total compensation of each member not less than seven percent (7%) nor more than ten percent (10%) of the amount thereof, and put the amounts deducted in the employees' savings fund. Any increase to an amount in excess of seven percent (7%) shall be in increments of not more than one percent (1%) per annum. No increase from the deduction of seven percent (7%) shall be made unless the municipality determines that the avails of a levy of three (3) mills, when combined with the avails of the deduction of seven percent (7%), is insufficient to keep the system actuarially sound.

(c) In lieu of the other provisions of this article, any municipality operating under the provisions of this article on March 1, 1976, may, by a resolution duly adopted and entered upon its minutes, enter into an agreement with the Public Employees' Retirement System of Mississippi whereby all new firemen and policemen employed or reemployed after the effective date of such agreement shall be included in the provisions of such agreement for retirement purposes to the same extent as are other employees covered by the Public Employees' Retirement System.

(d) No new member may be joined after July 1, 1987, and all new employees of the municipality who are employed after July 1, 1987, shall be covered by the Public Employees' Retirement System of Mississippi.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Section 21-29-237 providing that firemen and policemen employed after adoption of municipal resolution in accordance with § 21-29-17(c) shall not become members of disability and relief fund for firemen and policemen is not limited by "operating under provisions of this article" in 21-29-17(c) so as to preclude municipality which had not previously had plan operating under §§ 21-29-1 et seq. from placing firemen and policemen employed after specified date in such a plan in lieu of previously existing plan under §§ 21-29-201 et seq.; nor does placement of firemen and policemen employed after specified date in different plan with lower benefits than those provided to previously employ firemen and policemen violate equal protection clause of Fourteenth Amendment to U.S. Constitution. Jackson Firefighters Ass'n Local 87 v. City of Jackson, 736 F.2d 209 (5th Cir. 1984).

If the Board of General Retirement System had intended to make the contention that the allegations of the employee's petition for duty disability in respect to his having been totally and permanently disabled to work were not correct, the board should have raised the question at a hearing on the employee's application. Smith v. Board of Gen. Retirement Sys., 224 Miss. 13, 79 So. 2d 447 (1955), error overruled 224 Miss. 13, 80 So. 2d 46.

Under the General Municipal Employees' Retirement Act, a municipal employee became a member of retirement system upon the approval by the board of his instalment payment plan of making the contributions to the retirement fund, and he would remain a member of the system until he became a beneficiary or died, since he did not separate himself from the service within the meaning of the statute relating to circumstances under which membership ceases. Smith v. Board of Gen. Retirement Sys., 224 Miss. 13, 79 So. 2d 447 (1955), error overruled 224 Miss. 13, 80 So. 2d 46.

§ 21-29-19. Cessation of membership.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this article, should a member separate from the service of an employer or should he become a beneficiary or die, he shall thereupon cease to be a member and any prior service and membership service which may be credited to his service account at the time of his separation from the service of the employer shall be forfeited by him. Should such person again become an employee of the same employer within a period of five (5) years following the date of his last separation from the service of such employer, he shall again become a member of the retirement system, if not otherwise by this article prevented, conditioned on his redepositing at time of reemployment, and not afterwards, any part of his accumulated contributions theretofore withdrawn from the employees' savings fund, and any prior service and membership service which may have been credited to him at the time of his separation from service shall be restored to him. However, that in the case of the reemployment of a duty disability retirant neither the limitation of five (5) years nor the redepositing of any sum withdrawn from the employees' savings fund shall apply.

(b) The provisions of subsection (a) shall not apply to any employees of a municipality who are employed after adoption of a resolution in accordance with the provisions of subsection (c) of Section 21-29-17. However, under the provisions of the agreement between the municipality and the public employees' retirement system, after the employee has been actively employed for a period of four (4) years and reported as a member of the public employees' retirement system of Mississippi, he may pay the employee contributions, the employer contributions and interest as determined by the public employees' retirement system of Mississippi based on the earnings during the previous period of service with the municipality and receive creditable service for such prior service in the public employees' retirement system of Mississippi.

§ 21-29-21. Refunds to members withdrawing from service.

Should any member cease to be an employee before becoming eligible to receive either a service or disability retirement allowance as provided by this article, for reasons other than becoming a beneficiary or his death, he thereafter, at any time while not a member of the system, may request in writing, of the board a refund to him of his accumulated contributions, whereupon one hundred percent (100%) of his accumulated contributions then credited to his individual account in the employees' savings fund, less and except all interest credited to his individual account, shall be refunded to him within one (1) year from the filing of the request. However, from the date of separation of any employee, no further interest shall be credited to his individual account in said fund by the board unless and until such employee again becomes a member of the retirement system.

Should any former member, who has accumulated contributions remaining in the employees' savings fund, die, or any member die before his retirement becomes effective, one hundred percent (100%) of the amount of his accumulated contributions standing to his credit in the employees' savings fund, including the accumulated interest therein at the rate of one percent (1%) per annum, at the time of his death shall be paid to such person or persons as shall have been nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the board. If there be no such designated person or persons, then one hundred percent (100%) of the amount of his accumulated contributions shall be paid to his legal representative. However, such payments shall be postponed, at the discretion of the board, for not more than eighteen (18) months.

§ 21-29-23. Funds.

All funds provided for herein shall be part of the public funds of the Public Employees' Retirement System and shall be kept in such way as it is required by law to keep its funds. All allowances or withdrawals from such funds shall be drawn against such funds by the rules and regulations of the Public Employees' Retirement System. All securities purchased with money of the various funds under this article shall be purchased in the name of the Public Employees' Retirement System and held as are other securities of the Public Employees' Retirement System. The Public Employees' Retirement System shall maintain separate municipal accounts for each fund. The following funds shall be set up by any municipality operating under the provisions of this article:

(a) Employees' saving fund. — The employees' saving fund shall be the fund in which shall be accumulated the contribution from the compensation of the members and the contributions of members who have prior service to provide for the maintenance, by the clerk of the employer, of an individual account with each member showing the amount of the member's contributions credited to his account and showing interest credited to his account as by the board directed. The portion of the accumulated contributions of a member returned to him upon his withdrawing from service, or paid to his designated beneficiary or legal representative in event of his death, as provided in Sections 21-29-19 and 21-29-21, shall be paid from the employees' saving fund and charged against his individual account therein and the balance then standing in his name in his individual account in said fund shall be transferred to the retirement reserve fund and his individual account closed. The contribution of each member to the employees' saving fund, beginning with the effective date of the retirement system as fixed by ordinance of the governing body, shall be four percent (4%) of his compensation. The employer shall cause the said contribution to be deducted from the cash compensation of each member on each and every payroll period, so long as he remains a member of the retirement system. Every member shall be deemed to consent and agree to the deductions made and provided for herein, and his receipt for his full compensation and payment less said deduction shall be a full and complete discharge and acquittance of all claims and demands whatsoever for the services rendered by such member during the period covered by such payment, except as to benefits provided under this article. The employer shall, within five (5) days following the end of each calendar month, forward the member contributions deducted from the compensation of each member during the preceding calendar month to the Public Employees' Retirement System, to be placed in the employees' saving fund.

(b) Retirement reserve fund. — The Public Employees' Retirement System shall place in the retirement reserve fund all taxes levied and collected pursuant to the provisions of Section 21-29-27. All retirement and disability allowances shall be paid from this fund.

(c) Income Fund. — All interest and other income derived from the deposits and investments authorized by this article shall be paid into the income fund.

The board shall annually allow interest for the preceding year to the individual accounts of members of the employees' savings fund based on the average interest and income received from the investment and deposit of the moneys of the employees' savings fund and the retirement reserve fund, provided that the allowed interest on contributions made by members within any one (1) year shall be computed, beginning on the first day of the fiscal year next following, and shall be computed at the end of the fiscal year. Within thirty (30) days after the end of each fiscal year the allowed interest on the accounts in the employees' savings fund shall be credited to the individual accounts of the members and the total thereof placed in the employees' savings fund and any balance of such interest and income shall be placed in the retirement reserve fund. All costs incidental to the investment of funds shall be paid out of this fund.

§ 21-29-27. Taxes to meet system requirements; transfer of funds.

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, the governing body of a municipality, after the passage of the ordinance provided for in Section 21-29-5, shall annually levy a tax as certified by the Public Employees' Retirement System on the taxable property within the municipality or use other funds available, to enable it to meet the requirements of the retirement system. The levy made, or other funds made available, for the municipality's contribution to the system shall be in an amount sufficient to make the system actuarially sound. The tax herein authorized is in addition to all other taxes authorized by law, and may be increased by no more than one-half (½) mill per year as certified by the Public Employees' Retirement System; however, if any levy to pay debt service on bonds issued under Section 31-25-21 as described in subsection (2) of this section is reduced for any year as a result of payment of the bonds or otherwise, the levy under this subsection (1) for such year may be increased by an amount, in addition to the one-half

(½) mill otherwise authorized, not to exceed the reduction for such year in the millage levied to pay debt service on the bonds.

(2) In addition to, or in lieu of, the method of funding provided for in subsection (1) of this section, the municipality may fund or assist in funding the retirement system through the use of revenue bonds issued pursuant to Section 31-25-21. Any tax levied to service the debt on such bonds shall not be included in the ten percent (10%) limitation on increases under Section 27-39-321.

(3) Each municipality with a general municipal employees' retirement fund shall be provided an actuarial study of the fund at least every four (4) years by the Public Employees' Retirement System, which shall report the findings to the Legislature of the State of Mississippi. The first such study shall be filed with the Legislature in January 1980.

(4) The Board of Trustees of the Public Employees' Retirement System, when any municipality has enacted an enabling ordinance as provided in Sections 21-29-5 and 21-29-101, upon a finding that either the municipal employees' retirement system or the disability and relief fund for firemen and policemen is not funded in an actuarially sound manner which shall be spread upon the minutes of the board, may by order provide that the revenue or a portion thereof produced by the levy authorized for one (1) system be diverted to fund the less actuarially sound system within the same municipality. No transfer may be made of funds from one (1) municipality to another.

(5) The municipality and the Board of Trustees of the Public Employees' Retirement System may enter into such contracts and agreements as are deemed necessary to implement the provisions of this section, including, but not limited to, contracts and agreements addressing the use, application and investment of proceeds of bonds issued under Section 31-25-21 and earnings thereon and the relative rights and obligations of the municipality and the Public Employees' Retirement System during the period that the bonds are outstanding and thereafter.

§ 21-29-33. Service retirement allowance.

Upon retirement from service as provided in Section 21-29-31 a member shall receive a service retirement allowance for the remainder of his life, payable monthly, which allowance shall be a sum equal to fifty percent (50%) of his average monthly salary for the last four (4) years of service immediately prior to retirement; provided, however, that upon retirement from service in any municipality having a commission form of government on March 31, 1948, as provided in Section 21-29-5 and having a separate firemen and policemen retirement system and having a population not in excess of 48,000 according to the 1980 decennial census, which municipality has established a retirement system according to the provisions of this chapter, the service retirement allowance shall be based upon the average monthly salary for the last two (2) years of service immediately prior to retirement. Any member who has been in paid service for longer than twenty (20) years shall be entitled to receive additional payments for life in a sum equal to one and seven-tenths percent (1.7%) of the average monthly salary received by such member in the two-year period next preceding the filing of said application for each full year of service in excess of twenty (20) years' service. However, no retired payment to any member shall exceed sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66- $\frac{2}{3}$ %) of the average monthly salary received by a member for the four-year or two-year period, as the case may be, next preceding the filing of said application. Periods of time in which a member may have been inactive on account of physical or mental disability shall not be excluded in computing the twenty-year period and the seven-year period hereinbefore mentioned, provided the employee continues to contribute his share to the program based on the average of his last two (2) months' compensation. This contribution shall continue during the total time the employee shall be inactive.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

"Upon retirement from service" as found in Section 21-29-33, means termination of employment as employee of municipality in position that would have been covered by General Municipal Employees' Retirement System or by Public Employees' Retirement System after closure of General Municipal Employees' Retirement System to new members. Snowden Aug. 26, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0538.

Nothing prohibits retired Employee from being reemployed by City; however, since employee would no longer be retired, benefits from General Municipal Employees' Retirement System would be suspended during such period of reemployment; further, if so reemployed, Employee would be covered by Public Employees' Retirement System on same terms and conditions as all other municipal employees. Snowden Aug. 26, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0538.

§ 21-29-35. Duty disability retirement.

Upon application of a member in service of the employer, any member who has become totally and permanently incapacitated for duty as the natural and proximate result of the actual performance of duty of the employer, without wilful negligence on his part, may be retired by the board on a duty disability retirement allowance effective thirty days after the filing of an application in writing with the board. However, the physician or physicians selected by the board to examine the member shall certify that such member is presumably permanently and totally disabled from engaging in any gainful occupation for compensation or profit, that under the facts as to the cause of disability, as certified by the board, the member's disability could have with reasonable probability resulted, in such physician's opinion, and that such member should be retired.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Where a municipal employee became permanently disabled to perform the duties of his employment and he has not paid all his required instalments, based upon an instalment payment plan which has been approved by the board, but he did make a tender of amount of instalments due with his application for disability, the employee's application should have been granted and he was entitled to disability. Smith v. Board of

Gen. Retirement Sys., 224 Miss. 13, 79 So. 2d 447 (1955), error overruled 224 Miss. 13, 80 So. 2d 46.

General Municipal Employees' Retirement Act does not require the filing of an application for duty disability before his service as an employee has terminated. Smith v. Board of Gen. Retirement Sys., 224 Miss. 13, 79 So. 2d 447 (1955), error overruled 224 Miss. 13, 80 So. 2d 46.

If the Board of General Retirement System had intended to make the contention that the allegations of the employee's petition for duty disability in respect to his having been totally and permanently disabled to work were not correct, the board should have raised the question at a hearing on the employee's application. Smith v. Board of Gen. Retirement Sys., 224 Miss. 13, 79 So. 2d 447 (1955), error overruled 224 Miss. 13, 80 So. 2d 46.

Under the General Municipal Employees' Retirement Act, a municipal employee became a member of retirement system upon the approval by the board of his instalment payment plan of making the contributions to the retirement fund, and he would remain a member of the system until he became a beneficiary or died, since he did not separate himself from the service within the meaning of the statute relating to circumstances under which membership ceases. Smith v. Board of Gen. Retirement Sys., 224 Miss. 13, 79 So. 2d 447 (1955), error overruled 224 Miss. 13, 80 So. 2d 46.

Upon retirement for duty disability, prior to becoming eligible for service retirement, as provided by Section 21-29-35, a member shall receive a duty disability retirement allowance, payable monthly, in a sum equal to fifty percent (50%) of his monthly salary from the employer at the time when the injury was sustained or the sickness occurred. This amount shall be paid to the member throughout such total disability for service. If the municipality pays a salary to such member in an amount equal to or in excess of the amount to be paid under this section, said member shall not be entitled to any payments under this section for the period of time during which such salary is paid.

for duty, as a result of causes occurring other than in the performance of his duty, shall be retired by the board not less than thirty (30) nor more than ninety (90) days next following the date of filing such application, on a non-duty disability retirement allowance. § 21-29-43. Re-examination of disability retirants; revocation of allowance for gainful employment.

(1) Once a year during the first five (5) years following retirement of a member on either duty or non-duty disability retirement allowance, and once in every three-year period thereafter, the board may require any disability beneficiary who has not completed twenty (20) years' service under the terms and provisions of this article to undergo a medical examination at the place of residence of the beneficiary or other place mutually agreed upon, to be made by a physician or physicians designated by the board. Should any disability beneficiary who has not completed twenty (20) years' service under the terms and provisions of this article refuse to submit to at least one (1) medical examination in any such year by a physician or physicians designated by the board, his allowance shall be discontinued until his withdrawal of such refusal, and should his refusal continue for one (1) year, all his rights in and to any and all retirement allowances under the retirement system shall be revoked by the board.

(2) Should the examining physician or physicians report and certify to the board that a disability retirant has recovered and is able to engage in a gainful occupation, and should the board concur in such report, then the disability retirement allowance shall cease. In the case of a duty disability retirant only, upon again becoming an employee of the employer, he shall again become a member of the retirement system and the time during which he was a disability retirant shall be counted as time in the service of the employer for the purpose of service retirement.

(3) Any disability retirant, who has not completed twenty (20) years' service under this article prior to retirement, who secures gainful employment over a period of three (3) consecutive months shall not thereafter receive any disability retirement allowance and it shall be the duty of the board to revoke its order directing the payment of a retirement allowance to such person.

§ 21-29-45. Death of member.

[For any municipality that has not elected to authorize the continuation of or reinstatement of spouse retirement benefits under the provisions of Section 21-29-329, this section shall read as follows:]

Upon proper application to the general retirement board, the benefits to dependents of deceased members and retirants shall be paid as follows:

(a) If any member dies for causes other than the performance of duty in the service of the municipality before completing five (5) years' service, there shall be paid to his or her designated beneficiary or his or her legal representative, if no beneficiary has been designated, from the employees' savings fund the sum equal to the amount accumulated in his or her individual account.

(b) If any member dies who has not had less than five (5) and not more than twenty (20) years' service with the municipality, there shall be paid to the spouse, from the retirement reserve fund, for each year's active service, not to exceed a period of twenty (20) years, one-fortieth ($\frac{1}{40}$) of the average monthly salary or compensation received by the member in the four-year or two-year period, as the case may be, next preceding the death, for the use of the spouse and the child or children of the deceased member under the age of eighteen (18) years, so long as the spouse remains unmarried. If, after the marriage of the spouse, there remains a child or children of the deceased member under the age of eighteen (18) years, the payments shall continue to be made to a parent or lawful custodian of the child or children without the necessity of appointment as guardian for the benefit of the child or children, so long as the child or children are under the age of eighteen (18) years. After the death or marriage of the spouse, all payments to the spouse shall cease, and after the death or attainment of eighteen (18) years of any child or children of the deceased, all payments to the child or children over eighteen (18) years of age shall cease. If the deceased member is not survived by a spouse or child or children under the age of eighteen (18) years, but is survived by a father or a mother dependent upon him or her, the payments shall continue to be made to the dependent father or mother, or both, so long as each lives. The word "dependent," as used in this section, shall mean "wholly dependent," as determined by the retirement board.

(c) If any member dies after having completed twenty (20) years' service as required by Section 21-29-31, or if any retirant dies, there shall be paid from the retirement reserve fund to the spouse or the dependents designated in paragraph (b) of this section, the amount of benefits or retirement pay equal to the sum being paid to the deceased member or retirant, or which would have been paid to the deceased member or retirant if he or she had applied for benefits under this section, on the date of his or her death.

(d) If any member dies before becoming eligible to receive benefits under this article as a result of the performance of duty to the municipality, there shall be paid to the spouse or dependents designated in paragraph (b) of this section from the retirement reserve fund, an amount equal to fifty percent (50%) of the monthly salary of the deceased member on the date of his or her death. This amount shall be paid to the same beneficiaries and for the same period of time as those beneficiaries and periods of time set forth in paragraph (b) of this section.

[For any municipality that has elected to authorize the continuation of or reinstatement of spouse retirement benefits under the provisions of Section 21-29-329, this section shall read as follows:]

Upon proper application to the general retirement board, the benefits to dependents of deceased members and retirants shall be paid as follows:

(a) If any member dies for causes other than the performance of duty in the service of the municipality before completing five (5) years' service, there shall be paid to his or her designated beneficiary or his or her legal representative, if no beneficiary has been designated, from the employees' savings fund the sum equal to the amount accumulated in his or her individual account.

(b) If any member dies who has not had less than five (5) and not more than twenty (20) years' service with the municipality, there shall be paid to the spouse, from the retirement reserve fund, for each year's active service, not to exceed a period of twenty (20) years, one-fortieth ($\frac{1}{40}$) of the average monthly salary or compensation received by the member in the four-year or two-year period, as the case may be, next preceding the death, for the use of the spouse and the child or children of the deceased member under the age of eighteen (18) years, so long as the spouse lives. If, after the death of the spouse, there remains a child or children of the deceased member under the age of eighteen (18) years, the payments shall continue to be made to a parent or lawful custodian of the child or children without the necessity of appointment as guardian for the benefit of the child or children, so long as the child or children are under the age of eighteen (18) years. After the death of the spouse, all payments to the spouse shall cease, and after the death or attainment of eighteen (18) years of any child or children of the deceased member, all payments to the child or children over eighteen (18) years of age shall cease. If the deceased member is not survived by a spouse, child or children under the age of eighteen (18) years, but is survived by a father or a mother dependent upon him or her, the payments shall continue to be made to the dependent father or mother, or both, so long as each lives. The word "dependent," as used in this section, shall mean 'wholly dependent,' as determined by the retirement board.

(c) If any member dies after having completed twenty (20) years' service as required by Section 21-29-31, or if any retirant dies, there shall be paid from the retirement reserve fund to the spouse or the dependents designated in paragraph (b) of this section, the amount of benefits or retirement pay equal to the sum being paid to the deceased member or retirant, or which would have been paid to the deceased member or retirant if he or she had applied for benefits under this section, on the date of his or her death.

(d) If any member dies before becoming eligible to receive benefits under this article as a result of the performance of duty to the municipality, there shall be paid to the spouse or dependents designated in paragraph (b) of this section from the retirement reserve fund, an amount equal to fifty percent (50%) of the monthly salary of the deceased member on the date of his or her death. This amount shall be paid to the same beneficiaries and for the same period of time as those beneficiaries and periods of time set forth in paragraph (b) of this section.

§ 21-29-101. Disability and relief fund; exception and application; discontinuance of new memberships.

Except as otherwise provided in this section, in every city of the State of Mississippi having a population of ten thousand (10,000) or more, according to the last federal census, or any subsequent federal census, and in which there is a paid police department and/or fire department, it shall be the duty of the governing authorities of said municipality to create and maintain a fund known as the "disability and relief fund for firemen and policemen," hereafter to be known as "said fund," which shall be maintained for the benefit of the persons hereinafter named, and shall be derived, raised and administered in the manner provided in this article, except no such fund known as the "disability and relief fund for firemen and policemen" shall be created by any municipality after March 1, 1976, unless approved by an amendment to this article by the Legislature of the State of Mississippi. Further, no new members may be joined by the fund after July 1, 1987, and all new employees of the police department and/or fire department of any municipality having such funds shall become members of the Public Employees' Retirement System of Mississippi after July 1, 1987.

Any reference in other sections of this article to members of the fire or police department shall be defined to include only the members of the disability and relief fund for firemen and policemen of the municipality. The fund for each municipality shall be separately administered.

This section and Sections 21-29-103 through 21-29-151 shall not apply to any municipality wherein the qualified electors of such municipality shall have elected on or before August 6, 1940, pursuant to the then applicable law, not to have such municipality come within the provisions of Sections 21-29-101 to 21-29-151.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
- 2-5. [Reserved for future use.]
6. Under former law.

1. In general.

The imposition of a tax for maintenance of the disability and relief fund provided for by this act is not beyond the legislative power, nor does it constitute class legislation, in view of the fact that the act requires maintenance of a contractual relationship between city and employee and continued availability of the employee. Mayor & Aldermen of Vicksburg v. Crichlow, 196 Miss. 259, 16 So. 2d 749 (1944).

2-5. [Reserved for future use.]

6. Under former law.

Retirement benefits under this Act [Laws 1940, ch 287] are not gratuities, nor for a private purpose, nor the lending of credit, nor are they extra compensation within the prohibitions of the Constitution. Mayor & Aldermen of Vicksburg v. Crichlow, 196 Miss. 259, 16 So. 2d 749 (1944).

Nor does this act [Laws 1940, ch 287] constitute class legislation, or a violation of the constitutional prohibition against maintaining the salary of an officer after his duties have been taken away, or allowing an officer to hold office or employment without personally devoting his time thereto; nor does it run counter to the requirement that no person shall be elected or appointed to office for life or during good behavior and that the term of all offices shall be for some specified period. Mayor & Aldermen of Vicksburg v. Crichlow, 196 Miss. 259, 16 So. 2d 749 (1944).

Where demurrer of city to petition for writ of mandamus to compel the city officials to comply with the provision of the act providing for retirement benefits for firemen and policemen, was overruled, city was entitled to plead further upon filing affidavit of merits. Mayor & Aldermen of Vicksburg v. Crichlow, 196 Miss. 259, 16 So. 2d 749 (1944).

In mandamus action to compel city to comply with statute providing for retirement benefits for firemen and policemen, affidavit of merits, filed after overruling of demurrer to petition, alleging that petitioner was not of the class of persons entitled to benefits under the act, that city had not complied with the act, and that petitioner had been discharged as a fireman, did not disclose a good and substantial defense, and trial court did not err in striking city's affidavit and plea. Mayor & Aldermen of Vicksburg v. Crichlow, 196 Miss. 259, 16 So. 2d 749 (1944).

Judgment in mandamus action to compel cities to comply with statute providing for retirement benefits for firemen and policemen, that petitioner was entitled to the relief prayed for and to a peremptory writ of mandamus and that he have of the defendants the relief prayed for in his petition, was too broad as assuming to decide the merits of the case, constituting a prejudgment of matters within the discretion of the board, created by the act, and as applying to duties imposed upon the city which could not be enforced by mandamus. Mayor & Aldermen of Vicksburg v. Crichlow, 196 Miss. 259, 16 So. 2d 749 (1944).

§ 21-29-105. Administration of disability and relief funds; advisory boards.

The Board of Trustees of the Public Employees' Retirement System of Mississippi shall have operational and administrative control of the funds created herein.

In each municipality there shall be a board to serve in an advisory capacity to the Board of Trustees of the Public Employees' Retirement System with respect to matters concerning the disability and relief fund. Such board shall consist of five (5) members as follows: two (2) shall be elected by the membership of the police department, two (2) shall be elected by the membership of the fire department; and the mayor or his designee shall be an ex officio member. Retired members of the police department and fire department may participate in elections to choose members of the board, and such retired members are also eligible to serve on the board. The term of elected members shall be for four (4) years, and any vacancy in the elected membership shall be filled in the same manner as the original membership was selected.

The board of trustees shall fix a time for regular meetings in its minutes, and it shall keep minutes of its meetings which shall be public records, subject to the statutes, rules and regulations governing the board of trustees.

The board shall have the power and duty to promptly hear and pass upon all applications of firemen and/or policemen or the beneficiaries of deceased firemen and of deceased policemen for participation in the benefits of said fund. The board may appoint hearing officers to further its duties hereunder. Said board may hear witnesses, administer oaths, find facts, and make decisions in all matters properly before said board, which decisions shall be final except upon appeals in the way hereafter set forth. Said board may order payments made according to the facts found and the provisions of this article, which payments shall be made as far as funds may be available from each separate municipal fund. Said board shall have the power, with the funds they have on hand, to invest and reinvest funds under the provisions of Section 25-11-121. Such funds may be commingled with other system funds for the most advantageous investments; however, each fund shall have separate accounting status. No warrant shall be drawn against said fund without the approval of a majority of said board.

§ 21-29-115. Appealing decisions of board of disability and relief.

The governing authorities of the city, any applicant for benefits of the disability and relief fund for firemen and policemen, or any two active members of said fire department or any two active members of said police department, being aggrieved at the decision or order of said board of disability and relief of said city, may file with said board of disability and relief, and with said board of disability and relief appeals duplicate copies of a petition for the rehearing of the matter in which said decision or order was made. Within thirty days thereafter said board of disability and relief of said city shall file with said appeal board, true copies of all papers and documents which were before it, all evidence of record before it and a statement of all evidence heard by it and not of record, all certified to be true and correct, whereupon said appeal board shall fix a time for hearing and shall give said disability and relief board of said city, and the petitioner or petitioners for appeal notice of said time for hearing. When the matter shall come on for hearing said appeal board shall have before it all papers, statements, matters and things certified to it by said disability and relief board, as well as such additional evidence and documents as it may hear and receive and upon all of the same shall hear, consider and decide said matter fully and finally according to this article, and the facts. Said appeal board may cause witnesses to be sworn by one of its members, or by any other authority competent to administer oaths. Said appeal board may meet for all purposes at any time in the State of Mississippi when all are present, or upon the call of two members thereof. Said appeal board shall certify its decision to the disability and relief board and the governing authorities of said city, and such decision or order shall be final and binding and the said fund shall be disbursed according thereto. Any suit or other action affecting said fund shall be by or against said city as custodian of said fund and not against said board.

§ 21-29-117. Funding; tax or use of other funds, contributions, and salary deductions.

(1) Except as otherwise provided for in subsection (2) of this section, the governing authority of said municipality, at the time the levy is made for other municipal taxes, shall annually levy a tax on the taxable property within the said municipality, and the proceeds therefrom shall be forwarded on or before the twentieth of the following month to the Public Employees' Retirement System. The levy made, and the deductions from the salaries of members, shall be in an amount sufficient, but not more than the amount necessary, to make the system actuarially sound by July 1, 2000, as certified to the municipality by the board. Such tax shall be in addition to any limits set forth in Sections 27-39-301 through 27-39-311, and shall not be included in the ten percent (10%) limitation on increases under Section 27-39-321, nor shall any tax increase exceed one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) mill per year; however, if any levy to pay debt service on bonds issued under Section 31-25-21 as described in subsection (2) of this section is reduced for any year as a result of payment of the bonds or otherwise, the levy under this subsection (1) for such year may be increased by an amount, in addition to the one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) mill otherwise authorized, not to exceed the reduction for such year in the millage levied to pay debt service on the bonds.

(2) In addition to, or in lieu of, the method of funding provided for in subsection (1) of this section, the municipality may fund or assist in funding the retirement system through the use of revenue bonds issued pursuant to Section 31-25-21. Any tax levied to service the debt on such bonds shall not be included in the ten percent (10%) limitation on increases under Section 27-39-321.

(3) In addition, all gifts and donations made by any persons or corporations or by other appropriate levy, and all funds which the municipality may receive from insurance companies as provided for in this article shall be placed in said fund.

(4) In addition, such municipality shall each month deduct from the salary of each member of the disability and relief fund for firemen and policemen not less than seven percent (7%) nor more than ten percent (10%) of the amount thereof and put the amount deducted into said fund. Any increase to an amount in excess of seven percent (7%) shall be in increments of not more than one percent (1%) per annum. No increase from the deduction of seven percent (7%) shall be made unless the board determines that the avails of the tax levy of three (3) mills, when combined with the avails of the deduction of seven percent (7%), is insufficient to keep the system actuarially sound.

(5) The Board of Trustees of the Public Employees' Retirement System, when any municipality has enacted an enabling ordinance as provided in Sections 21-29-5 and 21-29-101, upon a finding that either the municipal employees' retirement system or the disability and relief fund for firemen and policemen is not funded in an actuarially sound manner which is spread upon the minutes of the board, may by order provide that the revenue or a portion thereof produced by the levy authorized for one system be diverted to fund the less actuarially sound system within the same municipality. No transfer may be made of funds from one municipality to another.

(6) The municipality and the Board of Trustees of the Public Employees' Retirement System may enter into such contracts and agreements as are deemed necessary to implement the provisions of this section, including, but not limited to, contracts and agreements addressing the use, application and investment of proceeds of bonds issued under Section 31-25-21 and earnings thereon and the relative rights and obligations of the municipality and the Public Employees' Retirement System during the period that the bonds are outstanding and thereafter.

When the amount of funds derived from the tax levied pursuant to Section 21-29-117 is sufficient to care for the requirements and necessities as determined by an actuarial study, the governing authorities of said municipality shall discontinue entirely or reduce the tax rate provided in Section 21-29-117 until such time as financial necessity creates a demand for the reassessment of said tax. It is understood, however, in this connection, that when and if the tax collections as herein provided are discontinued, that said tax shall be reassessed when necessity requires, without the necessity of an election. Each municipality with a disability and relief fund for firemen and policemen shall have prepared an actuarial study of the fund at least every four (4) years and report the findings to the legislature of the State of Mississippi. The first such study shall be filed with the legislature in January, 1980.

§ 21-29-121. Disability and relief fund constitutes special fund; transfer of moneys to Public Employees' Retirement System.

The disability and relief fund for firemen and policemen shall be a special trust fund and shall be disbursed only in the manner hereafter provided. Such fund shall be a part of the public funds of the Public Employees' Retirement System and shall be kept by the board as it is required to keep its other funds. Interest earned on said fund shall be credited to and become a part of said fund. All moneys on deposit in such funds on July 1, 1987, shall be paid over to the Board of Trustees of Public Employees' Retirement System on or before July 1, 1987.

§ 21-29-131. Service records to be kept.

The Public Employees' Retirement System shall keep a record of service of the members of said fire department and police department, which record shall show the history of employment of each member of said fire department and police department. Said record shall be entered up fully at the time such city comes within the terms of this article, and it shall thereafter be kept entered up fully and correctly. All records currently maintained by the municipality's affected membership shall be forwarded to the Public Employees' Retirement System not later than July 1, 1987. Any additional changes shall be forwarded to the Public Employees' Retirement System as made.

§ 21-29-133. Disability benefits; injury or illness resulting from discharge of duties.

If any member of said fire department or police department shall become or be found to be totally disabled for the discharge of his duties as a member of said fire department or police department, mentally or physically, by reason of sickness or injury caused or sustained by reason of service or discharge of his duty in said department, after such city shall have come within the terms of this article, said disability and relief board shall order the payment and there shall be paid from said fund to said fireman or policeman each month thereafter an amount equal to fifty percent (50%) of said fireman's or policeman's monthly salary, to be paid throughout such total disability for service. In passing upon the question of disability, said board shall require an examination of the applicant by the city physician or other physician or physicians as it may deem proper, and may require like examinations from time to time throughout the period of disability claimed by said fireman or policeman. If said city pays a salary to its firemen or policemen while disabled in an amount equal to the disability relief allowed under this section, said fireman or policeman shall not be entitled to any disability relief under this section.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

The total disability for which benefits are allowed firemen is related solely to disability to discharge the duties of a member of the fire department. Board of Disability & Relief v. Hudson, 229 Miss. 631, 91 So. 2d 718 (1957).

Where the total disability exists the only restriction upon claimant's rights to benefits is in a case where the city is paying a salary to the claimant while disabled in an amount equal to the disability relief allowed, and in a case where the claimant has attached himself to a paid fire department in another city. Board of Disability & Relief v. Hudson, 229 Miss. 631, 91 So. 2d 718 (1957).

The fact that a fireman obtained other employment which he was able to perform, notwithstanding his admitted total disability to discharge the duties of a fireman, would not deprive the former fireman of his right to the disability benefits provided by statute. Board of Disability & Relief v. Hudson, 229 Miss. 631, 91 So. 2d 718 (1957).

Contention of Board of Disability & Relief that claimant was not a fireman at the time he sought disability payments was not sustained by evidence that claimant remained in the employment of the city as a member of the fire department from the day of his injury, April 17, 1952, to July 1953, and on June 30, 1953, gave notice not of his intention to resign but of his desire to retire and claim retirement benefits, which the board treated as an application for retirement and/or disability benefits and granted disability benefits and paid them until such payments were terminated by a letter of the city attorney more than a year later. Board of Disability & Relief v. Hudson, 229 Miss. 631, 91 So. 2d 718 (1957).

Should any member of a fire or police department become or be found to be permanently and totally disabled for the discharge of his duties as a member of said fire department or police department, mentally or physically, by reason of sickness or injury, and who has had not less than five years' service with such department, there shall be paid to said fireman or policeman from the firemen's and policemen's disability and relief fund, provided the municipality has such a fund, for each year's active service, not to exceed a period of twenty years, one-fortieth of the monthly salary of such policeman or fireman at the time such disability is incurred, to be paid throughout such permanent and total disability. In passing upon the question of disability said board shall require an examination of the applicant by the city physician or other physician or physicians as it may deem proper, and may require like examinations from time to time throughout the period of disability claimed by said fireman or policeman. If said city pays a salary to its firemen or policemen while disabled in an amount equal to the disability relief allowed under this section, said firemen or policemen shall not be entitled to any disability relief under this section.

If any member of said fire and/or police department who has been in paid fire and/or police department service for as long as twenty (20) years before making application hereinafter mentioned, the last ten (10) years of which shall have been continuous in the city in which the application is made, shall make written application for retirement and relief, the board of disability and relief shall, without medical examination of disability, retire him from active service in said fire and/or police department. Upon such retirement from active service, said board of disability and relief shall order the payment to such retired member monthly from said fund a sum equal to fifty percent (50%) of the average monthly base salary and longevity pay received as salary by such member in the six-month period next before the filing of such application in said fire and/or police department. Such payments shall thereafter be made to said retired member for life, such payment to be known as "retired relief."

Any member of the fire and/or police department who has been in paid fire and/or police department service for longer than twenty (20) years in a municipality shall be entitled and shall receive additional retired relief payment for life in a sum equal to one and seven-tenths percent ($1\frac{7}{10}\%$) of the same average monthly base salary and longevity pay received by such member in the six-month period next preceding the filing of said application, for each full year of service in excess of twenty (20) years' service. However, no retired relief payment to any member shall exceed sixty-six and two-thirds percent ($66\frac{2}{3}\%$) of the average monthly base salary and longevity pay received by a member for the six-month period next preceding the filing of said application.

The said board shall, when a member of the fire and/or police department reaches the age of sixty-five (65), retire him from active service in said fire and/or police department and order the payment of such funds as the member is entitled to hereunder.

Periods of time in which a member may have been inactive on account of physical or mental disability shall not be excluded in computing the twenty-year period and the ten-year period hereinbefore mentioned. Periods of time within which a member may have been absent from his employment while in active service of the Army or Navy of the United States, United States Marine Corps or the United States Coast Guard between September 16, 1940, and July 25, 1947, or while as a civil employee engaged by the Army and Navy while serving outside the continental United States shall not be excluded in computing the twenty-year period and the ten-year period hereinbefore mentioned, provided that the discharge or release of such member from the armed forces was under conditions other than dishonorable. Any member who has been retired or is voluntarily retired hereunder, or who has received relief or disability benefits hereunder, shall be required to perform such duties as then may be required of him.

Provided, however, in any city having a population of nineteen thousand (19,000) but less than twenty thousand (20,000), according to the 1970 census, the periods of time not exceeding four (4) years within which a member of the fire or police departments may have been absent from his employment while in active service in the Armed Forces of the United States, shall not be excluded in computing the twenty-year period and the ten-year period mentioned in this section.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
- 2-5. [Reserved for future use.]
6. Under former law.

1. In general.

Section 21-29-139 is unambiguous and its plain meaning allows credit for all time served in the military up to 4 years, regardless of whether served before or after the employment began. City of Natchez v. Sullivan, 612 So. 2d 1087 (Miss. 1992).

2-5. [Reserved for future use.]

6. Under former law.

Retirement benefits under this Act [Laws 1940, ch 287] are not gratuities, nor for a private purpose, nor the lending of credit, nor are they extra compensation within the prohibitions of the Constitution. Mayor & Aldermen of Vicksburg v. Crichlow, 196 Miss. 259, 16 So. 2d 749 (1944).

Nor does this act [Laws 1940, ch 287] constitute class legislation, or a violation of the constitutional prohibition against maintaining the salary of an officer after his duties have been taken away, or allowing an officer to hold office or employment without personally devoting his time thereto; nor does it run counter to the requirement that no person shall be elected or appointed to office for life or during good behavior and that the term of all offices shall be for some specified period. Mayor & Aldermen of Vicksburg v. Crichlow, 196 Miss. 259, 16 So. 2d 749 (1944).

Judgment in mandamus action to compel cities to comply with statute providing for retirement benefits for firemen and policemen, that petitioner was entitled to the relief prayed for and to a peremptory writ of mandamus and that he have of the defendants the relief prayed for in his petition, was too broad as assuming to decide the merits of the case, constituting a prejudgment of matters within the discretion of the board, created by the act, and as applying to duties imposed upon the city which could not be enforced by mandamus. Mayor & Aldermen of Vicksburg v. Crichlow, 196 Miss. 259, 16 So. 2d 749 (1944).

The imposition of a tax for maintenance of the disability and relief fund provided for by this act is not beyond the legislative power, nor does it constitute class legislation, in view of the fact that the act requires maintenance of a contractual relationship between city and employee and continued availability of the employee. Sartin v. Barlow ex rel. Smith, 196 Miss. 159, 16 So. 2d 372 (1944).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

When a police officer retires and receives retirement benefits under this section and then applies for re-employment as a police officer in a city that offers a retirement benefits program through

PERS, the officer is not entitled to receive retirement benefits under the city's disability and relief fund for the period of such re-employment. Brown, January 15, 1999, A.G. Op. #98-0762.

A fire chief may not receive a retirement benefit from the Firemen's and Policemen's Disability and Relief Fund while employed as the chief in the same department from which he retired with a city. In addition, at the time he was reemployed with the city membership in the Public Employees' Retirement System was and continues to be mandatory. Wallace, Oct. 10, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0552.

§ 21-29-145. Death benefits where death results from discharge of duty or after retirement.

(1) If any member of the fire or police department dies in active service, or dies in inactive service on account of disability approved for disability relief under the provisions of Section 21-29-133, as a result of injury received while in the discharge of duty in the service of the fire department or police department, or dies as a result of sickness or disease, due to the discharge of duty while in service as a member of the fire or police department, or if the member dies while entitled to relief after retirement under Section 21-29-139, the amount of disability relief or retirement being paid, or which should have been properly paid, shall continue to be paid from the fund to the spouse of the deceased member for the use of the spouse and the child or children of the deceased member, so long as the spouse remains unmarried. If, after the marriage of the spouse, there remains a child or children of the deceased member, the payments shall continue to be made to a parent or lawful custodian of the child or children without the necessity of appointment as guardian for the benefit of the child or children. After the death or marriage of the spouse, all payments to the spouse shall cease, and after the death of any child or children of the deceased member, all payments to the child or children shall cease. If the deceased member is not survived by spouse or child or children, but is survived by a father, mother, or an unmarried sister dependent upon him or her, the payments shall continue to be made to the dependent father or mother or both, so long as each lives, or if there is no dependent father or mother surviving the deceased member, the payments shall continue to be made to the unmarried dependent sister or dependent sisters of the deceased, so long as the beneficiary or beneficiaries remain unmarried. Upon the death or marriage of any such sister, all payments shall cease to her. Payments to dependents under this section are for services rendered by the members of the fire and/or police department, and the amount of payment is within the discretion of the board of disability and relief, but in no event shall the amount payable under this section be in excess of the amount that would have been payable as disability and relief to a member of the department. If the father, mother, or sisters are not wholly dependent, then they shall not receive any amount in excess of the difference between the income of the father, mother, sister or sisters, and the amount that the deceased member would have been entitled to.

(2) For purposes of this section:

(a) "Dependent" means wholly dependent upon the deceased at the time of his death.

(b) "Child" or "children" means:

- (i) Children of the deceased member under the age of eighteen (18);
- (ii) Children of the deceased member eighteen (18) years of age or older who have not yet reached their twenty-third birthday and are pursuing a full-time education; or
- (iii) Children of the deceased member who, though eighteen (18) years of age or older, are wholly dependent upon the deceased member and incapable of self-support by reason of mental or physical disability.

(1) If any member of the fire or police department dies in active service, or dies in inactive service on account of disability approved for disability relief under the provisions of Section 21-29-133, as a result of injury received while in the discharge of duty in the service of the fire department or police department, or dies as a result of sickness or disease, due to the discharge of duty while in service as a member of the fire or police department, or if the member dies while entitled to relief after retirement under Section 21-29-139, the amount of disability relief or retirement being paid, or which should have been properly paid, shall continue to be paid from the fund to the spouse of the deceased member for life for the use of the spouse and the child or children of the deceased member. If the deceased member is not survived by a spouse, but there remains a child or children of the deceased member, the payments shall continue to be made to a parent or lawful custodian of the child or children without the necessity of appointment as guardian for the benefit of the child or children. After the death of the spouse, all payments to the spouse shall cease, and after the death of any child or children of the deceased member, all payments to the child or children shall cease. If the deceased member is not survived by spouse or child or children, but is survived by a father, mother or an unmarried sister dependent upon him or her, the payments shall continue to be made to the dependent father or mother or both, so long as each lives. If there is no dependent father or mother surviving the deceased member, the payments shall continue to be made to the unmarried dependent sister or sisters of the deceased member, so long as the beneficiary or beneficiaries remain unmarried. Upon the death or marriage of any such sister, all payments shall cease to her. Payments to dependents under this section are for services rendered by the members of the fire and/or police department, and the amount of payment is within the discretion of the board of disability and relief, but in no event shall the amount payable under this section be in excess of the amount that would have been payable as disability and relief to a member of the department. If the father, mother or sisters are not wholly dependent, then they shall not receive any amount in excess of the difference between the income of the father, mother, sister or sisters, and the amount that the deceased member would have been entitled to.

(2) For the purposes of this section:

(a) "Dependent" means wholly dependent upon the deceased member at the time of his or her death.

(b) "Child" or "children" means:

(i) Children of the deceased member under the age of eighteen (18);

(ii) Children of the deceased member who are eighteen (18) years of age or older who have not yet reached their twenty-third birthday and are pursuing a full-time education; or

(iii) Children of the deceased member who, though eighteen (18) years of age or older, are wholly dependent upon the deceased member and incapable of self-support by reason of mental or physical disability.

[For any municipality that has not elected to authorize the continuation of or reinstatement of spouse retirement benefits under the provisions of Section 21-29-329, this section shall read as follows:]

(1) If any member of a fire or police department dies while a member of the fire or police department, and has had not less than five (5) years' service with the department, there shall be paid from the firemen's and policemen's disability and relief fund benefits as follows:

(a) For each year's active service, not to exceed a period of twenty (20) years, one-fortieth ($\frac{1}{40}$) of the average monthly salary or compensation received by the member in the six-month period next preceding his or her death; and

(b) For each full year of active service in excess of twenty (20) years service, an additional payment in a sum equal to one and seven-tenths percent ($1\frac{7}{10}\%$) of the same average monthly base salary and longevity pay received by the member in the six-month period next preceding his or her death (provided that no such payment shall exceed sixty-six and two-thirds percent ($66\frac{2}{3}\%$) of the average monthly base salary and longevity pay received by a member for the six-month period next preceding his or her death) to the spouse of the deceased member for the use of the spouse and the child or children of the deceased member under the age of eighteen (18) years, so long as he or she remains unmarried, and if, after the marriage of the spouse, there remains a child or children of the deceased member still under the age of eighteen (18) years, the payments shall continue to be made to a parent or lawful custodian of the child or children without the necessity of appointment as guardian for the benefit of the child or children, so long as the child or children are under the age of eighteen (18) years. After the death or marriage of the spouse, all payments to the spouse shall cease, and after the death or attainment of the age of eighteen (18) years of any child or children of the deceased member, all payments to the child or children over eighteen (18) years of age shall cease. If the deceased member is not survived by spouse or child or children under the age of eighteen (18) years, but is survived by a father, mother or an unmarried sister dependent upon him or her, the payments shall continue to be made to the dependent father or mother or both, so long as each lives. If there is no dependent father or mother surviving the deceased member, the payments shall continue to be made to the dependent sister or sisters of the deceased member, or dependent incurable children of the deceased member, so long as the beneficiary or beneficiaries remain unmarried. Upon the death or marriage of any such sisters, all payments shall cease to her. The word "dependent" as used in this section shall mean "wholly dependent."

(2) It is the intention of the Legislature that the benefits authorized by paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section, shall be paid to all qualified and eligible spouses whose deceased spouses died before March 27, 1978.

[For any municipality that has elected to authorize the continuation of or reinstatement of spouse retirement benefits under the provisions of Section 21-29-329, this section shall read as follows:]

(1) If any member of a fire or police department dies while a member of the fire or police department, and who has had not less than five (5) years' service with the department, there shall be paid from the firemen's and policemen's disability and relief fund benefits as follows:

§ 21-29-201. Creation of disability and relief fund and system for firemen and policemen.

In each city in the State of Mississippi having a population of not less than three thousand (3,000) according to the last federal census or according to any subsequent federal census, and having a regularly organized, paid fire department with equipment of the value of not less than Four Thousand Dollars ($4,000.00) and/or regularly organized paid police department, and having not less than two (2) paid firemen and/or not less than two (2) paid policemen, whose sole employment is by such city in its fire department and for police department, there may be provided in connection with the regularly organized and maintained paid fire department and/or police department of such city a special fund known as the "disability and relief fund for firemen and policemen," hereinafter called "said fund," which shall exist and be maintained for the benefit of the persons hereinafter named and shall be derived, raised and administered in the manner hereinafter provided.

Said fund and system of relief, when inaugurated, shall and does create a disability and relief system to apply to the members of the regularly organized, maintained and paid fire department and/or police department of such municipality. Notwithstanding any other section of this article no such fund known as the "disability and relief fund for firemen and policemen" shall be created by any city after March 1, 1976, unless by an amendment to this article by the legislature of the State of Mississippi.

Any reference in other sections of this article to members of the fire and police department shall be defined to include only the members of the disability and relief fund for firemen and policemen of the city.

§ 21-29-203. Election as to inauguration of disability and relief fund and system.

Said fund and system of relief to the fire department and/or police department shall be inaugurated in each municipality only in the following manner: each municipality desiring to create said fund and inaugurate this system of disability and relief for its firemen and/or policemen, shall call an election after giving three weeks consecutive notice in a newspaper published in said city, stating the date, purpose and time of holding said election for the electors to determine whether or not said municipality shall adopt the "disability and relief fund for firemen and policemen." At said election the ballots used by the qualified electors shall read: "For the Disability and Relief Fund for Firemen and Policemen," "Against the Disability and Relief Fund for Firemen and Policemen." Said election shall be held as such other elections of like nature, and if at said election the majority of qualified electors voting thereat, shall vote against the creation of said fund and system, then the said fund and system shall not be created and said fund and system shall not be inaugurated in said municipality. Should a majority of said qualified electors voting at said election vote in favor of the creation of said fund and the operation of said system, the said fund and system shall be inaugurated by said municipality.

§ 21-29-205. Election as to continuation of disability and relief system and fund; effect thereof; discontinuance of new memberships.

Whenever the said fund shall be created, and a system of disability and relief for firemen and/or policemen inaugurated in any municipality, at any time upon the petition of not less than twenty percent (20%) of the qualified electors of said municipality addressed to the said officers composing the governing board of said municipality, requesting an election to determine whether said municipality shall continue to operate under the provisions of this article, the said governing board of said municipality shall order an election to determine said question. Notice of the election shall be given and conduct of the election shall be had as is provided in Section 21-29-203. If at said election a majority of the qualified electors of said municipality shall vote against the continuance of operation of said municipality under the provisions of this article, the said governing board of said municipality shall at the next regular meeting thereof held after said election order the abolition and discontinuance of said system. The said fund and the said system, however, shall continue as to members of the paid fire department and/or police department of said municipality already in service and entitled to participation in said fund. The said system shall be worked out in said municipality to its end as to said members of the paid fire department and/or police department, but no new members entering the service of the fire and/or police department of said municipality shall be taken into or embraced within said system. If at said election a majority of the qualified electors of said municipality shall not vote for a discontinuance of said system in said municipality, no other election in said regard shall be held therein within a period of one (1) year thereafter. No new members may be joined by the fund after July 1, 1987, and all new employees of the police department and/or fire department of any municipality having such funds shall become members of the Public Employees' Retirement System of Mississippi after July 1, 1987.

§ 21-29-207. Organization of board of disability and relief; advisory board; compensation.

The Board of Trustees of the Public Employees' Retirement System of Mississippi shall organize itself into a body to be known as the "Board of Disability and Relief of the City of _____."

In each municipality there shall be a board to serve in an advisory capacity to the Board of Trustees of the Public Employees' Retirement System with respect to matters concerning the disability and relief fund. Such board shall consist of five (5) members as follows: two (2) shall be elected by the membership of the police department, two (2) shall be elected by the membership of the fire department and the mayor or his designee shall be an ex officio member. Retired members of the police department and fire department may participate in elections to choose members of the board, and such retired members are also eligible to serve on the board. The term of elected members shall be for four (4) years, and any vacancy in the elected membership shall be filled in the same manner as the original membership was selected.

The members of the board shall receive no compensation or pay from the disability and relief fund for firemen and policemen for the discharge of their duties, except as otherwise provided by law.

The board shall fix a time for regular meetings in its minutes and it shall keep minutes of its meetings, which shall be public records. Special meetings may be held upon the call of the chairman of the board or any two (2) members thereof, upon twenty-four (24) hours' written notice, stating the purpose of the meeting, or at any time when all members are present.

The board shall have the duty and power to promptly hear and pass upon all applications of firemen and/or policemen or of beneficiaries of deceased firemen and of deceased policemen for participation in the benefits of said fund. Said board may hear witnesses, administer oaths, find facts, and make decisions in all matters properly before said board, which decisions shall be final except upon appeals in the way hereafter set forth. Said board shall order payments made according to the facts found and the provisions of this article, which payments shall be made as far as funds may be available. The board may invest the funds as provided in Section 25-11-121, and such funds may be commingled with other system funds for the most advantageous investments; however, each fund shall have separate accounting status.

Any applicant for benefits of the disability and relief fund for firemen and policemen, or any two (2) active members of said fire department, or any two (2) active members of said police department, being aggrieved at the decision or order of the board of trustees, may file with the board of trustees and with said board of disability and relief appeals duplicate copies of a petition for a rehearing of the matter in which such decision or order was made. Within thirty (30) days thereafter the board of trustees shall file with said appeal board, true copies of all papers and documents which were before it, all evidence of record before it and a statement of all evidence heard by it and not of record, all certified to be true and correct, whereupon said appeal board shall fix a time for hearing and shall give the board of trustees and the petitioner or petitioners for appeal notice of said such time for hearing. When the matter shall come on for hearing said appeal board shall have before it all papers, statements, matters and things certified to it by the board of trustees, as well as such additional evidence and documents as it may hear and receive and upon all of the same shall hear, consider and decide said matter fully and finally according to this article and the facts. Said appeal board may cause witnesses to be sworn by any one (1) of its members, or by any other authority competent to administer oaths. Said appeal board may meet for all purposes at any time in the State of Mississippi when all are present, or upon the call of two (2) members thereof. Said appeal board shall certify its decision to the board of trustees, and such decision or order shall be final and binding and said fund shall be disbursed according thereto. Any suit or other action affecting said fund shall be by or against the board of trustees as custodian of said fund and shall be filed in the Chancery Court of Hinds County.

§ 21-29-219. Funding; ad valorem tax, or use of other funds, contributions, and salary deductions.

(1) The Disability and Relief Fund for Firemen and Policemen shall be created and, except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, maintained by an ad valorem tax levied annually on all property in the municipality, provided the election called for in Section 21-29-203 has authorized the creation of the fund. The levy made, and the deductions from the salaries of members, shall be in an amount sufficient, but not more than the amount necessary, to make the system actuarially sound by July 1, 2000, as certified to the municipality by the board. Such tax shall not be included in the ten percent (10%) limitation on increases under Section 27-39-321, nor shall any tax increase exceed one-half (½) mill per year; however, if any levy to pay debt service on bonds issued under Section 31-25-20 as described in subsection (2) of this section is reduced for any year as a result of payment of the bonds or otherwise, the levy under this subsection (1) for such year may be increased by an amount, in addition to the one-half (½) mill otherwise authorized, not to exceed the reduction for such year in the millage levied to pay debt service on the bonds.

(2) In addition to, or in lieu of, the method of funding provided for in subsection (1) of this section, the municipality may fund or assist in funding the retirement system through the use of revenue bonds issued pursuant to Section 31-25-20. Any tax levied to service the debt on such bonds shall not be included in the ten percent (10%) limitation on increases under Section 27-39-321.

(3) The fund may be created and maintained by such gifts, donations and bequests as may be made to the fund by any person or corporation, by any appropriation or tax levy, or both, of the municipality, by such sum or sums as the municipality may receive from insurance companies for the benefit of the fund, and by the deduction by the municipality from the salary of each member of the Disability and Relief Fund for Firemen and Policemen of not less than seven percent (7%) nor more than ten percent (10%) of the amount thereof. Any increase to an amount in excess of seven percent (7%) shall be in increments of not more than one percent (1%) per annum. No increase from the deduction of seven percent (7%) shall be made unless the board determines that the avails of the tax levy of three (3) mills, when combined with the avails of the deduction of seven percent (7%), is insufficient to keep the system actuarially sound.

(4) The municipality and the Board of Trustees of the Public Employees' Retirement System may enter into such contracts and agreements as are deemed necessary to implement the provisions of this section, including, but not limited to, contracts and agreements addressing the use, application and investment of proceeds of bonds issued under Section 31-25-20 and earnings thereon and the relative rights and obligations of the municipality and the Public Employees' Retirement System during the period that the bonds are outstanding and thereafter.

§ 21-29-221. Discontinuance and reinstatement of ad valorem tax; actuarial study.

The ad valorem tax provided for in Section 21-29-219 shall be stopped by the municipality whenever the interest from the relief fund shall be sufficient to pay all disabilities and relief which are a charge against said fund and future requirements as determined by the Board of Trustees of the Public Employees' Retirement System of Mississippi. However, when the board of trustees determines that interest from said fund is insufficient to meet the charges of disability or relief, then said municipality shall reinstate said tax for the purpose of building up the relief fund until such time as the fund is actuarially sound, as determined by the Board of Trustees.

The board of trustees, for each municipality with a disability and relief fund for firemen and policemen, shall have prepared an actuarial study of the fund at least every four (4) years and report the findings to the Legislature of the State of Mississippi. The first study shall be filed with the Legislature in January 1980.

§ 21-29-229. Tax on premiums of fire and lightning insurers.

The Board of Trustees of the Public Employees' Retirement System, as soon as it is decided that such city shall come within the terms of this article, shall notify the Insurance Commissioner of the State of Mississippi that such city is operating within such terms. The commissioner shall notify all insurance companies, which shall include mutual, interinsurer, and reciprocal associations or companies, transacting the business of fire and lightning insurance in the State of Mississippi, of the fact that such city is operating within such terms. In the event that any such insurance company writes or has written any insurance in said municipality, the rates of said insurance company being based in any way upon the efficiency and equipment of the fire department of said municipality, such company shall be notified that at the time that foreign insurance companies are required to report to the State Tax Commission the premiums charged or received in Mississippi, then such company, whether foreign or domestic, shall truly report to the State Tax Commission at the same time as reports on the general tax on premiums are made as provided in Section 27-15-107, sending a duplicate of such report to such board of trustees, the amount of premiums charged by said company for fire and lightning insurance on property situated in such city within the period covered by the report made to the State Tax Commission for purposes of taxation of such state, less premiums returned to policyholder and cancellations on account of policies not taken. It is the legislative intent that said report of premiums shall include and cover all premiums charged or received within said period, less returned premiums and cancellations as aforesaid in connection with the insurance of property situated in such city, which are reported for the purposes of taxation by said state. Such report for the purposes of this section shall not include premiums contracted for prior to such time as the commissioner shall have notified the company that such city is within the terms and purposes of this article. Said premiums so required to be reported shall be and they are hereby taxed to the extent of one-half of one percent ($\frac{1}{2}$ of 1%) of said premiums, after deducting said returned premiums and cancellations, which tax shall be paid to the State Tax Commission by the insurance company at the same time that the general tax on premiums is paid to the State Tax Commission as provided in Section 27-15-107. The insurance company paying the same shall notify the State Tax Commission of the name of the city responsible for the maintenance of such fire department and system, and, at the same time, shall give such city duplicate notice of the amount paid to the State Tax Commission. The State Tax Commission is hereby authorized and empowered to collect such taxes in the same manner and by the same means that he is required and empowered to collect other taxes imposed upon insurance premiums.

§ 21-29-231. On what premiums tax may be imposed; tax not to be used as an element of premium.

Said tax on insurance premiums shall not be imposed or collected upon any premiums except upon those under insurance policies upon property situated in the municipality coming under the provisions of this article. The tax paid hereunder for the maintenance of such fire department system in any municipality coming under the provisions of this article, shall not be used as an element of any premium or be considered in the making of rates except in proper causes under the provisions of the rating bureau law in connection with property situated in the municipality to which said tax is paid.

§ 21-29-233. Duty of state tax commission.

It shall be the duty of the State Tax Commission to collect and to enforce the collection of said tax of one-half of one percent ($\frac{1}{2}$ of 1%) upon all premiums paid to insurance companies doing business in said municipality, which said insurance companies have written insurance on rates, said rates having been compiled by taking into consideration the fire department and equipment of said municipality. Upon the State Tax Commission having collected said tax, it shall promptly pay the same to the board of trustees for the benefit of said fund for disability and relief of firemen and policemen.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Section 21-29-237 providing that firemen and policemen employed after adoption of municipal resolution in accordance with § 21-29-17(c) shall not become members of disability and relief fund for firemen and policemen is not limited by "operating under provisions of this article" in § 21-29-17(c) so as to preclude municipality which had not previously had plan operating under §§ 21-29-1 et seq. from placing firemen and policemen employed after specified date in such a plan in lieu of previously existing plan under §§ 21-29-201 et seq.; nor does placement of firemen and policemen employed after specified date in different plan with lower benefits than those provided to previously employ firemen and policemen violate equal protection clause of Fourteenth Amendment to U.S. Constitution. Jackson Firefighters Ass'n Local 87 v. City of Jackson, 736 F.2d 209 (5th Cir. 1984).

§ 21-29-239. Service records to be kept.

The Public Employees' Retirement System shall keep a record of service of the members of the fire department and police department, which record shall show the history of employment of each member of said fire department and police department. Said record shall be written up fully at the time such city comes within the terms of this article, and it shall thereafter be kept entered up fully and correctly. All records currently maintained by the municipality's affected membership shall be forwarded to the Public Employees' Retirement System not later than July 1, 1987. Any additional changes shall be forwarded to the Public Employees' Retirement System as made.

If any member of the fire department and/or police department shall become or be found to be totally disabled for the discharge of his duties as a member of said fire department and/or police department, mentally or physically, by reason of sickness or injury caused or sustained by reason of service or discharge of his duty in said department, after such city shall have come within the terms of this article, said board of disability and relief shall order the payment and there shall be paid from said fund to said fireman and/or policeman each month thereafter an amount equal to fifty percent (50%) of said fireman's and/or policeman's monthly salary. Such amount shall be paid throughout such total disability for service.

If any member of the fire department and/or police department shall become or be found to be permanently and totally disabled for the discharge of his duties as a member of said fire department and/or police department, mentally or physically, by reason of sickness or injury, and said member shall have had not less than five (5) years' service with such department, there shall be paid to said fireman and/or policeman from said fund, for each year's active service, not to exceed a period of twenty (20) years, one-fortieth ($\frac{1}{40}$) of the monthly salary of such fireman and/or policeman at the time such disability is incurred. Such amount shall be paid throughout such permanent and total disability.

In passing upon the question of disability, said board shall refer the matter to its medical board, or such other physician or physicians as it may deem proper, and said board may require like examinations from time to time throughout the period of disability claimed by said fireman and/or policeman.

If said city pays a salary to its fireman and/or policeman while disabled in an amount equal to the disability relief allowed hereunder, said fireman and/or policeman shall not be entitled to any disability relief hereunder.

If any member of said fire and/or police department who has been in paid fire and/or police department service for as long as twenty (20) years before making application hereinafter mentioned, the last ten (10) years of which shall have been continuous in the city in which the application is made, shall make written application for retirement and relief, the board of disability and relief shall without medical examinations of disability, retire him from active service in said fire and/or police department. Upon such retirement from active service said disability and relief board shall order the payment to such retired member monthly from said fund a sum equal to fifty percent (50%) of the average monthly base salary and longevity pay received as salary by such member in the six-month period next before the filing of such application in said fire and/or police department. Such payments shall thereafter be made to said retired member for life, such payments to be known as "retired relief."

Any member of the fire and/or police department who has been in paid fire and/or police department service for longer than twenty (20) years shall be entitled to and shall receive additional retired relief payment for life in a sum equal to one and seven-tenths percent (1.7%) of the same monthly base salary and longevity pay received by such member in the six-month period next preceding the filing of said application for each full year of service in excess of twenty (20) years' service. However, such additional retired relief payment shall be paid only for each year served after July 1, 1966. No retired relief payment to any member shall exceed sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66- $\frac{2}{3}$ %) of the average monthly base salary and longevity pay received by a member for the six-month period next preceding the filing of said application, except such other additional benefits as may be hereinafter provided.

The board of disability and relief shall, when a member of the fire and/or police department completes thirty-five (35) years of paid employment, or attains the age of sixty (60), whichever occurs first, retire him from active service in said fire and/or police department and order the payment of such funds as the member is entitled to under this article.

Periods of time in which a member may have been inactive on account of physical or mental disability shall not be excluded in computing the twenty-year period and the ten-year period hereinabove mentioned. Neither shall there be excluded therefrom periods of time within which a member may have been absent from his employment while serving in the Armed Forces of the United States, or any civil employee engaged by the Armed Forces of the United States while serving outside the continental United States, in time of war during World War I, World War II, the Korean Conflict, Cuban Crisis, Berlin Crisis, Vietnam Conflict, or when involuntarily called on active duty, provided that the maximum period for such creditable service shall be four (4) years unless positive proof can be furnished by such person that he was retained in the Armed Forces by cause beyond his control, and without opportunity of discharge, and provided that the discharge or release of such member from the Armed Forces was under conditions other than dishonorable. Any member who has been retired or is voluntarily retired hereunder, or who has received relief or disability benefits hereunder, shall be required to report such duties as then may be required of them.

By reading Section 21-29-245 together with Section 21-29-313, it appears member would be eligible to retire upon completing 20 years of service, as calculated by schedule, which depending on actual number of months worked in each fiscal year, may allow member to retire several months prior to working twenty full years. Scott, June 2, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0344.

§ 21-29-247. Cost-of-living increases.

(1) From and after January 1, 1971, all persons receiving retirement benefits under Section 21-29-245, or becoming eligible for retirement benefits under Section 21-29-245, and retiring or to be retired from service in a municipality having an assessed valuation of at least Three Hundred Forty Million Dollars $340,000,000.00, according to the 1967 compiled assessment rolls, shall receive in addition to all benefits set forth in Section 21-29-245 the following percentage increases as may be determined by the cost-of-living index as set by the United States government under the following formula:

In any calendar year following 1970 in which the cost-of-living index as set by the United States government for January exceeds the cost-of-living index as set by the United States government for the previous January, the pension payments beginning with March of the current year shall be increased in an amount equal to the percentage increase determined by the increase in the cost-of-living index as set by the United States government.

The accumulated percentage increases provided under this subsection (1) that may be developed by increases in the cost-of-living index as set by the United States government shall not exceed twelve percent (12%).

(2) From and after January 1, 2002, all persons receiving retirement benefits or disability retirement benefits under Section 21-29-241 or 21-29-245 or becoming eligible for retirement benefits or disability retirement benefits under Section 21-29-241 or 21-29-245 and retiring or to be retired from service in a municipality having an assessed valuation of at least Three Hundred Forty Million Dollars ($340,000,000.00), according to the 1967 compiled assessment rolls, who are receiving a cost-of-living increase provided under subsection (1) of this section or Chapter 869, Local and Private Laws of 1992, as the case may be, that is equal to an accumulated percentage increase of twelve percent (12%) of the amount of the retirement benefits, shall receive the following cost-of-living increases: In addition to all benefits provided under Section 21-29-241 or 21-29-245, and the cost-of-living increases provided under subsection (1) of this section or Chapter 869, Local and Private Laws of 1992, as the case may be, those persons shall receive the following percentage increases as may be determined by the cost-of-living index as set by the United States government under the following formula:

In any calendar year in which a person is eligible for cost-of-living increases under this subsection (2) in which the cost-of-living index as set by the United States government for January exceeds the cost-of-living index as set by the United States government for the previous January, the pension payments beginning with March of the current year shall be increased in an amount equal to the percentage increase determined by the increase in the cost-of-living index as set by the United States government.

The accumulated percentage increases provided under this subsection (2) that may be developed by increases in the cost-of-living index as set by the United States government shall not exceed seven and one-half percent (7-½%).

(3) Any person who is receiving minimum monthly benefits under Chapter 898, Local and Private Laws of 1987, shall receive in addition to all benefits provided under Chapter 898, Local and Private Laws of 1987, the following percentage increases as may be determined by the cost-of-living index as set by the United States government under the following formula:

In any calendar year following 2001 in which the cost-of-living index as set by the United States government for January exceeds the cost-of-living index as set by the United States government for the previous January, the pension payments beginning with March of the current year shall be increased in an amount equal to the percentage increase determined by the increase in the cost-of-living index as set by the United States government.

The accumulated percentage increases provided under this subsection (3) that may be developed by increases in the cost-of-living index as set by the United States government shall not exceed seven and one-half percent (7-½%).

(4) The cost-of-living increases authorized under subsections (2) and (3) of this section shall not be provided unless the disability and relief fund for firemen and policemen of any municipality to which this section applies:

(a) Is actuarially sound, as shown by the most recent actuarial study required by Section 21-29-221; and

(b) Will remain actuarially sound if the cost-of-living increases are provided, as shown by a certified statement from the actuarial firm that prepared the most recent actuarial study.

(5) The Board of Trustees of the Public Employees' Retirement System shall provide the cost-of-living increases authorized under subsections (2) and (3) of this section to the persons authorized and entitled to receive them, after all of the following conditions have been met:

(a) The governing authorities of any municipality to which this section applies must adopt a resolution to provide for the cost-of-living increases, and transmit the resolution to the board of trustees;

(b) The advisory board on the disability and relief fund provided for in Section 21-29-207 must adopt a resolution supporting the providing of the cost-of-living increases, and transmit the resolution to the board of trustees; and

(c) The board of trustees must receive the resolutions from the governing authorities and the advisory board, and receive the most recent actuarial study of the disability and relief fund and the certified statement from the actuarial firm that the disability and relief fund will remain actuarially sound if the cost-of-living increases are provided.

§ 21-29-251. Alternative program; retirement benefits.

Any municipality which has a population in excess of twenty thousand according to the 1970 federal decennial census and which lies within any Class 1 county touching the Mississippi River, located wholly within the Yazoo-Mississippi Delta Levee District and which has an approximate land area of five hundred seventy square miles, is hereby authorized and empowered, in its discretion, to adopt the following retirement program for policemen and firemen as an alternative to the program established in Sections 21-29-245 through 21-29-249, and which shall otherwise conform with the provisions of this article.

Any member of said fire and/or police department who has been in, and has received compensation for, fire and/or police department service for twenty years before the filing of an application as hereinafter provided, with the preceding ten years of service being continuous in the city to which application is made, may file a written application for retirement relief. Thereupon, said board of disability and relief shall retire such member from active service without a medical examination of disability and shall order the monthly payment to him from said fund of an amount equal to fifty percent of the average monthly base salary and longevity pay received as salary by him in the six-month period preceding the filing of such application. Thereafter, such payment, to be known as "retirement relief," shall be made to such retired member for the remainder of his life.

Any member of said fire and/or police department who has been in, and has received compensation for, fire and/or police department service for more than twenty years shall be entitled to, and shall receive, additional retirement relief for the remainder of his life of an amount equal to one and seven-tenths percent of the same average monthly base salary and longevity pay received by such member as salary in the six-month period preceding the filing of such application for each full year of service in excess of twenty years. However, such retired member shall receive the additional retirement relief provided in this paragraph only for each full year of service in excess of twenty years completed after July 1, 1966. No such retired member shall receive such additional retirement relief in excess of sixty-six and two-thirds percent of the same average monthly base salary and longevity pay received as salary by him in the six-month period preceding the filing of such application, excluding such other benefits as may be hereinafter provided.

Any member of said fire and/or police department who (1) has been in, and has received compensation for, fire and/or police department service for a period equal to or greater than five years and less than twenty years, and (2) has been forced to retirement on account of age may file a written application for pro rata retirement relief. Thereupon, said disability and relief board shall retire such member from active service without a medical examination for disability and shall order the monthly payment to him from said fund of an amount equal to two and one-half percent of the average monthly base salary and longevity pay received as salary by him in the six-month period preceding the filing of such application for each full year of active service.

Periods of time in which a member may have been inactive on account of physical or mental disability shall not be excluded in computing the hereinbefore-mentioned time periods, except that such periods of inactivity shall be excluded in computing the aforementioned five-year pro rata eligibility period. Periods of time in which a member may have been absent from such employment on account of active service in the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Marine Corps or the United States Coast Guard between September 16, 1940, and July 25, 1947, or while as a civil employee engaged by the Army or Navy while serving outside the continental United States shall not be excluded in computing the hereinbefore-mentioned time period except that such periods of inactivity shall be excluded in computing the aforementioned five-year pro rata eligibility period. The discharge or release of such member from such armed forces shall have been under conditions other than dishonorable. Any member who has been retired or is voluntarily retired under this section, or who has received relief or disability benefits under this section, shall be required to report such duties as required by said disability and relief board.

The disability and relief board shall, when a member of the fire and/or police department completes thirty-five years of paid employment or attains the age of sixty, whichever occurs first, retire him from active service and order the payment of such funds as the member is entitled to under the provisions of this section. However, the continued employment of any member who has not completed twenty years of service may be authorized by the governing authority of the municipality on a year-to-year basis until the employee completes twenty years of active service or reaches the age of seventy, whichever occurs first.

Any person receiving retirement relief under the provisions of this section shall no longer be entitled to said relief upon attachment with a paid fire department or police department in another city having a paid retirement relief program for policemen or firemen.

The entitlement, under the particular retirement program in operation prior to the adoption of the alternative retirement program established in this section, of a policeman or fireman thereunder to any benefits or rights thereof shall not be diminished on account of the transition by such municipalities to the alternative retirement program established by this section.

§ 21-29-255. Death benefits.

[For any municipality that has not elected to authorize the continuation or reinstatement of spouse retirement benefits under the provisions of Section 21-29-329, this section shall read as follows:]

(1) If any member of the fire or police department dies in active service, or dies in inactive service on account of disability approved for disability relief under Section 21-29-241, as a result of injury received while in the discharge of duty in the service of the fire department or police department, or dies as a result of sickness or disease, due to the discharge of duty while in service as a member of the fire or police department, or if the member dies while entitled to relief after retirement under Section 21-29-245, the amount of disability relief or retirement relief being paid, or which should have been properly paid, shall continue to be paid from the fund to the spouse of the deceased member for the use of the spouse and the child, or children of the deceased member, so long as the spouse remains unmarried. If, after the marriage of the spouse, there remains a child or children of the deceased member, the payments shall continue to be made to a parent or lawful custodian of the child or children without the necessity of appointment as guardian for the benefit of the child or children. After the death or marriage of the spouse, all payments to the spouse shall cease, and after the death of any child or children of the deceased, all payments to the child or children shall cease. If the deceased member is not survived by a spouse or child or children, but is survived by a father or a mother dependent upon him or her, the payments shall continue to be made to the dependent father or mother, or both, so long as each lives. If there is no dependent father or mother surviving the deceased member, the payments shall continue to be made to the unmarried dependent sister or sisters of the deceased member, so long as the beneficiary or beneficiaries remain unmarried. Upon the death or marriage of any such sister, all payments shall cease to her. Payments to dependents under this section are for services rendered to the members of the fire and/or police department, and the amount of payments is within the discretion of the board of disability and relief, but in no event shall the amount payable under this section be in excess of the amount that would have been payable as disability and relief to a member of the department.

If any member of the fire or police department dies while a member of the fire department or police department, and the member has not less than five (5) years' service with the department, there shall be paid from the firemen's and policemen's disability and relief fund the following benefits:

(a) For each year's active service, not to exceed a period of twenty (20) years, one-fortieth ($\frac{1}{40}$) of the average monthly salary or compensation received by the member in the six-month period next preceding his or her death; and

(b) For each full year of active service in excess of twenty (20) years' service, an additional payment in a sum equal to one and seven-tenths percent ($1\frac{7}{10}\%$) of the same average monthly base salary and longevity pay received by the member in the six-month period next preceding his or her death (provided that no such payment shall exceed sixty-six and two-thirds percent ($66\frac{2}{3}\%$) of the average monthly base salary and longevity pay received by a member for the six-month period next preceding his or her death) to the spouse of the deceased member for the use of the spouse and the child or children of the deceased member, so long as the spouse remains unmarried and if, after the marriage of the spouse, there remains a child or children of the deceased member, the payments shall continue to be made to a parent or lawful custodian of the child or children without the necessity of appointment as guardian for the benefit of the child or children, and after the death or marriage of the spouse, all payments to the spouse shall cease, and after the death of any child or children of the deceased member, all payments to the child or children shall cease. If the deceased member is not survived by a spouse or child or children, but is survived by a father, mother or an unmarried sister dependent upon him or her, the payments shall continue to be made to the dependent father or mother or both, so long as each lives, or if there is no dependent father or mother surviving the deceased member, the payments shall continue to be made to the dependent sister or sisters of the deceased member, or dependent incurable children, so long as the beneficiary or beneficiaries remain unmarried. Upon the death or marriage of any such sisters, all payments shall cease to her.

(2) For purposes of this section:

(a) "Dependent" means wholly dependent.

(b) "Child" or "children" means:

(i) Children of the deceased member under the age of eighteen (18);

(ii) Children of the deceased member eighteen (18) years of age or older who have not yet reached their twenty-third birthday and are pursuing a full-time education; or

(iii) Children of the deceased member who, though eighteen (18) years of age or older, are wholly dependent upon the deceased member and incapable of self-support by reason of mental or physical disability.

[For any municipality that has elected to authorize the continuation or reinstatement of spouse retirement benefits under the provisions of Section 21-29-329, this section shall read as follows:]

(1) If any member of the fire or police department dies in active service, or dies in inactive service on account of disability approved for disability relief under Section 21-29-241, as a result of injury received while in the discharge of duty in the service of the fire department or police department, or dies as a result of sickness or disease, due to the discharge of duty while in service as a member of the fire or police department, or if the member dies while entitled to relief after retirement under Section 21-29-245, the amount of disability relief or retirement relief being paid, or which should have been properly paid, shall continue to be paid from the fund to the spouse of the deceased member for life for the use of the spouse and the child or children of the deceased member. If the deceased member is not survived by a spouse, but there remains a child or children of the deceased member, the payments shall continue to be made to a parent or lawful custodian of the child or children without the necessity of appointment as guardian for the benefit of the child or children. After the death of the spouse, all payments to the spouse shall cease, and after the death of any child or children of the deceased member, all payments to the child or children shall cease. If the deceased member is not survived by a spouse or child or children, but is survived by a father or a mother dependent upon him or her, the payments shall continue to be made to the dependent father or mother, or both, so long as each lives, or if there is no dependent father or mother surviving the deceased member, the payments shall continue to be made to the unmarried dependent sister or sisters of the deceased member, so long as the beneficiary or beneficiaries remain unmarried. Upon the death or marriage of any such sister, all payments shall cease to her. Payments to dependents under this section are for services rendered to the members of the fire and/or police department, and the amount of payments is within the discretion of the board of disability and relief, but in no event shall the amount payable under this section be in excess of the amount that would have been payable as disability and relief to a member of the department.

If any member of the fire or police department dies while a member of the fire department or police department, and the member has had not less than five (5) years' service with the department, there shall be paid from the firemen's and policemen's disability and relief fund the following benefits:

(a) For each year's active service, not to exceed a period of twenty (20) years, one-fortieth ($\frac{1}{40}$) of the average monthly salary or compensation received by the member in the six-month period next preceding his or her death; and

(b) For each full year of active service in excess of twenty (20) years service, an additional payment in a sum equal to one and seven-tenths percent ($1\frac{7}{10}\%$) of the same average monthly base salary and longevity pay received by the member in the six-month period next preceding his or her death (provided that no such payment shall exceed sixty-six and two-thirds percent ($66\frac{2}{3}\%$) of the average monthly base salary and longevity pay received by a member for the six-month period next preceding his or her death) to the spouse of the deceased member for the use of the spouse and the child or children of the deceased member, so long as the spouse lives and if, after the death of the spouse, there remains a child or children of the deceased member, the payments shall continue to be made to a parent or lawful custodian of the child or children without the necessity of appointment as guardian for the benefit of the child or children. After the death of the spouse, all payments to the spouse shall cease, and after the death of any child or children of the deceased member, all payments to the child or children shall cease. If the deceased member is not survived by spouse or child or children, but is survived by a father, mother or an unmarried sister dependent upon him or her, the payments shall continue to be made to the dependent father or mother or both, so long as each lives, or if there is no dependent father or mother surviving the deceased member, the payments shall continue to be made to the dependent sister or sisters of the deceased, or dependent incurable children, so long as the beneficiary or beneficiaries remains unmarried. Upon the death or marriage of any such sisters, all payments shall cease to her.

(2) For the purposes of this section:

(a) "Dependent" means wholly dependent.

(b) "Child" or "children" means:

(i) Children of the deceased member under the age of eighteen (18);

(ii) Children of the deceased member eighteen (18) years of age or older who have not yet reached their twenty-third birthday and are pursuing a full-time education; or

(iii) Children of the deceased member who, though eighteen (18) years of age or older, are wholly dependent upon the deceased and incapable of self-support by reason of mental or physical disability.

§ 21-29-301. Creditable service provided under certain circumstances for membership service interrupted by qualified military service.

(1) Any member of the Municipal Retirement System whose membership service is interrupted as a result of qualified military service within the meaning of Section 414(u)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code, and who has received the maximum service credit available under Article 1, 3 or 5 of this chapter, shall receive creditable service for the period of qualified military service that does not qualify as creditable service under Article 1, 3 or 5 of this chapter upon reentering membership service in an amount not to exceed five (5) years if:

(a) The member pays the contributions he would have made to the retirement system if he had remained in membership service for the period of qualified military service based upon his salary at the time his membership service was interrupted;

(b) The member returns to membership service within ninety (90) days of the end of his qualified military service; and

(c) The employer at the time the member's service was interrupted and to which employment the member returns pays the contribution it would have made into the retirement system for such period based on the member's salary at the time the service was interrupted.

(2) The payments required to be made in subsection (1)(a) of this section may be made over a period beginning with the date of return to membership service and not exceeding three (3) times the member's qualified military service; however, in no event shall such period exceed five (5) years.

(3) The member shall furnish proof satisfactory to the board of trustees of certification of military service showing dates of entrance into qualified service and the date of discharge as well as proof that the member has returned to active employment within the time specified.

Joint Legislative Committee Note — Pursuant to Section 1-1-109, the Joint Legislative Committee on Compilation, Revision and Publication of Legislation corrected an error in (1)(c), as amended by Laws, 2001, ch. 438, § 9. The words "The employee at the time" were changed to "The employer at the time." The Joint Committee ratified the correction at its April 26, 2001 meeting.

Federal Aspects — Qualified military service within the meaning of Section 414(u)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code, see 26 USCS § 414(u)(5).

§ 21-29-305. Employers to pick up member contributions to employees' retirement and disability systems.

Each employer shall pick up the member contributions required by Sections 21-29-17, 21-29-117 and 21-29-219, Mississippi Code of 1972, for all compensation earned after January 1, 1989, and the contributions so picked up shall be treated as employer contributions in determining tax treatment under the United States Internal Revenue Code and the Mississippi Income Tax Code; however, each employer shall continue to withhold federal and state income taxes based upon such contributions until the Internal Revenue Service or the federal courts rule that, pursuant to Section 414(h) of the United States Internal Revenue Code, these contributions shall not be included as gross income of the member until such time as they are distributed or made available. The employer may pick up these contributions by a reduction in the cash salary of the member, or by an offset against a future salary increase, or by a combination of a reduction in salary and offset against a future salary increase. If member contributions are picked up they shall be treated for all purposes of the General Municipal Employees' Retirement System and Firemen's and Policemen's Disability Relief Funds under Articles 1, 3 and 5 of this chapter in the same manner and to the same extent as member contributions made prior to the date picked up.

§ 21-29-307. Benefits exempt from taxes, attachment or other process, and unassignable; deductions from retirement allowances of employer or system sponsored group life or health insurance.

(1) The right of a person to an annuity, a retirement allowance, or benefit, or to the return of contributions, or to any optional benefit or any other right accrued or accruing to any person under the provisions of Articles 1, 3 or 5 of this chapter; the system; and the monies in the system created by such articles, are hereby exempt from any state, county or municipal ad valorem taxes, income taxes, premium taxes, privilege taxes, property taxes, sales and use taxes, or other taxes not so named, notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, and exempt from levy and sale, garnishment, attachment or any other process whatsoever, and shall be unassignable except as specifically otherwise provided in Article 1, 3 or 5 of this chapter effective January 1, 1988, and except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) Any retired member or beneficiary receiving a retirement allowance or benefit under Article 1, 3 or 5 of this chapter may authorize the Public Employees' Retirement System to make deductions from the retirement allowance or benefit for the payment of employer or system sponsored group life or health insurance. The deductions authorized under this subsection shall be subject to rules and regulations adopted by the Board of Trustees of the Public Employees' Retirement System.

Editor's Note — Laws of 1990, ch. 523, § 8, effective from and after January 1, 1990, provides as follows:

"SECTION 8. Nothing in this act shall affect or defeat any claim, assessment, appeal, suit, right or cause of action for taxes due or accrued under the income tax laws before the date on which this act becomes effective, whether such claims, assessments, appeals, suits or actions have been begun before the date on which this act becomes effective or are begun thereafter; and the provisions of the income tax laws are expressly continued in full force, effect and operation for the purpose of the assessment, collection and enrollment of liens for any taxes due or accrued and the execution of any warrant under such laws before the date on which this act becomes effective, and for the imposition of any penalties, forfeitures or claims for failure to comply with such laws."

Laws, 1993, ch. 523, § 6, effective from and after January 1, 1994, provides as follows:

"SECTION 6. Nothing in this act shall affect or defeat any claim, assessment, appeal, suit, right or cause of action for taxes due or accrued under the income tax laws before the date on which this act becomes effective, whether such claims, assessments, appeals, suits or actions have been begun before the date on which this act becomes effective or are begun thereafter; and the provisions of the income tax laws are expressly continued in full force, effect and operation for the purpose of the assessment, collection and enrollment of liens for any taxes due or accrued and the execution of any warrant under such laws before the date on which this act becomes effective, and for the imposition of any penalties, forfeitures or claims for failure to comply with such laws."

By reading Section 21-29-245 together with Section 21-29-313, it appears member would be eligible to retire upon completing 20 years of service, as calculated by schedule, which depending on actual number of months worked in each fiscal year, may allow member to retire several months prior to working twenty full years. Scott, June 2, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0344.

§ 21-29-315. Repayment of refund after reemployment following retirement for purpose of reestablishing contributing membership.

Any active member who previously received a refund under either Article 1, 3 or 5 and who was reemployed and again became a contributing member of the applicable retirement system may repay all amounts previously received as a refund, together with regular interest at the rate as determined by the board, covering the period from the date of refund to the date of repayment. Upon such repayment, the active member shall again receive credit for the entire period of creditable service that was forfeited upon the receipt of the refund.

§ 21-29-316. Rollover distribution of accumulated contributions to eligible retirement plan or individual retirement account.

(1) Pursuant to the Unemployment Compensation Amendments of 1992 (Public Law 102-318 (UCA)), a member or the spouse of a member who is an eligible beneficiary entitled to a refund under Article 1, 3 or 5 of this chapter may elect on a form prescribed by the board under rules and regulations established by the board, to have an eligible rollover distribution of accumulated contributions payable under this section paid directly to an eligible retirement plan, as defined under applicable federal law, or an individual retirement account. If the member or the spouse of a member who is an eligible beneficiary makes such election and specifies the eligible retirement plan or individual retirement account to which such distribution is to be paid, the distribution will be made in the form of a direct trustee-to-trustee transfer to the specified eligible retirement plan. Flexible rollovers under this subsection shall not be considered assignments under Section 21-29-307.

(2) From and after July 1, 2001, subject to the rules adopted by the board of trustees, any plan under this chapter shall accept an eligible rollover distribution or a direct transfer of funds from another eligible retirement plan or an individual retirement account in payment of all or a portion of the cost to repay a refund as permitted by the plan. The plans may only accept rollover payments in an amount equal to or less than the balance due for reinstatement of service credit. The rules adopted by the board of trustees shall condition the acceptance of a rollover or transfer from another eligible retirement plan on the receipt of information necessary to enable the system to determine the eligibility of any transferred funds for tax-free rollover treatment or other treatment under federal income tax law.

§ 21-29-317. Maximum annual retirement allowance.

(1)(a) Notwithstanding any provisions of Articles 1, 3 and 5 of this chapter to the contrary, the maximum annual retirement allowance attributable to the employer contributions payable by the system to a member under Article 1, 3 or 5 of this chapter shall be subject to the limitations set forth in Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code and any regulations issued thereunder as applicable to governmental plans as the term is defined under Section 414(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) The Board of Trustees of the Public Employees' Retirement System is authorized to provide by rule or regulation for the payment of benefits as provided under Articles 1, 3 and 5 of this chapter to members or beneficiaries of a municipal employees retirement fund or disability and relief fund at a time and under circumstances not otherwise provided for in this chapter to the extent that the payment is required to maintain the municipal employees retirement fund or disability and relief fund as a qualified retirement plan for purposes of federal income tax laws.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this plan, all distributions from this plan shall conform to the regulations issued under Section 401(a)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code, applicable to governmental plans, as defined in Section 414(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, including the incidental death benefit provisions of Section 401(a)(9)(G) of the Internal Revenue Code. Further, such regulations shall override any plan provision that is inconsistent with Section 401(a)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) The actuarial assumptions used to convert a retirement allowance from the normal form of payment to an optional form of payment shall be an appendix to Article 7 of this chapter and subject to approval by the board of directors based upon certification by the actuary.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this plan, the maximum compensation that can be considered for all plan purposes shall not be greater than that allowed under Section 401(a)(17) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(5) In the event of the termination of one or more of the retirement plans established pursuant to Article 1, 3 or 5 of this chapter, all members of the plan or system as of the date of termination of the system shall be deemed to have a vested right to benefits to the extent and in the same manner that rights would be vested under the laws existing as of the date of termination of the system; however, any member, who because of a termination of the system has not fulfilled the requirements for length of service, shall be entitled to compensation as of the date that such member would otherwise be eligible, with such compensation to be computed on the basis of time actually a member of the service and compensation actually earned during the time a member, in the manner now provided by law.

§ 21-29-321. Determination of average monthly base salary and longevity pay.

For purposes of determining the “average monthly base salary and longevity pay” as provided in Sections 21-29-101 et seq., the wages to be considered shall be the average base salary and longevity pay which was received in consecutive pay periods immediately preceding retirement. This amount shall be the average of six (6) pay periods if the employee was paid monthly, or the equivalent if the pay periods are bi-weekly, semi-monthly or weekly. In addition, wages may include holiday pay and regularly scheduled overtime pay earned for services performed during the last six (6) months of employment, as certified by the employer.

§ 21-29-323. Determination of amount of death benefits to be paid to or for benefit of dependent children.

Monthly benefits payable to a spouse in the event of the death of a member before retirement or a retiree after retirement shall be divided and paid to or for the benefit of any dependent children of the deceased member or retiree in an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of the annual benefit payable to one (1) dependent child, twenty percent (20%) for two (2) dependent children, and thirty percent (30%) to three (3) or more dependent children. If there are more than three (3) dependent children, upon a child ceasing to be a dependent, his annuity shall terminate and there shall be a redetermination of the amounts payable to any remaining dependent children. Such benefits shall be paid to a surviving parent or lawful custodian of such children for the use and benefit of the children without the necessity of appointment of guardian. The remaining amount shall be paid to the spouse as otherwise provided.

§ 21-29-327. Board of Trustees of Public Employees' Retirement System authorized to assess interest and bring suit on delinquent payments from municipalities whose retirement funds it administers.

Any municipality that has established a retirement fund or disability and relief fund under Articles 1, 3 and 5 of this chapter shall be assessed interest on delinquent payments as determined by the Board of Trustees of the Public Employees' Retirement System in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the board of trustees. Any delinquent payments, assessed interest and any other amount certified by the board of trustees as owed by the municipality may be recovered by action in a court of competent jurisdiction against the municipality or may, upon due certification of delinquency and at the request of the board of trustees, be deducted from any other monies payable to the municipality by any department or agency of the state.

§ 21-29-329. Municipalities may adopt resolutions allowing spouses receiving retirement benefits to continue to receive spouse benefits for life, even after remarriage.

(1) Any municipality that has established a retirement fund or disability and relief fund under the provisions of Article 1, 3 or 5 of this chapter, shall be authorized to adopt a resolution to allow those spouses who are receiving retirement benefits under the provisions of those articles, to continue to receive the spouse retirement benefits for life even if the spouse remarries. The resolution also may provide that surviving spouses of deceased members who received spouse retirement benefits that were terminated upon remarriage may again receive the spouse retirement benefits from and after making application with the Board of Trustees of the Public Employees' Retirement System to reinstate the benefits. Any reinstatement of spouse retirement benefits shall be prospective only from and after the first of the month following the date of application for reinstatement.

(2) The continuation or reinstatement of spouse retirement benefits authorized under this section shall not be continued or reinstated unless all of the following requirements are met:

(a) The municipal retirement fund or disability and relief fund is actuarially sound, as shown by the most recent actuarial study required by Section 21-29-27, 21-29-119 or 21-29-221;

(b) The municipal retirement fund or disability and relief fund will remain actuarially sound if the spouse retirement benefits are continued or reinstated, as shown by a certified statement from the actuarial firm that prepared the most recent actuarial study;

(c) The governing authorities of the municipality adopt a resolution requesting the continuation or reinstatement of the spouse retirement benefits as authorized in this section and transmit the resolution to the Board of Trustees of the Public Employees' Retirement System; and

(d) If applicable, the surviving spouse makes an application to the Board of Trustees of the Public Employees' Retirement System to reinstate the spouse retirement benefits.

§ 21-31-1. Adoption of civil service system mandated in certain municipalities.

(1) A civil service commission is created in every municipality described in subsection (2) which has a full paid fire and police department.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall apply to:

(a) Any municipality, operating under a commission form of government, and having a population of not less than fourteen thousand (14,000), according to the federal census of 1940;

(b) Any municipality, under whatever form of government, having a population of not less than twenty-four thousand (24,000), according to the federal census of 1940, and situated in counties having a national military park;

(c) Any municipality, operating under the commission form of government, and having a population of not less than ten thousand five hundred (10,500) nor more than eleven thousand (11,000), according to the federal census of 1950;

(d) Any municipality, having an aldermanic commission or city manager form of government, and having a population of not less than three thousand eight hundred eighty-one (3,881) at the 1960 federal census, and situated on the Mississippi Gulf Coast;

(e) Any municipality with its corporate limits being bounded on one (1) side by the Mississippi River and being located in a county having an assessed valuation in excess of Forty Million Dollars ($40,000,000.00) but less than Fifty Million Dollars ($50,000,000.00) and having a total population in excess of thirty-seven thousand five hundred (37,500), according to the latest federal census;

(f) Any municipality, operating under special charter, and in which there is located a state-supported college for women;

(g) Any municipality having a population of more than ten thousand (10,000) according to the federal census of 1970, which is located within a Class 1 county in which U.S. Highway 51 and U.S. Highway 98 intersect and bounded on the south by the State of Louisiana; and

(h) Any municipality, bordering on the Escatawpa River, having an aldermanic commission form of government and having a population of not less than seventeen thousand eight hundred thirty-seven (17,837) according to the 1990 federal census.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Civil Service system established by §§ 21-31-1 to 21-31-27 is mandatory only for fire and police departments of municipipalities designated in § 21-31-1; civil service system established by §§ 21-31-51 to 21-31-75 is mandatory as to all administrative and other employees employed on monthly basis by municipalities designated in § 21-31-51. City of Laurel v. Samuels, 469 So. 2d 530 (Miss. 1985).

Ordinance requiring all municipal employees qualified under the rules and regulations of the civil service commission to maintain their domicile and principal place of business within the corporate limits of the city during the period of their employment did not infringe their constitutional right to intrastate travel, and the city was not required to justify the ordinance under the compelling interest standard which must be met upon interference with a right to travel interstate; dismissal of the action affirmed. Wright v. City of Jackson, 506 F.2d 900 (5th Cir. 1975).

Where a captain of a fire department brought suit against the city to enjoin the city officials from transferring him to another fire station, the fire captain's remedy was under the Civil Service Act which provides a plain, speedy, adequate and complete remedy by appeal and the fire captain was not entitled to relief in equity. Scott v. Lowe, 223 Miss. 312, 78 So. 2d 452 (1955).

The Civil Service Act created new rights, which were unknown to the common law and it prescribed an exclusive remedy to persons asserting a civil service status. Scott v. Lowe, 223 Miss. 312, 78 So. 2d 452 (1955).

The civil service commission created hereby is an agency of the municipality it serves for enforcing the civil service requirements of the statute. McLeod v. Civil Serv. Comm'n, 198 Miss. 721, 21 So. 2d 916 (1945), overruled on other grounds, Meridan v. Davidson, 211 Miss. 683, 53 So. 2d 48 (1951).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

All full paid employees of the fire and/or police departments of each municipality are afforded civil service coverage, and "all full paid employees" means that coverage is only extended to employees who are paid a weekly, monthly, or yearly salary and does not include persons working for the municipality who are paid by the hour. Brown, June 26, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0456.

Since civil service commission was established by the Legislature, only act by that body can authorize dissolution of commission, even if provisions of paragraph (2)(e) no longer accurately describe city. Brown, Oct. 21, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0754.

As for Miss. Code Sections 21-31-1 et seq., there are no provisions that grant civil service commission autonomous power to appoint or employ civil service employees independently of mayor and board of aldermen. Seibert, Jan. 20, 1993, A.G. Op. #92-1012.

Firemen for city are covered by Civil Service System established pursuant to Miss. Code Sections 21-31-1 et seq. Schissel, Feb. 25, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0089.

Only full paid employees of the fire and police departments are mandatorily included within civil service coverage, but other full time employees may be extended coverage in the discretion of the governing authorities with the approval of the Civil Service Commission upon adoption of a proper ordinance. Stafford, March 27, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0160.

There is no authority for the civil service commission to conduct an investigation on its own motion which may result in the termination, demotion, or similar adverse effect on an employee absent any written complaint filed with the commission; it would appear contrary to the aim of the civil service statutes and to the functions and purposes of the commission for the commission itself to initiate investigations of employment decisions which could ultimately result in terminations or demotions of employees currently holding positions which are afforded the protections of the civil service system. Perkins, June 26, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0274.

A municipal civil service commission would have no authority with regard to benefits to be provided to municipal employees by the governing authority. Bowman, Feb. 7, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0771.

§ 21-31-3. Adoption of civil service system authorized in certain municipalities.

The governing authorities of any municipality in which there is located a port of entry, in any county which has created a county port authority, may, in their discretion and by ordinance, extend the provisions of Sections 21-31-1 through 21-31-27 to all full-paid employees in all departments of such municipality.

§ 21-31-5. Appointment and removal, qualifications, and term of office of commissioners.

(1)(a) The members of the civil service commission shall be appointed by the city commission, shall be three (3) in number, and shall serve without compensation; however, the governing authorities of any municipality, in their discretion, may pay each of the members of the commission a sum not to exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) per month to compensate them for their services. No person shall be appointed a member of such commission who is not a citizen of the United States, a resident of such city for at least five (5) years immediately preceding such appointment, and an elector of the county wherein he resides. The terms of office of such commissioners shall be for six (6) years, except that the first three (3) members shall be appointed for different terms, as follows: One (1) shall serve a period of two (2) years, one (1) shall serve a period of four (4) years, and one (1) shall serve a period of six (6) years.

(b) From and after May 18, 1988, the governing authorities of any municipality organized under the provisions of Chapter 8, Title 21, Mississippi Code of 1972, in which a civil service commission is created pursuant to Sections 21-31-1 through 21-31-27, may increase the members of the commission to the same number of wards into which the municipality is divided and, if the commission is so expanded, the governing authorities shall appoint one (1) member of the commission from each ward. The commissioners shall serve without compensation; however, the governing authorities of any municipality, in their discretion, may pay each of the members of the commission a sum not to exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) per month to compensate them for their services. No person shall be appointed a member of such commission who is not a citizen of the United States, a resident of the municipality for at least five (5) years immediately preceding such appointment, and an elector of the county wherein he resides. When making initial appointments under this paragraph (b), the governing authorities may stagger the terms of such appointees provided that no initial appointment is made for a period of less than one (1) year nor more than six (6) years; thereafter, all appointments shall be for terms of six (6) years. Appointment of members of the commission by the governing authorities under this paragraph (b) shall be made by the mayor with the confirmation of an affirmative vote of a majority of the city council present and voting at any meeting.

(2) Any member of such commission may be removed from office for incompetency, incompatibility, dereliction of duty, or other good cause, by the appointing power. However, no member shall be removed until charges have been preferred in writing and a full hearing had before the appointing power. Any member being so removed shall have the right of appeal, any time within thirty (30) days thereafter, to the circuit court and may demand a jury trial; such trial shall be confined to the determination of whether the order of removal, made by the appointing power, was, or was not, made in good faith and for cause.

(3) A majority of the members of the commission shall constitute a quorum.

Joint Legislative Committee Note — Pursuant to Section 1-1-109, the Joint Legislative Committee on Compilation, Revision and Publication of Legislation corrected a typographical error in subsection (2). The word “incompatability” was changed to “incompatibility”. The Joint Committee ratified the correction at its December 3, 1996 meeting.

Members of Commission must be present and hear evidence in public hearing in order to take official action and regulation which allows Commission to delegate matter to panel with less than

§ 21-31-7. Election of officers and meetings of commission; secretary; board of examiners.

Immediately after the appointment of the civil service commission, the commission shall organize by electing one (1) of its members chairman. The commission shall hold regular meetings at least once each month, and such additional meetings as may be required for the proper discharge of its duties.

The commission shall appoint a secretary and a board of examiners, which board shall consist of the fire chief (or a person designated by the fire chief from the fire department to serve in his absence), the police chief (or a person designated by the police chief from the police department to serve in his absence), and a third member to be named by the commission, all of whom shall serve without compensation. The secretary shall keep the records and preserve all reports made to the commission, and also a record of all examinations held under the direction of the board of examiners, and perform such other duties as the commission may prescribe. The members of the board and the secretary are subject to suspension and discharge in the same manner as the commissioners.

It shall be the duty of the civil service commission to make suitable rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of Sections 21-31-1 through 21-31-27. Such rules and regulations shall provide in detail the manner of conducting examinations, appointments, promotions, transfers, reinstatements, demotions, suspensions and discharges, and may also provide for any other matter connected with the general subject of personnel administration, and which may be considered desirable to further carry out the general purposes of Sections 21-31-1 through 21-31-27. It shall have the power to conduct investigations, and make reports on all matters touching the enforcement and effect of the provisions of Sections 21-31-1 through 21-31-27, and the rules and regulations prescribed hereunder. The commission shall have the power to investigate all complaints which must be reduced to writing, subpoena witnesses, administer oaths, and conduct hearings.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

The power of the Civil Service Commission to enact rules under Section 21-31-9 is not expressly subject to the same restrictive language found in Section 21-31-57, requiring that all rules of the Civil Service Commission be consistent with personnel rules adopted by the governing authorities of the municipality; however, the 1994 Amendment to Section 21-31-57 merely made explicit what was already implicit in municipal law, and the detailed rules of any civil service commission may not be inconsistent with the general rules and regulations adopted by the governing authorities. Bowman, March 17, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0118.

The civil service commission is entitled to obtain any records which relate to the fairness and impartiality of an employment or personnel decision of the governing authorities, but the commission is not entitled to go on a "fishing expedition" and obtain records which are not related to cases properly before the commission and records which are exempt from the Public Records Act by statute. § 21-31-11. Accommodations, supplies and clerical aid to be furnished to commission.

The duly constituted authorities of each and every city coming within the purview of Sections 21-31-1 through 21-31-27, shall provide the commission with suitable and convenient rooms and accommodations and cause the same to be furnished, heated and lighted and supplied with all office supplies and equipment necessary to carry on the business of the commission and with such clerical assistance as may be necessary, all of which is to be commensurate with the number of persons in each such city coming within the purview of Sections 21-31-1 through 21-31-27. The failure upon the part of the duly constituted authorities to do so shall be considered a violation of this section and shall be punishable as such.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

An ordinance under which licenses were granted to operate 10 additional taxicabs was improperly adopted as an emergency measure and declared to be immediately effective where, contrary to statutory requirements, there was no indication of how the immediate preservation of the public health, safety and general welfare of the city's citizens required the ordinance to take effect immediately and where no other good cause was set forth; nor was there compliance with the statute requiring that ordinances granting any right to use the streets remain on file with the municipal clerk for two weeks before passage. Thus, the licenses at issue were a nullity. Yellow Cab Co. of Biloxi, Inc. v. City of Biloxi, 372 So. 2d 1274 (Miss. 1979).

§ 21-31-13. Coverage afforded by civil service system.

The provisions of Sections 21-31-1 through 21-31-27 shall include all full paid employees of the fire and/or police departments of each municipality coming within its purview, including the chiefs of those departments. All appointments to and promotions in said departments shall be made solely on merit, efficiency, and fitness, which may be ascertained by open competitive examination and impartial investigation. No person shall be reinstated in, or transferred, suspended, or discharged from any place, position or employment contrary to the provisions of Sections 21-31-1 through 21-31-27. The governing authorities of the municipality may, with the approval of the civil service commission, extend the benefits of Sections 21-31-1 through 21-31-27 to other full time employees of the municipality.

All incumbents and future appointees shall be subject to civil service, except, however, those appointees now and hereafter serving as extra members.

1. In general.

There are two separate civil service systems: one system applies only to full paid employees of fire and police departments, and other system applies only to administrative and other municipal employees on monthly salary. Bullock v. Mississippi Emp. Sec. Comm'n, 697 So. 2d 1147 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 697 So. 2d 1191 (Miss. 1997).

City's fire chief could appoint supervisory personnel above district fire chief level under civil service statute without open and competitive examination and impartial investigation, where city's civil service commission and mayor would still have to approve appointees, and commission would have option of opening non-competitive appointment to include other eligible candidates. Chandler v. City of Jackson Civil Serv. Comm'n, 687 So. 2d 142 (Miss. 1997).

Civil service statutes were enacted to afford state and municipal employees with reasonable job security by protecting them from political considerations and partisanship. Chandler v. City of Jackson Civil Serv. Comm'n, 687 So. 2d 142 (Miss. 1997).

A 16-year veteran police officer, who had vested permanent employment rights under the civil service laws, resigned on his own volition and was not "constructively discharged" where he obtained legal counsel when he became aware that he was the object of an investigation and resigned his job on his attorney's advice. Thus, he could not thereafter pursue an untimely claim that he was denied procedural due process. In order to ensure that a civil service employee preserves his or her procedural due process guarantees, he or she should "stay the course" and remain with the job until relieved from the assignment by an official with statutory authority to fire. While the work environment could become the source of some irritation or embarrassment, such embarrassment will usually afford the civil servant nothing in the way of a procedural due process claim after a voluntary resignation. The instances will be few when a claim of constructive discharge will preserve procedural guarantees that the employee has waived by resigning. The wisdom of "staying the course" is especially crucial in light of state law which deems civil service administrative remedies as the exclusive remedy before relief can be sought in state court. Bullock v. City of Pascagoula, 574 So. 2d 637 (Miss. 1990).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Civil Service System established by Section 21-31-1 et seq. is mandatory only for fire and police departments of municipalities designated in statute; however, municipalities have option of extending civil service coverage to all full time employees; if city extends civil service protection to all full time employees municipal personnel matters fall squarely under provisions of statutes and cases governing civil service coverage and protection and employee who has coverage under civil service laws is limited to exclusive remedy provided by civil service laws. Bardwell, Dec. 15, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0877.

Firefighter who filled position on temporary basis was not automatically entitled to promotion to fill vacancy on permanent basis based on length of time he filled temporary position. Schissel, Feb. 24, 1994, A.G. Op. #94-0044.

Only full paid employees of the fire and police departments are mandatorily included within civil service coverage, but other full time employees may be extended coverage in the discretion of the governing authorities with the approval of the Civil Service Commission upon adoption of a proper ordinance. Stafford, March 27, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0160.

Where the governing authorities and the civil service commission cannot agree on the scope of coverage for full-time positions (other than those mandated by statute), the initial determination of which full-time positions should be included or excluded from civil service coverage is within the discretionary authority of the municipal governing authorities, consistent with the provisions of § 21-31-1 et seq. and the statutes governing code-charter municipalities; thus, the governing authorities of a city as a matter of policy may determine that certain full-time positions within the municipal government should fall within coverage of the civil service system, and may also determine that other positions are best left subject to the general statutory provisions governing appointed employees in code-charter municipalities. Jordan, April 3, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0081.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

A city ordinance which required members of fire and police departments and other civil service employees to maintain their domicile and place of residence within the corporate limits of the city, was not in conflict with a state statute requiring civil service applicants to be citizens of the United States and electors of the county in which they reside, with 3 years' residence, but was instead an additional regulation within the power of municipalities operating under the commission form of government by virtue of statutes authorizing such municipalities to make necessary rules and regulations for the government of the officers and employees of the city and for the efficient and economical conduct of the city's business. Hattiesburg Firefighters Local 184 v. City of Hattiesburg, 263 So. 2d 767 (Miss. 1972).

For the benefit of the public service and to prevent delay, injury, or interruption therein by reason of the enactment of Sections 21-31-1 through 21-31-27, all persons holding a position in the fire and/or police departments, including the chief thereof, of any such municipality coming under the provisions of Sections 21-31-1 through 21-31-27, who shall have served continuously in such positions for a period of at least the preceding six months, are hereby declared eligible for permanent appointment under civil service to the offices, positions or employments which they shall then hold, respectively, without examination or other act on their part, and not on probation, and every such person is hereby automatically adopted and inducted permanently into civil service, into such office, place, position or employment which such person then holds as completely and effectually to all intents and purposes as if such person had been permanently appointed thereto under civil service after examination and investigation. However, those persons who have previously left their positions to participate in the armed forces of the United States shall have preference in reemployment and enjoy the rights and privileges of Sections 21-31-1 through 21-31-27 as if their services had not been terminated.

The commission shall provide that men laid off because of curtailment of expenditures, reduction in force, and like causes, shall be the last man or men, including probationers, that have been appointed to either the fire and/or police departments, until such reductions necessary shall have been accomplished. Abolition of the position of assistant fire chief, while within the power of the mayor and commissioners, does not automatically remove the holder of that position from service in the city's fire department and, where his services have been satisfactory over a period of years, he is entitled to hold a newly created captaincy which includes the duties of assistant fire chief, and, if he does not desire that position, he can apply for another, his right to such other position to be determined by the mayor and commissioners giving due consideration to his and other municipal employees' seniority rights and length of service, which determination is subject to review by the civil service commission. *City of Laurel v. Employee's property interest in his employment was created by Miss. Code Ann. §§ 21-31-21 and 21-31-23, which provided that civil service employees could not be discharged except for cause; where he was given written notification of termination and told of the actions he could take if he disagreed with the termination, the employee was given the minimum due process required. Burleson v. Hancock County Sheriff's Dep't Civ. Serv. Comm'n, 872 So. 2d 43 (Miss. Ct. App. 2003), cert. denied, 873 So. 2d 1032 (Miss. 2004).

Discharge of clerical employee from constable's office, for expressing, in private conversation, hope that President would be assassinated violated employee's free speech rights under First Amendment; remark was overheard while employee was privately conversing with her co-employee boyfriend in office not generally accessible to public. Rankin v. McPherson, 483 U.S. 378, 107 S. Ct. 2891, 97 L. Ed. 2d 315 (1987), reh'g denied, 483 U.S. 1056, 108 S. Ct. 31, 97 L. Ed. 2d 819 (1987).

Statutory pretermination procedures for nonprobationary municipal civil service employees do not contain adequate due process safeguards to be followed when discharging, suspending, or demoting covered municipal employees, whose right of continued employment is a property right. Thus, risk reducing procedures must be accorded such employees, including pretermination written notice of the reasons for termination and an effective opportunity to rebut such reasons, the right to respond in writing to the charges made and to respond orally before the official charged with the responsibility of making the termination decision, a written decision on the response of the employee at the earliest practicable date, and, although not required, examination of witnesses, trial or hearing, in the discretion of the responsible official. Little v. City of Jackson, 375 So. 2d 1031 (Miss. 1979), cert. denied, 445 U.S. 933, 100 S. Ct. 1325, 63 L. Ed. 2d 768 (1980).

The right of a member of police and fire department to continue on his job and enjoy the retirement benefits, etc., under civil service is a right protected by the courts to the extent of seeing to it that an action of a civil service commission in discharging such an employee is taken only in good faith and for a cause enumerated in the statute. City of Meridian v. Davidson, 211 Miss. 683, 53 So. 2d 48 (1951).

The grounds upon which policemen in a city operating under the commission form of government may be removed or discharged are set out in this section [Code 1942, § 3825-10]. City of Jackson v. McLeod, 199 Miss. 676, 24 So. 2d 319 (1946), cert. denied, 328 U.S. 863, 66 S. Ct. 1368, 90 L. Ed. 1633 (1946).

2. Illustrative cases.

Although a trial court had not erred when it held that a city was not liable for the acts of two police officers during and after an arrest of an African American male because the officers had acted beyond the scope of their employment, the court erred when it found the city liable because it had negligently supervised the officers. There was not a scintilla of evidence presented to indicate that the city had any policy which encouraged the type of activity that the officers engaged in and there was no factual support for the factual holding that the city was deliberately indifferent to the rights of African Americans. City of Jackson v. Powell, 917 So. 2d 59 (Miss. 2005).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

If city's civil service commission, by rule or regulation, provided procedure for covered positions to be changed to non-covered positions and that procedure was followed in enactment of 1985 amending ordinance in question, position of police chief would be an "at will" position. Perkins, March 17, 1994, A.G. Op. #94-0117.

§ 21-31-23. Removal, suspension, demotion, and discharge.

No person in the classified civil service who shall have been permanently appointed or inducted into civil service under the provisions of Sections 21-31-1 through 21-31-27, except for such persons as may be employed to fill a vacancy caused by the absence of a fireman or policeman while in service as a member of the armed forces of the United States, shall be removed, suspended, demoted or discharged, or any combination thereof, except for cause, and only upon the written accusation of the appointing power or any citizen or taxpayer, a written statement of which accusation, in general terms, shall be served upon the accused, and a duplicate filed with the commission. The chiefs of the fire and/or police department may suspend a member pending the confirmation of the suspension by the regular appointing power, which shall be within three (3) days.

In the absence of extraordinary circumstances or situations, before any such employee may be removed or discharged, he shall be given written notice of the intended termination, which notice shall state the reasons for termination and inform the employee that he has the right to respond in writing to the reasons given for termination within a reasonable time and respond orally before the official charged with the responsibility of making the termination decision. Such official may, in his discretion, provide for a pretermination hearing and examination of witnesses, and if a hearing is to be held, the notice to the employee shall also set the time and place of such hearing. A duplicate of such notice shall be filed with the commission. After the employee has responded or has failed to respond within a reasonable time, the official charged with the responsibility of making the termination decision shall determine the appropriate disciplinary action, and shall notify the employee of his decision in writing at the earliest practicable date.

Where there are extraordinary circumstances or situations which require the immediate discharge or removal of an employee, such employee may be terminated without a pretermination hearing as required by this section, but such employee shall be given written notice of the specific reasons for termination within twenty-four (24) hours after the termination, and shall be given an opportunity for a hearing similar to the pretermination hearing provided in this section within twenty (20) days after the date of termination. For the purposes of this section, extraordinary situations or circumstances include, but are not limited to, circumstances where retention of the employee would result in damage to municipal property, would be detrimental to the interest of municipal government or would result in injury to the employee, to a fellow employee or to the general public.

Any person so removed, suspended, demoted, discharged or combination thereof may, within ten (10) days from the time of such disciplinary action, file with the commission a written demand for an investigation, whereupon the commission shall conduct such investigation. The investigation shall be confined to the determination of the question of whether such disciplinary action was or was not made for political or religious reasons and was or was not made in good faith for cause. After such investigation the commission may, if in its estimation the evidence is conclusive, affirm the disciplinary action, or if it shall find that the disciplinary action was made for political or religious reasons, or was not made in good faith for cause, shall order the immediate reinstatement or reemployment of such person in the office, place, position, or employment from which such person was removed, suspended, demoted, discharged or combination thereof, which reinstatement shall, if the commission so provides in its discretion, be retroactive, and entitle such person to pay or compensation from the time of such disciplinary action. The commission upon such investigation may, in lieu of affirming the disciplinary action, modify the order of removal, suspension, demotion, discharge or combination thereof by directing a suspension, without pay, for a given period and subsequent restoration of duty, or by directing a demotion in classification, grade or pay, or by any combination thereof. The findings of the commission shall be certified in writing to the appointing power, and shall be forthwith enforced by such officer.

All investigations made by the commission pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be by public hearing, after reasonable written notice to the accused of the time and place of such hearing, at which hearing the accused shall be afforded an opportunity of appearing in person and by counsel, and presenting his defense. The findings of the commission shall be conclusive and binding unless either the accused or the municipality shall, within thirty (30) days from the date of the entry of such judgment or order on the minutes of the commission and notification to the accused and the municipality, appeal to the circuit court of the county within which the municipality is located. Any appeal of the judgment or order of the commission shall not act as a supersedeas of such judgment or order, but the judgment or order shall remain in effect pending a final determination of the matter on appeal. Such appeal shall be taken by serving the commission and the appellee, within thirty (30) days after the entry of such judgment or order, a written notice of appeal, stating the grounds thereof, and demanding that a certified transcript of the record and of all papers on file in the office of the commission affecting or relating to such judgment or order, be filed by the commission with such court. The commission shall, within thirty (30) days after the filing of such notice, make, certify and file such transcript with such court. The said circuit court shall thereupon proceed to hear and determine such appeal. However, such hearing shall be confined to the determination of whether the judgment or order of removal, discharge, demotion, suspension or combination thereof made by the commission, was or was not made in good faith for cause, and no appeal to such court shall be taken except upon such ground or grounds.

Citizens had no standing to sue under Miss. Code Ann. § 21-31-23 as the citizens were not civil servants under this statutory scheme and had not been discharged from such a position. Aldridge v. West, 929 So. 2d 298 (Miss. 2006).

Because the employee did not request a hearing on his demotion and termination, making his transfer an issue, until March 15, 2000, more than 10 days after the transfer, the Hancock County Sheriff's Department's Civil Service Commission did not have to consider the issue. Burleson v. Hancock County Sheriff's Dep't Civ. Serv. Comm'n, 872 So. 2d 43

(Miss. Ct. App. 2003), cert. denied, 873 So. 2d 1032 (Miss. 2004).

A police officer's appeal should not have been dismissed for failure to request an administrative appeal with the city civil service commission within 10 days as required by § 21-31-23, where the officer's employment was terminated after the city manager stated in a letter that the officer could have a pretermination hearing and the officer's attorney then promptly requested such a hearing; the officer was misled and the city's conduct was a material factor in preventing the officer from complying with the statute, and therefore the city would be estopped from denying the officer a pretermination hearing. Watson v. City of Pascagoula, 577 So. 2d 1234 (Miss. 1991).

A 16-year veteran police officer, who had vested permanent employment rights under the civil service laws, resigned on his own volition and was not "constructively discharged" where he obtained legal counsel when he became aware that he was the object of an investigation and resigned his job on his attorney's advice. Thus, he could not thereafter pursue an untimely claim that he was denied procedural due process. In order to ensure that a civil service employee preserves his or her procedural due process guarantees, he or she should "stay the course" and remain with the job until relieved from the assignment by an official with statutory authority to fire. While the work environment could become the source of some irritation or embarrassment, such embarrassment will usually afford the civil servant nothing in the way of a procedural due process claim after a voluntary resignation. The instances will be few when a claim of constructive discharge will preserve procedural guarantees that the employee has waived by resigning. The wisdom of "staying the course" is especially crucial in light of state law which deems civil service administrative remedies as the exclusive remedy before relief can be sought in state court. Bulloch v. City of Pascagoula, 574 So. 2d 637 (Miss. 1990).

A fire chief's discharge of a fireman who struck another fireman while on duty was improper where it was not made on a written accusation of the city's mayor and board of aldermen, as required by this section. Eidt v. City of Natchez, 382 So. 2d 1093 (Miss. 1980).

This section provided the exclusive remedy for a city policeman who was dismissed from his job; since he did not proceed under it, the trial court had no jurisdiction to direct the city to reinstate him and reimburse him for back pay. City of Jackson v. Thomas, 331 So. 2d 926 (Miss. 1976).

Where an employee had turned in his fireman's cap upon being suspended for misconduct and was leaving the premises when a controversy arose between him and his superior, his acts and conduct in such controversy subsequent to his suspension by the fire chief were properly made a basis of a verdict against the employee, in view of the fact that he was not discharged by the city manager until two days thereafter. City of Meridian v. Davidson, 211 Miss. 683, 53 So. 2d 48 (1951).

A municipal council in employing and in discharging policemen and in prescribing rules and regulations for their conduct is acting in an executive or administrative capacity, and the civil service commission in its investigation under this act as the agent of a city is moving still within the ambit of an executive or administrative function. City of Jackson v. McLeod, 199 Miss. 676, 24 So. 2d 319 (1946), cert. denied, 328 U.S. 863, 66 S. Ct. 1368, 90 L. Ed. 1633 (1946).

Civil service commission of city makes "the city's final decision as to whether a policeman shall be discharged." City of Jackson v. McLeod, 199 Miss. 676, 24 So. 2d 319 (1946), cert. denied, 328 U.S. 863, 66 S. Ct. 1368, 90 L. Ed. 1633 (1946).

2. Abolition of position.

Evidence, including a showing that city pound keeper did not take orders from the police chief or anyone else in the police department, did not make a policeman's bond, was not a member of the Disability and Relief Fund for firemen and policemen, but on the contrary, was a member of the Mississippi Public Employees' Retirement System, amply supported Civil Service Commission's finding that pound keeper was not a member of the police department, and, therefore, was not entitled to other employment in the police department upon abolition of the office of pound keeper. City of Hattiesburg v. Jackson, 235 Miss. 109, 108 So. 2d 596 (1959).

Abolition of the position of assistant fire chief, while within the power of the mayor and commissioners, does not automatically remove the holder of that position from service in the city's fire department and, where his services have been satisfactory over a period of years, he is entitled to hold a newly created captaincy which includes the duties of assistant fire chief, and, if he does not desire that position, he can apply for another, his right to such other position to be determined by the mayor and commissioners giving due consideration to his and other municipal employees' seniority rights and length of service, which determination is subject to review by the Civil Service Commission. City of Laurel v. Reddoch, 200 Miss. 259, 26 So. 2d 465 (1946).

2.5. Damages.

Where the civil service commission ordered a city to reinstate a police officer immediately but not retroactively, the commission's denial of the officer's request for back pay was not an abuse of discretion because the delay in the adjudication of the civil service hearing was caused by the employee's actions and the employee had engaged in misconduct that was not serious enough to warrant termination. City of Laurel v. Brewer, 919 So. 2d 217 (Miss. Ct. App. 2005).

3. Judicial review.

Where a city discharged an employee for directing a police dog towards a suspect who was resisting arrest, the civil service commission properly reinstated the employee because the testimony of the arresting officer and the police department's policies substantially supported the commission's finding that the use of the dog was not excessive force. City of Laurel v. Brewer, 919 So. 2d 217 (Miss. Ct. App. 2005).

Police officer was not denied his procedural due process rights in regard to his suspension or termination; the officer was given the proper notice of the charges against him, the Civil Service Commission's finding that the officer's termination was for good cause was made in good faith and was supported by substantial evidence, and the Commission used the correct standard of review in deciding to affirm the officer's termination. Bowie v. City of Jackson Police Dep't, 816 So. 2d 1012 (Miss. Jan. 22, 2002).

Under § 21-31-23 the Civil Service Commission, rather than the appellee police department, was duty-bound to "certify and file" the hearing transcript with the circuit court within 30 days of the appellant police officers' appeal from the Commission's order affirming the officers' suspension. The police officers should have sought an order compelling the Commission to file the record or to otherwise show cause for its continued procrastination, and the officers, rather than the police department, would be held ultimately responsible for the filing of the transcript with the circuit court. Jackson Police Dep't v. Lawrence, 562 So. 2d 84 (Miss. 1990).

Finding of Civil Service Commission that, pursuant to statutes and civil service regulations, a city employee was a "fire alarm operator" and not a "firefighter" was supported by substantial evidence, was not arbitrary, capricious or unreasonable, and was entered in good faith. City of Meridian v. Hill, 447 So. 2d 641 (Miss. 1984).

The trial court erred in setting aside an order of the Civil Service Commission that a former fireman who had transferred to another position following a back injury was a "fire alarm operator" rather than a "firefighter," and further erred in ordering a new classification of the employee as a "fireman," where the Commission's action was taken in good faith for cause, was supported by substantial evidence, and was not arbitrary, unreasonable, confiscatory, or capricious. City of Meridian v. Hill, 447 So. 2d 641 (Miss. 1984).

Nothing in § 21-31-23 in any way prohibits the hearing of civil service appeals during vacation, and thus, the Circuit Court had jurisdiction to grant a police lieutenant's motion to reconsider its affirmation of the Civil Service Commission's ruling upholding his discharge, even though the term during which the Circuit Court affirmed the civil service commission decision had ended. City of Gulfport v. Saxton, 437 So. 2d 1215 (Miss. 1983).

Although a discharged police officer was denied due process in that the dismissal decision was made one day before the time for his response to the charges expired, the dismissed police officer waived this issue by not raising it before the Civil Service Commission prior to his full evidentiary hearing and he was thus precluded from challenging the pretermination procedure on appeal. Little v. City of Jackson, 375 So. 2d 1031 (Miss. 1979), cert. denied, 445 U.S. 933, 100 S. Ct. 1325, 63 L. Ed. 2d 768 (1980).

Statutory pretermination procedures for nonprobationary municipal civil service employees do not contain adequate due process safeguards to be followed when discharging, suspending, or demoting covered municipal employees, whose right of continued employment is a property right. Thus, risk reducing procedures must be accorded such employees, including pretermination written notice of the reasons for termination and an effective opportunity to rebut such reasons, the right to respond in writing to the charges made and to respond orally before the official charged with the responsibility of making the termination decision, a written decision on the response of the employee at the earliest practicable date, and, although not required, examination of witnesses, trial or hearing, in the discretion of the responsible official. Little v. City of Jackson, 375 So. 2d 1031 (Miss. 1979), cert. denied, 445 U.S. 933, 100 S. Ct. 1325, 63 L. Ed. 2d 768 (1980).

The dismissal of a police officer for withholding specific items of evidence on three different occasions would be upheld where the record reflected that the police officer had been given a full, fair and impartial hearing before the civil service commission and a careful appellate review by the circuit court, all in accord with the provisions of this section. Newman v. City of Biloxi, 372 So. 2d 295 (Miss. 1979).

Upon an appeal from an action of the Board of Civil Service Commission, which in a two to one vote, had upheld the dismissal of a policeman by the city manager as being in good faith for cause and not for political or religious reasons, the circuit judge did not err in refusing the patrolman a jury trial to impeach the commission's verdict, since the proposed testimony as to the alleged admission of the two commissioners who had voted to affirm the city manager's action would have been incompetent for that purpose. Stegall v. City of Meridian, 230 Miss. 176, 92 So. 2d 331 (1957).

The statutory method of review by appeal is adequate and the exclusive remedy for persons asserting civil status. Scott v. Lowe, 223 Miss. 312, 78 So. 2d 452 (1955).

Where a captain of a fire department brought suit against the city to enjoin the city officials from transferring him to another fire station, the fire captain's remedy was under the Civil Service Act which provides a plain, speedy, adequate and complete remedy by appeal and the fire captain was not entitled to relief in equity. Scott v. Lowe, 223 Miss. 312, 78 So. 2d 452 (1955).

In view of the requirement of this section [Code 1942, § 3825-11] that a certified transcript of the record shall be filed by the commission with the circuit court, the appeal in the circuit court is on the record, including the testimony, as made before the commission, and in the absence of such a certified transcript the case must be remanded for rehearing before the commission wherein a transcript of the evidence shall be preserved for use on another appeal to the circuit court. City of Meridian v. Davidson, 211 Miss. 683, 53 So. 2d 48 (1951).

On policeman's appeal from affirmance by circuit court of order of civil service commission of a city approving the policeman's discharge, the obligee on the appeal bond should have been the city instead of the civil service commission. McLeod v. Civil Serv. Comm'n, 198 Miss. 721, 21 So. 2d 916 (1945), overruled on other grounds, Meridan v. Davidson, 211 Miss. 683, 53 So. 2d 48 (1951).

4. Standard and scope of review.

Even if the fired police officer had properly raised the recusal issue of a decision of the municipality's civil service commission to the circuit court sitting as an appellate court, that issue would probably still have been procedurally improper pursuant to the limited scope of review established under Miss. Code Ann. § 21-31-23. City of Vicksburg v. Cooper, 909 So. 2d 126 (Miss. Ct. App. 2005).

Terminated police officer had requested the civil service commissioner's recusal because she served as a pastor or evangelist at the church attended by the city police chief. Even though the appellate court tended to agree with the circuit court's conclusion, it held the issue was procedurally barred since the officer had failed to raise the issue on appeal to the circuit court; moreover, since the circuit court based its judgment solely on the issue of the commissioner's recusal (she did not recuse herself), the other issues raised by the city, primarily the grounds for termination of the officer, were not ripe for consideration and a remand was required. City of Vicksburg v. Cooper, 909 So. 2d 126 (Miss. Ct. App. 2005).

The scope of review of the circuit court and of the Supreme Court as to the removal of a civil service employee is limited. It is not what the court, had it been a member of the governing authority, might have done in a particular instance, or whether or not the court thinks a mistake may have been made, but instead the criterion is whether or not from an examination of the record there exists credible evidence substantiating the action taken by the governing authority. It is upon this basis that the court determines whether or not the decision was in "good faith for cause." Courts are not empowered to supervise the intelligence, wisdom or fairness of the governing authorities, and no resources are available to a court to exercise such a function even if granted, in the extremely difficult task of determining the fitness of a particular person for a particular job. It is only when the record makes it clear that there is no "substantial evidence" supporting the governing authorities' determination that a court can and must act. City of Jackson v. Froshour, 530 So. 2d 1348 (Miss. 1988).

On appeal to the circuit court from the findings of Civil Service Commission that city pound keeper was not a member of the police department and that his job had not been abolished for political or religious reasons, but was done in good faith, the scope of the review by the circuit court was to determine whether the order of the Civil Service Commission was supported by substantial evidence. City of Hattiesburg v. Jackson, 235 Miss. 109, 108 So. 2d 596 (1959).

Since the governing bodies of municipalities have power under the code to organize, operate, maintain and regulate fire departments, and have wide discretion in exercising their administrative and executive duties, including the transferring of employees of the fire department from one post to another, the Civil Service Act properly limits the review of such actions by the commission and the courts to whether they are taken in good faith for cause. Accordingly, a fire captain, transferred to another fire station, was not entitled to injunctive relief against the city in view of his plain, adequate and complete remedy by appeal under the Civil Service Act. Scott v. Lowe, 223 Miss. 312, 78 So. 2d 452 (1955).

Where a civil service commission discharged a fireman in good faith and for good cause, the fireman was not entitled to a jury trial on appeal to circuit court. Hill v. City of Hattiesburg, 223 Miss. 163, 77 So. 2d 827 (1955).

This statute [Code 1942, § 3825-11] is not unconstitutional in providing for a trial de novo on appeal from the determination of the commission in the circuit court by permitting the court or jury to substitute their own judgment for that of the commission when the latter has exercised purely an executive function, since the statute expressly limits the hearing in the circuit court to the determination of whether the judgment or order of the commission was made in good faith for cause and provides that no appeal to the circuit court shall be taken except upon such ground or grounds. City of Meridian v. Davidson, 211 Miss. 683, 53 So. 2d 48 (1951).

On appeal to the circuit court when the case is reviewed solely on the transcript of the record made before the commission, the question whether there is a basis in substantial evidence as to whether the judgment rendered by the commission was or was not made in good faith for cause is solely one of law and there is no function for a jury to perform. City of Meridian v. Davidson, 211 Miss. 683, 53 So. 2d 48 (1951).

While the rule is that the legislature in re-enacting § 10 of ch 208 of Laws of 1944 (Code 1942, § 3825-11) in ch 503 of Laws of 1950 (Code 1942, § 3825.5-17) is presumed to have approved the interpretation which the supreme court had already given the former section with respect to the right to jury trial on appeal to the circuit court, the question is not, however, what the legislature intended to do but rather whether it had the constitutional power to confer upon the circuit court the exercise of the nonjudicial function of permitting a jury to substitute its judgment for that of an executive agency on the question presented by the appeal to the circuit court as to whether or not the finding of the executive agency had a basis in substantial evidence such as to prevent it from being one not rendered in good faith for cause. City of Meridian v. Davidson, 211 Miss. 683, 53 So. 2d 48 (1951).

Where, on appeal to circuit court from an order of a city's civil service commission fixing the rights of a fireman whose position had been abolished, no question of fact arises for the decision of a jury, the action of the court, without objection, in withdrawing the case from the jury, while perhaps irregular, is not ground for reversal and no harm resulted since the question for decision was one of law and not of fact. City of Laurel v. Reddoch, 200 Miss. 259, 26 So. 2d 465 (1946).

On appeal from an action of the civil service commission of a city in sustaining the dismissal of a policeman after a full hearing for statutory cause, the question to be considered by the circuit court and a jury under its direction is whether the action taken by the civil service commission was in good faith, honestly done, and upon a cause which reasonable men, acting as such a commission would reasonably say was an adequate cause. City of Jackson v. McLeod, 199 Miss. 676, 24 So. 2d 319 (1946), cert. denied, 328 U.S. 863, 66 S. Ct. 1368, 90 L. Ed. 1633 (1946).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Appeal bond is not required to perfect appeal of civil service commission decision to circuit court. Mitchell, Sept. 6, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0642.

Term "appointing power", as used in Miss. Code Section 21-31-23 means mayor and board of aldermen; term is used in context of removal, suspension, demotion and discharge of municipal employees covered by civil service system; mayor and board of aldermen are, as implied by term, also appointing power with respect to employment; term must be exercised in manner consistent with and within limitations prescribed by Miss. Code Sections 21-31-1 et seq., and, in manner consistent with state law and city charter. Seibert, Jan. 20, 1993, A.G. Op. #92-1012.

Civil Service Commission may enter into executive session to discuss actions to be taken concerning personnel matters pursuant to Section 25-41-7(4)(a) after Commission has heard witnesses in public hearing. Bardwell, March 9, 1994, A.G. Op. #94-0121.

Members of Commission must be present and hear evidence in public hearing in order to take official action and regulation which allows Commission to delegate matter to panel with less than quorum for investigation or official action would be inconsistent with statutory scheme set forth in Section 21-31-1 et seq. Bardwell, March 9, 1994, A.G. Op. #94-0121.

If city's civil service commission, by rule or regulation, provided procedure for covered positions to be changed to non-covered positions and that procedure was followed in enactment of 1985 amending ordinance in question, position of police chief would be an "at will" position. Perkins, March 17, 1994, A.G. Op. #94-0117.

No public officer, whether elected or appointed, shall discharge, promote, demote or in any manner change the official rank, employment or compensation of any person under civil service, or promise or threaten so to do, for giving or withholding, or neglecting to make any contribution of money, or service, or any other valuable thing, for any political purpose.

If any person holding any office, place, position or employment subject to civil service, actively participates in political activity in any primary or election in a municipality where he is employed, it shall be deemed cause for removal.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Statute which was part of civil service system applicable to full paid employees of fire and police departments did not apply to city administrative employee, who was part of the other civil service system covering administrative and municipal employees. Bullock v. Mississippi

Preclearance provisions of Voting Rights Act, requiring preclearance before enforcement of any rules affecting voting rights of citizens, were not applicable to state statutes which were enacted prior to Act; preclearance provisions were not to be applied retroactively. Bullock v. Mississippi Emp. Sec. Comm'n, 697 So. 2d 1147 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 697 So. 2d 1191 (Miss. 1997).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Municipal civil service employee could run for county office without having to resign or take leave of absence; leave of absence without pay could be granted by governing authorities provided it is done in accordance with existing municipal leave policies; if municipal employee chooses to run for office while remaining on municipal payroll, he must not engage in any campaigning during hours for which he is being paid to work for municipality. Oubre, March 28, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0221.

Based on Miss. Code Section 21-31-27, if fireman actively seeks office of mayor while still employee covered by civil service, fireman would be subjecting himself to dismissal pursuant to procedure set forth in Miss. Code Section 21-31-23. Schissel, Feb. 25, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0089.

Only full paid employees of the fire and police departments are mandatorily included within civil service coverage, but other full time employees may be extended coverage in the discretion of the governing authorities with the approval of the Civil Service Commission upon adoption of a proper ordinance. Stafford, March 27, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0160.

While covered employees may make contributions and provide political services to candidates and parties in federal, state, and municipal elections in municipalities where they are not employed, they may not do so in primaries and elections conducted in and by the municipality where they are employed without being subject to removal. Barry, Feb. 23, 2001, A.G. Op. #2001-0095.

Under state law, a municipal civil service employee may be a candidate for political office in a municipality where he is not employed, provided he meets all qualifications to hold the office he seeks and does not campaign during hours he is being paid to perform his duties as a municipal employee; furthermore, an employee may serve in such dual capacity should he win the election, provided he continues to work the required hours exclusively for the municipality. Cochran, Feb. 23, 2001, A.G. Op. #2001-0096.

(1)(a) The members of the civil service commission shall be appointed by the city commission, shall be three (3) in number, and shall serve without compensation; however, the governing authority of any municipality having a population of not less than one hundred thousand (100,000) according to the federal census of 1960 may, in its discretion, pay each of the members of said commission a sum not to exceed Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) per month to compensate them for their services, and the governing authorities of any other municipality, in their discretion, may pay each of the members of the commission a sum not to exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) per month to compensate them for their services. No person shall be appointed a member of such commission who is not a citizen of the United States, a resident of such city for at least five (5) years immediately preceding such appointment, and an elector of the county wherein he resides. The terms of office of such commissioners shall be for six (6) years, except that the first three (3) members shall be appointed for different terms as follows: one (1) to serve a period of two (2) years, one (1) to serve a period of four (4) years, and one (1) to serve a period of six (6) years.

(b) From and after May 18, 1988, the effective date of Chapter 535, 1988 Regular Session, the governing authorities of any municipality organized under the provisions of Chapter 8, Title 21, Mississippi Code of 1972, in which a civil service commission is created pursuant to Sections 21-31-51 through 21-31-75, may increase the members of the commission to the same number of wards into which the municipality is divided and, if the commission is so expanded, the governing authorities shall appoint one (1) member of the commission from each ward. The commissioners shall serve without compensation; however, the governing authority of any municipality having a population of not less than one hundred thousand (100,000) according to the federal census of 1960 may, in its discretion, pay each of the members of the commission a sum not to exceed Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) per month to compensate them for their services, and the governing authorities of any other municipality, in their discretion, may pay each of the members of the commission a sum not to exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) per month to compensate them for their services. No person shall be appointed a member of such commission who is not a citizen of the United States, a resident of the municipality for at least five (5) years immediately preceding such appointment, and an elector of the county wherein he resides. When making initial appointments under this paragraph (b), the governing authorities may stagger the terms of such appointees provided that no initial appointment is made for a period of less than one (1) year nor more than six (6) years; thereafter, all appointments shall be for terms of six (6) years. Appointment of members of the commission by the governing authorities under this paragraph (b) shall be made by the mayor with the confirmation of an affirmative vote of a majority of the city council present and voting at any meeting.

(c) From and after July 1, 1994, the governing authorities of any municipality described in Section 21-31-51(2)(b), in which a civil service commission is created pursuant to Sections 21-31-51 through 21-31-75, may increase the membership of the commission to five (5), with one (1) member appointed by the governing authorities from each ward and one (1) appointed from the municipality at large. The governing authorities of the municipality may, in their discretion, pay each of the members of the commission a sum not to exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) per month. No person shall be appointed a member of such commission who is not a citizen of the United States, a resident of the municipality for at least five (5) years immediately preceding such appointment, and an elector of the county wherein he resides. When making initial appointments under this paragraph (c), the governing authorities may stagger the terms of such appointees provided that no initial appointment is made for a period of less than one (1) year nor more than six (6) years; thereafter, all appointments shall be for terms of six (6) years.

(2) Any member of such commission may be removed from office for incompetency, incompatibility, dereliction of duty or other good cause, by the appointing power. However, no member shall be removed until charges have been preferred in writing and a full hearing before the appointing power. Any member being removed shall have the right of appeal, any time within thirty (30) days thereafter, to the circuit court and may demand a jury; such trial shall be confined to the determination of whether the order of removal made by the appointing power was, or was not, made in good faith and for cause.

(3) A majority of the members of the commission shall constitute a quorum.

§ 21-31-55. Election of officers and meetings of commission; secretary; board of examiners.

Immediately after the appointment of the civil service commission, the commission shall organize by electing one of its members chairman. The commission shall hold regular meetings at least once each month, and such additional meetings as may be required for the proper discharge of its duties.

The commission shall appoint a secretary and a board of examiners, which board shall consist of the fire chief, the police chief, and a third member to be named by the commission, all of whom shall serve without compensation. The secretary shall keep the records and preserve all reports made to the commission, and also a record of all examinations held under the direction of the board of examiners, and perform such other duties as the commission may prescribe. The members of the board and the secretary are subject to suspension and discharge in the same manner as the commissioners.

It shall be the duty of the civil service commission to make suitable rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of Sections 21-31-51 through 21-31-75 and not inconsistent with personnel rules and regulations duly adopted by the governing authorities of the municipality. Such rules and regulations shall provide in detail the manner of conducting examinations, appointments, promotions, transfers, reinstatements, demotions, suspensions and discharges, and may also provide for any other matter connected with the general subject of personnel administration, and which may be considered desirable to further carry out the general purposes of Sections 21-31-51 through 21-31-75. It shall have the power to conduct investigations, and make reports on all matters touching the enforcement and effect of the provisions of Sections 21-31-51 through 21-31-75, and the rules and regulations prescribed hereunder. The commission shall have the power to investigate all complaints which must be reduced to writing, subpoena witnesses, administer oaths and conduct hearings.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

A civil service commission has the discretion, through the adoption of suitable rules and regulations, to determine which positions will be subject to civil service coverage. Reynolds, May 13, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0328.

A civil service commission, pursuant to its rule making authority, may adopt a procedure whereby covered positions may be changed to non-covered positions, provided such procedure is reasonable and is consistent with pertinent statutory provisions relating to civil service coverage. Reynolds, May 13, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0328.

The power of the Civil Service Commission to enact rules under Section 21-31-9 is not expressly subject to the same restrictive language found in Section 21-31-57, requiring that all rules of the Civil Service Commission be consistent with personnel rules adopted by the governing authorities of the municipality; however, the 1994 Amendment to Section 21-31-57 merely made explicit what was already implicit in municipal law, and the detailed rules of any civil service commission may not be inconsistent with the general rules and regulations adopted by the governing authorities. Bowman, March 17, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0118.

§ 21-31-59. Accommodations, supplies and clerical aid to be furnished to commission.

The duly constituted authorities of each and every city coming within the purview of Sections 21-31-51 through 21-31-75, shall provide the commission with suitable and convenient rooms and accommodations and cause the same to be furnished, heated and lighted and supplied with all office supplies and equipment necessary to carry on the business of the commission and with such clerical assistance as may be necessary, all of which is to be commensurate with the number of persons in each such city coming within the purview of Sections 21-31-51 through 21-31-75. The failure upon the part of the duly constituted authorities to do so, shall be considered a violation of this section and shall be punishable as such.

The provisions of Sections 21-31-51 through 21-31-75 shall include all administrative and other employees on a monthly salary basis. All appointments to and promotions in said departments shall be made solely on merit, efficiency and fitness which may be ascertained by open competitive examination and impartial investigation. No person shall be reinstated in, or transferred, suspended or discharged from, any place, position or employment contrary to the provisions of Sections 21-31-51 through 21-31-75.

All incumbents and future appointees shall be subject to civil service, except, however, those appointees now and hereafter serving as extra members, which employees shall be subject to removal for replacement by any person now or hereafter serving in the armed services; or, if temporarily employed, the commission shall have authority to so determine and replace with a new employee who shall be subject to the provisions of Sections 21-31-51 through 21-31-75.

The provisions of Sections 21-31-51 through 21-31-75 shall not include any new employee who has not successfully completed all requirements necessary to earn regular or permanent status as a municipal employee.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

There are two separate civil service systems: one system applies only to full paid employees of fire and police departments, and other system applies only to administrative and other municipal employees on monthly salary. Bullock v. Mississippi Emp. Sec. Comm'n, 697 So. 2d 1147 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 697 So. 2d 1191 (Miss. 1997).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

An elected official is not covered by civil service, but unless there is a specific private charter provision or a specific statutory provision that exempts department heads from coverage, such appointed positions are covered by civil service. Reynolds, May 13, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0328.

The civil service commission shall keep a list of all administrative and other employees on a monthly salary basis (firemen and policemen excepted), and formulate methods of determining the relative qualifications of persons seeking employment in any such department, and give preference to those having the best qualifications. The commission shall provide that men laid off because of a curtailment of expenditures, reduction in force, and like causes, shall be the last man or men, including probationers, that have been appointed to any such position, until such reductions necessary shall have been accomplished. However, in the event said forces shall again be increased in number, those suspended shall be reinstated before any new appointments shall be made.

§ 21-31-71. Removal, suspension, demotion, and discharge.

No person in the classified civil service who shall have been permanently appointed or inducted into civil service under the provisions of Sections 21-31-51 through 21-31-75 shall be removed, suspended, demoted or discharged, or any combination thereof, except for cause, and only upon the written accusation of the appointing power or any citizen or taxpayer, a written statement of which accusation, in general terms, shall be served upon the accused, and a duplicate filed with the commission. The mayor may suspend a member pending the confirmation of the suspension by the regular appointing power, which shall be within three (3) days.

of the intended termination, which notice shall state the reasons for termination and inform the employee that he has the right to respond in writing to the reasons given for termination within a reasonable time and respond orally before the official charged with the responsibility of making the termination decision. Such official may, in his discretion, provide for a pretermination hearing and examination of witnesses, and if a hearing is to be held, the notice to the employee shall also set the time and place of such hearing. A duplicate of such notice shall be filed with the commission. After the employee has responded or has failed to respond within a reasonable time, the official charged with the responsibility of making the termination decision shall determine the appropriate disciplinary action, and shall notify the employee of his decision in writing at the earliest practicable date.

Where there are extraordinary circumstances or situations which require the immediate discharge or removal of an employee, such employee may be terminated without a pretermination hearing as required by this section, but such employee shall be given written notice of the specific reasons for termination within twenty-four (24) hours after the termination, and shall be given an opportunity for a hearing similar to the pretermination hearing provided in this section within twenty (20) days after the date of termination. For the purposes of this section, extraordinary situations or circumstances include, but are not limited to, circumstances where retention of the employee would result in damage to municipal property, would be detrimental to the interest of municipal government or would result in injury to the employee, to a fellow employee or to the general public.

Any person so removed, suspended, demoted, discharged or combination thereof may, within ten (10) days from the time of such disciplinary action, file with the commission a written demand for an investigation, whereupon the commission shall conduct such investigation. The investigation shall be confined to the determination of the question of whether such disciplinary action was or was not made for political or religious reasons and was or was not made in good faith for cause. After such investigation the commission may, if in its estimation the evidence is conclusive, affirm the disciplinary action, or if it shall find that the disciplinary action was made for political or religious reasons, or was not made in good faith for cause, shall order the immediate reinstatement or reemployment of such person in the office, place, position or employment from which such person was removed, suspended, demoted, discharged or combination thereof, which reinstatement shall, if the commission so provides in its discretion, be retroactive, and entitle such person to pay or compensation from the time of such disciplinary action. The commission upon such investigation may, in lieu of affirming the disciplinary action, modify the order of removal, suspension, demotion, discharge or combination thereof by directing a suspension, without pay, for a given period and subsequent restoration of duty, or by directing a demotion in classification, grade or pay, or by any combination thereof. The findings of the commission shall be certified in writing to the appointing power, and shall be forthwith enforced by such officer.

All investigations made by the commission pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be by public hearing, after reasonable written notice to the accused of the time and place of such hearing, at which hearing the accused shall be afforded an opportunity of appearing in person and by counsel, and presenting his defense. The findings of the commission shall be conclusive and binding unless either the accused or the municipality shall, within thirty (30) days from the date of the entry of such judgment or order on the minutes of the commission and notification to the accused and the municipality, appeal to the circuit court of the county within which the municipality is located. Any appeal of the judgment or order of the commission shall not act as a supersedeas of such judgment or order, but the judgment or order shall remain in effect pending a final determination of the matter on appeal. Such appeal shall be taken by serving the commission and the appellee, within thirty (30) days after the entry of such judgment or order, a written notice of appeal, stating the grounds thereof, and demanding that a certified transcript of the record and of all papers on file in the office of the commission affecting or relating to such judgment or order, be filed by the commission with such court. The commission shall, within thirty (30) days after the filing of such notice, make, certify and file such transcript with such court. The said circuit court shall thereupon proceed to hear and determine such appeal. However, such hearing shall be confined to the determination of whether the judgment or order of removal, discharge, demotion, suspension or combination thereof made by the commission, was or was not made in good faith for cause, and no appeal to such court shall be taken except upon such ground or grounds.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
2. Suspension.
3. Discharge.

1. In general.

A civil service employee cannot lawfully be disciplined twice for the same conduct. Ladnier v. City of Biloxi, 749 So. 2d 139 (Miss. Ct. App. 1999).

The statute allows the civil service commission to suspend, demote, or discharge an employee by suspending without pay or ordering a demotion in classification, grade or pay, or use any combination of the three. Beasley v. City of Gulfport, 724 So. 2d 883 (Miss. 1998).

A circuit court had jurisdiction to issue a writ of mandamus compelling a city to comply with an order of its civil service commission to reinstate an employee where the city had placed the employee in a different job position from the one she had previously held; placement of the employee in another position at the same salary was not "reinstatement" which entitles an employee to be reinstated in the position from which he or she was removed. City of Jackson v. Martin, 623 So. 2d 253 (Miss. 1993).

Community organization worker and special worker in community development department, who are employed on monthly salary basis, by municipality, operating under commission form of government and having population of more than 21,000, according to federal census of 1950, may be terminated from employment only in accordance with statutory civil service provisions (§ 21-31-71). City of Laurel v. Samuels, 469 So. 2d 530 (Miss. 1985).

The scope of review of the circuit court and of the Supreme Court as to the removal of a civil service employee is limited. It is not what the court, had it been a member of the governing authority, might have done in a particular instance, or whether or not the court thinks a mistake may have been made, but instead the criterion is whether or not from an examination of the record there exists credible evidence substantiating the action taken by the governing authority. It is upon this basis that the court determines whether or not the decision was in "good faith for cause." Courts are not empowered to supervise the intelligence, wisdom or fairness of the governing authorities, and no resources are available to a court to exercise such a function even if granted, in the extremely difficult task of determining the fitness of a particular person for a particular job. It is only when the record makes it clear there is no "substantial evidence" supporting the governing authorities' determination that a court can and must act. Mississippi State Hwy. Comm'n v. Robertson, 350 So. 2d 1348 (Miss. 1977).

As far as the municipality is concerned, the municipal civil service commission's decision is final and not subject to appeal, so that a city, mayor, and chief of police could not appeal from a civil service commission order directing the reinstatement of a policeman determined to have been discharged without cause. City of Jackson v. Little, 245 So. 2d 204 (Miss. 1971).

Where a clerk typist employed by a city police department allegedly stated in the presence of two city police officers that

"Captain 724's wife was a whore prior to the time she married Captain 724." and had made a similar statement to another police officer on the same force, there was substantial evidence to support her discharge by the chief of police and the commission's order affirming that action, and the fact that the city civil service commission's order affirming the discharge did not specifically state that the discharge was "in good faith for cause" did not render the order insufficient. City of Jackson Police Dep't v. Ruddick, 243 So. 2d 566 (Miss. 1971).

The fact that a police captain's wife's complaint about alleged statements made about her by a police department clerk typist was not in writing was insignificant, where written complaint about the clerk typist's conduct was made by the chief of police who was the appointing authority and the one who subsequently discharged the typist under the Municipal Civil Service Act. City of Jackson Police Dep't v. Ruddick, 243 So. 2d 566 (Miss. 1971).

Where a policeman was removed from his job for taking money from parking meter on the city streets and where he did not within ten days make a written demand from the Civil Service Board for an investigation and a hearing, the policeman could not later obtain a review of legality of his removal by bill in chancery court, since he did not bring himself within the exclusive procedure for review. Tennant v. Finane, 227 Miss. 410, 86 So. 2d 453 (1956).

Where a policeman was seeking review of removal from city employment, although the demurrer admitted that the policeman had not received a written accusation of the reasons for his removal, the policeman's exclusive remedy was still statutory. Tennant v. Finane, 227 Miss. 410, 86 So. 2d 453 (1956).

2. Suspension.

The statute applies to the commission form of government and, therefore, contemplates that someone other than the mayor will confirm a suspension issued by the mayor. Beasley v. City of Gulfport, 724 So. 2d 883 (Miss. 1998).

3. Discharge.

Where the chief administrative officer of a city issued an original letter of suspension of a city employee and it was confirmed by the mayor, the mayor had the authority to discharge the employee.

Beasley v. City of Gulfport, 724 So. 2d 883 (Miss. 1998).

No person holding any office, place, position or employment subject to civil service, is under any obligation to contribute to any political fund or to render any political service to any person or party whatsoever, and no person shall be removed, reduced in grade or salary, or otherwise prejudiced for refusing so to do. No public officer, whether elected or appointed, shall discharge, promote, demote or in any manner change the official rank, employment or compensation of any person under civil service, or promise or threaten so to do, for giving or withholding, or neglecting to make any contribution of money, or service, or any other valuable thing, for any political purpose. No such employee shall engage in any political campaign as a representative of any candidate or shall engage in pernicious activities, and any person so engaging in such activities shall be subject to dismissal or demotion.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Phrase "represent candidate" necessarily precludes civil servant from becoming candidate, as he would then be representing himself, for purposes of statute prohibiting civil service employee from engaging in any political campaign as representative of any candidate. Bullock

v. Mississippi Emp. Sec. Comm'n, 697 So. 2d 1147 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 697 So. 2d 1191 (Miss. 1997).

Preclearance provisions of Voting Rights Act, requiring preclearance before enforcement of any rules affecting voting rights of citizens, were not applicable to state statutes which were enacted prior to Act; preclearance provisions were not to be applied retroactively. Bullock v. Mississippi Emp. Sec. Comm'n, 697 So. 2d 1147 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 697 So. 2d 1191 (Miss. 1997).

Statute prohibiting civil service employee from engaging in any political campaign as representative of any candidate authorized mayor to fire city administrative employee once he qualified as candidate for municipal elective office. Bullock v. Mississippi Emp. Sec. Comm'n, 697 So. 2d 1147 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 697 So. 2d 1191 (Miss. 1997).

Legislature's intent throughout statute governing political services and contributions is to protect civil service employees, who by nature of their employment are subordinates to elected officials, from being pressured to contribute to any political campaign; reasonable interpretation of this legislative intent prohibits employee from running for office, as well as representing political candidate. Bullock v. Mississippi Emp. Sec. Comm'n, 697 So. 2d 1147 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 697 So. 2d 1191 (Miss. 1997).

City administrative employee who was discharged, pursuant to statute, after having qualified as candidate for municipal elective office was not entitled to unemployment benefits. Bullock v. Mississippi Emp. Sec. Comm'n, 697 So. 2d 1147 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 697 So. 2d 1191 (Miss. 1997).

City employee who was discharged after he qualified as candidate for municipal elective office did not have standing to raise claim that statute prohibiting civil service employee from engaging in political campaign as representative of candidate was unconstitutionally over broad since it encompassed candidates in any city, county, state, or federal election; employee did not argue that statute was unconstitutional as applied to him, but that it might be unconstitutional in other circumstances not involving municipal election. Bullock v. Mississippi Emp. Sec. Comm'n, 697 So. 2d 1147 (Miss. 1997), reh'g denied, 697 So. 2d 1191 (Miss. 1997).

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Where a city at the expense of property owners of the city constructed a sewer system and allowed owners of residences outside the city to use the facilities for a charge, these owners could not prevent the city from disconnecting its line from their line at the city limits to enforce the charged levied. Wells v. City of Jackson, 223 Miss. 228, 77 So. 2d 925 (1955).

§ 21-33-3. Municipal tax forms.

The state tax commission shall annually prepare forms for the personal property assessment rolls, and each two years, or annually as required, prepare forms for the real property assessment rolls. The forms so prescribed shall be printed, ruled, and headed as to be suitable for their respective purposes and to enable the municipal officers to comply with the tax laws of this state applicable to municipalities. A sample of the forms for the real and personal assessment rolls shall be sent by mail to the mayor and to the clerk of every municipality not later than the first day of October of each year.

The forms shall be so made that the respective municipalities may require such additional information, make such additions and add such further details as permitted by Sections 21-33-1 through 21-33-85, but the general and basic arrangement of such forms shall not be changed.

The municipal authorities shall furnish their respective officers with a sufficient quantity of each of said forms, and may purchase the same or have them printed, as provided by law.

It is the purpose of this section that municipal forms relating to assessment and taxes be generally uniform throughout the state.

§ 21-33-5. Form of land assessment roll.

The governing authorities of each municipality shall prescribe by order the form of the land assessment roll, adhering to the basic form prescribed by the state tax commission which shall be similar to the form prescribed for and used by county tax assessors for the assessment of municipal lands. When a municipality has added territory, the roll used for the assessment of lands in such added territory shall be generally in the form of the roll used in the assessment of such lands by the county, and be on sheets of the same size.

The land roll shall contain space or columns for the name of the owner, for the name of the subdivision, survey or addition, for block and lot numbers and, if required, for the section, township and range. It shall contain a column to show the value of any buildings, structures or improvements, and separately a column to show the value of the lands, and the total value.

In addition to the columns above specified, the governing authorities may provide columns to show the number of the tax receipt, the amount of ad valorem taxes collected, and the amounts collected for any special improvement or improvements.

Municipalities using accounting machines equipment may adopt such forms as may be required for the use of such equipment, provided that the information required herein is substantially set forth on said forms.

Court's decision regarding recusal of a civil service commissioner. Thomas, July 1, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0277.

§ 21-33-7. Form of personal assessment roll.

The governing authorities of each municipality shall prescribe by order the form of the personal assessment roll, which shall generally be in the form prescribed for and used by the counties for the assessment of personal property. Additional columns may be provided if deemed convenient and necessary.

SOURCES: Codes, 1942, § 3742-11; Laws, 1938, Ex. Sess., ch. 19; Laws, 1950, ch. 492, § 11, eff from and after July 1, 1950.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

If the board of aldermen wishes not to go forward with an election on the issuance of bonds, the board in its discretion may state that intention in the minutes or may take no further action. Tanner, Feb. 14, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0039.

Where a petition has been filed, the board may not issue bonds unless the § 21-33-9. Manner of municipal assessment.

The assessment of all real and personal property in any municipality subject to taxation, except such property as is required by law to be assessed by the state railroad assessors, shall be made by the municipal assessor, by one (1) of the following methods:

(a) The governing authorities of any municipality may provide that the assessor shall copy from the county assessment rolls of real and personal property, that portion of the assessment rolls which embraces property, or persons, within the municipality. The copy may be made at any time after the county assessment rolls are filed with the clerk of the board of supervisors, by the county tax assessor.

(b) The governing authorities of any municipality may provide for a separate assessment to be made each year, by its assessor, of all taxable personal property, and each year, or each two (2) years, of all taxable real property, including buildings, improvements, structures or other interests therein.

If the governing authorities provide for a separate assessment by the assessor, as provided by paragraph (b) above, the assessor shall use tax lists for both real and personal property generally the same as the tax lists prescribed for county assessors.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) to the contrary, the governing authorities of any municipality which is located within a county having completed a countywide reappraisal approved by the state tax commission and which has been furnished a true copy of that part of the county assessment roll containing the property located within the municipality as provided in Section 27-35-167 shall adopt such assessment roll for its assessment purposes.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

In an action challenging the validity of certain construction and renovation general obligation school bonds, the filing of a certified copy of the resolution adopted by the school district's board of trustees with the governing authority of the municipality fulfilled the requirement of § 37-59-11, even though the incorporation in full of the resolution in the minutes of the governing authority would have been the better practice; nor did the assessment of property for taxes pursuant to § 21-33-9 violate the Mississippi Constitution, art. 4, § 112, where the assessment was not void on its face and where there was nothing showing that the orders of the municipality's governing body or the orders of the county board of supervisors in approving the assessments were void. Walters v. Validation of $3,750,000.00 Sch. Bonds of Petal Mun. Separate Sch. Dist., 364 So. 2d 274 (Miss. 1978).

The governing authority of any municipality which adopts the part of the county assessment roll containing the property located within the municipality as provided in Sections 21-33-9 and 27-35-167 shall not correct or revise such assessment roll except for the purpose of conforming the municipal assessment roll to corrections or revisions made to the county assessment roll. The governing authority of such municipality shall not meet to hear objections to the assessment roll. All objections to the municipal assessment roll shall be heard by the board of supervisors at the time and in the manner that objections to the county assessment roll are heard. § 21-33-11. Assessment of public utilities and added territory.

The municipal assessment of railroad property, and other property required by law to be assessed by the state railroad assessors, shall be made by the assessor by copying from the assessment roll of such property, filed with the clerk of the board of supervisors, the assessment of all the property situated inside the municipality. Where any municipality has added territory, the assessor shall likewise copy, from the roll filed with the clerk of the board of supervisors, the assessment of all the property situated within such added territory constituting, with a municipality, a separate school district. The assessment so copied shall be the legal assessment for the municipality, and the municipal separate school district, and, when certified by the clerk and placed in the hands of the municipal tax collector, shall be his warrant for the collection of municipal and separate school district ad valorem taxes.

The governing authorities of any municipality may present to the state assessors of railroads orally or in writing at any time before the assessment is made, information with respect to the property owned by any public utility, its value and the assessment of same.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In General.

The adoption of a rule that property in a territory added to a municipal separate school district and lying outside the municipality should be assessed differently than property lying within the municipality would result in a constitutionally impermissible lack of uniformity and equality, despite the contention that § 21-33-11 provided the exclusive method for the assessment for school taxes of such lands and that assessments appearing on the county assessment rolls were conclusive upon the municipal taxing authorities. Thompson v. Anding, 370 So. 2d 1335 (Miss. 1979).

§ 21-33-13. Assessment of private car companies.

The clerk, or tax collector, of every municipality shall copy from the roll or schedule filed with the clerk of the board of supervisors by the state tax commission the assessment of private car companies, and he shall determine the amount by taking the number of miles of each railroad over which the cars of any company, traveled through the respective municipalities, and the number of miles of each railroad over which the cars of any such company traveled which lies in any separate, adjacent, annexed territory constituting with a municipality a separate school district. He shall copy the assessed value per mile of each company over any railroad or railroads, operating through such municipality and separate, adjacent, annexed territory, and shall determine the assessment of each company by multiplying the valuation of each company apportioned to each mile of railroad by the number of miles of railroad over which the cars of any such company have traveled lying in such municipality or separate, adjacent, annexed territory. The assessment so determined, plus the value of any other property assessed, shall constitute the assessment of the property of the respective companies within the municipality and in the separate, adjacent, annexed territory constituting a separate school district. All such copies and assessments made as herein provided shall be placed in the hands of the municipal tax collector and be his warrant for the collection of municipal and separate school district taxes.

The assessor shall assess all the lands in the municipality which he serves, and all the land in any separate territory outside the municipality, but in the separate school district. He shall enter the assessments on the roll and he shall commence the assessment with the lowest number of squares or blocks and lots or other subdivisions, and proceeding in numerical order with all the lots in a square or block, and all the squares in the municipality, until complete. He shall show in the recapitulation the total of each and every column in the entire roll.

§ 21-33-27. Correction and revision of municipal assessment roll.

Except as otherwise provided in Section 21-33-10, it shall be the duty of the governing authorities of each municipality to correct and revise the municipal land assessment roll, including land in any added territory, in the same manner as is required of boards of supervisors in correcting and revising the county land assessment roll, as provided by general law. The clerk shall assist the governing authorities of the municipality in the revision, correction and preparation of the assessment roll, and shall do any and all things in connection therewith, and shall perform the same duties with respect to said roll as is generally required of the clerk of the board of supervisors in making the county land assessment roll.

All of the aforesaid provisions relating to the correcting and revising of the land roll shall apply to the correcting and revising of the personal roll, so far as applicable.

Except as otherwise provided in Section 21-33-10, the governing authorities of every municipality shall, at a regular or special meeting to be held in September or October in each year (unless a different time be fixed by order), receive the assessment rolls of real and personal property from the assessor and shall proceed to change, correct, revise, and equalize said assessments in the same manner and with the same powers as is provided for the equalization of assessments by county boards of supervisors. When the equalization has been completed, the governing authorities shall give ten (10) days' notice of the regular or special meeting at which objections to such assessments will be heard. The Notice shall be given by publication at least one (1) time in a legal newspaper, if there be one published in the municipality, and if no such newspaper be published in the municipality, the notice shall be given by posting written notices thereof in five (5) or more public places in the municipality.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

A taxpayer action challenging the assessment of property added to a municipal separate school district and lying outside the municipality could not be maintained as a class action where the claims of the purported class members related to individually owned parcels of real estate separate and distinct from each other; the remedy of each of these persons, as landowners, was by exercising the statutory right of appeal. *Thompson v. § 21-33-41. Clerk to make copy of rolls.

When the roll is finally completed by the governing authorities of the municipality, in accordance with law, the clerk shall make a true and correct copy of each roll, including the assessment of property in any added territory, and the original shall be retained and carefully preserved by him as a public record in his office. The clerk shall make the proper extensions of the total amount of property assessed to every taxpayer, and the total assessment of each parcel or tract of land, both within the municipality and in the added territory, if there be any. The clerk shall add truly and correctly every page of the copy, and carry the results thereof to the recapitulation, and he shall add said recapitulation and attach his certificate to the roll, or rolls, verifying the truth and correctness of all calculations and entries in the copy. The copy of the assessment rolls, of both real and personal property, as hereby provided, shall be placed in the hands of the tax collector and be his warrant for the collection of municipal and separate school district ad valorem taxes.

§ 21-33-43. Change of assessments.

Except as otherwise provided in Section 21-33-10, the governing authorities of any municipality shall have the power to change assessments, after the assessment roll, or rolls, of real and personal property have been finally approved, but not after the expiration of the fiscal year in which the taxes on said assessments are due and payable. The assessments may be reduced or increased for the same reasons and in like manner, as provided by law for the reduction and/or increasing of county assessments. Such change shall not be submitted to the state tax commission for approval.

Where a reduction is sought, the governing authorities shall require the owner of the property, or his duly authorized agent or attorney, to make a suitable application or petition, and where an increase is sought the application or petition shall be made by the assessor. The governing authorities shall have the right and power to consider the application or petition and to do any and all things necessary to determine whether or not it shall be allowed, and shall adopt an order rejecting or approving the application or petition. Said authorities may adopt an order to change the assessment so as to increase or decrease the assessment to the fair value of the property, or to cause the taxes to be charged to the person or property liable therefor.

The clerk shall carefully file and preserve, as a public record, in his office, all petitions or applications, and exhibits thereto, for either an increase or decrease in assessments as herein provided, for a period of three (3) years after the expiration of the fiscal year in which such petitions or applications were filed.

§ 21-33-45. Levy of municipal ad valorem taxes.

The governing authorities of each municipality of this state shall, either at their regular meeting in September of each year or not later than ten (10) days after the final approval of the assessment rolls, levy the municipal ad valorem taxes for the fiscal year next succeeding, and shall, by resolution, fix the tax rate or levy for the municipality and for any other taxing districts of which the municipality may be a part. The rates or levies for the municipality or for any such taxing district shall be expressed in mills or a decimal fraction of a mill, which tax rates, or levies, shall determine the ad valorem taxes to be collected upon each dollar of valuation upon the assessment rolls of the municipality for municipal taxes, and to be collected upon each dollar of valuation as shown upon the assessment rolls of the municipality for each such taxing district, except as to such values as may be exempt, in whole or in part, from certain tax rates or levies. If the rates or levies for the municipality or taxing district are an increase from the previous fiscal year, then the proposed rate or levy increase shall be advertised in accordance with Sections 27-39-203 and 27-39-205.

In making the levy of taxes, the governing authorities shall specify in such resolution the levy for each purpose as follows:

(a) For general revenue purposes and for general improvements, as authorized by Section 27-39-307.

(b) For school purposes, including all maintenance levies, whether made against the property within such municipality, or within any taxing district embraced in such municipality, as authorized by Section 27-39-307 and Section 37-57-3 et seq.

(c) For municipal bonds and interest thereon, for school bonds and interest thereon, separately for municipal-wide bonds and for the bonds of each school district.

(d) For municipal-wide bonds and interest thereon, other than for school bonds.

(e) For loans, notes or any other obligation, and the interest thereon, if permitted by law.

(f) For special improvement or special benefit levies, as now authorized by law.

(g) For any other purpose for which a levy is lawfully made. If any municipal-wide levy is made for any general or special purpose under the provisions of any law other than Section 27-39-307 each such levy shall be separately stated in the resolution, and the law authorizing same shall be expressly stated therein.

If the governing authorities of any municipality shall not levy the municipal taxes and the district taxes at its regular September meeting, such governing authorities shall levy the same at an adjourned or special meeting not later than ten (10) days after the final approval of the assessment rolls. However, that if such levy be not made on or before September 15 then road and bridge privilege tax license plates may be issued by the tax collector or State Tax Commission, as the case may be, for motor vehicles as defined in the Motor Vehicle Ad Valorem Tax Law of 1958 (Section 27-51-1 et seq.), without collecting or requiring proof of payment of municipal ad valorem taxes until such levy is duly certified to him, and for twenty-four (24) hours thereafter.

In the case of a municipality operating under a special or private charter providing for or authorizing the assessment, levying and collection of ad valorem taxes prior to October in each year, ad valorem taxes for such municipality shall be levied at the time prescribed or authorized by such special or private charter, unless the governing authority of such municipality by resolution adopted and spread of record in its minutes elect to levy ad valorem taxes at the time prescribed hereinbefore in this section. In any event, however, all ad valorem taxes levied by any municipality in this state, shall be levied in the manner required herein regardless of the time when such taxes are levied.

§ 21-33-47. Certification of tax levy; publishing of same; clerks' liability.

When the governing authorities of any municipality shall have made the levy of municipal taxes by resolution, or for any other taxing district of which the said municipality is a part by resolution, the clerk of the municipality shall thereupon immediately certify the same to the tax collector of the municipality, or such other taxing district of which the municipality may be a part, and a copy thereof to the State Auditor, as the head of the State Department of Audit.

When a resolution levying ad valorem taxes has been finally adopted by the governing authorities of any municipality embracing, in whole or in part, any other taxing district of which such municipality is a part, the clerk of such municipality shall immediately certify a copy of such resolution to the State Tax Commission, as the law directs. The clerk shall have the resolution of the governing authorities making the levy printed within two (2) weeks after it is entered on the minutes of such governing authorities, and he shall furnish any taxpayer with a copy thereof, upon request. If a newspaper is published within such municipality, then such resolution shall be published in its entirety, at least one (1) time, within ten (10) days after its adoption. Instead of publishing the resolution in its entirety, the publication of the resolution may be made as provided in Section 21-17-19. If no newspaper be published within such municipality, then a copy of such resolution, in its entirety, shall be posted by such municipal clerk in at least three (3) public places in such municipality, within ten (10) days after its adoption.

The clerk shall be liable on his bond for any damages sustained by his failure to comply with the requirements of this section. However, failure to thus publish or post the same shall not affect the validity of the levy.

(1) The governing authorities of each municipality shall furnish their tax collector a sufficient number of tax receipts, in books, printed in triplicate, in blank form, numbered serially by the printer. The clerk shall first make a record of all such receipts by numbers, and shall take the tax collector's receipt therefor, and shall thereafter, at the end of the fiscal year, credit the tax collector with all unused receipts.

Such tax receipts shall be prepared and printed so as to show the total assessment of the property on which the taxes are collected, together with a description of the property, the line and page of the assessment roll where the assessment is listed, and the amount, if any, shown as a home exemption, if the property be an exempt home. They shall show the rate of levy, separately for general current expenses and maintenance taxes, for school maintenance taxes, for bonds, interest, notes or other obligations, and the total tax levy, and the total amount of all taxes received. If the property described in the receipt be an exempt home, there shall be shown the additional amount of taxes which would have been collected had the home not been exempt, which additional amount shall be separately stated.

The said tax receipts may contain such other and additional statements as the governing authorities of the municipality may prescribe and shall generally comply with the requirements of Sections 27-41-1 through 27-41-89, Mississippi Code of 1972, governing the installment payment of taxes.

(2) As to any real property on which taxes for any previous year were not paid, the tax collector shall give notice of the delinquent taxes by stamping on the current tax receipt the fact that previous taxes are delinquent. The tax collector shall not accept payment of current year taxes for real property which has sold for delinquent taxes until the taxpayer provides the tax collector with proof that the tax sales for such real property for the previous two (2) years have been redeemed in the chancery clerk's office. Failure of the tax collector to stamp tax receipts shall not void any tax sale. The tax collector shall have no liability for errors made in complying with the provisions of this subsection if such tax collector makes a good faith effort to comply with such provisions.

A municipal tax collector collects the taxes in the same manner and under the same penalties as state and county taxes are collected. Vanzandt v. Town of Braxton, 194 Miss. 863, 14 So. 2d 222 (1943).

The fact that this section [Code 1942, § 3742-31], when construed with § 3232, Code of 1930, requires the collector to receive payment of taxes in currency or state warrants, does not forbid his taking tentatively checks, and it cannot, therefore, be presumed that the collector paid into an insolvent depository bank only cash so as to establish a preference against the assets of the bank.

A municipal tax collector is required to collect municipal taxes at the time and in the manner and under the penalties that the state or county collector is required to act; when suit is brought for delinquent taxes ten per cent damages are collectible when prayed for in the bill. State ex rel. Roberson v. Columbus & G.R.R., 129 Miss. 882, 93 So. 362 (1922).

Where a town marshal is also tax collector and is allowed a monthly salary as marshal and a per centum to be retained out of taxes collected and for a series of months receives his salary and pays over all taxes, this will be deemed a voluntary payment, and he cannot afterwards recover commissions. Town of Wesson v. Collins, 72 Miss. 844, 18 So. 360 (1895).

A city tax collector under legal duty to pay over taxes to the treasurer is not relieved of liability on his bond for funds lost due to failure of the bank in which he has deposited them, although he had been notified by the mayor and finance committee of the city council being a majority of the council, to deposit it at the city's risk. Adams v. Lee, 72 Miss. 281, 16 So. 243 (1894).

A case where it is held the tax collector is not relieved from paying taxes collected by him to the treasurer although he has lost such money by virtue of the failure of a bank in which he deposited said collections under the direction of the mayor and finance committee of the city council, which constituted a majority of the council. Adams v. Lee, 72 Miss. 281, 16 So. 243 (1894).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Section 21-33-53 authorizes a municipality to use the collection of personal ad valorem taxes as set forth in Section 27-41-101 et seq., and the chief of police or his designee may exercise the powers and discharge the duties imposed upon the sheriff by Section 27-41-107 to collect municipal taxes. Cole, Feb. 14, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0037.

§ 21-33-55. Property escaping taxation; assessment.

The governing authorities of all municipalities in this state, including private charter municipalities, are hereby authorized and empowered to cause all taxable property, whether real or personal, within the corporate limits, and liable to taxation, which from any cause has escaped taxation within the past seven (7) years, to be assessed for taxes for each year in which such property has escaped taxation. In all cases of the assessment of property under this section, the governing authorities of any municipality ordering such assessment shall fix a day for the hearing of objections to such assessment, and shall cause the municipal clerk to give to the property owner ten (10) days' written notice, by mail, if the post office address of the owner be known; if the post office address of the owner be unknown, notice shall be given by posting notice for at least ten (10) days in five (5) public places in the municipality, of the time and place for the hearing of objections to such assessment.

In the event it be discovered that the property of any railroad, or other public service corporation required by law to be assessed by the state railroad assessors, has escaped assessment and taxation for any reason, the assessor, upon his own motion, or upon request of the governing authorities of the municipality, shall notify the state railroad assessors of such fact, and state the name of the owner and the kind of property escaping assessment and taxation. The state railroad assessors shall proceed to assess such property as provided by Section 27-35-325, Mississippi Code of 1972.

No leasehold interest in any property, real or personal, belonging to the state of Mississippi, counties, districts, municipalities or any political subdivisions, shall be subjected to ad valorem taxation for any past year on the basis of it having been omitted from the ad valorem tax rolls.

Assessment of back taxes against farm land owned by college was void where assessment was made by mayor and commissioners of the municipality and not by the assessor as required by law. City of Jackson v. Belhaven College, 195 Miss. 734, 15 So. 2d 621 (1943).

Attempted assessment of back taxes against farm land owned by, and used in the operation of, college by mayor and commissioners of municipality was void for failure to adjudicate necessary jurisdictional fact that 10 days' notice in writing was given to the property owner as required by law. *City of Jackson v. ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Miss. Code Section 21-33-55 addresses issue of statute of limitations on property escaping assessment of taxation; it is assessable for seven years past; for property which has been assessed and on which tax has been levied, there appears to be no time limit on collection. Sanders, Mar. 4, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0100.

§ 21-33-59. Void sales.

In all cases where property situated within a municipality has been sold for delinquent taxes, if it shall afterward appear to the governing authorities of such municipality that such sale was void on account of an insufficient or erroneous description, or for other cause, the governing authorities of such municipality may, by resolution entered upon their minutes, declare such sale to be void and thereby relinquish the title or claim of the municipality acquired under or by virtue of such void sale. In such event the governing authorities of such municipality shall be authorized and empowered to cause such property to be properly and legally assessed for each of the years for which such taxes have not been paid, and shall be authorized and empowered to change, revise, correct and revalue such property for each of the years for which such taxes have not been paid, and shall be authorized and empowered to enter a proper order directing that such assessments be changed, revised and corrected, and to cause such changed, revised and corrected assessments to be entered upon the assessment roll in force for the year in which such order is entered. In all such cases notice of such change and correction in the assessment, or of such new assessment, shall be given to the property owner in the manner provided by law, and in such notice a date shall be fixed for hearing objections to such assessment. Such notice may be waived, however, by the property owner. All objections to such changes or new assessments shall be heard at the time designated therefor in such notice, and the governing authorities of such municipality shall then be authorized to enter an order approving such assessments and making the same final, and such property may be sold for such taxes, if necessary, in accordance with law.

This section and Section 21-33-57 shall also apply to all cases of void sales of property for taxes, and the governing authorities, in all cases where a tax sale is void from any cause, may proceed to cause a legal sale to be made, and to cause property to be assessed in all cases after a void sale where assessment may have become necessary, and to cause sale to be made, if necessary, by complying with Sections 21-33-55 and 21-33-57.

The owner, or any person for him with his consent, or any person interested in the land sold for taxes, shall have two years from the date of sale in which to redeem such real property from such sale, redemption to be made by paying the taxes, damages and costs, as provided by law for the redemption of land from tax sales, saving, however, to infants and persons of unsound mind, whose real property may be sold for taxes, the right to redeem the same within two years after attaining full age or being restored to sanity, from the municipality or any purchaser thereof, on the basis herein prescribed, and on their paying the value of any permanent improvements on the land made after the expiration of two years from the date of sale of the real property for taxes. Upon such payment to the clerk of the municipality, he shall execute to the person redeeming the real property a release of all claim or title of the municipality or purchaser to such real property, which said release shall be attested by the seal of the municipality, and shall be entitled to be recorded without acknowledgment, as deeds are recorded. Said release when so executed and attested shall operate as a quitclaim on the part of the municipality or purchaser of any right or title under said tax sale.

The term "taxes" as used in Sections 21-33-55 through 21-33-61 shall include special improvement assessments or any installment thereof that may be delinquent.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

A redeeming landowner is required to pay not only the taxes for which the land was sold but also any taxes due after the sale. Equity Servs. Co. v. Hamilton, 257 So. 2d 201 (Miss. 1972).

The purchaser at a municipal tax sale properly protected its interest by paying taxes as they became due, and the city tax collector was under a duty to require repayment of the money advanced by the purchaser together with statutory interest and damages from the redeeming landowner. Equity Servs. Co. v. Hamilton, 257 So. 2d 201 (Miss. 1972).

Where a notice to owners to redeem property sold for taxes directed that redemption be made at the tax collector's office, the property was redeemed by such payment to the city tax collector, even though this section [Code 1942, § 3742-29] requires that taxes due be paid to the city clerk. Equity Servs. Co. v. Hamilton, 257 So. 2d 201 (Miss. 1972).

In an action by the purchaser at a municipal tax sale to confirm tax title, where the tax sale purchaser paid taxes on the land prior to redemption, the city was not required to repay the owners taxes they paid, nor were the owners required to pay an additional sum, and the money paid by the owners for redemption belonged to the purchaser. Equity Servs. Co. v. Hamilton, 257 So. 2d 201 (Miss. 1972).

2.-5. [Reserved for future use.]

6. Under former law.

Statutes allowing land to be redeemed from tax sales are to be liberally construed in favor of the person seeking to redeem, and an owner's offer to redeem from any and all tax sales within the redemption period, with sufficient money upon his person with which to effect such redemption, includes every form of taxes and takes away from the taxing authorities the power to convey title to anyone else pursuant to tax sales from which no redemption had actually been accomplished by reason of neglect or otherwise of the custodian of the tax sale records. James v. Tax Inv. Co., 206 Miss. 605, 40 So. 2d 539 (1949).

Where an uneducated and illiterate Negro woman appeared at the office of the chancery clerk to pay the back taxes on her property and she was informed only of the most recent tax sale and not of a previous sale for delinquent tax in a prior year, her efforts to pay all back taxes, having the money on her person with which to do so, was sufficient to effect redemption and took away from the taxing authorities the power to convey the title to her property under the first tax sale. James v. Tax Inv. Co., 206 Miss. 605, 40 So. 2d 539 (1949).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Landowner who fails to redeem property sold at municipal tax sale within prescribed two year period does not acquire any additional redemption rights due to fact that tax sale purchaser has not yet requested tax deed to property in question; landowner's payment of county taxes on property sold at municipal tax sale would have no effect on city's ability to issue tax deed for non-payment of municipal taxes after prescribed statutory redemption period has expired. Bardwell, March 28, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0226.

§ 21-33-63. Sale for taxes; sale list.

Sales for the nonpayment of municipal taxes, both ad valorem and for special improvements, shall be made by the tax collector at such place, within the corporate limits, as the governing authorities may direct. The sale of real estate for ad valorem taxes and special improvement assessments and sale of personal property shall be made upon the same notice, at the same time, and in the same manner as provided by law for sales of like property for unpaid state and county taxes.

The lists of lands sold for taxes by the municipality shall be made as required to be made by the state and county collector, and shall be filed with the municipal clerk within twenty days after the tax sale, and shall there remain, subject to redemption for the same length of time and in the same manner as prescribed for the redemption of lands sold for state and county taxes, with the same saving to infants and persons of unsound mind. Said lists shall have the same force and effect, and confer the same right and entitle the purchasers to the same remedies, as lists made for delinquent taxes by the state and county tax collector. Such title shall be subservient, however, to a title acquired under a sale for state and county taxes.

One copy of the list of land so sold shall be filed within thirty days of such sale with the chancery clerk of the county in which said municipality is located, and the chancery clerk shall file and index said list among the land records of his county, as other tax sales are listed. However, the failure of the clerk so to file such list as herein prescribed shall not affect the validity of such tax sale.

Purchaser of tax title is not an innocent purchaser for value, but takes title subject to all its infirmities. James v. Shaffer, 202 Miss. 565, 32 So. 2d 749 (1947).

A city granted a charter prior to the effective date of a general statute that tax conveyances to a municipality be made by list, and whose charter provides no method by which the city should authenticate such sales, was competent to choose conveyance to the city by tax deed with the same effect as tax deeds to individuals. Hawkins v. City of W. Point, 200 Miss. 616, 27 So. 2d 549 (1946).

This section was inapplicable to a tax sale made under a special municipal charter provision which set a different time for tax sales than that provided by § 3249, Code 1930, since under § 2623 of the Code, the ordinance controlled and not the Code section. Lear v. Hendrix, 186 Miss. 289, 187 So. 746 (1939).

Tax sale for delinquent municipal taxes under which municipality acquired the land in question was not void because the city tax collector did not immediately after the sale convey it to the city and deposit the deed with the city clerk to remain for two years as provided by municipal ordinance, where by statute, the list of tax sales conveyed the title to the city. Lear v. Hendrix, 186 Miss. 289, 187 So. 746 (1939).

Under statutes making title acquired under municipal tax sale subservient to that acquired under sale for State and county taxes and giving municipality which purchased at its own sale right to redeem from State and county taxes, city could not acquire title by tax sale while property was charged with State and county taxes, and hence could not claim title as against purchaser from State because city purchased at sale for city taxes one day before State purchased at sale for State and county taxes. City of Jackson v. Howie, 179 Miss. 251, 175 So. 198 (1937).

Where land was sold to city for city taxes, including special municipal benefit assessment, and, one day later, to State for State and county taxes, and redemption period expired, city's claim was inchoate, under statutes, and became worthless, and hence city's foreclosure of assessment lien did not extinguish lien, but, under other statutes, lien was effective on resale by State. City of Jackson v. Howie, 179 Miss. 251, 175 So. 198 (1937).

Statute, authorizing sales for nonpayment of municipal taxes in manner provided by law for sales of like property for unpaid State and county taxes, does not authorize sale of land for municipal taxes which was not sold on regular day, at a time thereafter designated by order of mayor and board of aldermen. Hemphill v. Wofford, 178 Miss. 687, 173 So. 426 (1937).

Municipality's sale, to third person, of land which town had purchased for municipal taxes at sale held at time provided by statute, would be set aside on owner's payment of municipal taxes, expense incurred by municipality in making sale, and money paid by municipality in redeeming property from sale to State for unpaid county and State taxes, notwithstanding that sale to third person was made on date fixed by order of mayor and board of aldermen, since municipality was without power to fix another day for sale of land not sold at time fixed by statute. Hemphill v. Wofford, 178 Miss. 687, 173 So. 426 (1937).

City introducing list of lands sold to the city for taxes made out a prima facie case that sales to city were valid. Alvis v. Hicks, 150 Miss. 306, 116 So. 612 (1928).

Statute exempting property belonging to municipality includes land acquired by enforcement of collection of municipal taxes. Alvis v. Hicks, 150 Miss. 306, 116 So. 612 (1928).

Parties alleging that city, claiming title to lots through tax sale, violated statute regarding fixing place for tax sale had burden of proving same. Alvis v. Hicks, 150 Miss. 306, 116 So. 612 (1928).

The charter of a city not governed by the Code chapter on municipalities could not prior to the change made by the Act of 1900 (Laws, p. 79), be amended by the municipality under Code 1892, § 3039, in respect to the day of sale for municipal taxes in a manner "not consistent with" the provisions of this section making the day of sale for municipalities governed by said chapter the same as that for state and county taxes, under § 3813 of said code, and a municipal tax sale on a different day named in amendment is void. O'Flinn v. McInnis, 80 Miss. 125, 31 So. 584 (1902).

In the ejectment by the grantee in a municipal tax deed which was not filed with the clerk as required by this section, the defendant may show the facts to entitle him to protection as a bona fide purchaser without notice under Code 1892, § 2458 (Code 1906, § 2788), and cannot maintain a subsequent bill for cancellation on the theory that such facts constitute an equitable defense. Sintes v. Barber, 78 Miss. 585, 29 So. 403 (1901).

A municipal tax deed which was filed with the municipal clerk there to remain subject to redemption for two years from date of sale, is void for noncompliance with this section. Sintes v. Barber, 78 Miss. 585, 29 So. 403 (1901).

A municipal tax deed under which plaintiff claims and which was not filed with the clerk in accordance with this section and the next succeeding section, is available as defense in ejectment and is not such an equitable defense as will support a subsequent bill for cancellation. Sintes v. Barber, 78 Miss. 585, 29 So. 403 (1901).

A municipal tax sale is invalid when the municipal authorities have failed to designate a place for making the same as required by this section. Nixon v. City of Biloxi, 76 Miss. 810, 25 So. 664 (1899).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

If a city has acquired 16th Section property for the non-payment of municipal taxes, one the sale has matured, the city is the owner of the leasehold and, at that point, may pay the lease for the balance of the term of the lease, convey the leasehold to a third party, or relinquish the lease to the school board by way of settling the claim against the city for lease payments and avoiding liability therefore. Myers, January 16, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0837.

Since property should not be sold again once it has been struck to the state at a tax sale, a subsequent municipal tax sale would be void and the purchase would be entitled to a refund of the purchase price paid at the sale, but would not be entitled to payment of interest, except that portion of the purchase price representing the interest due on the taxes. Myers, January 15, 1998, A.G. Op. #97-0836.

If, from any cause, a sale of any land for municipal taxes, both ad valorem and for special improvements, or any installment thereof, that may be delinquent, which is liable to such sale shall not be made at the time appointed by law for such sale, it may be sold thereafter, in the same or a subsequent year, at any time designated therefor by order of the governing authorities of the municipality in which such land may be situated. Notice of a sale so ordered shall be given by advertising it in the manner prescribed by law for the sale of land for state and county taxes, and the sale shall be made at the same place and be subject to all the provisions of law applicable to such sales made at the time appointed by law. Lists of lands sold to the municipality and to individuals shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the municipality within the same relative period of time after the sale as is allowed by law for filing such lists after tax sales made at the regular time, and the clerk shall at once record them. Such lists shall be as valid and have the same effect and be subject to all the provisions of the law applicable to such lists made of lands sold at the regular sale for taxes.

§ 21-33-69. Lands struck off to the municipality.

Except as otherwise provided in Section 27-41-2, where lands are offered for sale for unpaid municipal taxes or special improvement taxes or municipal separate school district taxes, and a person will not bid therefor the amount of taxes, damages, and costs due, the same shall be struck off to the municipality and otherwise, where applicable, dealt with as lands are which are sold to the state for delinquent state and county taxes. The governing authorities shall be authorized to pay the state and county taxes on lands thus acquired by the municipality, and to collect the money thus paid, with the same damages and interest allowed individuals in similar cases under the general revenue laws of the state thereon from the date of such payment, upon the redemption of the lands from the municipal sale.

Where lands have heretofore been, or may hereafter be struck off to a municipality for unpaid municipal taxes or special improvement taxes or municipal separate school districts taxes, and such lands have also been sold or struck off to an individual or to the state for unpaid state, county, or taxing district taxes, the governing authorities of such municipality are hereby authorized to redeem such lands from the sale for delinquent state, county, or taxing district taxes by paying to the chancery clerk of the county where such lands are situated the amount necessary to redeem same and to collect the money thus paid, together with interest thereon at the rate of six percent (6%) per annum from the date of such payment, upon the redemption of such lands from the municipal sale. Such lands may be redeemed from the municipal sale for unpaid municipal taxes or special improvement taxes by the owner or other person interested in such lands, including the person to whom such lands were struck off or sold at the sale for state, county, or taxing district taxes.

When lands have heretofore or may hereafter be struck off to a municipality for unpaid municipal taxes or special improvement taxes or municipal separate school district taxes, and the title to such lands has matured or may hereafter mature in the state by virtue of a sale for unpaid state, county, or taxing district taxes, the governing authorities of such municipality may purchase said lands from the state at a price to be agreed upon by the Secretary of State, Governor, or other lawful authority. Upon payment of such amounts into the State Treasury, the state's title to said lands shall be conveyed to the said municipality by a patent, or patents, executed and delivered as provided by law in cases of sales of state lands to individuals.

In view of this and other sections, a formal deed from the tax collector to the city after sale of land for taxes was not required; the lists of tax sales conveyed title to the city. Lear v. Hendrix, 186 Miss. 289, 187 So. 746 (1939).

Under statutes making title acquired under municipal tax sale subservient to that acquired under sale for State and county taxes and giving municipality which purchased at its own sale right to redeem from State and county taxes, city could not acquire title by tax sale while property was charged with State and county taxes, and hence could not claim title as against purchaser from State because city purchased at sale for city taxes one day before State purchased at sale for State and county taxes. City of Jackson v. Howie, 179 Miss. 251, 175 So. 198 (1937).

Where land was sold to city for city taxes, including special municipal benefit assessment, and, one day later, to State for State and county taxes, and redemption period expired, city's claim was inchoate, under statutes, and became worthless, and hence city's foreclosure of assessment lien did not extinguish lien, but, under other statutes, lien was effective on resale by State. City of Jackson v. Howie, 179 Miss. 251, 175 So. 198 (1937).

A municipality which allegedly was permitted to redeem lands sold for State and county taxes by virtue of statute was not entitled to notice of tax sale required by statutes to be sent by clerk of chancery court to owners and to holders of liens. City of Jackson v. Nunn, 178 Miss. 665, 174 So. 578 (1937).

Assessment roll in office of city tax collector, in handwriting of city clerk and collector, was sufficiently identified without certificate. Shelby v. Burns, 153 Miss. 392, 121 So. 113 (1929).

A city to whom for want of a bidder land is struck off at a sale for municipal taxes is not a "purchaser" with right to lien, where the sale is illegal. Hodge Ship Bldg. Co. v. City of Moss Point, 144 Miss. 657, 110 So. 227 (1926).

§ 21-33-71. Taxing of lands acquired by municipality.

When the state, county, or taxing district taxes are paid by a municipality, or where lands are redeemed or purchased by a municipality, as provided in Section 21-33-69, such lands shall not be exempt from state, county, or other taxing district taxes but shall be liable for such taxes the same as if owned by an individual. It shall be the duty of the tax assessor to assess lands purchased pursuant to the authority granted in Section 29-1-51, Mississippi Code of 1972, for taxes in the same manner as other lands are assessed and if the taxes are not paid when due, it shall be the duty of the tax collector to sell said land for the delinquent taxes due and unpaid at the time and in the manner provided by law for the sale of lands for delinquent taxes.

Any municipality in the state having a tax lien for special improvements or any other tax lien upon property located therein is hereby authorized, when the said property is offered for sale by the state and county for state and county taxes due thereon, to purchase at such tax sale the property upon which it holds said special improvement lien, and shall be authorized to pay the amount of its bid therefor.

Whenever property upon which any municipality in this state holds a lien has already been sold for state and county taxes, the municipality may redeem the tax sale the same as other lien holders in the state, and authority for municipalities to so thus redeem is hereby granted.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Where property is sold for delinquent county property taxes, city tax lien is extinguished once title matures in state, and city tax lien no longer encumbers property; city could have protected its § 21-33-75. Sale or lease of land by municipality.

After the time to redeem from the municipal tax sale has expired, or after the municipality has purchased land as provided by law, said municipality, acting through its governing authorities, shall take possession of said lands and shall endeavor to sell same as expeditiously as good business may require. However, it may lease said lands until a sale thereof can be made.

Said municipal governing authorities may lease or sell any of said lands to any person in any manner that may be prescribed by an order or resolution, which said order or resolution shall be entered in the minutes covering each particular tract of land so leased or sold, it being the intention of the legislature to vest in municipal authorities in each specific case of lease or sale the right to fix the price, terms, and conditions of each sale or lease.

When any municipality shall buy in property for delinquent taxes, such municipality is hereby authorized to issue notes, bonds, or certificates of indebtedness for the amount of the tax, for a period of time not to exceed one year after the period provided for the redemption of such land and, in addition to pledging the full faith, credit, and resources of the municipality therefor, such municipality may pledge the taxes and damages from delinquent tax sales thereon. When said notes, bonds, or certificates of indebtedness are so issued, all funds collected on said delinquent taxes and damages, or the sale of the property, in the event the title ripens in the municipality, shall be set aside as a special or trust fund for the retirement of said notes, bonds, or certificates of indebtedness. The rate of interest of said notes, bonds, or certificates of indebtedness not to exceed six per centum per annum. The authority implied and granted in this section shall apply also to the boards of trustees in municipal separate school districts, by and with the consent of the governing authorities of such municipality.

Corporation sought a refund for property it bid on erroneously at a tax sale, but the appellate court determined that the trial court properly instructed the jury before the jury returned a verdict in favor of the tax collector; the corporation was required to establish that the tax collector somehow mistakenly assigned the corporation as the purchaser of the property, and the jury determined that the evidence did not support such a finding. Fiddle, Inc. v. Shannon, 834 So. 2d 39 (Miss. 2003).

Tax collector argued that the corporation did not follow the proper procedure for bringing its claim before the circuit court, the corporation asked that a letter requesting refund be treated as an application for a refund of the taxes the corporation alleged to have erroneously paid, but the tax collector contended that the corporation's only avenue to circuit court was to appeal the denial of the request for a refund; nevertheless the corporation filed suit in circuit court against the tax collector; the statutory language contained in Miss. Code Ann. § 21-33-79 and Miss. Code Ann. § 21-33-83 did not exclude a taxpayer's right to file suit. Fiddle, Inc. v. Shannon, 834 So. 2d 39 (Miss. 2003).

A corporate taxpayer was not entitled to a refund of ad valorem taxes, which had been erroneously paid on its leasehold interest in real and personal property and which had been collected by the city on behalf of the school district, as there was no statutory authority permitting a taxpayer to seek a refund from a school district of taxes paid without protest. Morco Indus., Inc. v. City of Long Beach, 530 So. 2d 141 (Miss. 1988).

Where a corporate taxpayer erroneously paid a municipal ad valorem tax assessment on personal property of the taxpayer consigned to a lessee operating as an exempt free port warehouse under Code 1972 §§ 27-31-51 et seq., the taxpayer's failure to protest the assessment by appeal to the circuit court as provided by Code § 11-51-77 did not constitute a waiver and the corporation was entitled to petition the municipality for refund under Code § 21-33-79 and thereafter appeal the municipal denial of the refund to the circuit court under Code 1972 § 21-33-83. *City of Jackson v. Payment of municipal separate school district taxes upon a privately constructed and operated sewerage system located in public streets and roads, to which the operator's claim of ownership was denied by court decree, was a payment under mistake of fact, was not a voluntary payment, and recovery thereof from the municipality was authorized under this section [Code 1942, § 3742-41]. Stegall v. City of Jackson, 191 So. 2d 134 (Miss. 1966).

Statutory provision requiring municipality to pay claim for taxes, regardless of whether taxes were paid under protest, applies only to proceedings under statute and not to direct suit against municipality. Chassaniol v. City of Greenwood, 166 Miss. 770, 144 So. 548 (1932).

Taxpayer instituting direct suit against municipality to recover privilege taxes abandoned statutory proceeding. Chassaniol v. City of Greenwood, 166 Miss. 770, 144 So. 548 (1932).

§ 21-33-81. Surveys and appraisals authorized.

The governing authorities of any municipality in this state are hereby authorized, in their discretion, to have the lands in the municipality (whether platted in lots and blocks or otherwise described) appraised, surveyed, the area determined, and the land and any buildings, structures or improvements thereon valued for the purpose of assessment and taxation. Such survey and appraisal may be made by the assessor or by a competent person, or persons, to be selected by the governing authorities, and the cost thereof paid from the general fund. When such survey and appraisal are made, a permanent record thereof shall be prepared and preserved as a public record by the clerk. The assessor, any member of the governing authorities, or any state official performing duties with reference to the assessment of property shall have access to such records at all reasonable hours.

The governing authorities may have prepared cards, maps, plats and such other records as may be considered proper and necessary to keep a record of all land and the elements of value thereof, in the municipality, and to revise and correct the same from time to time in order that such appraisal, and the other information, may be current.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

In a taxpayer's suit attacking the validity of a contract between the city and company for professional services by the company in making a detailed appraisal and valuation study of all properties in the city including its replacement, physical and other values, if the taxpayers were aggrieved by tax assessments affecting their property which was based upon valuations made by the city assessor under the contract, they should have sought relief by filing objections with the mayor and the board of aldermen and by appealing from such assessments in the manner provided by the statute. Alexander v. Mayor of City of Natchez, 219 Miss. 78, 68 So. 2d 434 (1953), motion overruled on other grounds, 220 Miss. 207, 70 So. 2d 529 (1954).

The word "work," used by city in requiring that all work for city to cost over a certain sum, must be done by contract and let to the lowest and best bidder, does not apply to professional services requiring special training and skill of the type contemplated by a contract between the city and company for professional services by the company in making a detailed appraisal and valuation study of all properties in the city, including its replacement, physical and other values. Alexander v. Mayor of City of Natchez, 219 Miss. 78, 68 So. 2d 434 (1953), motion overruled on other grounds, 220 Miss. 207, 70 So. 2d 529 (1954).

A contract between the city and company for professional services by the company in making a detailed appraisal and valuation study of all properties in the city, including its replacement, physical and other values, does not constitute at the time of its execution an indebtedness incurred within the statute which provides that no warrant shall be issued or indebtedness incurred by any county or municipality unless there is sufficient money in the particular fund from which the allowance is or must be made, to pay such a warrant or indebtedness. Alexander v. Mayor of City of Natchez, 219 Miss. 78, 68 So. 2d 434 (1953), motion overruled on other grounds, 220 Miss. 207, 70 So. 2d 529 (1954).

Tax collector argued that the corporation did not follow the proper procedure for bringing its claim before the circuit court, the corporation asked that a letter requesting refund be treated as an application for a refund of the taxes the corporation alleged to have erroneously paid, but the tax collector contended that the corporation's only avenue to circuit court was to appeal the denial of the request for a refund; nevertheless the corporation filed suit in circuit court against the tax collector; the statutory language contained in Miss. Code Ann. § 21-33-79 and Miss. Code Ann. § 21-33-83 did not exclude a taxpayer's right to file suit. Fiddle, Inc. v. Shannon, 834 So. 2d 39 (Miss. 2003).

Where a corporate taxpayer erroneously paid a municipal ad valorem tax assessment on personal property of the taxpayer consigned to a lessee operating as an exempt free port warehouse under Code 1972 §§ 27-31-1 et seq., the taxpayer's failure to protest the assessment by appeal to the circuit court as provided by Code § 11-51-77 did not constitute a waiver and the corporation was entitled to petition the municipality for refund under Code § 21-33-79 and thereafter appeal the municipal denial of the refund to the circuit court under Code 1972 § 21-33-83. City of Jackson v. DeSoto, Inc., 350 So. 2d 684 (Miss. 1977).

§ 21-33-85. Application of Sections 21-33-1 through 21-33-85.

Sections 21-33-1 through 21-33-85 and Section 27-41-2 shall apply to all municipalities, whether operating under code charter, special charter, or any commission form of government, except as may be otherwise provided.

“SECTION 11. Nothing in this act shall affect or defeat any claim, assessment, appeal, suit, right or cause of action for taxes due or accrued under the ad valorem tax laws before the date on which this act becomes effective, whether such claims, assessments, appeals, suits or actions have been begun before the date on which this act becomes effective or are begun thereafter; and the provisions of the ad valorem tax laws are expressly continued in full force, effect and operation for the purpose of the assessment, collection and enrollment of liens for any taxes due or accrued and the execution of any warrant under such laws before the date on which this act becomes effective, and for the imposition of any penalties, forfeitures or claims for failure to comply with such laws.”

§ 21-33-87. Tax levy to pay bonds and coupons.

The municipal governing authorities shall have the power to levy and collect annually taxes on all the taxable property within the municipal limits, in addition to other taxes, in a sufficient amount, for the purpose of paying the interest coupons as they become due on all bonds of the municipality now issued or hereafter to be issued, and the bonds themselves, which tax shall be payable only in cash or in matured coupons or bonds.

§ 21-33-89. Tax levy for street and cemetery purposes in certain municipalities.

The governing authorities of any municipality having a population of less than one thousand, according to the last federal census, shall have the power and authority, in their discretion, to assess, levy and collect an additional ad valorem tax on all of the taxable property in such municipality of not exceeding two mills on the dollar for street maintenance, upkeep and construction purposes, and/or an additional ad valorem tax on all of the taxable property in such municipality of not exceeding two mills on the dollar for cemetery improvement, upkeep and maintenance purposes, which said taxes shall be in addition to all other taxes now authorized by law. However, such taxes shall not be levied unless and until the levy thereof has been approved by a majority of the qualified voters of such municipality voting in an election to be held for such purpose, notice of which election shall be given in some newspaper having a general circulation in such municipality not less than twenty nor more than thirty days prior to such election; one publication of such notice shall be sufficient. § 21-33-203. Levying of tax; exemptions.

In addition to the taxes now or hereafter provided by law, there is hereby levied upon, assessed to and shall be collected from all telephone or communication utilities as defined by Section 77-3-1, Mississippi Code of 1972 and regulated under said Section 77-3-1, an additional tax of two per cent of the gross amount of revenue made and collected on local business from customers within the corporate limits of any municipality of the State of Mississippi, which qualifies as provided by the City Utility Tax Law. Such public utility shall add to the sales price of its service the amount of any tax due under the provisions of the City Utility Tax Law to the extent that such tax was not included as a part of the cost of furnishing services in the fixing of the rates and charges for such service by the Mississippi Public Service Commission. The tax levied herein shall not apply to the cash receipts collected through coin boxes or other mechanical devices where it is impracticable to render periodic statements and thereby add the tax to the sales price of its service.

Any such public utility which pays any municipality of the State of Mississippi the compensation provided for in municipal franchises or levied and provided for by Section 77-3-17, Mississippi Code of 1972, shall be exempt from the tax herein imposed and from the provisions of the City Utility Tax Law. In addition, any such public utility which makes payment of the tax imposed herein shall not be required to make payments, if any, which may be required under the terms of said Section 77-3-17.

§ 21-33-205. Collection of tax and payment to municipality.

The city utility taxes provided for in Section 21-33-203 shall be collected by the chairman of the state tax commission and shall be accounted for separately from the amount of all other taxes collected for the state and city in said municipality. Said taxes shall be paid to the municipality in which collected, less five per cent thereof which shall be retained by the chairman and paid into a special fund to be expended by the chairman to defray the cost of carrying out the provisions of the City Utility Tax Law. Payments to the municipalities shall be made by the chairman on or before the fifteenth day of the month following the month in which the tax was collected. When so paid, the money may be expended by the municipalities for any purpose now authorized by law.

§ 21-33-207. Procedure for imposition of tax.

(a) The mayor and board of aldermen or other governing authority of any municipality desiring to avail itself of the provisions of the City Utility Tax Law shall adopt an ordinance declaring its intention to have the utility tax imposed at the specified rate for the benefit of such municipality effective on and after a date fixed in the ordinance which must be at least thirty (30) days later and on the first day of a month. A certified copy of this ordinance shall be immediately forwarded to the Chairman of the State Tax Commission. The municipal authorities shall have a copy of the ordinance published once a week for three (3) consecutive weeks in at least one (1) newspaper published in the municipality and having a general circulation therein. The first publication shall be not less than twenty-eight (28) days prior to the levying date fixed in such ordinance, and the last publication shall be made not less than seven (7) days prior to such date. If no newspaper is published in the municipality, then notice shall be given by publishing the ordinance for the required time in some newspaper published in the same or an adjoining county having a general circulation in the municipality. A copy of the ordinance shall also be posted at three (3) public places in the municipality for a period of at least twenty-one (21) days during the time of its publication in a newspaper. The publication of the ordinance may be made as provided in Section 21-17-19. Proof of publication must also be furnished to the Chairman of the State Tax Commission.

(b) If more than twenty percent (20%) of the qualified electors of the municipality having no city utility tax shall file with the clerk of the municipality within twenty-one (21) days after adoption of the ordinance of intent to qualify for the collection of the tax, a petition requesting an election on the question of the levy of such tax, then and in that event such tax levy shall not be made unless authorized by a majority of the votes cast at an election to be called and held for that purpose. Notice of such election shall be given, the election shall be held and the result thereof determined in the manner provided in Title 21, Chapter 11, of the Mississippi Code of 1972. In the event of an election resulting in favor of the levy or where no election is required, the governing authorities shall adopt another ordinance qualifying for the collection of the tax provided in the City Utility Tax Law, and shall set the first of a month following the date of such adoption as the effective date of the tax levy. A certified copy of this ordinance together with the result of the election, if any, shall be immediately furnished the Chairman of the State Tax Commission. Upon receipt of the certified ordinance and other official notice from the municipality, the chairman shall notify the utilities in such municipality which are affected by the City Utility Tax Law, and take the necessary action to collect the tax. The first payment of the tax after its adoption shall be on all receipts of the utility derived from all billings made fifteen (15) days after the effective date of said adoption.

All administrative provisions of Chapter 65 of Title 27 of the Mississippi Code of 1972, including those which fix damages, penalties and interest for nonpayment of sales tax and for noncompliance with the provisions of said chapter and all other requirements and duties imposed upon the taxpayer, shall apply to all persons liable for city utility taxes under the provisions of the City Utility Tax Law. The chairman shall exercise all power and authority and perform all duties with respect to taxpayers under the City Utility Tax Law as are provided in said chapter, except where there is conflict, then the provisions of the City Utility Tax Law shall control. Any damages, penalties, or interest collected for the nonpayment of taxes, or for noncompliance with the provisions of the City Utility Tax Law, shall be paid to the municipality in which said damages were collected on the same basis and in the same manner as the tax. Any overpayment of tax for any reason that has been disbursed to any municipality or any payment of the tax to any municipality in error may be adjusted by the chairman on any subsequent payment to the municipality involved pursuant to the provisions of the said chapter. The chairman may from time to time make such rules and regulations not inconsistent with the City Utility Tax Law as may be deemed necessary to carry out its provisions and such rules and regulations shall have the full force and effect of law.

§ 21-33-301. Uniform system for issuance of municipal bonds; purposes for which bonds may be issued.

The governing authorities of any municipality are authorized to issue negotiable bonds of the municipality to raise money for the following purposes:

(a) Erecting municipal buildings, armories, auditoriums, community centers, gymnasiums and athletic stadiums, preparing and equipping athletic fields, and purchasing buildings or land therefor, and for repairing, improving, adorning and equipping the same, and for erecting, equipping and furnishing of buildings to be used as a municipal or civic arts center;

(b) Erecting or purchasing waterworks, gas, electric and other public utility plants or distribution systems or franchises, and repairing, improving and extending the same;

(c) Purchasing or constructing, repairing, improving and equipping buildings for public libraries and for purchasing land, equipment and books therefor, whether the title to same be vested in the municipality issuing such bonds or in some subdivision of the state government other than the municipality, or jointly in such municipality and other such subdivision;

(d) Establishing sanitary, storm, drainage or sewerage systems, and repairing, improving and extending the same;

(e) Protecting a municipality, its streets and sidewalks from overflow, caving banks and other like dangers;

(f) Constructing, improving or paving streets, sidewalks, driveways, parkways, walkways or public parking facilities, and purchasing land therefor;

(g) Purchasing land for parks, cemeteries and public playgrounds, and improving, equipping and adorning the same, including the constructing, repairing and equipping of swimming pools and other recreational facilities;

(h) Constructing bridges and culverts;

(i) Constructing, repairing and improving wharves, docks, harbors and appurtenant facilities, and purchasing land therefor;

(j) Constructing, repairing and improving public slaughterhouses, markets, pest houses, workhouses, hospitals, houses of correction, reformatories and jails in the corporate limits, or within three (3) miles of the corporate limits, and purchasing land therefor;

(k) Altering or changing the channels of streams and water courses to control, deflect or guide the current thereof;

(l) Purchasing fire-fighting equipment and apparatus, and providing housing for same, and purchasing land therefor;

(m) Purchasing or renting voting machines and any other election equipment needed in elections held in the municipality;

(n) Assisting the Board of Trustees of State Institutions of Higher Learning, the Bureau of Building, Grounds and Real Property Management of the Governor's Office of General Services, or any other state agency in acquiring a site for, constructing suitable buildings and runways and equipping an airport for the university or other state-supported four-year college, now or hereafter in existence, in or near which the municipality is located, within not more than ten (10) miles of the municipality;

(o) Acquiring and improving existing mass transit system; however, no municipal governing authorities shall authorize any bonds to be issued for the acquiring and improving of an existing mass transit system unless an election be conducted in said municipality in the same manner provided for general and special elections, and a majority of the qualified electors of the municipality participating in said election approve the bond issuance for the acquiring and improving of an existing mass transit system;

(p) Purchasing machinery and equipment which have an expected useful life in excess of ten (10) years. The life of such bonds shall not exceed the expected useful life of such machinery and equipment. Machinery and equipment shall not include any motor vehicle weighing less than twelve thousand (12,000) pounds;

(q) A project for which a certificate of public convenience and necessity has been obtained by the municipality pursuant to the Regional Economic Development Act.

City of Hattiesburg could lawfully proceed with issuance of general obligation industrial park bonds under Chapter 886, Local and Private Laws of Mississippi, Regular Session 1984, which dispenses with the necessity for a bond issue election, except upon petition of 10 percent of the city's registered voters. Brandon v. City of Hattiesburg, 493 So. 2d 324 (Miss. 1986).

2.-5. [Reserved for future use.]

II. Under Former Law.

6. In general.

The issuance of such bonds was not objectionable on the ground that the board sought to issue county-wide bonds for obligations which appeared on the face of the order to be, in large part, the debts of several, separate road districts, where there was nothing in the record to show that during the time such obligations were incurred the public roads in the county were being maintained under any separate district system. In re Lincoln County Funding Bonds, 187 Miss. 392, 193 So. 26 (1940).

The issuance of such bonds not objectionable on the ground that the debts were invalid based on a presumption that in view of such order the county budget was exceeded, since the condition might have been brought about by this appointment in the collection of expected amounts of taxes and there was no showing in the record as to how the condition was brought about. In re Lincoln County Funding Bonds, 187 Miss. 392, 193 So. 26 (1940).

The issuance of county funding bonds for the payment of outstanding and unpaid obligations of the county could not be attacked on the ground that some of the obligations were not incurred in the manner provided by law, where the order of the board of supervisors for the issuance of such bonds in reciting its investigation and findings as to the validity of the items as obligations of the county was sufficient to give such obligations the dignity required by this section, without reciting the antecedent and evidentiary facts. In re Lincoln County Funding Bonds, 187 Miss. 392, 193 So. 26 (1940).

Where a majority of the qualified electors residing in a consolidated school district, by petition, request issuance of bonds for certain school purposes, it is not necessary to call for an election on the question, in the absence of a request in the petition itself calling for such an election, and the requirement that the bond shall be issued "in the manner provided for by law," in such case, has no reference to the provisions of this section but refers to the details of the issuance. In re Validation Bonds of Orange Grove Consol. Sch. Dist., 187 Miss. 373, 193 So. 6 (1940).

A course of conduct pursued by a County Board of Supervisors in incurring debts for county road work when there were insufficient funds in the road fund at the time for the payment of such debts, and in ordering warrants for their payment without funds on hand to be paid out of such moneys as should thereafter come into the road funds, was within the express prohibition of this section, and such debts so incurred could not be the foundation for any action in mandamus for their payment. Edmondson v. Board of Supvrs., 185 Miss. 645, 187 So. 538 (1939).

Holder of county warrant on game and fish fund, held entitled to compel board of supervisors by mandamus to issue and sell bonds of county in sufficient amount to pay warrant, after game and fish laws repealed. Tucker Printing Co. v. Board of Supvrs., 171 Miss. 608, 158 So. 336 (1934).

Bank, which advanced funds with which school district purchased land for teachers' home, took trust deed to secure loan, and collected interest thereon without petition or election by qualified voters as required by statute, held accountable in representative suit by taxpayers for interest collected and without any rights against school district since loan was void. Toler v. Love, 170 Miss. 252, 154 So. 711, 95 A.L.R. 1416 (1934).

But company selling goods to county held not entitled to mandatory order requiring board of supervisors to issue bonds to pay claim, where seller did not show it would be entitled as matter of right to have clerk issue warrant if money were available to pay it. AMOCO v. Bishop, 163 Miss. 249, 141 So. 271 (1932), error overruled, 163 Miss. 257, 141 So. 765 (1932).

Validity of items of outstanding warrants and obligations cannot be adjudicated by chancellor in county bond validation proceeding, such objections constituting collateral attacks on county board's judgment. Harvey v. Covington County, 161 Miss. 765, 138 So. 403 (1931).

Failure of State's bond attorney to attend hearing in county bond validation proceeding did not invalidate proceeding. Harvey v. Covington County, 161 Miss. 765, 138 So. 403 (1931).

Lack or insufficiency of funds necessary to pay county indebtedness incurred under positive statute, and road and bridge obligations arising out of emergency, held not to invalidate indebtedness and obligations. Choctaw County v. Tennison, 161 Miss. 66, 134 So. 900 (1931).

The board of mayor and aldermen may order the issuance of bonds at an adjourned regular meeting. Green v. Hutson, 139 Miss. 471, 104 So. 171 (1925).

A county having outstanding obligations may issue bonds to obtain money to pay same. Town of Crenshaw v. Jackson, 122 Miss. 711, 84 So. 912 (1920).

The legislature may authorize the city to issue bonds for the construction and equipment of a hospital on a majority vote and it shall pass general laws under which cities may be chartered without violating the Constitution of the state. Feemster v. City of Tupelo, 121 Miss. 733, 83 So. 804 (1920).

The Supreme Court may take judicial notice of the conflict in opinion among people of the county on the question of issuing bonds for public improvement. Madison County v. Howard, 119 Miss. 133, 80 So. 524 (1919).

This section does not require the board of supervisors to issue serial bonds to take up outstanding loan warrants for the payment of which current taxes are pledged. Board of Supvrs. v. Bourgeois, 118 Miss. 163, 79 So. 91 (1918).

7. Purposes for which issued.

Sections 3598 and 6416, Code 1942, authorizing issuance of municipal bonds for purpose of erecting school buildings and purchasing lands authorize use of funds to construct stadium and athletic field, provided they are appropriate, proper, and necessary to comply with courses in physical education prescribed by board of education, department of education and trustees of schools under §§ 6423, 6665, 6666, and 6670, Code of 1942. Nichols v. Calhoun, 204 Miss. 291, 37 So. 2d 313 (1948).

Although a municipality has not legally declared itself to be a separate school district, it may under its charter powers purchase lands for school purposes and construct school buildings and issue bonds for such purposes. Bingham v. Woodell, 109 Miss. 769, 69 So. 678 (1915).

A city may prepare for the construction of a waterworks plant four years before the expiration of a franchise of a waterworks company in the city without an abuse of its discretion. Griffith v. City of Vicksburg, 102 Miss. 1, 58 So. 781 (1912).

A municipality is limited to the purposes for which bonds may be issued and to the amount authorized. City of Hazlehurst v. Mayes, 96 Miss. 656, 51 So. 890 (1910).

Under an earlier statute, bonds could not be issued for the purpose of buying real estate for public parks. City of Hazlehurst v. Mayes, 96 Miss. 656, 51 So. 890 (1910).

Municipal bonds may be issued for the purpose of paving streets in the business portion of the municipality and a tax can be rightfully laid upon all the taxable property in the municipality to pay for them. Maybin v. City of Biloxi, 77 Miss. 673, 28 So. 566 (1900).

Under an earlier form of this provision it was held that the restrictive provisions of the last paragraph of Code 1892, § 4014 (Code 1906, § 4534), limit both the preceding paragraphs, and the provision in the second paragraph as to the levying and collecting of taxes to erect and repair schoolhouses, is not additional to the powers to issue bonds for that purpose contained in this section. Village of Boguechitto v. Lewis, 75 Miss. 741, 23 So. 549 (1898).

8. Irregularities in issuance.

Bona fide holders of municipal bonds regular on their face are protected against informalities and irregularities in proceedings authorized in the issuance of the bonds and from mistakes of the municipal authorities. Greene v. Village of Rienzi, 87 Miss. 463, 40 So. 17, 112 Am. St. R. 449 (1906).

A municipality may estop itself from setting up irregularities in their issuance as a defense to its bonds. Town Council v. Union Nat'l Bank, 75 Miss. 1, 22 So. 291 (1897).

9. Application of statutes of limitation.

The failure of this statute to make reference to any statute of limitations did not have the effect of waiving, as to all obligations of a county incurred after its enactment, a statute providing that statutes of limitations should begin to run in favor of the state, counties and municipal corporations at the time when the plaintiff had the first right to demand payment. Fuqua v. Board of Supvrs., 192 Miss. 6, 4 So. 2d 350 (1941).

The six-year statute of limitations was applicable to the right of a teacher in an agricultural high school to demand payment of salary from the proceeds of bonds to be issued by the county and to compel issuance of such bonds by mandamus upon failure of the board of supervisors (which was not shown to have ever been advised of the existence of the obligation until suit was filed), otherwise to do so. Fuqua v. Board of Supvrs., 192 Miss. 6, 4 So. 2d 350 (1941).

10. Effect of debt limit on issuance.

In the issuance of funding bonds for the payment of claims against a supervisor's district, county boards of supervisors must find as a jurisdictional fact that the proposed funding bonds, when added to a county's outstanding bonded indebtedness, shall not exceed 10 per cent of the assessed valuation of taxable property within the county, and set forth such fact in its order before the bonds can validly be issued or validated. Brown v. Board of Supvrs., 185 Miss. 216, 187 So. 738 (1939).

The failure of the county board of supervisors to affirmatively adjudicate in an order providing for the issuance of funding bonds to pay certain claims or debts incurred by a supervisor's district that the debt incurred, when added to all of the then outstanding indebtedness of the supervisor's district, both bonded and floating, did not result in the imposition upon any of the property in such district of an indebtedness for road purposes of more than 10 per cent of the assessed value of such property, as ascertained by the last completed assessment for taxation, constituted fatal error and rendered such order of the board null and void, on its face, and subject to attack in a proceeding for validation of such bonds. Brown v. Board of Supvrs., 185 Miss. 216, 187 So. 738 (1939).

Where the chancellor was in error in rendering a decree of validation as to issuance of certain funding bonds in payment of claims against a supervisor's district because the order of the board for such issuance was void because of the violation of § 4321, a decree would be reversed without prejudice to the right of the county to provide for the payment of such indebtedness by the legal issuance of other bonds under this section, or in such other manner as might be authorized by law. Brown v. Board of Supvrs., 185 Miss. 216, 187 So. 738 (1939).

Proposed county bonds to take up outstanding county obligations were "funding" and not "refunding" bonds, and therefore limited to ten per cent of assessed value of taxable property of county. Lee v. Hancock County, 181 Miss. 847, 178 So. 790 (1938), error overruled, 181 Miss. 859, 179 So. 559 (1938).

"Refunding bond" is a bond issued to pay off an older issue; to "refund a debt" meaning to fund it again or anew; the word "fund" in this connection meaning to convert into a more or less permanent debt bearing regular interest. Lee v. Hancock County, 181 Miss. 847, 178 So. 790 (1938), error overruled, 181 Miss. 859, 179 So. 559 (1938).

11. Date of maturity.

Funding bonds for outstanding obligations issued under this section are not subject to the limitation that their maturity shall not run beyond ten years, applicable to funding bonds to discharge an indebtedness incurred on anticipation tax obligations. In re Lincoln County Funding Bonds, 187 Miss. 392, 193 So. 26 (1940).

A case with reference to bond issue by Leflore County holding that this statute does not require bonds to begin to mature at the expiration of the 1st year after their issuance. Robertson v. Board of Supvrs., 119 Miss. 621, 81 So. 408 (1919).

12. Injunctive relief.

A resident taxpayer of the municipality may enjoin the wrongful issuance of municipal bonds. Town of Clarksdale v. Broaddus, 77 Miss. 667, 28 So. 954 (1900).

13. Judicial review.

An appeal by taxpayers to the circuit court from orders and allowances made by the board of supervisors with respect to the issuance of county funding bonds was improper, where the bill of exceptions failed to set forth the facts in full and was not signed by the president of the board as the law required, and items which should have been entered and a statement as to their correctness was left to the clerk. In re $50,000 Serial Funding Bonds, 187 Miss. 512, 193 So. 449 (1940).

An appeal to the circuit court by taxpayers from orders and allowances made by the county board of supervisors with respect to the issuance of county funding bonds was ineffective, where the chancery court had acquired jurisdiction of the whole matter in a validation proceeding. In re $50,000 Serial Funding Bonds, 187 Miss. 512, 193 So. 449 (1940).

With respect to an appeal to the circuit court by taxpayers from orders and allowances of a board of supervisors with respect to issuance of county funding bonds, a party having a claim to be allowed or having been allowed by the board is an interested party on an appeal to the circuit court, and separate appeals from all orders must be prosecuted where an appeal has been taken, and the bill of exceptions must either be filed during the court term or meeting of the board of supervisors or within such time as the law or the board might allow for filing such bill and appeal. In re $50,000 Serial Funding Bonds, 187 Miss. 512, 193 So. 449 (1940).

The right of a taxpayer to prosecute appeals from orders and allowances by a board of supervisors in connection with the issuance of funding bonds to matters in which he has no pecuniary or property interest is limited. In re $50,000 Serial Funding Bonds, 187 Miss. 512, 193 So. 449 (1940).

The chancery court, having acquired jurisdiction of a proceeding on validation of county funding bonds, erred in dismissing the proceedings, in view of the fact that it had the power to pass upon the legality of the bond issue in all respects, including the various claims constituting the alleged indebtednesses, and an appeal by the taxpayers to the circuit court during the pendency of such proceeding in the chancery court was improper. In re $50,000 Serial Funding Bonds, 187 Miss. 512, 193 So. 449 (1940).

Where a petition for a writ of certiorari, filed in the circuit court, after a decree in chancery court validating the issuance of county funding bonds, was confined in the same record, made by the board of supervisors, which the chancery court had before it in the validation proceedings, disposition of an appeal from the chancery court would not be stayed. In re Lincoln County Funding Bonds, 187 Miss. 392, 193 So. 26 (1940).

In the absence of an appeal from an order of the board of county supervisors adjudicating the validity of certain claims, for the payment of which an order for the issuance of funding bonds was made, no objections could be taken on appeal from a decree validating such bonds based on the ground that the indebtednesses for the payment of which the bonds were to be issued did not constitute valid, legal and undisputed outstanding obligations of a supervisor's district for the reason that such indebtednesses were incurred in violation of § 4321 prohibiting the incurring of an indebtedness unless there is sufficient money at the time in the particular fund from which allowance for the payment thereof is to be made, since the chancellor had no jurisdiction to pass on the validity of such claim and such objection constituted a collateral attack on the orders and judgments of the board of supervisors. Brown v. Board of Supvrs., 185 Miss. 216, 187 So. 738 (1939).

§ 21-33-303. Limitation of indebtedness.

No municipality shall hereafter issue bonds secured by a pledge of its full faith and credit for the purposes authorized by law in an amount which, when added to the then outstanding bonded indebtedness of such municipality, shall exceed either (a) fifteen percent (15%) of the assessed value of the taxable property within such municipality, according to the last completed assessment for taxation, or (b) ten percent (10%) of the assessment upon which taxes were levied for its fiscal year ending September 30, 1984, whichever is greater. In computing such indebtedness, there may be deducted all bonds or other evidences of indebtedness, heretofore or hereafter issued, for school, water, sewerage systems, gas, and light and power purposes and for the construction of special improvements primarily chargeable to the property benefited, or for the purpose of paying the municipality's proportion of any betterment program, a portion of which is primarily chargeable to the property benefited. However, in no case shall any municipality contract any indebtedness which, when added to all of the outstanding general obligation indebtedness, both bonded and floating, shall exceed either (a) twenty percent (20%) of the assessed value of all taxable property within such municipality according to the last completed assessment for taxation or (b) fifteen percent (15%) of the assessment upon which taxes were levied for its fiscal year ending September 30, 1984, whichever is greater. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to apply to contract obligations in any form heretofore or hereafter incurred by any municipality which are subject to annual appropriations therefor, or to bonds heretofore issued by any municipality for school purposes, or to contract obligations in any form heretofore or hereafter incurred by any municipality which are payable exclusively from the revenues of any municipally-owned utility, or to bonds issued by any municipality under the provisions of Sections 57-1-1 through 57-1-51, or to any special assessment improvement bonds issued by any municipality under the provisions of Sections 21-41-1 through 21-41-53, or to any indebtedness incurred under Section 55-23-8.

All bonds issued prior to July 1, 1990, pursuant to this chapter by any municipality for the purpose of the constructing, replacing, renovating or improving wastewater collection and treatment facilities in order to comply with an administrative order of the Mississippi Department of Natural Resources issued pursuant to the Federal Water Pollution Control Act and amendments thereto, are hereby exempt from the limitation imposed by this section if the governing body of the municipality adopts an order, resolution or ordinance to the effect that the rates paid by the users of such facilities shall be increased to the extent necessary to provide sufficient funds for the payment of the principal of and interest on such bonds as each respectively becomes due and payable as well as the necessary expenses in connection with the operation and maintenance of such facilities.

Editor's Note — The preamble to Laws of 1989, ch. 499, effective from and after October 1, 1989, provides as follows:

“WHEREAS, the Mississippi Department of Natural Resources (DNR), pursuant to the requirements of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act and amendments thereto, has placed numerous municipalities within the state under administrative orders to construct, replace, renovate or improve wastewater treatment and collection facilities which shall comply with the minimum standards under the federal law; and

“WHEREAS, many municipalities have initiated projects funded through a combination of federal, state and local funds made available through a revolving loan fund administered by the Department of Natural Resources; and

"WHEREAS, the refunds in the revolving loan fund have either been exhausted or encumbered and no such funds are currently available to the numerous municipalities that have not initiated projects to comply with the federal law; and

"WHEREAS, failure to comply with the deadlines mandated by the DNR administrative orders, which deadlines are generally in 1991, could result in severe monetary fines and penalties imposed under the federal law; and

"WHEREAS, the Legislature feels that this specific situation is of an emergency nature and that an immediate, viable and economical funding mechanism is necessary to allow affected municipalities to issue bonds without regard to the statutory debt limitation for compliance purposes;"

Section 49-2-7 provides that wherever the term "Mississippi Department of Natural Resources" appears in any law the same shall mean the Department of Environmental Quality.

1.-5. [Reserved for future use.]

6. Under former law.

Chapter 104, Laws of 1932, limiting the power of counties to impose taxes, and Chapter 235, Laws of 1932 (§ 4324, Code 1942), restricting the power of counties and municipalities to borrow money and to levy taxes for the payment thereof, are part of the same legislative plan, without either of which that plan would be incomplete, and therefore must be construed together. Yazoo & Miss. V. Ry. v. Claiborne County, 191 Miss. 277, 2 So. 2d 548 (1941).

With respect to an election for issuing bonds for water and light purposes a majority of the electors voting in the election was sufficient to authorize issuance of the bonds since those who were indifferent to the election to the extent that they did not go and vote were not entitled to control the result of those who voted in the election. In re Municipal Bonds, 188 Miss. 817, 196 So. 258 (1940).

The provision "or for the construction of special improvements primarily chargeable to the property benefited," etc., does not make it a necessary part of the requirement as to water and land that there should be a charge primarily made against the improvement or the plant or equipment or the proceeds thereof, and it would be possible to issue bonds for water and light purposes without making the proceeds derived from the utility being constructed or improved or benefited a general charge upon the taxpayers of the city. In re Municipal Bonds, 188 Miss. 817, 196 So. 258 (1940).

The establishing of a water, light and sewerage system is for a combined purpose and not subject to objection of being for a plurality of purposes. Green v. Hutson, 139 Miss. 471, 104 So. 171 (1925).

Municipal bonds not authorized by a majority of the electors and where not issued to pay outstanding debts are void. Heidelberg v. Batson, 119 Miss. 510, 81 So. 225 (1919).

An enabling act conferring upon the city of Bay St. Louis additional powers for the issuance of bonds, such bonds cannot be issued without an election otherwise provided by law. Sick v. City of Bay St. Louis, 113 Miss. 175, 74 So. 272 (1917).

The votes of disqualified persons voting at an election in a city on the question of a bond issue which would not affect the result of the election regardless of how they voted, does not render an election void. Griffith v. City of Vicksburg, 102 Miss. 1, 58 So. 781 (1912).

A city operating under a special charter authorizing the issuance of bonds is not restricted by provisions of the law under chapter or municipalities that are not applicable to such city. Love v. Holmes, 91 Miss. 535, 44 So. 835 (1907).

"Elector" in relation to issuance of bonds by municipalities means legally qualified voters. Greene v. Village of Rienzi, 87 Miss. 463, 40 So. 17, 112 Am. St. R. 449 (1906).

The charter of the city of Vicksburg having been amended by the adoption of this section and Code 1942, §§ 3416, 3419 and 3420 [superseded by Code 1942, §§ 3374-125, 3374-127, and 3374-128], substituting the word "amendment" for "chapter" in the last line of the section, it was held that the city was without power to issue bonds in excess of the statutory limit for the purpose of paying debts contracted after the amendment was adopted, although the revenues of the city to the amount of the aggregate of said debts, arising during the year in which they were contracted had been diverted from their payment and appropriated to other debts contracted before the amendment became effective. Smith v. City of Vicksburg, 86 Miss. 577, 38 So. 301 (1905).

A municipality may order an election under the provisions of this section [Code 1942, § 3598-02] submitting to the voters as a single proposition the issuance of bonds for two or more purposes. Yazoo City v. Lightcap, 82 Miss. 148, 33 So. 949 (1903).

The validity of municipal bonds is not affected by the fact that their issuance was authorized by an election at which the issuance of other bonds was also voted upon. Maybin v. City of Biloxi, 77 Miss. 673, 28 So. 566 (1900).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

The pledge of grant monies by a municipality is not properly characterized as an "indebtedness" under the statute and, therefore, would not be considered in calculating the floating indebtedness of the city. Criss, August 7, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0447.

§ 21-33-305. Revenues of public utilities may be pledged for payment of bonds.

Whenever bonds shall be issued for the construction or purchase of waterworks, gas, light and power plants, or distribution systems, the governing authorities of the municipality so issuing them may provide by ordinance, contract or otherwise, that such bonds shall be secured by a pledge of the revenue of the utility to be constructed or purchased with the proceeds thereof, which pledge of revenue shall be in addition to the pledge of the full faith and credit of such municipality.

§ 21-33-307. Initiating procedures for issuance of bonds.

Before issuing any bonds for any of the purposes enumerated in Section 21-33-301, the governing authority of the issuing municipality shall adopt a resolution declaring its intention so to do, stating the amount of bonds proposed to be issued and the purpose for which the bonds are to be issued, and the date upon which the aforesaid authority proposes to direct the issuance of such bonds. Such resolution shall be published once a week for at least three (3) consecutive weeks in at least one (1) newspaper published in such municipality. The first publication of such resolution shall be made not less than twenty-one (21) days prior to the date fixed in such resolution for the issuance of the bonds, and the last publication shall be made not more than seven (7) days prior to such date. If no newspaper be published in such municipality, then such notice shall be given by publishing the resolution for the required time in some newspaper having a general circulation in such municipality and, in addition, by posting a copy of such resolution for at least twenty-one (21) days next preceding the date fixed therein at three (3) public places in such municipality. The publication of the resolution may be made as provided in Section 21-17-19. If ten percent (10%) of the qualified electors of the municipality, or fifteen hundred (1500), whichever is the lesser, shall file a written protest against the issuance of such bonds on or before the date specified in such resolution, then an election on the question of the bonds shall be called and held as is provided in Section 21-33-309. Notice of such election shall be signed by the clerk of the municipality and shall be published once a week for at least three (3) consecutive weeks in at least one (1) newspaper published in such municipality. The first publication of such notice shall be made not less than twenty-one (21) days prior to the date fixed for such election, and the last publication shall be made not more than seven (7) days prior to such date. If no newspaper is published in such municipality, then such notice shall be given by publishing the same for the required time in some newspaper having a general circulation in such municipality and published in the same or an adjoining county and, in addition, by posting a copy of such notice for at least twenty-one (21) days next preceding such election at three (3) public places in such municipality. If no protest be filed, then such bonds may be issued without an election on the question of the issuance thereof, at any time within a period of two (2) years after the date specified in the above-mentioned resolution. However, the governing authority of any municipality in its discretion may nevertheless call an election on such question, in which event it shall not be necessary to publish the resolution declaring its intention to issue such bonds as herein provided.

Under no circumstances shall any municipality exceed the bond limit as set by statute for municipalities.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

City of Hattiesburg could lawfully proceed with issuance of general obligation industrial park bonds under Chapter 886, Local and Private Laws of Mississippi, Regular Session 1984, which dispenses with the necessity for a bond issue election, except upon petition of 10 percent of the city's registered voters. Brandon v. City of Hattiesburg, 493 So. 2d 324 (Miss. 1986).

The rule requiring petition of 10 percent, or 1,500, whichever is less, of qualified electors of the municipality for calling an election on bond issues, as appears in Mississippi Code § 21-33-307, is enforceable only when a municipality purports to issue bonds for one of the 16 general categories of purposes found in Mississippi Code § 21-33-301; none of which is so elastic as to include industrial park purposes contemplated by the City of Hattiesburg in present case. Brandon v. City of Hattiesburg, 493 So. 2d 324 (Miss. 1986).

That a newspaper notice of intention to issue bonds, in stating existing indebtedness, used a period instead of a comma in the figure $36,000, is immaterial. In re $30,000 Rd. & Bridge Bonds of 1960, 242 Miss. 125, 133 So. 2d 267 (1961).

Variance between a resolution declaring an intention to issue bonds for the purpose of buying the necessary machinery for road work and the notice given thereof by adding the words "including a motor grader" is immaterial. In re $30,000 Rd. & Bridge Bonds of 1960, 242 Miss. 125, 133 So. 2d 267 (1961).

Failure of resolution directing issuance of municipal bonds to state that notice of bond election was given in designated way and for required time, renders bonds invalid. Mississippi Power & Light Co. v. Town of Coldwater, 234 Miss. 615, 106 So. 2d 375 (1958), suggestion of error sustained, 234 Miss. 615, 112 So. 2d 222 (1958).

The requirement that notice of election be published in some newspaper having a general circulation in the municipality is not met by publication in a newspaper shown only to have been published in the county in which the municipality is situated. Mississippi Power & Light Co. v. Town of Coldwater, 234 Miss. 615, 106 So. 2d 375 (1958), suggestion of error sustained, 234 Miss. 615, 112 So. 2d 222 (1958).

2.-5. [Reserved for future use.]

6. Under former law.

Issuance of a note by county to pay for road machinery was not invalid because the note was an attempt to create an interest bearing debt in violation of § 4320 Code of 1942 as amended by ch 473 Laws of 1946, because no election was held, inasmuch as the statute authorizing the purchase did not require election as condition precedent to issuance of interest bearing note for a purchase price. Covington County v. Mississippi Rd. Supply Co., 213 Miss. 583, 57 So. 2d 318 (1952), corrected, 59 So. 2d 325 (Miss. 1952).

The fact that a decree of validation erroneously bore date of May 12 instead of June 12, evidently due to a typographical error, did not show that the notice to the taxpayer was not published as required by law prior to the hearing before the chancellor, where such decree of validation recited all the necessary jurisdictional facts. Town of Decatur v. Brogan, 184 Miss. 402, 185 So. 809 (1939).

Where a municipality was in the status of a lessee by reason of its liability for reasonable compensation for the use of a fire engine purchased under an invalid contract, it was not necessary to submit to the voters the question of making a lease of the equipment purchased thereunder or of allowing the municipality to be held to the obligation of a lessee, notwithstanding that the contract attempted to create an interest bearing obligation. American-LaFrance, Inc. v. City of Phila., 183 Miss. 207, 184 So. 620 (1938).

Where a contract for the purchase of a fire engine was held invalid because of omission of statutory requirements, the municipality was liable for reasonable compensation for the use of the property and had the status of a lessee, where the transaction was without corruption, and was within the object authorized by law, and not a debtor in an interest-bearing debt incurred without the authorization of the electors and at an election called for that purpose, notwithstanding that the contract was conceded an attempt to create an obligation within this section. American-LaFrance, Inc. v. City of Phila., 183 Miss. 207, 184 So. 620 (1938).

Bank, which advanced funds with which school district purchased land for teachers' home, took trust deed to secure loan, and collected interest thereon without petition or election by qualified voters as required by statute, held accountable in representative suit by taxpayers for interest collected and without any rights against school district since loan was void. Toler v. Love, 170 Miss. 252, 154 So. 711, 95 A.L.R. 1416 (1934).

Adjudication of board of mayor and aldermen of no sufficient protest against bond issuance is not subject to collateral attack. Green v. Hutson, 139 Miss. 471, 104 So. 171 (1925).

Construing the statute with others it is a necessary prerequisite to the issuance of school district bonds that there be an election. Barrett v. Cedar Hill Consol. Sch. Dist., 123 Miss. 370, 85 So. 125 (1920).

After notice of the proposed issuance of municipal bonds if twenty per centum of the taxpayers whether electors or not petition against the same, the municipal authorities can not rightfully issue the bonds for any amount until authorized by affirmative vote of two-thirds of the electors. Town of Clarksdale v. Broadbudd, 77 Miss. 667, 28 So. 954 (1900).

Before a municipality can rightfully issue bonds for any amount, under this provision authorizing and regulating such issuance, it must first publish notice of the proposed issuance as provided by a subsequent provision [§ 3604, superseded by § 3598-05], so that taxpayers may petition against same. Town of Clarksdale v. Broadbudd, 77 Miss. 667, 28 So. 954 (1900).

Even where there be no petition by the taxpayers against the same, where the issuance including all outstanding bonds will exceed in amount the prescribed proportion of the assessed value of the property, the bonds cannot rightfully be issued until authorized by vote of two-thirds of the electors. Town of Clarksdale v. Broadbudd, 77 Miss. 667, 28 So. 954 (1900).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Where ten percent of the qualified electors of a town filed a written protest against the issuance of bonds following publication of the notice of the intention to issue the bonds, the governing authorities, if they choose to go forward with the bond issue, must call and hold an election; if three-fifths of the qualified electors who vote in the election vote in favor of the issuance of bonds, then the governing authorities in their discretion may issue the bonds, either in whole or in part, within two years from the date of the election or within two years after the final favorable termination of any litigation affecting the issuance of the bonds. Tanner, Mar. 22, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0089.

The language in this section which requires the publication of the notice of election prior to the issuance of municipal bonds is mandatory, and failure to meet this requirement would be fatal. An election on the question held in the absence of such a publication would be invalid to authorize the issuance of the bonds. Bourgeois, July 30, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0358.

The election provided for by Section 21-33-307 shall be held, as far as is practicable, in the same manner as other elections are held in municipalities. At such election, all qualified electors of such municipality may vote. The ballots used at such election shall have printed thereon a brief statement of the amount and purpose of the proposed bond issue and the words "FOR THE BOND ISSUE" and "AGAINST THE BOND ISSUE," and the voter shall vote by placing a cross (X) or check mark (✓) opposite his choice on the proposition.

When the results of the election on the question of the issuance of such bonds shall have been canvassed by the election commissioners of such municipality and certified by them to the governing authorities of such municipality, it shall be the duty of such governing authorities to determine and adjudicate whether or not three-fifths of the qualified electors who voted in such election voted in favor of the issuance of such bonds. With respect to an election for issuing bonds for water and light purposes a majority of the electors voting in the election was sufficient to authorize issuance of the bonds since those who were indifferent to the election to the extent that they did not go and vote were not entitled to control the result of those who voted in the election. In re Municipal Bonds, 188 Miss. 817, 196 So. 258 (1940).

The provision "or for the construction of special improvements primarily chargeable to the property benefited," etc., does not make it a necessary part of the requirement as to water and land that there should be a charge primarily made against the improvement or the plant or equipment or the proceeds thereof, and it would be possible to issue bonds for water and light purposes without making the proceeds derived from the utility being constructed or improved or benefited a general charge upon the taxpayers of the city. In re Municipal Bonds, 188 Miss. 817, 196 So. 258 (1940).

Year within which municipal bonds might be issued after favorable determination of litigation did not begin to run until issuance of mandate fifteen days after Supreme Court's decision, which was time allowed for filing of suggestion of error. Love v. Mayor & Bd. of Aldermen, 166 Miss. 322, 148 So. 382 (1933).

Purpose of statute providing for issuance of municipal bonds within one year was to prevent issuance after reason which prompted electorate to assent thereto had disappeared. Love v. Mayor & Bd. of Aldermen, 166 Miss. 322, 148 So. 382 (1933).

Where contracts for sale of municipal bonds were made within year after favorable determination of litigation, there was an "issue" of the bonds within the year, though mechanical and ministerial work of printing, signing, and delivering the bonds remained to be done after expiration of the year. Love v. Mayor & Bd. of Aldermen, 166 Miss. 322, 148 So. 382 (1933).

§ 21-33-315. Maturities and interest.

All bonds issued by a municipality shall mature annually, with all maturities not longer than twenty (20) years, with not less than one-fiftieth ($\frac{1}{50}$) of the total issue to mature each year during the first five (5) years of the life of such bonds, not less than one-twenty-fifth ($\frac{1}{25}$) of the total issue to mature each year during the succeeding ten-year period of the life of such bonds, and the remainder to be amortized, as to principal and interest, into approximately equal annual payments, one (1) payment to mature each year for the remaining life of such bonds. However, in cases where bonds shall be issued or dated subsequent to the date fixed for making the municipal tax levy in the year in which such bonds are to be issued, the first maturity date of not less than one-fiftieth ($\frac{1}{50}$) of the total issue, may be fixed for any period not exceeding two (2) years from the date of the bonds with the same schedule of subsequent maturities as herein above set forth. Such bonds shall not bear a greater overall maximum interest rate to maturity than that allowed in Section 75-17-101, Mississippi Code of 1972. No bond shall bear more than one (1) rate of interest. Each bond shall bear interest from its date to its stated maturity date at the interest rate specified in the bid. All bonds of the same maturity shall bear the same rate of interest from date to maturity. All interest accruing on such bonds so issued shall be payable semiannually or annually, except that the first interest coupon attached to any such bond may be for any period not exceeding one (1) year.

No interest payment shall be evidenced by more than one (1) coupon and neither cancelled nor supplemental coupons shall be permitted. The lowest interest rate specified for any bonds issued shall not be less than seventy percent (70%) of the highest interest rate specified for the same bond issue. The interest rate of any one (1) interest coupon shall not exceed the maximum interest rate allowed on such bonds.

Each interest rate specified in any bid must be in multiples of one-eighth of one percent ($\frac{1}{8}$ of 1%) or in multiples of one-tenth of one percent ($\frac{1}{10}$ of 1%). The denomination, form, and place, or places, of payment of such bonds shall be fixed in the resolution or ordinance of the governing authorities issuing such bonds. Such bonds shall be executed by the manual or facsimile signature of the mayor and clerk of such municipality, with the seal of the municipality affixed thereto. At least one (1) signature on each bond shall be a manual signature, as specified in the resolution. The coupons may bear only the facsimile signatures of such mayor and clerk. No bonds shall be issued and sold under the provisions of this article for less than par and accrued interest.

Municipal bonds issued under this section providing that municipalities may on issuing them make a part mature annually and prohibiting in such case the calling in of the bonds until maturity, are not void because of a recital to the effect that the municipality reserves the right after a certain date to pay off and cancel any of the bonds. Board of Mayor v. Fulton, 79 Miss. 511, 31 So. 102 (1902).

It is not a defense to an action on municipal bonds by a bona fide holder without notice that the municipality was at the time of their issuance a separate school district, that the bonds were issued to raise funds with which to build a schoolhouse, that the debt incurred by their issuance exceeded a three-mill tax for their levy on the taxable property of the municipality, and that the consent of a majority of the taxpayers was not given to authorize the levy of a tax exceeding three mills on the dollar for the erection of the schoolhouse or the issuance of the bonds. Board of Mayor v. Fulton, 79 Miss. 511, 31 So. 102 (1902).

A void recital in municipal bonds does not render the bonds invalid. Board of Mayor v. Fulton, 79 Miss. 511, 31 So. 102 (1902).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Since town of Bay Springs is issuing certificates of indebtedness, town is not required to follow requirements of Section 4 of Senate Bill 2879, which apply to issuance of bonds; town of Bay Springs may therefore accept bid from Southern Pine Electric Power Association of 0 percent interest rate without violating statute. Houston, August 16, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0574.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

In order to insure that statutory provisions are complied with, any procedure for disbursal of bond funds to hospital must insure that any and all expenditures of funds are for purposes specified in resolution pertaining to bond issue in question; if contemplated procedure does not insure that funds will not be diverted for improper use, it should not be adopted. Peden, Feb. 7, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0074.

§ 21-33-323. Investment of surplus funds.

Whenever any municipality shall have on hand any bond and interest funds, any funds derived from the sale of bonds, special funds, or any other funds in excess of the sums which will be required for immediate expenditure and which are not needed or cannot by law be used for the payment of the current obligations or expenses of such municipality, the governing authorities of such municipality shall have the power and authority to invest such excess funds in any bonds or other direct obligations of the United States of America or the State of Mississippi, or of any county or municipality of this state, or of any school district, which such county or municipal or school district bonds have been approved by a reputable bond attorney or have been validated by a decree of the chancery court, or in obligations issued or guaranteed in full as to principal and interest by the United States of America which are subject to a repurchase agreement with a qualified depository. In any event the bonds or obligations in which such funds are invested shall mature or be redeemable prior to the time the funds so invested will be needed for expenditure. However, such excess funds may first be offered for investment in interest-bearing time certificates of deposit with or through municipal depositories serving in accordance with Section 27-105-353 at a rate of interest not less than a simple interest rate numerically equal to the average bank discount rate on United States Treasury bills of comparable maturity. The rate of interest established herein shall be the minimum rate of interest and there shall be no maximum rate of interest. Such excess funds may also be invested in time certificates of deposit in or through state depositories located in such municipality to the same extent as such depositories are eligible for invested state funds. When bonds or other obligations have been so purchased, the same may be sold or surrendered for redemption at any time by order or resolution of the governing authorities of the municipality, and the mayor of the municipality, when authorized by such order or resolution, shall have the power and authority to execute all instruments and take such other action as may be necessary to effectuate the sale or redemption thereof. When such bonds or other obligations are sold or redeemed, the proceeds thereof, including accrued interest thereon, shall be paid into the same fund as that from which the investment was made and shall in all respects be dealt with as are other monies in such fund. Except as hereinafter provided, any interest derived from the investments authorized in this section may, as an alternative, be deposited into the general fund of the municipality. Any interest derived from the investment of sums received under the terms of the federal State and Local Fiscal Assistance Act of 1972 and any subsequent revisions or reenactments of that act shall be paid into the same fund as that from which the investment was made. Any interest derived from the investment of school bond funds shall be handled as provided in Section 37-59-43. Any interest derived from investment of other bond proceeds or from investment of any bond and interest fund, bond reserve fund or bond redemption sinking fund shall be deposited either in the same fund from which the investment was made or in the bond and interest fund established for payment of the principal or interest on the bonds. Any interest derived from special purpose funds which are outside the function of general municipal government shall be paid into that special purpose fund. The authority granted by this section shall be cumulative and in addition to any other law relating to the investment of funds by municipalities.

Under § 3612 and § 4347, Code of 1942, a city has authority to make loan to a private individual and to accept assignment of promissory note and a trust deed to realty securing the same. Pace v. Wedgeworth, 198 Miss. 1, 20 So. 2d 842 (1945).

Court must presume that municipality, through its officers, in accepting assignment of promissory note and trust deed to realty securing the same, brought itself within the authorization of § 3612 and § 4347, Code of 1942, pertaining to the loaning of funds. Pace v. Wedgeworth, 198 Miss. 1, 20 So. 2d 842 (1945).

Supervisors held not liable personally for transfers from county road and bridge bond sinking fund to other unrelated county funds, since transfers were loans within statute, notwithstanding transfers were irregular and statutory requirements for loans from sinking funds were not complied with. Gully v. Thomas, 171 Miss. 749, 158 So. 465 (1935).

Loans of county sinking funds, made in manner violative of Code sections, held illegal, so that cause of action for their recovery accrued at once to county. Gully v. Bew, 170 Miss. 427, 154 So. 284 (1934), suggestion of error overruled, 170 Miss. 427, 154 So. 721 (1934); Harper v. Gully, 154 So. 288 (Miss. 1934); Gully v. Bradford, 155 So. 172 (Miss. 1934).

Where loans of county sinking funds by board of supervisors were illegally made, board could not, by extending time for payment, divest itself of immediate right to sue for recovery thereof, and such extension did not suspend or postpone limitation period for State Tax Collector's suit to foreclose trust deeds securing such loans. *Gully v. § 21-33-325. Borrowing in anticipation of taxes.

The governing authorities of any municipality of this state shall have the power and authority to borrow money for the current expenses of such municipality in anticipation of the ad valorem taxes to be collected for the then current fiscal year. The governing authority of the municipality may borrow such money, as hereinbefore provided, from any available fund in the municipal treasury, or from any other source, and such loan shall be repaid in the manner herein provided. The money so borrowed shall bear interest at a rate not greater than that allowed in Section 75-17-105, Mississippi Code of 1972, and shall be repaid not later than the following March 15, out of the first moneys collected by reason of the tax levy in anticipation of which such money is borrowed, and such money shall be used for no other purpose than the payment of the current expenses of such municipality. The amount borrowed under the provisions of this section shall in no event exceed fifty percent (50%) of the anticipated, but then uncollected, revenue to be produced by the then current tax levy, or levies, against which such money is borrowed. In borrowing money under the provisions hereof, it shall not be necessary to publish notice of intention so to do or to secure the consent of the qualified electors, either by election or otherwise. Such borrowing may be authorized by resolution of the governing authorities and may be evidenced by a negotiable note, or notes, signed and executed in such form as may be prescribed in such resolution. Money may be borrowed in anticipation of ad valorem taxes under the provisions of this section, regardless of whether or not such borrowing shall create an indebtedness in excess of statutory limitations.

Money may likewise be borrowed by the governing authorities of any municipality, as herein provided, for the purpose of paying current interest maturities on any bonded indebtedness of such municipality in anticipation of the collection of taxes for the retirement of such bonded indebtedness and the payment of any interest thereon.

Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, the governing authorities of any municipality in any county whose reappraisal of property for ad valorem taxation was initially certified by the State Tax Commission in January of 1987 to be in accordance with the rules and regulations of the State Tax Commission, may repay money borrowed in anticipation of taxes under this section, including interest thereon, not later than July 31, 1987. This paragraph shall stand repealed from and after August 1, 1987.

§ 21-33-326. Borrowing in anticipation of confirmed federal grants or loans.

(1) Any city, town or village that shall have received a binding commitment from the United States of America, or any agency thereof, or the State of Mississippi, or any agency thereof, for a grant or loan may borrow money in anticipation of receipt of funds from such confirmed grant or loan unless prohibited by federal law or by the terms of the agreement concerning such grant or loan and may assign and pledge as security for such interim financing the proceeds of any such grant or loan. The governing authority of the municipality may borrow such money, as hereinbefore provided, from any available fund in the municipal treasury, or from any other source, and such loan shall be repaid in the manner herein provided.

(2) Such interim financing shall be upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by the issuing entity and the party advancing such interim funds or the purchaser of the obligations evidencing such indebtedness; provided, however, that the principal on any such loan shall be repaid within a reasonable time after receipt of funds from the United States of America, or from the State of Mississippi, or any agency thereof, the anticipation of which gave rise to said interim financing, and provided that the interest rate on such interim financing shall not exceed that allowed in Section 75-17-107, Mississippi Code of 1972.

(3) In borrowing money under the provisions hereof, it shall not be necessary to publish notice of intention so to do or to secure the consent of the qualified electors, either by election or otherwise. Such borrowing may be authorized by resolution of the governing authority of the issuing entity and may be evidenced by a negotiable note or notes in such form as may be prescribed in such resolution. The indebtedness incurred under this section shall not be considered when computing any limitation of indebtedness of the issuing entity established by law.

(4) Such borrowing, whether or not evidenced by a negotiable note or notes, may be placed or sold at public or private sales for such price and in such manner and from time to time as may be determined by the issuing entity, and the issuing entity may pay all expenses, premiums and commissions which its governing body may deem necessary or advantageous in connection with the issuance thereof.

(5) Such borrowing shall be limited to the sum of: (a) the amount of the confirmed grant or loan; (b) the amount of interest payable on such interim financing; and (c) the reasonable cost of incurring such indebtedness or issuing the note or notes evidencing such indebtedness. All moneys borrowed under the authority of this section shall be secured by and repaid from the grant or loan proceeds, earnings on the investment of the grant or loan proceeds and the proceeds of the interim financing, and from any other proceeds, revenues or earnings received by the issuing entity in connection with such grant or loan or with the interim financing, and may be further secured by and repaid from available revenues of a municipally owned utility.

(6) In the event grant or loan proceeds pledged to the repayment of the interim financing have not been received in time to pay at maturity all or a portion of the principal of and interest on the indebtedness incurred pursuant to this section, the issuing entity may borrow additional moneys pursuant to this section in anticipation of the aforesaid grant or loan proceeds in order to pay at maturity the outstanding principal and interest on the indebtedness previously incurred, provided that the indebtedness originally incurred shall be promptly repaid upon receipt of proceeds of such subsequent borrowing. The issuing entity may enter into agreements with one or more lenders obligating such lenders to provide such additional financing upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by the issuing entity and the lenders.

(7) The issuing entity borrowing money under the provisions of this section may employ a fiscal adviser under the terms and conditions provided in Section 21-27-45.

(8) This section, without reference to any other statute, shall be deemed to be full and complete authority for the borrowing of such funds and the issuance of a note or notes to evidence such indebtedness, and shall be construed as an additional and alternative method therefor, and none of the present restrictions, requirements, conditions or limitations of law applicable to the issuance or sale of bonds, notes or other obligations by the issuing entity in this state shall apply to the borrowing of funds under this section, and no proceedings shall be required for the borrowing of such funds other than those provided for and required herein, and all powers necessary to be exercised in order to carry out the provisions of this section are hereby conferred; provided further, that powers herein granted shall refer only to notes issued in anticipation of confirmed grants or loans as provided hereinabove.

MUNICIPAL REVOLVING FUND.

SEC.

21-33-401. Municipal revolving fund.

§ 21-33-401. Municipal revolving fund.

(1) There is hereby created a fund designated as the “municipal revolving fund.”

(2) The municipal revolving fund shall be created in the following manner:

(a) At the end of each state fiscal year, the state fiscal management board, the state auditor of public accounts and the state treasurer shall determine the extent of the surplus existing in the general fund in the state treasury. Said surplus, as hereinafter defined, but not to exceed the sum of Seven Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($750,000.00) shall be set aside annually for the benefit of the municipalities of the state.

(b) The term “surplus,” as used above, means the amount in the general fund only, after deducting all appropriations. However, if a state agency has been authorized to exceed its budget during the fiscal year, such excess shall be subtracted from the so-called surplus in the general fund before determining the amount available for distribution.

(c) It shall be the duty of the state fiscal management board each year to make the final determination as to the amount of money available for the municipalities, which shall not exceed Seven Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($750,000.00) but which may, if necessary, be less than Seven Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($750,000.00).

(d) If a surplus is available under the terms of this section, the distribution shall be made each year by the state auditor of public accounts during the month of October.

(e) Any available surplus shall be distributed annually to all municipalities on a population basis, using the latest federal census in computations, taking into consideration the entire population of each municipality in the state, and taking into consideration municipalities which have been incorporated since the last federal census, or will be incorporated prior to the next federal census, in which case the population shall be the official count used in procuring the charter of incorporation, and also taking into consideration any county seat which is not an incorporated municipality as though the county seat were an incorporated municipality. In making distribution to an unincorporated county seat, however, the funds computed to be due such county seat shall be paid to the county treasury wherein such county seat is located.

Funds made available to municipalities under the provisions of this section may be used for any lawful municipal purpose, except that where funds are made available by reason of the location of an unincorporated county seat in any county, the board of supervisors in that county shall use the funds for road, bridge and street construction or maintenance.

(3) The periodical, annual surplus, referred to in this section, when determined, as to amount and availability, shall be set aside by the state treasurer in a special fund to be known as the "municipal revolving fund." Such transfer shall not be made until after August 31st of each year, and it shall not be made until the state treasurer has received a certificate in writing from the state fiscal management board and signed by the governor, showing the amount available. Upon the setting aside of any such sum constituting the "municipal revolving fund" in the state treasury, the distribution thereof under this section shall be made by the state auditor of public accounts by warrants drawn on the state treasurer payable from the "municipal revolving fund."

(4) From and after July 1, 1986, any transfer or distribution under this section shall be made by the state fiscal management board in lieu of the state auditor. The state fiscal management board shall immediately send notice of any such distribution to the legislative budget office.

Editor's Note — Section 7-7-2, as added by Laws of 1984, chapter 488, § 90, and amended by Laws of 1985, chapter 455, § 14, Laws of 1986, chapter 499, § 1, provided, at subsection (2) therein, that the words "state auditor of public accounts", "state auditor", and "auditor" appearing in the laws of the state in connection with the performance of auditor's functions transferred to the state fiscal management board, shall be the state fiscal management board, and, more particularly, such words or terms shall mean the state fiscal management board whenever they appear. Thereafter, Laws of 1989, chapter 532, § 2, amended § 7-7-2 to provide that the words "State Auditor of Public Accounts," "State Auditor" and "Auditor" appearing in the laws of this state in connection with the performance of Auditor's functions shall mean the State Fiscal Officer, and, more particularly, such words or terms shall mean the State Fiscal Officer whenever they appear. Subsequently, Laws of 1989, ch. 544, § 17, effective July 1, 1989, and codified as § 27-104-6, provides that wherever the term "State Fiscal Officer" appears in any law it shall mean "Executive Director of the Department of Finance and Administration".

§ 21-35-3. Fiscal year.

Each municipality of the State of Mississippi shall operate on a fiscal year basis, beginning October first and ending September thirtieth of each year.

§ 21-35-5. Preparation and publication of annual budget; public hearing.

The governing authorities of each municipality of the State of Mississippi shall, not later than September 15 each year, prepare a complete budget of the municipal revenues, expenses and working cash balances estimated for the next fiscal year, and shall prepare a statement showing the aggregate revenues collected during the current year in said municipality for municipal purposes. Such statement shall show every source of revenue along with the amount derived from each source. Said budget of any municipality of one thousand five hundred (1,500) inhabitants or more, according to the last preceding federal census, with said statement of revenue and expenses, shall be published at least one (1) time during September of said year in a newspaper published in such municipality or, if no newspaper be published in such municipality, in any newspaper published in the county wherein the municipality is located. In municipalities of less than one thousand five hundred (1,500) inhabitants, according to the last preceding federal census, as many as three (3) prepared statements of said budget shall be posted in three (3) public places in said municipalities.

Prior to the adoption of a budget pursuant to this section, the governing authority of each municipality shall hold at least one (1) public hearing to provide the general public with an opportunity to comment on the taxing and spending plan incorporated in the proposed budget. The public hearing shall be held at least one (1) week prior to the adoption of the budget with advance notice and held outside normal working hours. The advance notice shall include an announcement published or posted in the same manner as required for the final adopted budget.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

In an action by a city against a commissioner, who was also city clerk, which was instituted in the chancery court and transferred to the circuit court, charging that the commissioner and clerk had during a three-month period, in the last year of his term of office, expended from city funds contract obligations in excess of one fourth of the various items of the city budget for that year, and had failed to keep proper city records and books, where a copy of the budget was exhibited with the bill and declaration, a copy of the city audit was available to the defendant, and the chancery court, to which the case was remanded, would have ample power to require any needed further clarification, the circuit court did not err in overruling defendant's motion for a bill of particulars. City of Biloxi v. Creel, 232 Miss. 284, 98 So. 2d 774 (1957).

Where a determinative vote on a resolution, directing the dismissal of the city's suit to recover losses resulting from budget excesses, illegal expenditures and failure to keep proper records by officials of the city, was cast by one of the officials sued, the resolution was void, not only as to the voting city official but as to the other defendant as well. Friedhof v. City of Biloxi, 232 Miss. 20, 97 So. 2d 742 (1957).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

As between qualified newspapers, a newspaper with a known office of publication within the municipality must be selected to publish the legal notices of that municipality. Edens, July 23, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0289.

§ 21-35-7. Form of budget.

Said budget of expenses and revenue shall be prepared in such form as may be necessary, upon forms to be prescribed by the state auditor, as the head of the state department of audit, or the director thereof, appointed by him, as designated and defined in Title 7, Chapter 7, of the Mississippi Code of 1972, or any office or officers hereafter designated to replace or perform the duties imposed by said chapter, to show all estimates for the different municipal purposes of expenditure and source of revenue, respectively.

Thereafter, Laws of 1989, chapter 532, § 2, amended § 7-7-2 to provide that the words "State Auditor of Public Accounts", "State Auditor" and "Auditor" appearing in the laws of this state in connection with the performance of Auditor's functions shall mean the State Fiscal Officer, and, more particularly, such words or terms shall mean the State Fiscal Officer whenever they appear. Subsequently, Laws of 1989, ch. 544, § 17, effective July 1, 1989, and codified as § 27-104-6, provides that wherever the term "State Fiscal Officer" appears in any law it shall mean "Executive Director of the Department of Finance and Administration".

§ 21-35-9. Contents of final budget; approval thereof.

The budget as finally determined, in addition to setting out separately each item for which any appropriation of expenditures is authorized to be expended and the fund out of which the same is to be paid, shall set out the total amount appropriated and authorized to be expended from each fund, the cash balance in the fund at the close of the present preceding fiscal year, the working cash balance necessary for the next fiscal year, the estimated amount, if any, which will accrue to the fund from sources other than taxation for the current fiscal year, and the amount necessary to be raised for each fund by tax levy during the current fiscal year. The governing authorities of the municipality shall then, by resolution, approve and adopt the budget as finally determined, and enter the same at length and in detail in their official minutes.

The board of governing authorities shall not authorize any expenditure of money, and the city clerk shall not issue any warrant for same, except for bonds, notes, debts and interest, after October 1 in each year, unless and until the budget be finally approved, and such approval entered upon their minutes.

§ 21-35-11. Records of municipal funds.

The clerk of the municipality shall open and keep a regular set of records, as prescribed by the State Auditor, as the head of the State Department of Audit, or the director thereof, appointed by him, as designated and defined in Title 7, Chapter 7, of the Mississippi Code of 1972, or any office or officers hereafter designated to replace or perform the duties imposed by said chapter, of each and every fund of the municipality, subject always to inspection within office hours by any citizen desiring to inspect the same. Said records shall contain accounts, under headings, corresponding with the several headings of the budget, so that the expenditures under each head may be at once known, and the purpose for which expended, and said records shall show the source of all monies received and paid into each fund of the municipality. Said records shall be paid for out of the general municipal fund, upon the order of the proper municipal authorities.

For failure to perform any duty herein required, said clerk shall be subject to suit on his bond for any damage which the municipality may sustain by reason of such failure. Such suit, or suits, shall be brought by the city attorney or by any attorney designated and empowered to do so by the proper governing authorities of such municipality.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

The governing authorities of a town may, in their discretion, establish procedures for collection of mail to ensure that safeguards exist which will assist the municipal clerk in the carrying out of her functions; the board may also authorize who can and who cannot pick up and open the mail. Freeman and Daily, Mar. 15, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0078.

At the regular meeting in each month, the city clerk shall submit to the governing authorities of the municipality a report showing the expenditures and liabilities incurred against each separate budget appropriation item during the preceding calendar month, and like information for the whole of the fiscal year to the first day of the month in which such report is made, together with the unexpended balance of each appropriation item and the unencumbered balance. He shall also set forth the receipts from property taxes and, in detail, the receipts from other taxes and all other sources of each fund for the same period.

§ 21-35-15. Expenditure of funds.

The governing authorities shall at all times keep within the sums named in their said budget and within the annual revenue, always seeking to lessen expenditures instead of exceeding revenue and budget estimates. There shall not be added to the amount to be appropriated and authorized to be expended for any item, or to the total amount appropriated and authorized to be expended from any fund any amount or percentage whatever because of any anticipated loss of revenue by reason of the nonpayment of taxes levied for the current fiscal year. The amount appropriated and authorized to be expended for any item contained in such budget, except for capital outlay, election expenses, and payment of emergency warrants and interest thereon, must not exceed the amount actually estimated for such item, and the total amount appropriated and authorized to be expended from any fund, except for capital outlay, election expenses and payment of emergency warrants and interest thereon, shall not exceed the total amount actually estimated for all purposes. The total expenditures authorized to be made from any fund shall not exceed the aggregate cash balance, in such fund at the close of the fiscal year immediately preceding, plus the amount of estimated revenues to accrue to such fund, as determined and fixed in the manner provided by this chapter, and the amount which may be raised for such fund by a lawful tax levy during the current fiscal year. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent any municipality from making adequate provision at any time for the payment of principal of and interest on its outstanding bonded indebtedness.

§ 21-35-17. Budget estimates not to be exceeded; liability therefor.

Expenditures made, liabilities incurred, or warrants issued in excess of any of the budget detailed appropriations as originally and finally determined, or as thereafter revised by transfer as provided by this chapter, shall not be a liability of the municipality, but the official making or incurring such expenditure or issuing such warrant shall be liable therefor personally and upon his official bond. The governing authorities shall not approve any claim and the city clerk shall not issue any warrant for any expenditure in excess of said detailed budget appropriations as finally adopted, or as revised under the provisions of this chapter, except upon an order of a court of competent jurisdiction or for an emergency, as provided in this chapter. Any one or more of the governing authorities, or clerk, approving any claim or issuing any warrant in excess of any such budget appropriation, except as above provided, shall forfeit to the municipality twice the amount of such claim or warrant, which shall be recovered in an action against such member, or members, of the governing authorities, or clerk, or all of them, and the several sureties on their official bonds, and it shall be the duty of the governing authorities of such municipality, or the state auditor, as the head of the state department of audit, or the director thereof, appointed by him, or any taxpayer of such municipality, to bring an action therefor through the city attorney, or any attorney designated and empowered so to do by a court of competent jurisdiction.

§ 21-35-19. Emergency expenditures.

Upon the happening of any emergency caused by fire, flood, explosion, storm, earthquake, epidemic, riot or insurrection, or caused by any inherent defect due to defective construction, or when the immediate preservation of order or of public health is necessary, or when the restoration of a condition of usefulness of any public building which has been destroyed by accident appears advisable or in order to settle lawful claims for personal injuries or property damage where such municipality is liable therefor under law, exclusive of claims arising from the operation of any public utility owned by the municipality, or in order to meet mandatory expenditures required by law, the board of governing authorities may, upon adoption by unanimous vote of all members present, at any meeting, of a resolution stating the facts constituting the emergency and entering the same upon its minutes, make the expenditures, borrow money, or incur the liabilities necessary to meet such emergency, without further notice or hearing, and may revise the budget accordingly.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

The governing authorities of a town, if they made the factual determination that an emergency existed, could enter into contracts with the United States Department of Agriculture or other federal agencies to obtain grants or to sell bonds as authorized by the results of a bond election, contracts with contractors for the construction of the sewer system, and a contract with a city as authorized by a Senate Bill for the purpose of constructing and maintaining a sewer system pursuant to Section 21-35-19, even if the town exceeded the budget limitations imposed by Section 21-35-27. Hatcher, Apr. 23, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0247.

This section and § 21-35-21 provide authority for municipal governing authorities, in emergency situations, to borrow funds. Whether an emergency exists to satisfy the requirements of these statutes is a question of fact to be resolved by the municipal governing authorities. Paying salaries of police and public works employees may be found necessary to preserve order and/or public health. Marshall, Aug. 27, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0428.

§ 21-35-21. Emergency warrants.

All emergency expenditures made under the provisions of Section 21-35-19 shall be made by the issuance of emergency warrants drawn against the special fund, or funds, properly chargeable with such expenditures. The municipal depository is authorized and directed to pay such emergency warrants with any money in such fund, or funds, available for such purpose. If at any time there shall not be sufficient money available in such fund, or funds, from usual sources or from grants, transfers or donations, to pay such warrants, then the governing authorities of the municipality are hereby authorized to borrow the required amount, not to exceed the authorized emergency expenditures, in the manner now provided by law, and shall execute the notes of the municipality for the amount borrowed.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Section 21-35-19 and this section provide authority for municipal governing authorities, in emergency situations, to borrow funds. Whether an emergency exists to satisfy the requirements of these statutes is a question of fact to be resolved by the municipal governing authorities. Paying salaries of police and public works employees may be found necessary to preserve order and/or public health. Marshall, Aug. 27, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0428.

§ 21-35-22. Municipal Reserve Fund.

Any municipality in the state may establish a special fund to be known as a municipal reserve fund. Funds specifically designated by the governing authorities of a municipality for deposit in the municipality's reserve fund shall be deposited in a separate municipal account established for this purpose. The interest earned in a municipality's reserve fund shall be credited to the municipality's reserve fund. Legal expenditures shall be made from the fund upon requisition of the governing authorities of a municipality, spread on the minutes and signed by the mayor of the municipality, the secretary of the mayor, or the president of the city council or board of aldermen. A municipality may deposit funds as needed into its reserve fund.

SOURCES: Laws, 1999, ch. 352, § 1, eff from and after July 1, 1999.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

With regard to the privatization of maintenance and operation of municipal water and sewer systems, the governing authorities do not have authority to establish a reserve fund to pay for materials used by the contractor for maintenance and repairs to the systems and other expenditures as may be mutually agreed between the parties; the governing authorities may establish a reserve fund for expenses of the water system or other expenses, but only the governing authorities are authorized to make expenditures from the fund. Snyder, Nov. 27, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0673.

§ 21-35-23. When appropriations made under budget to lapse.

All appropriations, other than appropriations for uncompleted improvements in progress of construction, shall lapse at the end of the fiscal year. The appropriation accounts shall remain open for a period of thirty days thereafter for the payment of claims incurred against such appropriations prior to the close of the fiscal year and remaining unpaid. After such period shall have expired, all appropriations, except as hereinbefore provided regarding uncompleted improvements, shall become null and void, and any lawful claim presented thereafter against any such appropriation shall be provided for in the current budget.

§ 21-35-25. Revision of municipal budget.

Notwithstanding any provision in this chapter to the contrary, the budget of any municipality may be revised as provided in this section and under the conditions herein stated, and when a deficit is indicated the budget shall be revised.

The governing authorities of any municipality are authorized to revise the budget for expenses of such municipality at any one (1) regular meeting of said governing authorities held not later than August of the first year in which such governing authorities enter upon the discharge of their duties, provided there be funds in the treasury of the municipality, or coming into the treasury during the fiscal year, not appropriated by the budget of the outgoing board of governing authorities, and there is a deficit in any one (1) or more items provided for in the budget of the preceding board. This section shall not, however, validate or invalidate any contracts made, executed or entered into by the governing authorities of the preceding term.

If it appears at any time during the current fiscal year, but not later than the regular July meeting of the board of governing authorities, that collections of anticipated revenues from taxes or other sources will be less than the amount estimated, and a deficit is thereby indicated for any fund, or funds, the governing authorities shall, at a regular meeting, revise and reduce the budget appropriations for such funds as is anticipated will have a deficit, so as to conform to the lowered indicated revenue, including revenue from taxes and all other sources.

If it affirmatively appears at any time during the current fiscal year that actual collections and anticipated revenues from taxes or other sources, including grants or donations, will exceed the estimates, then the governing authorities may revise and increase the budget appropriation of such fund, or funds, affected by such increase in revenue, but no such transfer shall be made from fund to fund, or from item to item, which will result in the expenditure of any money for a purpose different from that for which the tax was levied. The budget, as so revised, shall be spread in detail upon the minutes of said board of governing authorities. However, no such increase shall in any event be construed to authorize expenditures or to incur obligations which will result in a deficit in any fund, or funds.

If the increase in revenue over the estimates is from other than regular sources, including grants and donations, such excess over the estimate may be expended for improvements and new construction, including buildings, additions to buildings, streets, and street improvements.

If it affirmatively appears at any time during the current fiscal year that there is in any fund or account any sum remaining unexpended and not needed or expected to be needed for the purpose or purposes for which appropriated in said budget, then the governing authorities may, in their discretion, transfer such sum or any part thereof to any other fund or funds or account or accounts where needed, by order to such effect entered upon their minutes. This shall not, however, authorize the expenditure of any funds for any purpose other than that for which the levy producing such funds was made.

Any amendments made pursuant to this section to an originally adopted budget which exceed ten percent (10%) of the total amount appropriated or authorized to be expended in a particular department fund shall be published or posted within two (2) weeks of the action in a newspaper in the same manner as the final adopted budget. Separate amendments to an originally adopted budget during one fiscal year which affect a particular department fund shall be considered as one (1) amendment in determining whether the ten percent (10%) threshold requiring publication or posting has been reached. This publication or posted notice shall contain a description of the amendment, the amount of money and funds affected, and a detailed statement explaining the need and purpose of the amendment. The vote of each member of the municipality's governing authority on each amendment shall be included in the publication or posted notice.

If a municipality reduces funding to a park commission due to the increase in the value of a mill, the municipality may amend its budget by following the provisions of Section 21-35-25. Bordis, Jan. 31, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0020.

§ 21-35-27. Expenditures for last year of term are limited.

No board of governing authorities of any municipality shall expend from, or contract an obligation, against the budget made and published by it during the last year of the term of office of such governing authorities, between the first day of April and the first Monday of the following July, a sum exceeding one-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) of any item of the budget made and published by it, except in cases of emergency provided for in Section 21-35-19. The city clerk of any municipality is hereby prohibited from issuing any warrant contrary to the provisions of this section.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to a contract, lease or lease-purchase contract entered into pursuant to Section 31-7-13 or to seasonal purchases or expenditures.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

In an action by a city against a commissioner, who was also city clerk, which was instituted in the chancery court and transferred to the circuit court, charging that the commissioner and clerk had during a three-month period, in the last year of his term of office, expended from city funds contract obligations in excess of one fourth of the various items of the city budget for that year, and had failed to keep proper city records and books, where a copy of the budget was exhibited with the bill and declaration, a copy of the city audit was available to the defendant, and the chancery court, to which the case was remanded, would have ample power to require any needed further clarification, the circuit court did not err in overruling defendant’s motion for a bill of particulars. City of Biloxi v. Creel, 232 Miss. 284, 98 So. 2d 774 (1957).

Where a determinative vote on a resolution, directing the dismissal of the city’s suit to recover losses resulting from budget excesses, illegal expenditures and failure to keep proper records by officials of the city, was cast by one of the officials sued, the resolution was void, not only as to the voting city official but as to the other defendant as well. Friedhof v. City of Biloxi, 232 Miss. 20, 97 So. 2d 742 (1957).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

§ 21-35-31. Annual audits required.

The governing authorities of every municipality in the state shall have their books audited annually, prior to the close of the next succeeding fiscal year, either by a competent accountant approved by the State Auditor or by a certified public accountant, who has paid a privilege tax as such in this state, and shall pay for same out of the General Fund. No advertisement shall be necessary before entering into such contract, but same shall be entered into as a private contract. Said audit shall be made upon a uniform formula set up and promulgated by the State Auditor, as the head of the State Department of Audit, or the director thereof, appointed by him, as designated and defined in Title 7, Chapter 7, of the Mississippi Code of 1972, or any office or officers hereafter designated to replace or perform the duties imposed by said chapter. Provided, however, any municipality with a population of three thousand (3,000) or less may employ a competent accountant or auditor, approved by the State Auditor, to prepare annually a compilation report and a compliance letter, in a format prescribed by the State Auditor, in lieu of an annual audit when such audit will be a financial hardship on the municipality. Two (2) copies of said audit or compilation shall be mailed to the said State Auditor within thirty (30) days after completion of said audit. Said State Auditor shall, at the end of each fiscal year, submit to the Legislature a composite report showing any information concerning municipalities in this state that he might deem pertinent and necessary to the Legislature for use in its deliberations. A synopsis of said audit, in a format prescribed by the State Auditor, shall be published within thirty (30) days by the governing authorities of such municipalities in a newspaper published in such municipalities or, if no newspaper be published in any such municipality, in any newspaper having a general circulation published in the county wherein such municipality is located. The publication of the audit may be made as provided in Section 21-17-19, Mississippi Code of 1972. Such publication shall be made one (1) time, and the governing authorities of such municipalities shall be authorized to pay only one-half (½) of the legal rate prescribed by law for such legal publication.

The power given municipalities to grant utility franchises and the right to use their streets and public places are subject to legislative control. Delta Elec. Power Ass'n v. Mississippi Power & Light Co., 250 Miss. 482, 149 So. 2d 504 (1963), appeal dismissed, cert. denied, 375 U.S. 77, 84 S. Ct. 196, 11 L. Ed. 2d 142 (1963), reh'g denied, 375 U.S. 981, 84 S. Ct. 478, 11 L. Ed. 2d 428 (1964).

This section confers no authority on a municipality to repair, maintain or pave a road outside its corporate limits. Logan v. City of Clarksdale, 240 Miss. 716, 128 So. 2d 537 (1961).

Mere statutory authority to construct sewers or drains does not impose any duty to exercise such authority and, unless the duty is positively imposed by the state, the municipality has discretion to determine whether it will construct a system of drains and sewers, as well as discretion to determine the nature, extent, capacity, and cost of the system, the time and manner of construction, the method of financing its construction and maintenance; and the city cannot be compelled to exercise discretion regarding the construction of sewer system. City of Greenville v. Queen City Lumber Co., 227 Miss. 749, 86 So. 2d 860 (1956).

A commercial carrier of passengers for hire in a municipality must obtain a franchise before the carrier can operate for those purposes. Payne v. Jackson City Lines, 220 Miss. 180, 70 So. 2d 520 (1954).

A nonexclusive franchise of a common carrier for passengers for hire is a valuable property right, and the carrier is entitled to relief by way of an injunction against a threatened or actual injury to his property rights through illegal competition of another common carrier of passengers for hire. Payne v. Jackson City Lines, 220 Miss. 180, 70 So. 2d 520 (1954).

The continuous use of an unplatted and undedicated passageway between the rear stores by their proprietors and customers over a period of more than fifty years did not authorize the claim of a municipality to such passageway as a public alley or highway against the fee owners of the land. Stuart v. Town of Morton, 200 Miss. 160, 26 So. 2d 246 (1946).

A city is under a duty to exercise reasonable care to make its parks reasonably safe places for people to resort to, and city is liable for negligence in the maintenance thereof. Harllee v. City of Gulfport, 120 F.2d 41 (5th Cir. 1941).

A case in which plaintiff's damages to his land caused by concentrating the flow of the water thereon from outlet ditch from street drains was held nominal. Watkins v. Board of Mayor & Aldermen, 113 Miss. 38, 73 So. 867 (1917).

In actions against a city for injuries due to negligence in the operation of an electric light plant operated by the city, liability must be determined by the same rules applicable to individuals and private corporations conducting like enterprises. Yazoo City v. Birchett, 89 Miss. 700, 42 So. 569 (1906).

A city which had contracted with a water company for a supply of pure and wholesome water was not estopped to complain that the water furnished did not reach such standard, although, prior to the contract, the city had accepted samples of the water like that thereafter furnished. Meridian Waterworks Co. v. Mayor of Meridian, 85 Miss. 515, 37 So. 927 (1905).

The fact that the contract of a city with a water company for the furnishing of first-class fire protection mentioned the different sizes of pipe which might be used in constructing the system did not limit the obligation of the company to furnish first-class fire protection, nor preclude the city from complaining that such protection was not furnished, although the pipes used complied with those mentioned in the contract. Meridian Waterworks Co. v. Mayor of Meridian, 85 Miss. 515, 37 So. 927 (1905).

7. —Dedication, or conveyance to municipality.

A stipulation in a deed conveying property to a city for a street which constitutes a condition subsequent for a cancellation of the deed does not relieve the grantor from taxes to maintain street. Kimball v. City of Jackson, 118 Miss. 789, 80 So. 3 (1918).

On land donated to a municipality for a park, the municipality had authority to construct or permit the construction of a statute of one of the donors thereon, where such statute does not deprive the public of the park as a pleasure ground.

Brahan v. City of Meridian, 111 Miss. 30, 71 So. 170 (1916).

A case where land was platted and mapped into lots and blocks with intervening streets and the city afterwards extended its limits to include said platted territory and worked part of the streets, held that the city accepted the dedication of the streets, including those not graded and repaired. City of Jackson v. Laird, 99 Miss. 476, 55 So. 41 (1911).

Where an owner impliedly dedicated a strip of land for a street by platting it and making a map and selling the lots as laid out, the fact that a municipality for more than ten years thereafter used only a portion of the land designated as a street did not deprive it of the right to use the entire strip for a street when necessary for the convenience of the public. Indianola Light, Ice & Coal Co. v. Montgomery, 85 Miss. 304, 37 So. 958 (1904).

Under a devise "for a public park" a municipality may take and hold land convenient and accessible therefor although it lies without the corporate limits and the charter confers no express authority to own land outside. Lester v. Mayor of Jackson, 69 Miss. 887, 11 So. 114 (1892).

8. —Regulation of drivers of motor vehicles; reckless driving.

Ordinance prohibiting children under fifteen from driving automobiles held not void as conflicting with statutes. Somerville v. Keeler, 165 Miss. 244, 145 So. 721 (1933).

It is held that a license fee of $1.00 charged motor vehicle drivers is not a revenue measure and may be imposed by a city on those who operate a motor vehicle in its streets. Wasson v. City of Greenville, 123 Miss. 642, 86 So. 450 (1920).

The driving of an auto at an unlawful and dangerous speed upon a frequently used street in a populous part of a city is negligence per se. Ulmer v. Pistole, 115 Miss. 485, 76 So. 522 (1917).

An auto driver who fails to look both ways at a street intersection is guilty of negligence. Ulmer v. Pistole, 115 Miss. 485, 76 So. 522 (1917).

9. Sewers.

Town failing to prevent employee of highway department from removing covering to storm sewer opening was responsible for resulting injury. Town of Senatobia v. Dean, 157 Miss. 207, 127 So. 773 (1930).

However, a city was not liable for injuries caused by negligence in replacing cesspool cover by employee of a sanitary contractor designated by the city, but whose work was on behalf the property owner, he not being in the employ of the city. City of Gulfport v. Shepperd, 116 Miss. 439, 77 So. 193 (1918).

An instance where the city is held liable for damage to plaintiff's property by conducting its offal into a private sewage and depositing it on plaintiff's property. Thompson v. City of Winona, 96 Miss. 591, 51 So. 129, Am. Ann. Cas. 1912B,449 (1910).

After notice to a city that private sewerage is connected with its gutters along the sides of a street whereby the offal is carried to a vacant lot, which creates a nuisance, and renders an adjoining house uninhabitable, city is liable for damage where it does not prevent such condition. Mayor of Vicksburg v. Richardson, 90 Miss. 1, 42 So. 234 (1906).

10. Streets and sidewalks, in general.

Municipality has duty to exercise ordinary care to keep its streets reasonably safe for use by persons exercising reasonable care and caution. Owens v. Town of Booneville, 206 Miss. 345, 40 So. 2d 158 (1949).

A state highway, projecting into or through a municipality, becomes a street and subject to municipal control, unless the statute expressly and clearly provides otherwise. City of Ellisville v. State Hwy. Comm'n, 186 Miss. 473, 191 So. 274 (1939).

Former section confers upon municipalities that full jurisdiction in respect of streets, such as parking of automobiles and the regulation thereof, and includes control over primary state highways within the boundaries of the municipality; the statutory provision (§ 8037, Code 1942), requiring the State Highway Commission to pave the streets used by it in towns of less than 2500 population in conformity with the dimensions and material used in the state highway, and the provision (§ 8038, Code 1942), placing exclusive control in the Highway Commission of all state highways fixed "as roads" did not modify the power of the municipality, particularly in view of the limitations contained in the last section. City of Ellisville v. State Hwy. Comm'n, 186 Miss. 473, 191 So. 274 (1939).

Municipal authorities had power to contract for construction of curbs and gutters and paving of streets. United States Fid. & Guar. Co. v. City of Canton, 157 Miss. 680, 128 So. 744 (1930).

City accepting contractor's bond containing provision requiring city to give surety notice before making final payment assumed such obligation. United States Fid. & Guar. Co. v. City of Canton, 157 Miss. 680, 128 So. 744 (1930).

Under former section streets may be devoted to any proper use incidental to construction and maintenance of a public thoroughfare, although the city may be liable to abutting property owners for damages sustained by them in making drains or ditches. City of Laurel v. Hearn, 143 Miss. 201, 108 So. 491 (1926).

Crossings over gutters or ditches other than public crossings over street intersections must be kept in reasonable repair, but municipality is under no obligation to maintain or repair a private bridge over a ditch or street unless used by the general public. City of Meridian v. Peterson, 132 Miss. 7, 95 So. 625 (1923).

The power of a municipality over its streets under an ordinary charter is subject to legislative control. Hodges v. Western Union Tel. Co., 72 Miss. 910, 18 So. 84 (1895).

The statute under which ten years' adverse possession of land confers title does not apply against the right of a municipality to its streets, though there may be cases where the doctrine of estoppel in pais may be used against a municipality. Witherspoon v. City of Meridian, 69 Miss. 288, 13 So. 843 (1891).

11. —Bridges.

A municipality has a superior jurisdiction to the county, over a bridge across a bayou on a street within a city. Town of Isola v. Humphreys County, 99 So. 147 (Miss. 1924).

If a defect in a bridge was concealed and not observable by ordinary care and attention a municipality is not liable. Cohea v. Mayor of Coffeeville, 69 Miss. 561, 13 So. 668 (1891).

12. —Railroad crossings.

A railroad company having the power granted by the legislature to cross any "public road or way" has the right to cross streets as well as country roads. Mayor of Canton v. Canton Cotton Whse. Co., 84 Miss. 268, 36 So. 266, 105 Am. St. R. 428 (1904).

The legislature may divest a municipality of control over its streets and authorize their use by a corporation without compensating the municipality. Mayor of Canton v. Canton Cotton Whse. Co., 84 Miss. 268, 36 So. 266, 105 Am. St. R. 428 (1904).

A railroad company having the right to do all acts incidental to the maintenance of its road may lay conduits under the surface of its right of way to conduct water to its buildings although they pass under streets of municipalities. Mayor of Canton v. Canton Cotton Whse. Co., 84 Miss. 268, 36 So. 266, 105 Am. St. R. 428 (1904).

A foreign railroad company having this right may lay such conduits although it has no right to exercise the power of eminent domain. Mayor of Canton v. Canton Cotton Whse. Co., 84 Miss. 268, 36 So. 266, 105 Am. St. R. 428 (1904).

13. Streets and sidewalks, abutting owners.

In suit against city for damages allegedly caused by diversion of surface water from street onto plaintiff's land, an instruction to jury that it was plaintiff's duty to mitigate damages and that they could not recover any damages that could have been prevented by expenditure of reasonable sum was reversible error in absence of any proof by defendant and in view of the fact that plaintiffs had no right to go onto street to correct the situation because of this section. Poteete v. City of Water Valley, 207 Miss. 173, 42 So. 2d 112 (1949).

Although he may collect damages by virtue of Section 17, Constitution 1890, an abutting property owner may not interfere with the power of a municipality by an injunction to refrain from or alter a change in the grade of a street. City of Water Valley v. Poteete, 203 Miss. 382, 33 So. 2d 794 (1948).

Although a city is liable for damages inflicted on abutting property by improper use of streets in providing drain, yet streets may be devoted to any proper use incident to construction and maintenance of public thoroughfare. City of Laurel v. Hearn, 143 Miss. 201, 108 So. 491 (1926).

A city held entitled to peremptory instructions in suit against it for injury to abutting property because of ditch in front of property, on account of the absence of testimony showing the drain was not necessary, and where negligence in maintaining the ditch was neither charged nor proven. City of Laurel v. Hearn, 143 Miss. 201, 108 So. 491 (1926).

The statutes with reference to a commission form of government do not authorize a municipality to repair paved streets and assess the cost thereof against abutting property owners. Stevens v. City of Hattiesburg, 133 Miss. 824, 98 So. 231 (1923).

Where an abutting property owner by petition requests a city to grade a street to proper lines and grades and the city does so without objection from the owner, the owner is estopped from claiming damages from such grading. Adams v. City of Vicksburg, 124 Miss. 369, 86 So. 855 (1921).

A city renders itself liable of damages where its barricades in a street which it was improving interfered with ingress and egress from and to plaintiff's property. Funderburk v. City of Columbus, 117 Miss. 173, 78 So. 1 (1918).

Damage will accrue to one who had bought and paid for the property and had rented it to the former owner, who was then in possession, although the purchaser had no deed. Funderburk v. City of Columbus, 117 Miss. 173, 78 So. 1 (1918).

Where a city damages the property of a private person for the general welfare in the change of a grade of a street the city is liable. Funderburk v. City of Columbus, 117 Miss. 173, 78 So. 1 (1918).

A city may be estopped from injuring or damaging an abutting owner's property while it stood on a strip of ground in the street at a place designated by the city's engineer acting for the city, upon which to build said property. City of Jackson v.

Merchants' Bank & Trust Co., 112 Miss. 537, 73 So. 573 (1917).

Where it is reasonably necessary to improve the street or highway a municipality may remove shade trees therefrom without being liable to abutting property owners, but if it is not necessary that they be removed for such purpose municipality will be liable. Town of Durant v. Castleberry, 106 Miss. 699, 64 So. 657 (1914).

That it will be necessary to raise plaintiff's residence, surface her yard and lay a walk held to be evidential facts by which damage may be established, by the changing of a grade of a street. Murphy v. City of Meridian, 103 Miss. 110, 60 So. 48 (1912).

Negligence in fact must be shown before a city is liable for interference with drainage of surface waters by a change in the grade of a street. Chidsey v. City of Pascagoula, 102 Miss. 709, 59 So. 879 (1912).

A case in which the city required a property owner to construct a sidewalk conforming to a certain grade within twenty days or show cause for failure to do so, which changed the grade of the street in front of the property, held that the owners did not by constructing the sidewalk in conformity to the order after the twenty days, waive her right to damages for being thereby forced to raise her lot and houses thereon to conform to the grade. City of Jackson v. Muckenfuss, 101 Miss. 555, 58 So. 533 (1912).

Adjacent property owners are the owners of trees in front of such lots between the sidewalk and street and a telephone company is liable for damage and trespass for destroying such trees. Brahan v. Meridian Home Tel. Co., 97 Miss. 326, 52 So. 485 (1910).

And a city is without authority to authorize destruction of such trees by a telephone company without making compensation to the owner; but, the city may itself remove such trees if they interfere with the free use of the street. Brahan v. Meridian Home Tel. Co., 97 Miss. 326, 52 So. 485 (1910).

A city does not have authority to contract away its charter power in order to require the paving of streets where it assesses a part of the cost to the abutting property. Edwards Hotel & City R. Co. v.

City of Jackson, 96 Miss. 547, 51 So. 802 (1910).

Any property owner adjacent to an obstruction in a sidewalk, suffering peculiar or special damage therefrom, may enjoin the maintenance of such obstruction. Caldwell v. George, 96 Miss. 484, 50 So. 631 (1909).

A permanent obstruction of a street or sidewalk used by the public throughout its full length and breadth cannot be permitted. Caldwell v. George, 96 Miss. 484, 50 So. 631 (1909).

An abutting owner, whether he owns the fee to the street or it is in the municipality, is entitled to compensation for any additional servitude placed on his property by any use of the street not incidental or necessary to its enjoyment by the public. Town of Hazlehurst v. Mayes, 84 Miss. 7, 36 So. 33 (1904).

But without compensating him a municipality may trim trees standing between the sidewalk and the street to any extent necessary to prevent interference with the wires of an electric light plant erected by it. Town of Hazlehurst v. Mayes, 84 Miss. 7, 36 So. 33 (1904).

14. Liability for injuries on streets or sidewalks.

Municipality has no authority to surrender any jurisdiction or authority conflicting with its duty to keep streets, alleys, and sidewalks in reasonably safe condition. Town of Senatobia v. Dean, 157 Miss. 207, 127 So. 773 (1930).

The erection of a bumper in a street intersection held to be negligence. Mayor of City of Vicksburg v. Harralson, 136 Miss. 872, 101 So. 713, 39 A.L.R. 777 (1924).

A municipality agreeing for a county to improve and maintain a street is not relieved of its duty to the public to keep such street in a reasonably safe condition for travel. Atkinson v. Town of Decatur, 131 Miss. 707, 95 So. 689 (1923).

A city may allow part of its street for wire poles to be erected; city is not liable for one recklessly leaving traveled way and colliding with poles between street and sidewalk. A city's duty as to its street does not require it to insure the safety of reckless drivers; a vehicle user is not entitled to entire street and municipality's duty is performed if the traveled way is adequate. Gulfport & Miss. Coast Traction Co. v. Manuel, 123 Miss. 266, 85 So. 308 (1920).

The declaration is demurrable where it alleges that the plaintiff, a pedestrian, was injured while crossing a regular street crossing from striking her foot against a brick or stone which the city had allowed to remain firmly embedded in the crossing and extending 2 or 3 inches above the ground. Pomes v. McComb City, 121 Miss. 425, 83 So. 636 (1919).

Municipalities are held not insurers of safety of travelers over their streets; however, they are obliged to keep them in a reasonable condition of safety for the traveling public using them in the usual way and exercising reasonable care and the city should neglect no part of its streets. Higginbottom v. Village of Burnsville, 113 Miss. 219, 74 So. 133 (1917).

And a plaintiff crossing a dangerous place of which he had knowledge in the street in the night and thinking he had passed said dangerous place held not to be guilty of negligence. Higginbottom v. Village of Burnsville, 113 Miss. 219, 74 So. 133 (1917).

The size of the municipality and the amount of known traffic over a given street may be considered in determining the municipality's negligence, but these circumstances alone will not relieve it from liability for injuries resulting from its negligence. Higginbottom v. Village of Burnsville, 113 Miss. 219, 74 So. 133 (1917).

A case in which a horse was drowned as a result of becoming frightened at a boiler near the street, in which the city is held not to be liable for negligence. City of Hazlehurst v. Shows, 113 Miss. 263, 74 So. 122 (1917).

The lessee of certain premises upon which a billboard stood may be liable to a party for injury caused from the billboard falling upon him while walking along the sidewalk, but the city will not be liable. Dahmer v. City of Meridian, 111 Miss. 208, 71 So. 321 (1916).

The fact that some of the bricks of a sidewalk were missing causing a slight depression of about 3 inches does not show negligence authorizing a recovery for damages by a pedestrian who fell in stepping into one of the holes. City of Meridian v. Crook, 109 Miss. 700, 69 So. 182 (1915).

A city is held liable for injuries caused by defects in a bridge constructed over a gutter or ditch which is no part of a cross walk used for those desiring to go from the street to the sidewalk. Hardin v. City of Corinth, 105 Miss. 99, 62 So. 6 (1913).

In an action against a municipality for damages resulting from a collision with an obstruction alleged to have been negligently placed in a street, the liability depends on the existence of negligence on its part in the location of the obstruction on the one hand and the contributory negligence of the plaintiff in colliding with it on the other, and these are matters of fact to be determined by the jury. City of Meridian v. McBeath, 80 Miss. 485, 32 So. 53 (1902).

The extent of the obligation of a city is to keep its streets reasonably safe for general use. It is not required to have them in such condition as to insure the safety of reckless drivers. Walker v. Mayor of Vicksburg, 71 Miss. 899, 15 So. 132 (1894).

Ordinary care over its streets is the measure of diligence imposed upon municipal corporations. Nesbitt v. City of Greenville, 69 Miss. 22, 10 So. 452, 30 Am. St. R. 521 (1891).

Where an obstruction in a street is created by a municipality or permitted to be erected by another, it must take notice of such defects as ordinary care will discover. Nesbitt v. City of Greenville, 69 Miss. 22, 10 So. 452, 30 Am. St. R. 521 (1891).

An instruction for the defendant in an action against a city to recover for the death of plaintiff's decedent, caused by the fall of a water tank in the street, when a decayed sill gave way, was erroneous. Nesbitt v. City of Greenville, 69 Miss. 22, 10 So. 452, 30 Am. St. R. 521 (1891).

15. —Notice of defects in streets or sidewalks.

A municipality is not authorized to require written notice to the city of a defect in a sidewalk prior to an accident as a condition precedent to liability. City of Meridian v. Raley, 238 Miss. 304, 118 So. 2d 342 (1960).

Unless a municipality has either actual or constructive notice of a defect in its streets it will not be liable for damages caused thereby. City of Hattiesburg v. Reynolds, 124 Miss. 352, 86 So. 853 (1921).

Constructive notice of a defect in a street attributable to city is a question of fact. City of Greenville v. Middleton, 124 Miss. 310, 86 So. 804 (1921).

If the officials of a town know of the defective condition of a street they are negligent in not repairing the same, and render the town liable for injuries to one passing thereover. Saxon v. Town of Houlika, 107 Miss. 161, 65 So. 124 (1914).

If a city allows a part of its sidewalks to continue in a dangerous condition of repair for several months without taking precautions to give warning of the danger it is liable for damages to a person passing thereover although she knew of the defect, but at the time had forgotten it and the night was too dark for her then to observe its condition. City of Natchez v. Lewis, 90 Miss. 310, 43 So. 471 (1907).

An instruction was improperly modified where it stated that the city must actually know of the defect by inserting after the word "actually" the words "constructively or impliedly." City of Greenwood v. Harris, 89 Miss. 121, 42 So. 538 (1906).

Where defects in a street were created by the municipality itself in the prosecution of a public work and ordinary care would have discovered them, it is chargeable with notice of them. City of Jackson v. Carver, 82 Miss. 583, 35 So. 157 (1903).

A municipality may have such constructive or implied notice of defects in its streets as to render it liable for damages resulting therefrom. City of Jackson v. Carver, 82 Miss. 583, 35 So. 157 (1903).

A municipality is liable for an injury suffered by the occupants of a carriage because of defects of a street of which it had due notice. City of Natchez v. Shields, 74 Miss. 871, 21 So. 797 (1897).

Common knowledge, the action of the elements and the like is chargeable to a municipal corporation as in the case of natural persons. Nesbitt v. City of Greenville, 69 Miss. 22, 10 So. 452, 30 Am. St. R. 521 (1891).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

There is no authority for municipality to maintain gravel roadway located on private property and which has not become public road by dedication, prescription or statutory procedures, even though school buses use road. Fortier, Oct. 28, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0828.

Municipality has authority and affirmative duty to repair and maintain city streets and to this end, municipality may contract with railroad company to improve railroad crossings at intersections of city streets and may use municipal funds, employees and equipment for such purposes; however, municipality must obtain approval of Department of Transportation of contracts concerning railroad crossings and of improvements made by municipality at railroad crossings; furthermore, municipality may not contract to assume responsibility or costs of improvements which are by law responsibility of railroad. Scott, Nov. 3, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0727.

Municipalities have authority to accept the dedication of unpaved streets and to construct streets and sidewalks pursuant to Section 21-37-3. The governing authorities of a municipality may adopt a policy which sets forth the standards and specifications which streets and alleys must meet in order for the governing authorities to accept them as municipal streets and alleys, i.e., requirements as to paving, width, curbs, drains, etc. We note that the governing authorities must implement the policy in a manner which complies with principles of equal protection. Grimley, November 15, 1996, A.G. Op. #96-0746.

Annexation ordinance provides that the city of Vicksburg has the responsibility for maintaining streets and levee roadbeds in the Warren County Port Commission territory it annexed. Thomas, Varner, March 20, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0130, 98-0131.

Provided the work performed is under the supervision and control of the governing authorities and such work is for the public convenience and necessity, a municipality may expend public funds to replace existing sidewalks, create on-street parking, provide street landscaping and lighting, all upon the public rights of way according to a property owner's plans and specifications in connection with a private construction and renovation project. Hammack, April 3, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0153.

In connection with a private construction and renovation project, a city has the authority to assist the owner in replacing sidewalks, creating on-street parking, and providing street landscaping and lighting by providing labor and equipment to perform the work, provided the owner furnishes the material and the work is done only on the public right-of-way. Hammack, April 3, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0153.

A town may pave an alley if it is a public street or thoroughfare. Sutherland, December 23, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0793.

A school district and a city may enter into an interlocal agreement for the provision of traffic control, although the duty to enforce traffic regulations lies with the police department and it can not withhold its services solely because of the lack of such an agreement. Noble, January 15, 1999, A.G. Op. #98-0714.

Subject to any contractual agreements that may exist between a municipality and a public utility, the municipality has the power to grant the right to erect poles and string wires on public rights-of-way and is empowered to govern and regulate the manner of such use, including, without limitation, requiring that all such lines be placed underground. Fortier, Jan. 25, 2000, A.G. Op. #99-0725.

The governing authorities of municipalities have full and complete jurisdiction over streets and, therefore, the governing authorities of a county and city must obtain an easement in order to lay a sewer line in the right-of-way of the road or street within a town's corporate limits. Wagner IV, Oct. 20, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0608.

Cities may perform extra maintenance on state highways over and above what the Department of Transportation is required to perform by law, as long as the work is approved by the department, which retains primary responsibility over said roads. Baker, Nov. 3, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0652.

Municipalities may close public streets temporarily for public purposes, e.g., pending construction work, parades and festivals, regulation of traffic, or other valid purposes under the police power, and this authority includes the authority to temporarily close streets to prevent injury to, destruction of, or interference with public or private property, based upon a finding of necessity; however, absent exigent circumstances, there is no authority for a municipality to regularly prohibit use of a public street at night by some citizens while allowing use of it by others. Hedglin, June 6, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0150.

There is no authority for a municipality to make improvements to streets which have not been dedicated to the municipality, are not public streets and are not accessible to the general public. Stockton, Feb. 14, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0051.

Governing authorities of a town may by ordinance designate areas along streets and on rights-of-way where the public may park vehicles and they may prohibit parking in specific areas; they may also by ordinance prohibit residents from leaving debris and abandoned vehicles on rights-of-way. Dailey, May 30, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0270.

No statutory authority can be found which would permit school employees to search a student vehicle that is parked on a city street, to designate parking on a city street or to control traffic flow of a city street; however, a school district and a city may enter into an interlocal agreement for the provision of traffic control, and city and county law enforcement agencies are authorized to contract with school districts for the provision of police protection. Taylor, July 7, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0334.

The expenditure of funds by the city of Horn Lake in furtherance of the extension of Nail Road and the construction of an interchange at the intersection with I-55, is permissible using the mechanism of an interlocal cooperation agreement for joint action between the two municipalities involved. Campbell, Oct. 1, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0469.

§ 21-37-4. Governing authorities of municipalities to maintain roads, driveways, parking lots and grounds of public schools located within municipal corporate boundaries.

The governing authorities of any municipality, in their discretion, may grade, gravel, shell, overlay, repair and maintain gravel, shell, asphalt or concrete roads, driveways and parking lots and grounds of public schools located within the corporate boundaries of the municipality. Before engaging in such work, the governing authorities shall spread upon their minutes, the written request of the school board for the work, the written approval of the governing authorities for the work and the specific location of the road, driveway, parking lot or school grounds to be worked.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

mination for the municipal governing authorities. Bankston, Aug. 27, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0427.

§ 21-37-5. Sidewalks.

The governing authorities of municipalities shall have the power to cause sidewalks to be constructed and maintained, to determine the material, plans, specifications and grades of the same, and to levy and collect taxes, by special assessment, for the payment of the same.

8. —Obstructions on sidewalks.

1.-5. [Reserved for future use.]

6. Under former law — In general.

Legislature may validate municipality's unauthorized Act which legislature could constitutionally authorize originally. Barron v. City of McComb, 163 Miss. 337, 141 So. 765 (1932).

Legislature may authorize construction of sidewalks by municipality without giving abutting owners opportunity to protest or construct improvements themselves. Barron v. City of McComb, 163 Miss. 337, 141 So. 765 (1932).

Defects in ordinances for construction of sidewalks, curbs, and gutters failing to give property owners opportunity to protest against construction or to construct improvements themselves, held cured by validating Act and such Act was constitutional. Barron v. City of McComb, 163 Miss. 337, 141 So. 765 (1932).

A municipality, by legislative authority, may impose the cost of paving sidewalks as a lien on abutting land of different owners according to the front-foot rule, and to do so is not a taking of private property for public use without compensation. Wilzinski v. City of Greenville, 85 Miss. 393, 37 So. 807 (1905).

7. —Negligence in construction or maintenance; liability for injuries.

A municipality is not authorized to require written notice to the city of a defect in a sidewalk prior to an accident as a condition precedent to liability. City of Meridian v. Raley, 238 Miss. 304, 118 So. 2d 342 (1960).

Municipality must keep streets and public walkways in reasonably safe condition. City of Jackson v. Clark, 152 Miss. 731, 118 So. 350 (1928).

Notwithstanding contributory negligence on the part of the plaintiff a city is liable for injuries sustained by the plaintiff where it was negligent in permitting unguarded hole to remain in sidewalk for a long period of time. Jordan v. City of Lexington, 133 Miss. 440, 97 So. 758 (1923).

The burden of proof is on the plaintiff to show negligence of the city in its construction or maintenance of a sidewalk. City of Meridian v. Crook, 109 Miss. 700, 69 So. 182 (1915).

Negligence is not presumed from an accident caused by catching the foot in a sidewalk plank. Town of Union v. Heflin, 104 Miss. 669, 61 So. 652 (1913).

Plaintiff's mere knowledge of the defective condition of a street did not of itself preclude his recovery for an injury received in passing over same, but it is a question for the jury whether he exercised ordinary diligence commensurate with such knowledge in passing over such street. Birdsong v. Town of Mendenhall, 97 Miss. 544, 52 So. 795 (1910).

It is negligence on the part of a city to allow part of its sidewalk to remain in a dangerous condition for travel for several months without taking precautions to give warning of the danger and a person injured thereby on a dark night, who had temporarily forgotten the condition of the street, may recover damages. City of Natchez v. Lewis, 90 Miss. 310, 43 So. 471 (1907).

An adult using a sidewalk near his boarding-house for the sole purpose of playing with his dog cannot recover of the municipality for injuries sustained because of defects therein. Jackson v. City of Greenville, 72 Miss. 220, 16 So. 382, 48 Am. St. R. 553 (1894).

8. —Obstructions on sidewalks.

Streets and sidewalks are for the use of the public over their entire length and width, and a city cannot permit a permanent obstruction of a sidewalk in the absence of legislative authority, and if it grant such permission it is void and affords no protection in a suit to enjoin the obstruction. Caldwell v. George, 96 Miss. 484, 50 So. 631 (1909).

And property owners adjacent to such obstructions who suffer peculiar or special damage therefrom may enjoin its maintenance. Caldwell v. George, 96 Miss. 484, 50 So. 631 (1909).

A plaintiff who does not have perfect title in himself need only show an interest in the land as abutting owner which entitles him to ingress and egress to such property in order to compel removal of obstructions placed in the street in front of such property. Shoemaker v. Coleman, 94 Miss. 619, 47 So. 649 (1908).

Under an ordinance making it unlawful to place goods on a sidewalk, an affidavit which simply charges defendant with obstructing a sidewalk by allowing barrels to remain thereon, without charging that he placed them there, charges no offense. Giardina v. City of Greenville, 70 Miss. 896, 13 So. 241 (1893).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Provided the work performed is under the supervision and control of the governing authorities and such work is for the public convenience and necessity, a municipality may expend public funds to replace existing sidewalks, create on-street parking, provide street landscaping and lighting, all upon the public rights of way according to a property owner's plans and specifications in connection with a private construction and renovation project. Hammack, April 3, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0153.

In connection with a private construction and renovation project, a city has the authority to assist the owner in replacing sidewalks, creating on-street parking, and providing street landscaping and lighting by providing labor and equipment to perform the work, provided the owner furnishes the material and the work is done only on the public right-of-way. Hammack, April 3, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0153.

Governing authorities of a town may by ordinance designate areas along streets and on rights-of-way where the public may park vehicles and they may prohibit parking in specific areas; they may also by ordinance prohibit residents from leaving debris and abandoned vehicles on rights-of-way. Dailey, May 30, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0270.

§ 21-37-6. Installation of ramps at municipal crosswalks.

Every municipality shall install ramps at crosswalks, in both business and residential areas, when making new installations of sidewalks, curbs or gutters, or improving or replacing existing sidewalks, curbs or gutters, so as to make the transition from street to sidewalk easily negotiable for physically handicapped persons in wheelchairs and for other persons who may have difficulty in making the required step up or down from curb level to street level.

The term “ramps” as used herein means a sloping asphalt or concrete surface, from the level of the sidewalk or curb to the level of the street at curbside, extending outward and downward from the curb to the street for such a distance, at such an angle, and at such a width as will facilitate the movement up and down such ramps of persons in wheelchairs or persons who have difficulty in stepping up or down between curb level and street level.

§ 21-37-7. Closing streets.

The governing authorities of municipalities shall have the power to close and vacate any street or alley, or any portion thereof. No street or alley or any portion thereof shall be closed or vacated, however, except upon due compensation being first made to the abutting landowners upon such street or alley for all damages sustained thereby.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
- 2.-5. [Reserved for future use.]
6. Under former law.
7. —Right of abutting owners or others to compensation.
8. Safety of public.

1. In general.

City's order closing a bridge to traffic was an exercise of the city's authority under Miss. Code Ann. § 21-37-7; the closing marked the end of the city's previously-existing duty to maintain and repair the bridge, such that the property owners had no claim against the city. Hobson v. City of Vicksburg, 848 So. 2d 199 (Miss. Ct. App. 2003).

Section 21-37-7, which requires that due compensation be made to all adjoining landowners, applies only where the governing authority of a municipality closes or vacates an alley, not where the alley is closed under a theory of abandonment. R & S Dev., Inc. v. Wilson, 534 So. 2d 1008 (Miss. 1988).

2.-5. [Reserved for future use.]

6. Under former law.

Owners of property left in a cul-de-sac by the closing of a portion of a street to permit construction of a new highway are entitled to damages. Mississippi State Hwy. Comm'n v. Fleming, 248 Miss. 187, 157 So. 2d 792 (1963).

A suit for damages in anticipation that the city would close an alley in violation of statute, and that the State Highway Commission would enter upon the alley and obstruct it by a dirt embankment was prematurely brought where no damages had yet resulted. Collins v. Mississippi State Hwy. Comm'n, 233 Miss. 474, 102 So. 2d 678 (1958).

An ordinance proposing to close a portion of a street lying between school property and public park which in effect converted the public park into a school playground, contrary to the purposes for which the park was dedicated, was void.

Board of Mayor & Aldermen v. Wilson, 232 Miss. 435, 99 So. 2d 674 (1958).

Where there was a finding by chancellor that closing of street was for public good, in a suit by landowners, whose land did not abut on the closed section of the street, closing ordinance did not violate the constitution. Puyper v. Pure Oil Co., 215 Miss. 121, 60 So. 2d 569 (1952).

The adoption of street closing ordinance was itself a determination by the mayor and board of aldermen that the public interest and welfare required that the street be closed. Puyper v. Pure Oil Co., 215 Miss. 121, 60 So. 2d 569 (1952).

An ordinance which closed a street did not in effect constitute a donation of portion of right of way of an old highway to private corporation in violation of the constitution, despite the fact that upon closing the abandoned right of way reverted by operation of law to the abutting property owner. Puyper v. Pure Oil Co., 215 Miss. 121, 60 So. 2d 569 (1952).

Where full power is granted to authorities of municipality to vacate streets, they may act upon their own motion and any petition of property owners as a basis of the proceeding is not necessary in the absence of statute requiring it. Puyper v. Pure Oil Co., 215 Miss. 121, 60 So. 2d 569 (1952).

Where a section of a street was closed by an ordinance and where the landlord landowners whose lands did not abut on section of the street which was closed and who had sufficient and adequate access to and from their lands after the closing and also sustained no special damage other than that suffered by public at large, these landowners were not deprived of property without due process of law by the enactment of the ordinance. Puyper v. Pure Oil Co., 215 Miss. 121, 60 So. 2d 569 (1952).

The courts of the state have jurisdiction to grant relief against improperly closing an alley by ordinance as such act is a judicial and not a legislative act. Polk v. City of Hattiesburg, 109 Miss. 872, 69 So. 675 (1915), error overruled, 110 Miss. 80, 69 So. 1005 (1915).

One who in pursuance of an ordinance closed a street was not subject to punishment under a statute prohibiting the closing of public highways, which statute did not refer to streets in municipalities. Blocker v. State, 72 Miss. 720, 18 So. 388 (1895).

7. —Right of abutting owners or others to compensation.

City's ordered termination of two dead end streets did not order the closure of active streets under Miss. Code Ann. § 21-37-7, but simply ordered the aforementioned streets to remain unchanged from their current condition. The city, therefore, acted appropriately under Miss. Code Ann. § 21-37-3, and the construction company which filed a preliminary plat seeking extension of said streets to its subdivision was owed no compensation. Charles E. Morgan Constr. Co. v. City of Starkville, 909 So. 2d 1145 (Miss. Ct. App. 2005).

Under former section an abutting owner may recover at least nominal damages for the closing of a street or alley. Mississippi State Hwy. Comm'n v. Jacobs, 248 Miss. 476, 160 So. 2d 201 (1964), motion overruled, 248 Miss. 482, 161 So. 2d 526 (1964).

Recovery of damages for the flooding of plaintiff's premises in consequence of an embankment closing one end of an alley upon which they abutted is not permissible under a declaration seeking damages for destruction of the usefulness of the alley as a means of access. Mississippi State Hwy. Comm'n v. Rhymes, 248 Miss. 468, 160 So. 2d 197 (1964), motion overruled, 248 Miss. 475, 161 So. 2d 527 (1964).

One not an abutting owner, who will be compelled by the closing of an alley to take a less direct route to his place of business, is not a "person aggrieved" by a determination of the city to close the alley, so as to be entitled to appeal therefrom. City of Hattiesburg v. Colson, 236 Miss. 237, 109 So. 2d 868 (1959).

Mortgagees of abutting lots are not "persons aggrieved" so as to have a right to appeal from the city's determination to close an alley, unless the adequacy of their security will be impaired by such closing. City of Hattiesburg v. Colson, 236 Miss. 237, 109 So. 2d 868 (1959).

Since the city had no power to close an alley except upon first making due compensation to the abutting landowners, if the city had closed the alley without making due compensation and the State Highway Commission had entered upon and obstructed it by a dirt embankment, the city and Highway Commission would have been jointly liable. Collins v. Mississippi State Hwy. Comm'n, 233 Miss. 474, 102 So. 2d 678 (1958).

Where complainants' property, which fronted on city street, was divided in half by a highway and where also access to each half was obstructed by highway median strip, which was extended across the street at highway intersection without the city's consent, the complainants were abutting property owners under former section [Code 1942, § 3374-127]. Hamilton v. Mississippi State Hwy. Comm'n, 220 Miss. 340, 70 So. 2d 856 (1954).

The general rule is that one whose property does not abut on the closing section of the street has no right to compensation for the closing or vacation of the street, if he still has reasonable access to the general system of the streets. Puyper v. Pure Oil Co., 215 Miss. 121, 60 So. 2d 569 (1952).

Landowner not entitled to compensation for closing of street which did not abut his property. Town of Wesson v. Swinney, 144 Miss. 867, 110 So. 669 (1926).

However, unless the abutting owner has special easement in the use of street in connection with his property for egress or regress he cannot complain of its abandonment by the city. City of Jackson v. Welch, 136 Miss. 223, 101 So. 361 (1924).

Where such abutting owner has other convenient access to his property by other streets he cannot complain of the closing of a street which does not deprive him of such convenient and reasonable access. City of Jackson v. Welch, 136 Miss. 223, 101 So. 361 (1924).

Authority to vacate streets given under this section does not empower a municipality to vacate them, on a condition reserving a right to re-open it, without making compensation to abutting owners, as such a condition is void. Berry v. Town of Mendenhall, 104 Miss. 94, 61 So. 163 (1913).

Where a continuous street although known by different names at the north and south ends, formed a continuous street in front of plaintiff's property, it is held that plaintiff was an "abutting owner" and the city could not vacate the street and permit the erection of a railroad depot therein without first making compensation to plaintiff. Alabama & V. Ry. Co. v. Turner, 95 Miss. 594, 52 So. 261 (1910).

This section does not require compensation to be first paid to a person damaged by closing a street who has no property abutting such street where closed. Poythress v. Mobile & O.R. Co., 92 Miss. 638, 46 So. 139 (1908).

Where it is made to appear to the authorities that the safety of the public demands it, it is within their power to close a street and a person being damaged thereby may recover damages against the city for so doing. Poythress v. Mobile & O.R. Co., 92 Miss. 638, 46 So. 139 (1908).

This section does not dispense with the necessity of compensating abutting property owners. Laurel Imp. Co. v. Rowell, 84 Miss. 435, 36 So. 543 (1904).

When a municipality closes a street it deprives the owners of abutting land of a right which is property and which cannot be taken except on due compensation being first made under Const. 1890 § 17. Laurel Imp. Co. v. Rowell, 84 Miss. 435, 36 So. 543 (1904).

8. Safety of public.

Trial court properly upheld a city's closure of a portion of a road because without the closure, an intersection would impede the flow of vehicular traffic and constitute a danger to the safety of the traveling public; landowners were not entitled to compensation because their properties did not abut the closed portion of the road. Mill Creek Properties v. City of Columbia, 944 So. 2d 67 (Miss. Ct. App. 2006).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Statute authorizes contempt proceedings to enforce order of court, including orders sentencing defendant to community work service. Donald, March 23, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0194.

If a factual determination is made that a street has been abandoned by a city, title automatically reverts to the adjoining landowners with no need to formally convey the property; when there is no presumption of abandonment and a factual determination is made that it would be in the public interest to close a street, abutting landowners are entitled to due compensation if damages are sustained. Donald, Aug. 1, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0402.

Municipalities may close public streets temporarily for public purposes, e.g., pending construction work, parades and festivals, regulation of traffic, or other valid purposes under the police power, and this authority includes the authority to temporarily close streets to prevent injury to, destruction of, or interference with public or private property, based upon a finding of necessity; however, absent exigent circumstances, there is no authority for a municipality to regularly prohibit use of a public street at night by some citizens while allowing use of it by others. Hedglin, June 6, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0150.

The term "abutting landowners" in this section means only those property owners whose land abuts directly on that portion of street to be closed. Compensation is only due if the governing authorities close or vacate an alley or street by ordinance, and the abutting property owners have incurred damages. Young, Feb. 14, 2005, A.G. Op. 05-0051.

A city is under a duty to exercise reasonable care to make its parks reasonably safe places for people to resort to, and city is liable for negligence in the maintenance thereof. Harllee v. City of Gulfport, 120 F.2d 41 (5th Cir. 1941).

The acquisition of property by a municipality for public use as a street carries with it the right to make passage over it safe and convenient, and to light it for that purpose. Gulf Coast Ice Mfg. Co. v. Bowers, 80 Miss. 570, 32 So. 113 (1902).

Municipalities having the power to light streets may contract with another to furnish lights and license the use of the streets for that purpose. Gulf Coast Ice Mfg. Co. v. Bowers, 80 Miss. 570, 32 So. 113 (1902).

Such inconveniences to the person and disfigurements of adjacent property as result from the erection of electric light poles and wires in a street if subject to compensation at all, are conclusively presumed to have been paid for in the original acquisition of the street. Gulf Coast Ice Mfg. Co. v. Bowers, 80 Miss. 570, 32 So. 113 (1902).

Under the charter of the city of Vicksburg the municipal authorities had power to make a valid contract for electric lights without advertising for bids and without submitting the matter to a popular vote. Reid v. Trowbridge, 78 Miss. 542, 29 So. 167 (1901).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Generally, a municipality may not use public funds to pay for electricity for street lights on private property or along private streets for the benefit of property owners, although, in appropriate circumstances, municipalities may provide lighting for prevention of crime and for the benefit and safety of the general public. McGee, Jan. 31, 1992, A.G. Op. #91-0973.

§ 21-37-23. Parking facilities for motor vehicles; establishment and operation authorized.

The governing authorities of any municipality shall have the power and authority, in their discretion, to establish and construct municipal parking facilities for motor vehicles belonging to members of the general public, and to rent, lease, purchase, or otherwise acquire the necessary lands and property for the establishment or construction of such facilities, in any manner now authorized by law for the acquisition of land and property for public purposes. All acts and things heretofore done and performed by any municipality of this state in the securing, establishing and construction of public parking lots within the limits of said municipality are hereby ratified and confirmed.

Such municipal governing authorities are empowered to operate and prescribe rules, regulations and rates for the use and operation of such parking facility. Such municipal governing authorities are empowered to employ, fix, and pay the compensation of necessary operating personnel. Such municipal governing authorities are empowered to rent, lease, or sell such facility at such price, but in no case at less than an amount sufficient to repay the cost thereof to the municipality, and on such terms as may be reasonable, but in no case at less than amounts sufficient to service and retire any bonds or notes issued in connection therewith, and conditioned that it shall continue for a specified period of time to be operated as a parking facility for the use of the public, subject to such rules, regulations and rates as may be prescribed by the municipality. No commercial enterprise activities other than the parking of motor vehicles shall be authorized by any municipality on the property comprising any part of such parking facilities.

§ 21-37-25. Parking facilities for motor vehicles; initiating procedures.

When governing authorities of any municipality shall determine that the establishment of a municipal parking facility is necessary, they shall adopt an ordinance declaring that parking spaces available along the city streets in the business district and privately-owned parking facilities are insufficient to relieve congested traffic conditions which are of such a serious nature as to be inimical to the public welfare, and that in order to relieve such conditions and promote the general welfare it is necessary for said municipality to establish, construct, and operate a municipal parking facility for motor vehicles of members of the general public, and to acquire land and property for such purpose, which the said municipality proposes to proceed with. Notice of the adoption of such ordinance shall be published once each week for three successive publications in a newspaper having a general circulation in the municipality, and shall specify a date, not less than twenty-one days after the first publication of such notice, at which the governing authorities of such municipality shall meet to hear any objections or remonstrances that may be made. Such notice need not describe or specify the contemplated location of such facility.

At said meeting, or at a time and place to which same may be adjourned, any aggrieved citizen of the municipality may appear in person, by attorney, or by petition, and object to or protest against the necessity of the establishment of such municipal motor vehicle parking facility. The governing authorities shall consider the objections and protests, if any, and may either amend, modify or rescind said ordinance, or enter an order making said ordinance final and authorizing the governing authorities to proceed with the establishment of such facility, including the acquisition of the necessary land and property.

Any citizen of said municipality aggrieved at such finding may, within ten days from the date the ordinance is made final, file a petition for an appeal to the circuit court of the district in which said municipality is located, where an issue shall be made up and tried as to the necessity of such parking facility for the public welfare. The petition for appeal shall be filed with the clerk of the said court and shall be accompanied by a bond in the sum of two hundred fifty dollars, conditioned according to law for the payment of such costs as may be finally adjudged against the appellant, which bond shall be approved by the clerk of said court. Upon the approval of the bond, the clerk shall issue process to the municipality giving notice of the said appeal and commanding it to be and appear before the next term of the court, then and there to answer the same. Upon receipt of the said notice of appeal, the municipality shall promptly make up and forward to the clerk of the said court in which the appeal is pending a certified copy of the entire record in the proceedings, as shown by the files and records in its office, which record shall be docketed by the clerk in the cause and the appeal shall be heard and considered by the judge of the court (without a jury) on said record. If the aggrieved party shall prevail, a judgment shall be entered reversing the action of the municipality and setting aside and annulling the ordinance appealed from. If, however, the action of the municipality in declaring the necessity for the parking facility be affirmed, a judgment shall be entered against the appellant for all costs and the cause shall be remanded for further action by the municipality.

Either party in said cause shall have the right to an appeal to the supreme court of the state from the judgment of the circuit court. Such appeal shall be perfected within ten days of the date of the entry of judgment by the circuit court by filing with the clerk thereof a good and sufficient bond, to be approved by the clerk, in the sum of five hundred dollars, conditioned to pay all costs that may accrue in such appeal, and the clerk shall promptly transmit to the supreme court the record in the cause.

An ordinance declaring that it is the purpose of the city to avail itself of the provisions of Laws 1946, ch. 414, to establish parking facilities in the city is not sufficient to authorize the city thereafter to establish such parking facilities as it may desire without the adoption of an ordinance declaring the necessity therefor. City of Jackson v. Craft, 36 So. 2d 149 (Miss. 1948).

Laws 1946, ch. 414, requires the governing authority of a municipality to determine whether the parking facility it proposes to establish is necessary and will relieve traffic congestion before it adopts the ordinance establishing the facility, and before public notice is given of the adoption thereof. City of Jackson v. Craft, 36 So. 2d 149 (Miss. 1948).

When a municipality desires to establish a parking facility, it must comply with the provisions of section 5 of the statute (Laws 1946, ch. 414) by adopting an ordinance, in language appropriate to the requirements of that section, declaring that a specified municipal parking facility is necessary to relieve street traffic congestion, the description or specification of the contemplated location being required by necessary implications. City of Jackson v. Craft, 36 So. 2d 149 (Miss. 1948).

A City Council has no authority, under Laws 1946, ch. 414 to delegate to the Mayor the duty of selecting the locality for the parking facilities it proposes to establish and determining the necessity therefor. City of Jackson v. Craft, 36 So. 2d 149 (Miss. 1948).

§ 21-37-33. Park commission; election and removal of park commissioners; advisory park and recreation commission.

The governing authorities of any municipality are hereby authorized and empowered, in their discretion, to create a park commission, and to elect not less than three (3) nor more than seven (7) members thereof, who shall be known as “park commissioners” of such municipality to manage and control all of the parks, playgrounds and swimming pools maintained and established in such municipality. Said park commissioners shall be qualified electors of the municipality or the county where the municipality is located and shall not hold any other municipal or county office of honor or profit. They shall receive such compensation as may be allowed by the governing authorities of such municipality. The terms of office of the commissioners, authorized to be elected hereunder shall be one (1) for one (1) year, one (1) for two (2) years, and so on for the number of members of such park commission, and thereafter the term of each commissioner shall be for a number of years as there are members of said commission. Said governing authorities shall have the power to remove any member of such commission for inefficiency or incompetency, or for any other cause.

Provided, however, the governing authorities of any municipality which has been organized under the provisions of Title 21, Chapter 8, Mississippi Code of 1972, are hereby authorized and empowered, in their discretion, to create an advisory park and recreation commission which shall serve as an advisory board to said governing authorities on all such matters in the municipality. The members of the commission shall be appointed by the governing authorities, and in those municipalities which have been divided into five (5) wards, the commission shall consist of not less than five (5) nor more than seven (7) members; in those municipalities which have been divided into seven (7) wards, the commission shall consist of not less than seven (7) nor more than nine (9) members; in those municipalities which have been divided into nine (9) wards, the commission shall consist of nine (9) members; and at least one (1) of the members of the commission shall be a resident of each of the wards of the municipality. Appointment of members of the commission by the governing authorities under this paragraph shall be made by the mayor with the confirmation of an affirmative vote of a majority of the city council present and voting at any meeting. The governing authorities of said municipality shall have vested in them all the powers and duties of a park commission as provided by law and shall be the successor in title to all real and personal property held by the park commission in existence under the previous form of government and shall be the successor to all contracts to which said previous commission was a party. The commissioners shall serve in the manner, for such term, and with such powers as said governing authorities may prescribe by ordinance.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

The statute does not preclude the governing authorities of a code charter municipality (or municipalities having any other form of government) from establishing citizens’ advisory boards for any purpose deemed necessary; these individuals would not be officers of the municipality or would they be employees, however, they would merely act as advisors to the board in making decisions related to the issue for which the board, commission, or task force was created. Fortier, Aug. 31, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0520.

Public utility commissions and park commissions whose members are appointed officers and do not serve in an advisory capacity alone have the power to manage and control the facilities, including the authority to determine whether the state flag is to be flown at those utilities. § 21-37-37. Park commissioner; powers and duties of commissioners.

The park commissioners shall elect one (1) of their numbers to serve as treasurer of the park commission, and he shall give bond in such amount as the governing authorities of the municipality shall require. Such bond shall be payable to the municipality.

The park commissioners shall have the authority to make such bylaws for the holding and conducting of their meetings and such other regulations as they may deem necessary for the safe, economic, and efficient management of such parks, playgrounds and swimming pools, and for the providing of wholesome and healthful recreation to all the citizens of such municipality. The park commissioners are authorized to elect such other officers and appoint such employees as may be necessary to maintain the said parks, playgrounds and swimming pools efficiently, and they shall have entire control and management of the said parks, playgrounds, and swimming pools, together with all property connected or in anyway appertaining to the same. The park commissioners shall have the authority to employ a park superintendent or manager, who shall have actual charge of said parks, playgrounds and swimming pools, and the enforcement and execution of all the rules, regulations and the direction of all programs and festivities, and the operation of all devices for recreation installed therein. They shall have the right to fix the salary or wage of all employees and to direct them in the discharge of their duties. They shall have the right to discharge employees, when found inefficient or for other good cause. They shall have the power to make and collect rates for use of the swimming pool and for the use of any other amusement device that may be installed in said playground, as well as the leasing of concessions or privileges for the sale of cold drinks, confections, popcorn, peanuts or other such articles, or such commission may operate such business. They are authorized to insure all property against loss by fire and tornado and to carry property damage or other miscellaneous casualty insurance, as in the discretion of said commission may be deemed proper, and pay premiums therefor out of the funds appropriated by the said governing authorities of the municipality or the revenues derived in the operation of such parks, playgrounds and swimming pools. They shall report quarterly to the governing authorities of the municipality all their doings and transactions of any kind whatsoever, and shall make a complete statement of the financial condition of such park commission at the end of each quarter. They shall annually make a detailed statement covering the entire management and operation of the said parks, playgrounds and swimming pools, and may make any recommendations which they may have for the further development of such parks, playgrounds and swimming pools. They shall purchase all supplies for said parks, playgrounds and swimming pools in the manner now provided by law for the purchase of such supplies by the governing authorities of such municipality, and shall issue vouchers in payment therefor. The park commissioners shall advertise for competitive bids in the purchase of its supplies in the manner and in the form as may be required of the governing authorities of such municipalities, and they shall make and keep full and proper books and records of all purchases and shall submit them in their quarterly and annual reports to the governing authorities of such municipality. The park commission shall have full jurisdiction of all funds coming into its possession either by appropriation of the governing authorities of the municipality or by gift or by revenue derived from the operation of said parks, playgrounds and swimming pools, and shall have authority to make all contracts in relation to the same.

§ 21-37-47. Exercise of eminent domain by municipalities.

The governing authorities of municipalities, and any commission created under legislative act and operating as an agency of any municipality, where necessary or incidental to the functions and purposes of the commission as set out in the legislative act providing for such commission, shall have the power to exercise the right of eminent domain for the following purposes:

1. the laying out of streets, avenues and alleys;
2. the straightening and widening of streets, or changing the grade thereof;
3. the constructing or repairing of sidewalks, sewers, and other improvements;
4. the securing of land for parks, cemeteries, schoolhouses, fire departments, market houses, and for the constructing of any public building;
5. the laying out, constructing, erecting or perfecting of levees, or a system of levees, for the protection of such municipality or any part thereof, or for the protection of any public work or building, and for the constructing or perfecting of its drainage system;
6. the establishing, altering and changing of the channel of streams or water courses or ditches, and the acquiring of land to bridge the same;
7. and in any other case where the land is to be used for public purposes.

Such governing authorities or commission may exercise the right without, as well as within, the corporate limits of the municipality, and this right may be exercised by any municipality or any such commission aforesaid.

Moreover, any municipality in the state may, in the furtherance of any national defense project, within or without its corporate limits but located within ten miles of the corporate limits of such municipality, purchase or acquire lands connected with such project and in so doing exercise the right of eminent domain, if necessary.

That proceedings in eminent domain were authorized and directed by resolution rather than by ordinance by city operating under legislative charter providing that city may exercise right of eminent domain and that deeds and contracts necessary to be made in writing shall be authorized by resolution of council is immaterial, as distinction between two devices when applied to specific act is one of language only and it is the formal attested action of council expressive of its determination that counts. *City of Natchez v. Trial court having found as fact that public necessity existed for water tower,

The governing body of a municipality possesses only such authority as is conferred upon it by its charter or by general statutes, together with such powers as are necessary to give effect to the powers granted. Mayor & Bd. of Aldermen v. Engle, 211 Miss. 380, 51 So. 2d 564 (1951).

A city can do and perform all acts for which it has authority under its charter from the State from which it derives its existence, except such as may be in conflict with the Constitution. City of Indianola v. Sunflower County, 209 Miss. 116, 46 So. 2d 81 (1950).

Powers delegated by the Legislature to municipalities are intended to be exercised in conformity to, and consistent with the general laws of the State, and are to be construed most strongly against a power or right claimed but not clearly given. King v. City of Louisville, 207 Miss. 612, 42 So. 2d 813 (1949).

Municipal powers are only those expressly conferred by statute, and necessarily implied. Such powers belong to the municipality and not to its officers. Tullos v. Town of Magee, 181 Miss. 288, 179 So. 557 (1938).

Municipalities can exercise no powers except such as are delegated to them by the state expressly or by necessary implication. Steitenroth v. City of Jackson, 99 Miss. 354, 54 So. 955 (1911).

A municipality operating under the code chapter on municipalities is restricted in its powers to those conferred by said chapter. City of Hazlehurst v. Mayes, 96 Miss. 656, 51 So. 890 (1910).

7. —Property rights.

Former section gave the broad power to a municipality to purchase and hold real estate and personal property; under such a broad power, it is a general rule of interpretation that there is embraced and included the lesser power to lease, unless there is in the very nature of the use and control of the property an implied inhibition against a lease. Accordingly, a municipality was held liable for the reasonable use of a fire engine where the contract of sale thereof was invalid for failure to follow statutory requirements. American-LaFrance, Inc. v. City of Phila., 183 Miss. 207, 184 So. 620 (1938).

8. —Contracts.

Where a purported lease contract giving to a college an option to purchase the leased property was ultra vires in that the special act under which the municipal authorities acted did not authorize the giving of an option, the option provision could not be upheld under the authority of this section. Whitworth College, Inc. v. City of Brookhaven, 161 F. Supp. 775 (S.D. Miss. 1958), aff'd, 261 F.2d 868 (5th Cir. 1958).

The power of a municipality to contract with reference to any subject matter must either be expressly covered by its charter or by general statute, or necessarily implied therefrom. Mayor & Bd. of Aldermen v. Engle, 211 Miss. 380, 51 So. 2d 564 (1951).

Individuals dealing with a municipality are required to take notice of its charter limitations. Edwards Hotel & City R. Co. v. City of Jackson, 96 Miss. 547, 51 So. 802 (1910).

§ 21-38-3. Definitions.

As used in this chapter, the following words shall have the meanings ascribed herein unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) "Municipality" means any municipality located in a county in which Sardis Lake is located, in which Mississippi Highway 6 and Interstate Highway 55 intersect and having a population of five thousand (5,000) or less according to the 1990 federal decennial census.

(b) "Sardis Lake" means that certain flood control reservoir and adjacent real property in Lafayette and Panola Counties owned by the United States and operated and managed by the Department of the Army through its Corps of Engineers on March 8, 1999.

(c) The "United States" means the United States Government and the United States Department of the Army, acting by and through its Corps of Engineers, and any other agency, department or commission of the United States owning or having jurisdiction or authority, or both, over Sardis Lake or matters relating thereto.

SOURCES: Laws, 1999, ch. 308, § 2, eff from and after passage (approved Mar. 8, 1999.)

§ 21-38-5. Municipality authorized to enter into agreement, contract, or lease with United States.

(1) Any municipality may enter into and accomplish any agreement, contract, lease or other arrangement with the United States whereby the municipality may acquire or lease real property, whether located within or outside the corporate boundaries of such municipality, for the purpose of developing and promoting parks, tourism and recreational facilities of all types, including without limitation marinas, restaurants, hotels, conference centers, golf courses, lakes, nature trails, campgrounds and similar facilities and supporting infrastructure; and the purposes set forth in any such agreement, contract, lease or other arrangement and the uses described therein of such real property shall be proper municipal purposes for such municipality.

(2) Any municipality that acquires or leases real property from the United States under subsection (1) of this section may (a) lease and sublease, and grant rights to use, easements and rights-of-way over and across, any part or all of such real property for such consideration and upon such terms and conditions as the municipality may deem appropriate for a period or periods not to exceed seventy-five (75) years, and (b) enter into and accomplish agreements, contracts, leases and subleases, and other arrangements with private individuals, firms or corporations with respect to the use and development of such real property.

(3) Any municipality that leases or subleases or grants rights to use, easements or rights-of-way over and across real property acquired or leased from the United States under subsection (1) of this section may utilize all revenues received from the rental or use of such real property or the granting of such rights, or received as a result of any term or condition in an agreement, contract, lease, sublease or other arrangement relating to such real property, for all proper municipal purposes.

§ 21-38-7. Incorporation of property located outside corporate boundaries.

Any municipality that acquires or leases real property from the United States under this chapter, if such real property is located outside the corporate boundaries of such municipality, may incorporate such real property into its corporate boundaries by ordinance adopted for such purpose if such real property is located within the same county as the municipality, regardless of whether the real property is adjacent or contiguous to the existing corporate boundaries of such municipality.

SOURCES: Laws, 1999, ch. 308, § 4, eff from and after passage (approved Mar. 8, 1999.)

§ 21-38-9. Required provisions in ordinance of incorporation.

Any ordinance to incorporate real property into the corporate boundaries of a municipality under this chapter shall include the following provisions and shall be effective as follows:

(a) The ordinance shall accurately describe the metes and bounds of the real property to be incorporated, and only real property acquired or leased from the United States under this chapter shall be subject to such incorporation.

(b) If the United States retains ownership of the real property to be incorporated by the municipality, the United States must consent to the incorporation and a written statement of such consent must be cited and included in the ordinance.

(c) The ordinance shall provide that it will not become effective until publication thereof shall have been made once each week for three (3) consecutive weeks in a newspaper, or newspapers, published or having a general circulation in the county in which the municipality and the real property to be incorporated are located.

(d) Subject only to the limitations of this chapter, the ordinance shall become effective upon the effective date fixed therein.

SOURCES: Laws, 1999, ch. 308, § 5, eff from and after passage (approved Mar. 8, 1999.)

§ 21-38-11. Appeal by aggrieved persons.

Any person aggrieved by a municipal ordinance adopted under this chapter may appeal to the circuit court of the county in which the principal office of the municipality is located in the manner provided for appeals of judgments or decisions of municipal authorities as set forth in Section 11-51-75, Mississippi Code of 1972.

SOURCES: Laws, 1999, ch. 308, § 6, eff from and after passage (approved Mar. 8, 1999.)

§ 21-38-13. Certified copy of ordinance of incorporation to be forwarded to Secretary of State.

Whenever the corporate boundaries of a municipality shall be enlarged under this chapter, the municipality shall, within thirty (30) days after the effective date of such ordinance, if no appeal is taken therefrom, forward to the Secretary of State a certified copy of such ordinance, which shall be filed in the Office of the Secretary of State and shall remain a permanent record thereof. If an appeal is taken from such ordinance and the ordinance is affirmed, then the certified copy thereof shall be forwarded to the Secretary of State within ten (10) days after receipt of the mandate from the court notifying the municipality of such affirmance.

§ 21-38-15. Recordation of map or plat of boundaries.

Whenever the corporate boundaries of a municipality shall be enlarged under this chapter, the municipality shall furnish to the chancery clerk of the county in which the municipality is located a map or plat of the boundaries of the municipality as altered. The map or plat shall be recorded in the official plat book of the county.

Editor's Note — Former § 21-39-1 made it unlawful for municipal officers and employees to have an interest in any contracts entered into with the municipality.

§ 21-39-3. Letting of contracts for publication of proceedings, ordinances, etc.

In municipalities in which there is more than one newspaper qualified to publish legal notices, the governing authorities of such municipality shall enter into a contract for the publication of its proceedings, ordinances, resolutions, and other notices required to be published only after inviting competitive bids from such newspapers. Such contracts shall be let to the lowest bidder among them for a period of not more than twelve months from the date of such contract. It shall not be necessary, however, that the governing authorities of such municipality advertise its intention to accept such competitive bids but it shall be sufficient if notice thereof in writing be given to all of such newspapers by mail or delivery at least five days prior to the date on which said bids will be received, which said notice shall specify the date on which such bids will be received.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Municipal authorities cannot let a contract to publish legal notices to a newspaper not qualified under § 13-3-31, regardless of whether or not it is the lowest bidder; thus a city council's order dividing the publication of its legal notices equally among three newspapers was null and void where it was subsequently determined that one of the newspapers was not legally qualified; a subsequent order of the council awarding the contract to the other two newspapers was not arbitrary, capricious, discriminatory, illegal or without substantial basis and the circuit court thus erred in setting it aside. City of Jackson v. Capital Reporter Publishing Co., 373 So. 2d 802 (Miss. 1979).

§ 21-39-5. Records and payment of claims in all municipalities.

The clerk of the municipality shall open and keep a regular set of records, as prescribed by the State Auditor, as the head of the State Department of Audit, or the director thereof, appointed by him, as designated and defined in Title 7, Chapter 7, of the Mississippi Code of 1972, or any office or officers hereafter designated to replace or perform the duties imposed by said chapter, subject always to inspection within office hours by any citizen desiring to inspect the same. Said records shall contain accounts, under headings, corresponding with the several headings of the budget, so that the expenditures under each head may be at once known. Such records shall be paid for out of the general municipal fund, upon the order of the proper municipal authorities. Said clerk shall also mark filed, as of the date of presentation of same, each and every claim against said municipality. He shall number the same in regular consecutive order, shall file and keep the same in like manner, and shall safely preserve the same as records of his office.

Each year's records shall be kept separate and begin with a new number each year, and run in regular order.

In issuing any warrant under order of the governing authorities of the municipality to pay any one of said claims so numbered and kept, said clerk shall enter the number of the claim in the body of the warrant so that the claim may be easily found, and so that possible duplication may be avoided. The governing authorities of the municipality shall designate on each allowance of a claim against the municipality the fund out of which same shall be paid, and to what account the sums shall be charged in said records. Each allowance shall have the number of the claim noted in the minutes of said governing authorities.

For failure to perform any duty herein required, said clerk shall be subject to suit on his bond for any damage which the municipality may sustain by reason of such failure. Such suit, or suits, shall be brought by the city attorney or by any attorney designated and empowered to do so by the proper governing authorities of such municipality.

Thereafter, Laws of 1989, chapter 532, § 2, amended § 7-7-2 to provide that the words “State Auditor of Public Accounts”, “State Auditor” and “Auditor” appearing in the laws of this state in connection with the performance of Auditor's functions shall mean the State Fiscal Officer, and, more particularly, such words or terms shall mean the State Fiscal Officer whenever they appear. Subsequently, Laws of 1989, ch. 544, § 17, effective July 1, 1989, and codified as § 27-104-6, provides that wherever the term “State Fiscal Officer” appears in any law it shall mean “Executive Director of the Department of Finance and Administration”.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Where a determinative vote on a resolution, directing the dismissal of the city's suit to recover losses resulting from budget excesses, illegal expenditures and failure to keep proper records by officials of the city, was cast by one of the officials sued, the resolution was void, not only as to the voting city official but as to the other defendant as well. Friedhof v. City of Biloxi, 232 Miss. 20, 97 So. 2d 742 (1957).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

functions; the board may also authorize who can and who cannot pick up and open the mail. Freeman and Daily, Mar. 15, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0078.

§ 21-39-7. Docket of claims in municipalities having a population of more than two thousand.

In all municipalities having a population of more than two thousand (2,000), according to the latest federal census, and in other municipalities where the governing authorities should so elect, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the municipality to keep as a record in his office a record to be styled "Docket of Claims," in which he shall enter all demands, claims and accounts against the municipality presented to him during the month. Said docket shall provide space for the name of the claimant, the number of the claim, the amount of the claim, and on what account. All demands, claims and accounts allowed against the municipality shall be preserved by the clerk as a permanent record, and shall be numbered in such a manner as to relate to the warrants to be issued therefor, and the said warrant issued in payment of such claim shall carry on its face a reference to the number of the claim for which the said warrant is issued in payment. No order for the payment or expenditures of any funds of such municipality in payment of any indebtedness thereof shall be made in municipalities having a claim docket unless such claim is filed as herein provided. However, this provision shall not be applicable to the salaries or other compensation of officers or employees of such municipality where the amount of such salary or other compensation shall have been previously fixed by the governing authorities of the municipality in its approval of the payroll or payrolls on which the same appears, and in case of such allowance, it will be sufficient to enter on the claims docket the total of such payroll, followed by reference to the said payroll upon which such allowance may be found.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

With regard to the privatization of maintenance and operation of municipal water and sewer systems, the governing authorities do not have authority to establish a reserve fund to pay for materials used by the contractor for maintenance and repairs to the systems and other expenditures as may be mutually agreed between the parties; the governing authorities may establish a reserve fund for expenses of the water system or other expenses, but only the governing authorities are authorized to make expenditures from the fund. Snyder, Nov. 27, 2000, A.G. Any person aggrieved by any order of the governing authorities of any municipality, with reference to the order in which claims are allowed and paid, shall have the right of appeal to the circuit court of the county in which the municipality is situated as provided by Section 11-51-75, except that an appeal from an order, or any other action of the governing authorities of the municipality, especially preferring payment of one allowed claim over another allowed claim shall operate as a supersedeas and prevent the payment of the claim then allowed until the matter is finally determined on the appeal.

§ 21-39-13. Issuance of warrants or checks; assignment thereof.

(1)(a) The clerk of the municipality shall draw all warrants or checks for claims and accounts allowed and approved by the governing authorities. Except as provided in subsections (b) and (c), the warrants or checks shall be signed by the mayor or a majority of the members of the board of aldermen in any municipality operating under a mayor-alderman form of government, and attested by the clerk, and to which there shall be affixed the seal of the municipality. The governing authorities of any municipality may adopt the use of a standard check signing machine to be used in lieu of the manual signing of warrants or checks under such terms and conditions as the governing authorities shall deem meet and proper for the protection of the interest of the municipality.

(b) A municipality may authorize a municipally owned utility to make early payments to its electricity suppliers for the purpose of receiving early payment discounts from such distributors.

(c) The governing authorities of a municipality may authorize the clerk of the municipality to issue a warrant or check for the purpose of immediately refunding to a customer of the municipally owned utility his or her deposit for municipal utility services after the municipal utility has determined that payment for all services and any other obligations which the customer may have incurred in regard to the municipal utility has been made.

(2) Every warrant or check drawn on the treasury shall express on its face to whom issued and for what purpose allowed, and the ordinance authorizing its issuance shall be cited, by minute book and page, in or upon it.

(3) All such warrants or checks shall be drawn against the proper fund in the municipality from which such allowed claims shall be paid, and all such warrants or checks shall be drawn in the order of their allowance. No warrant or check shall be signed, removed from the warrant book or checkbook or delivered by the clerk until there is sufficient money in the fund upon which it is drawn to pay the same and all prior unpaid warrants or checks drawn upon that fund, whether delivered or not.

(4) The owner of any claim against a municipality, either before or after allowance, may transfer same by assignment, and the holder of such assignment shall be entitled to receive the warrant or check therefor at the proper time by presenting such assignment to the clerk at any time before the delivery of the warrant or check to the original claimant.

The requirement of this section that the mayor should sign all warrants on the city treasury, other than those provided for in § 6287, Code of 1942, which permits the clerk of a municipality, if a separate school district, to issue a warrant in payment for the services of a teacher, was intended as a checkrein on the expenditure of funds for any municipal purpose, and to the end that the taxpayers should have the benefit of his judgment and discretion in determining whether the warrant is drawn on the proper fund and for a purpose authorized by law. Williams v. State ex rel. Att'y Gen., 209 Miss. 251, 46 So. 2d 591 (1950).

The only exception to this statute requiring the mayor to sign all warrants drawn on the city treasury for money is that contained in § 6287, Code of 1942, which permits the clerk of a municipality, if a separate school district, to issue a warrant in payment for the services of a teacher. Williams v. State ex rel. Att'y Gen., 209 Miss. 251, 46 So. 2d 591 (1950).

Mayor could not be compelled to execute and deliver a warrant, upon requisition by board of trustees, on maintenance fund in municipal separate school district for the payment of an installment due on building contract for the construction of a gymnasium and vocational training building instead of against a bond and building fund containing ample funds for that purpose. Williams v. State ex rel. Att'y Gen., 209 Miss. 251, 46 So. 2d 591 (1950).

A court having jurisdiction may require a municipality to issue a warrant in payment of a judgment against the municipality and it may direct that the warrant be filed with the treasurer and have priority over other debts payable out of the general funds of the town. Town of Jonestown v. Ganong, 97 Miss. 67, 52 So. 579 (1910), error overruled 97 Miss. 67, 52 So. 692.

Deposit of money forfeited to the city by breach of the depositors' contract became the money of the city which it could part with only by specific appropriation made by order of its mayor and board of aldermen. Jackson Elec. Ry. & L. Power Co. v. Adams, 79 Miss. 408, 30 So. 694 (1901).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

The statute applies to Mayor-Council forms of government and requires that all warrants or checks issued by a municipality be attested by the city clerk; the city clerk's signature should appear on all warrants or checks issued by the municipality, whether in payment of accounts payable or payroll, attesting the validity and genuineness of the document; the use of a check signing machine is in lieu of the above procedure, and if a city has adopted the usage of a check signing machine, the city may forego the attestation by the clerk if it deems same "meet and proper for the protection of the interest of the municipality." Peterson, Nov. 30, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0688.

Either the mayor or a majority of the board of aldermen (three out of a five member board) may sign warrants of the municipality; in either case, the warrants must be attested by the municipal clerk.

Freeman and Daily, Mar. 15, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0078.

Where a claim is made for services performed for a municipality by a someone other than the original contractor, and it is not a situation in which the original contractor transferred the claim by assignment to the third party for collection only, the board of aldermen has no authority to pay the claim to the third party and it must be disallowed. Brown, July 25, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0365.

The governing authorities of a town may agree to the assignment of a contract for cemetery maintenance to the wife of the current caretaker by order in the minutes, and the caretaker may perform the services of maintenance of the cemetery pursuant to the contract which his wife holds with the town. Davis, July 25, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0375.

§ 21-39-15. Penalty for unauthorized claim or appropriation.

If any member of the governing body of a municipality shall knowingly vote for the payment of any claim not authorized by law, he shall be subject to indictment and, upon conviction, be fined by a sum not exceeding double the amount of such unlawful claim or appropriation, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than three months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 21-39-17. Penalty for wrongfully issuing, signing or attesting warrant.

All expenditures of money from the treasury of any municipality for any purpose whatsoever shall be in pursuance of the allowance of a claim as hereinbefore specified in Section 21-39-9, or in pursuance of a specific appropriation made by order, which such appropriation shall be specific as to each separate expenditure in so far as may be practical. If the mayor, clerk, or any other person shall wilfully or feloniously issue, sign or attest any warrant for the expenditure of money from the municipal treasury when such expenditure is not authorized by an order entered on the minutes of such municipality, then such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. In addition such person shall, upon conviction, automatically be removed from his office.

§ 21-39-19. Duties of depository or treasurer.

The depository of the municipality, or the clerk as ex-officio treasurer where there is no depository, shall receive, safely keep, and pay out all moneys belonging to the municipality according to law. The depository or clerk shall keep correct and accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements, and shall make a written report to the governing authorities, at each regular meeting, of the finances of the municipality. The depository or clerk shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by ordinance. The funds of the municipality shall be paid out only by virtue of an order or ordinance duly spread on the minutes of such municipality.

§ 21-39-21. Disposition of lost, stolen, abandoned or misplaced personal property.

The governing authorities of any municipality, upon the receipt or recovery of any lost, stolen, abandoned or misplaced personal property by the marshal, police or other officers of such municipality, shall cause to be posted, in three (3) public places in the municipality, notice that such property has been received or recovered. Such notice shall contain an accurate and detailed description of such property and, if the governing authorities are advised as to who owns such property, a copy of such notice shall be mailed to such person or persons in addition to being posted as herein required. The owner of such property may recover the same by filing a claim with the governing authorities of the municipality and establishing his right thereto. The governing authorities may require bond of the person claiming the property before delivering same to him. Parties having adverse claims to said property may proceed according to law as now provided by statutes.

If no person claims the property within one hundred twenty (120) days from the date the notice provided for above is given, the governing authorities of the municipality shall cause the same to be sold at public auction to the highest bidder for cash after first posting notice of such sale in three (3) public places in the municipality at least ten (10) days preceding the date of such sale. The notice shall contain a detailed and accurate description of the property to be sold and shall be addressed to the unknown owners or other persons interested in the property to be sold. The notice shall also set forth the date, time and place such sale is to be conducted and shall designate the person who is to make the sale, which person shall be some official designated by the governing authorities of the municipality.

However, lost, stolen, abandoned or misplaced motor vehicles and bicycles may be sold in the manner provided in the preceding paragraph after the expiration of ninety (90) days from their receipt or recovery by the officers of a municipality.

The person or officer designated and making the sale of such property shall promptly upon completion of the sale deliver to the clerk of the municipality a copy of the notice authorizing the sale, a list of the property sold, the amount paid for each item, the person to whom each item was sold, and all monies received from such sale, whereupon, the clerk shall deposit the monies in the general fund of the municipality and shall file the information concerning the sale among the other records of his office.

If, within ninety (90) days after date of the sale provided for above, any person claims to be the owner of the property sold, the governing authorities shall, upon satisfactory proof of ownership, pay to such person the amount for which such property was sold, and the governing authorities of the municipality may require of such person a bond in such cases as they may deem advisable. No action shall be maintained against a municipality or any of its officers or employees or the purchaser at the sale for any property sold hereunder or the proceeds therefrom after the expiration of ninety (90) days from the date of the sale as herein authorized.

A municipality may deduct wrecker and storage fees, not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), from the amount returned to the owner after the sale of property by the municipality. However, a municipality may not deduct wrecker and storage fees from the amount returned to the owner if the owner can prove the property was stolen and notifies the municipality.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Miss. Code Section 21-39-21 gives governing authorities of any municipality procedure for disposing of "any lost, stolen, abandoned or misplaced personal property"; there is no statutory definition of "abandoned property" under this section; failure of owners of property seized in contemplation of forfeiture, where forfeiture proceeding did not take place promptly, qualified property as "abandoned". Magee, Jan. 8, 1993, A.G. Op. #92-0909.

Municipalities cannot immobilize a vehicle for five days and then declare it to be abandoned and sell it; however, if vehicles remain at the impoundment lot or other storage facility for the required 120 days, after due notice has been provided to the owner, they may be deemed abandoned and sold. The manner in which deadly weapons should be disposed of depends on the manner in which they were seized; specifically,

Section 41-29-177 provides for the manner in which a weapon that has been seized and forfeited under the Uniform Controlled Substances Law should be disposed of; for all other deadly weapons that are seized, Section 45-9-151 should be followed; Section 21-39-21 is a general statute dealing with lost, stolen, abandoned or misplaced property, but Section 45-9-151 is specific to deadly weapons and therefore the more specific statute should be followed. A vehicle reported by the Chicago Police Department to have been stolen and subsequently abandoned by that Department may be disposed of by the governing authorities of a city pursuant to statutory procedures. The city should make reasonable efforts to locate and notify the owner of the vehicle before selling it. If there is no buyer at a public auction the city may convert it to municipal use. 6. In general.

Special improvement statutes are legitimate exercises of the taxing power of the legislature. Ramond v. City of Bay St. Louis, 218 So. 2d 719 (Miss. 1969).

Special or local improvement statutes can be utilized for street improvements designated by the city council. Ramond v. City of Bay St. Louis, 218 So. 2d 719 (Miss. 1969).

Under this and other sections, a municipality, acting under the commission form of government, had all the powers possessed by other municipalities, except as otherwise provided by statute, and it was authorized to enter into a paving contract sued upon. Independent Paving Co. v. City of Bay St. Louis, 74 F.2d 961 (5th Cir. 1935).

In construing Laws 1912 ch. 260 city must pursue the statute with strictness. Dean v. Town of Senatobia, 142 Miss. 815, 108 So. 178 (1926).

Clear and unambiguous provisions of the statute will be enforced although conflicting with provisions of prior statutes, regardless of provisions that it shall not repeal any other statute relating to same subject matter. Stingily v. City of Jackson, 140 Miss. 19, 104 So. 465 (1925).

The constitutional provisions against reviving or amending the statute by reference to title only held not to refer to repeal or modification of statute because of conflict with provisions of later statute. Stingily v. City of Jackson, 140 Miss. 19, 104 So. 465 (1925).

Laws 1912 ch. 260 construed with reference to changing the mode of assessment and levy with reference to changing the mode of improvement previously adopted. Firm Lumber Co. v. City of Hattiesburg, 133 Miss. 808, 98 So. 145 (1923).

A city cannot surrender its right to pave in the future at the cost of abutting owners of street property. Edwards Hotel & City R. Co. v. City of Jackson, 96 Miss. 547, 51 So. 802 (1910).

7. Resolution concerning special improvements.

Where the municipality in order to make special improvements fixes a day to hear objections to the improvements, the governing authority of the municipality should have an opportunity to correct amendable defects, and failure on part of the person interested in improvements to object to defects in the resolution is a waiver thereof. Johnson v. City of Meridian, 212 Miss. 323, 54 So. 2d 402 (1951).

A resolution for sidewalk improvement, containing names of streets in the preamble and referring to them as "said streets" in body of resolution, held sufficient. City of McComb v. Barron, 147 Miss. 465, 112 So. 875 (1927).

Such resolution for sidewalk improvement must be sufficient to describe character of improvement proposed. City of McComb v. Barron, 147 Miss. 465, 112 So. 875 (1927).

Such resolution for sidewalk improvements may embrace more than one street. City of McComb v. Barron, 147 Miss. 465, 112 So. 875 (1927).

The court will look also to the preamble of a resolution authorizing improvements to determine whether improvements have been adjudged necessary. Dean v. Town of Senatobia, 142 Miss. 815, 108 So. 178 (1926).

Where the first ordinance provided for paving to be done with one of three kinds of material a subsequent ordinance defining that it should be done by the use of only one kind of said materials held sufficient. Bryan v. City of Greenwood, 112 Miss. 718, 73 So. 728 (1917).

A case where a town's resolution for the construction of concrete sidewalks held to be a sufficient description of the character of improvements to enable the property owner to do the work himself. Langstaff v. Town of Durant, 111 Miss. 818, 72 So. 681 (1916).

Exemptions under an ordinance must be expressed in the clearest and most unambiguous terms. Edwards Hotel & City R. Co. v. City of Jackson, 96 Miss. 547, 51 So. 802 (1910).

It is necessary for the ordinance for special improvements to comply with the statute. City of Jackson v. Williams, 92 Miss. 301, 46 So. 551 (1908).

Under the Laws 1912 ch. 260 it is held that the character of improvements to be made need not be stated in the first resolution. Edwards House Co. v. City of Jackson, 91 Miss. 429, 45 So. 14 (1907).

A resolution reciting that a municipality is proceeding under a designated code section is equivalent to incorporating the language of the section into the resolution. Edwards House Co. v. City of Jackson, 91 Miss. 429, 45 So. 14 (1907).

8. Creation of local assessment districts.

The state is not prevented from authorizing changing from one system of taxation or assessment for local improvement to another by equal protection of law clause of the fourteenth amendment; equal protection of law clause of fourteenth amendment does not restrain state legislature in creation of local assessment districts; and is complied with if all property throughout assessment district is dealt with alike. Stingily v. City of Jackson, 140 Miss. 19, 104 So. 465 (1925).

Determination by subordinate agency of territorial district to be taxed for local improvement is conclusive in absence of fraud or abuse of discretion. Stingily v. City of Jackson, 140 Miss. 19, 104 So. 465 (1925).

9. Property assessable.

State's property may not be, and court will assume is not, embraced in statute making abutting property liable for local improvements. Lord v. City of Kosciusko, 170 Miss. 169, 154 So. 346 (1934).

Though State owned fee of sixteenth-section school lands, exclusive right of lessee thereof to use and possession during lease was "property right" assessable for local improvements. Lord v. City of Kosciusko, 170 Miss. 169, 154 So. 346 (1934).

Property adjacent to neutral ground on which light was erected was abutting property properly chargeable with part of cost. McArthur v. City of Picayune, 156 Miss. 456, 125 So. 813 (1930).

Property on one street cannot be assessed for payment of costs of paving other streets. Stingily v. City of Jackson, 140 Miss. 19, 104 So. 465 (1925).

County cannot be subjected to liability for special improvements, determined necessary by city, on street in front of county courthouse. City of Grenada v. Grenada County, 115 Miss. 831, 76 So. 682 (1917).

On the question of property owner doing the work himself, see Langstaff v. Town of Durant, 111 Miss. 818, 72 So. 681 (1916).

An abutting property owner to whom opportunity was given to protest against certain improvements on a street before the work was begun cannot object for the first time after the improvement is completed and the benefits have accrued. Edwards House Co. v. City of Jackson, 91 Miss. 429, 45 So. 14 (1907).

10. Notice to property owners.

Publication of giving of notice as the statute requires is jurisdictional and a substantial departure from the statute in that respect will render the proceeds void. City of Jackson v. Tucker, 136 Miss. 787, 101 So. 708 (1924).

A city is unauthorized to pave a street at the expense of the abutting property without proper notice to the owner. Langstaff v. Town of Durant, 111 Miss. 818, 72 So. 681 (1916); Bryan v. Greenwood, 112 Miss. 718, 73 So. 728 (1917); Sparks v. Jackson, 118 Miss. 502, 79 So. 67 (1918); City of Jackson v. Buckley, 123 Miss. 56, 85 So. 122 (1920).

Notice giving an abutting property owner whether resident or nonresident an opportunity to appear and object to special improvement, does not deprive one of his property without due process of law. Union Sav. Bank & Trust Co. v. City of Jackson, 122 Miss. 557, 84 So. 388 (1920).

A person having notice as the law requires and failing to protest at the proper time is precluded. Bryan v. City of Greenwood, 112 Miss. 718, 73 So. 728 (1917).

Where a municipality is without a newspaper notice of a resolution must be posted under the Laws 1912, ch. 260. Langstaff v. Town of Durant, 111 Miss. 818, 72 So. 681 (1916).

If the city's notice of special assessment indicates the city is to do all the work it is no notice to property owners that they are to pay part of expense. City of Greenville v. Harvie, 79 Miss. 754, 31 So. 425 (1902).

11. Protest by property owners.

As to who may file protest, see Union Sav. Bank & Trust Co. v. City of Jackson, 122 Miss. 557, 84 So. 388 (1920).

As to hearing objections to assessment, see Union Sav. Bank & Trust Co. v. City of Jackson, 122 Miss. 557, 84 So. 388 (1920).

12. Amount of special assessments.

A city beginning paving without assessing abutting property cannot, against the wishes of owners, assess a portion thereof against the property. City of Canton v. Davis, 145 Miss. 610, 111 So. 137 (1927).

Unless orders for paving conform to conditions of petition as to cost, property cannot be charged on the theory of contract or estoppel. City of Canton v. Davis, 145 Miss. 610, 111 So. 137 (1927).

A municipality may be empowered to assess entire cost of paving including intersections according to front foot rule. Stingily v. City of Jackson, 140 Miss. 19, 104 So. 465 (1925).

A person upon whom no greater burden in paving is imposed than required by law cannot complain of his assessment on the ground that the street railway company was not required to do certain work. City of Jackson v. Buckley, 123 Miss. 56, 85 So. 122 (1920).

Where the ordinance does not provide for the laying of water pipes an abutting property owner cannot be required to pay for same. City of Jackson v. Hart, 117 Miss. 871, 78 So. 780 (1918).

The abutting property owners cannot be required to grade a street where the charter of the city required city to do the grading for laying of sidewalks. City of Vicksburg v. Robinson, 113 Miss. 687, 74 So. 617 (1917).

As to the method of fixing cost of assessment for sidewalks, see Langstaff v. Town of Durant, 111 Miss. 818, 72 So. 681 (1916).

An abutting property owner by his petition to have certain work done may be estopped to object thereto where it is being done in the proper manner. Oliver v. City of Macon, 111 Miss. 349, 71 So. 575 (1916).

As to the right to apportion cost of paving to abutting property owners under the city charter, see Duncan v. City of Grenada, 106 Miss. 874, 64 So. 834 (1914).

City of Jackson, 96 Miss. 547, 51 So. 802 (1910).

Apportioning the cost of the front foot rule is held not to be taking or damaging of private property for public use and is not violative of § 112 of the Constitution. Edwards House Co. v. City of Jackson, 91 Miss. 429, 45 So. 14 (1907).

13. Payment of special assessments.

Bill for recovery of special assessments need not allege counsel's authority to bring suit. City of McComb v. Barron, 147 Miss. 465, 112 So. 875 (1927).

The property owner is liable for interest on an item properly assessed against him although he may succeed in defeating other items. Buckley v. City of Jackson, 125 Miss. 780, 88 So. 334 (1921).

An assessment is void when made without proper notice to the owner of the property assessed. City of Jackson v. Mims, 123 Miss. 78, 85 So. 124 (1920).

As to time of paying assessment, see City of Grenada v. Grenada County, 115 Miss. 831, 76 So. 682 (1917).

And this notice is a condition precedent to fixing lien upon the property of an abutting owner. Langstaff v. Town of Durant, 111 Miss. 818, 72 So. 681 (1916).

14. Judicial review.

The mayor and commissioners exercise a legislative function in determining the character and extent of street improvements, and their decision is reviewable only if it is unlawful, or arbitrary, or reflects an abuse of discretion. Ramond v. City of Bay St. Louis, 218 So. 2d 719 (Miss. 1969).

§ 21-41-5. Resolution; notice of meeting to consider objections.

When the governing authorities of any municipality shall determine to make any local or special improvement, the cost of which or any part thereof is to be assessed against the property benefited, they shall adopt a resolution declaring necessary the proposed improvement describing the nature and extent of the work, the general character of the material to be used, and the location and terminal points of the streets, highways, boulevards, avenues, squares, alleys or parks, or parts thereof, or clearly define the boundary of areas in which said improvements are to be made. In publishing said resolution declaring the work necessary, the plans and specifications of said work need not be published but may be referred to as being on file in the office of the city clerk or city engineer. The publication of the resolution may be made as provided in Section 21-17-19. Said resolution shall fix a date when the governing authorities of said municipality shall meet, which shall be not less than fifteen (15) days after the date of the first publication of the notice herein provided for, to hear any objections or remonstrances that may be made to said improvements. The notice herein provided for shall be published once each week for three (3) successive publications in a public newspaper having a general circulation in the municipality, and if no newspaper is published therein it shall be sufficient to post said notice in three (3) public places of the municipality for not less than fifteen (15) days before said meeting, one which shall be posted at the town or city hall of said municipality. Moreover, the clerk of the municipality shall send a copy of the notice, by certified mail, postage prepaid, within five (5) days after the first publication of the notice herein provided for, to the last-known address of owners of property affected by the resolution. However, failure of the clerk to mail such notice or failure of the owner to receive such notice shall not invalidate any proceeding in this chapter, where such notice has been published as provided herein. Notice declaring the work necessary shall be notice to the property owners that the work has been declared necessary.

If the governing authorities of a municipality desire to make any special or local improvement under the Regional Economic Development Act, the governing authorities also shall comply with any requirements provided therein.

1. In general.

A resolution of a city council which recited, among other things, that on certain streets the majority of property owners owning more than 50 percent of the front footage of the property and actually residing on the property or otherwise actually occupying the property filed protests against certain designated streets, and that those were removed from the proposed improvement, and further stated that other streets on which there was not a majority protesting were included in the improvement program, the resolution contained no jurisdictional defects; and it was not necessary to adjudicate evidentiary facts which the mayor and commissioners considered prior to making their determinations on the ultimate facts. Ramond v. City of Bay St. Louis, 218 So. 2d 719 (Miss. 1969).

In a proceeding to authorize construction and financing of the street where the only issue left undecided was the amount of the special assessment tax upon various landowners and proper notice was given and no objection was entered until all the work was completed, the property owners were estopped to raise questions previously decided by the city council. *Sellers v. § 21-41-7. Meeting to consider objections to proposed improvement.

At said meeting provided for by Section 21-41-5, or at a time and place to which same may be adjourned, any person aggrieved may appear in person, by attorney or by petition, and may object to or protest against said improvement or any part thereof. The governing authorities shall consider the objections and protests, if any, and may confirm, amend, modify or rescind the resolution of necessity, and shall determine whether said improvement shall be made and how the cost thereof shall be paid. The determination of such governing authorities shall be final and conclusive. However, if a majority of property owners owning more than fifty per cent of the front footage of the property involved and actually residing on property owned by them and included within that part of any street, avenue, or the like, ordered to be specially improved, or otherwise actually occupying property owned by them and included within that area shall file a protest, then the improvement shall not be made.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

In order to defeat a proposed special improvement, objection by property owners who together own at least fifty-one percent of the front footage of property under consideration by municipal governing authorities is required, and persons owning more than fifty percent of the front footage property constitute a majority whether or not they constitute a majority of all persons owning front footage. Perry, Feb. 12, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0014.

§ 21-41-9. Whole or part of cost of improvement may be charged against property benefited.

The resolution determining to proceed with the said improvement may direct that the cost and expense of the improvements authorized, or such part as the governing authorities shall fix, shall be a charge upon the property benefited. In said resolution the governing authorities shall direct that the whole or such part of the cost and expense thereof, as they shall fix, shall be assessed against the property abutting upon the improvement, according to the frontage thereof, in the following manner: by taking the number of front feet improved and dividing the total cost of the whole improvement thereby and multiplying the quotient by the number of front feet contained in such abutting lot or pieces of ground; the result shall be assessed by the governing authorities as the amount of the special tax to be assessed against each lot or piece of ground, except that the entire cost of improvements as to sidewalks, curbs, and gutters shall be assessed against the property on which said improvements or any of them abut for its entire frontage only.

In the case of water mains, water connections, sanitary sewers or sanitary disposal systems, the said resolution shall provide that the entire cost thereof, or so much of the same as the governing authorities of the municipality shall fix, shall be assessed against either the property benefited or the property on which each such improvement is located, without regard to the front footage of such improvement.

Alternatively, in the case of sanitary sewers and sanitary disposal systems, the said resolution may define the entire area to be benefited by the improvement, and may direct that the cost to be assessed against each lot or parcel of land shall be determined by dividing the entire cost thereof by the total number of front feet fronting on all the streets embraced within said improvement area, and multiplying the quotient by the number of feet of street frontage in any particular lot or parcel of land. The result thereof shall be assessed by the governing authorities as the amount of special tax against each lot or piece of ground for the owner's part of the cost of the entire improvement.

In the case of storm sewers and surface drains or drainage systems, the said resolution shall clearly define the area to be benefited by the improvement contemplated, and shall determine that the cost of the improvement to be assessed against each lot or parcel of land within said area shall be determined by dividing the entire cost of the improvement by the total number of square feet in the area defined, and multiplying the quotient by the number of square feet contained in any particular lot or parcel of land within said area. The result thereof shall be assessed by the governing authorities as the amount of special tax against each lot or piece of ground as the owner's part of the cost of the entire improvement. However, if a majority of the property owners owning more than fifty percent (50%) of the property involved and determined to be benefited by the contemplated improvement shall file a protest, then such improvement shall not be made.

If there be a steam, electric or other railroad track, or tracks, on any street, highway, or other public thoroughfare improved, paved, or repaved, under the provision of this chapter, the cost of such improvement between the tracks, and the rails of the tracks, and in case there be two (2) or more tracks, the space between such tracks and eighteen (18) inches on each side thereof, including switches and turnouts, shall be paid by the owner of the railroad and shall be assessed to and form a lien on said railroad and all the property connected therewith including power plant, wire, poles, and the like, if said railroad be operated by electricity. In the event storm or other sewers are constructed under the provisions of this chapter, which drain the streets or other public thoroughfares and rights-of-way, in which a steam, electric or other railroad has been constructed, there shall be assessed against such railroad a fair and just proportion of the cost of the construction of such sewer, to be determined by the governing authorities of such municipality, and such assessment shall be a lien upon the said railroad. However, nothing herein contained shall affect the right or power of the governing authorities of the municipality to require the owner of such railroad to repair or reconstruct its tracks or the pavement between the same and on either side thereof under any franchise granted to such owner or its predecessors in title, or under any contract made with such owner or its predecessors in title.

Statute authorizing reassessment for improvement where assessment is invalid, is curative of every defect in record precedent to attempt to levy assessment. City of Lexington v. Wilson's Estate, 170 Miss. 282, 151 So. 164 (1933).

Property is not taken without due process by statute authorizing assessment of cost of improvement on abutting property, though exceeding benefits. Swayne v. City of Hattiesburg, 147 Miss. 244, 111 So. 818, 56 A.L.R. 926 (1927), aff'd, 276 U.S. 599, 48 S. Ct. 320, 72 L. Ed. 724 (1928).

Assessment of the entire cost of paving a street against abutting property, while paying part of the cost of paving other streets out of money raised by general taxation, does not offend a constitutional requirement that taxation be equal and uniform. Stingily v. City of Jackson, 140 Miss. 19, 104 So. 465 (1925).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

There is no provision for governing authorities to exempt some property owners whose property abuts on improvements from paying proportionate share of costs on grounds that their property will not in fact be benefited; if governing authorities decide to construct new street as special improvement, governing authorities must assess all of property abutting upon improvement according to front footage rule. Jordan, Sept. 16, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0669.

§ 21-41-11. What is to be deemed part of cost.

The governing authorities of such municipality shall have power to pay out of their general fund, or out of any special fund that may be provided for that purpose, such portion of the cost of the proposed improvement as they may deem proper. Interest accrued while an improvement is under construction, and for six (6) months thereafter, together with interest on interim financing authorized by Section 21-41-45 allocable on a pro rata basis to each such improvement, shall be deemed part of the cost thereof. Actual engineering and inspection costs, properly chargeable to any improvement, shall be deemed a part of the cost of the improvement. All costs for the issuance of the bonds hereinafter provided for shall be deemed part of the cost of the improvement.

Upon the completion of any improvement authorized by this chapter, the governing authorities shall ascertain and determine the cost of the improvement and declare the same by resolution. Upon said completion the governing authorities shall cause to be prepared a roll or list to be called the "assessment roll" showing the names of the property owners, and, opposite each name a description of each parcel of land. Such roll shall be entered in a well-bound book prepared for that purpose, which shall contain appropriate columns in which payments may be credited. Said book shall be known as "assessment book for local improvements." It shall be a public record and the entry therein of any assessment shall be and constitute notice to the public of the lien against the land so assessed, and no other record or notice thereof shall be necessary to any person or corporation for that purpose. No error, omission or mistake in regard to the name of the owner shall be held to invalidate any assessment. After the completion of the said assessment roll it shall be delivered to the clerk of the municipality, or to the officer performing the duties of such clerk, who shall thereupon give a notice by publication in some newspaper published in said municipality that the assessment roll (for that piece of local improvement made) has been delivered to him and is open for inspection at his office, and that at a time and place therein mentioned, not less than fifteen days from the date of the first publication, the governing authorities of said municipality will meet to hear and determine any objections or defense.

Assessments shall be made and apportioned in the manner fixed by the resolution of the governing authorities determining to proceed with the improvement. The owner of any property assessed for an improvement, or any party having an interest therein, may appear at the time and place fixed for the hearing and determining of any objections or defense, and object to the proposed assessment against the property or to the amount thereof. The governing authorities of the municipality shall hear and determine all objections and protests to the proposed assessment, under such reasonable rules and regulations as they may adopt. At such meeting, or at any adjournment thereof, the governing authorities may alter, change or correct any assessment; however, no assessment shall be increased without notice to the owner of the property. The governing authorities shall, by resolution, approve and confirm all assessments as finally fixed and adjusted at the said hearing, and said assessments shall, from the date of such confirmation, constitute a lien upon the respective lots or parcels of lands and other real property upon which they are levied, superior to all other liens except those for state and county taxes. All persons who fail to object to the proposed assessments, in the manner herein provided shall be deemed to have consented to and approved the same. Any property owner aggrieved by the decision of the governing authorities may appeal to the circuit court.

All special assessments levied under the provisions of this chapter, unless otherwise provided by the governing authorities, shall become due and shall be paid to the treasurer of the municipality, (or to the officer performing the duties of such treasurer) in full within ninety (90) days from the date of confirmation thereof. However, the governing authorities of the municipality may by resolution confer upon the property owners who admit the legality of the assessment the privilege of paying the assessment in not exceeding twenty (20) equal installments with interest from the date of the confirmation at the same rate as that fixed in the bonds issued to raise money to pay the cost of the said improvements, which is to be paid in whole or in part by the owners of property abutting to the proposed improvements. Any property owner who shall not have taken an appeal from the assessment, shall, upon failure to pay said assessment in full within ninety (90) days from the date of confirmation, be deemed to have elected to pay said assessment in installments as herein provided, and he shall be deemed to have admitted the legality of the assessment and shall thereby waive all right to contest the validity thereof. The installments of said assessment shall be due and payable at the same time that the annual municipal tax becomes due and payable commencing with the first municipal tax levy, which is payable after the expiration of ninety days from the date of confirmation of the assessment.

§ 21-41-19. Certification and collection of assessment; interest thereon.

The governing authorities shall annually certify to the tax collector, or other officer charged with the duty of collecting taxes in the municipality, the annual installment of assessment due from each tract of land against which an assessment has been levied, together with the amount of the interest upon all unpaid installments at the same rate as that fixed in the bonds issued to raise money to pay the cost of the said improvements, which is to be paid in whole or in part by the owners of property abutting to the proposed improvements. In the event no bonds are issued to raise money to pay the cost of the said improvements, which is to be paid in whole or in part by the owners of property abutting to the proposed improvements, then the said assessments shall bear a rate of interest not to exceed six per centum per annum, and shall be fixed by the governing authorities of the municipality making such improvements at the time when the said assessments are made final. In the event any municipality has made assessments for special improvements authorized by law and there are special improvement bonds outstanding which are paid by special assessments levied against property abutting the streets so improved, the governing authorities of such municipality shall change the interest on such assessments to equal the rate of interest fixed in such bonds and such change shall become effective on the date the governing authorities take such action and shall not be retroactive. Any property owner who has elected to pay his assessment in installments shall have the right at any time to pay the balance of the assessment against his property in full, but in so doing he shall be required to pay all interest which would have accrued thereon had same not been paid until its maturity.

The collector shall thereupon enter upon the annual tax roll of the municipality, in a separate column, the amount of the installment and interest to be collected from each tract of land assessed, and said collector shall collect said installment, together with the interest upon all unpaid installments, together with, and at the same time he collects the annual municipal tax.

§ 21-41-29. Redemption in whole.

The owner of property sold for delinquent assessments, or any other party interested in said property, shall have the right to redeem, upon the payment of the principal amount of the installment or installments then delinquent, and the penalties on such delinquent installment or installments as provided for delinquent taxes. Failure to redeem within two years shall vest the title in the purchaser at said sale, subject to the lien of any and all unmatured installments. Such redemption shall not discharge said property from the lien of unmatured assessments levied thereon, and said property shall remain subject to such lien as if no sale thereof had been made.

§ 21-41-31. Redemption in part.

If there exists upon a portion of a tract of land sold for delinquent assessments, a lien either of a deed of trust or mortgage of any kind, or if a portion of a tract of land sold for said delinquent assessments is owned by one who does not own the entire portion sold, then, subject to the provisions herein stated, the mortgagee or holder of the notes secured by such deed of trust, or the owner of such portion, or any person interested in such real estate, may redeem that portion of the land so sold in solido, upon which portion such mortgagee or owner of notes, or owner of less than the whole of the real estate is interested, in the following manner, to-wit:

Such mortgagee, or owner of notes secured by deed of trust, owner, or other person interested, may apply in writing to the municipal clerk within the time provided by law for redemption from sale of taxes to be permitted to redeem such portion of such entire tract so sold in solido in which he is interested. Upon the application being filed with him, it shall be the duty of the municipal clerk to give ten days' notice in writing of such application by registered mail to the last known post office address, with return receipt requested, to the owner and to the purchaser at the tax sale, and to all persons holding mortgages or other liens of record on the land so sold in solido, or any part thereof, which notice shall designate a time not less than ten days from the mailing thereof when the governing authorities of the municipality shall hear and perform the duties hereinafter provided for. The clerk shall enter on the record of such tax sale notations giving the date when such notices were mailed, and the names and post office addresses of persons to whom mailed. On the date named for such hearing the governing authorities shall make such investigation as they may deem necessary to ascertain the relative value which that portion of land on which the lien of such mortgage or deed of trust is held by the applicant, or of which said applicant may be the owner, or otherwise interested, bears to the value of the entire land sold in solido for special assessment, and whether or not that portion not sought to be redeemed will remain adequate security for any assessment thereon. Should the governing authorities of the municipality determine from such investigation that that portion not sought to be redeemed will be adequate security and the interest of the municipality not adversely affected by permitting less than the whole to be redeemed, then they shall so adjudicate and fix and determine the amount of special improvement assessments which should be applied to each separate portion. The mortgagee or holder of the deed of trust, or owner, or any person interested in such real estate, shall thereupon be entitled to redeem that part of the land so sold by payment of the sum fixed thereon by such governing authorities, regardless of the amount of the purchaser's bid at the tax sale, with its proportionate part calculated as above provided of all costs, damages and interest consequent upon the sale, and also all subsequent instalments which have accrued prior to the date of said redemption, together with all municipal ad valorem taxes that have accrued upon that portion of said land being redeemed, apportioned in the manner hereinabove provided, and together with interest thereon at the rate of one per centum per month, or any fractional part thereof, from the dates such installments and taxes shall have accrued. If the sale was made to an individual purchaser, the municipality shall upon such redemption, refund to the purchaser the proportionate amount because of said redemption, which shall in nowise affect the purchaser's rights in so far as that portion which was not redeemed is concerned. Likewise, upon such redemption of less than the whole, in case of sale to the municipality, the municipality's rights in so far as that portion not redeemed are concerned, shall not be in anywise affected.

The decision of the governing authorities as to the right to redeem less than the whole shall be final. Any aggrieved party shall have the right to appeal as in other cases.

§ 21-41-33. Change or division of assessment.

If, after the original assessment shall have been made, a portion of any lot or parcel of land which is assessed in solido, shall have changed ownership so that no one person is the owner of the entire lot or parcel of land so assessed in solido, then any such owner, or other party interested therein, may apply to the municipal authorities for a change or division of the assessment. Such application shall be in writing, filed with the municipal clerk, and the same notice and procedure shall be had thereon as is provided for the redemption of less than the whole when sold for delinquent installments. If the governing authorities are satisfied from their investigation that the land in each instance will be adequate security for the assessment placed thereon, and that the rights of the municipality will be in no wise injuriously affected, they may by appropriate order change or divide the assessments according to the ownership of the land so assessed.

The decision of the governing authorities as to the right to change or divide assessments shall be final. Any aggrieved party shall have the right to appeal as in other cases.

§ 21-41-35. Correction of imperfect assessments.

If any special assessment made pursuant to this chapter or attempted to be made in accordance with or by virtue of the authority conferred in any other law heretofore in force, to defray the whole or any part of the expense of any local improvement, shall be, either in whole or in part, annulled, vacated or set aside by the judgment of any court, or if the governing authorities of a municipality shall be satisfied that such assessment is so irregular or defective that the same cannot be enforced, or if the governing authorities shall have omitted to make such assessment when it might have done so, the governing authorities of the municipality are hereby authorized to take all steps to cause a new assessment for the whole or any part of any improvement, or against any property benefited by any improvement, following as near as may be the provisions of this chapter. In case such second assessment shall likewise be abrogated as above provided, the governing authorities may make other assessments, until a valid assessment shall be made.

§ 21-41-37. Correction of errors or irregularities in estimate of cost.

If any municipality in this state, including those operating under a special charter, having the power to construct or cause to be made improvements consisting of grading, paving, graveling or any other form of improvement to its streets, avenues, alleys, sidewalks, gutters, sewerage or drainage, has levied or assessed or charged the cost thereof against the property abutting thereon and to the owners thereof, and has paid such cost and has not been paid therefor in full, and if in the judgment of the governing authorities of said municipalities, errors or irregularities have occurred in the assessing or computing of such cost, then such municipality is hereby authorized and empowered to ascertain the cost thereof and to add thereto accrued and unpaid interest, and to declare the same by resolution, and to correct errors or irregularities in said former assessment or assessments accordingly. In no event, however, shall the principal amount thereof, exclusive of interest, be increased.

When such errors or irregularities have been corrected, the assessment or assessments so made, and all steps and proceedings leading up thereto or precedent thereto are hereby confirmed and validated for all purposes and against all persons, and said assessment or assessments shall be in lieu of the assessment or assessments in which said errors or irregularities have been made or occurred. Such further proceedings may be had thereon to provide for and fix a lien on said property to secure the payment of said assessment or assessments, and for enforcing the collection thereof, and otherwise, in the same manner as is provided in this chapter, when valid assessments have been made that are not erroneous or irregular.

All orders, resolutions, ordinances, and proceedings relative to sidewalk, curb, or gutter improvements heretofore passed and adopted by any such municipality or its governing authorities, are hereby in all things made valid and binding regardless of defects or omissions or informalities or the failure to comply with any law or part of law relative thereto.

If and when it shall have been determined by said governing authorities that an over-assessment shall have been made against such person or property, such governing authorities are hereby authorized and empowered to give credit for or refund the amount of such excess.

No omission, informality or irregularity in the proceedings in, or preliminary to, the making of any special assessment shall affect the validity of the same, where the assessment roll has been confirmed by the governing authorities. The assessment roll and the record thereof kept by the city clerk shall be competent and sufficient evidence that the assessment was duly levied and the assessment rolls duly made and adopted, and that all other proceedings incident to the adoption of said assessment roll were duly had, taken and performed as required by this chapter. However, no assessment shall be valid and legal unless the notice required by this chapter shall have been given.

§ 21-41-43. Maturation and interest of obligations; special improvement bond fund.

All obligations issued pursuant to Section 21-41-41 shall mature not longer than twenty (20) years from the date thereof, and shall be divided into approximately equal payments, with one (1) payment falling due each year. The obligations shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding that allowed in Section 75-17-101, payable annually or semiannually, and principal and interest on same shall be payable at such place within or without the state as may be designated by the issuing authorities at the time the obligations are issued. The full faith, credit and resources of the issuing municipality shall be pledged for the payment of the principal and interest on the obligations and the governing authorities of the municipality shall annually levy a tax on all taxable property in the municipality sufficient for such purposes, and where the obligations are issued for the purpose of making any of the special improvements set forth in this chapter, the cost of which is to be paid from assessments levied against the property abutting on the special improvement to be made under this chapter, the assessments shall also be pledged for the payment of the obligations. The funds derived from the taxes levied to pay the obligations shall be kept in a special fund to be known as the "Special Improvement Bond Fund," and shall be used only for the purpose of paying principal and interest on the obligations. All funds derived from special assessments levied against the property abutting on the special improvements shall likewise be placed into the Special Improvement Bond Fund and shall be used only for the purpose of paying principal and interest on the obligations. Any surplus funds may be invested as provided by law, and may be used to pay the obligations at or before maturity.

§ 21-41-45. Obligations not to exceed cost of improvements; authorization and procedures for interim financing in anticipation of borrowing for local improvements.

(1) The obligations so authorized by Section 21-41-41 may be issued at any time after the estimated cost of the special improvements shall have been ascertained by the governing authorities of the municipality, and the amount of indebtedness thereby incurred shall not exceed the estimated cost of such special improvements.

(2) Any municipality which determines by resolution to borrow money under the authority of Section 21-41-41 may obtain interim financing in anticipation of such borrowing for one (1) or more of the local improvements authorized by Section 21-41-3 at any time after the estimated cost of each such improvement to be so financed has been ascertained. Such interim financing may be upon such terms and conditions and may bear interest at such rate or rates as are agreed between the municipality and the party advancing the interim funds or the purchaser of the obligations evidencing such indebtedness; provided, however, the maximum rate of interest thereon shall not exceed that established in Section 75-17-101, Mississippi Code of 1972.

(3) Such interim financing shall be secured by and repaid from the proceeds of the permanent financing issued under this chapter and may be further secured by any earnings on the investment of the proceeds of the interim financing.

(4) The final maturity of such interim financing shall not exceed three (3) years after the completion date of any improvement being financed, as certified by the city engineer. Provided, however, that if the governing authorities of the municipality, after a good faith effort, determine by resolution that permanent financing under Section 21-41-41 cannot be obtained, the municipality may renew the interim financing for additional periods of six (6) months until such permanent financing can be obtained. The municipality may enter into agreements with one (1) or more lenders at any time obligating such lenders to provide renewal interim financing upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed by the municipality and the lenders.

(5) The same terms and conditions with respect to the giving of notice, presentation of petitions and holding of an election established in Sections 21-33-307 through 21-33-311, Mississippi Code of 1972, for the issuance of municipal bonds shall apply before a municipality may borrow money under the provisions of this section. Such borrowing shall be authorized by resolution of the governing authorities of the municipality and may be evidenced by a note or notes in negotiable form with coupons or fully-registered form without coupons. The indebtedness incurred hereunder shall not be considered when computing any limitation of indebtedness imposed by law on the municipality.

(6) Such borrowing, whether or not evidenced by a negotiable note or notes, may be placed or sold at public or private sale for such price, in such manner and at such time or times as may be determined by the governing authorities of the municipality. All expenses, premiums and commissions deemed necessary or advantageous in connection with the issuance thereof may be paid by the municipality.

(7) This section, without reference to any other statute, shall be deemed full and complete authority for the borrowing of such interim funds and the issuance of a note or notes to evidence such indebtedness, and shall be construed as an additional and alternative method therefor. None of the present restrictions, requirements, conditions or limitations of law applicable to the issuance or sale of bonds, notes or other obligations by municipalities shall apply to the borrowing of funds hereunder. No proceedings shall be required for the borrowing of such funds other than those provided for and required herein, and all powers necessary to be exercised in order to carry out the provisions hereof are hereby conferred.

It shall not be necessary for any municipality to secure the approval of its qualified electors to borrow the money or issue its obligations incurred in the doing of such local improvements, but such acts may be done without an election and without giving notice of intention to do so.

Notice of the hearing shall be given by:

(a) One (1) publication of the resolution of intention in a newspaper of general circulation in the municipality, which may be made as provided in Section 21-17-19;

(b) Mailing a complete copy of the resolution of intention to each business in the proposed or established area. Publication and mailing shall be completed at least ten (10) days prior to the time of the hearing.

SOURCES: Laws, 1974, ch. 520, § 4(2); Laws, 1988 ch. 457, § 10, eff from and after December 8, 1988 (the date the United States Attorney General interposed no objection to the amendment).

§ 21-43-11. Procedure at hearing.

Whenever a hearing is held under this chapter, the governing authority of any municipality shall hear all protests and receive evidence for or against the proposed action; rule upon all protests which determination shall be final; and may continue the hearing from time to time. Proceedings shall terminate if protest is made by businesses in the proposed area which pay a majority of the taxes within the area under the general business privilege license tax.

SOURCES: Laws, 1974, ch. 520, § 4(3), eff from and after July 1, 1974.

§ 21-43-13. Change of boundaries of proposed area.

If the governing authority decides to change the boundaries of the proposed area, the hearing shall be continued to a time not less than fifteen (15) days after such decision and notice shall be given as provided in Section 21-43-9 stating the boundary amendments, but no resolution of intention is required.

SOURCES: Laws, 1974, ch. 520, § 4(4), eff from and after July 1, 1974.

§ 21-43-15. Ordinance establishing area.

If the governing authority, following the hearing, decides to establish the proposed area, it shall adopt an ordinance to that effect. This ordinance shall contain the following information:

(a) the number, date and title of the resolution of intention pursuant to which it was adopted;

(b) the time and place the hearing was held concerning the formation of such area;

(c) the description of the boundaries of such area;

(d) a statement that the businesses in the area established by the ordinance shall be subject to the provisions of the additional tax provided by this chapter;

(e) the initial rate of increase, or additional levy, of the privilege license tax to be imposed with a breakdown by classification of business, if such classification is used;

(f) a statement that a parking and business improvement area has been established; and

(g) the uses to which the additional revenue shall be put.

SOURCES: Laws, 1974, ch. 520, § 4(5), eff from and after July 1, 1974.

§ 21-43-17. Classification of businesses for tax purposes; exemption of new businesses.

For purposes of the additional tax to be imposed pursuant to this chapter, the governing authority may make a reasonable classification of businesses, giving consideration to various factors.

Businesses recently established in the area may be exempted from the tax imposed pursuant to this chapter for a period not exceeding one (1) year from the date they commenced business in the area.

SOURCES: Laws, 1974, ch. 520, § 5, eff from and after July 1, 1974.

§ 21-43-19. Collection and use of tax; changes.

(1) The collection of the tax imposed pursuant to this chapter shall be made at the same time and in the same manner as any other business privilege license tax.

(2) Changes may be made in the additional rate or levy or in the uses to which the additional revenue shall be put as specified in the ordinance establishing the area by ordinance adopted after a hearing before the governing authority.

The governing authority shall adopt a resolution of intention to change the additional rate or levy or the uses to which the additional revenue shall be put at least fifteen (15) days prior to the hearing required by this section. This resolution shall specify the proposed change and shall give the time and place of the hearing.

(3) The tax levied hereunder must be for the purposes specified in the ordinances and the proceeds shall not be used for any other purpose.

SOURCES: Laws, 1974, ch. 520, § 6, eff from and after July 1, 1974.

§ 21-43-21. Disestablishment of area.

The governing authority of any municipality may disestablish an area by ordinance after a hearing before such authority, and such authority shall adopt a resolution of intention to disestablish the area not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the hearing required by this section. The resolution shall state the time and place of the hearing.

SOURCES: Laws, 1974, ch. 520, § 7, eff from and after July 1, 1974.

§ 21-43-23. Disposition of taxes or assets after disestablishment.

Whenever an area has been disestablished, any remainder of taxes or acquired assets shall be subject to disposition as the advisory board shall determine.

A business improvement district may 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0122.

§ 21-43-103. Legislative findings of fact and declaration of intent.

The Legislature finds that:

(a) The business districts within many municipalities in the state are in a deteriorated condition;

(b) This deteriorated condition affects the economic and general welfare of the people of the State of Mississippi;

(c) Establishment of business improvement districts is an effective means for restoring and promoting business activity; and

(d) It is the intent of the Legislature to provide for a process for establishing these districts.

SOURCES: Laws, 1995, ch. 442, § 2, eff from and after passage (approved March 21, 1995).

§ 21-43-105. Definitions.

For the purposes of Sections 21-43-101 through 21-43-133 the following terms shall have the meanings ascribed herein unless the context shall otherwise require:

(a) "District" means a business improvement district established pursuant to Sections 21-43-101 through 21-43-133.

(b) "District management group" means an established and independent Mississippi non-profit corporation and may also include a local Chamber of Commerce, a downtown development corporation, a Main Street Project or a department of a local municipality as determined solely by a simple majority of the property owners included in the district.

(c) "District plan" means a set of goals and strategies as collectively determined by a majority of the property owners included in the district and as incorporated within Sections 21-43-101 through 21-43-133.

(d) "Improvements" means any capital project constructed within the public areas, with the approval of the municipality, for any business improvement district or services established under Sections 21-43-101 through 21-43-133 to improve the appearance or economic functioning of property located within the district including, but not limited to:

(i) Parks and related facilities;

(ii) Sidewalks, street curbing, street medians, planting areas, underground utilities, lighting standards or fountains;

(iii) Trees, shrubs, flowers or other vegetation;

(iv) Security services which may include assistance to public law enforcement through employment of private security personnel and the purchase of equipment or technology;

(v) Economic development services and assistance including, but not limited to, promotion of business, retail or industrial development developer recruitment, business recruitment, business marketing and business retention;

(vi) Parking management;

(vii) Street and sidewalk cleaning;

(viii) Recreational and/or cultural activities;

(ix) Training programs for employees of businesses within the district;

(x) Any other services, events or activities which will enhance the economic prosperity, enjoyment, appearance, image and safety of the district;

(xi) Refuse collection and disposal services;

(xii) The production and marketing of special events and festivals;

(xiii) Management of public facilities;

(xiv) Fire prevention services;

(xv) Water and sewer system enhancement;

(xvi) Drainage enhancements;

(xvii) Signage installation and removal;

(xviii) Planning studies;

(xix) Marketing studies;

(xx) Tourism development services; and

(xxi) Collective community child care centers.

(e) "Property owner" means that person or persons, entity or entities possessing a majority of the ownership interest in a piece of taxable real property.

(f) "Tax exempt properties" means properties which are exempt from certain real property taxes pursuant to Section 27-31-1.

SOURCES: Laws, 1995, ch. 442, § 3, eff from and after passage (approved March 21, 1995).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Business improvement district funds can contract as needed with outside third party sources for specialty services needed to implement the district plan. Clark, Mar. 30, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0122.

Absent any procedures lawfully adopted by the governing authorities, a property owner may determine the method of submission of a ballot to the clerk, whether it be by personal delivery or delivery by a designated or appointed person or agent; similarly, it is a determination of the property owner how to document any designation or agency. Clark, Sept. 7, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0535.

§ 21-43-107. Creation of business improvement districts authorized.

There is hereby authorized the creation of business improvement districts which shall be established in accordance with the procedures described in Sections 21-43-101 through 21-43-133.

SOURCES: Laws, 1995, ch. 442, § 4, eff from and after passage (approved March 21, 1995).

§ 21-43-109. Zoning.

All areas included in a business improvement district must be zoned for some use other than residential. Residential uses may be included if the property is zoned for commercial or industrial use and the property is not owner-occupied as a homestead. Properties comprising a business improvement district must be contiguous to the other properties to be benefited in the district with the exception of public streets, alleys, parks and other public rights-of-way and tax exempt properties within the district boundaries.

SOURCES: Laws, 1995, ch. 442, § 5, eff from and after passage (approved March 21, 1995).

§ 21-43-111. Initiation of efforts to form business improvement district.

Notice shall be given to the municipality in which the district is to be established when an effort is begun by a contiguous group of non-residentially zoned local property owners to form a business improvement district. Upon delivery of a petition to the clerk of the municipality, signed by at least twenty percent (20%) of the property owners in an area proposing to establish a business improvement district, efforts can begin to form a business improvement district pursuant to Sections 21-43-101 through 21-43-133.

SOURCES: Laws, 1995, ch. 442, § 6, eff from and after passage (approved March 21, 1995).

§ 21-43-113. Notice of meeting for development of district plan; requirements for approval of proposed plan; contents of proposed plan.

In order to establish a business improvement district, and upon establishment, every fifth year thereafter, those property owners which make up the area of the proposed district shall be notified of a meeting by United States mail no less than ten (10) days prior to the scheduled date of the meeting. Notification shall include the specific location, date and time of the meeting. The goal of the meeting shall be to develop a district plan for the upcoming five-year period. Such plan shall be agreed upon by a majority of those property owners in attendance at the meeting. Such district plan shall include the following:

(a) A description of the boundaries of the district sufficient to identify the lands included;

(b) The improvements proposed and the maximum cost thereof for each of the coming five (5) years;

(c) The total amount proposed to be expended for improvements for and in the district during the upcoming five (5) years;

(d) The proposed source or sources of financing and funding for the improvements;

(e) The proposed target dates for beginning the implementation of the improvements;

(f) The naming of the district management group for the upcoming five (5) years; and

(g) A listing of the individual properties to be included in the district with any assessment computed and identified for each property based upon gross square footage of buildings and unimproved real estate. The plan may provide that tax exempt properties be included in the district but not be subject to any assessment.

SOURCES: Laws, 1995, ch. 442, § 7, eff from and after passage (approved March 21, 1995).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

The statute contains no definition of the term "submit" and, therefore, the method to be used is left up to each individual property owner, absent any procedures lawfully adopted by the municipal governing authorities. Clark, Sept. 7, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0535.

§ 21-43-115. Voting upon proposed district plan.

All property owners of record in the proposed district as of the date of initial notice given as provided in Section 21-43-111, shall be eligible to participate in the process to approve or reject the district plan and the proposed assessment for properties in the district. Votes of property owners within the proposed district shall be weighted in proportion to the amount of the assessment against properties in the district; provided, however, that in no case shall the total number of votes assigned to any one such property owner, through common ownership of property, be equal to more than one-third (1/3) of the total number of votes which may be cast.

SOURCES: Laws, 1995, ch. 442, § 8, eff from and after passage (approved March 21, 1995).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

The statute contemplates a procedure whereby a property owner may exercise a vote for each parcel owned, as long as, in counting the votes, each vote is weighted in proportion to the amount of the assessment against the properties of the business improvement district. Clark, Sept. 7, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0535.

§ 21-43-117. Notice of hearing for review of proposed district plan; conduct of election upon proposed district plan; notice of election results; review of approved plan by mayor of municipality; disbursement of proceeds from assessment.

(1) For initial creation of the district, reauthorization of the district at the end of each five-year period, amendment to the district plan within the five-year plan period or modification of the boundaries of the district at the end of a five-year period, the clerk of the municipality shall notify all property owners to be included in the proposed district of a public hearing to review the plan and receive comment about the process for accepting or rejecting the plan. Following a public hearing, the governing authority of the municipality shall set an election date not more than sixty (60) days from the date of the public hearing. The ballot shall clearly state the issue to be decided. Only property owners of record as of the date of initial notice given as provided in Section 21-43-111 shall be eligible to participate in any such election.

(2) Notice of an election to create, continue, amend or extend a district shall be:

(a) Mailed to each of the district property owners of record thirty (30) days prior to the election, and

(b) Published at least twice in a newspaper of general circulation in the municipality, the first publication shall be not less than ten (10), nor more than thirty (30) days before the date for the election. The notice shall include a copy of the plan, a ballot for the election and a notice about the time and date for the election.

(3) Not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) days before the date set for the election, the governing authority of the municipality shall cause a copy of the plan and the ballot to be posted in the lobby of its city hall.

(4) Ballots shall be marked, signed and submitted by the eligible property owner to the clerk of the municipality by the date designated on the ballot.

(5) The clerk of the municipality shall notify the property owners in the district of the result.

(6) If the plan is approved by seventy percent (70%) of the property owners, the mayor of the municipality shall review the district plan to ensure its compliance with the provisions of Sections 21-43-101 through 21-43-133.

(7) The municipality shall disburse the proceeds collected from the assessment to the designated district management group within thirty (30) days after the assessment is due.

SOURCES: Laws, 1995, ch. 442, § 9, eff from and after passage (approved March 21, 1995).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Absent lawfully adopted procedures, a property owner can choose the method of submission of a ballot to be used, which may include U.S. mail; however, a clerk may not accept ballots which are post-marked by that date, but received on a later date. Clark, Sept. 7, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0535.

In the absence of procedures lawfully adopted by the municipal governing authorities, there is no requirement the ballots be placed in an envelope. Clark, Sept. 7, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0535.

Absent any procedures lawfully adopted by the governing authorities, a property owner may determine the method of submission of a ballot to the clerk, whether it be by personal delivery or delivery by a designated or appointed person or agent; similarly, it is a determination of the property owner how to document any designation or agency. Clark, Sept. 7, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0535.

§ 21-43-119. Requirements for approval of district plan; requirements for reauthorization, amendments of district plan or modification of boundaries.

A district plan shall be deemed adopted and ready for implementation upon written ballot approval by seventy percent (70%) of the property owners in the district. Reauthorization, amendments of the district plan or modification of boundaries shall also be subject to written ballot approval by seventy percent (70%) of the eligible property owners.

SOURCES: Laws, 1995, ch. 442, § 10, eff from and after passage (approved March 21, 1995).

Editor's Note — The co-council of the Joint Legislative Committee on Compilation, Revision and Publication of Legislation authorized the correction of a typographical error in the second sentence. The word "of" following "amendments" was substituted for the word "or."

§ 21-43-121. Designation of district management group; fees and costs chargeable to district; contracts for specialty services.

(1) Each district established pursuant to the provisions of Sections 21-43-101 through 21-43-133, must designate in its district plan an existing local non-profit organization or department of local government as the district management group for execution of day to day activities for the district and for implementation of the district plan. Designation of the district management group shall be decided solely by the property owners affected by the creation of the district. Selection of a district management group shall be included in the district plan voted upon by the property owners in the district.

(2) Reasonable management fees, operational reimbursements, administrative costs and program implementation fees may be charged to the district by the district management group during the duration of an approved district plan.

(3) The district management group may, in its discretion, contract as needed with outside third party sources for specialty services needed to implement the district plan.

SOURCES: Laws, 1995, ch. 442, § 11, eff from and after passage (approved March 21, 1995).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

The statute authorizes a business improvement district management group to contract on behalf of the district with a private, nonprofit foundation to carry out special events and marketing efforts of the kind allowed by Section 21-43-105. Clark, Mar. 30, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0122.

Business improvement district funds can contract as needed with outside third party sources for specialty services needed to implement the district plan. Clark, Mar. 30, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0122.

§ 21-43-123. Authorization of assessments for funding of district; lien for assessments; receipt of grants and donations by district.

(1) A business improvement district may be funded in whole or in part by an assessment authorized pursuant to this section. Such assessment shall be in addition to any taxes or assessments that may be imposed on property that is included in the district.

(2) The assessment shall be levied on the property in the district based upon the gross square footage of the property. The district plan shall set the amount that shall be assessed on each square foot of property. A district plan may authorize that the assessment per square foot for buildings may be at a different rate than that for land; provided, however, that the square foot rate for each type of property shall be uniform.

(3) Upon presentation of a district plan by a district created pursuant to Sections 21-43-101 through 21-43-133, the governing authorities of a municipality shall, at the same time and in the same manner as ad valorem taxes are levied, levy the assessment provided for in this section on the property in the district in the amount specified in the district plan.

(4) Assessments shall constitute a lien upon the respective lots or parcels of land and other real property upon which they are levied, superior to all other liens except those for state and county taxes.

(5) In addition to the assessment authorized under this section, a business improvement district shall also be authorized and empowered to apply for and receive public and private grants and to accept any monetary contribution or donation of real or personal property.

SOURCES: Laws, 1995, ch. 442, § 12, eff from and after passage (approved March 21, 1995).

§ 21-43-125. Financing of improvements in districts.

The expenses incurred in the construction, designing, planning, marketing, administration or operation of any improvement in a district shall be financed in accordance with the district plan. Upon the establishment, reauthorization, amendment or extension of the district, property owners within the district shall be charged the assessment pursuant to the plan. Improvements must be in addition to or an enhancement of those provided to the district by the municipality prior to the establishment of the district.

SOURCES: Laws, 1995, ch. 442, § 13, eff from and after passage (approved March 21, 1995).

§ 21-43-127. Imposition and collection of assessment.

(1) The assessment upon benefited real property pursuant to Sections 21-43-101 through 21-43-133 shall be imposed as established in the district plan.

(2) The governing authorities of the municipality shall annually certify to the tax collector, or other officer charged with the duty of collecting taxes in the municipality, the annual installment of assessment due from each tract of land against which an assessment has been levied. The collector shall thereupon enter upon the annual tax roll of the municipality, in a separate column, the amount of the installment to be collected for each tract of land assessed, and the collector shall collect such installment at the same time he collects the annual municipal tax.

(3) All assessments levied under the provisions of Sections 21-43-101 through 21-43-133 shall be enforced in the same manner in which the payment of other municipal taxes is enforced, and all statutes regulating the collection of other municipal taxes shall apply to the enforcement and collection of the assessments levied under the provisions of Sections 21-43-101 through 21-43-133.

SOURCES: Laws, 1995, ch. 442, § 14, eff from and after passage (approved March 21, 1995).

§ 21-43-129. Custody and disbursement of proceeds of assessments; district fiscal year; permissible improvements.

The proceeds of any assessment imposed pursuant to an approved district plan shall be held by the chief fiscal officer of the municipality until disbursed to the designated district management group. A business improvement district shall operate on the same fiscal year as that of the municipality. None of the proceeds collected pursuant to Sections 21-43-101 through 21-43-133 shall be used for any purposes other than those set forth in the approved district plan. Improvements provided by a district using district funds may be undertaken only when the service, events, project or activity undertaken is not for the sole benefit of any particular property owner or other private party.

SOURCES: Laws, 1995, ch. 442, § 15, eff from and after passage (approved March 21, 1995).

§ 21-43-131. Duration of initial authorization of district; requirements and procedure for reauthorization.

The initial authorization for any business improvement district shall be for five (5) years. During the last twelve (12) months of the fifth year of the authorization, a new district plan must be developed which meets all of the initial requirements of the district plan plus reauthorizes the district for another five (5) years. Reauthorization requires the same approval process as initial establishment and authorization of the district. Should the district fail to receive reauthorization from the affected property owners in the district, the business improvement district will cease to exist at the conclusion of the most recently approved five-year period or as soon thereafter as any outstanding indebtedness is satisfied. The ability to reauthorize rests solely with the affected property owners in the district.

SOURCES: Laws, 1995, ch. 442, § 16, eff from and after passage (approved March 21, 1995).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

If a business improvement district is reauthorized during the last 12 months of the first five-year district plan, and a contract to carry out special events and marketing efforts of the kind allowed by Section 21-43-105 was entered into but had not expired and had not been completed or fulfilled, that contract can be carried over into the new five-year district plan if the contract's continuation and completion were made a part of the new plan and approved by the property owners as part of the reauthorization. Clark, Mar. 30, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0122.

§ 21-43-133. Dissolution of district.

(1) Any district established or extended pursuant to the provisions in Sections 21-43-101 through 21-43-133, which has satisfied all indebtedness incurred to accomplish any of the purposes of the district, may be dissolved by the governing authority of the municipality upon:

(a) Written and certified petition from the property owners within the district who collectively represent more than seventy percent (70%) of the total assessed valuation of all benefited real property in the boundaries of the district, or

(b) The district plan terminates when no reauthorization has occurred as set forth in Sections 21-43-101 through 21-43-133.

(2) Upon dissolution of a business improvement district, any assets of the district remaining shall be transferred to the municipality.

SOURCES: Laws, 1995, ch. 442, § 17, eff from and after passage (approved March 21, 1995).

Joint Legislative Committee Note — Pursuant to Section 1-1-109, the Joint Legislative Committee on Compilation, Revision and Publication of Legislation corrected a typographical error in subsection (2). The words “any assets of the district remain shall be transferred” were changed to “any assets of the district remaining shall be transferred". The Joint Committee ratified the correction at its May 20, 1998 meeting.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

As the statute contemplates that the business improvement district will cease to exist as soon after expiration of the five-year period as any outstanding indebtedness is satisfied, business improvement district funds may be used to pay for services already performed prior to the end of the plan but not yet paid for. Clark, Mar. 30, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0122.

Dissolution is automatic pursuant to the statute when a business improvement district plan terminates and no reauthorization has occurred; however, if the district is reauthorized, then it is not dissolved and the funds do not lapse to the municipality; rather, if the funds were included in the new plan as it was adopted, approved, and reauthorized, the funds are carried over to the district under the new five-year plan. Clark, Mar. 30, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0122.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Use of portion of proceeds of tax incremental financing bonds for purposes stated in your letter of on-site grading to direct storm water toward rear of redevelopment project site and away from Pemberton Boulevard would be permissible use of bond proceeds under statute. § 21-45-3. Definitions.

For the purposes of this chapter, the following terms shall have the meanings given them in this section unless a different meaning is clearly indicated by the context:

(a) "Project area" includes:

(i) Areas in which there is a significant amount of buildings or improvements which, by reason of dilapidation, deterioration, age, obsolescence, inadequate provision for ventilation, light, air, sanitation or open spaces, high density of population and overcrowding or the existence of conditions which endanger life or property by fire and other causes, or any combination of such factors, are conducive to ill health, transmission of disease, infant mortality, juvenile delinquency or crime and are detrimental to the public health, safety, morals or welfare;

(ii) Areas in which are located a building or buildings that are of important value for purposes of historical preservation, as designated by the Department of Archives and History;

(iii) Areas which by reason of a significant amount of defective or inadequate street layout, faulty lot layout in relation to size, adequacy, accessibility or usefulness, unsanitary or unsafe conditions, deterioration of site improvements, diversity of ownership, tax delinquency, defective or unusual conditions of title, improper subdivision or obsolete platting or the existence of conditions which endanger life or property by fire or other causes, or any combination of such factors, substantially impair or arrest the sound growth of the community, retard the provision of housing accommodations or constitute an economic or social liability and are a menace to the public health, safety, morals or welfare in their present condition and use;

(iv) Areas in which the construction, renovation, repair or rehabilitation of property for residential, commercial or other uses is in the public interest; or

(v) A project for which a certificate of public convenience and necessity has been obtained by the municipality pursuant to the Regional Economic Development Act.

(b) A “redevelopment project” may include any work or undertaking by a municipality:

(i) To acquire project areas or portions thereof, including lands, structures or improvements the acquisition of which is necessary or incidental to the proper clearance, development or redevelopment of such areas or to the prevention of the spread or recurrence of slum conditions or conditions of blight;

(ii) To clear any project areas by demolition or removal of existing buildings, structures, streets, utilities or other improvements thereon and to install, construct or reconstruct streets, utilities, bulkheads, boat docks and site improvements essential to the preparation of sites for uses in accordance with the redevelopment plan and public improvements to encourage private redevelopment in accordance with the redevelopment plan; or

(iii) To sell or lease property acquired by a municipality as part of a redevelopment project for not less than its fair value for uses in accordance with such redevelopment plan to retain property or public improvements for public use in accordance with the redevelopment plan.

“Redevelopment project” may also include the preparation of a redevelopment plan, the planning, survey and other work incident to a redevelopment project and the preparation of all plans and arrangements for carrying out a redevelopment project, relocation of businesses and families required under applicable law, and upon a determination, by resolution of the governing body of the municipality in which such land is located, that the acquisition and development of additional real property not within a project area is essential to the proper clearance or redevelopment of a project area or a necessary part of the general slum clearance program of the municipality, the acquisition, planning, preparation for development or disposal of such land shall constitute a redevelopment project.

(c) “Redevelopment plan” means a plan for the acquisition, clearance, reconstruction, rehabilitation or future use of a redevelopment project area which shall be sufficiently complete:

(i) To indicate its relationship to definite local objectives as to appropriate land uses and improved traffic, public transportation, public utilities, recreational, residential, commercial and community facilities and other public improvements; and

(ii) To indicate proposed land uses, waterfront uses, if any, and building requirements in the area.

A redevelopment plan may include interlocal cooperation agreements between a municipality and a county whereby both agree to pledge revenues payable to them to fund the debt of service of any indebtedness incurred pursuant to this chapter.

(d) “Governing body” means the governing body of any municipality or the board of supervisors of any county.

(e) “Developer” means any person, firm, corporation, partnership or other entity which enters into an agreement with a municipality whereby the developer agrees to construct, operate and maintain or procure the construction, operation and maintenance of buildings or other facilities or improvements upon land or waterfront being a part of a redevelopment project.

(f) "Municipality" means any city or town incorporated under the laws of the State of Mississippi or any county.

(g) "Clerk" means the municipal clerk or chancery clerk, as the case may be.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Municipalities may, but are not required, to use the proceeds from bonds issued under the Tax Increment Financing Act to share in the costs of removing overhead utility and telecommunications lines and placing them underground when moving such lines underground is a component of a "redevelopment project" as defined in this section, and when such lines are located on a publicly owned easement or right-of-way. The question of whether other funding sources could be used to "participate" in the utility line relocations would have to be evaluated on a case by case basis. Mills, June 11, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0224.

§ 21-45-5. Relation to other laws; authority of municipalities to accept financial assistance and to enter into agreements with developers.

This chapter shall be construed as cumulative authority to other existing laws relating to the powers of municipalities to undertake and carry out slum clearance and redevelopment work. Any municipality engaged in slum clearance or redevelopment work through a redevelopment project within the boundaries of the municipality may provide for financing to defray the cost, in whole or in part, of the same as hereinafter provided. Insofar as this chapter is inconsistent with any other law, this chapter shall be controlling.

Any municipality may accept grants or other financial assistance from the state or federal government, or any other entity, to defray the cost, in whole or in part, of any activity consistent with the purposes of this chapter.

Any municipality may enter into agreements with any developer whereby the developer will agree to construct, operate and maintain buildings or other facilities or improvements included within such projects as are provided in a redevelopment plan.

§ 21-45-9. Issuance of tax increment bonds; issuance of re-funding bonds; agreements with developers.

Any governing body may issue tax increment bonds, the final maturity of which shall not extend beyond thirty (30) years, for the purpose of financing all or a portion of the cost of a redevelopment project within the boundaries of the municipality, funding any reserve which the governing body may deem advisable in connection with the retirement of the proposed indebtedness and funding any other incidental expenses involved in incurring such indebtedness. The debt service of indebtedness incurred pursuant to this section shall be provided from the added increments of municipal and county ad valorem tax revenues or any portion of the sales taxes, or both, to result from any such redevelopment project and shall never constitute an indebtedness of the municipality within the meaning of any state constitutional provision or statutory limitation and shall never constitute nor give rise to a pecuniary liability of the municipality or a charge against its general credit or taxing powers.

Said bonds may be authorized by resolution or resolutions of the governing body, and may be issued in one or more series, may bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, bear interest at such rate or rates, payable at such times, be in such denominations, be in such form, be registered, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, be subject to such terms of redemption, with or without premium, carry such conversion or registration privileges and be declared or become due before the maturity date thereof, as such resolution or resolutions may provide; however, such bonds shall not bear a greater interest rate to maturity than that allowed under Section 75-17-101. Said bonds shall be sold for not less than par value plus accrued interest at public sale in the manner provided by Section 31-19-25 or at private sale, in the discretion of the governing body. The lowest interest rate specified for any bonds issued shall not be less than seventy percent (70%) of the highest interest rate specified for the same bond issue. Said bonds may be repurchased by the municipality out of any available funds at a price not to exceed the principal amount thereof and accrued interest, and all bonds so repurchased shall be cancelled. In connection with the issuance of said bonds, the municipality shall have the power to enter into contracts for rating of the bonds by national rating agencies; obtaining bond insurance or guarantees for such bonds and complying with the terms and conditions of such insurance or guarantees; make provision for payment in advance of maturity at the option of the owner or holder of the bonds; covenant for the security and better marketability of the bonds, including without limitation the establishment of a debt service reserve fund and sinking funds to secure or pay such bonds; and make any other provisions deemed desirable by the municipality in connection with the issuance of said bonds.

If a governing body desires to issue tax increment financing bonds under the Regional Economic Development Act, the governing body also shall comply with any requirements provided therein.

In connection with the issuance of said bonds, the municipality may arrange for lines of credit with any bank, firm or person for the purpose of providing an additional source of repayment for such bonds and amounts drawn on such lines of credit may be evidenced by bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness containing such terms and conditions as the municipality may determine; provided, however, that such bonds, notes or evidences of indebtedness shall be secured by and payable from the same sources as are pledged to the payment of said bonds which are additionally secured by such line of credit, and that said bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness shall be deemed to be bonds for all purposes of this chapter.

Pending the preparation or execution of definitive bonds, interim receipts or certificates, or temporary bonds may be delivered to the purchaser or purchasers of said bonds. Any provision of law to the contrary notwithstanding, any bonds, if any, issued pursuant to this chapter shall possess all of the qualities of negotiable instruments.

The municipality may also issue refunding bonds for the purpose of paying any of its bonds at or prior to maturity or upon acceleration or redemption. Refunding bonds may be issued at such time prior to the maturity or redemption of the refunded bonds as the municipality may determine. The refunding bonds may be issued in sufficient amounts to pay or provide the principal of the bonds being refunded, together with any redemption premium thereon, any interest accrued or to accrue to the date of payment of such bonds, the expenses of issuing the refunding bonds, the expenses of redeeming the bonds being refunded, and such reserves for debt service or other capital or current expenses from the proceeds of such refunding bonds as may be required by any of the municipality's resolutions, trust indenture or other security instruments. The issuance of refunding bonds, the maturities and other details thereof, the security therefor, the rights of the holders and the rights, duties and obligations of the municipality in respect of the same shall be governed by the provisions of this chapter relating to the issuance of bonds other than refunding bonds, insofar as the same may be applicable.

Before incurring any debt pertaining to a redevelopment project incorporating a tax increment financing plan the governing body may, but shall not be required to, secure an agreement from one or more developers obligating such developer or developers:

(a) To effect the completion of all or any portion of the buildings or other facilities or improvements, as described in the redevelopment project, at no cost to the municipality;

(b) To pay all or any portion of the real property taxes due on the project in a timely manner; and

(c) To maintain and operate all or any portion of the buildings or other facilities or improvements of the project in such a manner as to preserve property values.

No breach of any such agreement shall impose any pecuniary liability upon a municipality or any charge upon its general credit or against its taxing powers.

Additionally, the municipality may enter into an agreement with the developer under which the developer may construct all or any part of the redevelopment project with private funds in advance of issuance of the bonds and may be reimbursed by the municipality for actual costs incurred by the developer upon issuance and delivery of the bonds and receipt of the proceeds, conditioned upon dedication of redevelopment project by the developer to the municipality to assure public use and access. This condition shall not apply to the privately owned portion of a project for which the Mississippi Development Authority has issued a certificate of convenience and necessity pursuant to the Regional Economic Development Act. In addition, this condition shall not apply to the privately owned portion of a redevelopment project where the governing body of a municipality makes a finding that it is in the best interest of such municipality that such condition shall not apply.

Any tax increment financing plan, at a minimum, shall contain:

(a) A statement of the objectives of a municipality with regard to the plan;

(b) A statement indicating the need and proposed use of the tax increment financing plan in relationship to the redevelopment plan;

(c) A statement containing the cost estimates of the redevelopment project and the projected sources of revenue (ad valorem taxes, sales taxes, and the proceeds of any other financial assistance) to be used to meet the costs including estimates of tax increments and the total amount of indebtedness to be incurred;

(d) A list of all real property to be included in the tax increment financing plan;

(e) The duration of the tax increment financing plan's existence;

(f) A statement of the estimated impact of the tax increment financing plan upon the revenues of all taxing jurisdictions in which a redevelopment project is located; and

(g) A statement requiring that a separate fund be established to receive ad valorem taxes and the proceeds of any other financial assistance.

Before approving any tax increment financing plan, the governing body shall hold a public hearing thereon after published notice in a newspaper in which the municipality is authorized to publish legal notices at least once and not less than ten (10) days and not more than twenty (20) days prior to the hearing.

§ 21-45-13. Security for principal, interest, and premium on tax increment bond.

The principal, interest and premium, if any, on any tax increment bond shall be secured by a pledge of the revenues payable to the municipality pursuant to the tax increment financing plan and may also be secured, in the discretion of the municipality, by a lien on all or any part of the redevelopment project and any security by any developer pursuant to and secured by a security agreement. The proceedings under which any indebtedness is authorized or any security agreement may contain any agreement or provisions customarily contained in instruments securing such obligations, without limiting the generality of the foregoing provisions respecting the construction, maintenance and operation of buildings or other facilities or improvements of the project, the creation and maintenance of special funds, the rights and remedies available in the event of default to the debt holders or to the trustee, all as the governing body shall deem advisable; provided, however, that in making any such agreements or provisions, no municipality shall have the power to obligate itself except with respect to:

(a) The proceeds of the bonds and any property purchased with the proceeds of the bonds;

(b) Any security pledged, mortgaged or otherwise made available by a developer for the securing of bonds or other indebtedness; and

(c) No municipality shall have the power to obligate itself except with respect to the application of the revenues from the tax increments; nor shall any municipality have the power to incur a pecuniary liability or charge upon its general credit or against its taxing powers.

Tax increment financing bonds issued under the Regional Economic Development Act also may be secured as provided therein.

The proceedings authorizing any bonds and any security agreement securing bonds may provide that in the event of default in payment of the principal of or interest on such bonds, or in the performance of any agreement contained in such proceedings or security agreement, such payment and performance may be enforced by mandamus or by appointment of a receiver in equity with such powers as may be necessary to enforce the obligations thereof. No breach of any such agreement shall impose any pecuniary liability upon any municipality or any charge upon its general credit or against its taxing powers.

The trustee under any security agreement or any depository specified by such security agreement may be such persons or corporation as the governing body shall designate; provided, that they may be residents of Mississippi or nonresidents of Mississippi or incorporated under the laws of the United States or the laws of other states of the United States.

§ 21-45-21. Assessment of value of real property described in tax increment financing plan; retention and distribution of captured assessed value; approval of redevelopment plan; certification of amount of sales tax collected.

(1) After adoption of a redevelopment plan containing a tax increment financing plan the clerk shall certify the assessed value of the real property, including personal property located thereon, described in the tax increment financing plan. Property taxable at the time of the certification shall be included in the assessed value at its most recently determined valuation.

Property exempt from taxation at the time of the request shall be included at zero unless it was taxable when the tax increment financing plan was approved, in which case its most recently determined assessed valuation before it became exempt shall be included. These assessed values shall be, and will be referred to as, the "original assessed value."

(2) Each year thereafter, the clerk and the State Tax Commission, if applicable, shall certify the amount by which the assessed value of real property, including personal property located thereon, described in the tax increment financing plan has increased or decreased from the original assessed value. These assessed values shall be, and will be referred to as, the "current assessed value."

(3) Any amount by which the current assessed value of the real property, including personal property located thereon, described in the redevelopment plan exceeds the original assessed value shall be referred to as the "captured assessed value." The clerk shall certify the amount of the captured assessed value to the municipality each year for the duration of the tax increment financing plan. A municipality may choose to retain all or a portion of the captured assessed value for purposes of tax increment financing if the plan provides that all or a portion of the captured assessed value is necessary to finance the redevelopment project, including the cost of establishing necessary reserves to insure payment of revenue bonds.

If the tax increment financing plan provides that only a portion of the captured assessed value is necessary to finance the redevelopment program, only that portion shall be set aside and the remainder shall be apportioned to the various municipal tax levy funds and the various county tax levy funds.

The amount of captured assessed value that a municipality intends to use for purposes of tax increment financing must be clearly stated in the tax increment financing plan.

(4) After adoption of a redevelopment plan containing a tax increment financing plan which includes a portion of the municipality sales tax diversion, the State Tax Commission shall certify the amount of sales tax collected by the state within the boundaries of the redevelopment area and diverted to the municipality in the twelve-month period ending on the last day of the month before the effective date of approval of the plan. Any increase in the amount collected within the boundaries shall be set aside by the municipality in the fund created by the tax increment financing plan.

Each redevelopment plan shall be approved in the same manner and at the same times provided in Section 43-35-13 for the approval of urban renewal plans. Any tax increment financing plan shall become effective on the same date as the redevelopment plan is approved.

CHAPTER 47

Delta Natural Gas District

SEC.

- 21-47-1. Use of surplus funds from operation of systems.
- 21-47-3. Use of funds, generally.
- 21-47-5. Sale of district's assets to public utility; purchase price.

§ 21-47-1. Use of surplus funds from operation of systems.

The Delta Natural Gas District of Humphreys and Sunflower Counties having acquired certain funds from the operation of its systems is hereby authorized, in its discretion, to use surplus funds for further development of the district and to distribute a portion thereof to the City of Inverness, Town of Isola and the City of Belzoni, which municipalities compose the district.

SOURCES: Laws, 1988, ch. 455, § 1, eff from and after passage (approved April 26, 1988).

§ 21-47-3. Use of funds, generally.

The Delta Natural Gas District shall devote all monies, derived from any source other than the issuance of bonds for purposes authorized by the laws of the State of Mississippi, to or for the payment of all operating expenses, including such items as are normally required of utilities for sales development; to or for the payment of all bonds and interest on outstanding revenue bonds, if any, of such systems; to or for the acquisition and improvement of the system contingencies; to or for the payment of all other obligations incurred in the operation and maintenance of the systems and the furnishing of service; to or for the creation and maintenance of a cash working fund or a surplus fund to be used for replacement, extension of systems and emergencies. The balance of the revenues of the systems, as such may be determined by the directors of the district may be used for any other lawful district purpose or may be paid to the governing authorities of the municipalities of Inverness, Isola and Belzoni, in the proportion determined by vote of the directors of the district for distribution by the municipalities to the various municipal funds and used by each municipality for any municipal purpose authorized by law.

The district shall be authorized to convey the assets of the district to any suitable public utility qualified to operate same, authorized for such service by the State of Mississippi, and regulated by the regulatory agencies of the State of Mississippi. The sale price shall be such as shall be agreed upon between the district and the purchasing utility. The purchase price shall be used as follows:

(a) First, the retirement of all bonds of the district.

(b) The payment of all debts or obligations of the district.

(c) The balance shall be deposited in banks or other financial institutions authorized to receive deposits of such funds by the laws of the State of Mississippi. Such deposits shall be made in accordance with, and shall be secured as required by, the laws of the State of Mississippi. Preference may be given to such institutions as may be located within the counties of Humphreys or Sunflower. Such deposit or deposits, and interest thereon, may be used as set out in Section 21-47-3.

§ 23-15-3. Definition of “ballot box”.

[Effective from and after the date Laws of 2007, ch. 596, § 1, is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, this section will read as follows:]

For purposes of this chapter, the term “ballot box” includes any ballot bag or container of a type that has been approved for use in elections by the Secretary of State. Such ballot bags or containers may be used for any purpose for which a ballot box may be used under the provisions of law regulating elections in Mississippi or any other purpose authorized by the rules and regulations adopted by the Secretary of State. The Secretary of State shall approve a ballot bag to be used as provided in this section by December 31, 2007. Any changes to the ballot bag by the Secretary of State after December 31, 2007, shall be approved by the Legislature.

23-15-19.	Persons convicted of certain crimes not to be registered.
23-15-21.	Non-citizen not to register or vote.

§ 23-15-11. Qualifications, generally.

Every inhabitant of this state, except idiots and insane persons, who is a citizen of the United States of America, eighteen (18) years old and upwards, who has resided in this state for thirty (30) days and for thirty (30) days in the county in which he offers to vote, and for thirty (30) days in the incorporated city or town in which he offers to vote, and who shall have been duly registered as an elector pursuant to Section 23-15-33, and who has never been convicted of any crime listed in Section 241, Mississippi Constitution of 1890, shall be a qualified elector in and for the county, municipality and voting precinct of his residence, and shall be entitled to vote at any election. Any person who will be eighteen (18) years of age or older on or before the date of the general election and who is duly registered to vote not less than thirty (30) days prior to the primary election associated with such general election, may vote in such primary election even though such person has not reached his or her eighteenth birthday at the time such person offers to vote at such primary election. No others than those above included shall be entitled, or shall be allowed, to vote at any election.

7. Under former Section 23-3-11.
8. Under former Section 23-5-85.

1. In general.

Absentee ballot could not be counted in a primary election because the voter failed to register more than 30 days prior to the election. Smith v. Hollins, 905 So. 2d 1267 (Miss. 2005).

Provisions in Mississippi Election Code pertaining to registration of voters do not violate § 2 of the Voting Rights Act (42 USCS § 1973(a)) simply because there might be better registration procedures which could be enacted into law. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Mabus, 717 F. Supp. 1189 (N.D. Miss. 1989), aff'd, 932 F.2d 400 (5th Cir. 1991).

Mississippi's voter registration laws are clearly a voting qualification or prerequisites to voting, under language of § 2, as amended, 42 USCS § 1973(a), because no voter is qualified as elector until he is first registered. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Allain, 674 F. Supp. 1245 (N.D. Miss. 1987), aff'd sub nom. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Mabus, 932 F.2d 400 (5th Cir. 1991).

Whereas instances of racially polarized voting are pertinent in challenges to electoral processes, voting behavior or practices are not germane to challenged voter registration procedures or to determination of discriminatory impact of registration practices. Racial appeals in campaigns for elections bear little relevance to state's registration procedures. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Allain, 674 F. Supp. 1245 (N.D. Miss. 1987), aff'd sub nom. Mississippi State

Chapter, Operation Push v. Mabus, 932 F.2d 400 (5th Cir. 1991).

6. Under former Section 21-11-1.

A Negro citizen originally denied the right to register because of discrimination, subsequently registered pursuant to a federal court order, who would be denied the right to vote in municipal elections for failure to pay poll taxes as required by law and because her registration took place after the legal deadline, has standing to bring a class action on behalf of all the Negro voters similarly situated to enjoin the election, and where the Federal District Court refused to grant the injunction the cause was remanded with directions to set aside the election which was held, to devise a plan for a new election, set a new cut-off date for registration, and to provide that persons otherwise entitled to vote should not be denied that right for failure to pay poll taxes if required taxes were tendered to tax collector within 45 days prior to election. Hamer v. Campbell, 358 F.2d 215 (5th Cir. 1966), cert. denied, 385 U.S. 851, 87 S. Ct. 76, 17 L. Ed. 2d 79 (1966).

Town marshal held properly removed from office as result of quo warranto proceedings, where he failed to show residence in town as required by §§ 241, 250 of Constitution, and this section. Jones v. State ex rel. McFarland, 207 Miss. 208, 42 So. 2d 123 (1949).

Where taxpayer delivered check to tax collector on January 31, 1934, with request to hold check until March and check was not presented for payment until May 7, 1934, but tax receipt issued April 30, 1934, was dated February 1, 1934, taxpayer held not qualified elector and hence not eligible for election to office of alderman in December, 1934. Wylie v. Cade, 174 Miss. 426, 164 So. 579 (1935).

Where taxpayer's check is unconditionally delivered on or before February 1 to tax collector who accepts check which in due course is deposited with reasonable promptness and paid by drawee bank on its first presentation, payment will relate back to date of delivery of check to tax collector so as to qualify taxpayer as elector. Wylie v. Cade, 174 Miss. 426, 164 So. 579 (1935).

Illegal voting at any municipal election is an indictable offense. Sample v. Town of Verona, 94 Miss. 264, 48 So. 2 (1909).

The word "elector" is synonymous with voter. Greene v. Village of Rienzi, 87 Miss. 463, 40 So. 17, 112 Am. St. R. 449 (1906).

The corresponding section of the Code 1892, in so far as it requires voters at municipal elections to vote in the wards of their residence, is constitutional and warranted by § 245 of the Constitution, empowering the legislature to impose qualifications additional to those provided by §§ 241, 242 of the Constitution. State v. Kelly, 81 Miss. 1, 32 So. 909 (1902).

The mistaken belief that one has in due time paid "all taxes legally required of him," however honestly obtained, will not relieve a delinquent of the effect of his failure to secure the privilege of an elector by complying with the requirements of § 241 of the Constitution; Nor will the subsequent payment of the same relieve him of the delinquency. Roane v. Matthews, 75 Miss. 94, 21 So. 665 (1897).

7. Under former Section 23-3-11.

For purposes of § 4(a) of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 (42 USCS § 197 3b(a)), pertaining to reinstatement of state voting registration tests, the fact that a county has administered voting registration laws in a fair and impartial manner and has recently made significant strides toward equalizing and integrating its school system will not warrant reinstatement of the literacy test for the county's voters, where (1) the county throughout the years, systematically deprived its black citizens of the educational opportunities that it granted its white citizens, and (2) impartial administration of the literacy test would serve only to perpetuate these inequities in a different form. Gaston County v. United States, 395 U.S. 285, 89 S. Ct. 1720, 23 L. Ed. 2d 309 (1969).

On direct appeal to the United States Supreme Court from a decision of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, in an action by a county seeking reinstatement of a literacy test for voters, the District Court's finding that the county has not met its burden of proving, as required by § 4(a) of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 (42 USCS § 1973b(a)), that the use of the literacy test did not discriminatorily deprive Negroes of the right to vote, will not be held clearly erroneous where (1) evidence was presented that the county's segregated Negro schools and their teachers were inferior and that Negro citizens of the county had completed far less schooling than whites, and (2) it could be inferred that among Negro children compelled to endure a segregated and inferior education, fewer would achieve any given degree of literacy than would be so with their better educated white contemporaries, and that the county's inferior Negro schools provided many of its Negro residents with an inferior education and gave many others no incentive to enter or remain in school. Gaston County v. United States, 395 U.S. 285, 89 S. Ct. 1720, 23 L. Ed. 2d 309 (1969).

A Negro citizen, originally denied the right to register because of discrimination, subsequently registered pursuant to a federal court order, who would be denied the right to vote in municipal elections for failure to pay poll taxes as required by law and because her registration took place after the legal deadline, has standing to bring a class action on behalf of all the Negro voters similarly situated to enjoin the election, and where the Federal District Court refused to grant the injunction the cause was remanded with directions to set aside the election which was held, to devise a plan for a new election, set a new cut-off date for registration, and to provide that persons otherwise entitled to vote should not be denied that right for failure to pay poll taxes if required taxes were tendered to tax collector within 45 days prior to election. Hamer v. Campbell, 358 F.2d 215 (5th Cir. 1966), cert. denied, 385 U.S. 851, 87 S. Ct. 76, 17 L. Ed. 2d 79 (1966).

All provisions of Mississippi law which condition the right to vote on the ability to read and write, or contain a "test or device" as defined in Section 4(c) of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 [42 USCS § 1973b(c)] have no force or effect during the period of suspension prescribed in said Act. United States v. State, 256 F. Supp. 344 (S.D. Miss. 1966).

The county registrar of Panola County was enjoined from using any of the conditions of this section [Code 1942, § 3235] as a prerequisite to registration other than those that had theretofore been used with respect to the registration of white applicants. United States v. Duke, 332 F.2d 759 (5th Cir. 1964).

Mandamus will not be to compel an election commission to place on the ballot the name of a person whom it has determined not to be qualified as a candidate. Powe v. Forrest County Election Comm'n, 249 Miss. 757, 163 So. 2d 656 (1964).

To require Negroes desiring to pay poll taxes qualifying them to vote to produce verification of the correctness of their voting precincts, not required of other taxpayers, and to see the sheriff personally when others were not required to do so, constitutes a violation of the Federal Civil Rights Act. United States v. Dogan, 314 F.2d 767 (5th Cir. 1963).

Person, residing in Louisiana when he purchased land in this state, with intention of building his home thereon, more than two years before general election at which his vote was protested, but actual removal to this state was less than two years before such election, was not a qualified elector. Smith v. Deere, 195 Miss. 502, 16 So. 2d 33 (1943).

That is properly the domicile of a person where he has his true, fixed, permanent home and principal establishment, and to which whenever he is absent, he has the intention of returning. Smith v. Deere, 195 Miss. 502, 16 So. 2d 33 (1943).

A domicile continues until another is acquired; before a domicile can be considered lost or changed, a new domicile must be acquired by removal to a new locality with intent to remain there, and the old domicile must be abandoned without intent to return thereto. Smith v. Deere, 195 Miss. 502, 16 So. 2d 33 (1943).

An exemptionist over 60 years of age who did not pay his poll tax was disqualified to vote in a primary election. Hayes v. Abney, 186 Miss. 208, 188 So. 533 (1939).

Registration for the election district in which one offers to vote is necessary to entitle him to vote. Perkins v. Carraway, 59 Miss. 222 (1881).

8. Under former Section 23-5-85.

Although Mississippi Code § 21-1-45 contains no dispositive definition for the term "qualified electors," it would be inappropriate to adopt the definition of that term found in Mississippi Code § 23-5-85 [Repealed], and to employ the entire panoply of rules applicable to public elections to a proceeding to obtain annexation of unincorporated area by an adjacent existing municipality. Schmidt v. City of Jackson, 494 So. 2d 348 (Miss. 1986).

The provisions of Article 12 § 251 of the Mississippi Constitution of 1890 and Code 1942, § 3235 that prescribe a period of 4-months registration for qualified electors before voting in elections are held unconstitutional, void and of no effect, as contrary to the equal protection clause of the Fourteenth Amendment, and the enforcement hereafter of such provisions is enjoined. Ferguson v. Williams, 343 F. Supp. 654 (N.D. Miss. 1972).

Those residence requirements for a qualified elector which requires a residence of one year in the state, one year in the county, and 6 months in the precinct, or municipality, clearly violate the equal protection clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States; and those requirements as contained in § 241 of the Mississippi Constitution and Code 1942, § 3235 are clearly not necessary to further a compelling state interest are violative of the equal protection clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and are null and void. Graham v. Waller, 343 F. Supp. 1 (S.D. Miss. 1972).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Under general registration statute, Miss. Code Section 23-15-11, newly annexed county electors must reside in municipality for thirty days to be eligible to vote in municipal elections. Hewes, Mar. 5, 1993, A.G. Op. #92-0969.

A seventeen-year-old who will be eighteen years of age on or before the date of the special election may register to vote thirty days or more prior to a special election. Wilson, Nov. 14, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0725.

A computerized voter list that does not have the electors' signatures on it is considered exempt for purposes of the Mississippi Public Records Act of 1983 if the information on the list was obtained from exempted records. Evans, Dec. 5, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0760.

A person may not qualify as an elector in two adjoining counties by claiming to simultaneously reside in both such counties; absent a conclusive indicator of residency, such as filing for homestead exemption, the question of qualifying as an elector should be determined, based on the facts and circumstances of each case, by reference to other relevant factors including the intent to remain, indefinitely, in a county where an actual residence has been established. Hewes, April 3, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0098.

Even in a citywide election, an individual may only cast a ballot in the voting precinct or ward in which he or she is registered to vote. Hafter, Dec. 22, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0697.

A registered voter may not cast a lawful ballot in a voting precinct other than the precinct where he or she resides. Shepard, July 14, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0345.

§ 23-15-13. Change of residency to new ward or voting precinct within same municipality.

An elector who moves from one ward or voting precinct to another ward within the same municipality or voting precinct within the same county shall not be disqualified to vote, but he or she shall be entitled to have his or her registration transferred to his or her new ward or voting precinct upon making written request therefor at any time up to thirty (30) days prior to the election at which he or she offers to vote, and if the removal occurs within thirty (30) days of such election he or she shall be entitled to vote in his or her new ward or voting precinct by affidavit ballot as provided in Section 23-15-573.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

It is duty and responsibility of registrar, upon request of individual voter, to make necessary changes on all appropriate registration records and enter appropriate data into computer to reflect any change in voter's precinct necessitated by change in that voter's residence; however, task of making changes on pollbooks and registration books is ministerial task that should be performed by election commission in their purging activities if registrar fails to act. Horton, March 21, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0201.

If a qualified elector of a county moves within the county less than 30 days before an election, pursuant to this section he is not disqualified and would be entitled to vote in the precinct of his residence by affidavit ballot if his name does not appear on the poll book of his precinct. Assuming such affidavit is properly executed and all required information is given in the affidavit and the prescribed forms, the ballot would be a lawful one and would be counted. Sautermeister, Sept. 26, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0497.

§ 23-15-17. Penalties for false registration.

(1) Any person who shall knowingly procure his or any other person's registration as a qualified elector when the person whose registration is being procured is not entitled to be registered, or when the person whose registration is being procured is being registered under a false name, or when the person whose registration is being procured is being registered as a qualified elector in any other voting precinct than that in which he resides, shall be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, be fined not more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) or imprisoned not more than five (5) years, or both. The same penalty shall apply to anyone who is disqualified for any cause and shall reregister before removal of such disqualification to avoid the same, and to all who shall in any way aid in such false registration.

(2) Any person who has reasonable cause to suspect that such a false registration has occurred may notify any authorized law enforcement officer with proper jurisdiction. Upon such notification, said law enforcement officer shall be required to conduct an investigation into the matter and file a report with the registrar and the appropriate district attorney. The registrar shall, within twenty-four (24) hours of receipt of the investigating officer's report, accept or reject the registration. Any person who so notifies an authorized law enforcement officer shall be presumed to be acting in good faith and shall be immune from any liability, civil or criminal, that might otherwise be incurred or imposed.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Evidence showing that a person whose name, birth date, and place of birth matched those of a voter, had voted in another state three weeks before the voter cast her vote in a primary election showed that the voter violated Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-17(1); thus, the voter's absentee ballot was not counted in the primary election. Smith v. Hollins, 905 So. 2d 1267 (Miss. 2005).

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Generally.

Ballot of a convicted felon was properly invalidated because the candidate who sought to have the vote counted did not prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the voter was eligible to vote. Smith v. Hollins, 905 So. 2d 1267 (Miss. 2005).

2.-5. [Reserved for future use.]6. Under former Section 23-5-35.

A felon's due process claim to a pre-disenfranchisement hearing was without merit as a matter of law and summary judgment was properly granted on such issue, where to mandate a hearing as a prerequisite to any action by the election board would cost the state substantial time and money, and it would not guarantee, any more than the current mechanism, that only felons within § 23-5-35 are disenfranchised. Williams v. Taylor, 677 F.2d 510 (5th Cir. 1982).

A new trial would be required on a felon's claim that the election board's disenfranchisement of him pursuant to §§ 23-5-35, 23-5-37 [Repealed.] was unconstitutionally selective, where the board had not acted according to the requisite procedure established in § 23-5-37 [Repealed.], and its noncompliance with this procedure may have created a pattern of selective enforcement. Williams v. Taylor, 677 F.2d 510 (5th Cir. 1982).

Allegations that because of the interrelationship between the racial restrictions of the Mississippi voter qualification laws and requirements with respect to the selection of grand and petit jurors a defendant would be denied his equal civil rights to trial by a jury free from exclusion were insufficient to justify the removal to the federal courts of the trial of a Negro charged with the crime of rape. Bass v. State, 381 F.2d 692 (5th Cir. 1967).

State election commissioners have power, authority, and responsibility to help administer voter registration laws by formulating rules for the various tests applied to applicants for registration, and for the reason that these rules and tests are vitally important elements of Mississippi laws challenged in an action brought by the United States to end discrimination in voter registration, the commissioners should not have been stricken as parties defendants to the action on the ground that they lacked sufficient interest in administering or enforcing the challenged laws. United States v. Mississippi, 380 U.S. 128, 85 S. Ct. 808, 13 L. Ed. 2d 717 (1965), on remand, 256 F. Supp. 344 (1966).

§ 23-15-35. Clerk of municipality to be registrar; registration books; form of application for registration; registration of county electors by clerk.

[Until January 1, 2009, this section shall read as follows:]

(1) The clerk of the municipality shall be the registrar of voters of the municipality, and shall take the oath of office prescribed by Section 268 of the Constitution. The governing authorities shall provide suitable municipal registration books, which shall conform as nearly as practicable to the county registration books. The registrar shall, as nearly as may be practicable, and where not otherwise provided, comply with all the provisions of law regarding state and county elections in keeping and maintaining such registration books and in registering voters thereon. Applications for registration as electors of the municipality shall be made upon a triplicate form provided by and prepared at the expense of the county registrar, which form shall conform as nearly as practicable to the application for registration form provided for in Section 23-15-39.

(2) The municipal clerk shall be authorized to register applicants as county electors. The municipal clerk shall forward notice of registration, a copy of the application for registration, and any changes to the registration when they occur, either by certified mail to the county registrar or by personal delivery to the county registrar provided that a numbered receipt is signed by the registrar in return for the described documents. Upon receipt of the copy of the application for registration or changes to the registration, and if a review of the application indicates that the applicant meets all the criteria necessary to qualify as a county elector, then the county registrar shall make a determination of the county voting precinct in which the person making the application shall be required to vote. The county registrar shall send this county voting precinct information by United States first-class mail, postage prepaid, to the person at the address provided on the application. Any and all mailing costs incurred by the municipal clerk or the county registrar in effectuating this subsection shall be paid by the county board of supervisors. If a review of the copy of the application for registration or changes to the registration indicates that the applicant is not qualified to vote in the county, the county registrar shall challenge the application. The county election commissioners shall review any challenge or disqualification, after having notified the applicant by certified mail of the challenge or disqualification.

(3) The municipal clerk shall issue to the person making the application a copy of the application, and the county registrar shall process the application in accordance with the law regarding the handling of voter registration applications.

(4) The receipt of a copy of the application for registration sent pursuant to Section 23-15-39(3) shall be sufficient to allow the applicant to be registered as an elector in the municipality, provided that such application is not challenged as provided for therein.

[From and after January 1, 2009, this section shall read as follows:]

(1) The clerk of the municipality shall be the registrar of voters of the municipality, and shall take the oath of office prescribed by Section 268 of the Constitution. The municipal registration shall conform to the county registration which shall be a part of the official record of registered voters as contained in the Statewide Elections Management System. The municipal clerk shall comply with all the provisions of law regarding the registration of voters, including the use of the voter registration applications used by county registrars and prescribed by the Secretary of State under Sections 23-15-39 and 23-15-47.

(2) The municipal clerk shall be authorized to register applicants as county electors. The municipal clerk shall forward notice of registration, a copy of the application for registration, and any changes to the registration when they occur, either by certified mail to the county registrar or by personal delivery to the county registrar provided that a numbered receipt is signed by the registrar in return for the described documents. Upon receipt of the copy of the application for registration or changes to the registration, and if a review of the application indicates that the applicant meets all the criteria necessary to qualify as a county elector, then the county registrar shall make a determination of the county voting precinct in which the person making the application shall be required to vote. The county registrar shall send this county voting precinct information by United States first-class mail, postage prepaid, to the person at the address provided on the application. Any and all mailing costs incurred by the municipal clerk or the county registrar in effectuating this subsection shall be paid by the county board of supervisors. If a review of the copy of the application for registration or changes to the registration indicates that the applicant is not qualified to vote in the county, the county registrar shall challenge the application. The county election commissioners shall review any challenge or disqualification, after having notified the applicant by certified mail of the challenge or disqualification.

(3) The municipal clerk shall issue to the person making the application a copy of the application and the county registrar shall process the application in accordance with the law regarding the handling of voter registration applications.

(4) The receipt of a copy of the application for registration sent pursuant to Section 23-15-39(3) shall be sufficient to allow the applicant to be registered as an elector in the municipality, provided that such application is not challenged as provided for therein.

§ 23-15-37. Keeping registration books; registration of voters; voter registration in public schools.

(1) The registrar shall keep his books open at his office and shall register the electors of his county at any time during regular office hours.

(2) The registrar may keep his office open for registration of voters from 8:00 a.m. until 7:00 p.m., including the noon hour, for the five (5) business days immediately preceding the thirtieth day prior to any regularly scheduled primary or general election. The registrar may also keep his office open from 8:00 a.m. until 12:00 noon on the Saturday immediately preceding the thirtieth day prior to any regularly scheduled primary or general election.

(3) The registrar, or any deputy registrar duly appointed by law, may visit and spend such time as he may deem necessary at any location in his county, selected by the registrar not less than thirty (30) days before an election, for the purpose of registering voters.

(4) A person who is physically disabled and unable to visit the office of the registrar to register to vote due to such disability may contact the registrar and request that the registrar or his deputy visit him for the purpose of registering such person to vote. The registrar or his deputy shall visit such person as soon as possible after such request and provide such person with an application for registration, if necessary. The completed application for registration shall be executed in the presence of the registrar or his deputy.

(5)(a) In the fall and spring of each year the registrar of each county shall furnish all public schools with mail-in voter registration applications. Such applications shall be provided in a reasonable time to enable those students who will be eighteen (18) years of age before a general election to be able to vote in the primary and general elections.

(b) Each public school district shall permit access to all public schools of this state for the registrar or his deputy for the purpose of registration of persons eligible to vote and for providing voter education.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
2. Under former Section 23-5-29.

1. In general.

Plaintiffs who showed that challenged statutes either impinged upon their protected rights to register to vote or burdened organizational efforts to assist prospective voters in registering had standing to sue to challenge Mississippi's dual registration requirement and prohibition on satellite registration as violative of their rights and all persons similarly situated. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Allain, 674 F. Supp. 1245 (N.D. Miss. 1987), aff'd sub nom. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Mabus, 932 F.2d 400 (5th Cir. 1991).

Based on totality of circumstances, proof showed by preponderance of evidence that Mississippi's dual registration requirement and statutory prohibition on removing voter registration books from circuit clerk's office resulted in denial or abridgement of right of black citizens in Mississippi to vote and participate in electoral process. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Allain, 674 F. Supp. 1245 (N.D. Miss. 1987), aff'd sub nom. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Mabus, 932 F.2d 400 (5th Cir. 1991).

No legitimate or compelling state interest is served by failure of state to mandate uniform, state-wide method of satellite registration; all circuit clerks should make arrangements to conduct satellite registration at no less than three voting precincts in each of five supervisory districts within their respective counties for at least one full day within 12 months of each election of state wide officials. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Allain, 674 F. Supp. 1245 (N.D. Miss. 1987), aff'd sub nom. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Mabus, 932 F.2d 400 (5th Cir. 1991).

Whereas instances of racially polarized voting are pertinent in challenges to electoral processes, voting behavior or practices are not germane to challenged voter registration procedures or to determination of discriminatory impact of registration practices. Racial appeals in campaigns for elections bear little relevance to state's registration procedures. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Allain, 674 F. Supp. 1245 (N.D. Miss. 1987), aff'd sub nom. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Mabus, 932 F.2d 400 (5th Cir. 1991).

2. Under former Section 23-5-29.

Provisions in Mississippi Election Code pertaining to registration of voters do not violate § 2 of the Voting Rights Act (42 USCS § 1973(a)) simply because there might be better registration procedures which could be enacted into law. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Mabus, 717 F. Supp. 1189 (N.D. Miss. 1989), aff'd, 932 F.2d 400 (5th Cir. 1991).

Section 251 of the constitution of 1890 and this section have reference to elections contemplated by the constitution and not to local option elections held under § 1610 of the Code of 1892 (Code 1906, § 1777), and the fact that such an election has been ordered does not interfere with the registration of voters. Bew v. State, 71 Miss. 1, 13 So. 868 (1893).

§ 23-15-39. Form of application for registration; allowances for office supplies; determination on application; notice to applicant; assistance to applicant; voter registration number; fees and costs; forwarding of application.

(1) Applications for registration as electors of this state, which are sworn to and subscribed before the registrar or deputy registrar authorized by law and which are not made by mail, shall be made upon a form established by rule duly adopted by the Secretary of State.

(2) The boards of supervisors shall make proper allowances for office supplies reasonably necessitated by the registration of county electors.

(3) If the applicant indicates on the application that he resides within the city limits of a city or town in the county of registration, the county registrar shall process the application for registration or changes to the registration as provided by law.

(4) If the applicant indicates on the application that he has previously registered to vote in another county of this state or another state, notice to the voter's previous county of registration in this state shall be provided by the Statewide Elections Management System. If the voter's previous place of registration was in another state, notice shall be provided to the voter's previous state of residence if the Statewide Elections Management System has that capability.

(5) The county registrar shall provide to the person making the application a copy of the application upon which has been written the county voting precinct and municipal voting precinct, if any, in which the person shall vote. Upon entry of the voter registration information into the Statewide Elections Management System, the system shall assign a voter registration number to the person.

(6) Any person desiring an application for registration may secure an application from the registrar of the county of which he is a resident and may take the application with him and secure assistance in completing the application from any person of the applicant's choice. It shall be the duty of all registrars to furnish applications for registration to all persons requesting them, and it shall likewise be his duty to furnish aid and assistance in the completing of the application when requested by an applicant. The application for registration shall be sworn to and subscribed before the registrar or deputy registrar at the municipal clerk's office, the county registrar's office or any other location where the applicant is allowed to register to vote. No fee or cost shall be charged the applicant by the registrar for accepting the application or administering the oath or for any other duty imposed by law regarding the registration of electors.

(7) If the person making the application is unable to read or write, for reason of disability or otherwise, he shall not be required to personally complete the application in writing and execute the oath. In such cases, the registrar or deputy registrar shall read to the person the application and oath and the person's answers thereto shall be recorded by the registrar or his deputy. The person shall be registered as an elector if he otherwise meets the requirements to be registered as an elector. The registrar shall record the responses of the person and the recorded responses shall be retained permanently by the registrar. The registrar shall enter the voter registration information into the Statewide Elections Management System and designate the entry as an assisted filing.

(8) The receipt of a copy of the application for registration sent pursuant to Section 23-15-35(2) shall be sufficient to allow the applicant to be registered as an elector of this state, if the application is not challenged.

(9) In any case in which a municipality expands its corporate boundaries by annexation or redistricts all or a part of the municipality, the municipal clerk shall within ten (10) days after the effective date of the annexation or after preclearance of the redistricting plan under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, provide the county registrar with conforming geographic data that is compatible with the Statewide Elections Management System. The data shall be developed by the municipality's use of a standardized format specified by the Statewide Elections Management System. The county registrar shall update the municipal boundary information or redistricting information into the Statewide Elections Management System. The Statewide Elections Management System shall update the voter registration records to include the new municipal electors who have resided within the annexed area for at least thirty (30) days after annexation and assign the electors to the municipal voting precincts. The county registrar shall forward to the municipal clerk written notification of the additions and changes, and the municipal clerk shall forward to the new municipal electors written notification of the additions and changes. The Statewide Elections Management System shall correctly place municipal electors within districts whose boundaries were altered by any redistricting conducted within the municipality and assign such electors to the correct municipal voting precincts.

6. Under former Section 23-5-17.

State election commissioners have power, authority, and responsibility to help administer voter registration laws by formulating rules for the various tests applied to applicants for registration, and for the reason that these rules and tests are vitally important elements of Mississippi laws challenged in an action brought by the United States to end discrimination in voter registration, the commissioners should not have been stricken as parties defendants to the action on the ground that they lacked sufficient interest in administering or enforcing the challenged laws. United States v. Mississippi, 380 U.S. 128, 85 S. Ct. 808, 13 L. Ed. 2d 717 (1965), on remand, 256 F. Supp. 344 (1966).

Where the court found that substantially all of the eligible white voters in Walthall County had been registered without being required to submit to any of the onerous tests or requirements imposed by the state statute, the county registrar, in registering Negro applicants, was enjoined not to use as a prerequisite to registration any requirements for qualification which had not theretofore been used with respect to the registration of white applicants. United States v. State, 339 F.2d 679 (5th Cir. 1964).

The county registrar of Panola County was required, in conducting proceedings for the registration of voters, not to use as a prerequisite to registration any requirements for qualification which had not theretofore been used with respect to the registration of white applicants. United States v. Duke, 332 F.2d 759 (5th Cir. 1964).

All provisions of Mississippi law which condition the right to vote on the ability to read and write, or contain a "test or device" as defined in Section 4(c) of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 [42 USCS § 1973b(c)] have no force or effect during the period of suspension prescribed in said Act. United States v. State, 256 F. Supp. 344 (S.D. Miss. 1966).

6. Under former Section 23-5-305.

Where evidence established that voter registrar summarily disapproved applications of anyone claiming to reside on the campus of Rust College or Mississippi Industrial College, thereby forcing them to prosecute an appeal to the board of election commissioners, while failing to refer to the board the applications of non-students in accordance with this section, the registrar and his employees were enjoined under 42 USCS § 1971(a)(2)(A) from failing to apply uniform standards to all applicants for registration, including black students attending institutions of higher learning in Marshal County, Mississippi, and from failing to register every student applicant who was denied registration because of the application of a stricter or more stringent standard than that applied to other applicants. Frazier v. Callicutt, 383 F. Supp. 15 (N.D. Miss. 1974).

§ 23-15-45. Notice to person denied registration.

In the event that registration is denied pending automatic review by the county election commissioners, the registrar shall immediately inform the applicant that the registration is denied and advise the applicant of the date, time and place of the next meeting of the county election commissioners, at which time the applicant may present such evidence either in person or in writing as he deems pertinent to the question of residency.

§ 23-15-47. Registering to vote by mail-in application.

(1) Any person who is qualified to register to vote in the State of Mississippi may register to vote by mail-in application in the manner prescribed in this section.

(2) The following procedure shall be used in the registration of electors by mail:

(a) Any qualified elector may register to vote by mailing or delivering a completed mail-in application to his county registrar at least thirty (30) days prior to any election. The postmark date of a mailed application shall be the date of registration.

(b) Upon receipt of a mail-in application, the county registrar shall stamp the application with the date of receipt, and shall verify the application by contacting the applicant by telephone, by personal contact with the applicant, or by any other method approved by the Secretary of State. Within twenty-five (25) days of receipt of a mail-in application, the county registrar shall complete action on the application, including any attempts to notify the applicant of the status of his application.

(c) If the county registrar determines that the applicant is qualified and his application is legible and complete, he shall mail the applicant written notification that the application has been approved, specifying the county voting precinct, municipal voting precinct, if any, polling place and supervisor district in which the person shall vote. This written notification of approval containing the specified information shall be the voter's registration card. The registration cards shall be provided by the county registrar. Upon entry of the voter registration information into the Statewide Elections Management System, the system shall assign a voter registration number to the person. The assigned voter registration number shall be clearly shown on the written notification of approval. In mailing the written notification, the county registrar shall note the following on the envelope: "DO NOT FORWARD". If any registration notification form is returned as undeliverable, the voter's registration shall be void.

(d) A mail-in application shall be rejected for any of the following reasons:

(i) An incomplete portion of the application which makes it impossible for the registrar to determine the eligibility of the applicant to register;

(ii) A portion of the application which is illegible in the opinion of the county registrar and makes it impossible to determine the eligibility of the applicant to register;

(iii) The county registrar is unable to determine, from the address and information stated on the application, the precinct in which the voter should be assigned or the supervisor district in which he is entitled to vote;

(iv) The applicant is not qualified to register to vote pursuant to Section 23-15-11;

(v) The registrar determines that the applicant is registered as a qualified elector of the county;

(vi) The county registrar is unable to verify the application pursuant to subsection (2) (b) of this section.

(e) If the mail-in application of a person is subject to rejection for any of the reasons set forth in paragraph (d) (i) through (iii) of this subsection, and it appears to the registrar that the defect or omission is of such a minor nature and that any necessary additional information may be supplied by the applicant over the telephone or by further correspondence, the registrar may write or call the applicant at the telephone number provided on the application. If the registrar is able to contact the applicant by mail or telephone, he shall attempt to ascertain the necessary information and if this information is sufficient for the registrar to complete the application, the applicant shall be registered. If the necessary information cannot be obtained by mail or telephone or is not sufficient, the registrar shall give the applicant written notice of the rejection and provide the reason for the rejection. The registrar shall further inform the applicant that he has a right to attempt to register by appearing in person or by filing another mail-in application.

(f) If a mail-in application is subject to rejection for the reason stated in paragraph (d)(v) of this subsection and the "present home address" portion of the application is different from the residence address for the applicant found in the registration book, the mail-in application shall be deemed a written request to transfer registration pursuant to Section 23-15-13. Subject to the time limits and other provisions of Section 23-15-13, the registrar or the election commissioners shall note the new residence address on his records and, if necessary, transfer the applicant to his new county precinct or municipal precinct, if any, advise the applicant of his new county precinct or municipal precinct, if any, polling place and supervisor district.

(3) The instructions and the application form for voter registration by mail shall be in a form established by rule duly adopted by the Secretary of State.

(4)(a) The Secretary of State shall prepare and furnish without charge the necessary forms for application for voter registration by mail to each county registrar, municipal clerk, all public schools, each private school that requests such applications, and all public libraries.

(b) The Secretary of State shall distribute without charge sufficient forms for application for voter registration by mail to the Commissioner of Public Safety, who shall distribute such forms to each driver's license examining and renewal station in the state, and shall ensure that the forms are regularly available to the public at such stations.

(c) Bulk quantities of forms for application for voter registration by mail shall be furnished by the Secretary of State to any person or organization. The Secretary of State shall charge a person or organization the actual cost he incurs in providing bulk quantities of forms for application for voter registration to such person or organization.

(5) The originals of completed mail-in applications shall remain on file in the office of the county registrar in accordance with Section 23-15-113. Nothing in this section shall preclude having applications on microfilm, microfiche or as an electronic image.

(6) If the applicant indicates on the application that he resides within the city limits of a city or town in the county of registration, the county registrar shall enter the information into the Statewide Elections Management System. The county registrar shall send municipal voting precinct information by United States first-class mail, postage prepaid, to the person at the address provided on the application. Any and all mailing costs incurred by the county registrar or the clerk of the municipality in effectuating this subsection shall be paid by the governing authority of the municipality. If a review of the application for registration or changes to the registration indicates that the applicant is not qualified to vote in the municipality, the registrar shall notify the applicant of the correct county precinct.

(7) If the applicant indicates on the application that he has previously registered to vote in another county of this state or another state, notice to the voter's previous county of registration in this state shall be provided by the Statewide Elections Management System. If the voter's previous place of registration was in another state, notice shall be provided to the voter's previous state of residence if the Statewide Elections Management System has that capability.

(8) Any person who attempts to register to vote by mail shall be subject to the penalties for false registration provided for in Section 23-15-17.

Editor's Note — The United States Attorney General, by letter dated May 1, 1992, interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to the addition of this section by Laws of 1991, ch. 440, § 1, except that the U.S. Attorney General objected to the mail-in voter registration requirement that the witnessing registered voter attest to the facts stated in the mail-in application.

The United States Attorney General, by letter dated August 16, 1993, interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 1993, ch. 528, § 3.

The United States Attorney General, by letter dated February 2, 1995, interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 1994, ch. 600, § 1, except that the U.S. Attorney General objected to the mail-in voter registration requirement that the witnessing registered voter attest to the facts stated in the mail-in application.

Laws of 2004, ch. 305, § 1 provides:

“SECTION 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the “Mississippi Help America Vote Act of 2002 Compliance Law.”

On July 12, 2004, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 2004, ch. 305, § 10.

On June 5, 2006, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 2006, ch. 574, § 5.

Amendment Notes — The 2006 amendment substituted “Statewide Elections Management System” for “Statewide Centralized Voter System” throughout the section; deleted “818” preceding “registration of electors by mail” in the introductory paragraph of (2); and in (2)(c), rewrote the fourth sentence, and deleted “application and on the” preceding “written notification” in the fifth sentence.

§ 23-15-65. Determination of appeals at September meeting of board of commissioners.

The board of commissioners shall meet at the courthouse of its county on the second Monday in September preceding any general election, and shall remain in session from day to day, so long as business may require. Three (3) commissioners shall constitute a quorum to do business; but the concurrence of at least three (3) commissioners shall be necessary in all cases for the rendition of a decision. The commissioners shall hear and determine all appeals from the decisions of the registrar of their county, allowing or refusing the applications of electors to be registered; and they shall correct illegal or improper registrations, and shall secure the elective franchise, as effected by registration, to those who may be illegally or improperly denied the same.

§ 23-15-69. Appeals heard de novo; finality of decisions.

All cases on appeal shall be heard by the boards of election commissioners de novo, and oral and documentary evidence may be heard by them; and they are authorized to administer oaths to witnesses before them; and they have power to subpoena witnesses, and to compel their attendance; to send for persons and papers; to require the sheriff and constables to attend them and to execute their process. The decisions of the commissioners in all cases shall be final as to questions of fact, but as to matters of law they may be revised by circuit courts and the Supreme Court. The registrar shall obey the orders of the commissioners in directing a person to be registered, or a name to be stricken from the registration books.

§ 23-15-119. New registration books or pollbooks.

When the registration books shall be filled, the board of supervisors of the county shall procure others, to be kept and used as herein directed, or they may cause the books in use at any time to be enlarged so as to contain the names of all persons who may be registered; and the board of supervisors shall cause new pollbooks to be made from time to time as may be necessary or proper; and in case of the destruction or mutilation of the registration books or pollbooks, so as to make it proper to have the names of the electors on the old books transcribed into new ones, the board shall cause it to be done, and the new books so made shall have the same effect as the old ones.

Amendment Notes — The 2006 amendment inserted “of supervisors” following “the board,” and substituted “provided for in Section 23-15-121” for “in case of the loss or destruction of the books” at the end.

§ 23-15-125. Form of pollbooks.

The pollbook of each voting precinct shall designate the voting precinct for which it is to be used, and shall be ruled in appropriate columns, with printed or written headings, as follows: date of registration; voter registration number; name of electors; date of birth; and a number of blank columns for the dates of elections. All who register within thirty (30) days before any regular election shall be entered on the pollbooks immediately after such election, and not before, so that the pollbooks will show only the names of those qualified to vote at such election. When election commissioners determine that any elector is disqualified from voting, by reason of removal from the supervisors district, or other cause, that fact shall be noted on the registration book and his name shall be erased from the pollbook. Nothing in this section shall preclude the use of electronic pollbooks.

§ 23-15-127. Preparation, use and revision of primary election pollbooks.

(1) It shall be the duty of registrar of the county or municipality to prepare and furnish to the appropriate election commissioner pollbooks for each voting precinct in which the election is to be conducted, in which shall be entered the name, residence, date of birth and date of registration of each person duly registered in such voting precinct as now provided by law, and which pollbooks shall be known as “primary election pollbooks” and shall be used only in holding primary elections.

(2) The election commissioners of the county or municipality shall revise the primary pollbooks at the time and in the manner and in accordance with the laws now fixed and in force for revising pollbooks now provided for under the law, except they shall not remove from the pollbook any person who is qualified to participate in primary elections; however, upon the written request of the municipal election commission, the county commissioners of election shall revise the primary pollbooks of the municipality as provided in this subsection.

(3) All laws applicable to the revision of pollbooks now in use shall be applicable to the revision of pollbooks for primary elections, and all rights of voters to be heard and to appeal to the executive committee of his party from the action of the election commissioners now provided by law shall be available to the voter in the revisions of the pollbooks for primary elections provided for in this section.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

A Board of Supervisors' involvement in the redistricting process of a county was permissible where the Board of Supervisors assisted the election commissioners with information in order to comply with a federal court redistricting order in time to hold primaries, the evidence demonstrated that it was the Election Commission which made the decisions as to the redistricting pursuant to the statutory requirements of § 23-15-127, and the Board of Supervisors' participation was limited to supplying information. Pearson v. Parsons, 541 So. 2d 447 (Miss. 1989).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Registrar or someone duly authorized by him has exclusive responsibility to enter data into computer; while provision refers to primary election pollbooks, provision is applicable to pollbooks used in general and special elections as well. Horton, March 21, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0201.

§ 23-15-129. Subprecinct pollbooks.

The commissioners of election and the registrars of the respective counties are hereby directed to make an administrative division of the pollbook for each county immediately following any reapportionment of the Mississippi Legislature or any realignment of supervisors districts, if necessary. Such an administrative division shall form subprecincts whenever necessary within each voting precinct so that all persons within a subprecinct shall vote on the same candidates for each public office. The polling place for all subprecincts within any given voting precinct shall be the same as the polling place for the voting precinct. Additional managers may be appointed for subprecincts in the discretion of the commissioners of election or, in the case of primary elections, in the discretion of the proper executive committee.

On June 5, 2006, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to the repeal of this section by Laws of 2006, ch. 574, § 21.

§ 23-15-133. Procedure for forming subprecincts and making subprecinct pollbooks.

The procedure to be used by the commissioners of election and the registrars to form subprecincts and to make subprecinct pollbooks shall be as follows, and in the following order:

(a) Identify those subprecinct areas in each voting precinct, if any, where all persons within such subprecincts shall vote on the same candidates for each public office;

(b) The portion of each voting precinct with the largest population shall retain the original voting precinct designation and those portions of each voting precinct with smaller populations shall be called subprecincts and identified by the original voting precinct designation with the suffixes "a", "b", "c", et cetera, for as many subprecincts as are formed for any given precinct;

(c) The qualified electors residing in each subprecinct shall be identified; and

(d) The names of the qualified electors so identified whose names appear on the original voting precinct pollbook shall be transferred to and placed upon the appropriate subprecinct pollbook, and a notation of such transfer shall be made opposite such names in the original voting precinct pollbook. Such electors so identified shall be notified by regular mail that they reside in a newly formed subprecinct; however, failure to give such notice shall not invalidate an otherwise valid election.

§ 23-15-135. Registrar to keep registration book and pollbooks.

The registration books of the several voting precincts of each county and the pollbooks heretofore in use shall be delivered to the registrar of the county, and they, together with the registration books and pollbooks hereafter made, shall be records of his office, and he shall carefully preserve the same as such; and after each election the pollbooks shall be speedily returned to the office of the registrar.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

The Registrar would be the appropriate official to transfer the names of registered voters to a newly established automated voter registration system. Griffin, Feb. 12, 1992, A.G. Op. #91-0957.

There is no apparent legal authority that would allow registration books and pollbooks to be kept and maintained in place other than office of circuit clerk/registrar except when pollbooks are being used in conduct of election. Pryor, Dec. 23, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0931.

County registrar is "certifying official" for purpose of certifying number of signatures of qualified electors on petitions calling for election pursuant to particular statute as well as on nominating petitions for candidates for public offices. Doggett Sept. 8, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0644.

Any and all requests for access to or copies of county voter registration records must be made to the county registrar, and it is the duty and responsibility of the county registrar to insure that voters' social security numbers, telephone numbers, and dates of birth and age information are excluded prior to granting access or providing copies of such records. Johnson, March 10, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0112.

The practice of boards of supervisors to seek certification from their respective county circuit clerks as to the number of signatures of qualified electors appearing on such petitions prior to the adjudication of the sufficiency of those petitions is, in most if not all cases, necessary to protect the integrity of the process, since circuit clerks are the custodians of the registration records. Benvenuti, March 17, 2000, A.G. Op. #99-0216.

Each circuit clerk is responsible for making available public records of his office when properly requested. Information such as social security numbers, telephone numbers, dates of birth and age information must be erased or removed from such records before they are made available to the public. There is no specific statutory direction on the manner in which such information is to be removed. Allen, Oct. 24, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0555.

§ 23-15-137. Municipality authorized to contract with county election commissioners to revise registration books and pollbooks; compensation.

[Until Laws, 2006, ch. 585 § 1, is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, this section will read as follows:]

(1) If the governing authorities of a municipality determine that revision of the registration books and pollbooks can be performed more effectively and efficiently utilizing the authority granted in this section, then such governing authorities may contract with the commissioners of election of the county or counties in which the municipality is located to provide the municipal registrar of such municipality with registration books and pollbooks containing only the duly qualified electors of such municipality. The registration books and pollbooks provided pursuant to this section may be used to conduct any municipal election in such municipality. By adopting the registration books and pollbooks so provided, the municipal commissioners of election shall be deemed to have met any requirements to revise such books which are imposed upon such commissioners by Mississippi law.

(2) In addition to any meeting otherwise authorized by law, the county commissioners of election may meet to prepare the registration and pollbooks of each municipality pursuant to a contract authorized pursuant to subsection (1) of this section. Each municipality shall compensate the county commissioners of election for the actual cost of preparing such registration books and pollbooks for the municipality and shall pay each county commissioner of election the per diem provided for in Section 23-15-153(2) for each day or period of not less than five (5) hours accumulated over two (2) or more days such commissioners are actually employed in preparing such registration books and pollbooks for such municipality, not to exceed five (5) days. The county commissioners of election shall not receive any compensation for the preparation of registration books and pollbooks pursuant to subsection (1) other than that provided for in this subsection.

(3) This section shall stand repealed from and after January 1, 2006.

[From and after the date Laws, 2006, ch. 585 § 1, is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, this section will read as follows:]

authorities may contract with the commissioners of election of the county or counties in which the municipality is located to provide the municipal registrar of such municipality with registration books and pollbooks containing only the duly qualified electors of such municipality. The registration books and pollbooks provided pursuant to this section may be used to conduct any municipal election in such municipality. By adopting the registration books and pollbooks so provided, the municipal commissioners of election shall be deemed to have met any requirements to revise such books which are imposed upon such commissioners by Mississippi law.

(2) In addition to any meeting otherwise authorized by law, the county commissioners of election may meet to prepare the registration and pollbooks of each municipality pursuant to a contract authorized pursuant to subsection (1) of this section. Each municipality shall compensate the county commissioners of election for the actual cost of preparing such registration books and pollbooks for the municipality and shall pay each county commissioner of election the per diem provided for in Section 23-15-153(2) for each day or period of not less than five (5) hours accumulated over two (2) or more days such commissioners are actually employed in preparing such registration books and pollbooks for such municipality, not to exceed five (5) days. The county commissioners of election shall not receive any compensation for the preparation of registration books and pollbooks pursuant to subsection (1) other than that provided for in this subsection.

§ 23-15-151. Roll of persons convicted of certain crimes to be kept by circuit clerk; comparison with registration book.

The circuit clerk of each county is authorized and directed to prepare and keep in his office a full and complete list, in alphabetical order, of persons convicted of any crime listed in Section 241, Mississippi Constitution of 1890. Said clerk shall enter the names of all persons who have been or shall be hereafter convicted of any crime listed in Section 241, Mississippi Constitution of 1890, in a book prepared and kept for that purpose. The board of supervisors of each county shall, as early as practicable, furnish the circuit clerk of their county with a suitable book for the enrollment of said names showing the name, date of birth, address, court, crime and date of conviction. Said roll, when so prepared, shall be compared with the registration book before each election commissioner of the county. A certified copy of any enrollment by one clerk to another will be sufficient authority for the enrollment of such name, or names, in another county.

A new trial would be required on a felon's claim that the election board's disenfranchisement of him pursuant to

§§ 23-5-35, 23-5-37 [Repealed.] was unconstitutionally selective, where the board had not acted according to the requisite procedure established in § 23-5-37 [Repealed.], and its noncompliance with this procedure may have created a pattern of selective enforcement. *Williams v. ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

The compilation required by this section should include the names of persons who have been convicted of any of the crimes identified as disqualifying by the courts or by official opinions of the Attorney General. Allen, Oct. 24, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0555.

Where no roll of persons convicted of crimes was maintained by previous clerks, a newly appointed clerk should make reasonable attempts to list persons known to have previous convictions. Allen, Oct. 24, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0555.

This section requires the circuit clerk of each county to prepare and maintain a list of all persons who have been convicted of disqualifying crimes in their respective counties. However, any documentation received from a circuit clerk of another county, the State of Mississippi or any other source showing that a resident of a particular county has a disqualifying conviction should be recorded in such compilation or preserved in some other manner in order to insure that the name of the person convicted does not appear on the registration records. Allen, Oct. 24, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0555.

§ 23-15-153. Revision of registration books and pollbooks by commissioners; amount and limitations of per diem payments to commissioners; provision of copies of registration books to municipal registrars; certification of hours worked; number of days in calendar year for which commissioners entitled to receive compensation.

(1) At the following times the commissioners of election shall meet at the office of the registrar and carefully revise the registration books and the pollbooks of the several voting precincts, and shall erase from those books the names of all persons erroneously on the books, or who have died, removed or become disqualified as electors from any cause; and shall register the names of all persons who have duly applied to be registered and have been illegally denied registration:

(a) On the Tuesday after the second Monday in January 1987 and every following year;

(b) On the first Tuesday in the month immediately preceding the first primary election for congressmen in the years when congressmen are elected;

(c) On the first Monday in the month immediately preceding the first primary election for state, state district legislative, county and county district offices in the years in which those offices are elected; and

(d) On the second Monday of September preceding the general election or regular special election day in years in which a general election is not conducted.

Except for the names of those persons who are duly qualified to vote in the election, no name shall be permitted to remain on the registration books and pollbooks; however, no name shall be erased from the registration books or pollbooks based on a change in the residence of an elector except in accordance with procedures provided for by the National Voter Registration Act of 1993 that are in effect at the time of such erasure. Except as otherwise provided by Section 23-15-573, no person shall vote at any election whose name is not on the pollbook.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, and subject to the following annual limitations, the commissioners of election shall be entitled to receive a per diem in the amount of Eighty-four Dollars ($84.00), to be paid from the county general fund, for every day or period of no less than five (5) hours accumulated over two (2) or more days actually employed in the performance of their duties in the conduct of an election or actually employed in the performance of their duties for the necessary time spent in the revision of the registration books and pollbooks as required in subsection (1) of this section:

(a) In counties having less than fifteen thousand (15,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census, not more than fifty (50) days per year, with no more than fifteen (15) additional days allowed for the conduct of each election in excess of one (1) occurring in any calendar year;

(b) In counties having fifteen thousand (15,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census but less than thirty thousand (30,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census, not more than seventy-five (75) days per year, with no more than twenty-five (25) additional days allowed for the conduct of each election in excess of one (1) occurring in any calendar year;

(c) In counties having thirty thousand (30,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census but less than seventy thousand (70,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census, not more than one hundred (100) days per year, with no more than thirty-five (35) additional days allowed for the conduct of each election in excess of one (1) occurring in any calendar year;

(d) In counties having seventy thousand (70,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census but less than ninety thousand (90,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census, not more than one hundred twenty-five (125) days per year, with no more than forty-five (45) additional days allowed for the conduct of each election in excess of one (1) occurring in any calendar year;

(e) In counties having ninety thousand (90,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census but less than one hundred seventy thousand (170,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census, not more than one hundred fifty (150) days per year, with no more than fifty-five (55) additional days allowed for the conduct of each election in excess of one (1) occurring in any calendar year;

(f) In counties having one hundred seventy thousand (170,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census but less than two hundred thousand (200,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census, not more than one hundred seventy-five (175) days per year, with no more than sixty-five (65) additional days allowed for the conduct of each election in excess of one (1) occurring in any calendar year;

(g) In counties having two hundred thousand (200,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census but less than two hundred twenty-five thousand (225,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census, not more than one hundred ninety (190) days per year, with no more than seventy-five (75) additional days allowed for the conduct of each election in excess of one (1) occurring in any calendar year;

(h) In counties having two hundred twenty-five thousand (225,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census but less than two hundred fifty thousand (250,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census, not more than two hundred fifteen (215) days per year, with no more than eighty-five (85) additional days allowed for the conduct of each election in excess of one (1) occurring in any calendar year;

(i) In counties having two hundred fifty thousand (250,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census but less than two hundred seventy-five thousand (275,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census, not more than two hundred thirty (230) days per year, with no more than ninety-five (95) additional days allowed for the conduct of each election in excess of one (1) occurring in any calendar year;

(j) In counties having two hundred seventy-five thousand (275,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census or more, not more than two hundred forty (240) days per year, with no more than one hundred five (105) additional days allowed for the conduct of each election in excess of one (1) occurring in any calendar year.

(3) The commissioners of election shall be entitled to receive a per diem in the amount of Eighty-four Dollars ($84.00), to be paid from the county general fund, not to exceed ten (10) days for every day or period of no less than five (5) hours accumulated over two (2) or more days actually employed in the performance of their duties for the necessary time spent in the revision of the registration books and pollbooks prior to any special election. For purposes of this subsection, the regular special election day shall not be considered a special election. The annual limitations set forth in subsection (2) of this section shall not apply to this subsection.

(4) The commissioners of election shall be entitled to receive a per diem in the amount of Eighty-four Dollars ($84.00), to be paid from the county general fund, not to exceed fourteen (14) days for every day or period of no less than five (5) hours accumulated over two (2) or more days actually employed in the performance of their duties for the necessary time spent in the revision of the registration books, pollbooks and in the conduct of a runoff election following either a general or special election.

(5) The commissioners of election shall be entitled to receive only one (1) per diem payment for those days when the commissioners of election discharge more than one (1) duty or responsibility on the same day.

(6) The county registrar shall prepare the pollbooks and the county commissioners of election shall prepare the registration books of each municipality located within the county pursuant to an agreement between the county and each municipality in the county. The county commissioners of election and the county registrar shall be paid by each municipality for the actual cost of preparing registration books and pollbooks for the municipality and shall pay each county commissioner of election a per diem in the amount provided for in subsection (2) of this section for each day or period of not less than five (5) hours accumulated over two (2) or more days the commissioners are actually employed in preparing the registration books for the municipality, not to exceed five (5) days. The county commissioners of election and county registrar shall provide copies of the registration books and pollbooks to the municipal clerk of each municipality in the county. The municipality shall pay the county registrar for preparing and printing the pollbooks. A municipality may secure "read only" access to the Statewide Centralized Voter System and print its own pollbooks using this information; however, county commissioners of election shall remain responsible for preparing registration books for municipalities and shall be paid for this duty in accordance with this subsection.

(7) Every commissioner of election shall sign personally a certification setting forth the number of hours actually worked in the performance of the commissioner's official duties and for which the commissioner seeks compensation. The certification must be on a form as prescribed in this subsection. The commissioner's signature is, as a matter of law, made under the commissioner's oath of office and under penalties of perjury.

The certification form shall be as follows:

Commissioner's Signature

When properly completed and signed, the certification must be filed with the clerk of the county board of supervisors before any payment may be made. The certification will be a public record available for inspection and reproduction immediately upon the oral or written request of any person.

Any person may contest the accuracy of the certification in any respect by notifying the chairman of the commission, any member of the board of supervisors or the clerk of the board of supervisors of such contest at any time before or after payment is made. If the contest is made before payment is made, no payment shall be made as to the contested certificate until the contest is finally disposed of. The person filing the contest shall be entitled to a full hearing, and the clerk of the board of supervisors shall issue subpoenas upon request of the contestor compelling the attendance of witnesses and production of documents and things. The contestor shall have the right to appeal de novo to the circuit court of the involved county, which appeal must be perfected within thirty (30) days from a final decision of the commission, the clerk of the board of supervisors or the board of supervisors, as the case may be.

Any contestor who successfully contests any certification will be awarded all expenses incident to his contest, together with reasonable attorney's fees, which will be awarded upon petition to the chancery court of the involved county upon final disposition of the contest before the election commission, board of supervisors, clerk of the board of supervisors, or, in case of an appeal, final disposition by the court. The commissioner against whom the contest is decided shall be liable for the payment of the expenses and attorney's fees, and the county shall be jointly and severally liable for same.

(8) Any commissioner of election who has not received a certificate issued by the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 23-15-211 indicating that the commissioner of election has received the required elections seminar instruction and that the commissioner of election is fully qualified to conduct an election, shall not receive any compensation authorized by this section, Section 23-15-491 or Section 23-15-239.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

6. Under former Section 23-5-79.

1.-5. [Reserved for future use.]

6. Under former Section 23-5-79.

The commissioners of election of each county have the duty under this section [Code 1942, § 3239] to erase the names of all persons erroneously registered. United States v. Ramsey, 331 F.2d 824 (5th Cir. 1964).

This section [Code 1942, § 3239] is directory and not mandatory and in the absence of prejudice or fraud, a meeting three days before a bond issue election will be sufficiently effective. Tedder v. Board of Supvrs., 214 Miss. 717, 59 So. 2d 329 (1952).

Where the election commissioners certified to the Board of Supervisors the essential matters necessary for the issuance of bonds of a school district, and had determined all the jurisdictional facts essential to the validity of the election, and the Board of Supervisors had found all the jurisdictional facts essential to the issuance of the bonds and had directed their issuance and validation, dependency of the mandamus suit in circuit court based on the claim that the election commissioners had unlawfully changed the registration books after they had met and revised the election rolls, was no bar to a validation proceeding in chancery court, where no appeal was taken from the order of the Board of Supervisors to the circuit court, a mandamus suit being no substitute for the appeal provided by law. In re Bonds of McNeill Special Consol. Sch. Dist., 185 Miss. 864, 188 So. 318 (1939).

Where election commissioners met for purpose of revising registration and poll books, notation “transferred to [another election district]” made on poll book opposite names of voters held ineffective as an adjudication that they were disqualified as electors. Carver v. State ex rel. Ruhr, 177 Miss. 54, 170 So. 643 (1936). But see Wade v. Williams, 517 So. 2d 573 (Miss. 1987).

Mandamus did not lie to require county election commissioners to restore name erased from registration books on ground petitioner had become disqualified as elector. Calvert v. Crosby, 163 Miss. 177, 139 So. 608 (1932).

Remedy of elector whose name is erased from registration books is to apply for reregistration and, on denial thereof, appeal to board of election commissioners, and, if necessary, to circuit court. Calvert

v. Crosby, 163 Miss. 177, 139 So. 608 (1932).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Individual commissioners may perform preliminary work of identifying those individuals who have died, moved away or otherwise have become disqualified as voters without quorum of commissioners present; however, official act of removing names of those individuals who have, as matter of fact, become disqualified, must be taken by commission as whole or quorum thereof. Mitchell, Feb. 13, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0089.

Statute which provides per diem for commissioners contemplates that commission as whole be in session; however, if commission determines that in order to fulfill its' statutory responsibilities it is necessary for individual commissioners to work when quorum is not present and county board of supervisors authorizes compensation for such work, individual commissioners would be entitled to compensation for such work. Mitchell, Feb. 13, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0089.

Municipal election commissioners are required to meet on schedule set forth in statute as there are no specific statutory provisions setting forth dates that municipal election commissioners must meet. Mercer, July 17, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0572.

Commissioners are to be paid per diem for any day in which they are engaged in statutory duties (revising registration books and pollbooks or conducting election), regardless of amount of time they actually work. Richardson, February 1, 1991, A.G. Op. #91-0048.

Once county election commission has made factual determination that voter has "removed" himself from his county of registration, commission has statutory duty and obligation to remove that voter's name from registration books and pollbooks, regardless of whether voter has signed cancellation form or registered in another county or state. Hutto, July 10, 1991, A.G. Op. #91-0455.

There is no apparent authority for county board of supervisors to compensate individual members of party executive committee for the work they perform for their party, including holding primary elections in place of county election commissioners. Yoste, July 22, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0549.

Miss. Code Section 23-15-153 provides for meeting of commissioners, revision of registration rolls and books, and compensation of commissioners at per diem allowance. Edens, May 12, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0263.

Commissioner who works five or more hours in one day is paid $70.00 for that day with no carry over of any hours worked in excess of five hours, but commissioner may carry over hours if he works less than five hours on any particular day so that hours carried over would be added to hours of less than five worked on other days until a total of five hours is accumulated. Watts, July 14, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0496.

There is no requirement that election commission or executive committees actually be in session and present with Registrar in order for Registrar to perform ministerial tasks and be entitled to appropriate compensation. Dixon, August 16, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0575.

Section 23-15-153 applies to Municipal Voting Rolls in that same procedures may be employed to purge Municipal Voting Rolls. Zebert Sept. 15, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0593.

There is no United States Department of Justice requirement that must be made regarding purging of municipal voter rolls; proper guidelines to follow are found in Section 23-15-153. Zebert Sept. 15, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0593.

Municipalities can purge the voter rolls based on returned mass mailings unless federal election law applies. Exum-Petty, March 20, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0149.

Any and all requests for access to or copies of county voter registration records must be made to the county registrar, and it is the duty and responsibility of the county registrar to insure that voters' social security numbers, telephone numbers, and dates of birth and age information are excluded prior to granting access or providing copies of such records. Johnson, March 10, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0112.

The purging duties of county election commissioners are subject to an annual limitation regardless of the number of regularly scheduled primary or general elections; they would be entitled to additional days for purging only for special elections except those conducted on the regular special election day in November; therefore, for purposes of compensation of county election commissioners for their purging duties, primary and general elections are not separate events in the sense that would entitle commissioners to compensation in excess of the stated annual limitation on days. McLeod, Oct. 13, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0594.

Subsection (4) does not encompass primary elections because county election commissioners have no duties in the conduct of primaries. McLeod, Oct. 13, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0594.

The revision of the poll books for a primary election would entitle a county election commissioner to be compensated pursuant to subsection (2) subject to the annual limitation specified therein. McLeod, Oct. 13, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0594.

A per diem may be earned in one of two ways: first, a period of not less than five hours during a particular day would entitle a commissioner to a per diem; second, a period of less than five hours worked during a particular day may be carried forward and added to other periods of less than five hours. Once a total of five hours is accumulated over a period of two or more days, the commissioner would also be entitled to a per diem. McLeod, Oct. 13, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0594.

Any per diem earned for work in connection with revising primary election poll books will count against the annual limitation set forth in subsection (2); and, no per diem pursuant to subsection (4) can be earned with regard to a primary election because county election commissioners have no duties in the conduct of primaries. McLeod, Oct. 13, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0594.

A registrar must be actually employed in assisting election commissioners or party executive committees, either personally or through a deputy, for a minimum of five hours during a day or for a minimum of five hours accumulated over two or more days in order to claim a per diem; if a registrar, either personally or through a deputy, is actually employed in assisting both the democratic and republican executive committees for the requisite period during the same day, he or she would be entitled to claim two per diems. Butler, Nov. 3, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0667.

The number of per diem days county election commissioners may lawfully claim is that prescribed by House Bill 685 based on the population figures of the 2000 federal decennial census, provided that all hours worked are actually required, performed, and documented as required by law; there is no requirement to pro-rate the number of days for calendar year 2001 between the "old law" and the "new law." Scott, Sept. 21, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0598.

The statute as it read on April 17, 2001 controlled as to the number of per diem days county election commissioners could lawfully claim, and House Bill 685 did not grant any additional days for the April 17 flag referendum or any other election conducted prior to June 13, 2001. Scott, Sept. 21, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0598.

County election commissioners were entitled to claim per diem days for revising the registration books and pollbooks during calendar year 2001 up to the maximum number authorized by House Bill 685 even though the new law only became effective on June 13, 2001, provided that such purging was necessary and the work was performed and documented as required by law. Scott, Sept. 21, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0598.

Performing one or more of various duties, such as training poll workers, appointing poll workers, distributing ballot boxes, having ballots printed, distributing ballots, and/or receiving and canvassing election returns, in connection with primary elections does not constitute performing official duties of a county election commission for which per diem is authorized pursuant to the statute. Robertson, Oct. 12, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0638.

The Election Commissioners Association of Mississippi can lawfully sponsor one or more training events for its members, and election commissioners attending a training event sponsored by the association are entitled to receive a per diem provided a training certificate from the association is received and provided the six day limit is not exceeded. Phillips, Feb. 1, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0026.

Individual election commissioners may be employed on a part-time basis by the board of supervisors to perform redistricting tasks provided the board determines, consistent with the facts that (1) the work involved is not required to be performed by the registrar or deputy registrar; and (2) the work is over and above the regular statutory duties of the election commissioners. Martin, Jr., May 31, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0326.

There is no authority for a county board of supervisors to election commission members for redistricting work over and above their regular "purging" duties. Young, Mar. 7, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0096.

Even in the absence of a book listing persons who have been convicted of disqualifying crimes, the election commission is still responsible under subsection (1) of this section for removing disenfranchised felons from the voter rolls from other sources, such as the docket book in the Attorney General's office. Also, under 23-15-19, the circuit clerk as county registrar is required to erase from the registration records the name of any person convicted of any disenfranchising crime. Allen, Oct. 24, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0555.

With the exception of removing names of persons convicted of disqualifying crimes from the registration records by the circuit clerk, the election commission has sole authority for maintaining and purging the voter roll. Allen, Oct. 24, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0555.

There is nothing that allows a county board of supervisors to authorize per diem for election commissioners for days in excess of that provided for by this section. The mandate of the court for a hand recount of ballots must be met even if it means working beyond normal hours each of the remaining days. Porter, Dec. 10, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0594.

STATEWIDE CENTRALIZED VOTER SYSTEM.

SEC.

- 23-15-163. Purpose of subarticle.
- 23-15-165. Implementation of centralized database of registered voters; functions; format; advisory committee.
- 23-15-167. Expenditures for purchase of computer hardware or software.

§ 23-15-163. Purpose of subarticle.

The purposes of this subarticle are:

- (a) To establish a centralized statewide qualified voter file that consists of all qualified electors who are registered to vote;
- (b) To enhance the uniformity of the administration of elections by creating and maintaining a centralized statewide file of qualified voters;
- (c) To increase the efficiency and decrease the cost of maintaining voter registration records and implementing the National Voter Registration Act of 1993;
- (d) To increase the integrity of the voting process by compiling a single centralized qualified voter file from county voter roll data that will permit the name of each citizen of this state to appear only once;
- (e) To apply technology and information gathered by principal executive departments of state government, state agencies and local voter registrars in a manner that ensures that accurate and current records of qualified voters are maintained and to secure cooperation among all state and county entities to develop systems and processes that are interfaced with the Centralized Statewide Voter System; and
- (f) To enable the state to receive federal funds which may be available to carry out provisions of this subarticle.

SOURCES: Laws, 2002, ch. 588, § 1, eff July 29, 2002 (the date the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to the addition of this section.)

Editor's Note — The United States Attorney General, by letter dated July 29, 2002, interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 to the addition of this subarticle by Laws of 2002, ch. 588, §§ 1 through 3.

§ 23-15-165. Implementation of centralized database of registered voters; functions; format; advisory committee.

(1) From and after July 1, 2002, the Office of the Secretary of State, in cooperation with the local registrars and election commissioners, shall begin to procure, implement and maintain an electronic information processing system and programs capable of maintaining a centralized database of all registered voters in the state. The system shall encompass software and hardware, at both the state and county level, software development training, conversion and support and maintenance for the system. This system shall be known as the "Statewide Elections Management System" and shall constitute the official record of registered voters in every county of the state.

(2) The Office of the Secretary of State shall develop and implement the Statewide Elections Management System so that the registrar and election commissioners of each county shall:

(a) Verify that an applicant that is registering to vote in such county is not registered to vote in another county;

(b) Be notified automatically that a registered voter in its county has registered to vote in another county;

(c) Receive regular reports of death, changes of address and convictions for disenfranchising crimes that apply to voters registered in the county; and

(d) Retain all present functionality related to, but not limited to, the use of voter roll data and to implement such other functionality as the law requires to enhance the maintenance of accurate county voter records and related jury selection and redistricting programs.

(3) As a part of the procurement and implementation of the system, the Office of the Secretary of State shall, with the assistance of the advisory committee, procure services necessary to convert current voter registration records in the counties into a standard, industry accepted file format that can be used on the Statewide Elections Management System. Thereafter, all official voter information shall be maintained on the Statewide Elections Management System. The standard industry accepted format of data shall be reviewed and approved by a majority of the advisory committee created in subsection (5) of this section after consultation with the Circuit Clerks Association and the format may not be changed without majority approval of the advisory committee and without consulting the Circuit Clerks Association.

(4) The Secretary of State may, with the assistance of the advisory committee, adopt rules and regulations necessary to administer the Statewide Elections Management System. Such rules and regulations shall at least:

(a) Provide for the establishment and maintenance of a centralized database for all voter registration information in the state;

(b) Provide procedures for integrating data into the centralized database;

(c) Provide security to insure that only the registrar, or his designee or other appropriate official, as the law may require, can add information to, delete information from and modify information in the system;

(d) Provide the registrar or his designee or other appropriate official, as the law may require, access to the system at all times, including the ability to download copies of the industry standard file, for all purposes related to their official duties, including, but not limited to, exclusive access for the purpose of printing of all local pollbooks;

(e) Provide security and protection of all information in the system and monitor the system to ensure that unauthorized access is not allowed;

(f) Provide a procedure that will allow the registrar, or his designee or other appropriate official, as the law may require, to identify the precinct and subprecinct to which a voter should be assigned; and

(g) Provide a procedure for phasing in or converting existing manual and computerized voter registration systems in counties to the Statewide Elections Management System.

(5) The Secretary of State shall establish an advisory committee to assist in developing system specifications, procurement, implementation and maintenance of the Statewide Elections Management System. The committee shall include two (2) representatives from the Circuit Clerks Association, appointed by the association; two (2) representatives from the Election Commissioners Association of Mississippi, appointed by the association; one (1) member of the Mississippi Association of Supervisors, or its staff, appointed by the association; the Director of the Stennis Institute of Government at Mississippi State University, or his designee; the Executive Director of the Department of Information Technology Services, or his designee; two (2) persons knowledgeable about elections and information technology appointed by the Secretary of State; and the Secretary of State, who shall serve as the chairman of the advisory committee.

(6)(a) Social security numbers, telephone numbers and date of birth and age information in statewide, district, county and municipal voter registration files shall be exempt from and shall not be subject to inspection, examination, copying or reproduction under the Mississippi Public Records Act of 1983.

(b) Copies of statewide, district, county or municipal voter registration files, excluding social security numbers, telephone numbers and date of birth and age information, shall be provided to any person in accordance with the Mississippi Public Records Act of 1983 at a cost not to exceed the actual cost of production.

§ 23-15-169.3. Secretary of State authorized to accept and expend federal funds under Help America Vote Act of 2002; eligibility for federal funds of counties purchasing voting systems that comply with Act.

(1) The Secretary of State shall have the authority to accept federal funds authorized under the Help America Vote Act of 2002 and to meet all the requirements of the Help America Vote Act of 2002 in order to expend the funds.

(2) Counties that purchase or have purchased since January 1, 2001, voting systems that comply with the requirements of the Help America Vote Act of 2002 shall be eligible for federal funds accepted by the Secretary of State for Help America Vote Act of 2002 compliance efforts. The only restriction that the Secretary of State may place on the expenditure of federal funds for the purchase of voting systems is that the systems comply with the criteria and rules established in the Help America Vote Act of 2002 for voting systems.

(3) Counties may purchase voting systems under the Help America Vote Act of 2002 (HAVA) if:

(a) The system selected is HAVA compliant as determined by the rules promulgated to effectuate the Help America Vote Act of 2002 in this state; and

(b) The County Board of Supervisors spreads upon its minutes a certification of the following:

(i) The county determined it is in its best interest to opt out of any statewide bulk purchase to be effectuated by the Secretary of State pursuant to his duties under HAVA;

(ii) The voting system selected by the county meets all of the foregoing requirements under HAVA;

(iii) The county understands and accepts any and all liability for said system; and

(iv) The county is solely responsible for the purchase of said system.

Upon meeting the foregoing requirements, a county shall be reimbursed for its costs for said system from the HAVA funds for this purpose; however, the county shall be limited in its reimbursement to an amount to be determined by the Secretary of State based upon an objective formula implemented for the statewide, bulk purchase of said voting systems. Any costs over and above the set formula described herein shall be the sole responsibility of the county.

(c) In addition to other information required by paragraph (b) of this subsection, any county that purchases voting systems after June 6, 2005 shall spread upon its minutes certification of the following:

(i) All voting systems within the county are the same, except those machines that are handicap accessible as required by HAVA; and

(ii) The voting systems have a device or mechanism that allows any votes cast to be verified by paper audit trail.

§ 23-15-169.6. Task force to study voting systems complying with Help America Vote Act of 2002; report of findings and recommendations; composition of task force; appointments; meetings; quorum requirements; compensation; staff.

(1) There is created a task force to study voting systems that comply with the Help America Vote Act of 2002 and their suitability for use in elections in Mississippi. The task force shall make a report of its findings and recommendations to the Legislature before or by September 15, 2005, including any recommended legislation.

(2) The task force shall be composed of the following members:

- (a) The Secretary of State, or his designee;
- (b) The Chairman of the Elections Committee of the Senate;
- (c) The Chairman of the Apportionment and Elections Committee of the House of Representatives;

(d) A circuit clerk appointed by the President of the Mississippi Association of Circuit Clerks;

(e) A member of the general public who is not an elected official or state employee, appointed by the Governor;

(f) A member of the general public who is not an elected official or state employee, appointed by the Lieutenant Governor; and

(g) A member of the general public who is not an elected official or state employee, appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

(3) Appointments shall be made within thirty (30) days after July 12, 2004, and, within fifteen (15) days thereafter on a day to be designated jointly by the Speaker of the House and the Lieutenant Governor, the task force shall meet and organize by selecting from its membership a chairman and a vice chairman. The vice chairman shall also serve as secretary and shall be responsible for keeping all records of the task force. A majority of the members of the task force shall constitute a quorum. In the selection of its officers and the adoption of rules, resolutions and reports, an affirmative vote of a majority of the task force shall be required. All members shall be notified in writing of all meetings, such notices to be mailed at least fifteen (15) days before the date on which a meeting is to be held.

(4) The task force shall study voting systems that comply with the Help America Vote Act of 2002 and make recommendations regarding the types of voting systems that are suitable for use in Mississippi.

(5) Members of the task force who are not legislators, state officials or state employees shall be compensated at the per diem rate authorized by Section 25-3-69 and shall be reimbursed in accordance with Section 25-3-41 for mileage and actual expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. Legislative members of the task force shall be paid from the contingent expense funds of their respective houses in the same manner as provided for committee meetings when the Legislature is not in session. However, no per diem or expense for attending meetings of the task force will be paid to legislative members of the task force while the Legislature is in session. No task force member may incur per diem, travel or other expenses unless previously authorized by vote, at a meeting of the task force, which action shall be recorded in the official minutes of the meeting. Nonlegislative members shall be paid from any funds made available to the task force for that purpose.

(6) The task force shall use clerical and legal staff already employed by the Legislature and any other staff assistance made available to it. To effectuate the purposes of this section, any department, division, board, bureau, commission or agency of the state or of any political subdivision thereof shall, at the request of the chairman of the task force, provide to the task force such facilities, assistance and data as will enable the task force to properly carry out its task.

23-15-171.	Primary elections.
23-15-173.	General elections.

§ 23-15-171. Primary elections.

(1) Municipal primary elections shall be held on the first Tuesday in May preceding the general municipal election and, in the event a second primary shall be necessary, such second primary shall be held on the third Tuesday in

May preceding such general municipal election. At such primary election the municipal executive committee shall perform the same duties as are specified by law and performed by members of the county executive committee with regard to state and county primary elections. Each municipal executive committee shall have as many members as there are elective officers of the municipality, and such members of the municipal executive committee of each political party shall be elected in the primary elections held for the nomination of candidates for municipal offices. The provisions of this section shall govern all municipal primary elections as far as applicable, but the officers to prepare the ballots and the managers and other officials of the primary election shall be appointed by the municipal executive committee of the party holding such primary, and the returns of such election shall be made to such municipal executive committee. Vacancies in the executive committee shall be filled by it.

(2) Provided, however, that in municipalities operating under a special or private charter which fixes a time for holding elections, other than the time fixed by Chapter 491, Laws of 1950, the first primary election shall be held exactly four (4) weeks before the time for holding the general election, as fixed by the charter, and the second primary election, where necessary, shall be held two (2) weeks after the first primary election, unless the charter of any such municipality provides otherwise, in which event the provisions of the special or private charter shall prevail as to the time of holding such primary elections.

(3) All primary elections in municipalities shall be held and conducted in the same manner as is provided by law for state and county primary elections.

1.-5. [Reserved for future use.]

6. Under former Section 23-1-63.

A candidate for municipal office, who withdrew from the party nomination after a second primary resulted in a tie between him and another and a third primary was called in violation of law, and who thereafter presented a petition signed by eighty-eight qualified electors of the town to have his name printed on the official ballot, was entitled to have his name printed on the official ballot as a candidate for the office in the general election, his participation in the first and second primaries being no bar to that course. Omar v. West, 186 Miss. 136, 188 So. 917 (1939).

Where the result of a second primary called by a political party ended in a tie for two candidates for a municipal office the election of one of such candidates after nomination by a third primary was void. Omar v. West, 186 Miss. 136, 188 So. 917 (1939).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Election of individuals to Democratic Municipal Executive Committee in 1986 was not matter of general knowledge among citizenry of Yazoo City, and temporary committee was established; individuals duly elected in 1986 to serve as municipal democratic executive committee had legal authority and responsibility to conduct 1990 municipal democratic primary election. Granberry, Jan. 30, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0100.

Miss. Code Section 23-15-171 which requires that members of municipal party executive committees be elected implies that anyone who wishes to be member of executive committee must declare candidacy for membership; therefore, one who wishes to be candidate for membership on municipal party executive committee must express intention by filing with municipal clerk written statement of intent just as candidates for regular municipal offices are required to do by Miss. Code Section 23-15-309. Jackson, May 12, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0292.

Where only one person was elected to serve on a municipal party executive committee, it is suggested that the one duly elected member appoint another individual and that they together appoint an additional member and continue in that manner until a full complement of members comprise the committee. Magee, Dec. 1, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0587.

§ 23-15-173. General elections.

(1) A general municipal election shall be held in each city, town or village on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of June, 1985, and every four (4) years thereafter, for the election of all municipal officers elected by the people.

(2) All municipal general elections shall be held and conducted in the same manner as is provided by law for state and county general elections.

§ 23-15-191. Primary elections.

The first primary shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of August preceding any regular or general election; and the second primary shall be held three (3) weeks thereafter. Any candidate who receives the highest popular vote cast for the office which he seeks in the first primary shall thereby become the nominee of the party for such office; provided also it be a majority of all the votes cast for that office. If no candidate receive such majority of popular votes in the first primary, then the two (2) candidates who receive the highest popular vote for such office shall have their names submitted as such candidates to a second primary, and the candidate who leads in such second primary shall be nominated to the office. When there is a tie in the first primary of those receiving next highest vote, these two (2) and the one (1) receiving the highest vote, none having received a majority, shall go into the second primary, and whoever leads in such second primary shall be entitled to the nomination.

§ 23-15-211. Board of election commissioners and registrar; elections training seminar; certification of seminar participants; compensation of commissioners attending seminar; authorization by Secretary of State of additional training days; comprehensive poll worker training program.

(1) There shall be a State Board of Election Commissioners to consist of the Governor, the Secretary of State and the Attorney General, any two (2) of whom may perform the duties required of the board; a board of election commissioners in each county to consist of five (5) persons who are electors in the county in which they are to act; and a registrar in each county who shall be the clerk of the circuit court, unless he shall be shown to be an improper person to register the names of the electors therein.

(2) The board of supervisors of each county shall pay members of the county election commission for attending training events a per diem in the amount provided in Section 23-15-153; however, except as otherwise provided in this section, the per diem shall not be paid to an election commissioner for more than twelve (12) days of training per year and shall only be paid to election commissioners who actually attend and complete a training event and obtain a training certificate.

(3) Included in this twelve (12) days shall be an elections seminar, conducted and sponsored by the Secretary of State. Election commissioners and chairpersons of each political party executive committee, or their designee, shall be required to attend.

(4) Each participant shall receive a certificate from the Secretary of State indicating that the named participant has received the elections training seminar instruction and that each participant is fully qualified to conduct an election. Commissioners of election shall annually file the certificate with the chancery clerk. If any commissioner of election shall fail to file the certificate by April 30 of each year, his office shall be vacated, absent exigent circumstances as determined by the board of supervisors and consistent with the facts. The vacancy shall be declared by the board of supervisors and the vacancy shall be filled in the manner described by law. Prior to declaring the office vacant, the board of supervisors shall give the election commissioner notice and the opportunity for a hearing.

(5) The Secretary of State, upon approval of the board of supervisors, may authorize not more than eight (8) additional training days per year for commissioners of election in one or more counties. The board of supervisors of each county shall pay members of the county election commission for attending training on these days a per diem in the amount provided in Section 23-15-153.

(6) The Secretary of State shall develop a single, comprehensive poll worker training program to assist local election officials in providing uniform, secure elections throughout the state. The program shall include, at a minimum, training on all state and federal election laws and procedures.

Failure to conform to statutory requirements in the appointment of election commissioners merely makes them de facto officers whose acts do not invalidate an election. Barnes v. Ladner, 241 Miss. 606, 131 So. 2d 458 (1961).

State election commissioners have power, authority, and responsibility to help administer voter registration laws by formulating rules for the various tests applied to applicants for registration, and for the reason that these rules and tests are vitally important elements of Mississippi laws challenged in an action brought by the United States to end discrimination in voter registration, the commissioners should not have been stricken as parties defendants to the action on the ground that they lacked sufficient interest in administering or enforcing the challenged laws. Barnes v. McLeod, 165 Miss. 437, 140 So. 740 (1932).

Suit to enjoin county election commissioners from placing Democratic nominee for county office on official ballots for general election because of fraud in primary election held not within jurisdiction of chancery court. Barnes v. McLeod, 165 Miss. 437, 140 So. 740 (1932).

§ 23-15-213. Election of county commissioners.

At the general election in 1984 and every four (4) years thereafter there shall be elected five (5) commissioners of election for each county whose terms of office shall commence on the first Monday of January following their election and who shall serve for a term of four (4) years. Each of the commissioners, before acting, shall take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution and file the same in the office of the clerk of the chancery court, there to remain. While engaged in their duties, the commissioners shall be conservators of the peace in the county, with all the duties and powers of such.

The qualified electors of each supervisors district shall elect, at the general election in 1984 and every four (4) years thereafter, in their district one (1) commissioner of election. No more than one (1) commissioner shall be a resident of and reside in each supervisors district of the county; it being the purpose of this section that the county board of election commissioners shall consist of one (1) person from each supervisors district of the county and that each such commissioner be elected from the supervisors district in which he resides.

Candidates for county election commissioner shall qualify by filing with the clerk of the board of supervisors of their respective counties a petition personally signed by not less than fifty (50) qualified electors of the supervisors district in which they reside, requesting that they be a candidate, by 5:00 p.m. not less than sixty (60) days before the election and unless such petition is filed within said time, their names shall not be placed upon the ballot. All candidates shall declare in writing their party affiliation, if any, to the board of supervisors, and such party affiliation shall be shown on the official ballot.

The petition shall have attached thereto a certificate of the registrar showing the number of qualified electors on each petition, which shall be furnished by the registrar on request. The board shall determine the sufficiency of the petition, and if the same shall contain the required number of signatures and be filed within the time required, the president of the board shall verify that such candidate is a resident of the supervisors district in which he seeks election and that such candidate is otherwise qualified as provided by law, and shall certify the same to the chairman or secretary of the county election commission and the names of the candidates shall be placed upon the ballot for the ensuing election. No county election commissioner shall serve or be considered as elected unless and until he has received a majority of the votes cast for the position or post for which he is a candidate. If such majority vote is not received in the first election, then the two (2) candidates receiving the most votes for each position or post shall be placed upon the ballot for a second election to be held two (2) weeks later in accordance with appropriate procedures followed in other elections involving runoff candidates.

Upon taking office, the county board of election commissioners shall organize by electing a chairman and a secretary.

It shall be the duty of the chairman to have the official ballot printed and distributed at each general or special election.

§ 23-15-217. County election commissioner authorized to be candidate for other office; resignation from office; duties and powers of board of supervisors where election of county election commissioner is contested.

(1) A commissioner of election of any county may be a candidate for any other office at any election held or to be held during the four-year term for which he has been elected to the office of commissioner of election or with reference to which he has acted as such; provided that he has resigned from the office of election commissioner before January 1 of the year in which he desires to seek the office. JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
- 2-5. [Reserved for future use.]
6. Under former § 23-5-95.

1. In general.

A county election commissioner was disqualified to run for the municipal office of mayor pursuant to § 23-15-217 because of her membership on the election commission. Stringer v. Lucas, 608 So. 2d 1351 (Miss. 1992).

Where a candidate for mayor was disqualified under § 23-15-217, a special election was warranted where over 40 percent of the votes cast were illegal and enough illegal votes were cast to change the ultimate results of the election. Stringer v. Lucas, 608 So. 2d 1351 (Miss. 1992).

Board of Supervisors' involvement in the redistricting process of a county was permissible where the Board of Supervisors assisted the election commissioners with information in order to comply with a federal court redistricting order in time to hold primaries, the evidence demonstrated that it was the Election Commission which made the decisions as to the redistricting pursuant to the statutory requirements of § 23-15-127, and the Board of Supervisors' participation was limited to supplying information. Pearson v. Parsons, 541 So. 2d 447 (Miss. 1989).

Section 23-15-263, which provides in part that "the county executive committee at primary elections shall discharge the functions imposed on the county election commissioners ...and shall be subject to all the penalties to which all county election commissioners are subject," incorporates the prohibitions of § 23-15-217, which provides in part that "a commissioner of election of any county shall not be a candidate for any office at any election for which he may have been elected or with reference with which he as acted as such," and both sections were enacted to maintain and preserve the integrity of elections and ballot boxes. Thus, a county executive committee member was prohibited from being a candidate in an election which was conducted while he was a member. Breland v. Mallett, 527 So. 2d 629 (Miss. 1988).

Access to candidacy is not fundamental right and § 23-15-217 places no special burdens on minority parties or independent candidates; state has legitimate interest in preventing election commissioner from seeking another office while he has control of electors that shall vote for all candidates, where there would be potential for mischief were elections commissioner allowed effective control over registration and poll books, for 2 years, for example, then allowed to resign and seek another elective office. Meeks v. Tallahatchie County, 513 So. 2d 563 (Miss. 1987).

Section 23-15-217 is not unconstitutional void for vagueness because ordinary person of common intelligence upon reading it could understand what was allowed and what was not; statute provides two disqualifications upon county election commissioner offering himself as candidate for office: the first, no person holding office of elections commissioner may be candidate for election to any other office at any election held or to be held during 4 year term for which that person has been elected to serve as elections commissioner; second, commissioner may not be candidate for any other office in any election with respect to which he has taken any action in his official capacity; exception to both disqualifications is that incumbent election commissioner may be candidate for re-election. Meeks v. Tallahatchie County, 513 So. 2d 563 (Miss. 1987).

Election commissioner was disqualified by statute as candidate for Justice Court Judge in 1987 election, or for any other office, except election commissioner, in any other election to be held during 4 year term which began January, 1985, notwithstanding that as election commissioner he may have in fact done nothing toward preparation for and conduct of 1987 elections; previous opinions of Attorney General to effect that elections commissioner could be candidate for other offices during term for which he was either appointed or elected, so long as he resigned as elections commissioner prior to taking any action with reference to election in which he sought to be candidate, was erroneous;

however, construction of statute prohibiting such action would have no effect upon any election held prior to January 1, 1988, with exception of candidate in instant case. Meeks v. Tallahatchie County, 513 So. 2d 563 (Miss. 1987).

2.-5. [Reserved for future use.]

6. Under former § 23-5-95.

Under statute prohibiting commissioner of election from becoming candidate for office, election of member of board of commissioners of levee district held not invalid because member had previously been appointed election commissioner where he took no oath of office or active part in proceeding of election commission and resigned as election commissioner on being informed that petition for his candidacy could not be allowed while he remained member of election commission, and where there was no other candidate whose rights might have been affected by member's action. State ex rel. Dist. Att'y v. Jones, 177 Miss. 598, 171 So. 678 (1937).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

A municipal election commissioner may seek an elective municipal office provided he resigns as commissioner before January 1 of the year he desires to seek said elective office. Keyes, Dec. 13, 1991, A.G. Op. #91-0907.

Municipal election commissioner may seek elective municipal office, provided he resigns as commissioner before January 1 of the year he desires to seek said office. Barnett, Feb. 19, 1992, A.G. Op. #91-0074.

Election commissioner is not prohibited from performing his or her statutory duties when commissioner's spouse is candidate, and election commissioner whose spouse is candidate would not be prevented from participating with other commissioners in carrying out commission's statutory responsibilities in connection with elections. Kilpatrick, Oct. 30, 1992, A.G. Op. #91-0853.

Election commissioner must recuse him- or herself from participation in any such decisions that must be made with respect to the election of a commissioner in commissioner's supervisor district when he or she is candidate for re-election; if remaining commissioners are evenly divided on whether or not particular affidavit ballot should be counted, board of supervisors would have to make ruling. Evans, Nov. 25, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0899.

The resignation of an election commissioner must be given to the board of supervisors prior to January 1, 1999, in order for the commissioner to be eligible to seek an elected office other than election commissioner during 1999. Smart, December 18, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0750.

§ 23-15-219. Employment by board of election commissioners of investigators, legal counsel and others.

(1) The board of election commissioners is hereby authorized and empowered to employ and set or determine the duties of and determine the compensation of such investigators, legal counsel, secretaries, technical advisors and any other employees or persons who or which said board or a majority thereof may deem necessary to enable them to discharge the duties and obligations presently or hereafter vested in them. However, before employing such persons or setting or determining said compensation, the election commissioners must first have the approval of the board of supervisors of the county.

(2) The board of supervisors of the county is authorized and empowered to pay out of the general fund of the county the salaries and necessary traveling and subsistence expenses of said employees of said board of commissioners in such amounts as may be mutually agreed upon by the said board of supervisors and said board of election commissioners, but which shall be computed on the same basis allowed to state employees when traveling on state business. All expense accounts of said employees of said board of election commissioners shall be approved by said board of election commissioners and said board of supervisors or, in the discretion of each of said boards, by one (1) of the members of each of said boards duly authorized by the respective boards to approve or disapprove said subsistence, traveling and mileage expense accounts.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit a person who holds the office of commissioner of election from being employed and receiving compensation pursuant to this section. Any compensation which such a person may receive from his employment pursuant to this section shall be in addition to any compensation such person may receive in performing his duties as a commissioner of election.

§ 23-15-221. Appointment and duties of municipal election commissioners.

The governing authorities of municipalities having a population of less than twenty thousand (20,000) inhabitants according to the last federal decennial census shall appoint three (3) election commissioners; the governing authorities of municipalities having a population of twenty thousand (20,000) inhabitants or more and less than one hundred thousand (100,000) inhabitants according to the last federal decennial census shall appoint five (5) election commissioners; and the governing authorities of municipalities having a population of one hundred thousand (100,000) or more according to the last federal decennial census shall appoint seven (7) election commissioners, one (1) of whom, in each municipality, shall be designated to have printed and distributed the "official ballots," and all of whom shall perform all the duties in respect to the municipal election prescribed by law to be performed by the county election commissioners where not otherwise provided. The said election commissioners shall, in case there be but one (1) election precinct in the municipality, act as election managers themselves.

Marking of ballots by writing in name of ineligible candidate held not "distinguishing mark" which avoided entire ballot, where voters made honest effort to vote for such candidate, and not to indicate who voted ballots; hence ballots were improperly rejected as to candidates properly on ballots. *Wylie v. Election contest for office of mayor of city operating under Code chapter was properly brought under this section. Shines v. Hamilton, 87 Miss. 384, 39 So. 1008 (1906).

Where a charter of a municipality provides that the mayor and aldermen shall appoint election commissioners to perform all the duties in respect to municipal elections prescribed by law, to be performed by the county election commissioners where applicable, and after the close of the polls to ascertain the results in the presence of the mayor and at least one alderman who with the commissioners shall certify the returns, the duty of the mayor to certify the returns is ministerial and he may be compelled to do so by mandamus. Bourgeois v. Fairchild, 81 Miss. 708, 33 So. 495 (1903).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

There is no specific prohibition against a county executive committee member from serving as a municipal election commissioner, but it would give the appearance of impropriety for a municipal election commissioner to be identified with a particulars group of nominees. Pechloff, January 9, 1998, A.G. Op. #97-0803.

The statute contains no provision expressly stating that it is applicable to special or private charter municipalities and, therefore, a city charter provision specifying the number of election commissioners controlled over the statute. Artman, Jr., Mar. 30, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0177.

A county or municipal election commission may enter a written agreement with a county or municipal party executive committee to perform various duties in connection with a primary election such as training poll workers, appointing poll workers, distributing ballot boxes, having ballots printed, distributing ballots, and receiving and canvassing election returns; however, there is no authority that would allow a county election commission to conduct a municipal election. Cochran, Aug. 13, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0535.

If the increased revenue in a school district's budget was derived solely from the expansion of its ad valorem tax base, there was no violation of subsection (1) of this section; however, an amount is referenced in the ad valorem tax request worksheet as a "new program" was not derived solely from the expansion of the district's ad valorem tax base and, therefore, this increase in dollars must be advertised and the failure to do so requires exclusion of this amount when setting the millage rate to fund the school board's budget. Perkins, Sept. 11, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0536.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Based on totality of circumstances, proof showed by preponderance of evidence that Mississippi's dual registration requirement and statutory prohibition on removing voter registration books from circuit clerk's office resulted in denial or abridgement of right of black citizens in Mississippi to vote and participate in electoral process. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Allain, 674 F. Supp. 1245 (N.D. Miss. 1987), aff'd sub nom. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Mabus, 932 F.2d 400 (5th Cir. 1991).

Circuit clerks are qualified to and capable of determining, where necessity dictates and persons present themselves for deputization, which volunteers should be deputized. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Allain, 674 F. Supp. 1245 (N.D. Miss. 1987), aff'd sub nom. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Mabus, 932 F.2d 400 (5th Cir. 1991).

Deputizing all municipal clerks would significantly increase available registration sites to those individuals living in small municipalities which are often distant from most populous areas of county, and there is no legitimate or compelling state interest served by failure to deputize all municipal clerks as deputy registrars. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Allain, 674 F. Supp. 1245 (N.D. Miss. 1987), aff'd sub nom. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Mabus, 932 F.2d 400 (5th Cir. 1991).

Plaintiffs who showed that challenged statutes either impinged upon their protected rights to register to vote or burdened organizational efforts to assist prospective voters in registering had standing to sue to challenge Mississippi's dual registration requirement and prohibition on satellite registration as violative of their rights and all persons similarly situated. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Allain, 674 F. Supp. 1245 (N.D. Miss. 1987), aff'd sub nom. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Mabus, 932 F.2d 400 (5th Cir. 1991).

§ 23-15-225. Compensation of registrars.

(1) The registrar shall be entitled to such compensation, payable monthly out of the county treasury, which the board of supervisors of the county shall allow on an annual basis in the following amounts:

(a) For counties with a total population of more than two hundred thousand (200,000), an amount not to exceed Twenty-nine Thousand Nine Hundred Dollars ($29,900.00), but not less than Nine Thousand Two Hundred Dollars ($9,200.00).

(b) For counties with a total population of more than one hundred thousand (100,000) and not more than two hundred thousand (200,000), an amount not to exceed Twenty-five Thousand Three Hundred Dollars ($25,300.00), but not less than Nine Thousand Two Hundred Dollars ($9,200.00).

(c) For counties with a total population of more than fifty thousand (50,000) and not more than one hundred thousand (100,000), an amount not to exceed Twenty-three Thousand Dollars ($23,000.00), but not less than Nine Thousand Two Hundred Dollars ($9,200.00).

(d) For counties with a total population of more than thirty-five thousand (35,000) and not more than fifty thousand (50,000), an amount not to exceed Twenty Thousand Seven Hundred Dollars ($20,700.00), but not less than Nine Thousand Two Hundred Dollars ($9,200.00).

(e) For counties with a total population of more than twenty-five thousand (25,000) and not more than thirty-five thousand (35,000), an amount not to exceed Eighteen Thousand Four Hundred Dollars ($18,400.00), but not less than Nine Thousand Two Hundred Dollars ($9,200.00).

(f) For counties with a total population of more than fifteen thousand (15,000) and not more than twenty-five thousand (25,000), an amount not to exceed Sixteen Thousand One Hundred Dollars ($16,100.00), but not less than Nine Thousand Two Hundred Dollars ($9,200.00).

(g) For counties with a total population of more than ten thousand (10,000) and not more than fifteen thousand (15,000), an amount not to exceed Thirteen Thousand Eight Hundred Dollars ($13,800.00), but not less than Eight Thousand Fifty Dollars ($8,050.00).

(h) For counties with a total population of more than six thousand (6,000) and not more than ten thousand (10,000), an amount not to exceed Eleven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($11,500.00), but not less than Eight Thousand Fifty Dollars ($8,050.00).

(i) For counties with a total population of not more than six thousand (6,000), an amount not to exceed Nine Thousand Two Hundred Dollars ($9,200.00) but not less than Six Thousand Three Hundred Twenty-five Dollars ($6,325.00).

(j) For counties having two (2) judicial districts, the board of supervisors of the county may allow, in addition to the sums prescribed herein, in its discretion, an amount not to exceed Eleven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($11,500.00).

(2) In the event of a reregistration within such county, or a redistricting which necessitates the hiring of additional deputy registrars, the board of supervisors may by contract compensate the county registrar amounts in addition to the sums prescribed herein, in its discretion.

(3) As compensation for their services in assisting the county election commissioners in performance of their duties in the revision of the registration books and the pollbooks of the several voting precincts of the several counties and in assisting the election commissioners, executive committees or boards of supervisors in connection with any election, the registrar shall receive the same daily per diem and limitation on meeting days as provided for the board of election commissioners as set out in Sections 23-15-153 and 23-15-227 to be paid from the general fund of the county.

(4) In any case where an amount has been allowed by the board of supervisors pursuant to this section, such amount shall not be reduced or terminated during the term for which the registrar was elected.

(5) The circuit clerk shall, in addition to any other compensation provided for by law, be entitled to receive as compensation from the board of supervisors the amount of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) per year. This payment shall be for the performance of his duties in regard to the conduct of elections and the performance of his other duties.

(6) The municipal clerk shall, in addition to any other compensation for performance of duties, be eligible to receive as compensation from the municipi-pality's governing authorities a reasonable amount of additional compensation for reimbursement of costs and for additional duties associated with mail-in registration of voters.

(7) The board of supervisors shall not allow any additional compensation authorized under this section for services as county registrar to any circuit clerk who is receiving fees as compensation for his services equal to the limitation on compensation prescribed in Section 9-1-43.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Even though county registrars are not entitled to compensation over and above what has been set by their respective boards of supervisors for maintaining extended office hours for registration and absentee balloting purposes, the compensation of a regular county employee who is also a deputy registrar and who is given the additional responsibility of registering voters during extended hours can be increased at the discretion of the board of supervisors. Griffin, Feb. 12, 1992, A.G. Op. #91-0957.

County registrars may lawfully receive more than one per diem for the same day for their assistance of certain entities in election activities, provided that the registrar, either personally or through a deputy, actually performs required and necessary duties in assisting each entity. Griffin, Feb. 12, 1992, A.G. Op. #91-0957.

Time and work required to transfer the names of registered voters to a newly established automated voter registration system is a single, unique occurrence, and county boards of supervisors are authorized to approve a one time additional payment for the Registrar or some qualified individual designated by the Registrar for performing this task. Griffin, Feb. 12, 1992, A.G. Op. #91-0957.

There is no requirement that election commission or executive committees actually be in session and present with registrar in order for registrar to perform ministerial tasks and be entitled to appropriate compensation. Ruffin, Dec. 23, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0932.

Miss. Code Section 23-15-225 provides that city clerk of every municipality shall be appointed as deputy registrar. Edens, May 12, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0263.

In setting election clerk's compensation, governing authorities should take into consideration fact that clerk is required by statute to perform various duties relating to municipal registrar; Miss. Code Section 23-15-225 (6) specifically provides for additional compensation for performance of duties relating to mail-in voter registration. Edens, May 12, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0263.

It is implicit in this section that circuit clerks may, upon request from the executive committee of the party, assist the executive committee with its duties in the conduct of the election (circuit clerk may receive compensation for services in assisting the election commissioners, executive committees or boards of supervisors in connection with any election); thus, although the circuit clerk may assist the executive committee in the conduct of an election, the duty and responsibility of the election remains with the executive committee and is nondelegable. White, July 30, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0323.

Individual election commissioners may be employed on a part-time basis by the board of supervisors to perform redistricting tasks provided the board determines, consistent with the facts that (1) the work involved is not required to be performed by the registrar or deputy registrar; and (2) the work is over and above the regular statutory duties of the election commissioners. Martin, Jr., May 31, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0326.

The managers and clerks shall be each entitled to Seventy-five Dollars ($75.00) for each election; however, the board of supervisors may, in its discretion, pay the managers and clerks an additional amount not to exceed Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per election. The manager or other person who shall carry to the place of voting, away from the courthouse, the official ballots, ballot boxes, pollbooks and other necessities, shall be allowed Ten Dollars ($10.00) for each voting precinct for so doing. The manager or other person who acts as returning officer shall be allowed Ten Dollars ($10.00) for each voting precinct for that service. The compensation authorized in this section shall be allowed by the board of supervisors, and shall be payable out of the county treasury.

The compensation provided in this section shall constitute payment in full for the services rendered by the persons named for any election, whether there be one (1) election or issue voted upon, or more than one (1) election or issue voted upon at the same time.

Even though heading or title of Miss. Code Section 23-15-229 uses terms “mu-§ 23-15-231. Appointment of election managers; designation of bailiff.

Prior to every election, the commissioners of election shall appoint three (3) persons for each voting precinct to be managers of the election, one (1) of whom shall be designated by the commissioners of election as election bailiff. Such managers shall not all be of the same political party if suitable persons of different political parties can be found in the district. If any person appointed shall fail to attend and serve, the managers present, if any, may designate someone to fill his place; and if the commissioners of election fail to make the appointments or in case of the failure of all those appointed to attend and serve, any three (3) qualified electors present when the polls should be opened may act as managers. Provided, however, any person appointed to be manager or act as manager shall be a qualified elector of the county in which the polling place is located.

Fact that, pursuant to custom because of size of election district, two sets of election managers conducted the election at the voting place, did not render the votes cast thereat invalid, where one set of managers sat at one end of a table and received the ballots of persons whose names began with the letters "A" through "L", and the other set of managers sat at the other end of the table and received the ballots of persons whose names began with "M" through "Z," each set of managers using a separate ballot box and being assisted by separate clerks, and the ballots were counted and certified to by the respective managers who received them. *Simmons v. Irregularity in appointment of election commissioners and invalidity of so-called official ballots does not affect validity of the election. Shines v. Hamilton, 87 Miss. 384, 39 So. 1008 (1906).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

As the only statutory qualification to serve as a pollworker is that one be a qualified elector of the county in which the polling place is located, if an individual is independently appointed to act as a pollworker in more than one primary election being conducted in the same polling place, there is no statutory prohibition against an individual serving in such dual capacity. Martin, May 29, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0353.

Miss. Code Section 23-15-231 provides for appointment of "election managers" by Election Commission; such managers are entitled, under Miss. Code Section 23-15-227, to $50 for each election; election managers are therefore employees for purposes of Workers' Compensation coverage. Trapp, Mar. 12, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0133.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Election commission does not have the authority to open ballots certified by election managers as rejected or challenged, and commission cannot override or review decision of election manager who marked ballot as rejected or challenged; duty of commission is merely to canvass sealed ballots to determine if requirements have been met. Misso v. Oliver, 666 So. 2d 1366 (Miss. 1996).

Only power conferred, and only duty required of election commission, in relation to the canvass of votes, should be to count the votes, based upon returns as made by election managers, and to give certificates to those receiving majority of the votes; election commission should not go beyond or behind the returns, and reject votes, or accept votes previously rejected, or otherwise inquire into validity of conduct of election; election commission has no judicial discretion as to validity of rejected or contested votes. Misso v. Oliver, 666 So. 2d 1366 (Miss. 1996).

§ 23-15-235. Appointment of additional managers and clerks.

In addition to the managers appointed pursuant to Section 23-15-231, for the first five hundred (500) registered voters in each voting precinct, the commissioners of election may, in their discretion, appoint not more than three (3) persons to serve as managers or clerks of the election. The commissioners of election may, in their discretion, appoint three (3) additional persons to serve as clerks for each one thousand (1,000) registered voters or fraction thereof in each voting precinct above the first five hundred (500). Any person appointed as clerk shall be a qualified elector of the county in which the voting precinct is located.

The restrictions provided for in this section regarding the number of additional managers and clerks that may be appointed by commissioners of election shall not apply to elections conducted by paper ballot prior to January

1, 1989. In elections conducted by paper ballot prior to January 1, 1989, the commissioners of election may appoint as many additional managers and clerks as they may consider necessary to conduct the elections.

§ 23-15-239. Mandatory training of managers and clerks.

(1) The executive committee of each county, in the case of a primary election, or the commissioners of election of each county, in the case of all other elections, in conjunction with the circuit clerk, shall sponsor and conduct, not less than five (5) days prior to each election, training sessions to instruct managers as to their duties in the proper administration of the election and the operation of the polling place. No manager shall serve in any election unless he has received such instructions once during the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the date upon which such election is held; however, nothing in this section shall prevent the appointment of an alternate manager to fill a vacancy in case of an emergency. The county executive committee or the commissioners of election, as appropriate, shall train a sufficient number of alternates to serve in the event a manager is unable to serve for any reason.

(2)(a) If it is eligible under Section 23-15-266, the county executive committee may enter into a written agreement with the circuit clerk or the county election commission authorizing the circuit clerk or the county election commission to perform any of the duties required of the county executive committee pursuant to this section. Any agreement entered into pursuant to this subsection shall be signed by the chairman of the county executive committee and the circuit clerk or the chairman of the county election commission, as appropriate. The county executive committee shall notify the State Executive Committee and the Secretary of State of the existence of such agreement.

(b) If it is eligible under Section 23-15-266, the municipal executive committee may enter into a written agreement with the municipal clerk or the municipal election commission authorizing the municipal clerk or the municipal election commission to perform any of the duties required of the municipal executive committee pursuant to this section. Any agreement entered into pursuant to this subsection shall be signed by the chairman of the municipal executive committee and the municipal clerk or the chairman of the municipal election commission, as appropriate. The municipal executive committee shall notify the State Executive Committee and the Secretary of State of the existence of such agreement.

(3) The board of supervisors, in their discretion, may compensate managers who attend such training sessions. The compensation shall be at a rate of not less than the federal hourly minimum wage nor more than Twelve Dollars ($12.00) per hour. Managers shall not be compensated for more than eight (8) hours of attendance at the training sessions regardless of the actual amount of time that they attended the training sessions.

(4) The time and location of the training sessions required pursuant to this section shall be announced to the general public by posting a notice thereof at the courthouse and by delivering a copy of the notice to the office of a newspaper having general circulation in the county five (5) days before the date upon which the training session is to be conducted. Persons who will serve as poll watchers for candidates and political parties, as well as members of the general public, shall be allowed to attend the sessions.

(5) Subject to the following annual limitations, the commissioners of election shall be entitled to receive a per diem in the amount of Eighty-four Dollars ($84.00), to be paid from the county general fund, for every day or period of no less than five (5) hours accumulated over two (2) or more days actually employed in the performance of their duties for the necessary time spent in conducting training sessions as required by this section:

(a) In counties having less than fifteen thousand (15,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census, not more than five (5) days per year;

(b) In counties having fifteen thousand (15,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census but less than thirty thousand (30,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census, not more than eight (8) days per year;

(c) In counties having thirty thousand (30,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census but less than seventy thousand (70,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census, not more than ten (10) days per year;

(d) In counties having seventy thousand (70,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census but less than ninety thousand (90,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census, not more than twelve (12) days per year;

(e) In counties having ninety thousand (90,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census but less than one hundred seventy thousand (170,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census, not more than fifteen (15) days per year;

(f) In counties having one hundred seventy thousand (170,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census but less than two hundred thousand (200,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census, not more than eighteen (18) days per year;

(g) In counties having two hundred thousand (200,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census but less than two hundred twenty-five thousand (225,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census, not more than nineteen (19) days per year;

(h) In counties having two hundred twenty-five thousand (225,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census but less than two hundred fifty thousand (250,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census, not more than twenty-two (22) days per year;

(i) In counties having two hundred fifty thousand (250,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census but less than two hundred seventy-five thousand (275,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census, not more than thirteen (13) days per year;

(j) In counties having two hundred seventy-five thousand (275,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census or more, not more than fourteen (14) days per year.

(6) Commissioners of election shall claim the per diem authorized in subsection (5) of this section in the manner provided for in Section 23-15-153(6).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

County boards of supervisors have the discretionary authority to compensate qualified electors of the county who are duly appointed to serve as pollworkers in a primary election and attend one or more training sessions conducted by a county party executive committee. Scott, Feb. 18, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0067.

A county election commission may choose to appoint qualified previously trained individuals who have served in a primary to also serve in the following general election; however, if individuals who were paid for attending one or more training sessions conducted by a party executive committee are appointed by a commission, they would not be eligible for any further compensation for attending another training session. Scott, Feb. 18, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0067.

Because the terms “poll worker” and “manager” are interchangeable as used in the election statute, therefore, a county board of supervisors has the discretionary authority to compensate poll workers for attending certification classes pursuant to Section 23-15-239 (3). Meadows, Jan. 31, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0033.

(1) The officials in charge of the election in a county or municipality may, in their discretion, appoint not more than two (2) students for each precinct to serve as student interns during elections. To be appointed a student intern a student must:

(a) Be recommended by a principal or other school official, or the person responsible for the student's legitimate home instruction program;

(b) Be at least sixteen (16) years of age at the time of the election for which the appointment is made;

(c) Be a resident of the county or municipality for which the appointment is made;

(d) Be enrolled in a public high school, an accredited private high school or a legitimate home instruction program and be classified as a junior or senior or its equivalent, or be enrolled in a junior college or a college or university; and

(e) Meet any additional qualifications considered necessary by the officials in charge of the election in the county or municipality.

(2)(a) The duties of the student interns appointed pursuant to this section shall be determined by the officials in charge of the election in the county or municipality; however, such duties shall not include:

(i) Determining the qualifications of a voter in case a voter is challenged;

(ii) The discharge of any duties related to affidavit ballots;

(iii) The operation and maintenance of any voting equipment;

(iv) Any duties normally assigned to a bailiff; or

(v) The tallying of votes.

(b) Student interns shall at all times be under the supervision of the managers and clerks of the election while performing their duties at precincts.

(3) Before performing any duties, student interns shall attend all required training for managers and clerks of the county or municipality and any additional training considered necessary by the officials in charge of the election in the county or municipality.

(4) As used in this section "officials in charge of the election" means the county or municipal executive committee, as appropriate, in primary elections and the county or municipal election commission, as appropriate, in all other elections.

§ 23-15-247. Ballot boxes.

The commissioners of election in each county shall procure, if not already provided, a sufficient number of ballot boxes, which shall be distributed by them to the voting precincts of the county before the time for opening the polls. The boxes shall be secured by good and substantial locks, and, if an adjournment shall take place after the opening of the polls and before all the votes shall be counted, the box shall be securely locked, so as to prevent the admission of anything into it, or the taking of anything from it, during the time of adjournment; and the box shall be kept by one of the managers and the key by another of the managers, and the manager having the box shall carefully keep it, and neither unlock or open it himself nor permit it to be done, nor permit any person to have any access to it during the time of adjournment. The box shall not be removed from the polling building or place after the polls are opened until the count is complete, if as many as three (3) qualified electors object. After each election the ballot boxes shall be delivered, with the keys thereof, to the clerk of the circuit court of the county for preservation; and he shall keep them for future use, and, when called for, deliver them to the commissioners of election.

A board of supervisors does not have the responsibility to provide or make available the various county polling places within the county precincts for use by a political party for a caucus. § 23-15-263. Duties of county executive committees at primary elections.

(1) Unless otherwise provided in this chapter, the county executive committee at primary elections shall perform all duties that relate to the qualification of candidates for primary elections, print ballots for primary elections, appoint the primary election officers, resolve contests in regard to primary elections, and perform all other duties required by law to be performed by the county executive committee; however, each house of the Legislature shall rule on the qualifications of the membership of its respective body in contests involving the qualifications of such members. The executive committee shall be subject to all the penalties to which county election commissioners are subject, except that Section 23-15-217 shall not apply to members of the county executive committee who seek elective office.

(2) A member of a county executive committee shall be automatically disqualified to serve on the county executive committee, and shall be considered to have resigned therefrom, upon his qualification as a candidate for any elective office. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to a member of a county executive committee who qualifies as a candidate for a municipal elective office.

(3) The primary election officers appointed by the executive committee of the party shall have the powers and perform the duties, where not otherwise provided, required of such officers in a general election, and any and every act or omission which by law is an offense when committed in or about or in respect to such general elections, shall be an offense if committed in or about or in respect to a primary election; and the same shall be indictable and punishable in the same way as if the election was a general election for the election of state and county officers, except as specially modified or otherwise provided in this chapter.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Section 23-15-263, which provides in part that "the county executive committee at primary elections shall discharge the functions imposed on the county election commissioners ... and shall be subject to all the penalties to which all county election commissioners are subject," incorporates the prohibitions of § 23-15-217, which provides in part that "a commissioner of election of any county shall not be a candidate for any office at any election for which he may have been elected or with reference with which he as acted as such," and both sections were enacted to maintain and preserve the integrity of elections and ballot boxes. Thus, a county executive committee member was prohibited from being a candidate in an election which was conducted while he was a member. Breland v. Mallett, 527 So. 2d 629 (Miss. 1988).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

A member of a municipal party executive committee may be a candidate for county or state office and remain on said municipal committee without violation of statute. Denny, May 12, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0369.

There is no apparent authority for county board of supervisors to compensate individual members of party executive committee for the work they perform for their party, including holding primary elections in place of county election commissioners. Yoste, July 22, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0549.

It is the duty of the executive committee of the political party to determine whether an individual is in fact qualified for the office sought and whether the individual should be placed on the ballot for the party primary. Evans, July 9, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0346.

A court-ordered election is not a "special election" for purposes of determining which election officials are responsible for its operation, thus, the responsibility for managing and operating the election lies with the party executive committees, and not the municipal election commission. Truly, Aug. 30, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0509.

§ 23-15-265. Meeting of county executive committee; appointment of managers and clerks by committee.

(1) The county executive committee of each county shall meet not less than two (2) weeks before the date of any primary election and appoint the managers and clerks for same, all of whom may be members of the same political party. The number of managers and clerks appointed by the county executive committee shall be the same number as commissioners of election are allowed to appoint pursuant to Sections 23-15-231 and 23-15-235. If the county executive committee fails to meet on the date named, supra, further notice shall be given of the time and place of meeting.

(2)(a) If it is eligible under Section 23-15-266, the county executive committee may enter into a written agreement with the circuit clerk or the county election commission authorizing the circuit clerk or the county election commission to perform any of the duties required of the county executive committee pursuant to this section. Any agreement entered into pursuant to this subsection shall be signed by the chairman of the county executive committee and the circuit clerk or the chairman of the county election commission, as appropriate. The county executive committee shall notify the State Executive Committee and the Secretary of State of the existence of such agreement.

(b) If it is eligible under Section 23-15-266, the municipal executive committee may enter into a written agreement with the municipal clerk or the municipal election commission authorizing the municipal clerk or the municipal election commission to perform any of the duties required of the municipal executive committee pursuant to this section. ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Agreements between an election commission and a party executive committee as authorized by the statute for the performance of one or more of various duties, such as training poll workers, appointing poll workers, distributing ballot boxes, having ballots printed, distributing ballots, and/or receiving and canvassing election returns, in connection with primary elections may contain provisions whereby the executive committee agrees to compensate commissioners. Robertson, Oct. 12, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0638.

§ 23-15-267. Primary election ballot boxes; penalty for failure to deliver ballot boxes.

(1) The ballot boxes provided by the regular commissioners of election in each county shall be used in primary elections, and the county executive committees shall distribute them to the voting precincts of the county before the time for opening the polls, in the same manner, as near as may be, as that provided for in general elections.

(2) If an adjournment shall take place after the polls are open and before all votes are counted, the ballot box shall be securely locked so as to prevent the admission into it or the taking of anything from it during the time of adjournment; and the box shall be kept by one of the managers, and the key by another of the managers, and the manager having the box shall carefully keep it, and neither undertake to open it himself or permit it to be done, or to permit any person to have access to it during the time of adjournment. The box shall not be removed from the polling building or place after the polls are open until the count is completed if as many as three (3) electors qualified to vote at the election object.

(3) After each election, the ballot boxes of those provided by the regular commissioner of election shall be delivered, with the keys thereof immediately and as soon thereafter as possible, and without delay to the clerk of the circuit court of the county.

(4)(a) If it is eligible under Section 23-15-266, the county executive committee may enter into a written agreement with the circuit clerk or the county election commission authorizing the circuit clerk or the county election commission to perform any of the duties required of the county executive committee pursuant to this section. Any agreement entered into pursuant to this subsection shall be signed by the chairman of the county executive committee and the circuit clerk or the chairman of the county election commission, as appropriate. The county executive committee shall notify the State Executive Committee and the Secretary of State of the existence of such agreement.

(b) If it is eligible under Section 23-15-266, the municipal executive committee may enter into a written agreement with the municipal clerk or the municipal election commission authorizing the municipal clerk or the municipal election commission to perform any of the duties required of the municipal executive committee pursuant to this section. Any agreement entered into pursuant to this subsection shall be signed by the chairman of the municipal executive committee and the municipal clerk or the chairman of the municipal election commission, as appropriate. The municipal executive committee shall notify the State Executive Committee and the Secretary of State of the existence of such agreement.

(5) The person, or persons, whose duty it is to comply with the provisions of this section and who shall fail, or neglect, from any cause, to deliver said boxes or any of them as herein provided shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) and be imprisoned in the county jail of the residence of the person, or persons, who violates any of the provisions of this section, for a period of not less than thirty (30) days or more than six (6) months, and fined not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00).

§ 23-15-271. Election integrity assurance committee.

(1) The state executive committee of any political party authorized to conduct political party primaries shall form an election integrity assurance committee for each congressional district. The state executive committee shall appoint three (3) of its members to each congressional district election integrity assurance committee. The members so appointed shall be residents of the congressional district for which the election integrity assurance committee is formed. The state executive committee shall name a chairman and a secretary from among the members of each committee. The state executive committee shall provide to each circuit and municipal clerk a list of the members of the congressional district integrity assurance committee for the congressional district in which the county or municipality of such clerk is located.

(2) If a county executive committee or a municipal executive committee fails to perform in a timely manner any of the duties specified in Sections 23-15-239, 23-15-265, 23-15-267, 23-15-333, 23-15-335 and 23-15-597 and there is no written agreement in place between the county or municipal executive committee and the county or municipal election commission or the circuit or municipal clerk pursuant to such sections, or there is such an agreement in place and it is not being executed, the circuit or municipal clerk may notify the chairman and secretary of the congressional district election integrity assurance committee or the chairman of the state executive committee of such failure and call upon them to take immediate and appropriate action to insure that such duties are performed in order to secure the orderly conduct of the primary. Such notification may occur on the last day by which the duties are required to be performed or at such time as the circuit or municipal clerk believes such notification is necessary for the orderly administration of the primary.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the state executive committee or a congressional district election assurance committee to conduct primaries.

23-15-285. Entry of boundaries and alterations thereto on minutes of board of supervisors; limit on number of voters within each precinct or ballot box.

§ 23-15-281. Fixing supervisors districts, voting precincts and voting places.

Each county shall be divided into supervisors districts, which shall be the same as those for the election of members of the board of supervisors, and may be subdivided thereafter into voting precincts; and there shall be only one (1) voting place in each voting precinct, but the supervisors districts, voting precincts and voting places as now fixed in each county shall remain until altered. Provided, however, that such boundaries, if altered, shall conform to visible natural or artificial boundaries such as streets, highways, railroads, rivers, lakes, bayous or other obvious lines of demarcation except county lines and municipal corporate limits. The board of supervisors, no later than April 1, 1987, shall notify the office of the Secretary of State of the boundary of each supervisors district and voting precinct as then fixed and shall provide said office a legal description and a map of each supervisors district and voting precinct and shall indicate the voting place in each such district.

§ 23-15-283. Alteration of boundaries.

The board of supervisors shall have power to alter the boundaries of the supervisors districts, voting precincts and the voting place therein; and if they order a change in the boundaries, they shall notify the commissioners of election, who shall at once cause the registration books of voting precincts affected thereby to be so changed as to conform to the change of districts, and to contain only the names of the qualified electors in the voting precincts as made by the change of boundaries. Upon the order of change in the boundaries of any voting precinct or the voting place therein, the board of supervisors shall notify the office of the Secretary of State and provide said office a legal description and a map of any boundary change. No change shall be implemented or enforced until the requirements of this section have been met. Changes by the City of Canton, Mississippi in the locations of polling places and in the municipal boundaries through annexations of adjacent areas were within the requirement of § 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 (42 USC § 1973c) that states or political subdivisions covered by the Act must obtain approval of voting procedures different from those in effect on November 1, 1964, by obtaining a declaratory judgment as to the nondiscriminatory purpose and effect of the changes from the Federal District Court for the District of Columbia, or by submitting the proposed changes to the United States Attorney General. Perkins v. Matthews, 400 U.S. 379, 91 S. Ct. 431, 27 L. Ed. 2d 476 (1971), on remand, 336 F. Supp. 6 (S.D. Miss. 1971).

The commissioners of election, under previous statutes, alone had power to change the election districts, and the change of the boundaries of the supervisor's district did not alter the election district. Perkins v. Carraway, 59 Miss. 222 (1881).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Individual election commissioners may be employed on a part-time basis by the board of supervisors to perform redistricting tasks provided the board determines, consistent with the facts that (1) the work involved is not required to be performed by the registrar or deputy registrar; and (2) the work is over and above the regular statutory duties of the election commissioners. Martin, Jr., May 31, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0326.

Failure to file a map or description of the new districts for a county with the Secretary of State's office does not prohibit the circuit clerk and/or the election commission from implementing the new supervisor, school board, and justice court election district. Dillon, Aug. 1, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0387.

§ 23-15-285. Entry of boundaries and alterations thereto on minutes of board of supervisors; limit on number of voters within each precinct or ballot box.

The board of supervisors shall cause an entry to be made on the minutes of the board at some meeting, as early as convenient, defining the boundaries of the several supervisors districts and voting precincts in the county, and designating the voting place in each voting precinct; and as soon as practicable after any alteration shall have been made in any supervisors district or voting precinct, or any voting place changed, shall cause such alteration or change to be entered on the minutes of the board in such manner as to be easily understood; provided, however, that no voting precinct shall have more than five hundred (500) qualified electors residing in its boundaries and the board of supervisors of the various counties of this state shall as soon as practical after the effective date of this section, alter or change the boundaries of the various voting precincts to comply herewith and shall from time to time make such alterations or changes in the boundaries of voting precincts so that there shall never be more than five hundred (500) qualified electors within the boundaries of the various voting precincts of this state; provided further, this limitation shall not apply wherein voting precincts are so divided, alphabetically or otherwise, so as to have less than five hundred (500) qualified electors in any one (1) box within a voting precinct; provided, however, that the limitation of five hundred (500) qualified electors to the voting precinct shall not apply wherein voting machines are used at all elections held in any voting precinct; but no alteration of any supervisor's district or voting precinct shall take effect within two (2) months before an election to be held in the district or voting precinct. Provided, however, that, with the exception of county lines and municipal corporate limits, such altered boundaries shall conform to visible natural or artificial boundaries such as streets, highways, railroads, rivers, lakes, bayous or other obvious lines of demarcation.

[Until the date Laws of 2007, ch. 604 § 2, is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, this section will read as follows:]

(1)(a) Assessments made pursuant to paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of Section 23-15-297 and assessments made pursuant to paragraph (d) of Section 23-15-297 for legislative offices shall be paid by each candidate to the Secretary of the State Executive Committee with which the candidate is affiliated by 5:00 p.m. on March 1 of the year in which the primary election for the office is held or on the date of the qualifying deadline provided by statute for the office, whichever is earlier; however, no such assessments may be paid before January 1 of the year in which the primary election for the office is held.

(b) If the 2010 federal decennial census has not been received from the United States Secretary of Commerce by the Governor of the State of Mississippi by January 1, 2011, then the qualifying deadline for legislative offices shall be changed for the year 2011 only, as follows: Assessments made pursuant to paragraph (d) of Section 23-15-297 for legislative offices shall be paid by each candidate to the Secretary of the State Executive Committee with which the candidate is affiliated by 5:00 p.m. on June 1, 2011. This paragraph (b) shall stand repealed on July 1, 2012; however, no such assessments may be paid before January 1 of the year in which the election for the office is held.

(2) Assessments made pursuant to paragraphs (d) and (e) of Section 23-15-297, other than assessments made for legislative offices, shall be paid by each candidate to the circuit clerk of such candidate's county of residence by 5:00 p.m. on March 1 of the year in which the primary election for the office is held or on the date of the qualifying deadline provided by statute for the office, whichever is earlier; however, no such assessments may be paid before January 1 of the year in which the election for the office is held. The circuit clerk shall forward the fee and all necessary information to the secretary of the proper county executive committee within two (2) business days.

(3) Assessments made pursuant to paragraphs (f) and (g) of Section 23-15-297 must be paid by each candidate to the Secretary of the State

Executive Committee with which the candidate is affiliated by 5:00 p.m. sixty (60) days before the presidential preference primary in years in which a presidential preference primary is held; however, no such assessments may be paid before January 1 of the year in which the primary election for the office is held. Assessments made pursuant to paragraphs (f) and (g) of Section 23-15-297, in years when a presidential preference primary is not being held, shall be paid by each candidate to the Secretary of the State Executive Committee with which the candidate is affiliated by 5:00 p.m. on March 1 of the year in which the primary election for the office is held; however, no such assessments may be paid before January 1 of the year in which the primary election for the office is held.

(4)(a) The fees paid pursuant to subsections (1), (2) and (3) of this section shall be accompanied by a written statement containing the name and address of the candidate, the party with which he or she is affiliated and the office for which he or she is a candidate.

(b) The State Executive Committee shall transmit to the Secretary of State a copy of the written statements accompanying the fees paid pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) of this section. All copies must be received by the Office of the Secretary of State by not later than 6:00 p.m. on the date of the qualifying deadline; provided, however, the failure of the Office of the Secretary of State to receive such copies by 6:00 p.m. on the date of the qualifying deadline shall not affect the qualification of a person who pays the required fee and files the required statement by 5:00 p.m. on the date of the qualifying deadline. The name of any person who pays the required fee and files the required statement after 5:00 p.m. on the date of the qualifying deadline shall not be placed on the primary election ballot.

(5) The secretary or circuit clerk to whom such payments are made shall promptly receipt for same stating the office for which such candidate making payment is running and the political party with which he or she is affiliated, and he or she shall keep an itemized account in detail showing the exact time and date of the receipt of each payment received by him or her and, where applicable, the date of the postmark on the envelope containing the fee and from whom, and for what office the party paying same is a candidate.

(6) The secretaries of the proper executive committee shall hold said funds to be finally disposed of by order of their respective executive committees. Such funds may be used or disbursed by the executive committee receiving same to pay all necessary traveling or other necessary expenses of the members of the executive committee incurred in discharging their duties as committeemen, and of their secretary and may pay the secretary such salary as may be reasonable.

(7) Upon receipt of the proper fee and all necessary information, the proper executive committee shall then determine whether each candidate is a qualified elector of the state, state district, county or county district which they seek to serve, and whether each candidate meets all other qualifications to hold the office he is seeking or presents absolute proof that he will, subject to no contingencies, meet all qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he could be elected to office. The committee also shall determine whether any candidate has been convicted of any felony in a court of this state, or has been convicted on or after December 8, 1992, of any offense in another state which is a felony under the laws of this state, or has been convicted of any felony in a federal court on or after December 8, 1992. Excepted from the above are convictions of manslaughter and violations of the United States Internal Revenue Code or any violations of the tax laws of this state unless the offense also involved misuse or abuse of his office or money coming into his hands by virtue of his office. If the proper executive committee finds that a candidate either (a) is not a qualified elector, (b) does not meet all qualifications to hold the office he seeks and fails to provide absolute proof, subject to no contingencies, that he will meet the qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he could be elected, or (c) has been convicted of a felony as described in this subsection, and not pardoned, then the name of such candidate shall not be placed upon the ballot.

Where there is but one (1) candidate for each office contested at the primary election, the proper executive committee when the time has expired within which the names of candidates shall be furnished shall declare such candidates the nominees.

(8) No candidate may qualify by filing the information required by this section by using the Internet.

[From and after the date Laws of 2007, ch. 604, § 2 is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, this section will read as follows:]

[Until July 1, 2008, this section shall read as follows:]

(1)(a) Assessments made pursuant to paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of Section 23-15-297 and assessments made pursuant to paragraph (d) of Section 23-15-297 for legislative offices shall be paid by each candidate to the Secretary of the State Executive Committee with which the candidate is affiliated by 5:00 p.m. on March 1 of the year in which the primary election for the office is held or on the date of the qualifying deadline provided by statute for the office, whichever is earlier; however, no such assessments may be paid before January 1 of the year in which the primary election for the office is held.

(b) If the 2010 census redistricting information that is provided to the state in accordance with federal Public Law 94-171 has not been received from the United States Secretary of Commerce by the Governor of the State of Mississippi by January 1, 2011, then the qualifying deadline for legislative offices shall be changed for the year 2011 only, as follows: Assessments made pursuant to paragraph (d) of Section 23-15-297 for legislative offices shall be paid by each candidate to the Secretary of the State Executive Committee with which the candidate is affiliated by 5:00 p.m. on June 1, 2011. This paragraph (b) shall stand repealed on July 1, 2012; however, no such assessments may be paid before January 1 of the year in which the election for the office is held.

(2) Assessments made pursuant to paragraphs (d) and (e) of Section 23-15-297, other than assessments made for legislative offices, shall be paid by each candidate to the circuit clerk of such candidate's county of residence by 5:00 p.m. on March 1 of the year in which the primary election for the office is held or on the date of the qualifying deadline provided by statute for the office, whichever is earlier; however, no such assessments may be paid before January 1 of the year in which the election for the office is held. The circuit clerk shall forward the fee and all necessary information to the secretary of the proper county executive committee within two (2) business days.

(3) Assessments made pursuant to paragraphs (f) and (g) of Section 23-15-297 must be paid by each candidate to the Secretary of the State Executive Committee with which the candidate is affiliated by 5:00 p.m. sixty (60) days before the presidential preference primary in years in which a presidential preference primary is held; however, no such assessments may be paid before January 1 of the year in which the primary election for the office is held. Assessments made pursuant to paragraphs (f) and (g) of Section 23-15-297, in years when a presidential preference primary is not being held, shall be paid by each candidate to the Secretary of the State Executive Committee with which the candidate is affiliated by 5:00 p.m. on March 1 of the year in which the primary election for the office is held; however, no such assessments may be paid before January 1 of the year in which the primary election for the office is held.

(4)(a) The fees paid pursuant to subsections (1), (2) and (3) of this section shall be accompanied by a written statement containing the name and address of the candidate, the party with which he or she is affiliated and the office for which he or she is a candidate.

(b) The State Executive Committee shall transmit to the Secretary of State a copy of the written statements accompanying the fees paid pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) of this section. All copies must be received by the Office of the Secretary of State by not later than 6:00 p.m. on the date of the qualifying deadline; provided, however, the failure of the Office of the Secretary of State to receive such copies by 6:00 p.m. on the date of the qualifying deadline shall not affect the qualification of a person who pays the required fee and files the required statement by 5:00 p.m. on the date of the qualifying deadline. The name of any person who pays the required fee and files the required statement after 5:00 p.m. on the date of the qualifying deadline shall not be placed on the primary election ballot.

(5) The secretary or circuit clerk to whom such payments are made shall promptly receipt for same stating the office for which such candidate making payment is running and the political party with which he or she is affiliated, and he or she shall keep an itemized account in detail showing the exact time and date of the receipt of each payment received by him or her and, where applicable, the date of the postmark on the envelope containing the fee and from whom, and for what office the party paying same is a candidate.

(6) The secretaries of the proper executive committee shall hold said funds to be finally disposed of by order of their respective executive committees. Such funds may be used or disbursed by the executive committee receiving same to pay all necessary traveling or other necessary expenses of the members of the executive committee incurred in discharging their duties as committeemen, and of their secretary and may pay the secretary such salary as may be reasonable.

(7) Upon receipt of the proper fee and all necessary information, the proper executive committee shall then determine whether each candidate is a qualified elector of the state, state district, county or county district which they seek to serve, and whether each candidate meets all other qualifications to hold the office he is seeking or presents absolute proof that he will, subject to no contingencies, meet all qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he could be elected to office. The committee also shall determine whether any candidate has been convicted of any felony in a court of this state, or has been convicted on or after December 8, 1992, of any offense in another state which is a felony under the laws of this state, or has been convicted of any felony in a federal court on or after December 8, 1992. Excepted from the above are convictions of manslaughter and violations of the United States Internal Revenue Code or any violations of the tax laws of this state unless the offense also involved misuse or abuse of his office or money coming into his hands by virtue of his office. If the proper executive committee finds that a candidate either (a) is not a qualified elector, (b) does not meet all qualifications to hold the office he seeks and fails to provide absolute proof, subject to no contingencies, that he will meet the qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he could be elected, or (c) has been convicted of a felony as described in this subsection, and not pardoned, then the name of such candidate shall not be placed upon the ballot.

Where there is but one (1) candidate for each office contested at the primary election, the proper executive committee when the time has expired within which the names of candidates shall be furnished shall declare such candidates the nominees.

(8) No candidate may qualify by filing the information required by this section by using the Internet.

[From and after July 1, 2008, this section shall read as follows:]

(1)(a) Assessments made pursuant to paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of Section 23-15-297 and assessments made pursuant to paragraph (d) of Section 23-15-297 for legislative offices shall be paid by each candidate to the Secretary of the State Executive Committee with which the candidate is affiliated by 5:00 p.m. on March 1 of the year in which the primary election for the office is held or on the date of the qualifying deadline provided by statute for the office, whichever is earlier; however, no such assessments may be paid before January 1 of the year in which the primary election for the office is held.

(b) If the 2010 census redistricting information that is provided to the state in accordance with Public Law 94-171 has not been received from the United States Secretary of Commerce by the Governor of the State of Mississippi by January 1, 2011, then the qualifying deadline for legislative offices shall be changed for the year 2011 only, as follows: Assessments made pursuant to paragraph (d) of Section 23-15-297 for legislative offices shall be paid by each candidate to the Secretary of the State Executive Committee with which the candidate is affiliated by 5:00 p.m. on June 1, 2011. This paragraph (b) shall stand repealed on July 1, 2012; however, no such assessments may be paid before January 1 of the year in which the election for the office is held.

(2) Assessments made pursuant to paragraphs (d) and (e) of Section 23-15-297, other than assessments made for legislative offices, shall be paid by each candidate to the circuit clerk of such candidate's county of residence by 5:00 p.m. on March 1 of the year in which the primary election for the office is held or on the date of the qualifying deadline provided by statute for the office, whichever is earlier; however, no such assessments may be paid before January 1 of the year in which the election for the office is held. The circuit clerk shall forward the fee and all necessary information to the secretary of the proper county executive committee within two (2) business days.

(3) Assessments made pursuant to paragraphs (f) and (g) of Section 23-15-297 must be paid by each candidate to the Secretary of the State Executive Committee with which the candidate is affiliated by 5:00 p.m. sixty (60) days before the presidential preference primary in years in which a presidential preference primary is held; however, no such assessments may be paid before January 1 of the year in which the primary election for the office is held. Assessments made pursuant to paragraphs (f) and (g) of Section 23-15-297, in years when a presidential preference primary is not being held, shall be paid by each candidate to the Secretary of the State Executive Committee with which the candidate is affiliated by 5:00 p.m. on March 1 of the year in which the primary election for the office is held; however, no such assessments may be paid before January 1 of the year in which the primary election for the office is held.

(4)(a) The fees paid pursuant to subsections (1), (2) and (3) of this section shall be accompanied by a written statement containing the name and address of the candidate, the party with which he or she is affiliated and the office for which he or she is a candidate.

(b) The State Executive Committee shall transmit to the Secretary of State a copy of the written statements accompanying the fees paid pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) of this section. All copies must be received by the Office of the Secretary of State by not later than 6:00 p.m. on the date of the qualifying deadline; provided, however, the failure of the Office of the Secretary of State to receive such copies by 6:00 p.m. on the date of the qualifying deadline shall not affect the qualification of a person who pays the required fee and files the required statement by 5:00 p.m. on the date of the qualifying deadline. The name of any person who pays the required fee and files the required statement after 5:00 p.m. on the date of the qualifying deadline shall not be placed on the primary election ballot.

(5) The secretary or circuit clerk to whom such payments are made shall promptly receipt for same stating the office for which such candidate making payment is running and the political party with which he or she is affiliated, and he or she shall keep an itemized account in detail showing the exact time and date of the receipt of each payment received by him or her and, where applicable, the date of the postmark on the envelope containing the fee and from whom, and for what office the party paying same is a candidate.

(6) The secretaries of the proper executive committee shall hold said funds to be finally disposed of by order of their respective executive committees. Such funds may be used or disbursed by the executive committee receiving same to pay all necessary traveling or other necessary expenses of the members of the executive committee incurred in discharging their duties as committeemen, and of their secretary and may pay the secretary such salary as may be reasonable.

(7) Upon receipt of the proper fee and all necessary information, the proper executive committee shall then determine whether each candidate is a qualified elector of the state, state district, county or county district which they seek to serve, and whether each candidate meets all other qualifications to hold the office he is seeking or presents absolute proof that he will, subject to no contingencies, meet all qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he could be elected to office. The executive committee shall determine whether the candidate has taken the steps necessary to qualify for more than one (1) office at the election. The committee also shall determine whether any candidate has been convicted of any felony in a court of this state, or has been convicted on or after December 8, 1992, of any offense in another state which is a felony under the laws of this state, or has been convicted of any felony in a federal court on or after December 8, 1992. Excepted from the above are convictions of manslaughter and violations of the United States Internal Revenue Code or any violations of the tax laws of this state unless the offense also involved misuse or abuse of his office or money coming into his hands by virtue of his office. If the proper executive committee finds that a candidate either (a) is not a qualified elector, (b) does not meet all qualifications to hold the office he seeks and fails to provide absolute proof, subject to no contingencies, that he will meet the qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he could be elected, or (c) has been convicted of a felony as described in this subsection, and not pardoned, then the name of such candidate shall not be placed upon the ballot. If the proper executive committee determines that the candidate has taken the steps necessary to qualify for more than one (1) office at the election, the action required by Section 23-15-905, shall be taken.

Where there is but one (1) candidate for each office contested at the primary election, the proper executive committee when the time has expired within which the names of candidates shall be furnished shall declare such candidates the nominees.

(8) No candidate may qualify by filing the information required by this section by using the Internet.

On June 5, 2006, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 2006, ch. 574, § 14.

Laws of 2007, ch. 604, §§ 6 and 7 provide:

“SECTION 6. The Attorney General of the State of Mississippi shall submit this act, immediately upon approval by the Governor, or upon approval by the Legislature subsequent to a veto, to the Attorney General of the United States or to the United States District Court for the District of Columbia in accordance with the provisions of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended.”

“SECTION 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, or July 1, 2007, whichever occurs later, as amended and extended.”

Amendment Notes — The 2006 amendment added “however, no such assessments may be paid before January 1 of the year in which the primary election for the office is held” to the end of (1)(a), (1)(b), and at the end of the first and last sentences in (3); and made a minor stylistic change.

The 2007 amendment provides for three versions of the section, in the second version, which, from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, will be effective until July 1, 2008, substituted “2010 census redistricting information that is provided to the state in accordance with federal Public Law 94-171” for “2010 federal decennial census”; and in the third version, which, from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, will be effective from and after July 1, 2008, substituted “2010 census redistricting information that is provided to the state in accordance with Public Law 94-171” for “2010 federal decennial census”, and added the second and last sentences in the first paragraph of (7).

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

2. Residency not established.

1. Illustrative cases.

Where a former chancellor had been subject to discipline in the last year of his term, and five years later ran as a candidate for district attorney, the procedure for determining electoral candidates' qualifications under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-299(7) was controlling, and the former chancellor was disqualified as a candidate, because the evidence showed the chancellor was not a "practicing attorney," on or before the date of the general election as required by Miss. Code Ann. § 25-31-1. Grist v. Farese, 860 So. 2d 1182 (Miss. 2003).

2. Residency not established.

Candidate and his wife claimed that they were residents of the judicial district for which the candidate sought office, however the candidate and his wife owned two homes and the record revealed that the candidate and his wife spent five days a week at their second home, which was located outside of the judicial district; the candidate was therefore unqualified to run for office in the judicial district. Garner v. State Democratic Exec. Comm., 956 So. 2d 906 (Miss. 2007).

Candidate was not qualified to run for the House of Representatives under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-299(7) because he had not lived in the district for two years prior to the elections as required by Miss. Const. art. 4, § 41; the candidate worked outside of the district, and until his separation the candidate lived in a marital house that was outside of the district and for which he tried to claim a homestead exemption. Edwards v. Stevens, — So. 2d —, 2007 Miss. LEXIS 314 (Miss. May 31, 2007).

Because a candidate for the Mississippi Senate was unable to establish "without contingencies" and with "absolute proof" that residency in a certain district would have been established by the time of an election, a political party and its executive committee properly declined to place the candidate's name on the ballot; evidence of a purchase contract for a home in the district was insufficient because the sale could have fallen through. Cameron v. Miss. Republican Party, 890 So. 2d 836 (Miss. 2004).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

In order to qualify for a multi-district legislative office, candidates must qualify with the secretary of the state executive committee of their chosen party by 5:00 p.m. on March 1, and, if candidates intend to run in a single county legislative district, they must qualify with the circuit clerk of their home county by 5:00 p.m. on March 1; there are no statutory provisions that allow any exceptions or extensions to these deadlines. Scott, March 26, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0161.

It is the duty of the executive committee of the political party to determine whether an individual is in fact qualified for the office sought and whether the individual should be placed on the ballot for the party primary. Evans, July 9, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0346.

When March 1, falls on a Saturday, rather than designating a date other than that required by the statute, all those officials authorized to accept candidate qualification papers must open their offices and be available for that purpose on that date until 5:00 p.m., regardless of whether that office is normally open on that day of the week. Scott, Jan. 16, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0012.

Once it is determined by the proper executive committee, that a particular candidate meets the eligibility requirements of the above quoted statute, his or her name must be placed on the primary ballot; any finding by said committee that a candidate is not loyal to the political party conducting the primary would not authorize the committee to refuse to place that candidate's name on the primary ballot. Hemphill, Jan. 16, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0015.

If a party executive committee refuses to place a candidate's name on the primary ballot, the candidate may file a complaint in circuit court asking that the committee be enjoined to place his or her name on the ballot; the time frame for obtaining such an injunction would be prior to the printing of the official ballots. Hemphill, Jan. 16, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0015.

If a party executive committee makes the factual determination that a particular candidate is disloyal to the party and refuses to place said candidate's name on the ballot, a circuit judge when properly presented with the issue may rule on the legality of basing the decision to disqualify the candidate on the ground of party loyalty. Hemphill, Jan. 16, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0015.

If the local party refuses to qualify a candidate, the challenge would be heard by the circuit court of the county wherein the executive committee sits. Hemphill, Jan. 16, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0015.

The candidate who received the majority number of votes cast for the office which he seeks shall thereby become the nominee of his party for such office and no person shall be declared to be the nominee of his party unless and until he has received a majority of the votes cast for such office, except as hereinafter provided. If no candidate received such majority of the votes cast in the first primary, then the two (2) candidates who receive the highest number of votes cast for such office shall have their names submitted as such candidates to the second primary and the candidate who leads in such second primary shall be nominated for the office.

If the candidate who received the second highest number of votes cast for such office for any reason declines to enter the second primary, then in that event the candidate who received the third highest shall have his name submitted to the second primary, together with the candidate who received the highest number of votes cast for such office.

If the candidate who received the third highest number of votes cast for such office for any reason declines to enter the second primary, then in that event the candidate who received the fourth highest shall have his name submitted to the second primary, together with the candidate who received the highest number of votes cast for such office.

If no candidate will enter the second primary with the candidate who received the highest number of votes cast, then the candidate who received the highest number of votes cast in the first primary shall be declared the nominee of his party for such office.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

If the candidate with the most votes or the candidate with the second most votes declines to enter the runoff, the candidate with the next highest votes would be entitled to have his name placed on the runoff ballot. Chaney, Nov. 7, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0676.

Where a candidate received more than half of the total votes cast for all three candidates in a primary election, he had a majority of the votes as contemplated by this section and § 23-15-191. Tate, Aug. 14, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0453.

§ 23-15-309. Nomination for elective municipal office to be made at primary election; fee requirements; determination of candidate's qualifications.

[Until Laws of 2007, ch. 604 § 3, is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, this section will read as follows:]

(1) Nominations for all municipal officers which are elective shall be made at a primary election, or elections, to be held in the manner prescribed by law. All persons desiring to be candidates for the nomination in the primary elections shall first pay Ten Dollars ($10.00) to the clerk of the municipality, at least sixty (60) days prior to the first primary election, no later than 5:00 p.m. on such deadline day.

(2) The fee paid pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be accompanied by a written statement containing the name and address of the candidate, the party with which he is affiliated, and the office for which he is a candidate.

(3) The clerk shall promptly receipt the payment, stating the office for which the person making the payment is running and the political party with which such person is affiliated. The clerk shall keep an itemized account in detail showing the time and date of the receipt of such payment received by him, from whom such payment was received, the party with which such person is affiliated and for what office the person paying the fee is a candidate. The clerk shall promptly supply all necessary information and pay over all fees so received to the secretary of the proper municipal executive committee. Such funds may be used and disbursed in the same manner as is allowed in Section 23-15-299 in regard to other executive committees.

(4) Upon receipt of the above information, the proper municipal executive committee shall then determine whether each candidate is a qualified elector of the municipality, and of the ward if the office sought is a ward office, shall determine whether each candidate either meets all other qualifications to hold the office he is seeking or presents absolute proof that he will, subject to no contingencies, meet all qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he could be elected to office. The committee also shall determine whether any candidate has been convicted of any felony in a court of this state, or has been convicted on or after December 8, 1992, of any offense in another state which is a felony under the laws of this state, or has been convicted of any felony in a federal court on or after December 8, 1992. Excepted from the above are convictions of manslaughter and violations of the United States Internal Revenue Code or any violations of the tax laws of this state unless such offense also involved misuse or abuse of his office or money coming into his hands by virtue of his office. If the proper municipal executive committee finds that a candidate either (a) does not meet all qualifications to hold the office he seeks and fails to provide absolute proof, subject to no contingencies, that he will meet the qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he could be elected, or (b) has been convicted of a felony as described in this subsection and not pardoned, then the name of such candidate shall not be placed upon the ballot.

(5) Where there is but one (1) candidate, the proper municipal executive committee when the time has expired within which the names of candidates shall be furnished shall declare such candidate the nominee.

[From and after the date Laws of 2007, ch. 604, § 3 is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, this section will read as follows:]

[Until July 1, 2008, this section shall read as follows:]

(1) Nominations for all municipal officers which are elective shall be made at a primary election, or elections, to be held in the manner prescribed by law. All persons desiring to be candidates for the nomination in the primary elections shall first pay Ten Dollars ($10.00) to the clerk of the municipality, at least sixty (60) days prior to the first primary election, no later than 5:00 p.m. on such deadline day.

(2) The fee paid pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be accompanied by a written statement containing the name and address of the candidate, the party with which he is affiliated, and the office for which he is a candidate.

(3) The clerk shall promptly receipt the payment, stating the office for which the person making the payment is running and the political party with which such person is affiliated. The clerk shall keep an itemized account in detail showing the time and date of the receipt of such payment received by him, from whom such payment was received, the party with which such person is affiliated and for what office the person paying the fee is a candidate. The clerk shall promptly supply all necessary information and pay over all fees so received to the secretary of the proper municipal executive committee. Such funds may be used and disbursed in the same manner as is allowed in Section 23-15-299 in regard to other executive committees.

(4) Upon receipt of the above information, the proper municipal executive committee shall then determine whether each candidate is a qualified elector of the municipality, and of the ward if the office sought is a ward office, shall determine whether each candidate either meets all other qualifications to hold the office he is seeking or presents absolute proof that he will, subject to no contingencies, meet all qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he could be elected to office. Excepted from the above are convictions of manslaughter and violations of the United States Internal Revenue Code or any violations of the tax laws of this state unless such offense also involved misuse or abuse of his office or money coming into his hands by virtue of his office. If the proper municipal executive committee finds that a candidate either (a) does not meet all qualifications to hold the office he seeks and fails to provide absolute proof, subject to no contingencies, that he will meet the qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he could be elected, or (b) has been convicted of a felony as described in this subsection and not pardoned, then the name of such candidate shall not be placed upon the ballot.

(5) Where there is but one (1) candidate, the proper municipal executive committee when the time has expired within which the names of candidates shall be furnished shall declare such candidate the nominee.

[From and after July 1, 2008, this section shall read as follows:]

(1) Nominations for all municipal officers which are elective shall be made at a primary election, or elections, to be held in the manner prescribed by law. (4) Upon receipt of the above information, the proper municipal executive committee shall then determine whether each candidate is a qualified elector of the municipality, and of the ward if the office sought is a ward office, shall determine whether each candidate either meets all other qualifications to hold the office he is seeking or presents absolute proof that he will, subject to no contingencies, meet all qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he could be elected to office. The executive committee shall determine whether the candidate has taken the steps necessary to qualify for more than one (1) office at the election. The committee also shall determine whether any candidate has been convicted of any felony in a court of this state, or has been convicted on or after December 8, 1992, of any offense in another state which is a felony under the laws of this state, or has been convicted of any felony in a federal court on or after December 8, 1992. Excepted from the above are convictions of manslaughter and violations of the United States Internal Revenue Code or any violations of the tax laws of this state unless such offense also involved misuse or abuse of his office or money coming into his hands by virtue of his office. If the proper municipal executive committee finds that a candidate either (a) does not meet all qualifications to hold the office he seeks and fails to provide absolute proof, subject to no contingencies, that he will meet the qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he could be elected, or (b) has been convicted of a felony as described in this subsection and not pardoned, then the name of such candidate shall not be placed upon the ballot. If the executive committee determines that the candidate has taken the steps necessary to qualify for more than one (1) office at the election, the action required by Section 23-15-905, shall be taken.

(5) Where there is but one (1) candidate, the proper municipal executive committee when the time has expired within which the names of candidates shall be furnished shall declare such candidate the nominee.

Joint Legislative Committee Note — Section 1 of ch. 549, Laws of 2000, effective from and after the date said ch. 549 is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, amended this section. Section 4 of ch. 592, Laws of 2000, effective from and after the date said ch. 592 is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, also amended this section. As set out above, this section reflects the language of both amendments pursuant to Section 1-1-109, which gives the Joint Legislative Committee on Compilation, Revision, and Publication authority to integrate amendments so that all versions of the same code section enacted within the same legislative session may become effective. The Joint Committee on Compilation, Revision, and Publication ratified the integration of these amendments as consistent with the legislative intent at the June 29, 2000 meeting of the Committee.

Editor's Note — Laws of 1987, ch. 499, § 20, provides as follows:

"SECTION 20. If any section, paragraph, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is declared to be unconstitutional or void, or for any reason is declared to be invalid or of no effect, the remaining sections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses or phrases shall be in no manner affected thereby but shall remain in full force and effect."

On July 28, 2000, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 to the amendment of this section by Laws of 2000, chs. 549 and 592.

Laws of 2007, ch. 604, §§ 6 and 7 provide:

“SECTION 6. The Attorney General of the State of Mississippi shall submit this act, immediately upon approval by the Governor, or upon approval by the Legislature subsequent to a veto, to the Attorney General of the United States or to the United States District Court for the District of Columbia in accordance with the provisions of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended.”

“SECTION 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, or July 1, 2007, whichever occurs later, as amended and extended.”

Amendment Notes — The 2007 amendment added the second and last sentences of (4) in the third version, which, from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, will be effective from and after July 1, 2008.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

There is no specific prohibition against a county executive committee member from serving as a municipal election commissioner, but it would give the appearance of impropriety for a municipal election commissioner to be identified with a particulars group of nominees. Pechloff, January 9, 1998, A.G. Op. #97-0803.

A party executive committee must be in place on the qualifying deadline so that the municipal clerk can “promptly” turn the fees and statements of intent over to said committee. Howell, Feb. 28, 2001, A.G. Op. #2001-0123.

The statute clearly contemplates that a municipal party executive committee be in place at the time a potential candidate files his statement of intent and pays the filing fee; however, if a clerk has accepted one or more potential candidate’s statement of intent and filing fee at a time when no committee is in place and a legitimate temporary committee is subsequently formed prior to the qualifying deadline, such temporary committee could proceed to review the potential candidates’ qualifications and conduct a party primary and/or certify unopposed candidates as the party’s nominees. Bowman, Mar. 16, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0155.

Since municipal party executive committees are statutorily charged with the responsibility of conducting municipal primaries in accordance with state law, membership on said committees constitutes serving in a position of public trust. James, Oct. 18, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0597.

Potential candidates for membership on a municipal party executive committee are subject to the provisions of Section 44 of the Constitution and this section as they pertain to criminal convictions. James, Oct. 18, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0597.

If a municipal party executive committee finds that a potential candidate for membership on said committee who has filed his or her statement of intent has been convicted of any felony covered by Section 44 of the Constitution and this section, said committee could not lawfully qualify that individual as a candidate. James, Oct. 18, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0597.

§ 23-15-317. Nomination of nominee when vacancy in nomination occurs between primary election and general election; procedure for withdrawal based upon legitimate non-political reason.

If any person nominated for office in a primary election shall die, be removed after his nomination or withdraw or resign from his candidacy for a legitimate nonpolitical reason as defined in this section, and such vacancy in nomination shall occur between the primary election and the ensuing general election, then the municipal, county or state executive committee with which the original nominee qualified as a candidate in the primary election shall nominate a nominee for such office. Where such a party nominee is unopposed each political party registered with the State Board of Election Commissioners shall have the privilege of nominating a candidate for the office involved. Such nominee shall be duly certified by the respective executive committee chairman. Within two (2) days after such nomination is made by the appropriate executive committee, such committee shall formally notify the Secretary of State of the name of the nominee. The Secretary of State shall thereupon officially notify the appropriate officials charged with conducting the election for the office wherein the vacancy occurred of the name of the nominee. All nominations made pursuant to the provisions of this section shall have the same force and effect and shall entitle the nominees to all rights and privileges that would accrue to them as if they had been nominated in the regular primary election.

“Legitimate nonpolitical reason” as used in this section shall be limited to the following:

(a) Reasons of health, which shall include any health condition which, in the written opinion of a medical doctor, would be harmful to the health of the candidate if he continued.

(b) Family crises, which shall include circumstances which would substantially alter the duties and responsibilities of the candidate to the family or to a family business.

(c) Substantial business conflict, which shall include the policy of an employer prohibiting employees being candidates for public offices and an employment change which would result in the ineligibility of the candidate or which would impair his capability to properly carry out the functions of the office being sought.

Any candidate who withdraws based upon a “legitimate nonpolitical reason” which is not covered by the above definition shall have the strict burden of proof for his reason.

A candidate who wishes to withdraw for a legitimate nonpolitical reason shall submit his reason by sworn affidavit. Such affidavit shall be filed with the state party chairman of the nominee’s party and the State Board of Election Commissioners. No substitution of candidates shall be authorized, except for death or disqualification, unless the State Board of Election Commissioners approves the affidavit as constituting a “legitimate nonpolitical reason” for the candidate’s resignation within five (5) days of the date the affidavit is submitted to the board.

Immediately upon approval or disapproval of such affidavit, the State Board of Election Commissioners shall notify the respective executive committee of same.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

The statute applies only where a candidate dies after the primary but prior to the general election. Upton v. McKenzie, 761 So. 2d 167 (Miss. 2000).

State political party acted in good faith in nominating candidate for state House of Representatives prior to primary election when one candidate died and the other withdrew for legitimate reason; statute permitting political party to fill vacancy in nomination technically applied only to candidates who withdraw after primary, but there was no provision that gave direction to party on how to proceed under facts presented, and there was no fact or circumstance in case that indicated any wrongful or fraudulent purpose in conduct of election. Cummings v. Benderman, 681 So. 2d 97 (Miss. 1996).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

The Democratic party was entitled to nominate a candidate in a deceased candidate's place, even though the candidate's death occurred prior to the primary election and not between the primary and general elections as stated in this section, where the deceased candidate was unopposed for the Democratic nomination which necessarily meant that there would be no Democratic primary election conducted for the office in question and, therefore, the deceased candidate was the Democratic nominee. Clark, March 11, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0132.

Where a candidate was killed after he had qualified and after the time for qualifying had ended, and was the sole qualifying candidate for office, and had been certified by the county Democratic executive committee, the county Democratic executive committee, and only the county Democratic executive committee, was empowered to nominate a nominee for the office. Long, July 16, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0345.

§ 23-15-333. Duties of county executive committee; order in which titles of various offices are to be listed on the ballot.

(1) The county executive committee shall have printed all necessary ballots, for use in primary elections. The county executive committee shall have printed all necessary absentee ballots forty-five (45) days prior to the election as required by law. The ballots shall contain the names of all the candidates to be voted for at such election, and there shall be left on each ballot one (1) blank space under the title of each office for which a nominee is to be elected; and in the event of the death of any candidate whose name shall have been printed on the ballot, the name of the candidate duly substituted in the place of the deceased candidate may be written in such blank space by the voter. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, the order in which the titles to the various offices shall be printed, and the size, print and quality of the paper of the ballot is left to the discretion of the county executive committee. Provided, however, that in all cases the arrangement of the names of the candidates for each office shall be alphabetical. No ballot shall be used except those so printed.

(2) The titles for the various offices shall be listed in the following order:

- (a) Candidates for national office;
- (b) Candidates for statewide office;
- (c) Candidates for state district office;
- (d) Candidates for legislative office;
- (e) Candidates for countywide office;
- (f) Candidates for county district office.

The order in which the titles for the various offices are listed within each of the categories listed in this subsection is left to the discretion of the county executive committee.

(3) The county executive committee shall also prepare full instructions for the guidance of electors at elections as to obtaining ballots, the manner of marking them, and the mode of obtaining new ballots in the place of those spoiled by accident. The instructions shall be printed in large, clear type on "Cards of Instruction," and the county executive committee shall furnish the same in sufficient numbers for the use of electors. The cards shall be preserved by the officers of election and returned by them to the county executive committee and they may be used, if applicable, in subsequent elections.

(4)(a) If it is eligible under Section 23-15-266, the county executive committee may enter into a written agreement with the circuit clerk or the county election commission authorizing the circuit clerk or the county election commission to perform any of the duties required of the county executive committee pursuant to this section. Any agreement entered into pursuant to this subsection shall be signed by the chairman of the county executive committee and the circuit clerk or the chairman of the county election commission, as appropriate. The county executive committee shall notify the State Executive Committee and the Secretary of State of the existence of such agreement.

(b) If it is eligible under Section 23-15-266, the municipal executive committee may enter into a written agreement with the municipal clerk or the municipal election commission authorizing the municipal clerk or the municipal election commission to perform any of the duties required of the municipal executive committee pursuant to this section. Any agreement entered into pursuant to this subsection shall be signed by the chairman of the municipal executive committee and the municipal clerk or the chairman of the municipal election commission, as appropriate. The municipal executive committee shall notify the State Executive Committee and the Secretary of State of the existence of such agreement.

§ 23-15-335. Duties of person designated by county executive committee to distribute ballots.

(1) The county executive committee shall designate a person whose duty it shall be to distribute all necessary ballots for use in a primary election, and shall designate one (1) among the managers at each polling place to receive and receipt for the blank ballots to be used at that place. When the blank ballots are delivered to a local manager, the distributor shall take from the local manager a receipt therefor signed in duplicate by both the distributor and the manager, one of which receipts the distributor shall deliver to the circuit clerk and the other shall be retained by the local manager and said last mentioned duplicate receipt shall be enclosed in the ballot box with the voted ballots when the polls have been closed and the votes have been counted. The printer of the ballots shall take a receipt from the distributor of the ballots for the total number of the blank ballots delivered to the distributor. The printer shall secure all ballots printed by him in such a safe manner that no person can procure them or any of them, and he shall deliver no blank ballot or ballots to any person except the distributor above mentioned, and then only upon his receipt therefor as above specified. The distributor of the blank ballots shall so securely hold the same that no person can obtain any of them, and he shall not deliver any of them to any person other than to the authorized local managers and upon their respective receipts therefor. The executive committee shall see to it that the total blank ballots delivered to the distributor, shall correspond with the total of the receipts executed by the local managers.

(2)(a) If it is eligible under Section 23-15-266, the county executive committee may enter into a written agreement with the circuit clerk or the county election commission authorizing the circuit clerk or the county election commission to perform any of the duties required of the county executive committee pursuant to this section. Any agreement entered into pursuant to this subsection shall be signed by the chairman of the county executive committee and the circuit clerk or the chairman of the county election commission, as appropriate. The county executive committee shall notify the State Executive Committee and the Secretary of State of the existence of such agreement.

(b) If it is eligible under Section 23-15-266, the municipal executive committee may enter into a written agreement with the municipal clerk or the municipal election commission authorizing the municipal clerk or the municipal election commission to perform any of the duties required of the municipal executive committee pursuant to this section. Any agreement entered into pursuant to this subsection shall be signed by the chairman of the municipal executive committee and the municipal clerk or the chairman of the municipal election commission, as appropriate. The municipal executive committee shall notify the State Executive Committee and the Secretary of State of the existence of such agreement.

(3) Any person charged with any of the duties prescribed in this section who shall willfully or with culpable carelessness violate the same shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

1.-5. [Reserved for future use.]

6. Under former Section 23-3-9.

In the absence of any charge of fraud, irregularity of any kind, and in the absence of any proof that the purity and integrity of the party primary election was violated, the fact that the ballots at one precinct were delivered to a party who was the wife and sister-in-law of those who were designated to be receiving managers but could not be located at the time of delivery, did not warrant or require the voiding of the election at that precinct. Galmore v. Washington, 254 So. 2d 885 (Miss. 1971).

Where there is a total departure from the mandatory provisions of the statute and it is not possible to ascertain the will of the electors because a substantial portion of the votes were void, a new election should be ordered for the purpose of ascertaining the voter's choice. May v. Layton, 213 Miss. 129, 55 So. 2d 460 (1951).

§ 23-15-359. Names of candidates to be printed on ballot; filing of petition for office; inapplicability of section to municipal elections; special elections; determination of candidate's qualifications; declaration of nominee in single candidate race.

[Until Laws of 2007, ch. 570 § 2, is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, this section will read as follows:]

(1) The ballot shall contain the names of all party nominees certified by the appropriate executive committee, and independent and special election candidates who have timely filed petitions containing the required signatures. A petition requesting that an independent or special election candidate's name be placed on the ballot for any office shall be filed as provided for in subsection (3) or (4) of this section, as appropriate, and shall be signed by not less than the following number of qualified electors:

(a) For an office elected by the state at large, not less than one thousand (1,000) qualified electors.

(b) For an office elected by the qualified electors of a Supreme Court district, not less than three hundred (300) qualified electors.

(c) For an office elected by the qualified electors of a congressional district, not less than two hundred (200) qualified electors.

(d) For an office elected by the qualified electors of a circuit or chancery court district, not less than one hundred (100) qualified electors.

(e) For an office elected by the qualified electors of a senatorial or representative district, not less than fifty (50) qualified electors.

(f) For an office elected by the qualified electors of a county, not less than fifty (50) qualified electors.

(g) For an office elected by the qualified electors of a supervisors district or justice court district, not less than fifteen (15) qualified electors.

(2) Unless the petition required above shall be filed as provided for in subsection (3) or (4) of this section, as appropriate, the name of the person requested to be a candidate, unless nominated by a political party, shall not be placed upon the ballot. The ballot shall contain the names of each candidate for each office, and such names shall be listed under the name of the political party such candidate represents as provided by law and as certified to the circuit clerk by the State Executive Committee of such political party. In the event such candidate qualifies as an independent as herein provided, he shall be listed on the ballot as an independent candidate.

(3) Petitions for offices described in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of subsection (1) of this section, and petitions for offices described in paragraph (e) of subsection (1) of this section for districts composed of more than one (1) county or parts of more than one (1) county, shall be filed with the State Board of Election Commissioners by no later than 5:00 p.m. on the same date by which candidates for nominations in the political party primary elections are required to pay the fee provided for in Section 23-15-297, Mississippi Code of 1972; however, no petition may be filed before January 1 of the year in which the election for the office is held.

(4) Petitions for offices described in paragraphs (f) and (g) of subsection (1) of this section, and petitions for offices described in paragraph (e) of subsection (1) of this section for districts composed of one (1) county or less, shall be filed with the proper circuit clerk by no later than 5:00 p.m. on the same date by which candidates for nominations in the political party elections are required to pay the fee provided for in Section 23-15-297; however, no petition may be filed before January 1 of the year in which the election for the office is held. The circuit clerk shall notify the county commissioners of election of all persons who have filed petitions with such clerk. Such notification shall occur within two (2) business days and shall contain all necessary information.

(5) The commissioners may also have printed upon the ballot any local issue election matter that is authorized to be held on the same date as the regular or general election pursuant to Section 23-15-375; however, the ballot form of such local issue must be filed with the commissioners of election by the appropriate governing authority not less than sixty (60) days previous to the date of the election.

(6) The provisions of this section shall not apply to municipal elections or to the election of the offices of justice of the Supreme Court, judge of the Court of Appeals, circuit judge, chancellor, county court judge and family court judge.

(7) Nothing in this section shall prohibit special elections to fill vacancies in either house of the Legislature from being held as provided in Section 23-15-851. In all elections conducted under the provisions of Section 23-15-851, the commissioner shall have printed on the ballot the name of any candidate who, not having been nominated by a political party, shall have been requested to be a candidate for any office by a petition filed with said commissioner by 5:00 p.m. not less than ten (10) working days prior to the election, and signed by not less than fifty (50) qualified electors.

(8) The appropriate election commission shall determine whether each candidate is a qualified elector of the state, state district, county or county district they seek to serve, and whether each candidate meets all other qualifications to hold the office he is seeking or presents absolute proof that he will, subject to no contingencies, meet all qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he could be elected to office. The election commission also shall determine whether any candidate has been convicted of any felony in a court of this state, or has been convicted on or after December 8, 1992, of any offense in another state which is a felony under the laws of this state, or has been convicted of any felony in a federal court on or after December 8, 1992. Excepted from the above are convictions of manslaughter and violations of the United States Internal Revenue Code or any violations of the tax laws of this state, unless the offense also involved misuse or abuse of his office or money coming into his hands by virtue of his office. If the appropriate election commission finds that a candidate either (a) is not a qualified elector, (b) does not meet all qualifications to hold the office he seeks and fails to provide absolute proof, subject to no contingencies, that he will meet the qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he could be elected, or (c) has been convicted of a felony as described in this subsection, and not pardoned, then the name of such candidate shall not be placed upon the ballot.

(9) If after the deadline to qualify as a candidate for an office or after the time for holding any party primary for an office, there shall be only one (1) person who has duly qualified to be a candidate for the office in the general election, the name of such person shall be placed on the ballot; provided, however, that if there shall be not more than one (1) person duly qualified to be a candidate for each office on the general election ballot, the election for all offices on the ballot shall be dispensed with and the appropriate election commission shall declare each candidate elected without opposition if the candidate meets all the qualifications to hold the office as determined pursuant to a review by the commission in accordance with the provisions of subsection (8) of this section and if the candidate has filed all required campaign finance disclosure reports as required by Section 23-15-807.

(10) The petition required by this section may not be filed by using the Internet.

[From and after the date Laws of 2007, ch. 570, § 2 is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, this section will read as follows:]

[Through June 30, 2008, this section shall read as follows:]

(1) The ballot shall contain the names of all party nominees certified by the appropriate executive committee, and independent and special election candidates who have timely filed petitions containing the required signatures. A petition requesting that an independent or special election candidate's name be placed on the ballot for any office shall be filed as provided for in subsection (3) or (4) of this section, as appropriate, and shall be signed by not less than the following number of qualified electors:

(a) For an office elected by the state at large, not less than one thousand (1,000) qualified electors.

(b) For an office elected by the qualified electors of a Supreme Court district, not less than three hundred (300) qualified electors.

(c) For an office elected by the qualified electors of a congressional district, not less than two hundred (200) qualified electors.

(d) For an office elected by the qualified electors of a circuit or chancery court district, not less than one hundred (100) qualified electors.

(e) For an office elected by the qualified electors of a senatorial or representative district, not less than fifty (50) qualified electors.

(f) For an office elected by the qualified electors of a county, not less than fifty (50) qualified electors.

(g) For an office elected by the qualified electors of a supervisors district or justice court district, not less than fifteen (15) qualified electors.

(2) Unless the petition required above shall be filed as provided for in subsection (3) or (4) of this section, as appropriate, the name of the person requested to be a candidate, unless nominated by a political party, shall not be placed upon the ballot. The ballot shall contain the names of each candidate for each office, and such names shall be listed under the name of the political party such candidate represents as provided by law and as certified to the circuit clerk by the State Executive Committee of such political party. In the event such candidate qualifies as an independent as provided in this section, he shall be listed on the ballot as an independent candidate.

(3) Petitions for offices described in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of subsection (1) of this section, and petitions for offices described in paragraph (e) of subsection (1) of this section for districts composed of more than one (1) county or parts of more than one (1) county, shall be filed with the State Board of Election Commissioners by no later than 5:00 p.m. on the same date by which candidates for nominations in the political party primary elections are required to pay the fee provided for in Section 23-15-297, Mississippi Code of 1972; however, no petition may be filed before January 1 of the year in which the election for the office is held.

(4) Petitions for offices described in paragraphs (f) and (g) of subsection (1) of this section, and petitions for offices described in paragraph (e) of subsection (1) of this section for districts composed of one (1) county or less, shall be filed with the proper circuit clerk by no later than 5:00 p.m. on the same date by which candidates for nominations in the political party elections are required to pay the fee provided for in Section 23-15-297; however, no petition may be filed before January 1 of the year in which the election for the office is held. The circuit clerk shall notify the county commissioners of election of all persons who have filed petitions with such clerk. Such notification shall occur within two (2) business days and shall contain all necessary information.

(5) The commissioners may also have printed upon the ballot any local issue election matter that is authorized to be held on the same date as the regular or general election pursuant to Section 23-15-375; however, the ballot form of such local issue must be filed with the commissioners of election by the appropriate governing authority not less than sixty (60) days previous to the date of the election.

(6) The provisions of this section shall not apply to municipal elections or to the election of the offices of justice of the Supreme Court, judge of the Court of Appeals, circuit judge, chancellor, county court judge and family court judge.

(7) Nothing in this section shall prohibit special elections to fill vacancies in either house of the Legislature from being held as provided in Section 23-15-851. In all elections conducted under the provisions of Section 23-15-851, there shall be printed on the ballot the name of any candidate who, not having been nominated by a political party, shall have been requested to be a candidate for any office by a petition filed with the State Board of Election Commissioners for districts composed of more than one (1) county or parts of more than one (1) county, or the proper circuit clerk for districts composed of one (1) county or less, by 5:00 p.m. on or before the date set in the writ of election as the qualifying deadline, and signed by not less than fifty (50) qualified electors.

(8) The appropriate election commission shall determine whether each candidate is a qualified elector of the state, state district, county or county district they seek to serve, and whether each candidate meets all other qualifications to hold the office he is seeking or presents absolute proof that he will, subject to no contingencies, meet all qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he could be elected to office. The election commission also shall determine whether any candidate has been convicted of any felony in a court of this state, or has been convicted on or after December 8, 1992, of any offense in another state which is a felony under the laws of this state, or has been convicted of any felony in a federal court on or after December 8, 1992. Excepted from the above are convictions of manslaughter and violations of the United States Internal Revenue Code or any violations of the tax laws of this state, unless the offense also involved misuse or abuse of his office or money coming into his hands by virtue of his office. If the appropriate election commission finds that a candidate either (a) is not a qualified elector, (b) does not meet all qualifications to hold the office he seeks and fails to provide absolute proof, subject to no contingencies, that he will meet the qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he could be elected, or (c) has been convicted of a felony as described in this subsection, and not pardoned, then the name of such candidate shall not be placed upon the ballot.

(9) If after the deadline to qualify as a candidate for an office or after the time for holding any party primary for an office, there shall be only one (1) person who has duly qualified to be a candidate for the office in the general election, the name of such person shall be placed on the ballot; provided, however, that if there shall be not more than one (1) person duly qualified to be a candidate for each office on the general election ballot, the election for all offices on the ballot shall be dispensed with and the appropriate election commission shall declare each candidate elected without opposition if the candidate meets all the qualifications to hold the office as determined pursuant to a review by the commission in accordance with the provisions of subsection (8) of this section and if the candidate has filed all required campaign finance disclosure reports as required by Section 23-15-807.

(10) The petition required by this section may not be filed by using the Internet.

[From and after July 1, 2008, this section shall read as follows:]

(1) The ballot shall contain the names of all party nominees certified by the appropriate executive committee, and independent and special election candidates who have timely filed petitions containing the required signatures. A petition requesting that an independent or special election candidate's name be placed on the ballot for any office shall be filed as provided for in subsection (3) or (4) of this section, as appropriate, and shall be signed by not less than the following number of qualified electors:

(a) For an office elected by the state at large, not less than one thousand (1,000) qualified electors.

(b) For an office elected by the qualified electors of a Supreme court district, not less than three hundred (300) qualified electors.

(c) For an office elected by the qualified electors of a congressional district, not less than two hundred (200) qualified electors.

(d) For an office elected by the qualified electors of a circuit or chancery court district, not less than one hundred (100) qualified electors.

(e) For an office elected by the qualified electors of a senatorial or representative district, not less than fifty (50) qualified electors.

(f) For an office elected by the qualified electors of a county, not less than fifty (50) qualified electors.

(g) For an office elected by the qualified electors of a supervisors district or justice court district, not less than fifteen (15) qualified electors.

(2) Unless the petition required above shall be filed as provided for in subsection (3) or (4) of this section, as appropriate, the name of the person requested to be a candidate, unless nominated by a political party, shall not be placed upon the ballot. The ballot shall contain the names of each candidate for each office, and such names shall be listed under the name of the political party such candidate represents as provided by law and as certified to the circuit clerk by the State Executive Committee of such political party. In the event such candidate qualifies as an independent as provided in this section, he shall be listed on the ballot as an independent candidate.

(3) Petitions for offices described in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of subsection (1) of this section, and petitions for offices described in paragraph (e) of subsection (1) of this section for districts composed of more than one (1) county or parts of more than one (1) county, shall be filed with the State Board of Election Commissioners by no later than 5:00 p.m. on the same date by which candidates for nominations in the political party primary elections are required to pay the fee provided for in Section 23-15-297, Mississippi Code of 1972; however, no petition may be filed before January 1 of the year in which the election for the office is held.

(4) Petitions for offices described in paragraphs (f) and (g) of subsection (1) of this section, and petitions for offices described in paragraph (e) of subsection (1) of this section for districts composed of one (1) county or less, shall be filed with the proper circuit clerk by no later than 5:00 p.m. on the same date by which candidates for nominations in the political party elections are required to pay the fee provided for in section 23-15-297; however, no petition may be filed before January 1 of the year in which the election for the office is held. The circuit clerk shall notify the county commissioners of election of all persons who have filed petitions with such clerk. Such notification shall occur within two (2) business days and shall contain all necessary information.

(5) The commissioners may also have printed upon the ballot any local issue election matter that is authorized to be held on the same date as the regular or general election pursuant to Section 23-15-375; however, the ballot form of such local issue must be filed with the commissioners of election by the appropriate governing authority not less than sixty (60) days previous to the date of the election.

(6) The provisions of this section shall not apply to municipal elections or to the election of the offices of justice of the Supreme Court, judge of the Court of Appeals, circuit judge, chancellor, county court judge and family court judge.

(7) Nothing in this section shall prohibit special elections to fill vacancies in either house of the Legislature from being held as provided in Section 23-15-851. In all elections conducted under the provisions of Section 23-15-851, there shall be printed on the ballot the name of any candidate who, not having been nominated by a political party, shall have been requested to be a candidate for any office by a petition filed with the State Board of Election Commissioners for districts composed of more than one (1) county or parts of more than one (1) county, or the proper circuit clerk for districts composed of one (1) county or less, by 5:00 p.m. on or before the date set in the writ of election as the qualifying deadline, and signed by not less than fifty (50) qualified electors.

(8) The appropriate election commission shall determine whether each candidate is a qualified elector of the state, state district, county or county district they seek to serve, and whether each candidate meets all other qualifications to hold the office he is seeking or presents absolute proof that he will, subject to no contingencies, meet all qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he could be elected to office. The election commission shall determine whether the candidate has taken the steps necessary to qualify for more than one (1) office at the election. The election commission also shall determine whether any candidate has been convicted of any felony in a court of this state, or has been convicted on or after December 8, 1992, of any offense in another state which is a felony under the laws of this state, or has been convicted of any felony in a federal court on or after December 8, 1992. Excepted from the above are convictions of manslaughter and violations of the United States Internal Revenue Code or any violations of the tax laws of this state, unless the offense also involved misuse or abuse of his office or money coming into his hands by virtue of his office. If the appropriate election commission finds that a candidate either (a) is not a qualified elector, (b) does not meet all qualifications to hold the office he seeks and fails to provide absolute proof, subject to no contingencies, that he will meet the qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he could be elected, or (c) has been convicted of a felony as described in this subsection, and not pardoned, then the name of such candidate shall not be placed upon the ballot. If the appropriate election commission determines that the candidate has taken the steps necessary to qualify for more than one (1) office at the election, the action required by Section 23-15-905, shall be taken.

(9) If after the deadline to qualify as a candidate for an office or after the time for holding any party primary for an office, there shall be only one (1) person who has duly qualified to be a candidate for the office in the general election, the name of such person shall be placed on the ballot; provided, however, that if there shall be not more than one (1) person duly qualified to be a candidate for each office on the general election ballot, the election for all offices on the ballot shall be dispensed with and the appropriate election commission shall declare each candidate elected without opposition if the candidate meets all the qualifications to hold the office as determined pursuant to a review by the commission in accordance with the provisions of subsection (8) of this section and if the candidate has filed all required campaign finance disclosure reports as required by Section 23-15-807.

(10) The petition required by this section may not be filed by using the Internet.

Joint Legislative Committee Note — Section 2 of ch. 570, Laws of 2007, effective from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended (approved April 21, 2007), amended this section. Section 4 of ch. 604, Laws of 2007, effective from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, or July 1, 2007, whichever occurs later (approved April 21, 2007), also amended this section. As set out above, this section reflects the language of Section 2 of ch. 570, Laws of 2007, which contains language that specifically provides that it supersedes § 23-15-359, as amended by Laws of 2007, ch. 604.

Editor's Note — The United States Attorney General, by letter dated September 6, 1994, interposed no objection, under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 1994, ch. 564, § 91.

Laws of 1999, ch. 432, § 1, provides that:

“SECTION 1. From and after the date Laws, 1999, ch. 432, is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, all family courts are abolished. All matters pending in any family court abolished shall be transferred to the county court of the county wherein the family court was located without the necessity for any motion or order of court for such transfer.”

Laws of 2007, ch. 570, §§ 3 and 4 provide:

“SECTION 3. The Attorney General of the State of Mississippi shall submit this act, immediately upon approval by the Governor, or upon approval by the Legislature subsequent to a veto, to the Attorney General of the United States or to the United States District Court for the District of Columbia in accordance with the provisions of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended.”

“SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended.”

Amendment Notes — The 2006 amendment added “however, no petition may be filed before January 1 of the year in which the election for the office is held” at the end of (3); and made minor stylistic changes.

The first 2007 amendment (ch. 570), provided for three versions of the section; in both the second version, which, from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, will be effective through June 30, 2008, and the third version, which, from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, will be effective from and after July 1, 2008, inserted “in this section” near the end of (2); substituted “there shall be printed” for “the commissioner shall have printed” and “filed with the State Board of Election Commissioners ... qualifying deadline” for “filed with said commissioner by 5:00 p.m. not less than ten (10) working days prior to the election,” in (7), and made minor stylistic changes; and in the third version, also added the second and last sentences (8).

The second 2007 amendment (ch. 604), provided for three version of the section; in the third version, which effective from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, or July 1, 2007, whichever occurs later, will be effective from and after July 1, 2008, added the second and last sentences in (8).

1. Where Candidate Resides.

Candidate was a qualified candidate for the position of justice court judge, even though the candidate did not live within the election subdistrict where the candidate wished to run for office. Montgomery v. Lowndes County Democratic Exec. Comm., — So. 2d —, 2007 Miss. LEXIS 329 (Miss. June 7, 2007).

6. Under former Section 23-5-133.

A candidate who ran in the first primary but withdrew from the second, run-off primary was not entitled to have his name placed upon the general election ballot, by petition, as an independent. Mississippi State Bd. of Election Comm'rs v. Meredith, 301 So. 2d 571 (Miss. 1974).

Section 5 of the Federal Voting Rights Act of 1965 [42 USCS 1973c] which prevents the enforcement of “any voting qualification or prerequisite to voting, or standard, practice or procedure with respect to voting” different from that in force and effect Nov. 1, 1964, unless the state or political subdivision complies with one of the section’s approval procedures, applied to the 1966 amendment to this section [Code 1942, § 3260], which (1) established a new rule that no person who had voted in a primary election might thereafter be placed on the ballot as an independent candidate in the general election; (2) changed the time for filing a petition as an independent candidate from 40 to 60 days before the general election; (3) increased the number of signatures of qualified electors needed for the independent qualifying petition; and (4) added a new provision that each qualifying elector who signed the independent qualifying petition had to personally sign the petition and include his polling precinct and county. Allen v. State Bd. of Elections, 393 U.S. 544, 89 S. Ct. 817, 22 L. Ed. 2d 1 (1969).

Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 (42 USC § 1973c) is applicable to the 1966 Amendment of this section [Code 1942, § 3260], and approval of that Amendment cannot be implemented until the approval of the Attorney General of the United States has been obtained. Allen v. State Bd. of Elections, 393 U.S. 544, 89 S. Ct. 817, 22 L. Ed. 2d 1 (1969).

This section [Code 1942, § 3260], directed solely to the qualifications of candidates, is not governed by the Federal Voting Rights Act of 1965. Whitley v. Johnson, 296 F. Supp. 754 (S.D. Miss. 1967).

Code 1942, § 3107 which provides a method whereby the state political party conventions may select two slates of presidential electors, one slate pledged to support the nominee of the national political party, and one slate unpledged offends no provision of the United States Constitution, for it expressly provides that nothing therein shall prohibit a slate of electors pledged to support the national party candidate from running on the same general election ballot, and this section [Code 1942, § 3260] enables such a slate to get on the ballot upon the petition of 1,000 voters. Gray v. State of Mississippi, 233 F. Supp. 139 (N.D. Miss. 1964).

Failure to place upon the ballot the name of one duly nominated by petition renders the election void. Bowen v. Williams, 238 Miss. 57, 117 So. 2d 710 (1960).

Participating in a primary election does not preclude one from becoming an independent candidate upon the petition of other participants. Bowen v. Williams, 238 Miss. 57, 117 So. 2d 710 (1960).

Power to determine whose name is entitled to appear upon the ballot is vested not in the ballot commissioner alone but in the commissioners as a body. State ex

rel. Rice v. Dillon, 197 Miss. 504, 19 So. 2d 918 (1944).

Omission of one of two candidates from ballot on special election for district supervisor, although he was entitled to have his name appear thereon by virtue of having substantially complied with this section [Code 1942, § 3260], invalidated the election. State ex rel. Rice v. Dillon, 197 Miss. 504, 19 So. 2d 918 (1944).

Although this section [Code 1942, § 3260] contemplates that the petition shall be presented to the ballot commissioner, this is merely directory and not mandatory. State ex rel. Rice v. Dillon, 197 Miss. 504, 19 So. 2d 918 (1944).

Each of the three commissioners is under duty to report and present to the commissioners as a body all petitions which have been duly presented to him. State ex rel. Rice v. Dillon, 197 Miss. 504, 19 So. 2d 918 (1944).

Prospective candidate for district supervisor substantially complied with requirements of this section [Code 1942, § 3260] so as to be entitled to have his name appear upon the ballot for special election to be held on January 25, where he presented his petition containing the names of more than 15 qualified electors of the district to one of the three county election commissioners at the latter's home shortly before sundown on January 10. State ex rel. Rice v. Dillon, 197 Miss. 504, 19 So. 2d 918 (1944).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

As long as the election date agreed upon by the city and the board of supervisors is not the date of the general election, then the sixty day notice requirement of the statute does not apply to the election authorized pursuant to House Bill 1868 in connection with a county-wide referendum on the additional assessment of sales tax on food and beverages. Entrekin, May 15, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0271.

§ 23-15-361. Names of municipal office candidates to be printed on ballot; filing of petition for municipal office; determination of candidate's qualifications; declaration of nominee in single candidate race.

(1) The municipal general election ballot shall contain the names of all candidates who have been put in nomination by the municipal primary election of any political party. There shall be printed on the ballots the names of all persons so nominated, whether the nomination be otherwise known or not, upon the written request of one or more of the candidates so nominated, or of any qualified elector who will make oath that he was a participant in the primary election, and that the person whose name is presented by him was nominated by such primary election. The municipal election commissioner designated to have the ballots printed shall also have printed on the ballot in any municipal general election the name of any candidate who, not having been nominated by a political party, shall have been requested to be a candidate for any office by a petition filed with the clerk of the municipality no later than 5:00 p.m. on the same date by which candidates for nomination in the municipal primary elections are required to pay the fee provided for in Section 23-15-309, and signed by not less than the following number of qualified electors:

(a) For an office elected by the qualified electors of a municipality having a population of one thousand (1,000) or more, not less than fifty (50) qualified electors.

(b) For an office elected by the qualified electors of a municipality having a population of less than one thousand (1,000), not less than fifteen (15) qualified electors.

(2) Unless the petition required above shall be filed no later than 5:00 p.m. on the same date by which candidates for nomination in the municipal primary election are required to pay the fee provided for in Section 23-15-309, the name of the person requested to be a candidate, unless nominated by a political party, shall not be placed upon the ballot. The ballot shall contain the names of each candidate for each municipal office, and such names shall be listed under the name of the political party such candidate represents as provided by law and as certified to the municipal clerk by the municipal executive committee of such political party. Provided further, however, that nothing in this section shall prohibit a person from qualifying as a nominee of a political party, or from requesting to be a candidate for the office by filing a petition, in the event of the death of a candidate for the office which makes it impossible to have an election contest. In the event such candidate qualifies as an independent as herein provided, he shall be listed on the ballot as an independent candidate.

(3) The clerk of the municipality shall notify the municipal commissioners of election of all persons who have filed petitions pursuant to subsection (1) of this section within two (2) business days of the date of filing.

(4) The ballot in elections to fill vacancies in municipal elective office shall contain the names of all persons who have qualified as required by Section 23-15-857.

(5) The municipal commission shall determine whether each party candidate in the municipal general election is a qualified elector of the municipality, and of the ward if the office sought is a ward office and shall determine whether each candidate either meets all other qualifications to hold the office he is seeking or presents absolute proof that he will, subject to no contingencies, meet all qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he could be elected to office. The municipal election commission also shall determine whether any candidate has been convicted of any felony in a court of this state, or has been convicted on or after December 8, 1992, of any offense in another state which is a felony under the laws of this state, or has been convicted of any felony in a federal court on or after December 8, 1992. Excepted from the above are convictions of manslaughter and violations of the United States Internal Revenue Code or any violations of the tax laws of this state unless such offense also involved misuse or abuse of his office or money coming into his hands by virtue of his office. If the municipal election commission finds that a candidate either (a) is not a qualified elector, (b) does not meet all qualifications to hold the office he seeks and fails to provide absolute proof, subject to no contingencies, that he will meet the qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he could be elected, or (c) has been convicted of a felony as described above and not pardoned, then the name of the candidate shall not be placed upon the ballot.

(6) If after the deadline to qualify as a candidate for an office or after the time for holding any party primary election for an office, there shall be only one (1) person who has duly qualified to be a candidate for the office in the general election the name of such person shall be placed on the ballot; provided, however, that if there shall be not more than one (1) person duly qualified to be a candidate for each office on the general election ballot, the election for all offices on the ballot shall be dispensed with and the municipal election commission shall declare each candidate elected without opposition if the candidate meets all the qualifications to hold the office as determined pursuant to a review by the commission in accordance with the provisions of subsection (5) of this section and if the candidate has filed all required campaign finance disclosure reports as required by Section 23-15-807.

An election commission's determination whether a person is qualified as a candidate is one of fact, and therefore final.

Powe v. Forrest County Election Comm'n, 249 Miss. 757, 163 So. 2d 656 (1964).

Mandamus will not lie to compel an election commission to place on the ballot the name of a person whom it has determined not to be qualified as a candidate. Powe v. Forrest County Election Comm'n, 249 Miss. 757, 163 So. 2d 656 (1964).

A county election commission has jurisdiction to determine the qualification as a candidate of persons certified to it as nominees of a political party. Powe v. Forrest County Election Comm'n, 249 Miss. 757, 163 So. 2d 656 (1964).

Omission of one of two candidates from ballot on special election for district supervisor, although he was entitled to have his name appear thereon by virtue of having substantially complied with Code 1942, § 3260, invalidated the election. State ex rel. Rice v. Dillon, 197 Miss. 504, 19 So. 2d 918 (1944).

Supreme Court judicially knows that general election at which Congressmen are to be elected will be held Tuesday, November 8, 1932, and that prior to antecedent 15 days it cannot be legally known by Secretary of State as to names to be printed on ballots. Wood v. State, 169 Miss. 790, 142 So. 747 (1932).

Person seeking nomination as political party's candidate at primary and defeated cannot have mandamus to get name placed on ticket. Election commissioners may be compelled to assemble and consider petition to put person's name on ticket, but their action cannot be controlled by mandamus. On adverse decision by election commissioners, petitioners to have name put on ticket should take bill of exceptions and appeal to circuit court. Ruhr v. Cowan, 146 Miss. 870, 112 So. 386 (1927).

Candidate for board of supervisors procuring name on ballot, on petition of insufficient number of electors, held not material irregularity. Hunt v. Mann, 136 Miss. 590, 101 So. 369 (1924).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

A write-in candidate is appropriate only when one has qualified as a candidate for a particular office and subsequently dies, resigns, withdraws, or is removed as a candidate. Hatcher, Mar. 23, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0163.

There shall be left on each ballot one (1) blank space under the title of each office to be voted for, and in the event of the death, resignation, withdrawal or removal of any candidate whose name shall have been printed on the official ballot, the name of the candidate duly substituted in the place of such candidate may be written in such blank space by the voter.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
- 2.-5. [Reserved for future use.]
6. Under former Section 23-5-137.

1. In general.

The statute does not allow for a write-in candidate only where there is one person qualified for a particular office and that one qualified person dies, resigns, withdraws or removes his or her name after the printing of the primary ballot; write-in candidates are also allowed if the death of a candidate occurs prior to the printing of the ballot. Upton v. McKenzie, 761 So. 2d 167 (Miss. 2000).

2.-5. [Reserved for future use.]6. Under former Section 23-5-137.

Votes cast at general election, by writing name on blank space, for one who was candidate at primary election but who was not nominated held illegal. May v. Young, 164 Miss. 35, 143 So. 703 (1932), overruled on other grounds, O'Neal v. Simpson, 350 So. 2d 998 (Miss. 1977).

That contestant's name was fraudulently kept off ballots did not authorize voters to write his name thereon. May v. Young, 164 Miss. 35, 143 So. 703 (1932), overruled on other grounds, O'Neal v. Simpson, 350 So. 2d 998 (Miss. 1977).

Voters may write name of candidate not nominated on the official ballot only in case of the death of a candidate. McKenzie v. Boykin, 111 Miss. 256, 71 So. 382 (1916).

This section [Code 1942, § 3262] is constitutional. McKenzie v. Boykin, 111 Miss. 256, 71 So. 382 (1916).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Where ballots were not printed for a primary election, this section was not invoked and there was no provision for the casting of write-in votes; therefore, any write-in votes cast in the primary election would not be valid. Shepard, June 4, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0263.

§ 23-15-369. Form and substance of proposed constitutional amendment or other public measure.

(1)(a) Whenever a constitutional amendment is submitted to the vote of the people, the substance of such amendment shall be printed in clear and unambiguous language on the ballot after the list of candidates, if any, followed by the word “YES” and also by the word “NO”, and shall be styled in such a manner that a “YES” vote will indicate approval of the proposal and a “NO” vote will indicate rejection.

(b) The substance of the amendment shall be an explanatory statement not exceeding seventy-five (75) words in length of the chief purpose of the measure. Such statement shall be prepared by the Legislature and included in the concurrent resolution proposing the amendment to the Constitution. The statement shall avoid, whenever possible, the use of legal terminology or jargon and shall use instead, simple, ordinary, everyday language. The Secretary of State shall give each proposed constitutional amendment a designating number for convenient reference. This number designation shall appear on the ballot. Designating numbers shall be assigned in the order of filing or certification of the amendments. The Secretary of State shall furnish the designating number and the substance of each amendment to the circuit clerk of each county in which such amendment is to be voted on.

(c) The full text of each proposed constitutional amendment shall be published by the Secretary of State as provided for in Section 7-3-39, Mississippi Code of 1972, and shall be posted prominently in all polling places, with copies of said proposed amendment to be otherwise available at each polling place.

(2) Except as may be otherwise provided in subsection (1) of this section, whenever any public measure, question or matter that requires an affirmative or negative vote is submitted to a vote of the electors, the measure or matter shall be printed on the ballot and also the words “FOR” or “AGAINST” to be so arranged by the proper officer so that the voter can intelligently vote his preference.

§ 23-15-375. Local issues.

Local issue elections may be held on the same date as any regular or general election. A local issue election held on the same date as the regular or general election shall be conducted in the same manner as the regular or general election using the same poll workers and the same equipment. A local issue may be placed on the regular or general election ballot pursuant to the provisions of Section 23-15-359, Mississippi Code of 1972. The provisions of this section and Section 23-15-359 with regard to local issue elections shall not be construed to affect any statutory requirements specifying the notice procedure and the necessary percentage of qualified electors voting in such an election which is needed for adoption of the local issue. Whether or not a local issue is adopted or defeated at a local issue election held on the same day as a regular or general election shall be determined in accordance with relevant statutory requirements regarding the necessary percentage of qualified electors who voted in such local issue election, and only those persons voting for or against such issue shall be counted in making that determination. As used in this section "local issue elections" include elections regarding the issuance of bonds, local option elections, elections regarding the levy of additional ad valorem taxes and other similar elections authorized by law that are called to consider issues that affect a single local governmental entity. As used in this section "local issue" means any issue that may be voted on in a local issue election.

23-15-391. Voting machines, electronic voting systems, optical mark reading equipment, or direct recording electronic voting equipment to be used unless paper ballot will be less expensive.

23-15-393. In counties having a population of greater than 250,000, the number of voting machines used in each voting precinct to be distributed in direct proportion to voter turnout in elections in preceding two years; such counties to create special fund to deposit monies received for reimbursement under "Help America Vote Act of 2002; use of monies deposited to upgrade direct recording electronic voting equipment."

§ 23-15-391. Voting machines, electronic voting systems, optical mark reading equipment, or direct recording electronic voting equipment to be used unless paper ballot will be less expensive.

The board of supervisors of each county in the State of Mississippi shall utilize voting machines, electronic voting systems, optical mark reading equipment or direct recording electronic voting equipment which shall comply with the specifications provided by law. The election commissioners may designate elections to be administered by paper ballot where the election commissioners determine that administration of an election by paper ballot will be less expensive than administration of the same election by voting machines, electronic voting systems, optical mark reading equipment or direct recording electronic voting equipment.

§ 23-15-401. Definitions.

The list of candidates used or to be used on the front of the voting machines for a voting precinct in which a voting machine is used pursuant to law shall be deemed official ballots under this chapter. The word "ballot" as used in this chapter (except when reference is made to irregular ballots) means that portion of the cardboard or paper or other material within the ballot frames containing the name of the candidate and the designation of the party by which he was nominated, or a statement of a proposed constitutional amendment, or other question or proposition, with the word "YES" for voting for any question or proposition, and the word "NO" for voting against any question. The term "question" shall mean any constitutional amendment, proposition, or other question submitted to the voters at any election. The term "official ballot" shall mean the printed strips of cardboard containing the names of the candidates nominated and a statement of the questions submitted. The term "irregular ballot" shall mean a vote cast, by or on a special device, for a person whose name does not appear on the ballots. The term "voting machine custodian" shall mean the person who shall have charge of preparing and arranging the voting machine for elections. The term "protective counter" shall mean a separate counter built into the voting machine which cannot be reset, which records the total number of movements of the operating lever. The term "officials in charge of the election" shall mean the state election commissioners, the county election commissioners, the county executive committee, the municipal election commissioners, the municipal executive committee, or any other official or officials empowered by law or who may in the future be empowered by law to hold an election.

§ 23-15-403. Authority to purchase or rent voting machines; construction of voting machines.

The board of supervisors of any county in the State of Mississippi and the governing authorities of any municipality in the State of Mississippi are hereby authorized and empowered, in their discretion, to purchase or rent any voting machine or machines which shall be so constructed as to fulfill the following requirements: It shall secure to the voter secrecy in the act of voting; it shall provide facilities for voting for all candidates of as many political parties or organizations as may make nominations, and for or against as many questions as submitted; it shall, except at primary elections, permit the voter to vote for all the candidates of one party or in the part for the candidates of one or more other parties; it shall permit the voter to vote for as many persons for an office as he is lawfully entitled to vote for, but not more; it shall prevent the voter from voting for the same person more than once for the same office; it shall permit the voter to vote for or against any question he may have the right to vote on, but no other; if used in primary elections, it shall be so equipped that the election officials can lock out all rows except those of the voter's party by a single adjustment on the outside of the machine; it shall correctly register or record and accurately count all votes cast for any and all persons and for or against any and all questions; it shall be provided with a "protective counter" or "protective device" whereby any operation of the machine before or after the election will be detected; it shall be provided with a counter which shall show at all times during an election how many persons have voted; it shall be provided with a mechanical model, illustrating the manner of voting on the machine, suitable for the instruction of voters; it may also be provided with one (1) device for each party, for voting for all the presidential electors of that party by one (1) operation, and a ballot therefor containing only the words "Presidential Electors For" preceded by the name of that party and followed by the names of the candidates thereof for the offices of President and Vice-President, and a registering device therefor which shall register the vote cast for said electors when thus voted collectively; provided, however, that means shall be furnished whereby the voter can cast a vote for individual electors when permitted to do so by law.

§ 23-15-405. Use of voting machines.

Whenever the board of supervisors of any county or the governing authorities of any municipality shall purchase or rent voting machines that meet the requirements of this article, such voting machines may be used at all elections held in such county or municipality, or in any part thereof, for voting, registering and counting votes cast at such elections. In providing voting machines, the board of supervisors is hereby empowered to purchase or rent voting machines for each voting precinct in the entire county, including those located within the municipality, or, in the discretion of the board, voting machines may be purchased or rented only for those voting precincts located outside the limits of the municipalities located in said county. The board of supervisors of any county and the governing authorities of any municipality may jointly purchase or rent voting machines for all of the voting precincts in the entire county. Whenever voting machines have been purchased or rented by either the board of supervisors or the governing authorities of a municipality, for use at voting precincts within the county or within the municipality, said voting machines may be used at said voting precincts in all elections, and the officials in charge of the election to be held shall cause the voting machines to be prepared and used at such election as provided for herein. Voting machines of different kinds may be adopted for different counties within the state.

Voting machines may be used in combination with paper ballots in any election at the discretion of and under rules and regulations set up by the officials in charge of the election.

§ 23-15-415. Preparation and protection of voting machines.

It shall be the duty of the authorities in charge of any election where a voting machine is to be used, to have the machine at the proper polling place or places before the time fixed for opening of the polls, and the counters set at zero, and otherwise in good and proper order for use at such election. For the purpose of placing ballots in the ballot frames of the machine, putting it in order, setting, testing and adjusting and delivering the machine, the authorities in charge of elections may employ one or more competent persons, to be known as custodian or custodians of voting machines, who shall be fully competent, thoroughly instructed, and sworn to perform his duties honestly and faithfully, and for such purpose shall be appointed and instructed at least thirty (30) days before the election. All voting machines to be used in an election shall be properly prepared at least three (3) days prior to the election day. When a voting machine has been properly prepared for election, it shall be locked against voting and sealed; and the keys thereof shall be delivered to the registrar, together with a written report made by the custodian or official preparing the machine, stating that it is in every way properly prepared for the election. After the voting machine has been transferred to the polling place, it shall be the duty of the managers to provide ample protection against molestation or injury to the machine. All voting machines used in any election shall be provided with a screen, hood or curtain which shall be so made and adjusted as to conceal the voter and his action while voting.

§ 23-15-417. Instruction of election managers and clerks.

At least twenty-one (21) days before each election, the officials in charge of the elections shall appoint one or more persons to instruct the managers and clerks that are to serve in a voting precinct in the use of the machine, and in their duties in connection therewith; and he shall give to each manager and clerk, who has received such instruction and is fully qualified to properly conduct the election with the machine, a certificate to that effect. For the purpose of giving such instruction, the person or persons appointed as instructors shall call such meeting or meetings of the managers and clerks as shall be necessary. Such person shall, within five (5) days, file a report with the officials in charge of the elections, stating that he has instructed the managers and clerks, giving the names of such officers, and the time and place where such instruction was given. The managers and clerks of each voting precinct in which a voting machine is to be used shall attend such meeting, or meetings, as shall be called for the purpose of receiving such instruction concerning their duties as shall be necessary for the proper conduct of the election with the machine. No manager or clerk shall serve in any election at which a voting machine is used, unless he shall have received such instruction and is fully qualified to perform the duties in connection with the machine, and has received a certificate to that effect, provided, however, that this shall not prevent the appointment of a person as a manager or clerk to fill a vacancy in an emergency.

Prior to the opening of the polls, the managers and clerks of each voting precinct shall meet at the polling place at the time set for opening of the polls, at each election, and shall proceed to arrange the furniture, stationery and voting machine for the conduct of the election. The keys to the voting machines shall be delivered to the managers before the time set for opening the polls, in a sealed envelope, on which shall be written or printed the number and location of the voting machine, and the number of the seal and the number registered on the protective counter or device, as reported by the custodian or official preparing the machine. Before opening the envelope, all managers and clerks present shall examine the number on the seal on the machine, also the number registered on the protective counter, and shall see if they are the same as the number written on the envelope; and if they are not the same, the machine must not be opened until the custodian, or other authorized person, shall have been notified and shall have presented himself at the polling place for the purpose of re-examining such machine and shall certify that it is properly arranged.

If the numbers on the envelope are the same as those on the machine, the election officers shall proceed to open the doors concealing the counters, and each officer shall carefully examine every counter and see that it registers zero, and the same shall be subject to the inspection of official watchers. The machine shall remain locked against voting until the polls are formally opened, and shall not be operated except by voters in voting. If any counter is found not to register zero, the manager shall immediately notify the officials in charge of the election or the custodian, who shall, if practicable, adjust the counters at zero; but if it shall be impracticable to so adjust such counters before the time set for opening the polls, the managers shall immediately make a written statement of the designating letter and number of such counter, together with the number registered thereon, and shall sign and post same upon the wall of the polling room, where it shall remain throughout election day, and, in filling out the statement of canvass, they shall subtract such number from the number then registered thereon.

§ 23-15-441. Closing polls; reading and announcing vote; statements of canvass.

Immediately upon the close of the polls, the managers shall lock and seal the voting machine against further voting and open the counter compartment in the presence of the persons who may be lawfully present at that time, giving full view of the counters. The manager shall then, in the order of the offices as their titles are arranged on the machine, read and announce in distinct tones the result as shown by the counters and shall then read the votes recorded for each office on the irregular ballots; he shall also, in the same manner, read and announce the vote on each constitutional amendment, proposition or other question. As each vote is read and announced, it shall be recorded on two (2) statements of canvass by the two (2) clerks, and, when completed, shall be compared with the numbers on the counters of the machine. If found to be correct, the statements of canvass, after being duly certified and sworn to, shall be filed as now provided by law for filing election returns. After the reading and announcing of the vote, and before the doors of the counter compartment of the voting machine shall be closed, ample opportunity shall be given to any person or persons lawfully present to compare the results so announced with the counters of the machine and any necessary corrections shall then and there be made by the managers or clerks. There shall be furnished two (2) copies of a statement of canvass to conform to the requirements of the voting machine or machines being used.

§ 23-15-443. Locking counter compartment; securing irregular ballots.

The managers and clerks shall, as soon as the count is completed and fully ascertained, lock the counter compartment, and it shall so remain for a period of thirty (30) days or until it must be prepared for use in another election, except it be ordered opened by a court of competent jurisdiction. Whenever irregular ballots of whatever description have been voted, the managers and clerks shall return all such ballots in a properly secured package endorsed "IRREGULAR BALLOTS" and return and file such package with the original statement of the result of the election made by them. Said package shall be preserved for six (6) months next succeeding such election, and it shall not be opened or its contents examined during that time except by court order. At the end of said six (6) months, said package may be opened and said ballots disposed of at the discretion of the registrar.

§ 23-15-445. Securing keys to voting machines; storing machines.

The keys of the machine shall be enclosed in an envelope to be supplied by the registrar on which shall be written the number of the machine and the voting precinct and ward where it has been used, which envelope shall be securely sealed and endorsed by the manager, and shall be returned to the officer from whom the keys were received. The number on the seal and the number registered on the protective counter shall be written on the envelope containing the keys. All keys for voting machines shall be kept securely locked by the registrar having them in charge. It shall be unlawful for any unauthorized person to have in his possession any key or keys of any voting machine, and all election officers or persons entrusted with such keys for election purposes, or in the preparation therefor, shall not retain them longer than necessary to use them for such legal purposes. All machines shall be stored as soon after the close of the election as possible, and the machines shall at all times be stored in a suitable place.

§ 23-15-461. Definitions.

As used in this subarticle, unless otherwise specified:

(a) “Automatic tabulating equipment” includes apparatus necessary to automatically examine and count votes as designated on ballots or ballot cards and tabulate the results.

(b) “Ballot card” means a tabulating card on which votes may be recorded by means of punching or marking.

(c) “Ballot labels” means the cards, papers, booklet, pages or other material, containing the names of offices and candidates and the statements of measures to be voted on, which are placed on the voting device.

(d) “Ballot” means a paper ballot on which votes are recorded, or alternatively may mean ballot cards and ballot labels.

(e) “Chad” means the part of a ballot card that is designed to be punched out by the voter.

(f) “Counting center” means one or more locations used for the automatic counting of ballots.

(g) “Electronic voting system” means a system in which votes are recorded on a paper ballot or ballot cards by means of marking or punching, and such votes are subsequently counted and tabulated by automatic tabulating equipment at one or more counting centers.

(h) “Voting device” means an apparatus which the voter uses to record his votes by marking or punching a hole in a paper ballot or tabulating card, which votes are subsequently counted by electronic tabulating equipment.

Law Reviews. Mississippi election

§ 23-15-463. Authority to purchase or rent electronic voting system and to change boundaries of precinct within which system is used; applicable law; absentee ballots.

The board of supervisors of any county in the State of Mississippi and the governing authorities of any municipality in the State of Mississippi are hereby authorized and empowered, in their discretion, to purchase or rent voting devices and automatic tabulating equipment used in an electronic voting system which meets the requirements of Section 23-15-465, and may use such system in all or a part of the precincts within its boundaries, or in combination with paper ballots in any election or primary. It may enlarge, consolidate or alter the boundaries of precincts where an electronic voting system is used. The provisions of Sections 23-15-461 through 23-15-485 shall be controlling with respect to elections where an electronic voting system is used, and shall be liberally construed so as to carry out the purpose of this chapter. The provisions of the election law relating to the conduct of elections with paper ballots, insofar as they are applicable and not inconsistent with the efficient conduct of elections with electronic voting systems, shall apply. Absentee ballots shall be voted as now provided by law.

§ 23-15-465. Construction of electronic voting system.

No electronic voting system, consisting of a marking or voting device in combination with automatic tabulating equipment, shall be acquired or used in accordance with Sections 23-15-461 through 23-15-485 unless it shall:

(a) Provide for voting in secrecy when used with voting booths;

(b) Permit each voter to vote at any election for all persons and offices for whom and for which he is lawfully entitled to vote; to vote for as many persons for an office as he is entitled to vote for; to vote for or against any question upon which he is entitled to vote; and the automatic tabulating equipment shall reject choices recorded on his ballot card or paper ballot if the number of choices exceeds the number which he is entitled to vote for the office or on the measure;

(c) Permit each voter, at presidential elections, by one (1) mark or punch to vote for the candidates of that party for President, Vice-President, and their presidential electors, or to vote individually for the electors of his choice when permitted by law;

(d) Permit each voter, at other than primary elections, to vote for the nominees of one or more parties and for independent nominees;

(e) Permit each voter to vote for candidates only in the primary in which he is qualified to vote;

(f) Permit each voter to vote for persons whose names are not on the printed ballot or ballot labels;

(g) Prevent the voter from voting for the same person more than once for the same office;

(h) Be suitably designed for the purpose used, of durable construction, and may be used safely, efficiently and accurately in the conduct of elections and counting ballots;

(i) Be provided with means for sealing the voting or marking device against any further voting after the close of the polls and the last voter has voted;

(j) When properly operated, record correctly and count accurately every vote cast;

(k) Be provided with a mechanical model for instructing voters, and be so constructed that a voter may readily learn the method of operating it;

(l) Be safely transportable, and include a light to enable voters to read the ballot labels and instructions.

§ 23-15-467. Use of voting equipment.

Whenever the board of supervisors of any county or the governing authorities of any municipality shall purchase or rent voting equipment that meets the requirements of this chapter, such voting equipment may be used at all elections held in such county or municipality, or in any part thereof, for voting, registering, or counting votes cast at such elections as provided by Section 23-15-405 with respect to voting machines.

§ 23-15-469. Form of ballots and ballot labels; posting of sample ballots and instructions; write-in ballots.

Ballots and ballot labels shall, as far as practicable, be in the same order of arrangement as provided for paper ballots, except that such information may be printed in vertical or horizontal rows, or in a number of separate pages which are placed on the voting device. Ballot labels shall be printed in plain clear type in black ink and upon clear white materials of such size and arrangement as to fit the construction of the voting device. Arrows may be printed on the ballot labels to indicate the place to punch the ballot card, which may be to the right or left of the names of candidates and propositions. The titles of offices may be arranged in vertical columns or on a series of separate pages, and shall be printed above or at the side of the names of candidates so as to indicate clearly the candidates for each office and the number to be elected. In case there are more candidates for an office than can be printed in one (1) column or on one (1) ballot page, the ballot or ballot label shall be clearly marked that the list of candidates is continued on the following column or page, and, so far as possible, the same number of names shall be printed on each column or page. The names of candidates for each office shall be printed in vertical columns or on separate pages, grouped by the offices which they seek. In partisan elections, the party designation of each candidate, which may be abbreviated, shall be printed following his name.

Two (2) sample ballots, which shall be facsimile copies of the official ballot or ballot labels, and instructions to voters, shall be provided for each precinct and shall be posted in each polling place on election day.

Sample ballots may be printed on a single page or on a number of pages stapled together. A separate write-in ballot, which may be in the form of a paper ballot, card or envelope in which the voter places his ballot card after voting, shall be provided if required to permit voters to write in the title of the office and the name of a person not on the printed ballot for whom he wishes to vote.

§ 23-15-471. Preparation and delivery of necessary forms and supplies.

The official ballots, ballot labels, ballot cards, sample ballots and other necessary forms and supplies of the form and description required by this chapter or required for the conduct of elections with an electronic voting system shall be prepared and furnished by the same officials, in the same manner and time, and delivered to the same officials as provided by law with respect to paper ballots. If ballot cards are used, each card shall have a serially numbered stub which shall be removed in the presence of an election officer by the voter before being deposited in the ballot box.

§ 23-15-473. Storage, maintenance and repair of voting devices; use of unofficial ballots when device malfunctions.

The circuit court clerk shall be the custodian of voting devices acquired by a county, who shall be charged with the proper storage, maintenance and repair of voting devices, and the preparation of them for voting prior to elections. After they have been prepared for an election and at least three (3) days prior thereto, the voting devices shall be available for public inspection at a time and place designated by the custodian. Thereafter they shall be locked or sealed before delivery to the managers of the election. The custodian shall immediately repair, replace or remove any voting device which fails to function properly on election day. The clerk of any municipality which acquires voting devices shall be the custodian of such voting devices and perform the same functions.

If a voting device at a polling place malfunctions and cannot be repaired or replaced quickly and there is no other device in the polling place that can be used to perform the function of the device that malfunctions, unofficial ballots made as nearly as possible in the form of the official ballot may be used until the voting device is repaired or replaced. Such ballots shall be received by the managers and placed by them in a receptacle in such case to be provided by the managers, and counted with the votes registered on the voting device; and the result shall be declared the same as though there had been no accident to the voting device; the ballots thus voted shall be preserved and returned as herein directed, with a certificate or statement setting forth how and why the same were voted.

§ 23-15-475. Instruction of polling officers; public display of voting devices.

Prior to each election, the officials in charge of the election shall provide for the instruction of the polling officers in their duties as provided in Section 23-15-417 with respect to voting machines, and shall place voting devices on public display at such times and places as they may determine for the education of voters in their use.

§ 23-15-477. Opening and closing polls; instructing voters; spoiled ballots.

Not less than thirty (30) minutes before the opening of the polls, the voting precinct election officers shall arrive at the polling place and set up the voting booths so that they will be in clear view of the election officers; open the voting devices, place them in the voting booths, and examine them to see that they have the correct ballot labels by comparing them with the sample ballots, and are in proper working order; and open and check the ballots, ballot cards, supplies, records and forms, and post the sample ballots and instructions to voters. Each voter shall be instructed how to operate the voting device before he enters the voting booth. If he needs additional instruction after entering the voting booth, two (2) election officers may, if necessary, enter the booth and give him such additional instructions. Any voter who spoils his ballot or ballot card may return it and secure another. The word "SPOILED" shall be written across the face of the ballot and it shall be placed in the envelope for spoiled ballots. If ballot cards are used, the voter, after he has marked his ballot card, shall remove the stub in the presence of the election officer, and deposit the ballot card inside the ballot box. No ballot from which the stub has been detached without the presence of the election officer shall be accepted by the judge in charge of the ballot box, but it shall be marked "SPOILED" and placed with the spoiled ballots. As soon as the polls have been closed and the last qualified voter has voted, the voting devices shall be sealed against further voting. All unused ballots or ballot cards shall be placed in a container which shall be sealed and returned to the officials in charge of the election.

§ 23-15-479. Report of voters; sealing and delivery of ballot box; return of records and supplies.

The managers shall prepare a report in duplicate of the number of voters who have voted, as indicated by the poll list, and shall place this report in the ballot box, which thereupon shall be sealed with a paper seal signed by the managers so that no additional ballots may be deposited or removed from the ballot box. Two (2) managers shall forthwith deliver the ballot box to the counting center or other designated place and receive a signed, numbered receipt therefor. The poll list, register of voters, unused ballots and ballot cards, spoiled ballots, and other records and supplies, shall be returned as directed by the officials in charge of the election.

§ 23-15-481. Testing of tabulating equipment.

Prior to the start of the count of the ballots, the commissioners of elections, in conjunction with the circuit clerks or officials in charge of the election shall have the automatic tabulating equipment tested to ascertain that it will accurately count the votes cast for all offices and on all measures. Public notice of the time and place of the test shall be given at least forty-eight (48) hours prior thereto by publication once in one or more daily or weekly newspapers published in the county, city or jurisdiction where such equipment is used, if a newspaper is published therein, otherwise in a newspaper of general circulation therein. The test shall be witnessed by representatives of the political parties, candidates, the press and the public. It shall be conducted by processing a pre-audited group of ballots so punched or marked as to record a predetermined number of valid votes for each candidate and on each measure, and shall include for each office one or more ballots which have votes in excess of the number allowed by law in order to test the ability of the automatic tabulating equipment to reject such votes. If any error is detected, the cause therefor shall be ascertained and corrected and an errorless count shall be made and certified to by the officials in charge before the count is started. The tabulating equipment shall pass the same test at the conclusion of the count before the election returns are approved as official. On completion of the count, the programs, test materials and ballots shall be sealed and retained as provided for paper ballots.

§ 23-15-483. Counting vote.

(1) All proceedings at the counting center shall be under the direction of the commissioners of elections or officials in charge of the election, and shall be conducted under the observation of the public, but no persons except those authorized for the purpose shall touch any ballot or ballot card or return. All persons who are engaged in processing and counting of the ballots shall be deputized in writing and take an oath that they will faithfully perform their assigned duties. Persons assigned to operate the automatic tabulating equipment shall submit evidence satisfactory to the commissioners of elections or officials in charge of the elections of their qualifications to operate said equipment.

(2) The commissioners of elections or the officials in charge of the election shall appoint qualified electors of the county to serve as judges on a resolution board in the manner provided in Section 23-15-523 to review all ballots that have been rejected by the electronic voting system tabulating equipment and are damaged or defective. An odd number of members shall be appointed to the resolution board.

(3)(a) If any ballot is damaged or defective so that it cannot be properly counted by the automatic tabulating equipment, the ballot shall be deposited in an envelope provided for that purpose marked "RESOLUTION BOARD." All such ballots shall be carefully handled so as to avoid disturbing any chad or mark on the ballot.

(b) The commissioners of election or officials in charge of the election shall direct the judges or the resolution board to manually count any damaged or defective ballots, who shall determine the intent of the voter and record the vote consistent with this determination.

(c) As an alternative to the procedure provided for in paragraph (b) of this subsection, the resolution board may be instructed by the officials in charge of the election to prepare a duplicate to the damaged or defective ballot in the following manner:

(i) The resolution board shall prepare a duplicate to the original damaged or defective ballot marked identically to the original.

(ii) The resolution board shall mark the first original they examine as "Original #1" and the duplicate of this original as "Duplicate #1." Subsequent originals and duplicates shall be likewise marked and numbered consecutively so the duplicate of each original can be identified. Duplicate ballots may be printed in a different color from the original ballots so that they may be easily distinguished for the originals.

(iii) The duplicate ballots prepared pursuant to this paragraph shall be counted by the electronic tabulating equipment.

(4) If the resolution board is directed to manually count damaged or defective ballots, the board shall examine each damaged or defective ballot and determine the intent of the voter. A vote on a ballot in which a hole is punched by the voter to indicate a vote shall not be counted unless:

(a) At least two (2) corners of the chad are detached;

(b) Light is visible through the hole;

(c) An indentation on the chad from the stylus or other object is clearly present and indicates a clearly ascertainable intent of the voter to vote; or

(d) The chad reflects by other means a clearly ascertainable intent of the voter to vote based on the totality of the ballot.

(5) All ballots that are rejected by the automatic tabulating equipment and which contain overvotes shall be inspected by the resolution board. In cases in which a ballot appearing to contain overvotes is reviewed by the resolution board, the board shall apply the following standards in determining the intent of the voter:

(a) When an elector casts more votes for any office or measure than the voter is entitled to cast, all the elector's votes for that office or measure are invalid and the voter shall be deemed to have voted for none of them.

(b) In an election for President of the United States, if the voter votes for both the candidates for president and vice president of the United States from the same party ticket or independent candidate choices, if such option is available to the voter due to the design of the electronic voting system ballot, then the vote is counted as a single vote for the joint candidates for president and vice president.

(6) Subsections (2) and (3) of this section shall not supercede any clearly ascertainable intent of the voter.

(7) If for any reason it becomes impractical to count all or a part of the ballots with the automatic tabulating equipment, the officials in charge of the election may direct that the ballots be counted manually and voter intent shall be determined by following the provisions of subsections (2), (3) and (4) of this section in cases of overvoted ballots or those appearing to be blank.

(8) The return printed by the automatic tabulating equipment, to which have been added the ballots that have been manually counted and which has been duly certified by the officials in charge of the election, shall constitute the official return of each voting precinct or supervisors district. Unofficial and incomplete returns may be released during the count. Upon completion of the count, the official returns shall be open to the public.

(9) Automatic tabulating equipment shall be programmed, calibrated, adjusted and set up to reject ballot cards that appear to be damaged or defective. Any switch, lever or feature on automatic tabulating equipment that enables or permits the automatic tabulating equipment to override the rejection of damaged or defective ballot cards so that such cards will not be reviewed by the resolution board shall not be utilized.

(10) Ballots shall be manually counted by the resolution board only when the ballots are:

(a) Properly before the resolution board due to being rejected by the automatic tabulating equipment because the ballots appear to be damaged or defective or are rejected by the automatic tabulating equipment for any other reason; or

(b) Properly before the resolution board due to a malfunction in the automatic tabulating equipment.

(11) The resolution board shall make and keep a record regarding the handling and counting of all ballots inspected under this section.

TRAINING ON USE OF ELECTRONIC VOTING EQUIPMENT

SEC.

23-15-491. Commissioners of election authorized to sponsor and conduct training sessions to educate qualified electors regarding operation of electronic voting systems; compensation. [Repealed effective July 1, 2009].

§ 23-15-491. Commissioners of election authorized to sponsor and conduct training sessions to educate qualified electors regarding operation of electronic voting systems; compensation. [Repealed effective July 1, 2009].

(1) The commissioners of election of each county, in conjunction with the circuit clerk, may sponsor and conduct training sessions to educate qualified electors regarding the operation of electronic voting systems authorized pursuant to Section 23-15-461 et seq. at such times and locations as may be determined by the commissioners of election.

(2) Subject to the following annual limitations, the commissioners of election shall be entitled to receive a per diem in the amount of Eighty-four Dollars ($84.00), to be paid from the county general fund, for every day or period of no less than five (5) hours accumulated over two (2) or more days actually employed in the performance of their duties for the necessary time spent in conducting training sessions as required in subsection (1) of this section:

(a) In counties having less than fifteen thousand (15,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census, not more than five (5) days per year;

(b) In counties having fifteen thousand (15,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census but less than thirty thousand (30,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census, not more than six (6) days per year;

(d) In counties having seventy thousand (70,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census but less than ninety thousand (90,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census, not more than eight (8) days per year;

(e) In counties having ninety thousand (90,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census but less than one hundred seventy thousand (170,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census, not more than nine (9) days per year;

(f) In counties having one hundred seventy thousand (170,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census but less than two hundred thousand (200,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census, not more than ten (10) days per year;

(g) In counties having two hundred thousand (200,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census but less than two hundred twenty-five thousand (225,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census, not more than eleven (11) days per year;

(h) In counties having two hundred twenty-five thousand (225,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census but less than two hundred fifty thousand (250,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census, not more than twelve (12) days per year;

(i) In counties having two hundred fifty thousand (250,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census but less than two hundred seventy-five thousand (275,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census, not more than thirteen (13) days per year;

(j) In counties having two hundred seventy-five thousand (275,000) residents according to the latest federal decennial census or more, not more than fourteen (14) days per year.

(3) Commissioners of election shall claim the per diem authorized in this section in the manner provided for in Section 23-15-153(6).

(4) This section shall stand repealed from and after July 1, 2009.

§ 23-15-503. Definitions.

As used in this subarticle, unless otherwise specified:

(a) “OMR” means optical mark reading.

(b) “Optical mark reading equipment (OMR)” means any apparatus necessary to automatically examine and count votes as designated on paper ballots.

(c) “Counting center” means one or more locations used for the automatic counting of ballots.

(d) “Electronic voting systems” means a system in which votes are recorded on a paper ballot by means of marking, and such votes are subsequently counted and tabulated by optical mark reading equipment at one or more counting centers.

(e) “Marking device” means a pen or pencil which the voters use to record their votes by marking a paper ballot.

(f) “Ballot” means a paper ballot on which votes are recorded by means of marking the ballot with a marking device.

§ 23-15-505. Authority to purchase or rent optical mark reading equipment; applicable law.

The board of supervisors of any county in the State of Mississippi and the governing authorities of any municipality in the State of Mississippi are hereby authorized and empowered, in their discretion, to purchase or rent optical mark reading equipment used in an electronic voting system which meets the requirements of Section 23-15-507 and may use such system in all or a part of the precincts within its boundaries. It may enlarge, consolidate or alter the boundaries of precincts where an electronic voting system is used. The provisions of this chapter shall be controlling with respect to elections where any OMR system is used, and shall be liberally construed so as to carry out the purpose of this chapter. The provisions of the election law relating to the conduct of elections with paper ballots, that are to be manually tabulated, insofar as they are applicable and not in conflict with the efficient conduct of the systems, shall apply.

§ 23-15-507. Construction of optical mark reading system.

No optical mark reading system shall be acquired or used in accordance with this chapter unless it shall:

(a) Permit each voter to vote at any election for all persons and no others for whom and for which they are lawfully entitled to vote; to vote for as many persons for an office as they are entitled to vote for; to vote for or against any questions upon which they are entitled to vote;

(b) The OMR tabulating equipment shall be capable of rejecting choices recorded on the ballot if the number of choices exceeds the number which the voter is entitled to vote for the office or on the measure;

(c) Permit each voter, at presidential elections, by one (1) mark to vote for the candidates of that party for President, Vice-President, and their presidential electors, or to vote individually for the electors of their choice when permitted by law;

(d) Permit each voter, at other than primary elections, to vote for the nominees of one or more parties and for independent nominees;

(e) Permit each voter to vote for candidates only in the primary in which they are qualified to vote;

(f) Permit each voter to vote for persons whose names are not on the printed ballot;

(g) Be suitably designed for the purpose used, of durable construction, and may be used safely, efficiently and accurately in the conduct of elections and the counting of ballots;

(h) Be provided with means for sealing the ballots after the close of the polls and the last voter has voted;

(i) When properly operated, record correctly and count accurately all votes cast; and

(j) Provide the voter with a set of instructions that will be so displayed that a voter may readily learn the method of voting.

§ 23-15-509. Use of optical mark reading system.

Whenever the board of supervisors of any county or the governing authorities of any municipalities shall purchase or rent any OMR voting system that meets the requirements of this article, such system may be used at all elections held in such county or municipality, or in any part thereof, for voting, registering or counting votes cast at such elections as provided by Section 23-15-405 with respect to voting machines.

SOURCES: Derived from 1972 Code § 23-7-509 [Laws, 1984, ch. 509, § 5; repealed by Laws, 1986, ch. 495, § 340]; en, Laws, 1986, ch. 495, § 161, eff from and after January 1, 1987.

§ 23-15-511. Form of ballots; posting of sample ballots; ballot security envelopes.

The ballots shall, as far as practicable, to be in the same order of arrangement as provided for paper ballots that are to be counted manually, except that such information may be printed in vertical or horizontal rows. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as prohibiting the information being presented to the voters from being printed on both sides of a single ballot. In those years when a special election shall occur on the same day as the general election, the names of candidates in any special election and the general election shall be placed on the same ballot by the commissioners of elections or officials in charge of the election, but the general election candidates shall be clearly distinguished from the special election candidates. At any time a special election is held on the same day as a party primary election, the names of the candidates in the special election may be placed on the same ballot, but shall be clearly distinguished as special election candidates or primary election candidates.

Ballots shall be printed in plain clear type in black ink and upon clear white materials of such size and arrangement as to be compatible with the OMR tabulating equipment. Absentee ballots shall be prepared and printed in the same form and shall be on the same size and texture as the regular official ballots, except that they shall be printed on tinted paper; or the ink used to print the ballots shall be of a color different from that of the ink used to print the regular official ballots. Arrows may be printed on the ballot to indicate the place to mark the ballot, which may be to the right or left of the names of candidates and propositions. The titles of offices may be arranged in vertical columns on the ballot and shall be printed above or at the side of the names of candidates so as to indicate clearly the candidates for each office and the number to be elected. In case there are more candidates for an office than can be printed in one (1) column, the ballot shall be clearly marked that the list of candidates is continued on the following column. The names of candidates for each office shall be printed in vertical columns, grouped by the offices which they seek. In partisan elections, the party designation of each candidate, which may be abbreviated, shall be printed following his name.

Two (2) sample ballots, which shall be facsimile ballots of the official ballot and instructions to the voters, shall be provided for each precinct and shall be posted in each polling place on election day.

A separate ballot security envelope or suitable equivalent in which the voter can place his ballot after voting, shall be provided to conceal the choices the voter has made. Absentee voters will receive a similar ballot security envelope provided by the county in which the absentee voter will insert their voted ballot, which then can be inserted into a return envelope to be mailed back to the election official. Absentee ballots will not be required to be folded when a ballot security envelope is provided.

§ 23-15-513. Preparation and delivery of necessary forms and supplies.

The official ballots, sample ballots and other necessary forms and supplies of the forms and description required by this chapter or required for the conduct of elections with an electronic voting system shall be prepared and furnished by the same official, in the same manner and time, and delivered to the same officials as provided by law with respect to paper ballots that are to be counted manually.

The circuit court clerk shall be the custodian of OMR tabulating equipment acquired by the county, who shall be charged with the proper storage, maintenance and repair of the OMR equipment and preparation of them for tabulating prior to elections. The custodian shall repair or replace any tabulating equipment which fails to function properly on election day. The clerk of any municipality which acquires OMR tabulating equipment shall be the custodian of such equipment and perform the same functions.

§ 23-15-517. Opening and closing polls; instructing voters; spoiled ballots.

At least thirty (30) minutes before the opening of the polls, the voting precinct election officers shall arrive at the polling place and set up the voting booths so that they will be in clear view of the election officers; the voting precinct election officers shall examine the ballots to verify that they have the correct ballots for their precinct and check the supplies, records and forms, and post the sample ballots and instruction to the voter. They shall also inspect the ballot boxes to insure they are empty, and then seal the box for voting.

Each voter shall receive written and/or verbal instructions by the voting precinct election official instructing the voter how to properly vote the paper ballot before they enter the voting booth. If any voter needs additional instructions after entering the voting booth, two (2) election officers may, if necessary, enter the booth and give him such additional instructions. If any voter spoils a ballot he may obtain others, one (1) at a time, not exceeding three (3) in all, upon returning each spoiled ballot. The word "SPOILED" shall be written across the face of the ballot and it shall be placed in the envelope for spoiled ballots. As soon as the polls have been closed and the last qualified voter has voted, the ballots shall be sealed against further voting. All unused ballots shall be placed in a container provided for that purpose which shall be sealed and returned to the officials in charge of the election.

§ 23-15-519. Report of voters; delivery of ballot box; return of records and supplies.

The managers shall prepare a report in duplicate of the number of voters who have voted, as indicated by the poll list, and shall place this report in the ballot box, which thereupon shall be sealed with a paper seal signed by the managers so that no additional ballots may be deposited or removed from the ballot box. The manager or other person who acts as returning officer shall forthwith deliver the ballot box to the counting center or other designated place and receive a signed, numbered receipt therefor. The poll list, register of voters, unused ballots, spoiled ballots, and other records and supplies, shall be returned as directed by the officials in charge of the election.

§ 23-15-521. Testing of tabulating equipment.

Prior to the start of the count of the ballots, the commissioners of elections or officials in charge of the election shall have the OMR tabulating equipment tested to ascertain that it will accurately count the votes cast for all offices and on all measures. Representatives of the political parties, candidates, the press and the general public may witness the test conducted on the OMR tabulating equipment. The test shall be conducted by processing a preaudited group of ballots so marked as to record a predetermined number of valid votes for each candidate and on each measure, and shall include for each office one or more ballots which have votes in excess of the number allowed by law in order to test the ability of the OMR tabulating equipment to reject such votes. If any error is detected, the cause therefor shall be ascertained and corrected and an errorless count shall be made and certified to by the officials in charge before the count is started. On completion of the count, the programs, test materials and ballots shall be sealed and retained as provided for paper ballots.

§ 23-15-523. Counting vote.

(1) All proceedings at the counting center shall be under the direction of the commissioners of elections or officials in charge of the election, and shall be conducted under the observations of the public, but no persons except those authorized for the purpose shall touch any ballot. All persons who are engaged in processing and counting of the ballots shall be deputed in writing and take oath that they will faithfully perform their assigned duties.

(2) The commissioners of elections or the officials in charge of the election shall appoint qualified electors to serve as judges on the "resolution board." An odd number of not less than three (3) members shall be appointed to the resolution board. The members of the board shall take the oath provided in Section 268, Mississippi Constitution of 1890. All ballots that have been rejected by the OMR tabulating equipment and that are damaged or defective, blank or overvoted will be reviewed by said board.

(3)(a) If any ballot is damaged or defective so that it cannot be properly counted by the OMR tabulating equipment, the ballot will be deposited in an envelope provided for that purpose marked "RESOLUTION BOARD." All such ballots shall be carefully handled so as to avoid altering, removing or adding any mark on the ballot.

(b) The commissioners of election or the officials in charge of the election shall have the judges on the resolution board manually count any damaged or defective ballots, who shall determine the intent of the voter and record the vote consistent with this determination.

(c) As an alternative to the procedure provided for in paragraph (b) of this subsection, the resolution board may be instructed by the officials in charge of the election to prepare a duplicate to the damaged or defective ballot in the following manner:

(i) The resolution board shall prepare a duplicate to the original damaged or defective ballot marked identically to the original.

(ii) The resolution board shall mark the first original they examine as "Original #1" and the duplicate of this original as "Duplicate #1." Subsequent originals and duplicates shall be likewise marked and numbered consecutively so the duplicate of each original can be identified. Duplicate ballots shall be stamped in a different manner from the original ballots so that they may be easily distinguished from the originals.

(iii) The duplicate ballots prepared pursuant to this paragraph shall be counted by the OMR tabulating equipment.

(4) Ballots that have been rejected by the OMR tabulating equipment for appearing to be "blank" shall be examined to verify if they are blank or were marked with a "nondetectable" marking device. If it is determined that the ballot was marked with a nondetectable device, the resolution board may mark over the voter's mark with a detectable marking device.

(5) All ballots that are rejected by the OMR tabulating equipment and which contain overvotes shall be inspected by the resolution board. Regarding those ballots upon which an overvote appears and voter intent cannot be determined by inspection of the resolution board, the officials in charge of the election may use the OMR tabulating equipment in determining the vote in the races which are unaffected by the overvote. All other ballots which are overvoted shall be counted manually following the provisions of this section at the direction of the officials in charge of the election. If for any reason it becomes impracticable to count all or a part of the ballots with the OMR tabulating equipment, the officials in charge may direct that they be counted manually, and voter intent shall be determined by following the provisions of this section. The return printed by the OMR tabulating equipment to which have been added the manually tallied ballots, which shall be duly certified by the officials in charge of the election, shall constitute the official return of each voting precinct. Unofficial and incomplete returns may be released during the count. Upon the completion of the counting, the official returns shall be open to the public.

(6) When the resolution board reviews any OMR ballot in which the voter has failed to fill in the arrow, oval, circle or square for a candidate or a ballot measure in accordance with the ballot instruction, the resolution board shall, if the intent of the voter can be ascertained, count the vote if:

(a) The voter marks the ballot with a "cross" (x) or "checkmark" (✓) and the lines that form the mark intersect within or on the line of the arrow, oval, circle or square by the ballot measure or the name of the candidate.

(b) The voter blackens the arrow, oval, circle or square adjacent to the ballot measure or the name of the candidate in pencil or ink and the blackened portion extends beyond the boundaries of the arrow, oval, circle or square.

(c) The voter marks the ballot with a “cross” (x) or “checkmark” (✓) and the lines that form the mark intersect adjacent to the ballot measure or the name of the candidate.

(d) The voter underlines the ballot measure or the name of a candidate.

(e) The voter draws a line from the arrow, oval, circle or square to a ballot measure or the name of a candidate.

(f) The voter draws a circle or oval around the ballot measure or the name of the candidate.

(g) The voter draws a circle or oval around the arrow, oval, circle or square adjacent to the ballot measure or the name of the candidate.

(7) The resolution board, when inspecting an OMR ballot which contains or appears to contain one or more overvotes, appears to be damaged or defective, or is rejected by the OMR tabulating equipment for any reason or cannot be counted by the OMR tabulating equipment, shall make its determination in accordance with the following:

(a) When an elector casts more votes for any office or measure than he or she is entitled to cast at an election, all the elector’s votes for that office or measure are invalid and the elector is deemed to have voted for none of them except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection. If an elector casts less votes for any office or measure than he or she is entitled to cast at an election, all votes cast by the elector shall be counted but no vote shall be counted more than once.

(b) If an elector casts more than one (1) vote for the same candidate for the same office, the first vote is valid and the remaining votes are invalid.

(c) No write-in vote for a candidate whose name is printed on the ballot shall be regarded as defective due to misspelling a candidate’s name, or by abbreviation, addition or omission or use of a wrong initial in the name, as long as the intent of the voter can be ascertained.

(d) In any case where a voter writes in the name of a candidate for President of the United States whose name is printed on the general election ballot, the failure by the voter to write in the name of a candidate for the Office of Vice President of the United States on the general election ballot does not invalidate the elector’s vote for the slate of electors for any candidate whose name is written in for the Office of President of the United States.

(e) For any ballot measure in which the words “for” or “against” are printed on a ballot, if the voter shall write the word “for” or the word “against” instead of or in addition to marking the ballot in accordance with the ballot instruction in the space adjacent to the pre-printed words “for” or “against,” the resolution board shall, in reviewing such ballot, count the vote in accordance with the voter’s handwritten preference, unless the voter marks the ballot in the space adjacent to the pre-printed words “for” or “against” contrary to the handwritten preference, in which case no vote shall be recorded for such ballot in regard to the ballot measure.

(f) For any ballot measure in which the words “yes” or “no” are printed on a ballot, if the voter shall write the word “yes” or the word “no” instead of or in addition to marking the ballot in accordance with the ballot instructions in the space adjacent to the pre-printed words “yes” or “no,” the resolution board shall, in reviewing such ballot, count the vote in accordance with the voter’s handwritten preference, unless the voter marks the ballot in the space adjacent to the pre-printed words “yes” or “no” contrary to the handwritten preference, in which case no vote shall be recorded for such ballot in regard to the ballot measure.

(8) OMR tabulating equipment shall be programmed, calibrated, adjusted and set up to reject ballot cards that appear to be damaged or defective. Any switch, lever or feature on OMR tabulating equipment that enables or permits the OMR tabulating equipment to override the rejection of damaged or defective ballot cards so that such cards will not be reviewed by the resolution board, shall not be utilized.

(9) Ballots shall be manually counted by the resolution board only when the ballots are:

(a) Properly before the resolution board due to being rejected by the OMR tabulating equipment because the ballots appear to be damaged or defective or are rejected by the OMR equipment for any other reason; or

(b) Properly before the resolution board due to a malfunction in the OMR tabulating equipment.

(10) The resolution board shall make and keep a record regarding the handling and counting of all ballots inspected under this section.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Determination of intent of voters of certain contested ballots is by its very nature fact inquiry to be made by Special Tribunal and Supreme Court’s duty is to respect Special Tribunal’s findings where it was not manifestly wrong. Wade v. Williams, 517 So. 2d 573 (Miss. 1987).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Since ballots will be counted in presence of officials of both parties and general public, there is no apparent prohibition against representative of one party using key to particular voting machine to initiate counting process which would include counting of ballots for another party. Johnson, Sept. 2, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0572.

§ 23-15-531. Definitions.

As used in this subarticle:

- (a) “DRE” means direct recording electronic voting equipment.
- (b) “Direct recording electronic voting equipment” means a computer driven unit for casting and counting votes on which an elector touches a video screen or a button adjacent to a video screen to cast his or her vote.

SOURCES: Laws, 2005, ch. 534, § 1, eff June 6, 2005 (the date the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to the addition of this section.)

Editor’s Note — On June 6, 2005, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection, under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to the enactment of this subarticle by Laws of 2005, ch. 534, §§ 1 through 14.

§ 23-15-531.1. Minimum requirements DRE systems must meet to be used in elections.

Each DRE unit shall:

- (a) Permit the voter to verify, in a private and independent manner, the votes selected by the voter on the ballot before the ballot is cast and counted;
- (b) Provide the voter with the opportunity, in a private and independent manner, to change the ballot or correct any error before the ballot is cast and counted, including, but not limited to, the opportunity to correct the error through the issuance of a replacement ballot if the voter is otherwise unable to change the ballot or correct any error;

(c) If the voter selects votes for more candidates for a single office than are eligible for election:

(i) Notify the voter that he has selected more candidates for that office than are eligible for election;

(ii) Notify the voter before his vote is cast and counted of the effect of casting multiple votes for such an office; and

(iii) Provide the voter with the opportunity to correct the ballot before the ballot is cast and counted.

(d) Produce a permanent paper record with a manual audit capacity which shall be available for any recount conducted with respect to the election in which the DRE unit is used;

(e) Have the capability to print the ballots cast by electors to be utilized in the event of a recount conducted with respect to the election in which the DRE is used;

(f) Be accessible for individuals with disabilities, including, but not limited to, nonvisual accessibility for the blind and visually impaired, in a manner that provides the same opportunity for access and participation, including privacy and independence, as for other voters. This requirement may be satisfied through the use of at least one (1) DRE unit or other voting unit equipped for individuals with disabilities at each polling place;

(g) Provide alternative language accessibility pursuant to the requirements of the Voting Rights Act of 1965; and

(h) Have a residual vote rate in counting ballots attributable to the voting system and not to voter error that complies with error rate standards established under the voting system standards issued by the Federal Election Commission which were in effect as of October 29, 2002.

§ 23-15-531.2. Manner in which DREs must be arranged at polling places.

DREs shall be arranged in the polling place in such a manner as to:

- (a) Ensure the privacy of the elector while voting on such units;
- (b) Allow monitoring of the units by the poll managers while the polls are open; and
- (c) Permit the public and lawful poll watchers to observe the voting without affecting the privacy of the electors as they vote.

§ 23-15-531.3. Form of ballot; requirements where color display is used.

(1) The ballots for DREs shall be of such size and arrangement as will suit the construction of the DRE screen and shall be in plain, clear type that is easily readable by persons with normal vision.

(2)(a) If the equipment has the capacity for color display, the names of all candidates in a particular race shall be displayed in the same color, font and size, and the political party or affiliation of candidates may be displayed in a color different from that used to display the names of the candidates, but all political party or affiliations shall be displayed in the same color. All political party names shall be displayed in the same size and font.

(b) All ballot questions and constitutional amendments shall be displayed in the same color.

§ 23-15-531.4. Duties of official in charge of election in regard to use of DREs; circuit clerk to be custodian of DRE units; testing of DRE units prior to election.

(1) The officials in charge of the election of each county or municipality shall:

(a) Cause the proper ballot design and style to be programmed for each DRE unit which is to be used in any precinct within the county or municipality;

(b) Cause each DRE unit to be placed in proper order for voting;

(c) Examine each unit before it is sent to a polling place;

(d) Verify that each registering mechanism is set at zero; and

(e) Properly secure each unit so that the counting machinery cannot be operated until later authorized.

(2) The circuit clerk shall be the custodian of the DRE units acquired by the county.

(3) The officials in charge of the election shall be responsible for the preparation of the units to be used in the county or municipality at the primaries and other elections in the county or municipality.

(4)(a) On or before the third day preceding any election, except runoff elections, the officials in charge of the election shall have each DRE unit tested to ascertain that it will correctly count the votes cast for all offices and on all questions in a manner that the Secretary of State may prescribe by rule or regulation.

(b) On or before the third day preceding any runoff election, the officials in charge of the election shall test a number of DRE units at random to ascertain that the units will correctly count the votes cast for all offices. If the total number of DRE units in the county is thirty (30) units or less, all of the units shall be tested. If the total number of DRE units in the county is more than thirty (30) but not more than one hundred (100), then at least one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the units shall be tested at random. If there are more than one hundred (100) DRE units in the county, the officials in charge of the election shall test at least fifteen percent (15%) of the units at random. In no event shall the officials in charge of the election test less than one (1) DRE unit per precinct. All memory cards to be used in the runoff shall be tested. Public notice of the time and place of the test shall be made at least five (5) days prior thereto. Representatives of candidates, political parties, news media and the public shall be permitted to observe such tests.

(5) In every primary or general election, the officials in charge of the election shall furnish, at the expense of the county or municipality, all ballots, forms of certificates and other papers and supplies required under this subarticle which are not furnished by the Secretary of State, all of which shall be in the form and according to any specifications prescribed from time to time by the Secretary of State.

§ 23-15-531.5. Arrangement of offices, names of candidates and questions on DRE ballots; write-in ballots.

(1) The arrangement of offices, names of candidates and questions upon the DRE ballots shall conform as nearly as practicable to the arrangement of offices, names of candidates and questions on paper ballots.

(2) A separate write-in ballot, which may be in the form of a paper ballot, card or envelope in which the voter places his ballot card after voting, shall be provided if required to permit voters to write in the title of the office and the name of the person not on the printed ballot for whom he wishes to vote. The design of the write-in ballot shall permit the officials in charge of the election and poll workers when obtaining the vote count from such systems to determine readily whether an elector has cast any write-in vote not authorized by law.

§ 23-15-531.6. Officials to ensure delivery of proper DRE units to polling places at least one hour before polls open; each unit to be thoroughly tested, inspected and sealed prior to delivery to polling place; protection against molestation of or injury to DRE units; preparation of DRE units for voting.

(1) The officials in charge of the election shall ensure the delivery of the proper DRE units to the polling places of the respective precincts at least one (1) hour before the time for opening the polls at each election and shall cause each unit to be set up in the proper manner for use in voting.

(2) The officials in charge of the election shall require that each DRE unit be thoroughly tested, inspected and sealed prior to the delivery of each DRE unit to the polling place. Prior to opening the polls each day on which the units will be used in an election, the manager shall break the seal on each unit, turn on each unit, certify that each unit is operating properly and is set to zero, and print a zero tape certifying that each unit is set to zero and shall keep or record such certification on each unit.

(3) The officials in charge of the election and poll managers shall provide ample protection against molestation of and injury to the DRE units, and, for that purpose, the officials in charge of the election and poll managers may call upon any law enforcement officer to furnish any assistance that may be necessary. It shall be the duty of any law enforcement officer to furnish assistance when so requested by the officials in charge of the election or poll manager.

(4) The officials in charge of the election, in conjunction with the governing authorities, shall, at least one (1) hour prior to the opening of the polls:

(a) Provide sufficient lighting to enable electors to read the ballot and which shall be suitable for the use of the poll managers in examining the booth and conducting their responsibilities;

(b) Provide directions for voting on the DRE units which shall be prominently posted within each voting booth and at least two (2) sample ballots for the primary or general election which shall be prominently posted outside the enclosed space within the polling place;

(c) Ensure that each DRE unit's tabulating mechanism is secure throughout the day during the primary or general election; and

(d) Provide such other materials and supplies as may be necessary or required by law.

§ 23-15-531.7. Demonstration on use of DREs.

The officials in charge of the election shall place on public exhibition and demonstrate the use of the DRE units throughout the county or municipality during the month preceding each primary and general election. At least during the initial year in which DRE equipment is used in a county or municipality, all officials in charge of the election shall offer a series of demonstrations and organized voter education initiatives to educate electors in the use of such equipment in voting.

§ 23-15-531.8. Storage of DRE units when not in use.

(1) All DRE units and related equipment shall be properly stored and secured when not in use.

(2) The circuit clerk shall store the DRE units and related equipment under his or her supervision when it is not in use at an election. The circuit clerk shall provide compensation for the safe storage and care of such units and related equipment if the units and related equipment are stored by a person or entity other than the circuit clerk.

§ 23-15-531.9. Manner in which elector to vote on DRE unit; voiding of ballots in certain instances when elector does not complete voting process.

(1) A duly qualified elector shall cast his vote on a DRE unit by touching the screen or pressing the appropriate button on the unit for the candidate or issue of the elector's choice. After pressing the appropriate button on the unit or location on the screen to cast the ballot, the elector's vote shall be final and shall not be subsequently altered.

(2) If an elector leaves the voting booth without having pressed the appropriate button on the unit or location on the screen to finally cast his or her ballot and cannot be located to return to the booth to complete the voting process, then a poll manager shall take the steps necessary to void the ballot that was not completed by the elector and an appropriate record shall be made of the event.

§ 23-15-531.10. Counting votes and determining results in elections conducted with DREs.

(1) In elections in which DRE voting equipment is used, the ballots shall be counted at the precinct under the direction of the officials in charge of the election. All persons who perform any duties at the precinct shall be deputized by the officials in charge of the election and only persons so deputized shall touch any ballot, container, paper or machine utilized in the conduct of the count or be permitted to be in the immediate area designed for officers deputized to conduct the count.

(2) All proceedings at the precincts shall be open to the view of the public, but no person except one employed and designated for the purpose by the officials in charge of the election shall touch any ballot, any DRE unit or the tabulating equipment.

(3) After the polls have closed and all voting in the precinct has ceased, the poll manager shall shut down the DRE units and extract the election results from each unit as follows:

(a) The manager shall obtain the results tape from each DRE unit and verify that the number of ballots cast as recorded on the tape matches the public count number as displayed on the DRE unit;

(b) If a system is established by the Secretary of State, the poll manager shall first transmit the election results extracted from each DRE unit in each precinct via modem to the central tabulating center of the county; and

(c) The manager shall then extract the memory card, if applicable, from each DRE unit.

(4)(a) Upon completion of shutting down each DRE unit and extracting the election results, the manager shall cause to be completed and signed a ballot recap form, in sufficient counterparts, showing:

- (i) The number of valid ballots;
- (ii) The number of spoiled and invalid ballots;
- (iii) The number of affidavit ballots; and
- (iv) The number of unused affidavit ballots and any other unused ballots.

(b) The manager shall cause to be placed in the ballot supply container one (1) copy of the recap form and any unused, defective, spoiled and invalid ballots, each enclosed in an envelope or communication pack.

(5) The manager shall collect and retain the zero tape and the results tape for each DRE unit and place the tapes with the memory card, if any, for each unit and enclose all such items for all of the DRE units used in the precinct in one (1) envelope or communication pack which shall be sealed and initialed by the manager so that it cannot be opened without breaking the seal.

(6) The returning manager shall then deliver the envelope or communication pack to the tabulating center for the county or municipality or to such other place designated by the officials in charge of the election and shall receive a receipt therefor. The copies of the recap forms, unused ballots, records and other materials shall be returned to the designated location and retained as provided by law.

(7) Upon receipt of the sealed envelope or communication pack containing the zero tapes, results tapes and memory cards, the officials in charge of the election shall verify the signatures on the envelope or communication pack. Once verified, the officials in charge of the election shall break the seal of the envelope or communication pack and remove its contents. The officials in charge of the election shall then download the results stored on the memory card from each DRE unit into the election management system located at the central tabulation point of the county in order to obtain election results for certification.

§ 23-15-531.11. Challenged ballots.

In the case of challenged ballots cast on direct recording electronic voting equipment, the ballots shall be coded in such a way that the ballot of a challenged voter can be separated from other valid ballots at the time of tabulation and the challenged ballots shall be counted, challenged or rejected in accordance with the challenged ballot law.

§ 23-15-531.12. Irregular paper ballots to be cast where DRE equipment becomes inoperable.

If for any reason any direct recording electronic voting equipment shall become inoperable, the poll managers, or the officials in charge of the election, shall direct voters to go to an operating terminal or to cast irregular ballots, if necessary, which shall be paper ballots. Such paper ballots shall be administered, as far as is practicable, in accordance with the laws concerning paper ballots.

§ 23-15-531.13. Unlawful to tamper with or damage DRE unit or tabulating computer or attempt to prevent correct operation of any DRE prohibited; penalties.

Any person who willfully tampers with or damages any DRE unit or tabulating computer or device to be used or being used at or in connection with any primary or election or who prevents or attempts to prevent the correct operation of any DRE unit or tabulating computer or device shall be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, be punished by imprisonment for not less than three (3) years nor more than ten (10) years.

23-15-553.	Ballots not to be removed before close of polls; replacement of spoiled ballot.

- 23-15-555. Penalty for unlawfully showing mark on ballot or making false statement as to inability to mark ballot.
- 23-15-557. Municipality's authority to establish precincts and polling places.
- 23-15-559. Law applicable to municipal elections.
- 23-15-561. Penalties for unlawful lottery.

§ 23-15-541. Hours polls to be open; designation and duties of initialing manager and alternate initialing manager.

At all elections, the polls shall be opened at seven o'clock in the morning and be kept open until seven o'clock in the evening and no longer. Upon the opening of the polls, and not before, the managers of the election shall designate two (2) of their number, other than the manager theretofore designated to receive the blank ballots, who shall thereupon be known respectively as the initialing manager and the alternate initialing manager. The alternate initialing manager, in the absence of the initialing manager, shall perform all of the duties and undertake all of the responsibilities of the initialing manager. When any person entitled to vote shall appear to vote, he shall first sign his name in a receipt book or booklet provided for that purpose and to be used at that election only and said receipt book or booklet shall be used in lieu of the list of voters who have voted formerly made by the managers or clerks; whereupon and not before, the initialing manager or, in his absence, the alternate initialing manager shall indorse his initials on the back of an official blank ballot, prepared in accordance with law, and at such place on the back of the ballot that the initials may be seen after the ballot has been marked and folded, and when so indorsed he shall deliver it to the voter, which ballot the voter shall mark in the manner provided by law, which when done the voter shall deliver the same to the initialing manager or, in his absence, to the alternate initialing manager, in the presence of the others, and the manager shall see that the ballot so delivered bears on the back thereof the genuine initials of the initialing manager, or alternate initialing manager, and if so, but not otherwise, the ballot shall be put into the ballot box; and when so done one (1) of the managers or a duly appointed clerk shall make the proper entry on the pollbook. If the voter is unable to write his name on the receipt book, a manager or clerk shall note on the back of the ballot that it was receipted for by his assistance.

Editor's Note — The United States Attorney General, by letter dated August 16, 1993, interposed no objection, under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to certain changes occasioned by Laws, 1993, ch. 528. However, with respect to a requirement for verification of a voter's identity at the polling place as a prerequisite to voting, the Attorney General concluded that the information submitted was insufficient to support a determination that the proposed change did not have the purpose and would not have the effect of denying or abridging the right to vote on account of race or color, as required by Section 5, and requested additional information.

Section 23-15-541 was amended by Laws of 1993, ch. 528, but that law has not been effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 as of September 1, 2004. Consequently, the version of Section 23-15-541 contained in Laws, 1993, ch. 528, is being omitted from the Code at the direction of Co-Counsel of The Joint Legislative Committee on Compilation, Revision and Publication of Legislation.

1. In general.

The initialing requirement found in § 23-15-541 does not apply to affidavit ballots. Wilbourn v. Hobson, 608 So. 2d 1187 (Miss. 1992).

Where both the proponent and contestant of a primary election stipulated that three ballot boxes be disqualified, on the basis that the receiving manager and initialing manager of the ballots were one and the same person in violation of § 23-3-13, a fourth ballot box was properly discarded on the same basis, under both statutory and decisional law; however, in the absence of any allegations of fraud, under § 23-3-13, the disqualifications did not require a special election, where the disqualified votes amounted to 10.04 percent of all votes cast in the race, where, with or without the illegal votes, the same candidate was the winner, and where the parties had stipulated that the first three boxes would be "thrown out". Noxubee County Democratic Executive Comm. v. Russell, 443 So. 2d 1191 (Miss. 1983).

Ballots in boxes where the same person was the initialing manager and the receiving manager at the polling place are invalid. Prescott v. Ellis, 269 So. 2d 635 (Miss. 1971).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Assuming that voters who cast uninitialed paper ballots were entitled to vote in the election and did, in fact, follow the law in casting those ballots and but for a failure on the part of the poll workers the legality of those ballots would not be in question, the ballots must be counted. Rhodes, Nov. 10, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0626.

If a voter voted in one or more of the Monroe County Democratic Primary elections but did not vote in the Monroe Justice Court Judge District 3 County Primary Election, then their ballot should not be counted for purposes of determinthen that ballot shall not be counted for purposes of determining the total number of qualified electors who voted in the Monroe Justice Court Judge District 3 County Primary Election. Butler, Aug. 8, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0428.

Votes cast by voters who were permitted by election managers to request assistance from poll watchers were improper where all persons who desired assistance in voting were permitted to have assistance without declaring that they were blind, physically disabled, or unable to read; the attempted repeal of Code 1942 § 3273, governing aid to illiterate voters, was ineffective where the proposed repeal was neither approved by the Attorney General of the United States nor approved in a declaratory judgment suit as otherwise required by the Voting Rights Act, 42 USCS § 1973c; Code 1942 § 3273, allowing illiterates to have the assistance only of election managers in marking their ballots and requiring that the ballots be noted "marked with assistance", violates the equal protection clause of the U S

Const. Fourteenth Amendment, since such provisions do not apply to blind and disabled voters under code 1972 § 23-5-157; under Code 1942 § 3273 and Code 1972 § 23-5-157, any voter who requests assistance in marking his ballot must first request assistance from the managers of the election who in turn must be satisfied that the voter is either blind, physically disabled, or illiterate, and no other persons may receive assistance in marking their ballots; Code 1942 § 3273 and the Voting Rights Act, 42 USCS § 1973l(c)(1), are in harmony and exhibit a common purpose of providing assistance to illiterates in marking their ballots. O'Neal v. Simpson, 350 So. 2d 998 (Miss. 1977), cert. denied, 435 U.S. 934, 98 S. Ct. 1510, 55 L. Ed. 2d 532 (1978).

It is the duty and responsibility of the precinct officials at each election to provide to each illiterate voter who may request it such reasonable assistance as may be necessary to permit such voter to cast his ballot in accordance with the voter's own decision. United States v. State, 256 F. Supp. 344 (S.D. Miss. 1966).

§ 23-15-551. Marking and casting ballot; who may be present in polling room.

On receiving his ballot, the voter shall forthwith go into one of the voting compartments, and shall there prepare his ballot by marking with ink or indelible pencil on the appropriate margin or place a cross (X) opposite the name of the candidate of his choice for each office to be filled or by filling in the name of the candidate substituted in the blank space provided therefor, and marking a cross (X) opposite thereto, and likewise a cross (X) opposite the answer he desires to give in case of an election on a constitutional amendment or any other question or matter. As an alternative method, a voter may, at his option, prepare his ballot by marking with ink or indelible pencil in the appropriate margin or place a check, in the form of and similar to a "V", opposite the name of the candidate of his choice for each office to be filled, or by filling in the name of the candidate substituted in the blank space provided therefor, and marking a check, in the form of and similar to a "V", opposite thereto, and likewise a check, in the form of and similar to a "V", opposite the answer he desires to give in case of an election on a constitutional amendment or other question or matter, either of which methods of marking, whether by a cross (X) or by a check in the form of and similar to a "V", is authorized. Before leaving the voting compartment, the voter shall fold his ballot without displaying the markings thereof, but so that the words "OFFICIAL BALLOT," followed by the designation of the voting precinct and the date of the election, shall be visible to the officers of the election. He shall then cast his ballot by handing the same to one (1) of the managers of the election for deposit in the ballot box; this he shall do without undue delay, and as soon as he has voted he shall quit the inclosed place at once. A voter shall not be allowed to occupy a voting compartment already occupied by another voter, nor any compartment longer than ten (10) minutes, if other voters be not waiting, nor longer than five (5) minutes if other voters be waiting. A person shall not be allowed in the room in which the ballot boxes, compartments, tables and shelves are, except the officers of the election, and those appointed by them to assist therein, and those authorized by Section 23-15-577.

§ 23-15-557. Municipality's authority to establish precincts and polling places.

The governing authorities of any municipality within the State of Mississippi are hereby authorized and empowered, in their discretion, to divide the municipality into a sufficient number of voting precincts of such size and location as is necessary, and there shall be the same number of polling places. The authority conducting an election shall not be required, however, to establish a polling place in each of said precincts, but such election authorities, whether in a primary or in a general election, may locate and establish such polling places, without regard to precinct lines, in such manner as in the discretion of such authority will better accommodate the electorate and better facilitate the holding of the election.

§ 23-15-571. Challenge to voter qualifications.

(1) The following persons shall be designated as authorized challengers and shall be allowed to challenge the qualifications of any person offering to vote:

- (a) Any candidate whose name is on the ballot in the precinct in which the challenge is made;
- (b) Any official poll watcher of a candidate whose name is on the ballot in the precinct in which the challenge is made;
- (c) Any official poll watcher of a political party for the precinct in which the challenge is made;
- (d) Any qualified elector from the precinct in which the challenge is made; or
- (e) Any manager, clerk or poll worker in the polling place where the person whose qualifications are challenged is offering to vote.

(2) The challenge of any authorized challenger shall be considered and acted upon by the managers of the election.

(3) A person offering to vote may be challenged upon the following grounds:

- (a) That he is not a registered voter in the precinct;
- (b) That he is not the registered voter under whose name he has applied to vote;
- (c) That he has already voted in the election;

- (d) That he is not a resident in the precinct where he is registered;
- (e) That he has illegally registered to vote;
- (f) That he has removed his ballot from the polling place; or
- (g) That he is otherwise disqualified by law.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Regarding the question whether it is legal for a vote cast in the Democratic primary to be challenged simply because the poll worker or someone from the local Democratic Party alleges that the voter is really a Republican or Republican supporter, the stated intent of the voter would be controlling. Hemphill, Jan. 16, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0015.

The vote of a person who is forced to cast a "challenged" or "rejected" ballot pursuant to Section 23-15-579 will not be counted in determining the initial outcome of the election; however, in an election contest the circuit court may order that such be counted if it determines that the challenges had no basis in fact or in law. Hemphill, Jan. 16, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0015.

A registered voter may not cast a lawful ballot in a voting precinct other than the precinct where he or she resides. Shepard, July 14, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0345.

§ 23-15-573. Certain persons not to vote except by affidavit; form of affidavit.

(1) If any person declares that he is a registered voter in the jurisdiction in which he offers to vote and that he is eligible to vote in the election, but his name does not appear upon the pollbooks, or that he is not able to cast a regular election day ballot under a provision of state or federal law but is otherwise qualified to vote, or that he has been illegally denied registration:

(a) A poll manager shall notify the person that he may cast an affidavit ballot at the election.

(b) The person shall be permitted to cast an affidavit ballot at the polling place upon execution of a written affidavit before one (1) of the managers of election stating that the individual:

(i) Believes he is a registered voter in the jurisdiction in which he desires to vote and is eligible to vote in the election; or

(ii) Is not able to cast a regular election day ballot under a provision of state or federal law but is otherwise qualified to vote; or

(iii) Believes that he has been illegally denied registration.

(c) The manager shall allow the individual to prepare his vote which shall be delivered by him to the proper election official who shall enclose it in an envelope with the written affidavit of the voter, seal the envelope and mark plainly upon it the name of the person offering to vote.

(2) The affidavit shall include:

- (a) The complete name, all required addresses and telephone numbers;
- (b) A statement that the affiant believes he is registered to vote in the jurisdiction in which he offers to vote;
- (c) The signature of the affiant; and
- (d) The signature of a poll manager at the precinct at which the affiant offers to vote.

(3)

(a) A separate register shall be maintained for affidavit ballots and the affiant shall sign the register upon completing the affidavit ballot.

(b) In canvassing the returns of the election, the executive committee in primary elections, or the election commissioners in other elections, shall examine the records and allow the ballot to be counted, or not counted as it appears legal.

(4) When a person is offered the opportunity to vote by affidavit ballot, he shall be provided with written information that informs the person how to ascertain whether his affidavit ballot was counted and, if the vote was not counted, the reasons the vote was not counted.

(5) The Secretary of State shall, by rule duly adopted, establish a uniform affidavit and affidavit ballot envelope which shall be used in all elections in this state. The Secretary of State shall print and distribute a sufficient number of affidavits and affidavit ballot envelopes to the registrar of each county for use in elections. The registrar shall distribute the affidavits and affidavit ballot envelopes to municipal and county executive committees for use in primary elections and to municipal and county election commissioners for use in other elections.

(6) County registrars and municipal registrars shall implement a secure free access system that complies with the Help America Vote Act of 2002, by which persons who vote by affidavit ballot may determine if their ballots were counted, and if not, the reasons the ballot was not counted.

(7) Any person who votes in any election as a result of a federal or state court order or other order extending the time established by law for closing the polls, may only vote by affidavit ballot. Any affidavit ballot cast under this subsection shall be separated and kept apart from other affidavit ballots cast by voters not affected by the order.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Election commission does not have the authority to open ballots certified by election managers as rejected or challenged, and commission cannot override or review decision of election manager who marked ballot as rejected or challenged; duty of commission is merely to canvass sealed ballots to determine if requirements have been met. Misso v. Oliver, 666 So. 2d 1366 (Miss. 1996).

Only power conferred, and only duty required of election commission, in relation to the canvass of votes, should be to count the votes, based upon returns as made by election managers, and to give certificates to those receiving majority of the votes; election commission should not go beyond or behind the returns, and reject votes, or accept votes previously rejected, or otherwise inquire into validity of conduct of election; election commission has no judicial discretion as to validity of rejected or contested votes. Misso v. Oliver, 666 So. 2d 1366 (Miss. 1996).

Where a person's name fails to appear upon the pollbooks, the affidavit required by § 23-15-573 is a condition precedent to permission to vote; the making of the proper affidavit in writing before an election manager is mandatory, not directory. Hatcher v. Fleeman, 617 So. 2d 634 (Miss. 1993).

The paper ballots cast by two voters were illegal and void where the voters' names had been removed from the pollbooks and the ballots did not contain written affidavits attesting to the voters' entitlement to vote. Hatcher v. Fleeman, 617 So. 2d 634 (Miss. 1993).

A special election was not warranted after the disqualification of 2 ballots by a special judge in an election contest hearing, even though the disqualification changed the result of the election, the election contest hearing was not held in the county where the dispute originated, the election commissioners were not issued subpoenas, and the originally successful candidate claimed he was not given reasonable notice of the hearing, where the 2 disqualified "affidavit" ballots were not in compliance with § 23-15-573 and were therefore illegal. Hatcher v. Fleeman, 617 So. 2d 634 (Miss. 1993).

The initialing requirement found in § 23-15-541 does not apply to affidavit ballots. Wilbourn v. Hobson, 608 So. 2d 1187 (Miss. 1992).

Six affidavit ballots which were opened by poll workers at one precinct were not void where there was no evidence of fraud or intentional wrongdoing; while § 23-15-573 indicates that ballots shall be counted by the election commissioners in a general election, the statute is silent as to when, where and by whom the ballots may or shall be opened. Wilbourn v. Hobson, 608 So. 2d 1187 (Miss. 1992).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Ballots cast by individuals not appearing on the pollbooks that did not contain accompanying affidavits as required by the statute were improperly cast and should not be counted. Hafter, Dec. 22, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0697.

This section and the prescribed form make it mandatory that the affidavit contain the name of the voter, the physical addresses (former and present if they have moved within the county) of the voter, telephone numbers (if the voter has such numbers), the signature of the voter and the signature of one of the election managers. Additionally, the voter must check the appropriate box on the form indicating the reason he or she is entitled to vote. Sautermeister, Sept. 26, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0497.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Regarding the question whether it is legal for a vote cast in the Democratic primary to be challenged simply because the poll worker or someone from the local Democratic Party alleges that the voter is really a Republican or Republican supporter, the stated intent of the voter would be controlling. Hemphill, Jan. 16, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0015.

The vote of a person who is forced to cast a "challenged" or "rejected" ballot pursuant to Section 23-15-579 will not be counted in determining the initial outcome of the election; however, in an election contest the circuit court may order that such be counted if it determines that the challenges had no basis in fact or in law. Hemphill, Jan. 16, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0015.

A poll worker, poll watcher or another voter is not allowed to ask a voter if he or she intends to support the nominees of the party once the voter presents himself or herself to vote. Challenges may be made pursuant to Section 23-15-579 only for the reasons listed in Section 23-15-571, and for the reason that the voter does not intend to support the nominees of the party per this section. Cole, July 21, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0316.

If a challenge of a voter is properly initiated in strict accordance with Section 23-15-579 and the voter then openly declares that he or she does not intend to support the nominees of the party, the poll workers could find the challenge to be well taken and mark the ballot "challenged" or "rejected" consistent with the provisions of said statute; on the other hand, if the voter openly declares his or her intent to support the nominees, then a challenge is not proper under this section. Cole, July 21, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0316.

Absent an obvious factual situation such as an independent candidate attempting to vote in a party's primary, the stated intent of the voter is controlling. Cole, July 21, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0316.

§ 23-15-579. Procedure when vote challenged.

All votes which shall be challenged at the polls, whether the question be raised by a manager or by another authorized challenger, shall be received when voted, but each of such challenged votes shall, by one (1) of the managers or clerks, be marked on the back "CHALLENGED" and all such challenged votes shall be placed in one or more strong envelopes; and when all the unchallenged votes have been counted, tallied and totaled the challenged votes shall then be counted, tallied and totaled and a separate return shall be made of the unchallenged votes and of those that are challenged. The envelope or envelopes containing the challenged votes, when counted and tallied, shall be securely sealed with all said challenged votes inclosed therein and placed in the box with the unchallenged votes. Provided, that when a vote is challenged at the polls it shall so clearly appear in the unanimous opinion of the managers, either by the admissions or statements of the person challenged or from official documentary evidence, or indubitable oral evidence then presented to the managers, that the challenge is well taken, the vote shall be rejected entirely and shall not be counted; but in such case the rejected ballot, after it has been marked by the challenged voter, shall be marked on the back "REJECTED" and the name of the voter shall also be written on the back, and said vote and all other rejected votes shall be placed in a separate strong envelope and sealed and returned in the box as in the case of challenged votes. The failure of a candidate to challenge a vote or votes at a box shall not preclude him from later showing, in the manner provided by law, that one or more votes have been improperly received or counted or returned as regards said box. If the managers of an election believe a challenge of a voter is frivolous or not made in good faith they may disregard such challenge and accept the offered vote as though not challenged.

When the polls shall be closed, the managers shall then publicly open the box and immediately proceed to count the ballots, at the same time reading aloud the names of the persons voted for, which shall be taken down and called by the clerks in the presence of the managers. During the holding of the election and the counting of the ballots, the whole proceedings shall be in fair and full view of the voting public without unnecessary interference, delay or encroachment upon the good order of the duties and proceedings of the managers and other officers of the election. Candidates or their duly authorized representatives shall have the right to reasonably view and inspect the ballots as and when they are taken from the box and counted, and to reasonably view and inspect the tally sheets, papers and other documents used in said election during the proceedings, but not including, of course, the secret ballots being voted and placed and held in the box. There shall be no unnecessary delay and no adjournment except as provided by law.

6. Under Section 23-3-13, generally.

Opening the ballot box and removing the ballots or a part of them to a separate room for the purpose of counting while the election was still in progress was such a radical departure from the terms of this section and from the fundamental principles of the Corrupt Practices Law as to render the election void as to the precincts involved. Clark v. Rankin County Democratic Executive Comm., 322 So. 2d 753 (Miss. 1975).

The requirements of this section [Code 1942, § 3164] are mandatory. Hathorn v. State, 147 So. 2d 286 (Miss. 1962).

Where there were only eighty illegal votes in a total vote of 1229, the illegal votes being only 6.5 per cent of the total votes cast, there was no such substantial failure to comply in material particulars with the statutes so as to invalidate the election. Walker v. Smith, 213 Miss. 255, 57 So. 2d 166 (1952).

Where there is a total departure from the mandatory provisions of the statute and it is not possible to ascertain the will of the electors because a substantial portion of the votes were void, a new election should be ordered for the purpose of ascertaining the voter's choice. May v. Layton, 213 Miss. 129, 55 So. 2d 460 (1951).

Where the special tribunal held that votes of more than one-third of the voters in primary election for office of supervisor, were held void for failure to comply with mandatory provisions of the statute, it was impossible for one to reasonably say that result arrived at by the special tribunal represented the will of the voters. May v. Layton, 213 Miss. 129, 55 So. 2d 460 (1951).

This provision of the statute was enacted for the purpose of precluding any possibility of any qualified electors being counted as having voted who were not present at the voting precinct on election day, and not to prevent qualified electors from being deprived of the right to vote. Briggs v. Gautier, 195 Miss. 472, 15 So. 2d 209 (1943).

The Corrupt Practices Act was designed to prevent election frauds and to prevent the election managers and others from "stuffing the ballot box". Hayes v. Abney, 186 Miss. 208, 188 So. 533 (1939).

7. —Receipts.

The fact that contestant received majority of votes in precinct did not preclude him from urging illegality of election at such precinct. Briggs v. Gautier, 195 Miss. 472, 15 So. 2d 209 (1943).

Failure of election officers to require voters to sign their names in the receipt book or other record kept for the purpose before receiving a ballot to cast in the election renders the election void, since such requirement is mandatory. Briggs v. Gautier, 195 Miss. 472, 15 So. 2d 209 (1943).

The provision as to having the voter sign a receipt for his ballot is a prerequisite to his right to have a ballot and consequently to vote it, and in this respect the statute is mandatory. Hayes v. Abney, 186 Miss. 208, 188 So. 533 (1939).

The total departure from the provisions of this Act, by the election officers in making a list of the voters and without requiring a single voter to receipt for his ballot, was such a departure as rendered a municipal primary election void. Hayes v. Abney, 186 Miss. 208, 188 So. 533 (1939).

8. —Right to view counting and calling of ballots.

Counting and calling of the ballots for a voting precinct by two of the managers and their assistants in one room of court-house while the remaining ballots were being counted and called by the other manager and his assistants in another room was a violation of this section [Code 1942, § 3164]. Briggs v. Gautier, 195 Miss. 472, 15 So. 2d 209 (1943).

The voting public at a particular precinct is entitled to have a fair and full view of the counting and calling of the ballots as well as the holding of the election, which would be impossible if the ballots are divided for counting and some of them are being counted and called aloud at one place by one of the managers while the others are being counted and called aloud elsewhere by the other two managers. Briggs v. Gautier, 195 Miss. 472, 15 So. 2d 209 (1943).

Under this section [Code 1942, § 3164] all the managers, and not just one manager, are required to count the ballots, and whatever is done by the clerks is to be done in the presence of the managers and not in the presence of only one manager. Briggs v. Gautier, 195 Miss. 472, 15 So. 2d 209 (1943).

The right of the candidate to view and inspect the ballots as they are counted is denied if the managers are permitted to divide the ballots and count them at different places at one and the same time, unless the candidate is expected to anticipate such procedure and have a sufficient number of authorized representatives present. Briggs v. Gautier, 195 Miss. 472, 15 So. 2d 209 (1943).

Allegations and proof by a contestant on a petition for judicial review of a primary election that a number of illegal votes were cast and counted to change the result of the election was sufficient, and he was not required to prove that enough of the illegal votes were actually cast for the contestee to give him the apparent, although not real, majority. Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

9. —Evidence.

The rule that a contestant has the burden of proving the existence of illegal votes and that there were enough of such illegal votes cast for the contestee as to change the result of the election, applies as well to a party primary election for a nomination. Walker v. Smith, 213 Miss. 255, 57 So. 2d 166 (1952).

Contestant is not bound to allege and prove as a condition precedent to a successful challenge of any particular ballot box that a decision in his favor as to that box alone would change the result of the election complained of, but he may show that the result of the election would be changed by having his challenge sustained. Briggs v. Gautier, 195 Miss. 472, 15 So. 2d 209 (1943).

10. —Initialing ballot.

The provisions of this section [Code 1942, § 3164] with respect to the initialing of ballots applies only to a primary election and does not require ballots in a general or special election to be initialed. Hubbard v. McKey, 193 So. 2d 129 (Miss. 1966), overruled on other grounds, O'Neal v. Simpson, 350 So. 2d 998 (Miss. 1977).

A new election should be offered either in the entire district or in the precincts involved, where a third of the ballots cast were invalidated by the failure of the installing manager to initial them. Wallace v. Leggett, 248 Miss. 121, 158 So. 2d 746 (1963).

Where primary election ballots were initialed on the back and the initials were those of the receiving manager and not of the initialing manager, the ballots should not be counted. Starnes v. Middleton, 226 Miss. 81, 83 So. 2d 752 (1955).

The special tribunal committed no error in refusing to count ballots which were not initialed by the initialing manager of the election and which were improperly identified. Starnes v. Middleton, 226 Miss. 81, 83 So. 2d 752 (1955).

Failure of the initialing manager to initial a ballot renders such ballot illegal. Chinn v. Cousins, 201 Miss. 1, 27 So. 2d 882 (1946).

A special election with new managers, to be called by the governor pursuant to section 3187, Code 1942, was ordered in a precinct where none of the ballots cast were initialed by the initialing manager, the number of ballots there counted exceeding the difference in the vote counted for the two nominees, and the results in other precincts were allowed to stand after deduction of the few uninitialed ballots cast in those precincts. Chinn v. Cousins, 201 Miss. 1, 27 So. 2d 882 (1946).

11. Under former Section 23-5-147.

The provisions of Code 1942, § 3164 requiring the initialing of ballots by the initialing manager applies only to primary elections and has no application to general or special elections conducted under this section [Code 1942, § 3267]. Hubbard v. McKey, 193 So. 2d 129 (Miss. 1966), overruled on other grounds, O'Neal v. Simpson, 350 So. 2d 998 (Miss. 1977).

In a school district bond election contest, where there were marks on both places on ballot but it was manifest that the voter intended to strike out his original vote against the bonds, and by his clear mark to vote for the bonds, the ballot should have been counted. Tedder v. Board of Supvrs., 214 Miss. 717, 59 So. 2d 329 (1952).

Fact that, pursuant to custom because of size of election district, two sets of election managers conducted the election at the voting place, did not render the votes cast thereat invalid, where one set of managers sat at one end of a table and received the ballots of persons whose names began with the letters "A" through "L," and the other set of managers sat at the other end of the table and received the ballots of persons whose names began with "M" through "Z," each set of managers using a separate ballot box and being assisted by separate clerks, and the ballots were counted and certified to by the respective managers who received them. Simmons v. Crisler, 197 Miss. 547, 20 So. 2d 85 (1944).

Absentee ballots, larger in size than home ballots, and containing name of candidate who had not qualified, substantially complies with ballot requirements, in view of objects to be accomplished by and circumstances surrounding special statute permitting soldiers to vote by absentee ballots. Gregory v. Sanders, 195 Miss. 508, 15 So. 2d 432 (1943).

Where voters had written in form of nominee for office and placed crosses opposite such name, ballots should be counted. Failure of commissioners to print nominee's name on ballot did not deprive voter of right to vote. State ex rel. Att'y Gen. v. Ratliff, 108 Miss. 242, 66 So. 538 (1914).

§ 23-15-591. Proclamation of results; sealing of ballot box.

When the votes have been completely and correctly counted and tallied by the managers they shall publicly proclaim the result of the election at their box and shall certify in duplicate a statement of the said result, said certificate to be signed by the managers and clerks, one (1) of the certificates to be inclosed in the ballot box, and the other to be delivered to and to be kept by one (1) of the managers and to be inspected at any time by any voter who so requests. When the count of the votes and the tally thereof have been completed, the managers shall lock and seal the ballot box, having first placed therein all ballots voted, all spoiled ballots and all unused ballots. There shall be inclosed therein also one (1) of the duplicate receipts given by the manager who received the blank ballots received for that box; and the total ballots voted, and the spoiled ballots and the unused ballots must correspond in total with the said duplicate receipt or else the failure thereof must be perfectly accounted for by a written statement, under oath of the managers, which statement must be inclosed in the ballot box. There shall be also inclosed in said box the tally list, the receipt booklet containing the signed names of the voters who voted; and the number of ballots voted must correspond with the number of names signed in said receipt booklet.

- 2. Special election warranted.
- 3.-5. [Reserved for future use.]
- 6. Under former Section 23-3-19.

1. Construction with other sections.

Trial court was correct in overruling the decision of the Jefferson Davis County Democratic Executive Committee, to conduct a new election for the Democratic nominee for Jefferson Davis County Chancery Clerk. The requirements to hold a new election under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-593 were not met, as § 23-15-593 authorized new elections for individual precincts if the requirements were met, not a new election county or district wide. To have held a new election county wide, the Committee would had to have determined that all precincts failed in material particulars to comply with the requirements of Miss. Code Ann. §§ 23-15-591 and 23-15-895 to such an extent that it was impossible to arrive at the will of the voters; there was no evidence that there were violations of Miss. Code Ann. §§ 23-15-591 and 23-15-895 and the committee exceeded its authority under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-593 in ordering a new election. Jefferson Davis County v. Davies, 912 So. 2d 837 (Miss. 2005).

2. Special election warranted.

Failure to secure ballot boxes under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-911 and the lack of the control over the boxes were substantial irregularities that warranted a special election because they were radical departures from Mississippi election law. Waters v. Gnemi, 907 So. 2d 307 (Miss. 2005).

3.-5. [Reserved for future use.]

6. Under former Section 23-3-19.

What constitutes a substantial failure to comply in material particulars with the requirements of the statutes as to primary elections, so as to require the throwing out of a box or calling a new election, depends upon the facts and circumstances in each particular case including the nature of the procedural requirements violated, the scope of the violations, and the ratio of legal votes to the total votes cast. Walker v. Smith, 213 Miss. 255, 57 So. 2d 166 (1952).

Where there is a total departure from the mandatory provisions of the statute and it is not possible to ascertain the will of the electors because a substantial portion of the votes were void, a new election should be ordered for the purpose of ascertaining the voter's choice. May v. Layton, 213 Miss. 129, 55 So. 2d 460 (1951).

Where the special tribunal held that votes of more than one-third of the voters in primary election for office of supervisor, were held void for failure to comply with mandatory provisions of the statute, it was impossible for one to reasonably say that result arrived at by the special tribunal represented the will of the voters. May v. Layton, 213 Miss. 129, 55 So. 2d 460 (1951).

Allegations and proof by a contestant on a petition for judicial review of a primary election that a number of illegal votes were cast and counted to change the result of the election was sufficient, and he was not required to prove that enough of the illegal votes were actually cast for the contestee to give him the apparent, although not real, majority. Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

§ 23-15-593. Irregularities in ballot box.

When the ballot box is opened and examined by the county executive committee in the case of a primary election, or county election commissioners in the case of other elections, and it is found that there have been failures in material particulars to comply with the requirements of Section 23-15-591 and Section 23-15-895 to such an extent that it is impossible to arrive at the will of the voters at such precinct, the entire box may be thrown out unless it be made to appear with reasonable certainty that the irregularities were not deliberately permitted or engaged in by the managers at that box, or by one (1) of them responsible for the wrong or wrongs, for the purpose of electing or defeating a certain candidate or candidates by manipulating the election or the returns thereof at that box in such manner as to have it thrown out; in which latter case the county executive committee, or the county election commission, as appropriate, shall conduct such hearing and make such determination in respect to said box as may appear lawfully just, subject to a judicial review of said matter as elsewhere provided by this chapter. Or the executive committee, or the election commission, or the court upon review, may order another election to be held at that box appointing new managers to hold the same.

“SECTION 20. If any section, paragraph, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is declared to be unconstitutional or void, or for any reason is declared to be invalid or of no effect, the remaining sections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses or phrases shall be in no manner affected thereby but shall remain in full force and effect.”

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Revote.

Trial court was correct in overruling the decision of the Jefferson Davis County Democratic Executive Committee, to conduct a new election for the Democratic nominee for Jefferson Davis County Chancery Clerk. The requirements to hold a new election under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-593 were not met, as § 23-15-593 authorized new elections for individual precincts if the requirements were met, not a new election county or district wide. Code Ann. §§ 23-15-591 and 23-15-895 to such an extent that it was impossible to arrive at the will of the voters; there was no evidence that there were violations of Miss. Code Ann. §§ 23-15-591 and 23-15-895 and the committee exceeded its authority under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-593 in ordering a new election. Jefferson Davis County v. Davies, 912 So. 2d 837 (Miss. 2005).

Problems in the state party primary election for a state house seat were not “technical” because an entire sub-precinct was not allowed to vote; thus, the trial court appropriately ordered a revote in the excluded areas in complete accordance with procedures mandated by the Legislature in Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-593. Barbour v. Gunn, 890 So. 2d 843 (Miss. 2004).

§ 23-15-595. Procedure for sealing of ballot box; reopening and resealing.

The box containing the ballots and other records required by this chapter shall, as soon as practical after the ballots have been counted, be delivered by one (1) of the precinct managers to the clerk of the circuit court of the county and said clerk shall, in the presence of the manager making delivery of the box, place upon the lock of such box a metal seal similar to the seal commonly used in sealing the doors of railroad freight cars. Such seals shall be numbered consecutively to the number of ballot boxes used in the election in the county, and the clerk shall keep in a place separate from such boxes a record of the number of the seal of each separate box in the county. The board of supervisors of the county shall pay the cost of providing such seals. Upon demand of the chairman of the county executive committee in the case of primary elections, or the county election commissioner in the case of other elections, the boxes and their contents shall be delivered to the county executive committee, or the county election commission, as appropriate, and after such committee or commission, as appropriate, has finished the work of tabulating returns and counting ballots as required by law, the said committee or commission, as appropriate, shall return all papers and ballots to the box of the precinct where such election was held, and it shall make redelivery of such boxes and their contents to the circuit clerk who shall reseal said boxes. Upon every occasion said boxes shall be reopened and each resealing shall be done as provided in this chapter.

Evidence that after counting of ballots, and before recount thereof, circuit clerk failed to seal the ballot boxes in question and to keep a record of the seals as required by statute, and that such boxes and their contents were tampered with, warranted affirmance of order of special tribunal, unanimously entered, adjudging elections valid as against contestant who received a majority on recount. *Allen v. § 23-15-597. Canvas of returns and announcement of results by executive committee.

(1) The county executive committee shall meet on the first or second day after each primary election, shall receive and canvass the returns which must be made within the time fixed by law for returns of general elections and declare the result, and announce the name of the nominees for county and county district offices and legislative offices for districts containing one (1) county or less, and the names of those candidates to be submitted to the second primary. The vote for state and state district offices and legislative offices for districts containing more than one (1) county or parts of more than one (1) county shall be tabulated by precincts and certified to and returned to the State Executive Committee, such returns to be mailed by registered letter or any safe mode of transmission within thirty-six (36) hours after the returns are canvassed and the result ascertained. The State Executive Committee shall meet a week from the day following the first primary election held for state and state district offices and legislative offices for districts containing more than one (1) county or parts of more than one (1) county, and shall proceed to canvass the returns and to declare the result, and announce the names of those nominated for the different offices in the first primary and the names of those candidates whose names are to be submitted to the second primary election. The State Executive Committee shall also meet a week from the day on which the second primary election was held and receive and canvass the returns for state and district offices, if any, and legislative offices for districts containing more than one (1) county or parts of more than one (1) county, if any, voted on in such second primary. An exact and full duplicate of all tabulations by precincts as certified under this section shall be filed with the circuit clerk of the county who shall safely preserve the same in his office.

(2)(a) If it is eligible under Section 23-15-266, the county executive committee may enter into a written agreement with the circuit clerk or the county election commission authorizing the circuit clerk or the county election commission to perform any of the duties required of the county executive committee pursuant to this section. Any agreement entered into pursuant to this subsection shall be signed by the chairman of the county executive committee and the circuit clerk or the chairman of the county election commission, as appropriate. The county executive committee shall notify the State Executive Committee and the Secretary of State of the existence of such agreement.

(b) If it is eligible under Section 23-15-266, the municipal executive committee may enter into a written agreement with the municipal clerk or the municipal election commission authorizing the municipal clerk or the municipal election commission to perform any of the duties required of the municipal executive committee pursuant to this section. Any agreement entered into pursuant to this subsection shall be signed by the chairman of the municipal executive committee and the municipal clerk or the chairman of the municipal election commission, as appropriate. JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
- 2.-5. [Reserved for future use.]
6. Under former Section 23-5-169.

1. In general.

Evidence supported determination of county democratic executive committee and election commission that voter's signature on absentee ballot did not match signature on ballot envelope, and therefore, court's order to committee to reconvene, open, and count such absentee ballot constituted reversible error; several persons involved in vote counting process determined that signatures did not match, voter's testimony was unclear, and members of committee testified that candidate stated that voter's daughter, rather than voter, signed ballot and envelope. Pegram v. Bailey, 694 So. 2d 664 (Miss. 1997).

Election commission does not have the authority to open ballots certified by election managers as rejected or challenged, and commission cannot override or review decision of election manager who marked ballot as rejected or challenged; duty of commission is merely to canvass sealed ballots to determine if requirements have been met. Misso v. Oliver, 666 So. 2d 1366 (Miss. 1996).

Only power conferred, and only duty required of election commission, in relation to the canvass of votes, should be to count the votes, based upon returns as made by election managers, and to give certificates to those receiving majority of the votes; election commission should not go beyond or behind the returns, and reject votes, or accept votes previously rejected, or otherwise inquire into validity of conduct of election; election commission has no judicial discretion as to validity of rejected or contested votes. Misso v. Oliver, 666 So. 2d 1366 (Miss. 1996).

Although a court could, if necessary, compel by mandamus an election commission to perform its statutory duty upon its failure to do so, or prohibit it by way of injunction or writ of prohibition from exceeding its statutory authority in some respect, use of an extraordinary writ cannot be extended to actually telling an election commission what action to take. Thus, a TRO should not have been entered to stop an election commission from performing its statutory duties under §§ 23-15-601 and 23-15-603. In re Wilbourn, 590 So. 2d 1381 (Miss. 1991).

2.-5. [Reserved for future use.]6. Under former Section 23-5-169.

It is the duty under Code 1942, § 3279 of the county election commissioners to canvass the returns of the statements of the election managers as to the whole number of votes and to ascertain the results of the election. Thornton v. Wayne County Election Comm'n, 272 So. 2d 298 (Miss. 1973).

Where the result of a second primary called by a political party ended in a tie for two candidates for a municipal office the election of one of such candidates after nomination by a third primary was void. Omar v. West, 186 Miss. 136, 188 So. 917 (1939).

A candidate for municipal office, who withdrew from the party nomination after a second primary resulted in a tie between him and another and a third primary was called in violation of law, and who thereafter presented a petition signed by eighty-eight qualified electors of the town to have his name printed on the official ballot, was entitled to have his name printed on the official ballot as a candidate for the office in the general election, his participation in the first and second primaries being no bar to that course. Omar v. West, 186 Miss. 136, 188 So. 917 (1939).

Supreme Court on appeal from judgment improperly refusing mandamus to compel commissioners to reassemble and canvass and return the ballots will not remand the case but will enter judgment requiring them to do so. State ex rel. Hudson v. Pigott, 97 Miss. 599, 54 So. 257, Am. Ann. Cas. 1912C, 1254 (1911).

The commissioners of election may exclude from their count all illegal ballots which were counted by the managers.

§ 23-15-603. Delivery of returns to Secretary of State.

(1) The commissioners of election shall, within ten (10) days after the general election, transmit to the Secretary of State, to be filed in his office, a statement of the whole number of votes given in their county and the whole number of votes given in each precinct in their county, for each candidate for any office at the election; but the returns of every election for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Attorney General, Auditor of Public Accounts, State Treasurer, Commissioner of Insurance and other state officers, shall each be made out separately, sealed up together and transmitted to the seat of government, directed to the Secretary of State, and endorsed the "VOTE FOR STATE OFFICERS," to be delivered by the Secretary of State to the Speaker of the House of Representatives at the next ensuing session of the Legislature. In addition to the other information required pursuant to this subsection, the returns for state officers shall contain a statement of the whole number of votes given in each House of Representative district or portion thereof for each candidate for state office at the election.

(2) Constitutional amendments shall be voted for at the time fixed by the concurrent resolution. The election, whether held separately or with other elections, shall be conducted, in all respects, as required for elections generally. The commissioners of election shall, within ten (10) days after the election, transmit to the Secretary of State a statement of the whole number of votes given in their county and the whole number of votes given in each precinct in their county for or against constitutional amendments.

(3) The statements certified by the election commissioners and transmitted to the Secretary of State, as required by this section, shall be tabulated by the Secretary of State and submitted to each branch of the Legislature, at the session next ensuing. Certified county vote totals shall represent the final results of the election.

(4) The statements required by this section shall contain a certification, signed and dated by a majority of the commissioners of election, which shall read as follows:

"We, the undersigned commissioners of election, do hereby certify that this statement of the whole number of votes contains the official vote for the election reflected therein."

(5) The statements required by this section shall be transmitted to the Secretary of State on such forms and by such methods as may be required by rules and regulations promulgated by the Secretary of State.

(1) In municipal elections, managers of elections shall, immediately upon the closing of the polls, count the ballots and ascertain the number of votes cast in each voting precinct for each of the candidates or ballot measures and make a return thereof to the municipal election commissioners. On the day following the election, the election commissioners shall canvass the returns so received from all voting precincts and shall, within five (5) days after such election, deliver to each person receiving the highest number of votes a certificate of election. If it shall appear that any two (2) or more of the candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall have received an equal number of votes, the election shall be decided by lot, fairly and publicly drawn by the election commissioners with the aid of two (2) or more qualified electors of the municipality.

(2) Within five (5) days after any election, the municipal election commissioners shall transmit a statement to the Secretary of State certifying the name or names of the person or persons elected thereat, and such person or persons shall be issued commissions by the Governor. The statement shall also include vote totals for each candidate for each office and vote totals for and against ballot measures, if any, including the vote totals for each candidate a ballot measure in each precinct in the municipality.

§ 23-15-613. Reporting of residual votes required for elections in which ballots are generated that are counted by hand or by electronic tabulating equipment; certain reports required for elections that use voting devices that do not generate ballots.

(1) As used in this section “residual votes” means overvotes, undervotes and any other vote not counted for any reason.

(2) For every election, election commissions and county and municipal executive committees shall report to the Secretary of State residual vote information; however, if the voting devices utilized in the election do not produce a ballot, other information shall be reported as required in this section.

(3) For every election, election commissions and county and municipal executive committees responsible for the conduct of elections in which ballots are generated that are counted by hand or by an electronic or automatic tabulating device shall report to the Secretary of State all residual votes for all candidates and ballot measures in the elections for which they are responsible for conducting. Such residual vote reports shall:

(a) Be received by the Secretary of State no later than December 15 of the year in which the election is held;

(b) Include any suggested explanation or suspected cause of the residual votes;

(c) Include a copy of a voided official ballot for the election as such ballot appeared to voters at the election and copies of voided affidavit and absentee ballots if they are different from the official ballot;

(d) Include the total voter turnout for each election to be determined by totaling the number of persons signing the receipt book at each precinct, absentee voters and persons who voted by affidavit ballot and persons whose ballots were challenged and rejected; and

(e) Include a copy of any printed voting instructions given or visible to voters in the election and a description of any verbal instructions and any other evidence of voter education that was utilized in the election.

(4) For every election, election commissions and county and municipal executive committees responsible for the conduct of election in which voting devices are used that do not generate ballots that are counted by hand or by electronic or automatic tabulating devices, shall file a report with the Secretary of State which shall:

(a) Be received by the Secretary of State no later than December 15 of the year in which the election is held;

(b) Include the total voter turnout for each election to be determined by totaling the number of persons signing the receipt book at each precinct, absentee voters and persons who voted by affidavit ballot and persons whose ballots were challenged and rejected;

(c) Include in the report any anecdotal information obtained concerning voter problems with the voting equipment or ballot layout;

(d) Include in the report any suggested explanation or suspected cause of any difference in the amount of total voter turnout and the number of counted votes for candidates for various offices; and

(e) Include a copy of any printed voting instructions given or visible to voters in the election and a description of any verbal instructions and any other evidence of voter education that was utilized in the election.

(5) Not later than January 31 of the year following the election, the Secretary of State shall submit a report to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives analyzing the reports required to be filed pursuant to this section. The analysis shall include the following:

(a) The performance of each voting device type used in the election;

(b) Any problems with voter or poll worker instructions or ballot design and layout that have been identified as a result of analyzing the reports received;

(c) Recommendations for reducing the number of residual votes reported; and

(d) Such other information as the Secretary of State deems beneficial.

(6) The reports required pursuant to this section shall be in such form as may be required by rules and regulations promulgated by the Secretary of State.

The registrar shall be responsible for providing applications for absentee voting as provided in this section. At least sixty (60) days prior to any election in which absentee voting is provided for by law, the registrar shall provide a sufficient number of applications. In the event a special election is called and set at a date which makes it impractical or impossible to prepare applications for absent elector's ballot sixty (60) days prior to the election, the registrar shall provide applications as soon as practicable after the election is called. The registrar shall fill in the date of the particular election on the application for which the application will be used.

The registrar shall be authorized to disburse applications for absentee ballots to any qualified elector within the county where he serves. Any person who presents to the registrar an oral or written request for an absentee ballot application for a voter entitled to vote absentee by mail, other than the elector who seeks to vote by absentee ballot, shall, in the presence of the registrar, sign the application and print on the application his or her name and address and the name of the elector for whom the application is being requested in the place provided for on the application for that purpose. However, if for any reason such person is unable to write the information required, then the registrar shall write the information on a printed form which has been prescribed by the Secretary of State. The form shall provide a place for such person to place his mark after the form has been filled out by the registrar.

The registrar in the county wherein a voter is qualified to vote upon receiving the envelope containing the absentee ballots shall keep an accurate list of all persons preparing such ballots, which list shall be kept in a conspicuous place accessible to the public near the entrance to his office. The registrar shall also furnish to each precinct manager a list of the names of all persons in each respective precinct voting absentee ballots to be posted in a conspicuous place at the polling place for public notice. The application on file with the registrar and the envelopes containing the ballots shall be kept by the registrar and deposited in the proper precinct ballot boxes before such boxes are delivered to the election commissioners or managers. At the time such boxes are delivered to the election commissioners or managers, the registrar shall also turn over a list of all such persons who have voted and whose ballots are in the box.

The registrar shall also be authorized to mail one (1) application to any qualified elector of the county for use in a particular election.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

An inadvertent omission of names from the list of absentee voters would not cause a vote to be invalid; however, the application form must still be valid for the vote to be counted. Hafter, Dec. 22, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0697.

The provisions of the statute that refer to the sequential numbering of absentee ballots and the filing of the affidavit by the clerk upon receipt of same have not obtained the required preclearance from the United States Attorney General pursuant to Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, and therefore, have not taken effect. Hafter, Dec. 22, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0697.

§ 23-15-627. Distribution of absentee ballot application by registrar; form of application.

The registrar shall be responsible for furnishing an absentee ballot application form to any elector authorized to receive an absentee ballot. Absentee ballot applications shall be furnished to a person only upon the oral or written request of the elector who seeks to vote by absentee ballot; however, the parent, child, spouse, sibling, legal guardian, those empowered with a power of attorney for that elector's affairs or agent of the elector may orally request an absentee ballot application on behalf of the elector. An absentee ballot application must have the seal of the circuit or municipal clerk affixed to it and be initialed by the registrar or his deputy in order to be utilized to obtain an absentee ballot. A reproduction of an absentee ballot application shall not be valid unless it is a reproduction provided by the office of the registrar of the jurisdiction in which the election is being held and which contains the seal and initials required by this section. Such application shall be substantially in the following form:

"OFFICIAL APPLICATION FOR ABSENT ELECTOR'S BALLOT

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Where a voter's name was on an absentee ballot application, the application was initialed, and the circuit clerk seal was affixed to the application, the ballot was counted in a primary election. Smith v. Hollins, 905 So. 2d 1267 (Miss. 2005).

In performing statutory duties with respect to absentee ballots, the county registrar must perform in strict compliance with the statutes. Lewis v. Griffith, 664 So. 2d 177 (Miss. 1995).

A town clerk's actions were not in compliance with the statutes governing absentee ballots where she hand-delivered 3 absentee ballots to her able-bodied relatives after normal business hours, and the ballots were executed outside the town hall. Lewis v. Griffith, 664 So. 2d 177 (Miss. 1995).

Sections 23-15-627, 23-15-635, 23-15-715, 23-15-717, and 23-15-719, which designate the procedures for application and completion of absentee ballots, are mandatory rather than directory in nature. Rogers v. Holder, 636 So. 2d 645 (Miss. 1994).

§ 23-15-629. Applications by persons who are permanently physically disabled; listing of qualified electors; distribution of ballots.

(1) The application for an absentee ballot of a person who is permanently physically disabled shall be accompanied by a statement signed by such person's physician, or nurse practitioner, which statement must show that the person signing the statement is a licensed, practicing medical doctor or nurse practitioner and must indicate that the person applying for the absentee ballot is permanently physically disabled to such a degree that it is difficult for him to vote in person.

(2) An application accompanied by the statement provided for in subsection (1) of this section shall entitle such permanently physically disabled person to automatically receive an absentee ballot for all elections on a continuing basis without the necessity for reapplication.

(3) The registrar of each county shall keep an accurate list of the names and addresses of all persons whose applications for absentee ballot are accompanied by the statement set forth in subsection (1) of this section. Sixty (60) days prior to each election, the registrar shall deliver such list to the commissioners of election who shall examine the list and delete from it the names of all persons listed who are no longer qualified electors of the county. Upon completion of such examination, the commissioners of election shall return the list to the registrar by no later than forty-five (45) days prior to the election.

(4) The registrar shall send a ballot to all persons who are determined by the commissioners of election to be qualified electors pursuant to subsection (3) of this section by no later than forty (40) days prior to the election.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

While law provided that disabled registered voter could vote by absentee ballot, no similar provision existed for registration of disabled prospective voter; upon proper certification of deputy registrar, notary public, or other designated official, such person might call upon prospective voter and perfect registration in manner similar to voting procedure applicable to disabled and infirmed. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Allain, 674 F. Supp. 1245 (N.D. Miss. 1987), aff'd sub nom. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Mabus, 932 F.2d 400 (5th Cir. 1991).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

A voter who is blind or is unable to read the ballot or mark the ballot and possesses the mental capacity to express his will as to how he wishes to vote and is qualified to vote by absentee ballot, is not disenfranchised but to entitled to receive the needed assistance that is statutorily provided for persons who vote at the polls. Townsen, Nov. 14, 1991, A.G. Op. #91-0886.

§ 23-15-631. Instructions to absent electors; instructions as constituting substantive law.

(1) The registrar shall enclose with each ballot provided to an absent elector separate printed instructions furnished by him containing the following:

(a) All absentee voters, excepting those with temporary or permanent physical disabilities or those who are sixty-five (65) years of age or older, who mark their ballots in the county of the residence shall use the registrar of that county as the witness. The absentee voter shall come to the office of the registrar and neither the registrar nor his deputy shall be required to go out of the registrar's office to serve as an attesting witness.

(b) Upon receipt of the enclosed ballot, you will not mark the ballot except in view or sight of the attesting witness. In the sight or view of the attesting witness, mark the ballot according to instructions.

(c) After marking the ballot, fill out and sign the "ELECTOR'S CERTIFICATE" on back of the envelope so that the signature shall be across the flap of the envelope so as to insure the integrity of the ballot. All absent electors shall have the attesting witness sign the "ATTESTING WITNESS CERTIFICATE" across the flap on back of the envelope. Place necessary postage on the envelope and deposit it in the post office or some government receptacle provided for deposit of mail so that the absent elector's ballot, excepting presidential absentee ballots, will reach the registrar in which your precinct is located not later than 5:00 p.m. on the day preceding the date of the election.

Any notary public, United States postmaster, assistant United States postmaster, United States postal supervisor, clerk in charge of a contract postal station, or any officer having authority to administer an oath or take an acknowledgment may be an attesting witness; provided, however, that in the case of an absent elector who is temporarily or permanently physically disabled, the attesting witness may be any person eighteen (18) years of age or older and such person is not required to have the authority to administer an oath. If a postmaster, assistant postmaster, postal supervisor, or clerk in charge of a contract postal station acts as an attesting witness, his signature on the elector's certificate must be authenticated by the cancellation stamp of their respective post offices. If one or the other officers herein named acts as attesting witness, his signature on the elector's certificate, together with his title and address, but no seal, shall be required. Any affidavits made by an absent elector who is in the Armed Forces may be executed before a commissioned officer, warrant officer, or noncommissioned officer not lower in grade than sergeant rating or any person authorized to administer oaths.

(d) When the application accompanies the ballot it shall not be returned in the same envelope as the ballot but shall be returned in a separate preaddressed envelope provided by the registrar.

(e) A person who is a candidate for public office may not be an attesting witness for any absentee ballot upon which the person's name appears.

(f) Any voter casting an absentee ballot who declares that he requires assistance to vote by reason of blindness, temporary or permanent physical disability or inability to read or write, shall be entitled to receive assistance in the marking of his absentee ballot and in completing the affidavit on the absentee ballot envelope. The voter may be given assistance by anyone of the voter's choice other than a candidate whose name appears on the absentee ballot being marked, or the voter's employer, or agent of that employer. In order to ensure the integrity of the ballot, any person who provides assistance to an absentee voter shall be required to sign and complete the "Certificate of Person Providing Voter Assistance" on the absentee ballot envelope.

(2) The foregoing instructions required to be provided by the registrar to the elector shall also constitute the substantive law pertaining to the handling of absentee ballots by the elector and registrar.

Editor's Note — Laws of 1987, ch. 499, §§ 20, 21 and 22, provide as follows:

"SECTION 20. If any section, paragraph, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is declared to be unconstitutional or void, or for any reason is declared to be invalid or of no effect, the remaining sections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses or phrases shall be in no manner affected thereby but shall remain in full force and effect.

“SECTION 21. The Attorney General of the State of Mississippi is hereby directed to submit this act immediately upon its approval by the Legislature to the Attorney General of the United States or the United States District Court for the District of Columbia in accordance with the provisions of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended.

“SECTION 22. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the date it is effectuated under the provisions of Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended.”

Laws of 1987, ch. 499, § 12, proposed to amend Section 23-15-631 by deleting the phrase “or those who are sixty-five (65) years of age or older” from (1)(a), and by deleting a paragraph in (1)(c) which stated “Persons having temporary or permanent physical disabilities shall not be required to have the certificate of attesting witness signed.”

On July 24, 1987, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection to the deletion of the paragraph in (1)(c), but did, however, reserve opinion about the deletion of the phrase concerning persons over sixty-five years of age, and requested additional information from the Mississippi Attorney General’s Office about such deletion.

As set out above, the provisions of Section 23-15-631 appear as printed in Laws of 1987, ch. 499, § 12, with the EXCEPTION of the phrase concerning persons over sixty-five years of age in (1)(a) which has been retained from Laws of 1986, ch. 495, § 203, by direction of the Attorney General of the State of Mississippi.

On June 21, 1999, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 1999, ch. 420, § 3.

On July 28, 2000, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 to the amendment of this section by Laws, 2000, ch. 592.

On June 5, 2006, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to the amendment of this section by Laws, 2006, ch. 574, § 18.

Amendment Notes — The 2006 amendment substituted “the ballot” for “same” preceding “except in view” in (1)(b); deleted “or by personally delivering such ballot to the registrar’s office not later than 12:00 noon on the Saturday immediately preceding elections held on Tuesday the Thursday immediately preceding elections held on Saturday and the second day immediately preceding elections held on other days” from the end of the first paragraph of (1)(c); and made minor stylistic changes.

1. Attesting witness.

Although a disabled person’s signature on an absentee ballot envelope was not required to be sworn, the ballot could not be counted because no person had signed the ballot envelope as an attesting witness as required by Miss. Code Ann. §§ 23-15-631(1)(c) and 23-15-635. Smith v. Hollins, 905 So. 2d 1267 (Miss. 2005).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

With regard to the name on the flap of an absentee ballot, even with the absence of the appearance of fraud, example (a) was unacceptable because there were no signature lines across the flap, no portion of the actual signature was written across the flap, and there was no attesting witness signature line or signature across the flap; further, example (b) was also unacceptable because there were no signature lines across the flap and there was no signature of an attesting witness. Reece, Oct. 6, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0571.

1. In general.
2. Mistake.

6. Under former law.
7. Under former Section 23-9-413.

1. In general.

Circuit court properly found that mail-in absentee ballots that did not comply with Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-635(1) were illegal since strict compliance was necessary; however, once it found that a losing candidate received the greatest number of legal votes, it was error to order a special election instead of utilizing Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-951. Ruhl v. Walton, 955 So. 2d 279 (Miss. 2007).

Although a disabled person's signature on an absentee ballot envelope was not required to be sworn, the ballot could not be counted because no person had signed the ballot envelope as an attesting witness as required by Miss. Code Ann. §§ 23-15-631(1)(c) and 23-15-635. Smith v. Hollins, 905 So. 2d 1267 (Miss. 2005).

Trial court erred in granting a candidate for county supervisor a directed verdict in election contest case, as the completion of as many as 30 absentee ballots by the candidate's supporter on behalf of illiterate and/or disabled voters called into question the integrity of these ballots. Straughter v. Collins, 819 So. 2d 1244 (Miss. 2002).

A voter may not authorize another person to sign the voter's name to the affidavit, even where the voter is unable to sign due to some disability. Campbell v. Whittington, 733 So. 2d 820 (Miss. 1999).

Under Mississippi's election statutes, absentee ballots may be executed in one of 2 ways — by appearing in person before the county registrar and executing an application and ballot, or by requesting a ballot by mail and mailing it back. Lewis v. Griffith, 664 So. 2d 177 (Miss. 1995).

Sections 23-15-627, 23-15-635, 23-15-715, 23-15-717, and 23-15-719, which designate the procedures for application and completion of absentee ballots, are mandatory rather than directory in nature. Rogers v. Holder, 636 So. 2d 645 (Miss. 1994).

2. Mistake.

Where a woman completed both the certificate of the attesting witness and the certificate of person providing voter assistance on the back of absentee ballot envelopes of 14 physically disabled voters, the mistake was of a technical nature and did not require that the votes be invalidated. Boyd v. Tishomingo County Democratic Exec. Comm. & Members, 912 So. 2d 124 (Miss. 2005).

3-5. [Reserved for future use.]

6. Under former law.

Where on an absentee ballot of a member of armed forces the certifying officer signed his name in the blank space of the certificate but did not sign at the end of the certificate but put only his official title, this was sufficient compliance with the requirement of this section as amended in 1954. Anders v. Longmire, 226 Miss. 215, 83 So. 2d 828 (1955).

7. Under former Section 23-9-413.

The absence of an attesting witness' signature on an absentee ballot envelope is a departure from a fundamental provision in the election code and, therefore, the absentee ballot should not be counted. Shannon v. Henson, 499 So. 2d 758 (Miss. 1986).

§ 23-15-637. Timely casting of ballots.

Absentee ballots received by mail, excluding presidential ballots as provided for in Sections 23-15-731 and 23-15-733, must be received by the registrar by 5:00 p.m. on the date preceding the election; any received after such time shall be handled as provided in Section 23-15-647 and shall not be counted. All ballots cast by the absent elector appearing in person in the office of the registrar shall be cast not later than 12:00 noon on the Saturday immediately preceding elections held on Tuesday, the Thursday immediately preceding elections held on Saturday, or the second day immediately preceding the date of elections held on other days. The registrar shall deposit all absentee ballots which have been timely cast in the ballot boxes upon receipt.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

No authority can be found that would allow a county registrar to open the ballot box and retrieve an absentee ballot cast in one party primary election and then allow the voter to cast another ballot in another party primary. Dill, July 29, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0363.

The failure to strictly comply with statutory provisions regarding the examination and counting of absentee ballots by poll workers should not serve to invalidate lawfully cast ballots and to disenfranchise the voters, and absentee ballots in question should be counted. Newton County Election Commission, Nov. 7, 2003, A.G. § 23-15-639. Examination of absentee ballots at close of polls; counting of ballots.

(1) In elections in which direct recording electronic voting systems are not utilized, the examination and counting of absentee ballots shall be conducted as follows:

(a) At the close of the regular balloting and at the close of the polls, the election managers of each voting precinct shall first take the envelopes containing the absentee ballots of such electors from the box, and the name, address and precinct inscribed on each envelope shall be announced by the election managers.

(b) The signature on the application shall then be compared with the signature on the back of the envelope. If it corresponds and the affidavit, if one is required, is sufficient and the election managers find that the applicant is a registered and qualified voter or otherwise qualified to vote, and that he has not appeared in person and voted at the election, the envelope shall then be opened and the ballot removed from the envelope, without its being unfolded, or permitted to be unfolded or examined.

(c) Having observed and found the ballot to be regular as far as can be observed from its official endorsement, the election managers shall deposit it in the ballot box with the other ballots before counting any ballots and enter the voter's name in the receipt book provided for that purpose and mark "VOTED" in the pollbook or poll list as if he had been present and voted in person. If voting machines are used, all absentee ballots shall be placed in the ballot box before any ballots are counted, and the election managers in each precinct shall immediately count such absentee ballots and add them to the votes cast in the voting machine or device.

(2) In elections in which direct recording electronic voting systems are utilized, the examination and counting of absentee ballots shall be conducted as follows:

(a) At the close of the regular balloting and at the close of the polls, the election managers of each voting precinct shall first take the envelopes containing the absentee ballots of such electors from the box, and the name, address and precinct inscribed on each envelope shall be announced by the election managers.

(b) The signature on the application shall then be compared with the signature on the back of the envelope. If it corresponds and the affidavit, if one is required, is sufficient and the election managers find that the applicant is a registered and qualified voter or otherwise qualified to vote, and that he has not appeared in person and voted at the election, the unopened envelope shall be marked "ACCEPTED" and the election managers shall enter the voter's name in the receipt book provided for that purpose and mark "VOTED" in the pollbook or poll list as if he had been present and voted in person.

(c) All absentee ballot envelopes shall then be placed in the secure ballot transfer case and delivered to the officials in charge of conducting the election at the central tabulation point of the county. The official in charge of the election shall open the envelopes marked "ACCEPTED" and remove the ballot from the envelope.

(d) Having observed the ballot to be regular as far as can be observed from its official endorsement, the absentee ballot shall be processed through the central optical scanner. The scanned totals shall then be combined with the direct recording electronic voting system totals for the unofficial vote count.

When there is a conflict between an electronic voting system and a paper record, then there is a rebuttable presumption that the paper record is correct.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

Evidence supported determination of county democratic executive committee and election commission that voter's signature on absentee ballot did not match signature on ballot envelope, and therefore, court's order to committee to reconvene, open, and count such absentee ballot constituted reversible error; several persons involved in vote counting process determined that signatures did not match, voter's testimony was unclear, and members of committee testified that candidate stated that voter's daughter, rather than voter, signed ballot and envelope. Pegram v. Bailey, 694 So. 2d 664 (Miss. 1997).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

poll workers should not serve to invalidate lawfully cast ballots and to disenfranchise the voters, and absentee ballots in question should be counted. Newton County

§ 23-15-641. Grounds for rejection of ballots; procedure.

(1) If an affidavit or the certificate of the officer before whom the affidavit is taken is required and such affidavit or certificate is found to be insufficient, or if it is found that the signatures do not correspond, or that the applicant is not a duly qualified elector in the precinct, or otherwise qualified to vote, or that the ballot envelope is open or has been opened and resealed, or the voter is not eligible to vote absentee or that the voter is present and has voted within the precinct where he represents himself to be a qualified elector, or otherwise qualified to vote, on the date of the election at such precinct, the previously cast vote shall not be allowed. Without opening the voter's envelope the commissioners of election, designated executive committee members or election managers, as appropriate, shall mark across its face "REJECTED", with the reason therefor.

(2) If the ballot envelope contains more than one (1) ballot of any kind, the ballot shall not be counted but shall be marked "REJECTED", with the reason therefor. The voter's envelopes and affidavits, and the voter's envelope with its contents unopened, when such vote is rejected, shall be retained and preserved in the same manner as other ballots at the election. Such votes may be challenged in the same manner and for the same reasons that any other vote cast in such election may be challenged.

(3) If an affidavit is required and the officials find that the affidavit is insufficient, or if the officials find that the absentee voter is otherwise disqualified to vote, the envelope shall not be opened and a commissioner or executive committee member shall write across the face of the envelope "REJECTED" giving the reason therefor, and the registrar shall promptly notify the voter of such rejection.

(4) The ballots marked "REJECTED" shall be placed in a separate envelope in the secure ballot transfer case and delivered to the officials in charge of conducting the election at the central tabulation point of the county.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

The statute does not state reasons that are acceptable for signatures to not correspond; instead, it only states that a ground for rejecting an absentee ballot is that the signatures did not correspond. Pegram v. Bailey, 708 So. 2d 1307 (Miss. 1997).

Evidence supported determination of county democratic executive committee and election commission that voter's signature on absentee ballot did not match signature on ballot envelope, and therefore, court's order to committee to reconvene, open, and count such absentee ballot constituted reversible error; several persons involved in vote counting process determined that signatures did not match, voter's testimony was unclear, and members of committee testified that candidate stated that voter's daughter, rather than voter, signed ballot and envelope. Pegram v. Bailey, 694 So. 2d 664 (Miss. 1997).

Rejection of absentee ballot by election commissioners for "signature differences" between ballot and envelope was permissible under statute allowing rejection of absentee ballot for failure of signature on ballot and envelope to "correspond"; true intent of legislature was to disallow any ballot where signatures were different. Pegram v. Bailey, 694 So. 2d 664 (Miss. 1997).

If an affidavit is required, the appropriate election officials shall examine the affidavit of each absentee ballot envelope. If the officials are satisfied that the affidavit is sufficient and that the absentee voter is otherwise qualified to vote, an official shall announce the name of the voter and shall give any person present an opportunity to challenge in like manner and for the same cause as the voter could have been challenged had he presented himself personally in such precinct to vote. The ineligibility of the voter to vote by absentee ballot shall be a ground for a challenge. Also, the officials shall consider any absentee voter challenged when a person has previously filed a written challenge of such voter's right to vote. The election officials shall handle any such challenge in the same manner as other challenged ballots are handled.

SOURCES: Derived from 1972 Code § 23-9-501 [Codes, 1942, § 3203-201; Laws, 1972, ch. 490, § 20; repealed by Laws, 1986, ch. 495, § 342]; en, Laws, 1986, ch. 495, § 215, eff from and after January 1, 1987.

§ 23-15-673. Definitions.

(1) For the purposes of this subarticle, the term "absent voter" shall mean and include the following:

(a) Any enlisted or commissioned members, male or female, of the United States Army, or any of its respective components or various divisions thereof; any enlisted or commissioned members, male or female, of the United States Navy, or any of its respective components or various divisions thereof; any enlisted or commissioned members, male or female, of the United States Air Force, or any of its respective components or various divisions thereof; any enlisted or commissioned members, male or female, of the United States Marines, or any of its respective components or various divisions thereof; or any persons in any division of the armed services of the United States, who are citizens of Mississippi;

(b) Any member of the Merchant Marine and the American Red Cross who is a citizen of Mississippi;

(c) Any disabled war veteran who is a patient in any hospital and who is a citizen of Mississippi;

(d) Any civilian attached to and serving outside of the United States with any branch of the Armed Forces or with the Merchant Marine or American Red Cross, and who is a citizen of Mississippi;

(e) Any citizen of Mississippi temporarily residing outside the territorial limits of the United States and the District of Columbia;

(f) Any citizen of Mississippi enrolled as a student at a United States Military Academy.

(2) The spouse and dependents of any absent voter as set out in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of subsection (1) of this section shall also be included in the meaning of absent voter and may vote an absentee ballot as provided in this subarticle if also absent from the county of their residence on the date of the election and otherwise qualified to vote in Mississippi.

(3) For the purpose of this subarticle, the term "election" shall mean and include the following sets of elections: special and runoff special elections, preferential and general elections, first and second primary elections or general elections without preferential elections, whichever system is applicable.

6. Under former law.

1.-5. [Reserved for future use.]

6. Under former law.

Requirement in this section (Laws 1942, ch. 202) as to the form of the ballot is directory and not mandatory, and a substantial compliance therewith, exercised in good faith under the existing circumstances of each case, where no wrong or injustice results, meets the requirements thereof. Gregory v. Sanders, 195 Miss. 508, 15 So. 2d 432 (1943).

Absentee ballots, although larger in size than home ballots and containing name of candidate who had not qualified, was a sufficient compliance with requirement that an absentee ballot be a regular ballot containing the names of persons to be voted for or against in primary elections, taking into consideration purpose of statute to permit soldiers to express their right of suffrage, and fact that such soldiers are in distant lands, making it necessary that ballots be sent to them early, although changes in ballots may be necessary because of death, disability or withdrawal of candidates in the interim before election. Gregory v. Sanders, 195 Miss. 508, 15 So. 2d 432 (1943).

In view of fact that crediting contestant with votes cast for candidate on absentee ballot, who did not qualify as a candidate, would not change result of election, contestant suffered no injury and had no right to complain. Gregory v. Sanders, 195 Miss. 508, 15 So. 2d 432 (1943).

§ 23-15-681. Absentee ballot envelopes.

All official absentee ballots shall be sent out and returned in envelopes on which there is printed across the face two (2) parallel horizontal bars, each one-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) of an inch wide, extending from one side of the envelope to the other side, with an intervening space of one-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) of an inch, the top bar to be one and one-fourth ($1\frac{1}{4}$) inches from the top of the envelope, and with the words "OFFICIAL ELECTION BALLOTING MATERIAL-VIA AIR MAIL" between the bars. In the upper right corner of each such envelope there shall be printed in a box the words "FREE OF U.S. POSTAGE, INCLUDING AIR MAIL." All printing on the face of such envelopes shall be in black, and there shall be printed in black in the upper left corner of all such ballot envelopes an appropriate inscription for the return address of the sender.

§ 23-15-683. Preparation and distribution of ballots for first and second elections; ascertainment by absent voters of candidates in second election.

In any elections, as soon as the deadline for the qualification of candidates has passed, or forty-five (45) days prior to the election, whichever is later, absentee ballots shall be prepared and printed for the elections, and both of said ballots shall have printed thereon the names of all candidates who originally qualify as candidates. However, such ballots shall be printed on paper of different tints or colors and shall be styled so as to show which ballot is to be used for the first election and which ballot is to be used for the second election.

When the proper application is made as is otherwise provided herein, the registrar shall send to the absent voter the proper absent voter ballots for the elections as is otherwise provided herein, and with such ballots there shall be sent also separate official envelopes for the return thereof. No additional ballot shall be thereafter sent to the absent voter for the second election but the absent voter shall ascertain which of the candidates who originally qualified are candidates in the second election and he or she may vote for his choice between them on the second election ballot previously sent him. If an absentee voter shall vote for any candidate on the second election ballot who is not a candidate in the second election, his vote for that office shall be disregarded.

(1) The registrar shall keep all applications for absentee ballots and shall, within twenty-four (24) hours, if possible, send to the absent voter on whose behalf the application is made, the proper affidavit and the proper ballot or ballots applicable to the elections.

(2) One (1) application for an absentee ballot shall serve as a request by the applicant for an absentee ballot for:

(a) The next two (2) federal general elections, including all primary elections associated with the elections;

(b) All state and county primary and general elections that occur after the receipt of the application by the registrar through the date of the second federal general election that occurs after the receipt of the application by the registrar.

(3) The registrar shall preserve all applications for absentee ballots for one (1) year as a record to be furnished to any court or other duly constituted authority for inspection or evidence if properly requested.

(4) If the registrar rejects an application for an absentee ballot or denies a request to register to vote from a uniformed services applicant or an overseas voter, the registrar shall provide the person with the reasons for the rejection.

§ 23-15-711. Short title.

The title of Sections 23-15-711 through 23-15-721 shall be the Mississippi Absentee Voter Law.

SOURCES: Derived from 1972 Code § 23-9-601 [Codes, 1942, § 3203-301; Laws, 1972, ch. 490, § 301; repealed by Laws, 1986, ch. 495, § 343]; en, Laws, 1986, ch. 495, § 229, eff from and after January 1, 1987.

§ 23-15-713. Electors qualified to vote as absentees.

For the purpose of this subarticle, any duly qualified elector may vote as provided in this subarticle if he be one who falls within the following categories:

(a) Any qualified elector who is a bona fide student, teacher or administrator at any college, university, junior college, high, junior high, or elementary grade school whose studies or employment at such institution necessitates his absence from the county of his voting residence on the date of any primary, general or special election, or the spouse and dependents of said student, teacher or administrator if such spouse or dependent(s) maintain a common domicile, outside of the county of his voting residence, with such student, teacher or administrator.

(b) Any qualified elector who is required to be away from his place of residence on any election day due to his employment as an employee of a member of the Mississippi congressional delegation and the spouse and dependents of such person if he or she shall be residing with such absentee voter away from the county of the spouse's voting residence.

(c) Any qualified elector who is away from his county of residence on election day for any reason.

(d) Any person who has a temporary or permanent physical disability and who, because of such disability, is unable to vote in person without substantial hardship to himself or others, or whose attendance at the voting place could reasonably cause danger to himself or others.

(e) The parent, spouse or dependent of a person with a temporary or permanent physical disability who is hospitalized outside of his county of residence or more than fifty (50) miles distant from his residence, if the parent, spouse or dependent will be with such person on election day.

(f) Any person who is sixty-five (65) years of age or older.

(g) Any member of the Mississippi congressional delegation absent from Mississippi on election day, and the spouse and dependents of such member of the congressional delegation.

(h) Any qualified elector who will be unable to vote in person because he is required to be at work on election day during the times at which the polls will be open.

§ 23-15-715. Applications for absentee ballots.

Any elector desiring an absentee ballot as provided in this subarticle may secure same if:

(a) Not more than forty-five (45) days nor later than 12:00 noon on the Saturday immediately preceding elections held on Tuesday, the Thursday immediately preceding elections held on Saturday, or the second day immediately preceding the date of elections held on other days, he shall appear in person before the registrar of the county in which he resides, or for municipal elections he shall appear in person before the city clerk of the municipality in which he resides and, when the elector so appears, he shall execute and file an application as provided in Section 23-15-627 and vote by absentee ballot, except that if the ballot has not been printed by forty-five (45) days preceding the election, the elector may appear and file an application anytime before the election. Then the absentee ballot shall be mailed by the circuit clerk to the elector as soon as the ballot has been printed.

(b) Within forty-five (45) days next prior to any election, any elector who cannot comply with paragraph (a) of this section by reason of temporarily residing outside the county, or any person who has a temporary or permanent physical disability, persons who are sixty-five (65) years of age or older, or any person who is the parent, spouse or dependent of a temporarily or permanently physically disabled person who is hospitalized outside of his county of residence or more than fifty (50) miles away from his residence and such parent, spouse or dependent will be with such person on election day, may make application for an absentee ballot by mailing the appropriate application to the registrar. Only persons temporarily residing out of the county of their residence, persons having a temporary or permanent physical disability, persons who are sixty-five (65) years of age or older, or any person who is the parent, spouse or dependent of a temporarily or permanently physically disabled person who is hospitalized outside of his county of residence or more than fifty (50) miles away from his residence, and such parent, spouse or dependent will be with such person on election day, may obtain absentee ballots by mail under the provisions of this subsection and as provided by Section 23-15-713. Applications of persons temporarily residing outside the county shall be sworn to and subscribed before an official who is authorized to administer oaths or other official authorized to witness absentee balloting as provided in this chapter, said application to be accompanied by such verifying affidavits as required by this chapter. The applications of persons having a temporary or permanent physical disability shall not be required to be accompanied by an affidavit but shall be witnessed and signed by a person eighteen (18) years of age or older. The registrar shall send to such absent voter a proper absentee voter ballot within twenty-four (24) hours, or as soon thereafter as the ballots are available, containing the names of all candidates who qualify or the proposition to be voted on in such election, and with such ballot there shall be sent an official envelope containing upon it in printed form the recitals and data hereinafter required.

1. In general.

Under Mississippi's election statutes, absentee ballots may be executed in one of 2 ways-by appearing in person before the county registrar and executing an application and ballot, or by requesting a ballot by mail and mailing it back. Lewis v. Griffith, 664 So. 2d 177 (Miss. 1995).

The language in § 23-15-17 which sets forth the manner for applying for and executing absentee ballots is mandatory. Lewis v. Griffith, 664 So. 2d 177 (Miss. 1995).

The statutes requiring a voter to request an absentee ballot, actually vote his or her own ballot, and place and seal the ballot in the provided envelope are intended to ensure the integrity of absentee ballots. Lewis v. Griffith, 664 So. 2d 177 (Miss. 1995).

In performing statutory duties with respect to absentee ballots, the county registrar must perform in strict compliance with the statutes. Lewis v. Griffith, 664 So. 2d 177 (Miss. 1995).

A town clerk's actions were not in compliance with the statutes governing absentee ballots where she hand-delivered 3 absentee ballots to her able-bodied relatives after normal business hours, and the ballots were executed outside the town hall. Lewis v. Griffith, 664 So. 2d 177 (Miss. 1995).

Sections 23-15-627, 23-15-635, 23-15-715, 23-15-717, and 23-15-719, which designate the procedures for application and completion of absentee ballots, are mandatory rather than directory in nature. Rogers v. Holder, 636 So. 2d 645 (Miss. 1994).

Where a defendant was indicted as a vote fraud principal for aiding, abetting or assisting or causing a named voter to violate the provisions of § 23-9-605(2) [Repealed.], it was not necessary for the state to prove that the named voter had committed a crime, only that the named voter had violated the absentee ballot procedure mandated in § 23-9-605(2) [Repealed]. Van Buren v. State, 498 So. 2d 1224 (Miss. 1986).

Pretrial detainees and convicted misdemeanants who are incarcerated cannot be denied access to ballot, and court will grant preliminary injunction prohibiting denial of plaintiff class, consisting of present and future pretrial detainees and other prisoners incarcerated in Mississippi who are not disenfranchised for conviction of certain felonies, access to absentee ballot. *Murphree v. ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

A circuit clerk may send only the application and upon receipt of the completed application mail the ballot. Allen, Oct. 24, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0555.

If a circuit clerk sends both the application and the ballot simultaneously and the materials return with errors, the clerk does not have authority to send a second absentee ballot. Allen, Oct. 24, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0555.

The circuit clerk does not have any authority to determine the validity of absentee ballots; the clerk is required to place absentee ballots in the ballot boxes upon receipt, and it is the responsibility of the poll workers to determine the validity of the ballots. Allen, Oct. 24, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0555.

§ 23-15-719. Delivery of ballots to applicant; completion of ballots; affidavit; delivery of ballots to registrar.

(1) Immediately upon completion of an application filed pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (a) of Section 23-15-715, the registrar shall deliver the necessary ballots to the applicant. The registrar shall only deliver the ballots to the applicant by mail or to the applicant in the registrar's office. The registrar shall not personally hand deliver ballots to voters, unless he delivers the ballots in the office of the registrar. The elector shall fill in his ballot in secret. After the applicant has properly marked the ballot and properly folded it, he shall deposit it in the envelope furnished him by the registrar.

After he has sealed the envelope, he shall subscribe and swear to an affidavit in the following form, which shall be printed on the back of the envelope containing the applicant's ballot:

"STATE OF MISSISSIPPI

COUNTY OF _____

I, _____, do solemnly swear that this envelope contains the ballot marked by me indicating my choice of the candidates or propositions to be submitted at the election to be held on the _____ day of _____, 2_____, and I hereby authorize the registrar to place this envelope in the ballot box on my behalf, and I further authorize the election managers to open this envelope and place my ballot among the other ballots cast before such ballots are counted, and record my name on the poll list as if I were present in person and voted.

I further swear that I marked the enclosed ballot in secret.

(Signature of voter)

"SWORN TO AND SUBSCRIBED before me, _____, this the _____ day of _____, 2_____.

(Registrar)

(Registrar)"

After the completion of the requirements of this section, the elector shall deliver the envelope containing the ballot to the registrar.

(2) If the voter has received assistance in marking his ballot, the person providing the assistance shall complete the following form which shall be printed on the back of the envelope containing the applicant's ballot:

"CERTIFICATE OF PERSON PROVIDING VOTER ASSISTANCE

(To be completed only if the voter has received assistance in marking the enclosed ballot.) I hereby certify that the above-named voter declared to me that he or she is blind, temporarily or permanently physically disabled, or cannot read or write, and that the voter requested that I assist the voter in marking the enclosed absentee ballot. I hereby certify that the ballot preferences on the enclosed ballot are those communicated by the voter to me, and that I have marked the enclosed ballot in accordance with the voter's instructions.

Signature of person providing assistance

Printed name of person providing assistance

Address of person providing assistance

Date and time assistance provided

Family relationship to voter (if any)"

(3) The envelope used pursuant to this section shall not contain the form prescribed by Section 23-15-635.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

No authority can be found that would allow a county registrar to open the ballot box and retrieve an absentee ballot cast in one party primary election and then allow the voter to cast another ballot in another party primary. Dill, July 29, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0363.

A voter who cast an absentee ballot in one party's primary may not lawfully cast a regular ballot in another party's primary. Dill, July 29, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0363.

The list of voters who vote by absentee ballot is a public record. Therefore, it is permissible to furnish the election managers in one party's primary with a list of individuals who cast absentee ballots in another party's primary. Dill, July 29, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0363.

23-15-733. Disposition of ballots received after election.

23-15-735. Delivery of absentee ballots to voters in person.

§ 23-15-731. General provisions.

Any presidential absentee ballots received by the registrar subsequent to the delivery of ballot boxes to the election managers and prior to the time for the closing of the polls on election day shall be retained by the registrar and shall be delivered, together with the applications of the qualified absentee elector to an election official designated to receive them. The registrar shall receive a receipt from the designated election official for all such ballots and applications delivered. The designated election officials shall, upon the canvassing of the returns, count such ballots as if delivered to the proper precincts and such ballots shall be considered valid for all purposes as if they had been actually deposited in the proper precinct ballot boxes. The appropriate election officials shall examine the affidavit of each envelope. If the officials are satisfied that the affidavit is sufficient and that the absentee voter is otherwise qualified to vote, an official shall announce the name of the voter and shall give any person present an opportunity to challenge in like manner and for the same cause as the voter could have been challenged had he presented himself personally in such precinct to vote. The ineligibility of the voter to vote by absentee ballot shall be a ground for a challenge. The officials shall consider any absentee voter challenged when a person has previously filed a written challenge of such voter's right to vote. The election officials shall handle any such challenge in the same manner as other challenged ballots are handled, and if the challenge is not affirmed, the officials shall then open the envelope. The officials shall then open the envelope in such manner as not to destroy the affidavit printed thereon and shall deposit the ballot marked "OFFICIAL ABSENTEE BALLOT," in a ballot box reserved for absentee ballots. The commissioners shall endorse on their pollbooks a proper notation to indicate that the absentee voter has voted in such election by absentee ballot.

§ 23-15-753. Penalties for vote fraud.

(1) Any person who willfully, unlawfully and feloniously procures, seeks to procure, or seeks to influence the vote of any person voting by absentee ballot, by the payment of money, the promise of payment of money, or by the delivery of any other item of value or promise to give the voter any item of value, or by promising or giving the voter any favor or reward in an effort to influence his vote, or any person who aids, abets, assists, encourages, helps, or causes any person voting an absentee ballot to violate any provision of law pertaining to absentee voting, or any person who sells his vote for money, favor, or reward, has been paid or promised money, a reward, a favor or favors, or any other item of value, or any person who shall willfully swear falsely to any affidavit provided for in Sections 23-15-621 through 23-15-735, shall be guilty of the crime of "vote fraud" and, upon conviction, shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) nor more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), or by imprisonment in the county jail for no more than one

(1) year, or by both fine and imprisonment, or by being sentenced to the State Penitentiary for not less than one (1) year nor more than five (5) years.

(2) It shall be unlawful for any person who pays or compensates another person for assisting voters in marking their absentee ballots to base the pay or compensation on the number of absentee voters assisted or the number of absentee ballots cast by persons who have received the assistance. Any person who violates this section, upon conviction shall, be fined not less than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) nor more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), or imprisoned in the Penitentiary not less than one (1) year nor more than five (5) years, or both.

1. In general.

The statute does not permit a person convicted of voter fraud to be subjected to both a fine and a term of imprisonment. Sewell v. State, 721 So. 2d 129 (Miss. 1998).

2.-5. [Reserved for future use.]

6. Under former section 29-3-703.

The requirements of the accessories to felonies before the fact statute, § 97-1-3, are not incorporated into § 23-9-703 [Repealed.] but, instead, § 23-9-703 [Repealed.] creates a separate offense of vote fraud. Van Buren v. State, 498 So. 2d 1224 (Miss. 1986).

§ 23-15-785. Certificates of nomination and nominating petitions; preparation of official ballots.

(1) When presidential electors are to be chosen, the Secretary of State of Mississippi shall certify to the circuit clerks of the several counties the names of all candidates for President and Vice-President who are nominated by any national convention or other like assembly of any political party or by written petition signed by at least one thousand (1,000) qualified voters of this state.

(2) The certificate of nomination by a political party convention must be signed by the presiding officer and secretary of the convention and by the chairman of the state executive committee of the political party making the nomination. Any nominating petition, to be valid, must contain the signatures as well as the addresses of the petitioners. Such certificates and petitions must be filed with the State Board of Election Commissioners by filing the same in the office of the Secretary of State not less than sixty (60) days previous to the day of the election.

(3) Each certificate of nomination and nominating petition must be accompanied by a list of the names and addresses of persons, who shall be qualified voters of this state, equal in number to the number of presidential electors to be chosen. Each person so listed shall execute the following statement which shall be attached to the certificate or petition when the same is filed with the State Board of Election Commissioners: "I do hereby consent and do hereby agree to serve as elector for President and Vice-President of the United States, if elected to that position, and do hereby agree that, if so elected, I shall cast my ballot as such for _____ for President and _____ for Vice-President of the United States" (inserting in said blank spaces the respective names of the persons named as nominees for said respective offices in the certificate to which this statement is attached).

(4) The State Board of Election Commissioners and any other official charged with the preparation of official ballots shall place on such official ballots the words "PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS FOR (here insert the name of the candidate for President, the word 'AND' and the name of the candidate for Vice-President)" in lieu of placing the names of such presidential electors on such official ballots, and a vote cast therefor shall be counted and shall be in all respects effective as a vote for each of the presidential electors representing such candidates for President and Vice-President of the United States. In the case of unpledged electors, the State Board of Election Commissioners and any other official charged with the preparation of official ballots shall place on such official ballots the words "UNPLEDGED ELECTOR(S) (here insert the name(s) of individual unpledged elector(s) if placed upon the ballot based upon a petition granted in the manner provided by law stating the individual name(s) of the elector(s) rather than a slate of electors)."

§ 23-15-801. Definitions.

(a) "Election" shall mean a general, special, primary or runoff election.

(b) "Candidate" shall mean an individual who seeks nomination for election, or election, to any elective office other than a federal elective office and for purposes of this article, an individual shall be deemed to seek nomination for election, or election:

(i) If such individual has received contributions aggregating in excess of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) or has made expenditures aggregating in excess of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) or for a candidate for the Legislature or any statewide or state district office, by the qualifying deadlines specified in Sections 23-15-299 and 23-15-977, whichever occurs first; or

(ii) If such individual has given his or her consent to another person to receive contributions or make expenditures on behalf of such individual and if such person has received such contributions aggregating in excess of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) during a calendar year, or has made such expenditures aggregating in excess of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) during a calendar year.

(c) "Political committee" shall mean any committee, party, club, association, political action committee, campaign committee or other groups of persons or affiliated organizations which receives contributions aggregating in excess of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) during a calendar year or which makes expenditures aggregating in excess of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) during a calendar year for the purpose of influencing or attempting to influence the action of voters for or against the nomination for election, or election, of one or more candidates, or balloted measures and shall, in addition, include each political party registered with the Secretary of State.

(d) "Affiliated organization" shall mean any organization which is not a political committee, but which directly or indirectly establishes, administers or financially supports a political committee.

(e)(i) "Contribution" shall include any gift, subscription, loan, advance or deposit of money or anything of value made by any person or political committee for the purpose of influencing any election for elective office or balloted measure;

(ii) "Contribution" shall not include the value of services provided without compensation by any individual who volunteers on behalf of a candidate or political committee; or the cost of any food or beverage for use in any candidate's campaign or for use by or on behalf of any political committee of a political party;

(iii) "Contribution to a political party" includes any gift, subscription, loan, advance or deposit of money or anything of value made by any person, political committee, or other organization to a political party and to any committee, subcommittee, campaign committee, political committee and other groups of persons and affiliated organizations of the political party.

(iv) "Contribution to a political party" shall not include the value of services provided without compensation by any individual who volunteers on behalf of a political party or a candidate of a political party.

(f)(i) "Expenditure" shall include any purchase, payment, distribution, loan, advance, deposit, gift of money or anything of value, made by any person or political committee for the purpose of influencing any balloted measure or election for elective office; and a written contract, promise, or agreement to make an expenditure;

(ii) "Expenditure" shall not include any news story, commentary or editorial distributed through the facilities of any broadcasting station, newspaper, magazine, or other periodical publication, unless such facilities are owned or controlled by any political party, political committee, or candidate; or nonpartisan activity designed to encourage individuals to vote or to register to vote;

(iii) "Expenditure by a political party" includes 1. any purchase, payment, distribution, loan, advance, deposit, gift of money or anything of value, made by any political party and by any contractor, subcontractor, agent, and consultant to the political party; and 2. a written contract, promise, or agreement to make such an expenditure.

(g) The term "identification" shall mean:

(i) In the case of any individual, the name, the mailing address, and the occupation of such individual, as well as the name of his or her employer; and

(ii) In the case of any other person, the full name and address of such person.

(h) The term "political party" shall mean an association, committee or organization which nominates a candidate for election to any elective office whose name appears on the election ballot as the candidate of such association, committee or organization.

(i) The term "person" shall mean any individual, family, firm, corporation, partnership, association or other legal entity.

(j) The term "independent expenditure" shall mean an expenditure by a person expressly advocating the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate which is made without cooperation or consultation with any candidate or any authorized committee or agent of such candidate, and which is not made in concert with or at the request or suggestion of any candidate or any authorized committee or agent of such candidate.

(k) The term "clearly identified" shall mean that:

(i) The name of the candidate involved appears; or

(ii) A photograph or drawing of the candidate appears; or

(iii) The identity of the candidate is apparent by unambiguous reference.

§ 23-15-807. Reporting requirements; contributions and disbursements of candidates and political committees.

(a) Each candidate or political committee shall file reports of contributions and disbursements in accordance with the provisions of this section. All candidates or political committees required to report may terminate its obligation to report only upon submitting a final report that it will no longer receive any contributions or make any disbursement and that such candidate or committee has no outstanding debts or obligations. The candidate, treasurer or chief executive officer shall sign each such report.

(b) Candidates who are seeking election, or nomination for election, and political committees that make expenditures for the purpose of influencing or attempting to influence the action of voters for or against the nomination for election, or election, of one or more candidates or balloted measures at such election, shall file the following reports:

(i) In any calendar year during which there is a regularly scheduled election, a preelection report, which shall be filed no later than the seventh day before any election in which such candidate or political committee has accepted contributions or made expenditures and which shall be complete as of the tenth day before such election;

(ii) In 1987 and every fourth year thereafter, periodic reports, which shall be filed no later than the tenth day after April 30, May 31, June 30, September 30 and December 31, and which shall be complete as of the last day of each period; and

(iii) In any calendar years except 1987 and except every fourth year thereafter, a report covering the calendar year which shall be filed no later than January 31 of the following calendar year.

(c) All candidates for judicial office as defined in Section 23-15-975, or their political committees, shall file in the year in which they are to be elected, periodic reports which shall be filed no later than the tenth day after April 30, May 31, June 30, September 30 and December 31.

(d) Contents of reports. Each report under this article shall disclose:

(i) For the reporting period and the calendar year, the total amount of all contributions and the total amount of all expenditures of the candidate or reporting committee which shall include those required to be identified pursuant to item (ii) of this paragraph as well as the total of all other contributions and expenditures during the calendar year. Such reports shall be cumulative during the calendar year to which they relate;

(ii) The identification of:

1. Each person or political committee who makes a contribution to the reporting candidate or political committee during the reporting period, whose contribution or contributions within the calendar year have an aggregate amount or value in excess of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) together with the date and amount of any such contribution;

2. Each person or organization, candidate or political committee who receives an expenditure, payment or other transfer from the reporting candidate, political committee or its agent, employee, designee, contractor, consultant or other person or persons acting in its behalf during the reporting period when the expenditure, payment or other transfer to such person, organization, candidate or political committee within the calendar year have an aggregate value or amount in excess of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) together with the date and amount of such expenditure.

(iii) The total amount of cash on hand of each reporting candidate and reporting political committee;

(iv) In addition to the contents of reports specified in items (i), (ii) and (iii) of this paragraph, each political party shall disclose:

1. Each person or political committee who makes a contribution to a political party during the reporting period and whose contribution or contributions to a political party within the calendar year have an aggregate amount or value in excess of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00), together with the date and amount of the contribution;

2. Each person or organization who receives an expenditure by a political party or expenditures by a political party during the reporting period when the expenditure or expenditures to the person or organization within the calendar year have an aggregate value or amount in excess of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00), together with the date and amount of the expenditure.

(e) The appropriate office specified in Section 23-15-805 must be in actual receipt of the reports specified in this article by 5:00 p.m. on the dates specified in paragraph (b) of this section. If the date specified in paragraph (b) of this section shall fall on a weekend or legal holiday then the report shall be due in the appropriate office at 5:00 p.m. on the first working day before the date specified in paragraph (b) of this section. The reporting candidate or reporting political committee shall ensure that the reports are delivered to the appropriate office by the filing deadline. The Secretary of State may approve specific means of electronic transmission of completed campaign finance disclosure reports, which may include, but not be limited to, transmission by electronic facsimile (FAX) devices.

(f)(i) If any contribution of more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) is received by a candidate or candidate's political committee after the tenth day, but more than forty-eight (48) hours before 12:01 a.m. of the day of the election, the candidate or political committee shall notify the appropriate office designated in Section 23-15-805, within forty-eight (48) hours of receipt of the contribution. The notification shall include:

1. The name of the receiving candidate;
2. The name of the receiving candidate's political committee, if any;
3. The office sought by the candidate;
4. The identification of the contributor;

5. The date of receipt;
6. The amount of the contribution;
7. If the contribution is in-kind, a description of the in-kind contribution; and
8. The signature of the candidate or the treasurer or director of the candidate's political committee.

(ii) The notification shall be in writing, and may be transmitted by overnight mail, courier service, or other reliable means, including electronic facsimile (FAX), but the candidate or candidate's committee shall ensure that the notification shall in fact be received in the appropriate office designated in Section 23-15-805 within forty-eight (48) hours of the contribution.

§ 23-15-809. Statements by persons other than political committees; filing; indices of expenditures.

(a) Every person who makes independent expenditures in an aggregate amount or value in excess of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) during a calendar year shall file a statement containing the information required under Section 23-15-807. Such statement shall be filed with the appropriate offices as provided for in Section 23-15-805, and such person shall be considered a political committee for the purpose of determining place of filing.

(b) Statements required to be filed by this section shall include:

(i) Information indicating whether the independent expenditure is in support of, or in opposition to, the candidate involved;

(ii) Under penalty of perjury, a certification of whether or not such independent expenditure is made in cooperation, consultation or concert with, or at the request or suggestion of, any candidate or any authorized committee or agent of such candidate; and

(iii) The identification of each person who made a contribution in excess of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) to the person filing such statement which was made for the purpose of furthering an independent expenditure.

In a proceeding for judicial review for executive committee's order rescinding its order declaring the petitioner a nominee, the special tribunal did not have authority to determine that respondent, because of alleged violations of Corrupt Practices Act, was disqualified from holding an office of supervisor and for that reason could not run for the Democratic Primary and perhaps become a nominee for that office. Blakeney v. Mayfield, 226 Miss. 53, 83 So. 2d 748 (1955), error overruled 226 Miss. 53, 84 So. 2d 427.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

The prescribed sanctions of subsections (c) & (d) are applicable once the deadline passes and the candidate has not filed the required report. Artigues, Jr., Feb. 18, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0060.

A city by and through the board of aldermen has an affirmative duty to comply with subsection (d) by withholding the payment of any salary or other remuneration until the offending official files all delinquent reports. Artigues, Jr., Feb. 18, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0060.

A candidate who ultimately files all required reports is entitled to retain any compensation paid while the candidate was delinquent in filing reports; likewise, a candidate who ultimately files all delinquent reports would be entitled to any compensation withheld pursuant to subsection (d). Artigues, Jr., Feb. 18, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0060.

§ 23-15-813. Civil penalty for failure to file campaign finance disclosure report; notice to candidate of failure to file; assessment of penalty by Secretary of State; hearing; appeal.

(a) In addition to any other penalty permitted by law, the Secretary of State shall require any candidate or political committee, as identified in Section 23-15-805(a), and any other political committee registered with the Secretary of State, who fails to file a campaign finance disclosure report as required under Sections 23-15-801 through 23-15-813, or Sections 23-17-47 through 23-17-53, or who shall file a report which fails to substantially comply with the requirements of Sections 23-15-801 through 23-15-813, or Sections 23-17-47 through 23-17-53, to be assessed a civil penalty as follows:

(i) Within five (5) calendar days after any deadline for filing a report pursuant to Sections 23-15-801 through 23-15-813, or Sections 23-17-47 through 23-17-53, the Secretary of State shall compile a list of those candidates and political committees who have failed to file a report. The Secretary of State shall provide each candidate or political committee, who has failed to file a report, notice of the failure by first-class mail.

(ii) Beginning with the tenth calendar day after which any report shall be due, the Secretary of State shall assess the delinquent candidate and political committee a civil penalty of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) for each day or part of any day until a valid report is delivered to the Secretary of State, up to a maximum of ten (10) days. However, in the discretion of the Secretary of State, the assessing of the fine may be waived in whole or in part if the Secretary of State determines that unforeseeable mitigating circumstances, such as the health of the candidate, interfered with timely filing of a report. Failure of a candidate or political committee to receive notice of failure to file a report from the Secretary of State is not an unforeseeable mitigating circumstance, and failure to receive the notice shall not result in removal or reduction of any assessed civil penalty.

(iii) Filing of the required report and payment of the fine within ten (10) calendar days of notice by the Secretary of State that a required statement has not been filed, constitutes compliance with Sections 23-15-801 through 23-15-813, or Sections 23-17-47 through 23-17-53.

(iv) Payment of the fine without filing the required report does not in any way excuse or exempt any person required to file from the filing requirements of Sections 23-15-801 through 23-15-813, and Sections 23-17-47 through 23-17-53.

(v) If any candidate or political committee is assessed a civil penalty, and the penalty is not subsequently waived by the Secretary of State, the candidate or political committee shall pay the fine to the Secretary of State within ninety (90) days of the date of the assessment of the fine. If, after one hundred twenty (120) days of the assessment of the fine the payment for the entire amount of the assessed fine has not been received by the Secretary of State, the Secretary of State shall notify the Attorney General of the delinquency, and the Attorney General shall file, where necessary, a suit to compel payment of the civil penalty.

(b)(i) Upon the sworn application, made within sixty (60) calendar days of the date upon which the required report is due, of a candidate or political committee against whom a civil penalty has been assessed pursuant to paragraph (a), the Secretary of State shall forward the application to the State Board of Election Commissioners. The State Board of Election Commissioners shall appoint one or more hearing officers who shall be former chancellors, circuit court judges, judges of the Court of Appeals or justices of the Supreme Court, and who shall conduct hearings held pursuant to this article. The hearing officer shall fix a time and place for a hearing and shall cause a written notice specifying the civil penalties that have been assessed against the candidate or political committee and notice of the time and place of the hearing to be served upon the candidate or political committee at least twenty (20) calendar days before the hearing date. The notice may be served by mailing a copy thereof by certified mail, postage prepaid, to the last known business address of the candidate or political committee.

(ii) The hearing officer may issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of books and papers at the hearing. Process issued by the hearing officer shall extend to all parts of the state and shall be served by any person designated by the hearing officer for the service.

(iii) The candidate or political committee has the right to appear either personally, by counsel or both, to produce witnesses or evidence in his behalf, to cross-examine witnesses and to have subpoenas issued by the hearing officer.

(iv) At the hearing, the hearing officer shall administer oaths as may be necessary for the proper conduct of the hearing. All hearings shall be conducted by the hearing officer, who shall not be bound by strict rules of procedure or by the laws of evidence in the conduct of the proceedings, but the determination shall be based upon sufficient evidence to sustain it. The scope of review at the hearing shall be limited to making a determination of whether failure to file a required report was due to an unforeseeable mitigating circumstance.

(v) Where, in any proceeding before the hearing officer, any witness fails or refuses to attend upon a subpoena issued by the commission, refuses to testify, or refuses to produce any books and papers the production of which is called for by a subpoena, the attendance of the witness, the giving of his testimony or the production of the books and papers shall be enforced by any court of competent jurisdiction of this state in the manner provided for the enforcement of attendance and testimony of witnesses in civil cases in the courts of this state.

(vi) Within fifteen (15) calendar days after conclusion of the hearing, the hearing officer shall reduce his or her decision to writing and forward an attested true copy of the decision to the last known business address of the candidate or political committee by way of United States first-class, certified mail, postage prepaid.

(c)(i) The right to appeal from the decision of the hearing officer in an administrative hearing concerning the assessment of civil penalties authorized pursuant to this section is granted. The appeal shall be to the Circuit Court of Hinds County and shall include a verbatim transcript of the testimony at the hearing. The appeal shall be taken within thirty (30) calendar days after notice of the decision of the commission following an administrative hearing. The appeal shall be perfected upon filing notice of the appeal and by the prepayment of all costs, including the cost of the preparation of the record of the proceedings by the hearing officer, and the filing of a bond in the sum of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00), conditioned that if the decision of the hearing officer be affirmed by the court, the candidate or political committee will pay the costs of the appeal and the action in court. If the decision is reversed by the court, the Secretary of State will pay the costs of the appeal and the action in court.

(ii) If there is an appeal, the appeal shall act as a supersedeas. The court shall dispose of the appeal and enter its decision promptly. The hearing on the appeal may be tried in vacation, in the court's discretion. The scope of review of the court shall be limited to a review of the record made before the hearing officer to determine if the action of the hearing officer is unlawful for the reason that it was 1. not supported by substantial evidence, 2. arbitrary or capricious, 3. beyond the power of the hearing officer to make, or 4. in violation of some statutory or constitutional right of the appellant. The decision of the court may be appealed to the Supreme Court in the manner provided by law.

(d) If, after forty-five (45) calendar days of the date of the administrative hearing procedure set forth in paragraph (b), the candidate or political committee identified in paragraph (a) of this section fails to pay the monetary civil penalty imposed by the hearing officer, the Secretary of State shall notify the Attorney General of the delinquency. The Attorney General shall investigate the offense in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, and where necessary, file suit to compel payment of the unpaid civil penalty.

(e) If, after twenty (20) calendar days of the date upon which a campaign finance disclosure report is due, a candidate or political committee identified in paragraph (a) of this section shall not have filed a valid report with the Secretary of State, the Secretary of State shall notify the Attorney General of those candidates and political committees who have not filed a valid report, and the Attorney General shall thereupon prosecute the delinquent candidates and political committees.

§ 23-15-833. Special elections to fill vacancies in county, county district, and district attorney offices.

Except as otherwise provided by law, the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of each year shall be designated the regular special election day, and on that day an election shall be held to fill any vacancy in county, county district, and district attorney elective offices.

All special elections, or elections to fill vacancies, shall in all respects be held, conducted and returned in the same manner as general elections, except that where no candidate receives a majority of the votes cast in such election, then a runoff election shall be held three (3) weeks after such election and the two (2) candidates who receive the highest popular votes for such office shall have their names submitted as such candidates to the said runoff and the candidate who leads in such runoff election shall be elected to the office. When there is a tie in the first election of those receiving next highest vote, these two (2) and the one receiving the highest vote, none having received a majority, shall go into the runoff election and whoever leads in such runoff election shall be entitled to the office.

In those years when the regular special election day shall occur on the same day as the general election, the names of candidates in any special election and the general election shall be placed on the same ballot, but shall be clearly distinguished as general election candidates or special election candidates.

At any time a special election is held on the same day as a party primary election, the names of the candidates in the special election may be placed on the same ballot, but shall be clearly distinguished as special election candidates or primary election candidates.

§ 23-15-839. Appointments to fill vacancies in county or county district offices; special election procedures; procedure where only one person has qualified for candidacy in special election.

(1) When a vacancy shall occur in any county or county district office, the same shall be filled by appointment by the board of supervisors of the county, by order entered upon its minutes, where the vacancy occurs, or by appointment of the president of the board of supervisors, by and with the consent of the majority of the board of supervisors, if such vacancy occurs when said board is not in session, and the clerk of the board shall certify to the Secretary of State the fact of the appointment, and the person so appointed shall be commissioned by the Governor; and if the unexpired term be longer than six (6) months, such appointee shall serve until a successor is elected as hereinafter provided, unless the regular special election day on which the vacancy should be filled occurs in a year in which an election would normally be held for that office as provided by law, in which case the person so appointed shall serve the unexpired portion of the term. Such vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term by the qualified electors at the next regular special election day occurring more than ninety (90) days after the occurrence of the vacancy. The board of supervisors of the county shall, within ten (10) days after the happening of the vacancy, make an order, in writing, directed to the commissioners of election, commanding an election to be held on the next regular special election day to fill the vacancy. The election commissioners shall require each candidate to qualify at least sixty (60) days before the date of the election, and shall give a certificate of election to the person elected, and shall return to the Secretary of State a copy of the order of holding the election, showing the results thereof, certified by the clerk of the board of supervisors. The person elected shall be commissioned by the Governor.

(2) In any election ordered pursuant to this section where only one (1) person shall have qualified with the commissioners of election to be a candidate within the time provided by law, the commissioners of election shall certify to the board of supervisors that there is but one (1) candidate. Thereupon, the board of supervisors shall dispense with the election and shall appoint the candidate so certified to fill the unexpired term. The clerk of the board shall certify to the Secretary of State the candidate so appointed to serve in said office and that candidate shall be commissioned by the Governor. In the event that no person shall have qualified by 5:00 p.m. sixty (60) days prior to the date of the election, the commissioners of election shall certify that fact to the board of supervisors which shall dispense with the election and fill the vacancy by appointment. The clerk of the board of supervisors shall certify to the Secretary of State the fact of the appointment, and the person so appointed shall be commissioned by the Governor.

The trial court improperly denied relief in a suit to enjoin the use of certain county election districts on the ground that they perpetuated dilution of black voting strength where the unresponsiveness of officials to the needs of black citizens and the residual effects of past discrimination were evidenced by, inter alia, the poll tax, the literacy requirement, the property requirement for county officers, and the electoral mechanism of majority vote requirements. *United States v. ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Vacancy on county board of supervisors must be filled in accordance with Miss. Code Section 23-15-839 which requires remaining members of board of supervisors to appoint eligible person to serve on interim basis until special election is conducted to elect someone to serve remainder of term. Higginbotham, May 12, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0323.

Miss. Code Section 23-15-839 sets forth procedure for conducting special elections to fill vacancies in county and district offices. Mosley, June 3, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0391.

Although a vacancy on a county board of supervisors will be filled pursuant to special election proceedings under Miss. Code Section 23-15-833, this section requires that the remaining board members appoint an eligible person to serve the remaining portion of the unexpired term until the special election is conducted. Smith, Aug. 29, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0536.

When a justice court judge resigns, the vacancy should be filled in accordance with this section; Section 9-11-31 is to be used only when the justice court judge's office is temporarily vacant due to suspension or disability. Sherard, July 22, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0128.

Nominations for candidates to fill vacancies in county or county district offices shall be made upon dates to be fixed by the county executive committee for county or county district offices. The first and second primaries shall be held on the dates to be fixed by such executive committees, which committees shall also fix the dates when the returns are to be made of the results of such primaries. If there is not sufficient time, after the election is ordered, for the holding of second primary to fill such vacancies, on account of the nearness of the election, from the date at which it is ordered, the executive committee having such nomination in charge, may submit the result to the first primary election, the nomination going to the candidate receiving the highest popular vote. Such special primary election shall be conducted, as far as applicable, under the laws governing other primary elections.

§ 23-15-849. Elections to fill vacancies in office of judge of Supreme Court, Court of Appeals, circuit judge, or chancellor; interim appointments.

(1) Vacancies in the office of circuit judge or chancellor shall be filled for the unexpired term by the qualified electors at the next regular election for state officers or for representatives in Congress occurring more than nine (9) months after the existence of the vacancy to be filled, and the term of office of the person elected to fill a vacancy shall commence on the first Monday in January following his election. Upon the occurring of such a vacancy, the Governor shall appoint a qualified person from the district in which the vacancy exists to hold the office and discharge the duties thereof until the vacancy shall be filled by election as provided in this subsection.

(2)(a) If half or more than half of the term remains, vacancies in the office of judge of the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals shall be filled for the unexpired term by the qualified electors at the next regular election for state officers or for representatives in Congress occurring more than nine (9) months after the existence of the vacancy to be filled, and the term of office of the person elected to fill a vacancy shall commence on the first Monday in January following his election. If less than half of the term remains, vacancies in the office of judge of the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals shall be filled for the remaining unexpired term solely by appointment as provided in this subsection.

(b) Upon occurrence of a vacancy, the Governor shall appoint a qualified person from the district in which the vacancy exists to hold the office and discharge the duties thereof as follows:

(i) If less than half of the term remains, the appointee shall serve until expiration of the term;

(ii) If half or more than half of the term remains, the appointee shall serve until the vacancy shall be filled by election as provided in subsection (1) of this section for judges of the circuit and chancery courts. Elections to fill vacancies in the office of judge of the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals shall be held, conducted, returned and the persons elected commissioned in accordance with the law governing regular elections for judges of the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals insofar as they may be applicable.

(c) This subsection (2) shall apply to all gubernatorial appointees to the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals who have not stood for special election as of July 2, 2002, as if Laws, 2002, ch. 586, were in full force and effect on the day of each of their appointments.

CJS. 29 C.J.S., Elections §§ 128, 182.
91 C.J.S., United States § 22.

§ 23-15-857. Appointments to fill vacancies in city, town, or village offices; elections to fill such offices; procedure where no person or only one person has qualified as candidate.

(1) When it shall happen that there is any vacancy in a city, town or village office which is elective, the unexpired term of which shall not exceed six (6) months, the same shall be filled by appointment by the governing authority or remainder of the governing authority of said city, town or village. The municipal clerk shall certify to the Secretary of State the fact of such appointment, and the person or persons so appointed shall be commissioned by the Governor.

(2) When it shall happen that there is any vacancy in an elective office in a city, town or village the unexpired term of which shall exceed six (6) months, the governing authority or remainder of the governing authority of said city, town or village shall make and enter on the minutes an order for an election to be held in such city, town or village to fill the vacancy and fix a date upon which such election shall be held. Such order shall be made and entered upon the minutes at the next regular meeting of the governing authority after such vacancy shall have occurred, or at a special meeting to be held not later than ten (10) days after such vacancy shall have occurred, Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays excluded, whichever shall occur first. Such election shall be held on a date not less than thirty (30) days nor more than forty-five (45) days after the date upon which the order is adopted.

Notice of such election shall be given by the municipal clerk by notice published in a newspaper published in the municipality. Such notice shall be published once each week for three (3) successive weeks preceding the date of such election. The first notice to be published at least thirty (30) days before the date of such election. Notice shall also be given by posting a copy of such notice at three (3) public places in such municipality not less than twenty-one (21) days prior to the date of such election. One (1) of such notices shall be posted at the city, town or village hall. In the event that there is no newspaper published in the municipality, then such notice shall be published as provided for above in a newspaper which has a general circulation within the municipality and by posting as provided for above. In addition, the governing authority may publish such notice in such newspaper for such additional times as may be deemed necessary by the governing authority.

Each candidate shall qualify by petition filed with the municipal clerk by 5:00 p.m. at least twenty (20) days before the date of the election and such petition shall be signed by not less than the following number of qualified electors:

(a) For an office of a city, town or village having a population of one thousand (1,000) or more, not less than fifty (50) qualified electors.

(b) For an office of a city, town or village having a population of less than one thousand (1,000), not less than fifteen (15) qualified electors.

No qualifying fee shall be required of any candidate, and the election provided for herein shall be held as far as practicable in the same manner as municipal general elections.

The candidate receiving a majority of the votes cast in a said election shall be elected. If no candidate shall receive a majority vote at the election, the two (2) candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall have their names placed on the ballot for the election to be held two (2) weeks thereafter. The candidate receiving a majority of the votes cast in said election shall be elected. However, if no candidate shall receive a majority and there is a tie in the election of those receiving the next highest vote, those receiving the next highest vote and the candidate receiving the highest vote shall have their names placed on the ballot for the election to be held two (2) weeks thereafter, and whoever receives the most votes cast in such election shall be elected.

Should the election to be held two (2) weeks thereafter result in a tie vote, the candidate to prevail shall be decided by lot, fairly and publicly drawn under the supervision by the election commission with the aid of two (2) or more qualified electors of the municipality.

The clerk of the election commission shall then give a certificate of election to the person elected, and shall return to the Secretary of State a copy of the order of holding the election and runoff election showing the results thereof, certified by the clerk of the governing authority. The person elected shall be commissioned by the Governor.

However, if nineteen (19) days prior to the date of the election only one (1) person shall have qualified as a candidate, the governing authority, or remainder of the governing authority, shall dispense with the election and appoint that one (1) candidate in lieu of an election. In the event no person shall have qualified by 5:00 p.m. at least twenty (20) days prior to the date of the election, the governing authority or remainder of the governing authority shall dispense with the election and fill the vacancy by appointment. The clerk of the governing authority shall certify to the Secretary of State the fact of the appointment, and the person so appointed shall be commissioned by the Governor.

8. Special Elections.

Where the voters, residing in various wards within a city, alleged that the city violated the U.S. Constitution's one person, one vote principle by refusing to re-evaluate population deviations within the city's ward scheme in light of the 2000 decennial census figures and a 1993 annexation, and in failing for over 10 years to propose a redistricting plan to the United States Department of Justice that would pass constitutional muster and receive preclearance under § 5 of the Voting Rights Act, 42 U.S.C.S. § 1973c, the district court declared vacant the offices of city council and mayor, and the district court ordered a special election. The court found that the special election procedure in Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-857 was remedially appropriate. Garrard v. City of Grenada, — F. Supp. 2d —, 2005 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 34350 (N.D. Miss. Sept. 7, 2005).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Miss. Code Section 23-15-857(1) means City Council shall appoint, and Mayor shall confirm or veto, appointment of replacement for vacant City Council seat. Schissel, Apr. 28, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0289.

The statute applies to special elections to fill vacancies in municipal offices; it does not apply to municipal general elections. Hatcher, Mar. 23, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0163.

There is no authority for an appointment to fill a vacancy where the unexpired term exceeds six months. Hatcher, Mar. 23, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0163.

If a town forgoes holding a general election in the event no person qualifies to run in that election, the incumbent officials would hold over after the expiration of their regular terms of office until such time as new officers are elected; further any action taken by those officers during this hold-over period would be valid and binding as official acts. Craft, Apr. 27, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0254.

As the Special Charter of a city contains provisions which establish the time frame in which a special election to fill a vacancy shall be held, there is no need to refer to general law, and the provisions of the Charter would control. Alexander, May 30, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0269.

If only one person qualifies to run for office to fill a vacancy in a special charter municipality as of the day after the date established for qualification, the governing authorities of the city would have the authority to fill the vacancy by appointment of the person who has qualified, without having the election. Alexander, May 30, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0269.

Any action taken or votes cast concerning municipal matters prior to receiving preclearance of a special election by an alderman elected in said election would be valid. Ferrell, Oct. 20, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0547.

Where a vacancy exists on a town board of alderman which has persisted for several months without being filled as required by this section, and a quorum of the board has failed to meet to conduct the necessary business of the town, as a way of moving the apparent impasse, the mayor should set at the next and subsequent meetings of the board as the first item on the agenda the matter of filling the vacancy on the board by declaring the vacancy and ordering a special election to be held between 30 and 45 calendar days after the date of the order and fill the vacancy. Tanner, Apr. 16, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0145.

§ 23-15-859. Date of special municipal election; notice.

Whenever under any statute a special election is required or authorized to be held in any municipality, and the statute authorizing or requiring such election does not specify the time within which such election shall be called, or the notice which shall be given thereof, the governing authorities of the municipality shall, by resolution, fix a date upon which such election shall be held. Such date shall not be less than twenty-one (21) nor more than thirty (30) days after the date upon which such resolution is adopted, and not less than three (3) weeks' notice of such election shall be given by the clerk by a notice published in a newspaper published in the municipality once each week for three (3) weeks next preceding the date of such election, and by posting a copy of such notice at three (3) public places in such municipality. Nothing herein, however, shall be applicable to elections on the question of the issuance of the bonds of a municipality or to general or primary elections for the election of municipal officers.

§ 23-15-871. General prohibitions with respect to employers, employees, and public officials.

It shall be unlawful for any corporation or any officer or employee thereof, or any member of a firm, or trustee or any member of any association, or any other employer, to direct or coerce, directly or indirectly, any employee to vote or not to vote for any particular person or group of persons in any election, or to discharge or to threaten to discharge any such employee, or to increase or decrease the salary or wages of an employee, or otherwise promote or demote him, because of his vote or failure to vote for any particular candidate or group of candidates; and likewise it shall be unlawful for any employer, or employee having the authority to employ or discharge other employees, to make any statement public or private, or to give out or circulate any report or statement, calculated to intimidate or coerce or otherwise influence any employee as to his vote, and when any such statement has obtained circulation, it shall be the duty of such employer to publicly repudiate it, in the absence of which repudiation the employer shall be deemed by way of ratification to have made it himself. Nor shall any employee be requested, directed or permitted to canvass for or against any candidate or render any other services for or against any candidate or group of candidates, during any of the hours within which the salary of said employee as an employee is being paid or agreed to be paid; nor shall any such employee be allowed any vacation or leave of absence at the expense of the employer to render any service or services for or against any candidate or group of candidates, or to take any active part in any election campaign whatsoever; nor shall any employee at the expense, in whole or in part, of any employer take any part whatever in any election campaign, except the necessary time to cast his vote. The prohibitions of this section shall apply to all state, state district, county and county district officers, and to any board or commission and the members thereof by whatever name designated and whether elective or appointive, and to each and every one of those employed by them or any of them. And no state, state district, county or county district officer, or any employee of any of them who directly or indirectly has the control, or in any way the power of control, or who asserts or pretends that he has such power, over the expenditure of any public funds in this state, whatever the purpose or object of said expenditure may be, shall state, suggest or intimate, publicly or privately, or in any manner or form, that any such expenditure shall in any wise depend upon or be influenced by the vote of any person, group of persons, or community or group of communities, whether for or against any candidate or group of candidates at any election. This section and every part of it shall apply also to all federal officers, agents, employees, boards and commissions by whatever name known and to each and every one of those employed by them or any of them, as to any interference by them or any of them, contrary to the provisions of this chapter, in the elections of this state.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

There was no basis for concluding that Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-871 had been violated in case where there was no evidence that the incumbent candidate for county supervisor coerced two county employees to take time off in order to work on the incumbent's re-election campaign, and there was no evidence the two employees were not entitled to the vacation time they took. Straughter v. Collins, 819 So. 2d 1244 (Miss. 2002).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

State employees may take personal leave to engage in political campaign activities. Ray, March 6, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0114.

As a general rule, public employees may engage in political activities when on personal leave, but any employee who engages in political activity proscribed by the statute while at work is subject to disciplinary action. Warren, Feb. 11, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0042.

Nothing prohibits an incumbent public official from handing out campaign cards to voters who come into the courthouse, provided it does not interfere with the conduct of business. Griffin, July 18, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0336.

§ 23-15-873. Prohibitions against promises of public positions or employment, public contracts, or public expenditures; exceptions.

No person, whether an officer or not, shall, in order to promote his own candidacy, or that of any other person, to be a candidate for public office in this state, directly or indirectly, himself or through another person, promise to appoint, or promise to secure or assist in securing the appointment, nomination or election of another person to any public position or employment, or to secure or assist in securing any public contract or the employment of any person under any public contractor, or to secure or assist in securing the expenditure of any public funds in the personal behalf of any particular person or group of persons, except that the candidate may publicly announce what is his choice or purpose in relation to an election in which he may be called on to take part if elected. It shall be unlawful for any person to directly or indirectly solicit or receive any promise by this section prohibited. But this does not apply to a sheriff, chancery clerk, circuit clerk, or any other person, of the state or county when it comes to their office force.

Editor's Note — Laws of 1999, ch. 301, was House Bill 1609, 1998 Regular Session, and originally passed both Houses of the Legislature on April 3, 1998. The Governor vetoed House Bill 1609 on April 17, 1998. The veto was overridden by the State Senate and House of Representatives on January 5, 1999.

On January 15, 1999, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 1999, ch. 301, § 5.

§ 23-15-875. Prohibitions against charges with respect to integrity of candidate; proceedings against violators.

No person, including a candidate, shall publicly or privately make, in a campaign then in progress, any charge or charges reflecting upon the honesty, integrity or moral character of any candidate, so far as his private life is concerned, unless the charge be in fact true and actually capable of proof; and any person who makes any such charge shall have the burden of proof to show the truth thereof when called to account therefor under any affidavit or indictment against him for a violation of this section. Any language deliberately uttered or published which, when fairly and reasonably construed and as commonly understood, would clearly and unmistakably imply any such charge, shall be deemed and held to be the equivalent of a direct charge. And in no event shall any such charge, whether true or untrue, be made on the day of any election, or within the last five (5) days immediately preceding the date of any election.

Any person who shall willfully and knowingly violate this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon the affidavit of any two (2) credible citizens of this state, before any judicial officer having jurisdiction of misdemeanors, said officer shall thereupon forthwith issue his warrant for the arrest of said alleged offender, and when arrested the officer shall forthwith examine into the matter, and if the proof of guilt be evident or the presumption great, the officer shall place the accused person under bond in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), with two (2) or more good sureties, conditioned that the person bound will appear at the next term of the court where the offense is cognizable, and in addition that the person bound will not further violate this section; and additional affidavits may be filed and additional bonds may be required for each and every subsequent offense. When and if under a prosecution under this section, the alleged offender is finally acquitted, the persons who made the original affidavit shall pay all costs of the proceedings.

§ 23-15-877. Prohibitions against newspaper editorials and stories with respect to integrity of candidate; newspaper's obligation to print reply; liability for damages.

If during any election campaign in Mississippi any newspaper either domiciled in the state, or outside of the state circulating inside the State of Mississippi, shall print any editorial or news story reflecting upon the honesty or integrity or moral character of any candidate in such campaign or on the honesty and integrity or moral character of any candidate who was elected or defeated in such campaign, such newspaper shall, on the written or telegraphic request of such candidate or his agents, print in such newspaper not later than the second issue of such newspaper following the receipt of such request, a statement by the candidate or his duly accredited representative giving the candidate's reply. Such statement shall be printed in the exact language which the candidate or his representative presents and shall be printed as near as is practical on the same page, in the same position, and in the same size type and headlines as the original editorial or news story reflecting on the candidate had been printed.

This section shall be construed to include those news stories wherein the newspaper quotes from a candidate or individual statements attacking the honesty or integrity or moral character of a candidate or ex-candidate.

If such newspaper fails or refuses to publish such answer when requested, the owner of such newspaper shall be liable to a suit for damages by the candidate claiming to be injured by such publication. In event of a verdict in favor of the plaintiff, the measure of damages shall be the injury suffered or a penalty of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), whichever is the larger amount. In all cases, the truth of the charge may be offered as defense to the suit. But nothing herein contained shall be construed to abolish any existing legal rights of action in such cases.

6. Under former Section 23-3-35.

This section [Code 1942, § 3175] does not require that the publisher of a newspaper make amends for an unjust criticism of a candidate for public office by printing the candidate's reply, except in cases where the editorial and news story reflects upon the honesty, or integrity or moral character of the candidate. Manasco v. Walley, 216 Miss. 614, 63 So. 2d 91 (1953).

The word "moral" means righteous or upright. Manasco v. Walley, 216 Miss. 614, 63 So. 2d 91 (1953).

The word "integrity" means moral soundness, freedom from corrupting influence or practice. Manasco v. Walley, 216 Miss. 614, 63 So. 2d 91 (1953).

The word "honesty" means fairness and straight-forwardness of conduct, integrity, freedom from fraud. Manasco v. Walley, 216 Miss. 614, 63 So. 2d 91 (1953).

The word "reflect" as used in this section [Code 1942, § 3175] means to cast aspersion or reproach. Manasco v. Walley, 216 Miss. 614, 63 So. 2d 91 (1953).

In an action for damages for defamation based upon statute making newspaper liable if it refuses to publish candidate's answer to editorial or a news story reflecting upon his honesty, integrity or moral character, the meaning of the editorial must be ascertained from the language used, as commonly understood. *Manasco v. § 23-15-881. Prohibitions against excessive expenditures or hiring of workers for state highways or public roads; maintenance of records.

It shall be unlawful for the State Highway Commission or any member of the State Highway Commission, or the board of supervisors of any county or any member of the board of supervisors of such county, to employ, during the months of May, June, July and August of any year in which a general primary election is held for the nomination and election of members of the State Highway Commission and members of the boards of supervisors, a greater number of persons to work and maintain the state highways, in any highway district, or the public roads, in any supervisors district of the county, as the case may be, than the average number of persons employed for similar purposes in such highway district or supervisors district, as the case may be, during the months of May, June, July and August of the three (3) years immediately preceding the year in which such general primary election is held. It shall be unlawful for the State Highway Commission, or the board of supervisors of any county, to expend out of the state highway funds, or the road funds of the county or any supervisors district thereof, as the case may be, in the payment of wages or other compensation for labor performed in working and maintaining the highways of any highway district, or the public roads of any supervisors district of the county, as the case may be, during the months of May, June, July and August of such election year, a total amount in excess of the average total amount expended for such labor, in such highway district or supervisors district, as the case may be, during the corresponding four (4) months' period of the three (3) years immediately preceding.

It shall be the duty of the State Highway Commission and the board of supervisors of each county, respectively, to keep sufficient records of the numbers of employees and expenditures made for labor on the state highways of each highway district, and the public roads of each supervisors district, for the months of May, June, July and August of each year, to show the number of persons employed for such work in each highway district and each supervisors district, as the case may be, during said four (4) months' period, and the total amount expended in the payment of salaries and other compensation to such employees, so that it may be ascertained, from an examination of such records, whether or not the provisions of this chapter have been violated.

It is provided, however, because of the abnormal conditions existing in certain counties of the state due to recent floods in which roads and bridges have been materially damaged or washed away and destroyed, if the board of supervisors in any county passes a resolution as provided in Section 19-9-11, Mississippi Code of 1972, for the emergency issuance of road and bridge bonds, the provisions of this section shall not be applicable to or in force concerning the board of supervisors during the calendar year 1955.

The restriction imposed upon the State Highway Commission and the boards of supervisors of the several counties in the employment of labor to work and maintain the state highways and the public roads of the several supervisors' districts of the county, as provided in Section 23-15-881, shall not apply to road contractors or bridge contractors engaged in the construction or maintenance of state highways or county roads under contracts awarded by the State Highway Commission, or the board of supervisors, as the case may be, where such contracts shall have been awarded to the lowest responsible bidder, after legal advertisement, as provided by law; nor shall the restriction imposed in Section 23-15-881 apply to the labor employed by such road contractors or bridge contractors in carrying out such contracts. Nor shall the provisions of this chapter apply to the employment by the State Highway Commission, or the board of supervisors, as the case may be, of extra labor employed to make repairs upon the state highways or highway bridges, or upon the county roads or bridges, in cases where such state highways or highway bridges, or such county roads or bridges, have been damaged or destroyed by severe storms, floods or other unforeseen disasters.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
2. Construction with other Sections.
3. Illustrative cases.

1. In general.

Violations of the 150-foot rule of § 23-15-895, which prohibits any candidate or any candidate's representative from posting or distributing campaign literature within 150 feet of any building where an election is being held, will not necessarily require throwing out a precinct box. Where the violations involve "failures in material particulars ... to such an extent that it is impossible to arrive at the will of the voters at such precinct," the entire box may be thrown out; however, if it appears "with reasonable certainty" that the violations were not condoned by any of the election precinct managers for the purpose of electing or defeating a certain candidate, then a hearing should be held and the commission or executive committee should make such determination as is just. The statute does not rule out an order, either by the election body or the court in review, to hold another election at that precinct with new managers. Rizzo v. Bizzell, 530 So. 2d 121 (Miss. 1988).

2. Construction with other Sections.

Trial court was correct in overruling the decision of the Jefferson Davis County Democratic Executive Committee, to conduct a new election for the Democratic nominee for Jefferson Davis County Chancery Clerk. The requirements to hold a new election under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-593 were not met, as § 23-15-593 authorized new elections for individual precincts if the requirements were met, not a new election county or district wide. To have held a new election county wide, the Committee would had to have determined that all precincts failed in material particulars to comply with the requirements of Miss. Code Ann. §§ 23-15-591 and 23-15-895 to such an extent that it was impossible to arrive at the will of the voters; there was no evidence that there were violations of Miss. Code Ann. §§ 23-15-591 and 23-15-895 and the committee exceeded its authority under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-593 in ordering a new election. Jefferson Davis County v. Davies, 912 So. 2d 837 (Miss. 2005).

3. Illustrative cases.

Primary election candidate's blanket allegation implying that the incumbent sheriff illegally directed his deputies to transport prisoners to the polls never materialized into an actual claim of injustice since he never presented the claim with particularity or supported it with credible evidence. Harpole v. Kemper County Democratic Exec. Comm., 908 So. 2d 129 (Miss. 2005).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

To the extent that campaigning involves the posting or distribution of campaign literature inside the courthouse (or other building wherein the registrar's office is § 23-15-897. Requirement of candidate's subscription of printed campaign material; observance of federal provisions with respect to radio and television time; payment for printed matter and for broadcast time at usual rates.

No person shall write, print, post or distribute or cause to be distributed, a notice, placard, bill, poster, dodger, pamphlet, advertisement or any other form of publication (except notices, posters, and the like, which simply announce speaking date and invite attendance thereon) which is designed to influence voters for or against any candidate at any election, unless and until the same shall have been submitted to, and approved and subscribed by the candidate or by his campaign manager or assistant manager, which subscription shall in all cases be printed as so subscribed, and not otherwise. As, for instance, it shall be unlawful to write, print, post, distribute or cause to be written, printed, posted or distributed any such matter when the authority therefor is designated simply as "paid political advertisement," or "contributed by a friend," or "contributed by the friends and supporters," and the like. Nor shall any radio or television station allow any time or place on any of its programs for any address for or against any candidate at any election, except in accordance with the provisions of the federal statutes and the rules and regulations of the Federal Communications Commission as applied to the use of radio and television facilities by a candidate or candidates for office. But the aforesaid written or printed matter and the time for radio and television addresses shall be paid for at the usual and ordinary rates, and only by a person authorized to make expenditures in behalf of the candidate, as is provided in this chapter in regard to other expenditures.

For a violation or violations of this section, the offender may be proceeded against as provided in Section 23-15-875.

Editor's Note — The United States Attorney General, by letter dated August 16, 1993, interposed no objection, under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to certain changes occasioned by Laws of 1993, ch. 528. However, with respect to procedures for processing complaints alleging election law violations, the Attorney General concluded that the information submitted was insufficient to support a determination that the proposed change did not have the purpose and would not have the effect of denying or abridging the right to vote on account of race or color, as required by Section 5, and requested additional information. Section 2 of Chapter 528, Laws of 1993, has not precleared as of July 18, 2007.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

- SEC.
23-15-911. Control of ballot boxes and their contents after general or primary elections; examinations by candidates or their representatives.
23-15-913. Judges to be available to hear and resolve election day disputes.

§ 23-15-911. Control of ballot boxes and their contents after general or primary elections; examinations by candidates or their representatives.

(1) When the returns for a box and the contents of the ballot box and the conduct of the election thereat have been canvassed and reviewed by the county election commission in the case of general elections or the county executive committee in the case of primary elections, all the contents of the box required to be placed and sealed in the ballot box by the managers shall be replaced therein by the election commission or executive committee, as the case may be, and the box shall be forthwith resealed and delivered to the circuit clerk, who shall safely keep and secure the same against any tampering therewith. At any time within twelve (12) days after the canvass and examination of the box and its contents by the election commission or executive committee, as the case may be, any candidate or his representative authorized in writing by him shall have the right of full examination of said box and its contents upon three (3) days' notice of his application therefor served upon the opposing candidate or candidates, or upon any member of their family over the age of eighteen (18) years, which examination shall be conducted in the presence of the circuit clerk or his deputy who shall be charged with the duty to see that none of the contents of the box are removed from the presence of the clerk or in any way tampered with. Upon the completion of said examination the box shall be resealed with all its contents as theretofore. And if any contest or complaint before the court shall arise over said box, it shall be kept intact and sealed until the court hearing and another ballot box, if necessary, shall be furnished for the precinct involved.

(2) The provisions of this section allowing the examination of ballot boxes shall apply in the case of an election contest regarding the seat of a member of the State Legislature. In such a case, the results of the examination shall be reported by the applicable circuit clerk to the Clerk of the House of Representatives or the Secretary of the Senate, as the case may be.

On August 7, 2000, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 to the amendment of this section by Laws of 2000, ch. 450.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

- 1-5. [Reserved for future use.]
6. Under former Section 23-3-23, generally.
7. —Enforcement of right to examine ballot boxes.
8. —Evidence.
9. —Appeals.
10. Special election warranted.

1-5. [Reserved for future use.]

6. Under former Section 23-3-23, generally.

Under § 23-3-23 [Repealed.], the 12 day period within which a candidate wishing to contest an election must examine the ballots begins to run when the party's executive committee has certified the returns and declared an official winner. Noxubee County Democratic Executive Comm. v. Russell, 443 So. 2d 1191 (Miss. 1983).

This section [Code 1942, § 3169] does not make it mandatory that one who contests an election must examine the ballot boxes. Francis v. Sisk, 205 So. 2d 254 (Miss. 1967).

There is no provision in this section [Code 1942, § 3169], or any other section, which prohibits a candidate who is contesting a canvass of a primary election from disclosing to other candidates the results of his examination of the ballot boxes. Francis v. Sisk, 205 So. 2d 254 (Miss. 1967).

The time limit fixed by this provision may not be altered by the courts. Weeks v. Bates, 237 Miss. 778, 115 So. 2d 298 (1959).

Objections based upon an examination of the ballot boxes after twelve days may not be considered, although made upon notice served within the twelve days. Weeks v. Bates, 237 Miss. 778, 115 So. 2d 298 (1959).

This section [Code 1942, § 3169] is in pari materia with statute giving candidate a right to contest the election, and it is indicative of general policy of the state on a cognate subject matter to allow contesting candidates the right to obtain the facts concerning election precedent to filing a contest. Lopez v. Holleman, 219 Miss. 822, 69 So. 2d 903 (1954), overruled on other grounds, O'Neal v. Simpson, 350 So. 2d 998 (Miss. 1977).

Offer of a recount of ballots by chairman of county democratic executive committee, on morning after election, did not bar candidate's right of examination conferred by this section. Sartin v. Barlow ex rel. Smith, 196 Miss. 159, 16 So. 2d 372 (1944).

Chairman of county executive committee has nothing to do with the manner of examination of ballot boxes under this section [Code 1942, § 3169]. Sartin v. Barlow ex rel. Smith, 196 Miss. 159, 16 So. 2d 372 (1944).

7. —Enforcement of right to examine ballot boxes.

Losing candidate's petition for judicial review of a primary judicial election was dismissed for failure to state a cause of action because the losing candidate failed to request and view the ballots within the 12-day time frame mandated by Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-911. Cook v. Brown, 909 So. 2d 1075 (Miss. 2005).

Losing candidate's petition for judicial review of a primary judicial election was dismissed for failure to state a cause of action because the losing candidate failed to request and view the ballots within the 12-day time frame mandated by Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-911. Cook v. Brown, 909 So. 2d 1075 (Miss. 2005).

Candidate is entitled to enforce right of examination of ballot boxes conferred by Corrupt Practices Act by mandamus to be heard and determined in vacation, since such right is one affecting public interest and not merely personal to the candidate seeking to exercise it. Sartin v. Barlow ex rel. Smith, 196 Miss. 159, 16 So. 2d 372 (1944).

8. —Evidence.

Evidence that after counting of ballots, and before recount thereof, circuit clerk failed to seal the ballot boxes in question and to keep a record of the seals as required by statute, and that such boxes and their contents were tampered with, warranted affirmance of order of special tribunal, unanimously entered, adjudging election valid as against contestant who received a majority on recount. Allen v. Funchess, 195 Miss. 486, 15 So. 2d 343 (1943).

9. —Appeals.

Allowance of appeal with supersedeas from writ of mandamus ordering circuit clerk to permit candidate to examine ballot boxes after primary election as provided by the Corrupt Practices Act was an abuse of discretion, where such allowance had the practice or effect of denying the writ so far as affording any relief before the day of the general election, and it appeared on review that the appeal was without merit and instituted for the purpose of delay. Sartin v. Barlow ex rel. Smith, 196 Miss. 159, 16 So. 2d 372 (1944).

Notwithstanding that general election had passed when record on appeal from writ of mandamus directing circuit clerk to permit primary candidate to inspect ballot boxes was filed in the Supreme Court, appeal would not be dismissed as involving a moot case in view of public interest involved, and compelling propriety to declare the rule of law to be followed under the Corrupt Practices Act. Sartin v. Barlow ex rel. Smith, 196 Miss. 159, 16 So. 2d 372 (1944).

10. Special election warranted.

Failure to secure ballot boxes under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-911 and the lack of control over the boxes were substantial irregularities that warranted a special election because they were radical departures from Mississippi election law. Waters v. Gnemi, 907 So. 2d 307 (Miss. 2005).

Cited in: Jefferson Davis County v. Davies, 912 So. 2d 837 (Miss. 2005).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

No statute specifically makes it a crime to fail to comply with the statute in general, although willful violations of law are provided for in Section 97-13-19. Hayes, Jan. 7, 2000, A.G. Op. #99-0703.

This section contemplates that once the examination by a candidate begins it is to be a continuous one from day to day until completion. It is our opinion that once the examination is completed and the boxes resealed a second examination by that candidate is not contemplated or authorized. Neal, Sept. 26, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0517.

Where a letter of complaint apparently seeking an examination of ballot boxes was received by the circuit clerk more than 12 days after certification of the election results by the county election commission, and there was no indication that the other candidates were given the required notice, no examination could be conducted. Dowdy, Dec. 19, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0661.

§ 23-15-921. Nominations to county or county district offices, etc.; petition, notice of contest, investigation, and determination.

Except as otherwise provided by Section 23-15-961, a person desiring to contest the election of another person returned as the nominee of the party to any county or county district office, or as the nominee of a legislative district composed of one (1) county or less, may, within twenty (20) days after the primary election, file a petition with the secretary, or any member of the county executive committee in the county in which the election was held, setting forth the grounds upon which the primary election is contested; and it shall be the duty of the executive committee to assemble by call of the chairman or three (3) members of said committee, notice of which contest shall be served five (5) days before said meeting, and after notifying all parties concerned proceed to investigate the grounds upon which the election is contested and, by majority vote of members present, declare the true results of such primary.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
2. Service of notice of contest.
3. Hearing procedures.

1. In general.

Nothing in the statute limits the committee's inquiry regarding the contesting of a primary election to allegations of fraud. Upton v. McKenzie, 761 So. 2d 167 (Miss. 2000).

When a political party Executive Committee meets to hear charges of irregularity concerning primary election contests, it sits as a quasi judicial body whose specific responsibility is to ensure the public of honest elections. The Chairman of the Committee is analogous to a judge and, in regards to recusal, an objective test is followed whereby "a judge is required to disqualify himself if a reasonable person, knowing all the circumstances, would harbor doubts about his impartiality." Pearson v. Parsons, 541 So. 2d 447 (Miss. 1989).

2. Service of notice of contest.

Where a political party's executive committee set a hearing for September 22, and served the contestant with notice of the hearing on Monday, September 15, since the time for service under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-921 — five days — was less than seven days, pursuant to Miss. Code Ann. § 1-3-67, the intermediate Saturdays and Sundays were excluded, and the candidate was timely served. Harpole v. Kemper County Democratic Exec. Comm., 908 So. 2d 129 (Miss. 2005).

3. Hearing procedures.

That a political party's executive committee designated only seven of its committee members to serve on a panel to investigate a candidate's charge of election irregularities did not violate Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-921, as the designation of a smaller panel satisfied both the "fast-track" requirement existing in election contests, and the committee gave full, complete, and serious consideration to the candidate's allegations. Harpole v. Kemper County Democratic Exec. Comm., 908 So. 2d 129 (Miss. 2005).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

A party executive committee is under an obligation to dispose of an election contest sufficiently in advance of the general election as will allow the orderly preparation of the ballot and conduct of said election by the county election commission. Townsen, Nov. 14, 1991, A.G. Op. #91-0886.

If the executive committee delays disposing of the contest and the election commission proceeds to have the ballots for the general election printed with the certified nominee's name included thereon and, in this case, conducts the general election and certifies the nominee in question as the winner, the committee, loses its jurisdiction over the matter and any findings by the committee thereafter would be of no effect. Townsen, Nov. 14, 1991, A.G. Op. #91-0886.

Absent an election contest, this section provides no authority to conduct an investigation with regard to an election result. Tate, Aug. 20, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0471.

§ 23-15-923. Nominations with respect to state, congressional, and judicial districts, etc.; investigation, findings, and declaration of nominee.

Except as otherwise provided in Section 23-15-961, a person desiring to contest the election of another returned as the nominee in state, congressional and judicial districts, and in legislative districts composed of more than one (1) county or parts of more than one (1) county, upon complaint filed with the Chairman of the State Executive Committee, by petition, reciting the grounds upon which the election is contested. If necessary and with the advice of four (4) members of said committee, the chairman shall issue his fiat to the chairman of the appropriate county executive committee, and in like manner as in the county office, the county committee shall investigate the complaint and return their findings to the chairman of the state committee. The State Executive Committee by majority vote of members present shall declare the true results of such primary.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

When a political party Executive Committee meets to hear charges of irregularity concerning primary election contests, it sits as a quasi judicial body whose specific responsibility is to ensure the public of honest elections. The Chairman of the Committee is analogous to a judge and, in regards to recusal, an objective test is followed whereby "a judge is required to disqualify himself if a reasonable person, knowing all the circumstances, would harbor doubts about his impartiality.” Pearson v. Parsons, 541 So. 2d 447 (Miss. 1989).

§ 23-15-925. Power of committee to subpoena and to attach witnesses.

For the proper enforcement of the preceding sections the committee has the power to subpoena and, if necessary, attach witnesses needed in said investigation.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. No requirement to issue blank subpoenas.

Where a contestant alleged irregularities in a primary election, there was no requirement in Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-925 that the political party’s executive committee issue him blank subpoenas, and its refusal to do so did not infringe on his right to have witnesses subpoenaed on his behalf to testify before the committee. Harpole v. Kemper County Democratic Exec. Comm., 908 So. 2d 129 (Miss. 2005).

§ 23-15-927. Filing of protest and petition in circuit court in event of unreasonable delay by committee; requirement of certificate and cost bond; suspension of committee’s order.

When and after any contest has been filed with the county executive committee, or complaint with the State Executive Committee, and the said executive committee having jurisdiction shall fail to promptly meet or having met shall fail or unreasonably delay to fully act upon the contest or complaint, or shall fail to give with reasonable promptness the full relief required by the facts and the law, the contestant shall have the right forthwith to file in the circuit court of the county wherein the irregularities are charged to have occurred, or if more than one county to be involved then in one (1) of said counties, a sworn copy of his said protest or complaint, together with a sworn petition, setting forth with particularity wherein the executive committee has wrongfully failed to act or to fully and promptly investigate or has wrongfully denied the relief prayed by said contest, with a prayer for a judicial review thereof. But such petition for a judicial review shall not be filed unless it bear the certificate of two (2) practicing attorneys that they and each of them have fully made an independent investigation into the matters of fact and of law upon which the protest and petition are based and that after such investigation they verily believe that the said protest and petition should be sustained and that the relief therein prayed should be granted, and the petitioner shall give a cost bond in the sum of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00), with two (2) or more sufficient sureties conditioned to pay all costs in case his petition be dismissed, and an additional bond may be required, by the judge or chancellor, if necessary, at any subsequent stage of the proceedings. The filing of such petition for judicial review in the manner set forth above shall automatically supersede and suspend the operation and effect of the order, ruling or judgment of the executive committee appealed from.

1. In general.

Appeal from a decision in an election contest concerning a primary mayoral race was dismissed for lack of jurisdiction under Miss. Code Ann. § 9-3-9 because documents required under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-927 were not included in the appellate record. Moore v. Parker, — So. 2d —, 2007 Miss. LEXIS 127 (Miss. Mar. 8, 2007).

In a contest concerning a county election, a special tribunal had subject matter because the losing candidate's petition for judicial review complied with Miss. Code Ann. § 23-1-927; no sworn document was required in front of a county committee, the verification was sufficient, the petition for judicial review did not exceed the scope of the initial complaint, and the cost bond requirement was satisfied. Waters v. Gnemi, 907 So. 2d 307 (Miss. 2005).

The statute does not define any specific irregularities which may be reviewed by a specific county executive committee, but rather provides for the filing of a petition in the circuit court where a county executive committee delays or denies relief to the petitioner. The irregularities which may be reviewed are not limited to such things as discrepancies in vote counting, the number of voters signing the registration book as compared to the number of ballots in the ballot box, illegal votes, and the security of the ballot box. Upton v. McKenzie, 761 So. 2d 167 (Miss. 2000).

Amendment of a petition for judicial review of an election contest is permitted under § 23-15-927 since Rule 15, Miss.R.Civ.P. permits such an amendment and there is nothing in the statutes conflicting with the rules regarding amendments. Pearson v. Parsons, 541 So. 2d 447 (Miss. 1989).

A petition for judicial review of an election contest was filed in the circuit court "forthwith," as required by § 23-15-927, where the petition was filed 9 working days (a total of 13 days including 2 week-ends) after the decision of the executive committee was rendered. Pearson v. Parsons, 541 So. 2d 447 (Miss. 1989).

Attorneys who are in fact representing contestant with respect to election contest are disqualified from providing certificate required by statute. McDaniel v. Beane, 515 So. 2d 949 (Miss. 1987).

2. Certification of petition.

What is required under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-927 to be attached to the petition for judicial review is "a sworn copy" of the petition filed with the county executive committee, not a "copy of the sworn petition" filed with the county executive committee. Court expressly overruled Robinson v. Briscoe (1976), and to the extent that Miller v. Oktibbeha County Democratic Executive Committee (1979) can be interpreted to have been decided based on Robinson, the court likewise overrules Miller. Waters v. Gnemi, 907 So. 2d 307 (Miss. 2005).

In a contest of the primary election for the office of county supervisor, an attorney who certified the petition was not disqualified by the fact that he served as attorney for the county board of supervisors at a time that the petitioner was a member of the board of supervisors. Upton v. McKenzie, 761 So. 2d 167 (Miss. 2000).

3. Sufficiency of petition.

Trial court erred in ruling that a contestant's petition for judicial review was fatally defective; the contestant had not been obliged to attach to the petition a copy of his initial letter to the committee requesting a recount. Harpole v. Kemper County Democratic Exec. Comm., 908 So. 2d 129 (Miss. 2005).

4. Requisites and sufficiency of petition.

Primary election candidate's blanket allegation implying that the incumbent sheriff illegally directed his deputies to transport prisoners to the polls never materialized into an actual claim of injustice since he never presented the claim with particularity or supported it with credible evidence. Harpole v. Kemper County Democratic Exec. Comm., 908 So. 2d 129 (Miss. 2005).

5. Illustrative cases.

Judgment of a special tribunal affirming primary results was affirmed where the election contestant failed to prove that a sufficient number of illegal votes were cast to change the results of the election; although he discovered some questionable ballots during trial, it was too late to raise those issues. Boyd v. Tishomingo County Democratic Exec. Comm. & Members, 912 So. 2d 124 (Miss. 2005).

Candidate's challenge to a primary election under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-927 failed, as the disqualification of the absentee votes (seven percent of the total votes) was not substantial enough to cause the will of the voters to be impossible to discern and to warrant a special election, and there were not enough illegal votes cast for the incumbent to change the outcome. Harpole v. Kemper County Democratic Exec. Comm., 908 So. 2d 129 (Miss. 2005).

6. Under former Section 23-3-45, generally.

The chancellor appointed to determine an election contest did not err in failing to order a new election, where the illegal votes cast were only 1.9 percent or at most 3.9 percent of the total votes cast, and where the results were not changed nor was any doubt or uncertainty cast on the result being in conformity with the will of a majority of the voters. Furthermore, the chancellor did not err in allowing petitioner's opponent to amend his crosspetition by deleting certain allegations of irregularities in certain voting precincts, since pursuant to § 23-3-49 [Repealed.], he had all the power of a chancellor in term time and since the usual rules of procedure prevailed. Pyron v. Joiner, 381 So. 2d 627 (Miss. 1980).

In a proceeding to protest an election pursuant to this section, the concurrence of the three commissioners who participated in the decision-making process fulfilled the requirements of § 23-3-51 [Repealed.], and the findings of fact by the presiding judge were not subject to review. The finding of the special tribunal convened pursuant to § 23-3-47 [Repealed.], that there was no evidence of fraud, casting of illegal votes, or that confusion caused by redistricting had any effect on the election, was supported by the evidence before the tribunal. Berryhill v. Smith, 380 So. 2d 1278 (Miss. 1980).

Where the special tribunal held that votes of more than one-third of the voters in primary election for office of supervisor, were held void for failure to comply with mandatory provisions of the statute, it was impossible for one to reasonably say that result arrived at by the special tribunal represented the will of the voters. May v. Layton, 213 Miss. 129, 55 So. 2d 460 (1951).

Where there is a total departure from the mandatory provisions of the statute and it is not possible to ascertain the will of the electors because a substantial portion of the votes were void, a new election should be ordered for the purpose of ascertaining a voter's choice. May v. Layton, 213 Miss. 129, 55 So. 2d 460 (1951).

In a proceeding to review a primary election contest, where the court decided that each of the candidates received an equal number of votes there was a tie and neither candidate is the nominee. Hopkins v. Wilson, 212 Miss. 404, 54 So. 2d 661 (1951), suggestion of error overruled, opinion modified, 212 Miss. 404, 54 So. 2d 924 (1951).

The statute is not solely for the benefit of contestants before the executive committee, but a contestee may appear before the committee and there present in writing by answer or by answers and cross complaint all of the facts which support his side of the case, and if the action of the committee is adverse to him he may appeal to the special judicial tribunal for a review. Darnell v. Myres, 202 Miss. 767, 32 So. 2d 684 (1947).

As in the case of a contestant, when the contestee would complain to the special judicial tribunal, he must show by exhibit with his complaint what he had placed before the executive committee, either by specific denial or by specific cross complaint, and wherein the executive committee had wrongfully acted or failed to act on what he had thus placed before the committee for its determination and action. Darnell v. Myres, 202 Miss. 767, 32 So. 2d 684 (1947).

The purpose of the act is that the proceedings preliminary to and during the course of a judicial review of a primary election contest shall be conducted with such diligence, expedition, and dispatch as will enable the trial court to have a full and orderly hearing and to conclude it in such time that, if practically possible, a new primary, if ordered, may be held before the day of the general election in November of the same year. Turner v. Henry, 187 Miss. 689, 193 So. 631 (1940).

7. —Time for filing petition.

Where the losing candidate in a municipal primary runoff election filed his original petition for judicial review 4 days after the decision of the political party's executive committee, and 15 days after that petition was dismissed by the special tribunal without prejudice he refiled for judicial review, his petition for review was filed "forthwith" within the meaning of that term as appearing in § 23-3-45 [Repealed.]. Shannon v. Henson, 499 So. 2d 758 (Miss. 1986).

Dismissal of a petition for judicial review of a primary election on a procedural point did not justify delay in filing a new and correct petition until after propriety of the dismissal had been determined by the Supreme Court. Darnell v. Myres, 203 Miss. 276, 34 So. 2d 675 (1948).

The word "forthwith" in this section [Code 1942, § 3182] is not susceptible of a fixed time definition, but depends upon consideration of the surrounding facts and circumstances, and varies with every particular case. Smith v. Deere, 195 Miss. 502, 16 So. 2d 33 (1943).

Where primary was held on August 24th, the first meeting of the county executive committee on August 25th, application to examine the ballot boxes before the committee was made on August 30, which was denied by the committee, notice by the contestant of the time for hearing was September 3, petition for mandamus to compel committee to permit examination of ballot boxes was filed September 4th; the petition for a judicial review before the special tribunal was presented on October 14th; the hearing by that tribunal was on October 21st, and judgment was rendered on October 22nd, 11 days before the general election, petition to special tribunal was filed "forthwith" in compliance with this section. [Code 1942, § 3182]. Smith v. Deere, 195 Miss. 502, 16 So. 2d 33 (1943).

Where the executive committee took action on October 4, the petition for review was filed on November 1st, and the special tribunal for the trial of the contest rendered judgment on November 13, after the general election, the filing of the petition for review was not "forthwith" within the purview of the statute, 26 days' delay being too long, under the circumstances. Turner v. Henry, 187 Miss. 689, 193 So. 631 (1940).

A delay of 26 days in filing a petition for review, brought within the "forthwith" requirement of this section [Code 1942, § 3182] was not excused by a misconception of the petitioner as to the proper procedure. Turner v. Henry, 187 Miss. 689, 193 So. 631 (1940).

The term "forthwith" in this section [Code 1942, § 3182] is a relative one and means within such time as to permit that which is to be done lawfully and orderly and effectually according to the practical and ordinary force of the thing or things to be performed or accomplished; and it is, therefore, not to be used by way of a penalty when accidental interventions or difficulties of which the party is not to be charged with foresight, have upset what otherwise would have been reasonable calculations as to the available time. Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

Having regard to the fact that the Act fixes a specific time within which most of the steps mentioned therein are required to be taken, without specifying any time with respect to the filing of a petition for judicial review "forthwith," the Act recognizes that in this particular the fixing of a precise time limitation would be unwise and that the circumstances of each particular case should govern. Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

The filing of a petition for a judicial review of a primary election of October 25 after a primary on August 29, having regard to the particular circumstances involved, satisfied the statutory requirement of a filing "forthwith." Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

8.—Requisites and sufficiency of petition.

Losing candidate's petition for judicial review of a primary judicial election was dismissed for failure to state a cause of action because the losing candidate failed to request and view the ballots within the 12-day time frame mandated by Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-911; additionally, his petition before the county political party's executive committee and the petition for judicial review did not demonstrate any substantially different basis for the petition or new investigation. Cook v. Brown, 909 So. 2d 1075 (Miss. 2005).

Losing candidate's petition for judicial review of a primary judicial election was dismissed for failure to state a cause of action because the losing candidate failed to request and view the ballots within the 12-day time frame mandated by Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-911; additionally, his petition before the county political party's executive committee and the petition for judicial review did not demonstrate any substantially different basis for the petition or new investigation. Cook v. Brown, 909 So. 2d 1075 (Miss. 2005).

Failure of a candidate to comply with the requirement of § 23-3-45 [Repealed.] by pledging the independence of the investigation conducted into facts underlying his petition and protest regarding the results of a primary election did not require dismissal of his petition, since no allegations of bias or prejudice were made, and the challenge, which went to the fullness of the investigation that had been conducted, was the sort of inquiry proscribed by decisional law. Noxubee County Democratic Executive Comm. v. Russell, 443 So. 2d 1191 (Miss. 1983).

A special tribunal, designated to hear petitions to contest an election, properly dismissed petitioner's letter contesting election results for a supervisorial post where it was not sworn as originally filed with the Executive Committee. Miller v. Oktibbeha County Democratic Executive Comm., 377 So. 2d 917 (Miss. 1979).

The validity of a petition on appeal in a primary election contest, made merely on information and belief, is not to be measured by Code 1942, § 1294, modifying the rule requiring two witnesses or one witness and corroborating circumstances to overthrow and answer under oath, since the statute in question is after all but a rule of evidence. Fillingane v. Breland, 212 Miss. 423, 54 So. 2d 747 (1951).

Since the Corrupt Practices Act does not provide a form for verification of the petition on appeal, a petition made merely on information and belief is proper where the affiant states that the allegations thereof are true and correct. Fillingane v. Breland, 212 Miss. 423, 54 So. 2d 747 (1951).

The validity of a petition on appeal in a primary election contest, made merely on information and belief, is not to be tested by the fact that it would not support a decree if there were no answer. Fillingane v. Breland, 212 Miss. 423, 54 So. 2d 747 (1951).

No cause of action for judicial review of a primary election contest exists unless a sworn copy of the contestant's protest or contest before the executive committee is made a part of his petition. Darnell v. Myres, 202 Miss. 767, 32 So. 2d 684 (1947).

Allegations and proof by a contestant or a petition for judicial review of a primary election that a number of illegal votes were cast and counted to change the result of the election was sufficient, and he was not required to prove that enough of the illegal votes were actually cast for the contestee to give him the apparent, although not real, majority. Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

In order for it to appear that the executive committee has wrongfully denied the relief sought, it must appear either from the petition or exhibits thereto that if the matters complained of should be decided in the complainant's favor, the result would be that he and not the contestee would be the nominee for the office in question; without an allegation to that effect, the petition presents no cause of action. Hickman v. Switzer, 186 Miss. 720, 191 So. 486 (1939).

A petition for judicial review complaining of the dismissal by the executive committee of the petitioner's protest, a copy of which showed that it merely challenged the vote of one voting precinct without setting forth what the effect of sustaining the challenge and discarding the vote of the precinct would be as to whether it would change the result arrived at by the executive committee, was insufficient to constitute a cause of action under this section. Hickman v. Switzer, 186 Miss. 720, 191 So. 486 (1939).

It is contemplated by this section [Code 1942, § 3182] that, when a person desires to contest the nomination of another person and has the purpose to follow up his contest by a petition for a judicial review, his contest or petition or complaint before the executive committee shall be reasonably specific in his charges and not in mere general language. Shaw v. Burnham, 186 Miss. 647, 191 So. 484 (1939).

9. —Cross-petition.

The petition of a contestee for judicial review must be accompanied by a sworn exhibit of what issues he placed before the executive committee; this requirement cannot be met after the petition has been filed by annexing by way of amendment a sworn copy of the contestee's answer. Darnell v. Myres, 202 Miss. 767, 32 So. 2d 684 (1947).

When a contestant has made charges of wrong or illegality before the executive committee, the contestee, as a matter of right, may file a cross complaint with the committee, the cross complaint to be in reasonably specific and particular terms and not in assertions of mere generalities. Shaw v. Burnham, 186 Miss. 647, 191 So. 484 (1939).

10. —Certificate of practicing attorneys.

An attorney who is "of counsel" to the firm in which the petitioner's attorney is a partner is not eligible to make the certification of a practicing attorney that an independent assessment of the claim has been made. Esco v. Scott, 735 So. 2d 1002 (Miss. 1999).

The evident and material purpose of the requirement of the certificate of two independent practicing attorneys was to prevent, or at least to minimize, the bringing before the courts of captious or unsubstantial political contests of primary elections—that such a certificate would independently show that there was real merit from a substantial legal standpoint in the proposed contents, and would tend to forestall, in a large measure, spiteful partisan litigation which would needlessly cast doubt upon the future title of the successful candidates in the nomination for the public office involved. Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

The only facts which will disqualify a certifying attorney are: Employment of the attorney, past, present, contingent or prospective, by or for the contestant as his attorney in respect to the manner involved in the contest, or such facts as will disqualify a judge under § 165, Constitution 1890. Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

The investigation of a certifying attorney, as a quasi judicial officer, is not subject to a collateral inquiry as to how he made his investigation or how fully he made it. Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

The fact that a certifying attorney had an office on the same floor with one of the attorneys for the petitioner, and that he and petitioner's attorney were intimate friends and often associated together in cases, did not disqualify him under this section. Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

The certificate of two disinterested attorneys, required by this section [Code 1942, § 3182] to accompany a petition for judicial review, is just as important as the petition itself, and is jurisdictional. Pearson v. Jordan, 186 Miss. 789, 192 So. 39 (1939).

Where one of the two attorneys signing the certificate required by this section [Code 1942, § 3182] was an attorney in the case throughout the proceedings and was of counsel in the appeal, such certificate was equivalent to no certificate at all, so that the special tribunal was without jurisdiction to hear and determine the cause. Pearson v. Jordan, 186 Miss. 789, 192 So. 39 (1939).

The certificate required to accompany the petition for judicial review signed by attorneys who represent a contestant at the time their investigation of the matter is made, or at the time his petition for a judicial review is filed, is not a compliance with this section. Pittman v. Forbes, 186 Miss. 783, 191 So. 490 (1939).

The purpose of the provision of this section [Code 1942, § 3182] requiring a petition for a judicial review to be accompanied by a certificate of two practicing attorneys is to prevent persons declared party nominees from being harassed with trivial applications for a judicial review thereof, and contemplate, as the word "independent" connotes, a certificate by lawyers who are without bias or prejudice. Pittman v. Forbes, 186 Miss. 783, 191 So. 490 (1939).

11. —Practice and procedure.

Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-927 is silent regarding the amendment of pleadings. Therefore, Miss. R. Civ. P. 15(a) controls and amendments are allowed at any time before a responsive pleading is served; in the case at bar, no responsive pleading from the County Democratic Executive Committee was on record, and even if there was a response by the Committee served upon the candidate (who opposed the holding of a new primary election), in the record, Miss. R. Civ. P. 15(a) allowed the amendment of pleadings after a responsive pleading was served "by leave of the court." Jefferson Davis County v. Davies, 912 So. 2d 837 (Miss. 2005).

Where the original protest charged that only one ballot was illegally marked in ordinary pencil, the finding of the tribunal on appeal must be restricted to such allegation notwithstanding that an examination of the ballots showed that there were three such ballots cast for the contestee, since the petition on appeal may not overrun the allegations of the original protest. Fillingane v. Breland, 212 Miss. 423, 54 So. 2d 747 (1951).

In matters of practice and procedure under this act, in respect to which the act itself is silent, there will be applied the usual rules of procedure which prevail as regards other cases, and, therefore, §§ 594 and 595, Code of 1930 [Code 1942, §§ 1538, 1539], and the established practice thereunder, will apply to a petition for judicial review, as well as to any other action in a court, in the manner of voluntary dismissal without prejudice. Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

When a contestant has complied with the requirement of first filing his contest with and before the county executive committee, and although his petition for a judicial review must not assign any new or additional cause of action, it may be both amendatory of the causes of action or grounds for relief, as preferred before the executive committee, and supplementary as to all those material facts which happen during and since the hearing before the executive committee. Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

12. —Jurisdiction.

Candidate who challenged the decision of the County Democratic Executive Committee, which decided to hold a new primary election based on alleged improperly executed absentee ballots, correctly asserted in his petition, contrary to the allegations of the Committee, that the circuit court had jurisdiction pursuant to Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-927. The circuit court properly allowed the amendment of the candidate's unsworn petition by sworn testimony as to its content at the hearing, pursuant to Miss. R. Civ. P. 15(a), which controlled. Jefferson Davis County v. Davies, 912 So. 2d 837 (Miss. 2005).

In a state party primary election, protesting candidate filed a contest with the state party's executive committee alleging that errors in some precincts prevented citizens of a certain district from voting in the election; the officials of the state party's executive committee were concerned that they would not have time before the general election to decide the issue; therefore, pursuant to Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-927, the protesting candidate seized the reins of his complaint and steered it directly to trial court, which was a completely permissible procedure and, thus, the trial court had jurisdiction to hear the election contest. Barbour v. Gunn, 890 So. 2d 843 (Miss. 2004).

There is no jurisdiction to review the action of the executive committee if the contestants made no protest or contest in writing before that committee. Darnell v.

Myres, 202 Miss. 767, 32 So. 2d 684 (1947).

Where one of the two attorneys signing the certificate required by this section was an attorney in the case throughout the proceedings and was of counsel in the appeal, such certificate was equivalent to no certificate at all, so that the special tribunal was without jurisdiction to hear and determine the cause. Pearson v. Jordan, 186 Miss. 789, 192 So. 39 (1939).

13. —Scope of inquiry.

In a proceeding for judicial review of executive committee's order rescinding its order declaring the petitioner a nominee, the special tribunal did not have authority to determine that respondent, because of alleged violations of Corrupt Practices Act, was disqualified from holding the office of supervisor and for that reason could not run for the Democratic Primary and perhaps become a nominee for that office. Blakeney v. Mayfield, 226 Miss. 53, 83 So. 2d 748 (1955), error overruled 226 Miss. 53, 84 So. 2d 427.

Only matters presented by the original contest or protest before the executive committee can be reviewed or examined by the special judicial tribunal, except as to germane matters which happened during or since the executive committee hearing and matters which are merely explanatory or incidental. Darnell v. Myres, 202 Miss. 767, 32 So. 2d 684 (1947).

Whether the particular issues are presented by the contestant or by the contestee, it is the duty of the executive committee to act upon them, and its action, or refusal to act then comes within the scope of the inquiry which either the contestant or the contestee may present by proper petition and answer thereto before the special judicial tribunal called out the act. Shaw v. Burnham, 186 Miss. 647, 191 So. 484 (1939).

§ 23-15-929. Designation of circuit judge or chancellor to determine contest; notice; answer and cross-complaint.

Upon the filing of the petition certified as aforesaid, and bond, the circuit clerk shall immediately, by registered letter or by telegraph or telephone, or personally, notify the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, or, in his absence, or disability, some other judge of the Supreme Court, who shall forthwith designate and notify a circuit judge or chancellor of a district other than that which embraces the county or any of the counties, involved in the contest or complaint, to proceed to said county wherein the contest or complaint has been filed there to hear and determine said contest or complaint, and it shall be the official duty of the said circuit judge or chancellor to proceed to the discharge of the designated duty at the earliest possible date to be fixed by the judge or chancellor and of which the contestant and contestee shall have reasonable notice, to be served in such reasonable manner as the judge or chancellor may direct, in response to which notice the contestee shall promptly file his answer, and also his cross-complaint if any he have to prefer.

Trial court was correct in overruling the decision of the Jefferson Davis County Democratic Executive Committee, to conduct a new election for the Democratic nominee for Jefferson Davis County Chancery Clerk. The requirements to hold a new election under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-593 were not met, as § 23-15-593 authorized new elections for individual precincts if the requirements were met, not a new election county or district wide. To have held a new election county wide, the Committee would had to have determined that all precincts failed in material particulars to comply with the requirements of Miss. Code Ann. §§ 23-15-591 and 23-15-895 to such an extent that it was impossible to arrive at the will of the voters; there was no evidence that there were violations of Miss. Code Ann. §§ 23-15-591 and 23-15-895 and the committee exceeded its authority under Miss. Code

Ann. § 23-15-593 in ordering a new election. Jefferson Davis County v. Davies, 912 So. 2d 837 (Miss. 2005).

Although § 23-15-935 grants the special judge the power to compel the attendance of the election commissioners, this statute contemplates a situation where the special judge, in the interest of time and judicial efficiency, can proceed to hear the election contest without any one of the commissioners or all of them; the statutory framework relating to election contests requires that they be completed as quickly as possible in order that the scheduled primary elections can proceed as planned, as indicated by § 23-15-929 which directs the special judge to determine the election contest "at the earliest possible date." Hatcher v. Fleeman, 617 So. 2d 634 (Miss. 1993).

Section 23-15-929, which directs that the judge appointed by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court hear the election contest at the earliest possible date, should not be used as a penalty when accidental interventions or difficulties have upset what otherwise would have been reasonable calculations as to the available time. Pearson v. Parsons, 541 So. 2d 447 (Miss. 1989).

Among the members of a special tribunal formed to hear election contests, the special judge is the "controlling judge" of both the facts and the law, though the election commissioners sit as advisors in the determination of facts. Rizzo v. Bizzell, 530 So. 2d 121 (Miss. 1988).

2-5. [Reserved for future use.]

6. Under former Section 23-3-47.

Since the proceedings in a judicial review of a municipal primary election contest are in the nature of an appeal, no matter may be presented to the special tribunal which has not been previously heard and decided by the executive committee of the party. Shannon v. Henson, 499 So. 2d 758 (Miss. 1986).

In a proceeding to protest an election pursuant to § 23-3-45 [Repealed.], the concurrence of the three commissioners who participated in the decision-making process fulfilled the requirements of § 23-

3-51 [Repealed.], and the findings of fact by the presiding judge were not subject to review. The finding of the special tribunal convened pursuant to this section, that there was no evidence of fraud, casting of illegal votes, or that confusion caused by redistricting had any effect on the election, was supported by the evidence before the tribunal. Berryhill v. Smith, 380 So. 2d 1278 (Miss. 1980).

Where a petition for judicial review has been filed, and the petitioner takes a voluntary nonsuit, the chief justice is not without power to make a second designation of a judge to hear the same matter upon the filing of a second petition. Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

Upon the overruling of a demurrer to a petition for judicial review of a primary election and the contestee's declination to plead further, all the averments of the petition properly pleaded are to be taken as true in view of the concluding lines of this section. Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

§ 23-15-931. Issuance of subpoenas and summonses by circuit clerk prior to hearing; assistance by, and findings of, election commissioners; entry of judgment by trial judge.

When the day for the hearing has been set, the circuit clerk shall issue subpoenas for witnesses as in other litigated cases, and he shall also issue a summons to each of the five (5) election commissioners of the county, unless they waive summons, requiring them to attend said hearing, throughout which hearing the said commissioners shall sit with the judge or chancellor as advisors or assistants in the trial and determination of the facts, and as assistants in counts, calculations and inspections, and in seeing to it that ballots, papers, documents, books and the like are diligently secured against misplacement, alteration, concealment or loss both in the sessions and during recesses or adjournments; the judge or chancellor being, however, the controlling judge both of the facts and the law, and to have all the power in every respect of a chancellor in term time; and the tribunal shall be attended by the sheriff, and clerk, each with sufficient deputies, and by a court reporter. The special tribunal so constituted shall fully hear the contest or complaint de novo, and the original contestant before the party executive committee shall have the burden of proof and the burden of going forward with the evidence in the hearing before the special tribunal. The special tribunal, after the contest or complaint shall have been fully heard anew, shall make a finding dictated to the reporter covering all controverted material issues of fact, together with any dissents of any commissioner, and thereupon, the trial judge shall enter the judgment which the county executive committee should have entered, of which the election commissioners shall take judicial notice, or if the matter be one within the jurisdiction of the State Executive Committee, the judgment shall be certified and promptly forwarded to the Secretary of the State Executive Committee, and in the absence of an appeal, it shall be the duty of the State Executive Committee forthwith to reassemble and revise any decision theretofore made by it so as to conform to the judicial judgment aforesaid; provided that when the contest is upon a complaint filed with the State Executive Committee and the petition to the court avers that the wrong or irregularity is one which occurred wholly within the proceedings of the state committee, the petition to the court shall be filed in the circuit or chancery court of Hinds County and, after notice served, shall be promptly heard by the circuit judge or chancellor of that county, without the attendance of commissioners.

1. In general.

By virtue of § 23-15-931, the special judge is the "controlling judge" of both the facts and the law in an election contest hearing, though the election commissioners sit as advisors to the determination of the facts; the statute strongly suggests that the special judge is the "true trier of facts." Hatcher v. Fleeman, 617 So. 2d 634 (Miss. 1993).

The trial court in a judicial review of a primary election contest had the authority to require the withdrawal of both parties' attorneys where the judge was told that both attorneys were to be witnesses on the contested issues of the election. Pearson v. Parsons, 541 So. 2d 447 (Miss. 1989).

Administrative law and procedures apply to a trial de novo of an election committee. It is a trial de novo when new and additional evidence is received by the Special Tribunal in addition to the proceedings below and when the executive committee's findings are not considered as conclusive. Pearson v. Parsons, 541 So. 2d 447 (Miss. 1989).

6. Under former Section 23-3-49.

State judicial elections come within coverage of "results test" provisions of § 2 of Voting Rights Act of 1965 (42 USCS § 773), as amended in 1982; if term “representatives” limited coverage with respect to judicial elections, limitation would exclude all claims involving judicial elections; better reading of term describes winners of representative, popular elections. Chisom v. Roemer, 501 U.S. 380, 111 S. Ct. 2354, 115 L. Ed. 2d 348 (1991).

The chancellor appointed to determine an election contest did not err in failing to order a new election, where the illegal votes cast were only 1.9 percent or at most 3.9 percent of the total votes cast, and where the results were not changed nor was any doubt or uncertainty cast on the result being in conformity with the will of a majority of the voters. Furthermore, the chancellor did not err in allowing the petitioner’s opponent to amend his cross-petition by deleting certain allegations of irregularities in certain voting precincts, since pursuant to this section he had all the power of a chancellor in term time and since the usual rules of procedure prevailed. Pyron v. Joiner, 381 So. 2d 627 (Miss. 1980).

A petition for judicial review of a primary election contest 22 days thereafter satisfies the requirement that such a petition be filed “forthwith,” where filed immediately upon the dismissal, for failure to meet statutory requirements, of a petition filed six days thereafter. Wallace v. Leggett, 248 Miss. 121, 158 So. 2d 746 (1963).

In a proceeding for judicial review for executive committee’s order rescinding its order declaring the petitioner a nominee, the special tribunal did not have authority to determine that respondent, because of alleged violations of Corrupt Practices Act, was disqualified from holding an office of supervisor and for that reason could not run for the Democratic Primary and perhaps become a nominee for that office. Blakeney v. Mayfield, 226 Miss. 53, 83 So. 2d 748 (1955), error overruled 226 Miss. 53, 84 So. 2d 427.

Evidence that after counting of ballots and before recount thereof circuit clerk failed to seal the ballot boxes in question and to keep a record of the seals as required by statute, and that such boxes and their contents were tampered with, warranted affirmance of order of special tribunal adjudging validity of election ballots as against contestant who received a majority on account. Allen v. Funchess, 195 Miss. 486, 15 So. 2d 343 (1943).

Where special tribunal’s findings of fact were unanimously concurred in, the only recourse of contestant on appeal was to show either that there was no evidence whatever to sustain the findings, or that there was no substantial evidence in support of the finding. Allen v. Funchess, 195 Miss. 486, 15 So. 2d 343 (1943).

Since the clerk of the circuit court is the clerk of the special tribunal, filing of bill of exceptions and cost bond by contestant, within time allotted for appeal by special tribunal, in the office of the circuit clerk and such clerk’s approval of bonds, were sufficient to place appeal in supreme court. Evans v. Hood, 195 Miss. 743, 15 So. 2d 37 (1943).

Where a contestant proved that sufficient illegal votes were cast at the primary election to change the result thereof, the lower court properly ordered another primary election. Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

The special tribunal set up by the corrupt practices act has no authority to go beyond ascertaining the will of the qualified electors participating in the party primary, and in this regard, it has authority and duty to determine whether those voting or offering to vote are qualified electors and entitled to vote, and whether in all substantial respects the election was fairly and honestly held in compliance with the various provisions of the law. McKenzie v. Thompson, 186 Miss. 524, 191 So. 487 (1939).

The special tribunal, under this section, is limited in its jurisdiction to determining the fairness of the primary election and the correctness of the result and has no jurisdiction to pass upon the qualifications of the successful candidate and determine his right to hold the office, if elected, since the latter raises a public and not a private question, the only remedy being in the nature of a quo warranto as to the general election under Section 3053, Code 1930 [Code 1942, § 1120]. McKenzie v. Thompson, 186 Miss. 524, 191 So. 487 (1939).

§ 23-15-933. Appeal from judgment; restrictions upon review of findings of fact.

The contestant or contestee, or both, may file an appeal in the Supreme Court within the time and under such conditions and procedures as are established by the Supreme Court for other appeals. If the findings of fact have been concurred in by all the commissioners in attendance, provided as many as three (3) commissioners are and have been in attendance, the facts shall not be subject to appellate review. But if not so many as three (3) of the commissioners are or have been in attendance, or if one or more commissioners dissent, upon review, the Supreme Court may make such findings as the evidence requires.

Determination of intent of voters of certain contested ballots is by its very nature fact inquiry to be made by Special Tribunal and Supreme Court's duty is to respect Special Tribunal's findings where it was not manifestly wrong. Wade v. Williams, 517 So. 2d 573 (Miss. 1987).

In a proceeding to protest an election pursuant to § 23-3-45 [Repealed.], the concurrence of the three commissioners who participated in the decision-making process fulfilled the requirements of this section, and the findings of fact by the presiding judge were not subject to review. The finding of the special tribunal convened pursuant to § 23-3-47 [Repealed.], that there was no evidence of fraud, casting of illegal votes, or that confusion caused by redistricting had any effect on the election, was supported by the evidence before the tribunal. Berryhill v. Smith, 380 So. 2d 1278 (Miss. 1980).

By this section [Code 1942, § 3185] the Legislature intended to facilitate speedy appeals in primary election contests. Anders v. Longmire, 226 Miss. 215, 83 So. 2d 828 (1955).

Where special tribunal's findings of fact were unanimously concurred in, the only recourse of contestant on appeal was to show either that there was no evidence whatever to sustain the findings, or that there was no substantial evidence in support of the finding. Allen v. Funchess, 195 Miss. 486, 15 So. 2d 343 (1943).

Evidence that after counting of ballots and before recount thereof circuit clerk failed to seal the ballot boxes in question and to keep a record of the seals as required by statute, and that such boxes and their contents were tampered with, warranted affirmance of order of special tribunal adjudging election ballots as against contestant who received a majority on recount. Allen v. Funchess, 195 Miss. 486, 15 So. 2d 343 (1943).

The special tribunal provided for hereunder is a proper inferior court from which an appeal might be taken direct to the Supreme Court. Hayes v. Abney, 186 Miss. 208, 188 So. 533 (1939).

A special tribunal, consisting of a circuit judge and the municipal election commissioners, was such an inferior court as might be established under § 172, Const of 1890. Hayes v. Abney, 186 Miss. 208, 188 So. 533 (1939).

Requirement of statute that appeals from decisions in election contests to Supreme Court shall be "referred to the court in banc" held not binding on Supreme Court, since constitutional amendment providing for separation of court into two divisions delegates to court itself and not to legislature duty of determining which cases shall be heard by division and which by court sitting in banc. Tillman v. Massa, 177 Miss. 170, 170 So. 641 (1936).

7. —Contents of bill of exceptions.

In a primary election contest where the appointed judge and the election commissioners unanimously found as to number of ballots cast, the attaching of transcripts of testimony before special tribunal to the appellant's bill of exceptions to the Supreme Court was in the face of the express prohibition of this section. [Code 1942, § 3185]. Anders v. Longmire, 226 Miss. 215, 83 So. 2d 828 (1955).

Purported bill of exceptions on appeal from decision of judge and election commissioners in election contest setting up some of contentions but failing to set up points of law with rulings thereon with synopsis of pertinent evidence and rulings sought to be reversed, nor containing statement signed by trial judge that bill was a correct statement of proceedings, but stating that bill did not set up facts established by cross-examination of witnesses by contestees or examination by trial judge, and was never presented to and signed by two attorneys as provided by statute on failure or refusal of trial judge to sign, held insufficient to confer jurisdiction on Supreme Court. McDonald v. Spence, 179 Miss. 342, 174 So. 54 (1937).

Contents of bill of exceptions contemplated by Corrupt Practices Act on appeal in election contest must include petition, answers, and exhibits thereto, points raised before special tribunal, setting forth rulings thereon, and pertinent facts necessary to an understanding thereof, in absence of which jurisdiction is not conferred on Supreme Court, and does not authorize sending up of stenographer's notes except in case of disagreement as to facts between judge and one or more of election commissioners. McDonald v. Spence, 179 Miss. 342, 174 So. 54 (1937).

8. —Appeal bonds.

The filing of an appeal bond with the clerk of supreme court within the time allowed by this section [Code 1942, § 3185] constitutes a sufficient filing of the bond. May v. Layton, 213 Miss. 129, 55 So. 2d 460 (1951); Evans v. Hood, 195 Miss. 743, 15 So. 2d 37 (1943).

In view of the fact that statute governing appeal from judgment of special tribunal in election contests is silent as to where required bond shall be filed or who shall approve it, and the fact that the clerk of the circuit court is by the statute the clerk of the special tribunal, a circuit clerk, under the usual rules of procedure, is the person with whom the appeal bond is to be filed and by whom it is to be approved, in order to place appeal in supreme court. Evans v. Hood, 195 Miss. 743, 15 So. 2d 37 (1943).

But if any one or more or all of the commissioners are absent so as to not be served with notice, or is or are physically unable to attend, the trial judge shall proceed without them or any of them, so that the hearing shall not be delayed on their account or on account of any one or more of them. When, under Section 23-15-937, the hearing is transferred in whole or in part to another county or counties, the election commissioners of the county or counties to which the hearing is transferred shall attend the hearings in their respective counties, subject to foregoing provisions in respect to absent or disabled commissioners.

If more than one county be involved in a contest or complaint, the judge or chancellor shall have authority to transfer the hearing to a more convenient county within the district, if in relation to a district office, or within the state if a state office; or the judge or chancellor may proceed to any county or counties wherein the facts complained of are charged to have transpired, and there hear the evidence and make a finding of facts relating to that county and any convenient neighboring county or counties, but, in any event, if possible with due diligence to do so, the hearing must be completed and final judgment rendered in time to permit the printing and distribution of the official ballots at the election for which the contested nomination is made. When any judge or chancellor lawfully designated to hear a contest or complaint, in this section mentioned, shall not promptly and diligently proceed with the hearing and final determination of such a contest or complaint, he shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor in office unless excused by actual illness, or by an equivalent excuse. When no final decision has been made in time as hereinabove specified, the name of the nominee declared by the party executive committee shall be printed on the official ballots as the party nominee, but the contest or complaint shall not thereby be dismissed but the cause shall nevertheless proceed to final judgment and if the said judgment be in favor of the contestant, the election of the contestee shall thereby be vacated and the Governor, or the Lieutenant Governor in case the Governor be a party to the contest, shall call a special election for the office or offices involved, if the contestee has already entered upon the term he shall vacate the office upon the qualification of the person elected at said special election, and may be removed by quo warranto if he fail so to do.

1. In general.

Where candidate one prevailed in an action contesting the results of a primary election and candidate two, who had run unopposed in the general election, had already taken office, Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-937 required that a special election be conducted; the court had no discretion to hold that a special election was not required. The court overruled the case of Hatcher v. Fleeman, 617 So. 2d 634 (Miss. 1993), to the limited extent that the court erroneously held there that a special election was not required. Smith v. Hollins, 905 So. 2d 1267 (Miss. 2005).

Special election was required under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-937 where the trial court erred in its calculation of votes for two candidates for supervisor in a State election, and the unofficial winner was to have remained in office until the results of the special election were certified. Smith v. Hollins, — So. 2d —, 2004 Miss. LEXIS 1454 (Miss. Dec. 9, 2004).

A special election was not warranted after the disqualification of 2 ballots by a special judge in an election contest hearing, even though the disqualification changed the result of the election, the election contest hearing was not held in the county where the dispute originated, the election commissioners were not issued subpoenas, and the originally successful candidate claimed he was not given reasonable notice of the hearing, where the 2 disqualified “affidavit” ballots were not in compliance with § 23-15-573 and were therefore illegal. Hatcher v. Fleeman, 617 So. 2d 634 (Miss. 1993).

6. Under former Section 23-3-55.

Where a successful challenge to a primary election did not reach the Supreme Court in time to have a primary election to determine the party's nominee prior to the general election, a special election for the office involved must be held. Clark v. Rankin County Democratic Executive Comm., 322 So. 2d 753 (Miss. 1975).

The person dissatisfied with the executive committee's decision as to the result of a primary election and seeking by means of a special tribunal to set aside the committee's findings has the burden of proof. Francis v. Sisk, 205 So. 2d 254 (Miss. 1967).

It cannot be validly asserted, even inferentially, that this section [Code 1942, § 3187], or any other section, contemplates that the original canvass of election results of the executive committee shall be reinstated merely by filing a petition for judicial review. Francis v. Sisk, 205 So. 2d 254 (Miss. 1967).

The decision of a county democratic executive committee rendered as the result of an election contest shall stand as the true results of the primary election unless and until superseded by a special tribunal, and it is to this decision that the presumption of correctness attaches. Francis v. Sisk, 205 So. 2d 254 (Miss. 1967).

The phrase “special election” is clearly intended to mean a special election in the usual sense of that term, and not a party primary. Blakeney v. Mayfield, 226 Miss. 53, 83 So. 2d 748 (1955), error overruled 226 Miss. 53, 84 So. 2d 427.

Under this section [Code 1942, § 3187] a party primary after the general election is not contemplated, before the calling of a special election, at least as to state, district and county offices. Blakeney v. Mayfield, 226 Miss. 53, 83 So. 2d 748 (1955), error overruled 226 Miss. 53, 84 So. 2d 427.

Where a special court improvidently granted a stay of the special primary election which it had ordered, no party nominee was selected for the office of supervisor and the general election was already held before Supreme Court's decision on appeal from judgments of the special court, a special election must be called and held. Blakeney v. Mayfield, 226 Miss. 53, 83 So. 2d 748 (1955), error overruled 226 Miss. 53, 84 So. 2d 427.

This section [Code 1942, § 3187] is applicable where contestee's nomination at second primary was adjudged invalid so that subsequent election of contestee in November election was void. Smith v. Deere, 195 Miss. 502, 16 So. 2d 33 (1943).

Although the statute provides for expedition in contest proceedings with the view of pleading the contest in time for the general election, if that can be done, this section provides that the contest shall not thereby be dismissed but proceed to final judgment, and if the judgment is in favor of the contestant, the election of the contestee shall thereby be vacated and the governor shall call a special election to the office involved, and if the contestee has already entered upon the term, he shall vacate the office upon the qualification of the person elected at such special election and may be removed by quo warranto if he fails to do so. Smith v. Deere, 195 Miss. 502, 16 So. 2d 33 (1943).

§ 23-15-941. Willful violation of election statute constituting criminal offense; issuance of arrest warrant; delivery of papers to grand jury foreman.

If upon the hearing of a primary election contest or complaint, under Section 23-15-931, it shall distinctly appear to the trial judge that any person, including a candidate or election officer, has willfully and corruptly violated any primary election statute and such violation is by said statute made a criminal offense, whether a misdemeanor or a felony, it shall be the duty of the trial judge to issue immediately his warrant for the arrest of the guilty party, reciting in his order therefor, in brief, the grounds or causes for the arrest. Such warrant and a certified copy of the order shall be forthwith placed in the hands of the sheriff of the county wherein the offense occurred, and the sheriff shall at once, upon receipt of the warrant, arrest the party and commit him to prison, unless and until the party give bond in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) with two (2) or more good and sufficient sureties conditioned for his appearance at the next term of the circuit court and from term to term until discharged by law. When the arrest has been made and the bond, if any, given, the sheriff shall deliver all the papers therein with his return thereon to the circuit clerk who shall file, and thereafter personally deliver, the same to the foreman of the next grand jury.

SUBARTICLE C.

CONTESTS OF OTHER ELECTIONS.

SEC.

- 23-15-951. Filing of petition; issuance of summons; trial by, and verdict of, jury; assumption of office.
- 23-15-953. Proceedings with respect to petition filed more than forty days before term of circuit court next after contested election.
- 23-15-955. Proceedings with respect to election of member of Senate or House of Representatives.
- 23-15-957. Power to compel attendance of witnesses and production of documents.

§ 23-15-951. Filing of petition; issuance of summons; trial by, and verdict of, jury; assumption of office.

Except as otherwise provided by Section 23-15-955 or 23-15-961, a person desiring to contest the election of another person returned as elected to any office within any county, may, within twenty (20) days after the election, file a petition in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county, setting forth the grounds upon which the election is contested; and the clerk shall thereupon issue a summons to the party whose election is contested, returnable to the next term of the court, which summons shall be served as in other cases; and the court shall, at the first term, cause an issue to be made up and tried by a jury, and the verdict of the jury shall find the person having the greatest number of legal votes at the election. If the jury shall find against the person returned elected, the clerk shall issue a certificate thereof; and the person in whose favor the jury shall find shall be commissioned by the Governor, and shall qualify and enter upon the duties of his office. Each party shall be allowed ten (10) peremptory challenges, and new trials shall be granted and costs awarded as in other cases. In case the election of district attorney or other state district election be contested, the petition may be filed in any county of the district or in any county of an adjoining district within twenty (20) days after the election, and like proceedings shall be had thereon as in the case of county officers, and the person found to be entitled to the office shall qualify as required by law and enter upon the duties of his office.

A person desiring to contest the election of another person returned as elected to any seat in the Mississippi Legislature shall comply with the provisions of Section 23-15-955. A person desiring to contest the qualifications of a candidate for nomination in a political party primary election shall comply with the provisions of Section 23-15-961.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.
- 2-5. [Reserved for future use.]
6. Under former Section 23-5-187.

1. In general.

Circuit court properly found that mail-in absentee ballots that did not comply with Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-635(1) were illegal since strict compliance was necessary; however, once it found that a losing candidate received the greatest number of legal votes, it was error to order a special election instead of utilizing Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-951. Ruhl v. Walton, 955 So. 2d 279 (Miss. 2007).

Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-951 (2001) was the proper statute for the trial court to apply in an appeal by the losing candidate for county election commissioner, who successfully alleged that the winning candidate was disqualified on the grounds of his residency in the wrong county. McIntosh v. Sanders, 831 So. 2d 1111 (Miss. 2002).

House of Representatives had jurisdiction to conduct proceedings in which it interviewed election commission and heard from candidates in disputed election for House seat; while statute allowed challenger to file petitions in circuit court, statute also gives legislature, or committee appointed to investigate facts concerning election of member, power to compel witness testimony and production of documents relating to investigation. Esco v. Blackmon, 692 So. 2d 74 (Miss. 1997).

While statute permits jury to be empaneled to decide issues in election contest, it does not mandate full trial of all issues before jury. Esco v. Blackmon, 692 So. 2d 74 (Miss. 1997).

A trial court properly ruled as a matter of law on an issue pertaining to the propriety of a town clerk's hand-delivery of 3 absentee ballots to her able-bodied relatives; while § 23-15-951 permits a jury to be impaneled to decide issues in an election contest, it does not mandate a full trial of all issues before a jury. Lewis v. Griffith, 664 So. 2d 177 (Miss. 1995).

Section 23-15-951 is the exclusive remedy for deciding election contest issues, of which the legality of votes cast is one, and, therefore, it would have been inappropriate to decide by declaratory judgment how to legally count affidavit ballots because that issue would not become ripe for judicial resolution until a statutory election contest was commenced following the election commission's certification. The initial determination of whether to accept or reject ballots in an election is statutorily lodged with the election commission; with the exception of remedial writs in aid of future jurisdiction, the judiciary is compelled to stay its hand until an election contest is filed in accordance with the statute. In re Wilbourn, 590 So. 2d 1381 (Miss. 1991).

2-5. [Reserved for future use.]

6. Under former Section 23-5-187.

Although ballots are controlling as primary evidence where their proponent affirmatively demonstrates that the integrity of the ballot box has been maintained inviolate, where the parties stipulate into evidence what would otherwise be both primary and secondary proof, the presumption of correctness of the results certified by the election commissioners prevails unless the jury finds the presumption overcome by some plausible explanation of the discrepancy. Thus, in a contest challenging the election of one candidate to a county board of education, the trial court properly upheld the election on the basis of tally sheets as enclosed in the ballot box, despite a discrepancy between the sheets and the actual ballot count, where the ballots and tally sheets were introduced into evidence by stipulation of the parties and where no explanation was offered by either of the parties for the discrepancy. Blakeney v. Hawkins, 384 So. 2d 1035 (Miss. 1980).

The only proper defendant in an election contest under this section [Code 1972, § 23-5-187, Repealed.] is the successful party in the election, and election commissioners who were improperly joined as defendants in the election contest had no such beneficial interest in the outcome of the election as would give them a right to appeal from a judgment voiding the election. Fisher v. Crowe, 303 So. 2d 474 (Miss. 1974).

In an action contesting an election, voters legally entitled to vote cannot be required to tell for whom they voted. Hubbard v. McKey, 193 So. 2d 129 (Miss. 1966), overruled on other grounds, O'Neal v. Simpson, 350 So. 2d 998 (Miss. 1977).

In an action contesting an election, a voter cannot be compelled to disclose how he voted if the legality of the vote is in doubt. Hubbard v. McKey, 193 So. 2d 129 (Miss. 1966), overruled on other grounds, O'Neal v. Simpson, 350 So. 2d 998 (Miss. 1977).

In an action contesting an election, the presumption of the legality of a vote must be overcome by affirmative proof before the voter can be required to tell for whom he voted. Hubbard v. McKey, 193 So. 2d 129 (Miss. 1966), overruled on other grounds, O'Neal v. Simpson, 350 So. 2d 998 (Miss. 1977).

One contesting an election has the burden of proof to show that voters were disqualified, and how they voted. Hubbard v. McKey, 193 So. 2d 129 (Miss. 1966), overruled on other grounds, O'Neal v. Simpson, 350 So. 2d 998 (Miss. 1977).

The power of the circuit court to issue a writ of mandamus to the circuit clerk to permit inspection of the ballot boxes is necessary, supplemental to and in support of the statutory right of candidate to contest a general or special election. Lopez v. Holleman, 219 Miss. 822, 69 So. 2d 903 (1954), overruled on other grounds, O'Neal v. Simpson, 350 So. 2d 998 (Miss. 1977).

Section which gives any candidate in a primary election contest a right to have full examination of ballot boxes at any time within twelve days after the canvass by the executive committee is in pari materia with this section [Code 1942, § 3287], in that it is indicative of a general policy of the state on a cognate subject matter to allow contesting candidates the right to obtain the facts concerning an election precedent to filing a contest. Lopez v. Holleman, 219 Miss. 822, 69 So. 2d 903 (1954), overruled on other grounds, O'Neal v. Simpson, 350 So. 2d 998 (Miss. 1977).

This section [Code 1942, § 3287] provides an exclusive remedy for one who contests the manner or results of an election. State ex rel. Livingston v. Bounds, 212 Miss. 184, 54 So. 2d 276 (1951).

When an election contestee pleads an affirmative defense he must set forth the grounds upon which his defense rests. Simmons v. Crisler, 197 Miss. 547, 20 So. 2d 85 (1944).

Election contestee's plea that votes of named individuals were invalid because they had not paid their poll taxes as required by § 241 of the Constitution was insufficient, even assuming that failure to have paid their poll taxes disqualified such voters, where the plea failed to set forth for whom alleged illegal votes were cast, so that trial court committed no error in striking therefrom all allegations relative thereto, and contestee would not be permitted to amend his plea where he stated therein that he did not know and could not ascertain for whom alleged illegal votes were cast until proof thereof was made at the trial. Simmons v. Crisler, 197 Miss. 547, 20 So. 2d 85 (1944).

This section [Code 1942, § 3287] limits the right to contest in the person or persons who were candidates in the election, and does not give a taxpayer or qualified elector the right to contest the election of a county officer. Jones v. Election Comm'rs, 187 Miss. 636, 193 So. 3 (1940).

This section [Code 1942, § 3287] does not authorize a taxpayer or qualified elector to contest an election abolishing the office of county attorney. Jones v. Election Comm'rs, 187 Miss. 636, 193 So. 3 (1940).

One who contested the election of another to a municipal office because of his illegal nomination in the primary, who made no claim to have been elected himself, was not entitled to contest the election, the proper remedy in such case being quo warranto, since the question is a public and not a private one. Omar v. West, 186 Miss. 136, 188 So. 917 (1939).

That contestee was disqualified from holding office did not affect legality of votes cast for him. May v. Young, 164 Miss. 35, 143 So. 703 (1932), overruled on other grounds, O'Neal v. Simpson, 350 So. 2d 998 (Miss. 1977).

As respects remedy by quo warranto, declaration of election commissioners that certain person received majority of legal votes cast at election and was duly elected could be contested only in accordance with statute providing for election contest. Warren v. State, 163 Miss. 817, 141 So. 901 (1932).

Judgment in election contest over office of county superintendent, in view of issues determined, held not res judicata, in subsequent quo warranto proceeding, of issue involving contestant's removal from State. Weisinger v. McGehee, 160 Miss. 424, 134 So. 148 (1931).

Writ of certiorari could not issue against county election commissioners, where it was sought to conduct in circuit court a contest of election. Board of Supvrs. v. Stephenson, 130 So. 684 (Miss. 1930).

Refusal of continuance in election contest held not to require reversal without showing that such refusal denied substantial rights. Tonnar v. Wade, 153 Miss. 722, 121 So. 156 (1929).

One claiming commissioner erred in counting votes, and that he should have been inducted into office, cannot bring quo warranto under this section [Code 1942, § 3287]. Loposser v. State, 110 Miss. 240, 70 So. 345 (1915).

In a contest for a county office it may be shown by the contestant that he was deprived of his rightful majority by the fraudulent practice of the managers at certain precincts in returning a greater number of votes than were actually cast, and receiving votes of persons not qualified electors, and votes which had been marked and furnished to voters by others in disregard of the constitution. Sproule v. Fredericks, 69 Miss. 898, 11 So. 472 (1892), overruled on other grounds, O'Neal v. Simpson, 350 So. 2d 998 (Miss. 1977).

Elections to municipal offices are not embraced herein. Easley v. Badenhausen, 59 Miss. 580 (1882).

The filing of the petition gives the court jurisdiction of the contest, and the failure to issue the summons at once does not authorize the quashing of the proceedings. Hall v. Lyon, 59 Miss. 218 (1881).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Although municipal governing authorities should not pay for legal costs incurred by a winning candidate or that candidate's party when an election is challenged, they may employ attorneys to represent the municipality's interest in upholding the validity of a general municipal election. Tennyson, Aug. 8, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0469.

Certain amendments to this section (enacted by H.B. 1537 [2000]), addressing contesting elections to legislative seats, have been precleared and are enforceable. However, the return to the practice of allowing a local judge hear election contests without the benefit of the appointment of a judge from outside the district has not been precleared, and thus, that portion of of this section is unenforceable. Bearman, Aug. 27, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0443.

§ 23-15-955. Proceedings with respect to election of member of Senate or House of Representatives.

Except as otherwise provided by Section 23-15-961, the person contesting the seat of any member of the Senate or House of Representatives shall comply with the provisions of this section. Section 38, Mississippi Constitution of 1890, provides that each house of the Mississippi State Legislature shall judge the qualifications, return and election of its membership. Pursuant to that authority, the House of Representatives shall have exclusive jurisdiction over an election contest regarding the seat of any member of the House of Representatives, and the Senate shall have exclusive jurisdiction over an election contest regarding the seat of any member of the Senate. An election contest regarding the seat of a member of the House of Representatives or the Senate shall be filed with the Clerk of the House or the Secretary of the Senate, as the case may be, within thirty (30) days after a regular general election or ten (10) days after a special election to fill a vacancy. Such procedures and precedents may be found in the Journals of the House of Representatives and of the State Senate and/or in the published Rules of the House of Representatives and of the State Senate.

1. In general.

Statute governing proceedings with respect to election of member of legislature does not provide for legislature to elect its own members, but rather merely allows legislature to examine elective process after winner is certified to determine if illegal or corrupt practices have taken place, and does not violate provision of State Constitution under which legislature may not elect any other than its own officers and state librarian. Esco v. Blackmon, 692 So. 2d 74 (Miss. 1997).

CONTESTS OF QUALIFICATIONS OF CANDIDATES.

SEC.

23-15-961. Exclusive procedures for contesting qualifications of candidate for primary election; exceptions.

23-15-963. Exclusive procedures for contesting qualifications of candidate for general election; exceptions.

§ 23-15-961. Exclusive procedures for contesting qualifications of candidate for primary election; exceptions.

(1) Any person desiring to contest the qualifications of another person as a candidate for nomination in a political party primary election shall file a petition specifically setting forth the grounds of the challenge within ten (10) days after the qualifying deadline for the office in question. Such petition shall be filed with the executive committee with whom the candidate in question qualified.

(2) Within ten (10) days of receipt of the petition described above, the appropriate executive committee shall meet and rule upon the petition. At least two (2) days before the hearing to consider the petition, the appropriate executive committee shall give notice to both the petitioner and the contested candidate of the time and place of the hearing on the petition. Each party shall be given an opportunity to be heard at such meeting and present evidence in support of his position.

(3) If the appropriate executive committee fails to rule upon the petition within the time required above, such inaction shall be interpreted as a denial of the request for relief contained in the petition.

(4) Any party aggrieved by the action or inaction of the appropriate executive committee may file a petition for judicial review to the circuit court of the county in which the executive committee whose decision is being reviewed sits. Such petition must be filed no later than fifteen (15) days after the date the petition was originally filed with the appropriate executive committee. Such person filing for judicial review shall give a cost bond in the sum of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) with two (2) or more sufficient sureties conditioned to pay all costs in case his petition be dismissed, and an additional bond may be required, by the court, if necessary, at any subsequent stage of the proceedings.

(5) Upon the filing of the petition and bond, the circuit clerk shall immediately, by registered letter or by telegraph or by telephone, or personally, notify the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, or in his absence, or disability, some other judge of the Supreme Court, who shall forthwith designate and notify from the list provided in Section 23-15-951 a circuit judge or chancellor of a district other than that which embraces the district, subdistrict, county or any of the counties, involved in the contest or complaint, to proceed to the county in which the contest or complaint has been filed to hear and determine the contest or complaint. It shall be the official duty of the circuit judge or chancellor to proceed to the discharge of the designated duty at the earliest possible date to be fixed by the judge or chancellor and of which the contestant and contestee shall have reasonable notice. The contestant and contestee are to be served in a reasonable manner as the judge or chancellor may direct, in response to which notice the contestee shall promptly file his answer, and also his cross-complaint if he has a cross-complaint. The hearing before the circuit court shall be de novo. The matter shall be tried to the circuit judge, without a jury. After hearing the evidence, the circuit judge shall determine whether the candidate whose qualifications have been challenged is legally qualified to have his name placed upon the ballot in question. The circuit judge may, upon disqualification of any such candidate, order that such candidate shall bear the court costs of the proceedings.

(6) Within three (3) days after judgment is rendered by the circuit court, the contestant or contestee, or both, may file an appeal in the Supreme Court upon giving a cost bond in the sum of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00), together with a bill of exceptions which shall state the point or points of law at issue with a sufficient synopsis of the facts to fully disclose the bearing and relevancy of such points of law. The bill of exceptions shall be signed by the trial judge, or in case of his absence, refusal or disability, by two (2) disinterested attorneys, as is provided by law in other cases of bills of exception. The filing of such appeals shall automatically suspend the decision of the circuit court and the appropriate executive committee is entitled to proceed based upon their decision unless and until the Supreme Court, in its discretion, stays further proceedings in the matter. The appeal shall be immediately docketed in the Supreme Court and referred to the court en banc upon briefs without oral argument unless the court shall call for oral argument, and shall be decided at the earliest possible date, as a preference case over all others. The Supreme Court shall have the authority to grant such relief as is appropriate under the circumstances.

(7) The procedure set forth above shall be the sole and only manner in which the qualifications of a candidate seeking public office as a party nominee may be challenged prior to the time of his nomination or election. After a party nominee has been elected to public office, the election may be challenged as otherwise provided by law. After a party nominee assumes an elective office, his qualifications to hold that office may be contested as otherwise provided by law.

Editor's Note — Laws of 1999, ch. 301, was House Bill 1609, 1998 Regular Session, and originally passed both Houses of the Legislature on April 3, 1998. The Governor vetoed House Bill 1609 on April 17, 1998. The veto was overridden by the State Senate and House of Representatives on January 5, 1999.

(5) The circuit court with whom such a petition for judicial review has been filed shall at the earliest possible date set the matter for hearing. Notice shall be given the interested parties of the time set for hearing by the circuit clerk. The hearing before the circuit court shall be de novo. The matter shall be tried to the circuit judge, without a jury. After hearing the evidence, the circuit judge shall determine whether the candidate whose qualifications have been challenged is legally qualified to have his name placed upon the ballot in question. The circuit judge may, upon disqualification of any such candidate, order that such candidate shall bear the court costs of the proceedings.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

- 1. In general.
- 2. Construction with other laws.
- 3. Parties.
- 4. Specificity of pleadings.

1. In general.

Where an incumbent candidate filed his petition challenging the qualifications of the successful Democratic primary candidate, but filed the petition pursuant to Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-963 and not Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-961, the petition was denied as untimely, as it was not filed within 10 days of the successful candidate winning the Democratic primary. Gourlay v. Williams, 874 So. 2d 987 (Miss. 2004).

The statute does not require that a petition filed before the election commission be sworn or that a copy of the petition before the election commission be filed with the circuit court. Ladner v. Necaïse, 771 So. 2d 353 (Miss. 2000).

2. Construction with other laws.

The requirement of § 1-3-75 that petitions be personally signed was properly applied to petitions filed pursuant to this section to contest the qualifications of a candidate for public office. Ladner v. Necaïse, 771 So. 2d 353 (Miss. 2000).

3. Parties.

A plain reading of the statute is that “any person” is not restricted to mean that the person must be a candidate for the election in which he/she is contesting the qualifications of a candidate. Ladner v. Necaïse, 771 So. 2d 353 (Miss. 2000).

4. Specificity of pleadings.

A petition met the requirement of specifically setting forth the grounds of the challenge when it stated that the candidate’s petition failed for want of the requisite number of valid signatures, listed the signatures in question, and obtained as many affidavits as time and circumstance allowed showing that the allegations had merit. Ladner v. Necaïse, 771 So. 2d 353 (Miss. 2000).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Because the employment a hearing officer by the county election commission to preside over an election contest convened under subsection (1) of this section did not have the statutorily required approval of the County Board of Supervisors, no compensation would be authorized. Griffith, Oct. 31, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0554.

§ 23-15-973. Opportunities for candidates to address people during court terms; restrictions with respect to political affiliations; penalties for violations.

It shall be the duty of the judges of the circuit court to give a reasonable time and opportunity to the candidates for the office of judge of the Supreme Court, judges of the Court of Appeals, circuit judge and chancellor to address the people during court terms. In order to give further and every possible emphasis to the fact that the said judicial offices are not political but are to be held without favor and with absolute impartiality as to all persons, and because of the jurisdiction conferred upon the courts by this chapter, the judges thereof should be as far removed as possible from any political affiliations or obligations. It shall be unlawful for any candidate for any of the offices mentioned in this section to align himself with any candidate or candidates for any other office or with any political faction or any political party at any time during any primary or general election campaign. Likewise it shall be unlawful for any candidate for any other office nominated or to be nominated at any primary election, wherein any candidate for any of the judicial offices in this section mentioned, is or are to be nominated, to align himself with any one or more of the candidates for said offices or to take any part whatever in any nomination for any one or more of said judicial offices, except to cast his individual vote. Any candidate for any office, whether nominated with or without opposition, at any primary wherein a candidate for any one of the judicial offices herein mentioned is to be nominated who shall deliberately, knowingly and willfully violate the provisions of this section shall forfeit his nomination, or if elected at the following general election by virtue of said nomination, his election shall be void.

§ 23-15-976. Judicial office deemed nonpartisan office; candidate for judicial office prohibited from campaigning or qualifying for office based on party affiliation; prohibition on political party fund-raising, campaigning, or contributions on behalf of candidate for judicial office.

A judicial office is a nonpartisan office and a candidate for election thereto is prohibited from campaigning or qualifying for such an office based on party affiliation. The Legislature finds that in order to ensure that campaigns for nonpartisan judicial office remain nonpartisan and without any connection to a political party, political parties and any committee or political committee affiliated with a political party shall not engage in fund-raising on behalf of a candidate or officeholder of a nonpartisan judicial office, nor shall a political party or any committee or political committee affiliated with a political party make any contribution to a candidate for nonpartisan judicial office or the political committee of a candidate for nonpartisan judicial office, nor shall a political party or any committee or political committee affiliated with a political party publicly endorse any candidate for nonpartisan judicial office. No candidate or candidate's political committee for nonpartisan judicial office shall accept a contribution from a political party or any committee or political committee affiliated with a political party.

§ 23-15-977. Filing of intent to be candidate and fees by candidates for judicial office; notification of county commissioners of filings.

(1) All candidates for judicial office as defined in Section 23-15-975 of this subarticle shall file their intent to be a candidate with the proper officials not later than 5:00 p.m. on the first Friday after the first Monday in May prior to the general election for judicial office and shall pay to the proper officials the following amounts:

(a) Candidates for Supreme Court judge and Court of Appeals, the sum of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00).

(b) Candidates for circuit judge and chancellor, the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00).

(c) Candidates for county judge and family court judge, the sum of Fifteen Dollars ($15.00).

(2) Candidates for judicial offices listed in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) of this section shall file their intent to be a candidate with, and pay the proper assessment made pursuant to subsection (1) of this section to, the State Board of Election Commissioners.

(3) Candidates for judicial offices listed in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section shall file their intent to be a candidate with, and pay the proper assessment made pursuant to subsection (1) of this section to, the circuit clerk of the proper county. The circuit clerk shall notify the county commissioners of election of all persons who have filed their intent to be a candidate with, and paid the proper assessment to, such clerk. Such notification shall occur within two (2) business days and shall contain all necessary information.

Laws of 1999, ch. 432, § 1, provides that:

§ 23-15-977.1. Signing oath to abide by election laws.

Simultaneously with filing the required documents to seek election for a judicial office, the candidate shall sign the following pledge under oath and under penalty of perjury:

“State of Mississippi

County of _____

I, (name of candidate), do solemnly swear or affirm under penalty of perjury that I will faithfully abide by all laws, canons and regulations applicable to elections for judicial office, understanding that a campaign for a judicial office should reflect the dignity, responsibility and professional character that a person chosen for a judicial office should possess.

Editor's Note — Laws of 1999, ch. 301, was House Bill 1609, 1998 Regular Session, and originally passed both Houses of the Legislature on April 3, 1998. The Governor vetoed House Bill 1609 on April 17, 1998. The veto was overridden by the State Senate and House of Representatives on January 5, 1999.

On January 15, 1999, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 1999, ch. 301, § 3.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Remedy.

Only remedy provided in Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-977.1 for offering false information in a pledge or oath is a criminal action for perjury, and it provides no civil claim or cause of action for the failure of a candidate to fulfill the pledge or oath; therefore, a chancery court had no jurisdiction to hear such a claim in an election dispute because it was unable to hear criminal matters. In re Bell, — So. 2d —, 2007 Miss. LEXIS 124 (Miss. Mar. 1, 2007).

§ 23-15-978. Placement of names of candidates for judicial office should appear on ballot.

The names of candidates for judicial office which appear on the ballot at the general election shall be grouped together on a separate portion of the ballot, clearly identified as nonpartisan judicial elections.

The term of office of judges of the Supreme Court shall be eight (8) years. Concurrently with the regular election for representatives in Congress, held next preceding the expiration of the term of an incumbent, and likewise each eighth year thereafter, an election shall be held in the Supreme Court district from which such incumbent was elected at which there shall be elected a successor to the incumbent, whose term of office shall thereafter begin on the first Monday of January of the year in which the term of the incumbent he succeeds expires.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. In general.

State judicial elections come within coverage of "results test" provisions of § 2 of Voting Rights Act of 1965 (42 USCS § 1973), as amended in 1982; if term "representatives" limited coverage with respect to judicial elections, limitation would exclude all claims involving judicial elections; better reading of term describes winners of representative, popular elections. Chisom v. Roemer, 501 U.S. 380, 111 S. Ct. 2354, 115 L. Ed. 2d 348 (1991).

§ 23-15-993. Each of judgeships deemed separate office; designation of positions for offices.

For the purpose of all elections, each of the nine (9) judgeships of the Supreme Court shall be considered a separate office. The three (3) offices in each of the three (3) Supreme Court districts shall be designated Position Number 1, Position Number 2 and Position Number 3, and in qualifying for office as a candidate for any office of judge of the Supreme Court each candidate shall state the position number of the office to which he aspires and the regular election ballots shall so indicate. In Supreme Court District Number 1: Position Number 1 shall be that office for which the term ends in January, 1966; Position Number 2 shall be that office for which the term ends in January, 1965; and Position Number 3 shall be that office for which the term ends in January, 1969. The United States Attorney General, by letter dated July 22, 2002, interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 to the amendment of this section by Laws of 2002, ch. 356. The amendment was contingent on ratification, by the electorate, of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 543 (Laws 2002, ch. 713). Ratification having failed, the amendment did not become law.

Laws of 2002, ch. 356, § 6, provides as follows:

“SECTION 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, provided that Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 543, 2002 Regular Session [Laws, 2002, ch.713], is ratified by the electorate.”

Laws of 2002, ch. 713 (Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 543) provides in pertinent part:

“BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI, That the following amendment to the Mississippi Constitution of 1890 is proposed to the qualified electors of the state:

“Amend Section 153, Mississippi Constitution of 1890, to read as follows:

“Section 153. The judges of the circuit and chancery courts shall be elected by the people in a manner and at a time to be provided by the Legislature. The judges elected for a term of office beginning from and after January 1, 2003, shall hold their office for a term of six (6) years.

“BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this proposed amendment shall be submitted by the Secretary of State to the qualified electors at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November 2002, as provided by Section 273 of the Constitution and by general law.

“BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the explanation of this proposed amendment for the ballot shall read as follows: ‘This proposed constitutional amendment increases the terms of office of circuit and chancery court judges from four to six years beginning January 1, 2003.'

"BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Attorney General of the State of Mississippi shall submit this resolution, immediately upon adoption by the Legislature, to the Attorney General of the United States or to the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, in accordance with the provisions of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended."

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. At-large elections.

Since the State Legislature failed in its duty to provide for new congressional districts after its delegation to the United States House of Representatives was reduced from five representatives to four representatives following the decennial census, the default procedure under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-1039 provided for at-large elections; however, such a procedure could not be presently used since the State was under a federal court injunction directing that it use the congressional districts drawn by the three-judge federal trial court and, thus, that the court either had to vacate the injunction or the State Legislature had to draw a redistricting plan meeting federal voting law requirements before an at-large election could be held. Mauldin v. Branch, 866 So. 2d 429 (Miss. 2003).

Although the philosophy of the National Democratic Party may be altruistic in the apportionment of its delegates, there is in reality no possible method or manner by which a state convention through its "grass roots" and precinct levels can select by secret ballot, in a democratic fashion, a proportionate representation of individuals to comply with such a theory. Riddell v.

The essential aim of Code 1942, §§ 3107, 3107-02, 3107-04 and 3107-06 controlling political party electoral processes is that voters and those who wish to participate have notice of the caucuses and conventions at a fixed time and place, with an unfettered opportunity to participate, free from confusion and intimidation. Riddell v. National Democratic Party, 344 F. Supp. 908 (S.D. Miss. 1972), rev'd on other grounds, 508 F.2d 770 (5th Cir. 1975).

The provisions of this section [Code 1942, § 3107] of a method whereby the state political party conventions may select two slates of presidential electors, one slate pledged to support the nominee of the national political party, and one slate unpledged, offends no provision of the United States Constitution, for this section expressly provides that nothing therein shall prohibit a slate of electors pledged to support the national party candidate from running on the same general election ballot, and Code 1942, § 3260 enables such a slate to get on the ballot upon the petition of 1,000 voters. Gray v. State of Mississippi, 233 F. Supp. 139 (N.D. Miss. 1964).

This section [Code 1942, § 3107] applies uniformly to all members of the electorate and the one man-one vote principle is in no way violated, and the section does not on its face discriminate among voters or between political parties. Gray v. State of Mississippi, 233 F. Supp. 139 (N.D. Miss. 1964).

Mississippi voters are not denied the opportunity to vote for electors pledged to support a national party nominee under the provisions of this section [Code 1942, § 3107], but they are denied the opportunity to vote for a pledged slate running under the national party label. Gray v. State of Mississippi, 233 F. Supp. 139 (N.D. Miss. 1964).

§ 23-15-1055. Methods and procedures for selection of delegates and delegate alternates to national nominating conventions.

The state executive committee of each political party shall determine the method and procedures by which delegates and delegate alternates to the national nominating conventions are to be selected as well as adopt any other rule not inconsistent with this chapter. The state executive committee of the political party shall establish, at least ninety (90) days prior to the second Tuesday in March in years in which a presidential election is held, procedures to be followed in the nomination of candidates for delegates and delegate alternates to the nominating convention of the political party. A copy of any rule or regulation adopted by the state executive committee shall be sent to the Secretary of State within seven (7) days after its adoption to become a public record.

§ 23-15-1057. Reconvening of state convention; delegates, notice, and power and authority.

The State Executive Committee of a political party selected in the manner provided by Section 23-15-1053, in the event sufficient cause should arise, and a majority of the membership of the State Executive Committee deems such to be necessary for the best interest of their political party and the state, are authorized and empowered to reconvene the state convention that selected them as members of the State Executive Committee at any time after the adjournment of said convention, but not later than the last day of the year in which said convention was held.

The delegates chosen from the respective counties to a state convention in accordance with Section 23-15-1055 shall continue to be delegates from such county to said convention for a period not later than the last day of the year in which said convention was held.

Said convention may be reconvened upon the call of the Chairman of the State Executive Committee, the chairman to issue said call for a reconvening of a state convention only by and with the approval of a majority of the State Executive Committee. At least ten (10) days notice shall be given by the Chairman of the State Executive Committee of the reconvening of the state convention, such notice to be given by publication of the call of the chairman in any newspaper or newspapers having general circulation throughout the state.

In the event a state convention is reconvened as herein provided, said state convention may exercise all the power and authority conferred upon said convention by Section 23-15-1055, and in addition thereto may revise or rescind any action taken at its previous regular session.

§ 23-15-1059. Registration on behalf of state executive committees.

The chairman or secretary of the state executive committee of each political party chosen as provided in Section 23-15-1053 shall register the name of the political party it represents, and the names of all organizations officially sanctioned by the political party, with the Secretary of State within thirty (30) days after the effective date of this section. Thereafter, no political party shall use or register any name which is the same as or deceptively similar to the name of a political party or officially sanctioned organization which has already been registered with the Secretary of State by any other political party. No political party or officially sanctioned organization shall use any name in any campaign literature listing or describing its candidates which does not correspond with the name of said political party or officially sanctioned organization registered with the Secretary of State.

Any political party hereafter organized under the laws of this state shall register with the Secretary of State in the manner as herein provided and within thirty (30) days after such organization.

That portion of this statute which grants the political party first to register a particular name the exclusive rights to every part of the name registered is unconstitutional. Riddell v. National Democratic Party, 508 F.2d 770 (5th Cir. 1975).

name because another party has already appropriated that name, this was a denial of due process.

Statute, which provided that when a political party registers no other political party may use that name which has already been registered, as applied, prevents a political party which had used the word Republican in its name for many years, from using this name because another organization had registered the word Republican was not unconstitutional as denying the right to reassemble and petition the government or as depriving members of their liberty and property without due process of law, or as denying right of freedom of speech and of press or as destroying liberty of members of the political party to organize and associate themselves with others for political purposes and as denying for them the right to freely exercise their franchise. *Hoskins v. Although the philosophy of the National Democratic Party may be altruistic in the apportionment of its delegates, there is in reality no possible method or manner by which a state convention through its "grass roots" and precinct levels can select by secret ballot, in a democratic fashion, a proportionate representation of individuals to comply with such a theory. *Riddell v. Where a political organization which for many years had used the word Republican in its name and then changed the name but continued the use of the word Republican and changing of name did not alter organization or membership or officers or representatives of this organization, this name change did not justify a rejection of application for registration under the statutes. *Hoskins v. § 23-15-1081. Presidential preference primaries; electors to vote in primary of only one party.

A presidential preference primary may be held on the second Tuesday in March of each year in which a President of the United States is to be elected. Each political party which has cast for its candidates for President and Vice President in the previous presidential election more than twenty percent (20%) of the total vote cast for President and Vice President in the state, may conduct a presidential preference primary. No elector shall vote in the primary of more than one (1) political party in the same presidential preference primary.

The chairman of a party's State Executive Committee shall notify the Secretary of State if the party intends to hold a presidential preference primary. The Secretary of State shall be notified prior to December 1 of the year preceding the year in which a presidential preference primary may be held pursuant to Section 23-15-1081. Upon such notification, the Secretary of State shall issue a proclamation setting every party's congressional and senatorial primary elections that are to be held in the year in which the presidential preference primary is to be held on the date provided for in Section 23-15-1083. Once the Secretary of State has issued a proclamation pursuant to this section, the date of the congressional and senatorial primary elections shall not be changed.

The Secretary of State shall place the name of a candidate upon the presidential preference primary ballot when the Secretary of State shall have determined that such a candidate is generally recognized throughout the United States or Mississippi as a candidate for the nomination of President of the United States.

On or before December 15 immediately preceding a presidential preference primary election the Secretary of State shall publicly announce and distribute to the news media for publication a list of the candidates he intends to place on the ballot at the following presidential preference primary election. Following this announcement he may add candidates to his selection, but he may not delete any candidate whose name appears on the announced list, unless the candidate dies or has withdrawn as a candidate as provided in this chapter.

§ 23-15-1093. Petition in support of candidacy.

Any person desiring to have his name placed on the presidential preference primary ballot shall file a petition or petitions in support of his candidacy with the state executive committee of the appropriate political party after January 1 of the year in which the presidential preference primary is to be held and before January 15 of that same year. To comply with this section, a candidate may file a petition or petitions signed by a total of not less than five hundred (500) qualified electors of the state, or petitions signed by not less than one hundred (100) qualified electors of each congressional district of the state, in which case there shall be a separate petition for each congressional district. The petitions shall be in such form as the State Executive Committee may prescribe; provided, that there shall be a space for the county of residence of each signer next to the space provided for his signature. No signature may be counted as valid unless the county of residence of the signer is provided. Each petition shall contain an affirmation under the penalties of perjury that each signer is a qualified elector in his congressional district or in the state, as appropriate.

§ 23-17-1. Procedures by which qualified electors may initiate proposed amendments to the constitution.

(1) For purposes of this chapter, the following term shall have the meaning ascribed herein:

“Measure” means an amendment to the Mississippi Constitution proposed by a petition of qualified electors under Section 273, Mississippi Constitution of 1890.

(2) If any qualified elector of the state desires to initiate a proposed amendment to the Constitution of this state as authorized by subsections (3) through (13) of Section 273 of the Mississippi Constitution of 1890, he shall first file with the Secretary of State a typewritten copy of the proposed initiative measure, accompanied by an affidavit that the sponsor is a qualified elector of this state.

(3) The sponsor of an initiative shall identify in the text of the initiative the amount and source of revenue required to implement the initiative. If the initiative requires a reduction in any source of government revenue, or a reallocation of funding from currently funded programs, the sponsor shall identify in the text of the initiative the program or programs whose funding must be reduced or eliminated to implement the initiative.

(4) The person proposing the measure shall also include all the information required under Section 273, Mississippi Constitution of 1890.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Jurisdiction.

Sections 23-17-1 et seq. do not divest the Circuit Court of the First Judicial District of Hinds County of its jurisdiction as set forth in section 156 of the Constitution, therefore, this circuit court is the proper venue and has jurisdiction to review the facial constitutionality of proposed initiatives. Stoner v. Mahoney, 2000 Miss. LEXIS 205 (Miss. Sept. 7, 2000), subst. op., 774 So. 2d 397 (Miss. 2000).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

The sponsor of an initiative must identify in the text of an initiative the amount and source of revenue required to implement the initiative; if the initiative would reduce government revenues or would require a reduction of funds to programs or a reallocation of funds between programs, then the sponsor must set forth in the text of the initiative exactly which program or programs will be cut back or eliminated, and the sponsor must provide sufficient facts so that the voters are informed as to the effect of the initiative on sources of government revenues and current programs; if the sponsor asserts that no adverse impact will occur in sources of government revenues, the sponsor must establish a rational basis to support such assertion. Nunnelee, Mar. 23, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0738.

§ 23-17-3. Time for filing petition; length of time petition remains valid.

The petition for a proposed initiative measure must be filed with the Secretary of State not less than ninety (90) days before the first day of the regular session of the Legislature at which it is to be submitted. A petition is valid for a period of twelve (12) months.

§ 23-17-5. Submission of proposed initiative to Attorney General; review; recommendations; certificate of review; filing of proposed initiative and certificate.

Upon receipt of any proposed initiative measure, the Secretary of State shall submit a copy of the proposed measure to the Attorney General and give notice to the person filing the proposed measure of such transmittal. Upon receipt of the measure, the Attorney General may confer with the person filing the proposed measure and shall within ten (10) working days from receipt thereof review the proposal for matters of form and style, and such matters of substantive import as may be agreeable to the person filing the proposed measure, and shall recommend such revision or alteration of the measure as may be deemed necessary and appropriate. The recommendations of the Attorney General shall be advisory only, and the person filing the proposed measure may accept or reject them in whole or in part. The Attorney General shall issue a certificate of review certifying that he has reviewed the measure for form and style and that the recommendations thereon, if any, have been communicated to the person filing the proposed measure, and such certificate shall issue whether or not the person filing the proposed measure accepts such recommendations. Within fifteen (15) working days after notification of submittal of the proposed initiative measure to the Attorney General, the person filing the proposed measure, if he desires to proceed with his sponsorship, shall file the measure together with the certificate of review with the Secretary of State for assignment of a serial number and the Secretary of State shall thereupon submit to the Attorney General a certified copy of the measure filed. Upon submitting the proposal to the Secretary of State for assignment of a serial number the Secretary of State shall refuse to make such assignment unless the proposal is accompanied by a certificate of review.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

The intent of this section is that the final text of the proposed initiative and the certificate of review must be filed within the required 15 working days; if such is not done, the initiative is no longer valid and the Secretary of State should not assign the measure a serial number and should not forward same to the Attorney General. Carter, March 26, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0006.

A municipality, by and through its utility commission, may enter into contracts with parties for use of city property for antennae, provided that the commission determines, consistent with the facts, that to do so would be in the best interest of the municipality; and, although the city may contract with a third party to solicit and manage/oversee such contracts, the final contracts must be between the city and the users. § 23-17-7. Assignment of serial number; designation as "Initiative Measure No. ____."

The Secretary of State shall give a serial number to each initiative measure, and forthwith transmit one (1) copy of the measure proposed bearing its serial number to the Attorney General. Thereafter, a measure shall be known and designated on all petitions, ballots and proceedings as "Initiative Measure No. ____."

§ 23-17-9. Formulation of ballot title and summary of initiative measure.

Within seven (7) calendar days after the receipt of an initiative measure, the Attorney General shall formulate and transmit to the Secretary of State a concise statement posed as a question and not to exceed twenty (20) words, bearing the serial number of the measure and a summary of the measure, not to exceed seventy-five (75) words, to follow the statement. The statement shall give a true and impartial statement of the purpose of the measure. Neither the statement nor the summary may intentionally be an argument, nor likely to create prejudice, either for or against the measure. Such concise statement shall constitute the ballot title. The ballot title formulated by the Attorney General shall be the ballot title of the measure unless changed on appeal. When practicable, the question posed by the ballot title shall be written in such a way that an affirmative answer to such question and an affirmative vote on the measure would result in a change in then current law, and a negative answer to the question and a negative vote on the measure would result in no change to then current law.

§ 23-17-13. Procedure for appeal of title and summary.

If any person is dissatisfied with the ballot title or summary formulated by the Attorney General, he or she may, within five (5) days from the publications of the ballot title and summary by the office of the Secretary of State, appeal to the circuit court of the First Judicial District of Hinds County by petition setting forth the measure, the title or summary formulated by the Attorney General, and his or her objections to the ballot title or summary and requesting amendment of the title or summary by the court.

A copy of the petition on appeal together with a notice that an appeal has been taken shall be served upon the Secretary of State, upon the Attorney General and upon the person proposing the measure if the appeal is initiated by someone other than that person. Upon the filing of the petition on appeal or at the time to which the hearing may be adjourned by consent of the appellant, the court shall accord first priority to examining the proposed measure, the title or summary prepared by the Attorney General and the objections to that title or summary. The court may hear arguments, and, within ten (10) days, shall render its decision and file with the Secretary of State a certified copy of such ballot title or summary as it determines will meet the requirements of Section 23-17-9. The decision of the court shall be final.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Jurisdiction.

Section 23-17-13 deals merely with the Legislature's authority to direct venue, not jurisdiction; thus, the statute does not divest the Circuit Court of the First Judicial District of Hinds County of its jurisdiction as set forth in section 156 of the Constitution. Stoner v. Mahoney, 774 So. 2d 397 (Miss. 2000).

§ 23-17-15. Filing of instrument establishing title and summary of measure; notice to initiator; title and summary to be used in all proceedings.

When the ballot title and summary are finally established, the Secretary of State shall file the instrument establishing it with the proposed measure and transmit a copy thereof by certified mail return receipt requested, to the person proposing the measure and to any other individuals who have made written request for such notification. Thereafter such ballot title shall be the title of the measure in all petitions, ballots and other proceedings in relation thereto. The summary shall appear on all petitions directly following the ballot title.

Editor's Note — On August 3, 1993 the United States Attorney General interposed no objections under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to the creation of this section by Laws of 1993, ch. 514.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

The 12-month period for the collection of petitions for an initiative began to run on the date the proponent of the initiative received from the Secretary of State a court order amending the ballot title and summary for the proposed initiative and “finally establishing” same, rather than the earlier date on which the proponent received the original ballot title and ballot summary or the later date on which the appeal of the court order was dismissed. Scott, Sept. 20, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0586.

§ 23-17-17. Initiator of measure to print blank petitions; form of petitions.

(1) The person proposing an initiative measure shall print blank petitions upon single sheets of paper of good writing quality not less than eight and one-half (8 ½) inches in width and not less than fourteen (14) inches in length. Each sheet shall have a full, true and correct copy of the proposed measure referred to therein printed on the reverse side of the petition or attached thereto.

(2) Only a person who is a qualified elector of this state may circulate a petition or obtain signatures on a petition.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Validity.

Statutes requiring that initiative petition circulators be qualified electors of State and prohibiting per-signature payment of circulators violated First Amendment; there was evidence that payment of primarily out-of-state circulators, who would only work on payment-per-signature basis, was most effective and economical avenue of political communication, and State failed to prove fraud or actual threat to citizens' confidence in government from per-signature payment, or to demonstrate any reasonable justification for permitting signature gathering only by voters registered in State. Term Limits Leadership Council, Inc. v. Clark, 984 F. Supp. 470 (S.D. Miss. 1997).

§ 23-17-19. Secretary of State to design petitions; form of petitions.

The Secretary of State shall design the form each sheet of which shall contain the following:

“WARNING

EVERY PERSON WHO SIGNS THIS PETITION WITH ANY OTHER THAN HIS OR HER TRUE NAME, KNOWINGLY SIGNS MORE THAN ONE OF THESE PETITIONS RELATING TO THE SAME INITIATIVE MEASURE, SIGNS THIS PETITION WHEN HE OR SHE IS NOT A QUALIFIED ELECTOR OR MAKES ANY FALSE STATEMENT ON THIS PETITION MAY BE PUNISHED BY FINE, IMPRISONMENT, OR BOTH.

PETITION FOR INITIATIVE MEASURE

To the Honorable _____, Secretary of State of the State of Mississippi:

We, the undersigned citizens and qualified electors of the State of Mississippi, respectfully direct that this petition and the proposed measure known as Initiative Measure No. _____, entitled (here insert the established ballot title of the measure), a full, true and correct copy of which is printed or attached on the reverse side of this petition, be transmitted to the Legislature of the State of Mississippi at its next ensuing regular session, and we respectfully petition the Legislature to adopt the proposed measure; and each of us for himself or herself says: I have personally signed this petition, I am a qualified elector of the State of Mississippi in the city (or town), county and congressional district written after my name, my residence address is correctly stated and I have knowingly signed this petition only once.”

address, street and number, if any; city or town; county; precinct; and congressional district.

§ 23-17-21. Certification of petition by the circuit clerk; fee for filing petition.

Before a person may file a petition with the Secretary of State, the petition must be certified by the circuit clerk of each county in which the petition was circulated. The circuit clerk shall certify the signatures of qualified electors of that county and shall state the total number of qualified electors signing the petition in that county. The circuit clerk shall verify the name of each qualified elector signing on each petition. A circuit clerk may not receive any fee, salary or compensation from any private person or private legal entity for the clerk's duties in certifying an initiative petition. When the person proposing any initiative measure has secured upon the petition a number of signatures of qualified electors equal to or exceeding the minimum number required by Section 273(3) of the Mississippi Constitution of 1890 for the proposed measure, and such signatures have been certified by the circuit clerks of the various counties, he may submit the petition to the Secretary of State for filing. The Secretary of State shall collect a fee of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) from the person filing the petition to pay part of the administrative and publication costs.

§ 23-17-23. Grounds for refusing to file initiative petition.

The Secretary of State shall refuse to file any initiative petition being submitted upon any of the following grounds:

- (a) That the petition is not in the form required by Section 23-17-19;
- (b) That the petition clearly bears insufficient signatures;
- (c) That one or more signatures appearing on the petition were obtained in violation of Section 23-17-17(2), Section 23-17-57(2) or Section 23-17-57(3);
- (d) That the time within which the petition may be filed has expired; or
- (e) That the petition is not accompanied by the filing fee provided for in Section 23-17-21.

In case of such refusal, the Secretary of State shall endorse on the petition the word "submitted" and the date, and retain the petition pending appeal.

If none of the grounds for refusal exists, the Secretary of State shall accept and file the petition.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Validity.
2. Review of initiatives.

1. Validity.

Statutes requiring that initiative petition circulators be qualified electors of State and prohibiting per-signature payment of circulators violated First Amendment; there was evidence that payment of primarily out-of-state circulators, who would only work on payment-per-signature basis, was most effective and economical avenue of political communication, and State failed to prove fraud or actual threat to citizens' confidence in government from per-signature payment, or to demonstrate any reasonable justification for permitting signature gathering only by voters registered in State. Term Limits Leadership Council, Inc. v. Clark, 984 F. Supp. 470 (S.D. Miss. 1997).

2. Review of initiatives.

Proposed initiatives are subject to review of form and, therefore, content inasmuch as content affects form and form affects content. Initiatives must meet minimum constitutional and statutory requirements prior to being placed on the ballot to ensure full disclosure and notice to the electorate. Stoner v. Mahoney, 2000 Miss. LEXIS 205 (Miss. Sept. 7, 2000), subst. op., 774 So. 2d 397 (Miss. 2000).

§ 23-17-25. Procedure to compel Secretary of State to file petition.

If the Secretary of State refuses to file an initiative petition when submitted to him for filing, the person submitting it for filing, within ten (10) days after his refusal, may apply to the Supreme Court for an order requiring the Secretary of State to bring the petition before the court and for a writ of mandamus to compel him to file it. The application shall be considered an emergency matter of public concern and shall be heard and determined with all convenient speed. If the Supreme Court decides that the petition is legal in form, apparently contains the requisite number of signatures of qualified electors, was filed within the time prescribed in the Constitution and was accompanied with the proper filing fee, it shall issue its mandate directing the Secretary of State to file the petition in his office as of the date of submission.

Editor's Note — On August 3, 1993 the United States Attorney General interposed no objections under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to the creation of this section by Laws of 1993, ch. 514.

§ 23-17-27. Failure to appeal, or loss of appeal of, Secretary's refusal to file petition.

If no appeal is taken from the refusal of the Secretary of State to file a petition within the time prescribed, or if an appeal is taken and the Secretary of State is not required to file the petition by the mandate of the Supreme Court, the Secretary of State shall destroy it.

§ 23-17-29. Filing petition with Legislature; adoption, amendment, or rejection of initiative; placement of initiative on ballot; approval of conflicting initiatives.

The Secretary of State shall file with the Clerk of the House and the Secretary of the Senate on the first day of the regular legislative session the complete text of each initiative for which a petition has been certified and filed with him. A constitutional initiative may be adopted or amended by a majority vote of each house of the Legislature. If the initiative is adopted, amended or rejected by the Legislature; or if no action is taken within four (4) months of the date that the initiative is filed with the Legislature, the Secretary of State shall place the initiative on the ballot for the next statewide general election. If the Legislature amends an initiative, the amended version and the original initiative shall be submitted to the electors. An initiative or legislative alternative must receive a majority of the votes thereon and not less than forty percent (40%) of the total votes cast at the election at which the measure was submitted to be approved. If conflicting initiatives or legislative alternatives are approved at the same election, the initiative or legislative alternative receiving the highest number of affirmative votes shall prevail.

§ 23-17-31. Procedure for rejection of measure and adoption of new measure by Legislature; designation of "Alternative Measure No. ____ A"; fiscal analysis.

(1) Whenever the Legislature rejects a measure submitted to it by initiative petition and adopts an amendment to the measure proposed by initiative petition, then the Secretary of State shall give the measure adopted by the Legislature the same number as that borne by the initiative measure followed by the letter "A." Such measure so designated as "Alternative Measure No. _____ A," together with the ballot title thereof, when ascertained, shall be certified by the Secretary of State to the county election commissioners for printing on the ballots for submission to the voters for their approval or rejection at the next statewide general election.

(2) The chief legislative budget officer shall prepare a fiscal analysis of each initiative and each legislative alternative. A summary of each fiscal analysis shall appear on the ballot.

Editor's Note — On August 3, 1993 the United States Attorney General interposed no objections under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to the creation of this section by Laws of 1993, ch. 514.

§ 23-17-33. Ballot title and summary for alternative measures.

For a measure designated by him as "Alternative Measure No. _____ A," the Secretary of State shall obtain from the Attorney General a ballot title in the manner provided by Section 23-17-9. The ballot title therefor shall be different from the ballot title of the measure in lieu of which it is proposed, and shall indicate, as clearly as possible, the essential differences in the measure.

§ 23-17-35. Form of initiative measure as appearing on ballot.

Except in the case of alternative voting on a measure initiated by petition, each measure submitted to the people for approval or rejection shall be so printed on the ballot, under the proper heading, that a voter can, by making one (1) choice, express his approval or rejection of such measure. Substantially the following form shall be a compliance with this section:

INITIATIVE MEASURE NO. _____

(Here insert the ballot title of the measure.)

YES ()

§ 23-17-37. Voting for initiative when legislative alternative proposed; form of initiative measure and Legislative alternative as appearing on ballot.

If an initiative measure proposed to the Legislature has been rejected by the Legislature and an alternative measure is passed by the Legislature in lieu thereof, the serial numbers and ballot titles of both such measures shall be printed on the official ballots so that a voter can express separately two (2) preferences: First, by voting for the approval of either measure or against both measures, and, secondly, by voting for one measure or the other measure. If the majority of those voting on the first issue is against both measures, then both measures fail, but in that case the votes on the second issue nevertheless shall be carefully counted and made public. If a majority voting on the first issue is for the approval of either measure, then the measure receiving a majority of the votes on the second issue and also receiving not less than forty percent (40%) of the total votes cast at the election at which the measure was submitted for approval shall be law. Any person who votes against both measures on the first issue may vote but shall not be required to vote for any of the measures on the second issue in order for the ballot to be valid. Substantially the following form shall be a compliance with this section:

INITIATED BY PETITION AND ALTERNATIVE BY LEGISLATURE

Initiative Measure No. _____, entitled (here insert the ballot title of the initiative measure).

Alternative Measure No. _____ A, entitled (here insert the ballot title of the alternative measure).

VOTE FOR APPROVAL OF EITHER, OR AGAINST BOTH:

§ 23-17-45. Publication of initiatives and Legislative Alternatives; inclusion of arguments or explanation; public hearing; notice of hearing.

(1) A pamphlet containing a copy of all initiative measures and legislative alternatives, including the ballot title and ballot summary, arguments or explanations for and against each measure and alternative and the fiscal analysis prepared by the chief legislative budget officer shall be compiled by the Secretary of State. The sponsor may prepare the argument or explanation on the measure. If the sponsor does not prepare the argument or explanation, then the Secretary of State shall do so. Each argument or explanation shall not exceed three hundred (300) words. The Secretary of State shall publish the ballot title, ballot summary, full text of each measure and arguments or explanations for and against each measure and alternative once a week for three (3) consecutive weeks immediately preceding the election in at least one (1) newspaper of general circulation in each county of the state. The costs of such printing and publication shall be borne by the Secretary of State from funds appropriated by the Legislature.

(2) The Secretary of State shall conduct at least one (1) public hearing in each congressional district on each measure to be placed on the ballot and shall give public notice thereof at least thirty (30) days before a hearing.

§ 23-17-47. Definitions applicable to §§ 23-17-47 through 23-17-59.

For the purposes of Sections 23-17-47 through 23-17-59, the following terms shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section:

(a) "Contribution" means any gift, subscription, loan, advance, money or anything of value made by a person or political committee for the purpose of influencing the passage or defeat of a measure on the ballot, for the purpose of obtaining signatures for the proposed ballot measures and attempting to place the proposed measure on the ballot, and for the purpose of opposing efforts to place a proposed measure on the ballot; but does not include noncompensated, nonreimbursed volunteer personal services.

(b) "Person" means any individual, family, firm, corporation, partnership, association or other legal entity.

(c) "Political committee" means any person, other than an individual, who receives contributions or makes expenditures for the purpose of influencing the passage or defeat of a measure on the ballot.

(d) "Expenditure" means any purchase, payment, distribution, loan, advance, deposit, gift of money or anything of value, made by any person or political committee for the purpose of influencing any balloted measure, for the purpose of obtaining signatures for a proposed ballot measure and attempting to place the proposed measure on the ballot, and for the purpose of opposing efforts to place a proposed measure on the ballot.

On January 15, 1999, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 1999, ch. 301, § 17.

§ 23-17-49. Statement of organization of political committees; when to file; contents of statement; changes in statement.

(1) Each political committee shall file with the Secretary of State a statement of organization no later than ten (10) days after receipt of contributions aggregating in excess of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00), or no later than ten (10) days after having made expenditures aggregating in excess of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00).

(2) The statement of organization of a political committee must include:

- (a) The name and address of the committee and all officers;
- (b) Designation of a director of the committee and a custodian of books and accounts of the committee, who shall be designated treasurer; and
- (c) A brief statement identifying the measure that the committee seeks to pass or defeat.

Any change in information previously submitted in a statement of organization shall be reported and filed within ten (10) days.

§ 23-17-51. Political committees and certain individuals to file financial reports; when to file; penalties.

(1) A political committee that either receives contributions or makes expenditures in excess of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) shall file financial reports with the Secretary of State.

(2) An individual person who on his or her own behalf expends in excess of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) for the purpose of influencing the passage or defeat of a measure shall file financial reports with the Secretary of State.

(3) The financial reports required in this section shall be filed monthly, not later than the tenth day of the month following the month being reported, after a political committee or an individual exceeds the contribution or expenditure limits. Financial reports must continue to be filed until all contributions and expenditures cease. In all cases a financial report shall be filed thirty (30) days following the election on a measure.

(4) Any person, who violates the provisions of this section, shall be subject to a fine as provided in Section 23-15-813.

(2) It is unlawful for a person to give or offer any consideration to an elector to induce the elector to sign or not sign a petition for a measure.

(3) It is unlawful for any person that pays or compensates another person for circulating a petition or for obtaining signatures on a petition to base the pay or compensation on the number of petitions circulated or the number of signatures obtained.

(4) It is unlawful for any person to solicit signatures on any petition under this chapter within one hundred fifty (150) feet of any polling place on any election day.

(5) It is unlawful for any person who circulates or causes to be circulated an initiative petition to obtain or attempt to obtain a person's signature (a) by intentionally misleading such person as to the substance or effect of the petition, or (b) by intentionally causing such person to be misled as to the substance or effect of the petition.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. Validity.

Statutes requiring that initiative petition circulators be qualified electors of State and prohibiting per-signature payment of circulators violated First Amendment; there was evidence that payment of primarily out-of-state circulators, who would only work on payment-per-signature basis, was most effective and economical avenue of political communication, and State failed to prove fraud or actual threat to citizens' confidence in government from per-signature payment, or to demonstrate any reasonable justification for permitting signature gathering only by voters registered in State. Term Limits Leadership Council, Inc. v. Clark, 984 F. Supp. 470 (S.D. Miss. 1997).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

People gathering signatures on petitions that are not covered by § 23-17-57(4) may be within 150 feet of the entrance of a polling place but not within 30 feet of any room in which an election is being held; however, it is the duty of the election bailiff to insure that anyone collecting signatures does not, in any manner, impede the progress of voters coming into a polling place to vote. Sanford, Feb. 1, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0028.

§ 23-17-59. Unlawful to interfere with or influence vote of elector.

It is unlawful for a person to interfere with or influence the vote of an elector on a measure by means of violence, threats, intimidation, enforcing the payment of a debt, bringing a suit or criminal prosecution, any threat or action affecting a person's conditions of employment or other corrupt means.

§ 23-17-60. Removal of name from initiative petition due to fraud or coercion.

Any person who alleges that his or her signature on an initiative petition was obtained as the result of fraud or coercion, or that the person was intentionally misled as to the substance or effect of the petition, may have his or her signature removed from the initiative petition upon filing an affidavit to such effect with the Secretary of State anytime before the Secretary of State has accepted and filed the petition under Section 23-17-23.

§ 23-17-61. Penalties for violating §§ 23-17-49 through 23-17-59.

Any violation of Sections 23-17-49 through 23-17-59 is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one (1) year, or by a fine not to exceed One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), or by both such fine and imprisonment.
